Fine Tract Two Miles From International Falls Selected.

Resolution for Final Adjournment April 7 Sent to Committee.

Bill Affecting Salaries of Lake County Auditor and Treasurer.

By a Staff Correspondent.

St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 22.—(Special to The Herald.)—An experimental station and demonstration farm on state land in Koochiching county near International Falls is provided for in a bill introduced this morning in the senate by Senator Nord of International Falls, and in the house by Representative Miner of International Falls. It provides that 628 acres of state land, lying on both sides of the Minnesota & International Falls railroad, two miles from international Falls shall be taken for the purpose and appropriates $20,000 out of the general revenue fund to be paid into the permanent school fund in payment for the land. The tract is said to be an exceptionally fine piece of land, and admirably situated for the purpose. Its use for this purpose has been recommended by Former State Auditor Iverson and State Auditor Preus, and with a view to this use it was withdrawn from sale two years ago.

RHODE ISLAND IS ON THE ROAD TO REFORM

Radical Changes Proposed in Revision of State Constitution.

Providence, R. I., Jan. 22.—Radical changes are proposed in a draft of a revised state constitution, reported to the legislature today by a commission that has been studying the question for nearly three years.

The proposed instrument abolishes the property qualification now required of electors voting for certain officials and on certain financial questions. It apportions representation in the senate on a basis of population and enlarges the appointing and veto powers of the governor. It calls for biennial legislative sessions.

Important changes proposed in judicial procedure would permit a verdict in civil actions when nine or more jurors have agreed after six hours' deliberation and would allow the courts to place weight on the failure of a defendant in a criminal case to testify.

HOSPITAL FOR THE INSANE

Bill Introduced to Locate Fourth Hospital in Northern Minnesota.

By a Staff Correspondent.

St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 22.—(Special to The Herald.)—A fourth state hospital for the insane, to be located in Northern Minnesota, is proposed in a bill which was introduced in the house today by Representative Spencer J. Searls of Carlton.

The state board of control has asked for additional accommodations for the insane at several times, and at one time it recommended that the new institution be located in Northern Minnesota. It is still urging that a new hospital for the insane be established but it is recommended that it be placed near the Twin Cities.

Mr. Searls says that one-third of the patients now being received in state hospitals and asylums come from the territory covered by the bill introduced today, and he believes that the state interests will be better served by locating the institution closer to the source from which the patients will be drawn, thus saving mileage and other ex-

HE OPPOSES DELAY ON COUNTY OPTION BILL

SENATOR FRED D. VIBERT
Of Cloquet.

PLAN MEETS WITH CHECK

Senate Action on County Option and Woman Suffrage Delayed.

Hearing Granted to the Women Opposed to Suffrage Measure.

By a Staff Correspondent.

St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 22.—(Special to The Herald.)—The program of quick action in the senate on the woman suffrage and county option bills has met with a check.

Instead of the woman suffrage bill being a special order for Tuesday, it will be up for a public hearing before the house committee on elections Tuesday afternoon, though the committee has already voted upon it and probably will not change its vote after the hearing. However, the organization of women opposed to woman suffrage has asked for a hearing, and it has been granted.

And county option, instead of being up for action as a special order Wednesday, will be up for a public hearing before the senate committee on temperance Wednesday afternoon.

The friends of the bills declare that the delay will not be great, however, and they still hope for action on both measures next week, or the week after at the latest.

The county option bill was up for hearing and—according to the plans of its friends—for action before the temperance committee of the senate yesterday afternoon. However, members of the committee demanded time to consider the provisions of the bill, so the public hearing was postponed to next Wednesday afternoon.

Though the committee had before it the Lobeck prohibition bill and the F. H. Peterson "official" county option bill, it was the latter that was first taken up for consideration.

Representative Norton of Minneapolis, a member of the Anti-Saloon league, explained the bill to the committee.

Senator Pierre A. Hilbert of Melrose, who had just arrived in the committee room, asked that action be postponed

Copenhagen, Jan. 22, via London.—Messages received here from Berlin declare that the airships which raided England the night of Jan. 19, were Zeppelins of the latest type. They went forth from a secret base on the German frontier, carrying a full complement of men, heavy guns and ammunition.

German Official Version.

Boiler Tube Blows Out on U. S. Cruiser San Diego.

Eleven Men Are Also Seriously Injured By Accident.

On Board U. S. S. San Diego, Lapaz, Mex., Jan. 21, by wireless via San Diego, Cal., Jan. 22.—Four men were killed and nine seriously injured Thursday afternoon on board the armored cruiser San Diego when a boiler tube blew out after steaming trial of four hours had been completed.

The dead:

OSCAR J. WYATT, El Centro, Cal.

AMBUS J. HARDEE, Joplin, Mo.

WILLIAM F. ELLIOTT, Brooklyn, N. Y.

CLIFFORD A. WESTERN, Davenport, Cal.

All were firemen.

Immediately after the accident the cruiser left for Guaymas, where she arrived at 2 o'clock this (Friday) morning.

The San Diego is the flagship of the Pacific fleet, and is in command of Capt. Ashley H. Robertson.

Rear Admiral Howard's report gave this account of the accident:

"The San Diego completed her four hour full power trials and made 21.45. Just at the completion of the trials, a tube in No. 4 boiler ruptured, due to low water. No endurance runs were attempted. A full investigation has been ordered. Am proceeding to Guaymas."

Glidden, Indianapolis; Ledwith, Pueblo, Col.; Merriman, Wolbach, Nebraska; Miller, Downs, Kansas; Ohm, Yutan, Nebraska; Peterson, Racine, Wis.; Shappi, Laporte, Ind.; Tucker, Lead Mine, Mo.; Varnado, Port Arthur, Tex.

AUSTRALIA APPEALS FOR MORE RECRUITS.

London, Jan. 22.—William Morris Hughes, the acting premier of Australia, has issued an appeal for more recruits, says the Melbourne correspondent of Reuter's Telegram company. In his appeal Mr. Hughes says:

"Every available man is needed for the front as soon as possible. The German power is not yet shattered and remains resolute with its strength unimpaired."

Turkish Credits.

Berlin, via London, Jan. 22.—The Turkish parliament has voted mobilization credits of $190,000,000, says the Constantinople correspondent of the Tageblatt and has urged the government to immediately float $25,000,000 of this amount at 6 per cent.

BRITISH SHIP IS TORPEDOED

Crew Taken Off and Watch Their Vessel as She Goes Down.

London, Jan. 22.—The British steamer Durward, says a Rotterdam dispatch to Reuter's Telegram company, has been torpedoed by a German submarine. The crew was saved.

It was the German submarine U-19, according to advices from Amsterdam, which torpedoed the Durward.

The London papers interpret the sinking of the Durward as the beginning of a German naval policy alleged to have been urged by Admiral Von Tirpitz, the German minister of the navy against British merchant vessels.

The Evening Standard today prints a special article on the subject, pointing out that two small English merchant ships recently were sunk off Cherbourg, which together with the present episode, the newspaper says, tends to show the policy now being enforced "in an endeavor to starve England."

The Durward was a vessel of 1,300 tons and was owned in Leith, Scotland.

Saw Ship Top-Deck.

Amsterdam, Jan. 22, via London.—Members of the crew of the Durward say that they first sighted the German submarine in mid-afternoon and stopped the vessel in response to a signal.

German officers boarded the Durward. Covering the captain and crew with revolvers, they ordered all on board to quit the vessel immediately. Boats were lowered and after all hands had left the vessel the submarine towed the boats to a safe distance. There they were ordered to wait. The submarine returned to the Durward and sent three torpedoes into her.

It was 20 or 30 minutes before the vessel sank. The submarine then picked up the small boats and towed them for six hours, until they reached the Maas lightship. Then the Germans cast them adrift and went off at full speed.

Had Relief Aboard.

The Hague, Jan. 22, via London.—It was stated here today that the British steamer Durward had on board forty tons of provisions belonging to the American relief committee when she was sunk by a German submarine.

BOLD WOLVES BOTHER WISCONSIN CHICKENS.

Chippewa Falls, Wis., Jan. 22.—Wolves are so plentiful in Chippewa county that the county clerk is averaging from five to seven wolf scalp bounties every week. The scarcity of wild game in the counties north of here has left the wolves without winter supply of food. Consequently they have come down in large numbers into the settled districts and are raiding chicken coops and sheep pens and what other provender they can find. Their boldness makes them an easy prey to hunter's rifles.

DIVERSE OPINIONS ON LITERACY TEST ARE HEARD BY PRESIDENT

Over 500 Men and Women Crowd East Room of White House.

Time Apportioned Equally Between Opponents and Supporters.

Washington, Jan. 22.—Five hundred men and women—social workers, labor leaders and publicists—crowded the historic East room of the White House today at a public hearing before President Wilson on the immigration bill.

Three hours for argument were apportioned equally between the opponents and the supporters of the measure. Seated at a long table and flanked by his military aide in full uniform and some stenographers, President Wilson took his place promptly at 10 a. m. to listen to the argument for and against the literacy test, around which the fight on the bill is waged.

Speakers in favor of the measure contended the literacy test would improve the quality of immigration, those opposed to it declared it was no test of quality whatever, and that many aliens who would become desirable citizens would be kept out simply by an inability to read and write.

Advocates Bill.

J. H. Patten of the Farmers' National congress and the Farmers' National union opened the hearing for the advocates of the bill, saying he spoke for all organizations qualified to represent the farmers of the country. He said the farmers wanted further restrictions against immigration before ways of distributing them were worked out.

When Patten charged that many of the opponents of the bill desired to "Russianize" America, the president

He appealed to men of all nationalities and all regions to cooperate with the authorities in the prosecution of the war and the stamping out of the "spirit of Germanism which has taken a firm footing in certain frontier districts."

COMMANDER OF FRENCH TROOPS IN ALSACE

GEN. GALLIENI.

Paris, Jan. 22.—Gen. Gallieni is in command of the troops which are now being directed by the French against the Germans in Alsace and he is reported to be making ready for a supreme effort to reach the Rhine. Gen. Gallieni was made military governor of Paris when that city was threatened with siege. Since the Germans were beaten back from Paris and that city is no longer in danger he has been transferred to the eastern battle front.

JAMES J. HILL OPPOSES BILL

Says Merchant Marine Owned By Government Would Be Unwise.

To Buy Service By Means of Big Subsidies a Losing Game.

St. Louis, Mo., Jan. 22.—Two subjects practically monopolized the attention of the national convention on foreign trade at its session today—the "American Merchant Marine" and "Commercial Education for Foreign Trade."

The delegates awaited with interest the address of James J. Hill of St. Paul, who opposed the shipping bill now pending in congress. The bill also was opposed by Welding Ring of New York.

The matter of education for foreign trade was presented by Prof. Edwin F. Gay, dean of the graduate school of business administration of Harvard university. Among those who took part in the discussion on this topic were Prof. J. W. Jenks of Cornell university, Prof. G. L. Swiggett of the

NEUTRALITY OF HOLY SEE IS EMPHASIZED

Rome, Jan. 22.—The pope today held a private and public consistory in the course of which he preconized several bishops and delivered an allocution dealing chiefly with the war.

The pontiff emphasized the neutrality of the holy see and referred to his efforts to mitigate the disastrous consequences of the conflict. He urged his hearers not to heed those conditions which separated the faithful, but rather to consider those which made them brothers in the faith, and he called upon the invaders of territory of the enemy not to commit excesses.

In conclusion the pope invited all the faithful to participate in a great expiatory function in Europe Feb. 7, and outside of Europe March 21. He said that on Feb. 7 he and the cardinals would take part in a special service at St. Peters.

BATTLE ON THREE DAYS

Notwithstanding Flooded Trenches and Almost Impassable Roads.

French Advance Threatens German Communications With Metz.

Heavy fighting is in progress once more along the western front. Unofficial advices from Amsterdam tell of a hard battle in Belgium, between Ostend and Nieuport, which has been raging without interruption for three days, notwithstanding the rains, flooded trenches and almost impassable roads. At the other end of the line, near Cernay and Thann, in Alsace, there is artillery firing of unusual violence. Another encounter, along the Lorraine frontier, is increasing in severity, and on account of the importance of the issue may develop into a battle of the proportions of that of Soissons last week. The French advance made at Pont-a-Mousson threatens German communications with Metz and if carried forward successfully might result in cutting off the German forces in the region of St. Mihiel. The German line has been reinforced and some of the lost ground has been regained.

The Russian and German forces west of Warsaw have settled down in their entrenched positions and the battle line has become fixed almost as rigidly as in the west. In the north, however, the Russians are advancing toward the Prussian border, apparently having dispatched a large army for this movement. The campaign in Galicia and Bukowina makes slow headway on account of the heavy snow. According to reports from Russian sources, the retirement of the Austrians across the Carpathians is still in progress.

The Germans have halted the French advance designed to cut communications with the important fortress of Metz in Lorraine, and isolate the German forces in the St. Mihiel region. The official statement from Berlin today says the French lost heavily in an attack near Pont-a-Mousson, and

VON MOLTKE'S VIEWS ON THE PRESENT WAR

Count Says Germany Will Not Perish But Emerge Victorious.

Berlin, via Amsterdam and London, Jan. 22.—There has been published in a local newspaper an interview with Lieut.-Gen. Count von Moltke, former chief of staff of the German army. The recital is largely in the form of question and answer and is as follows:

"The resolve to declare war must have fallen heavily upon Emperor William," the interviewer suggested.

"Very heavily, indeed. Do people ever stop to consider how tremendous is the responsibility of a conscientious monarch who must pledge the blood of his people? That step a monarch like the emperor takes only when the life and death of his people are at stake."

"Does your excellency believe that peace soon will come?"

"The war can last a long time yet. Our victories in Poland are of the greatest importance. To the French they are bitterly disappointing, spoiling their hopes of an advance. The Russian masses have entirely collapsed. You may be firmly convinced that Germany will not perish; we will be victorious."

IS ATTACKED BY CUMMINS

Washington, Jan. 22.—The feature of the Republican fight on the administration ship bill in the senate today was a long and vigorous attack by Senator Cummins upon President Wilson's influence upon legislation and upon the sentiments expressed in the president's Indianapolis speech.

"One of the most reactionary and dangerous proposals every made public," was the characterization of the bill.

The president's speech, he attacked at length. "Its effect has been, and will continue to be, to strengthen the Republican cause," said he. "I predict it will pass into history as a lamentable attempt of a president to forget the courtesy and dignity always looked for in one who occupies the most exalted office in the world, and the dismal effort of a man of mature

The above is a picture of the new storeroom of J. J. Le Borious, Florist, on 921 East Third street.

Mr. Le Borious, who is the only grower in Duluth, has one of the finest and roomiest flower salesrooms in the Northwest. His greenhouses are also classed among the best and most commodious in this part of the country.

Special mention might be made of the refrigerating rooms of Mr. Le Borious. There are three of them in number, all large and nifty in every respect and each disconnected from the other, making it, therefore, possible to handle any quantity of cut flowers without crowding.

Among the many varieties that Mr. Le Borious is growing at the present time are 7,000 Easter Lilies, 10 full houses of Easter Plants numbering 20,000, 3 large houses of carnations numbering 14,000, 1 house of violets and many others. Duluth people will have the opportunity of getting home grown violets hereafter, a convenience they haven't had heretofore.

Mr. Le Borious announces that this year he will have 40,000 geraniums ready for spring sales. He expects to have Saturday sales from now until Easter, thus giving the people of Duluth an opportunity to get flowers at a very low cost. His experienced help also enables him to turn out funeral work on very short notice. He has two of the best decorators in the Northwest.

Duluth may be proud of the fact that it is so well represented in the floral line, Mr. Le Borious' greenhouses and flower salesroom are a credit to the city and are well worth anybody's patronage who buys flowers and plants.

U. S. WILL DROP TO FOURTH PLACE

France to Soon Become Third Among World's Sea Powers.

Washington, Jan. 22.—The United States will drop from third to fourth place among the world's sea powers with the completion of all ships under construction up to July 1, 1914, according to the calculations in the navy year book, issued today by the senate naval committee. France will move from fourth to third place, according to the official table.

With the outbreak of the European war information as to the naval programs of the belligerents was no longer available and the book contains only a list of the vessels lost in action during the war up to Jan. 1, 1915, to supplement figures for construction prior to last July.

The comparison is based on tonnage and the official table is as follows for the world's first eight sea powers:

Germany	951,713	1,306,577
United States	765,123	894,889
France	688,840	899,915
Japan	519,640	699,916
Italy	285,460	497,815

WARBA BANKER IS SOME TRAIL BLAZER.

Floodwood, Minn., Jan. 22.—(Special to The Herald.)—To W. P. Hicken, a banker at Warba, belongs the honor of blazing the auto trail between Warba and this village. He covered the entire distance, some twenty-five miles, in his automobile in less than two hours, and the road bears no resemblance to the smooth Duluth boulevard either. From Warba to Wawina the trip was made along the route of the St. Vincent state highway. From that point a tote road was followed in a northeasterly direction that brought him to the upper Floodwood road, about sixteen miles north of this village. The rest was easy. This history-making journey, connecting Warba and Floodwood by auto, was made without mishap of any kind and was enjoyed by Mr. Hicken's guests, A. C. Broun and Misses Stevens and Dingley.

Fargo, N. D., Jan. 22.—(Special to The Herald.)—Fargo is again seeking a packing house. Some years ago there was one operated here but after its destruction by fire it was not rebuilt. URGES LARGER SCHOOL UNITS

State Rural School Commissioner Says Idea Should Spread.

St. Louis County Has Two; Discussed at County Superintendents' Meeting.

In an address before a conference of educators and school superintendents of Northern Minnesota counties this morning in the grand jury room at the courthouse, Charles C. Swain of St. Paul, state rural school commissioner, urged a movement in the direction of securing larger school units in the country districts or more of the so-called consolidated schools.

Mr. Swain declared that the schools were more adequate and in the long run would prove to be of greater efficiency than the smaller schools. The consolidated school, he declares, affords an opportunity for instruction in vocational work, such as domestic science, manual training, home economics and agriculture.

St. Louis county at the present time has two consolidated schools, organized pursuant to the Holmberg act, which became effective four years ago. The law provided for agricultural courses and other vocational work. Special state aid is granted to such schools. The two St. Louis county schools are located at Meadowlands and Floodwood.

Among those who attended the conference this morning were: Supt. N. A. Young, Assistant Supt. H. B. Hursh and L. A. Ink, principal of the county district schools of St. Louis county; Supt. R. H. Blankenship of Pine county; Mrs. C. S. Young of Aitkin county; Mrs. A. W. Lawrence of Lake county and Miss Nora A. Nilsen of Carlton county.

Subjects Discussed.

Among subjects discussed yesterday were: "Alfalfa," F. W. Merrill, Fargo; "Contagion," Dr. F. E. Palmer, Owatonna; "Home Efficiency," Miss Mary L. Bull of state university. At the afternoon session the program was: "Co-operation Among Farmers," Victor S. Knutson of Long Prairie; "Building Dairy Barns," Prof. C. Larson, Brookings, S. D.; "Corn," W. V. Gouseff of Owatonna.

The banquet Wednesday evening was a notable affair with Governor W. S. Hammond and President George Vincent of the state university as the chief speakers. Governor Hammond declared that it is the aim of the state so to protect the sale of butter that when a pound of the Minnesota product is purchased the consumer will know he is getting the very best butter made in the world and not an oleomargarine product. He decried dishonest methods which tend to lead public opinion away from real issues.

BRAINERD MAN HAS DEVISED MOTOR SLED.

Brainerd, Minn., Jan. 22.—(Special to The Herald.)—Rudolph Boppel, an employe of a local auto firm, has built a motor sled, using a nine-horsepower motorcycle motor for power. A four-foot propeller is attached to the machine, composed of two sleds, each three feet long, the whole measuring twelve feet in length. It has the regulation sled guage. The propeller is of spruce and was built by Mr. Boppel and Carl Wright, and can make 2,000 revolutions at high speed. On a trial down Sixth street it operated perfectly and Mr. Boppel is assured he can make thirty miles an hour on a straight stretch. The motor sled will receive a few additional improvements and will then be driven to Minneapolis at the time of the automobile show.

OUTLOOK FOR 1915 BETTER

Lake Carriers Look for Revival of Business for Steamers.

Detroit, Mich., Jan. 22.—Nineteen hundred and fourteen was a lean year for Great Lakes vessel owners, due to reduction in the ore movement which showed a decrease of 34 per cent from 1913, according to the report of William Livingstone, president of the Lake Carriers' association, submitted at the annual meeting of that organization here yesterday. Besides the lack of business, fifty-four sailors lost their lives in shipwrecks, which was "a rather high average" in the words of the president. Twenty-five vessels were lost.

"It would require better vision than your president possesses to discern the silver lining in our operations for 1914," said Mr. Livingstone. "In former lean years there have been mitigating circumstances, as, for instance, in 1911, when, in addition to a better rate on ore, stiff premiums were paid for the fall movement of coal and grain. This year, however, all commodities were practically moved at summer prices and at no time was opportunity afforded the vessel owners to recoup their losses. The cause of it all was the drastic reduction in ore movement, which was 34 per cent less than in 1913.

Recovery in 1915.

"There is reason to believe that 1915 will be a year of marked recovery. A buying movement of pig iron has started after many months devoid even of inquiry; recognition has been accorded to the railways of their right to an advance in freight rates, and it is inevitable that we shall be called upon to replace the wastage caused by the senseless and unnecessary war raging in Europe.

"From an operating standpoint, however, the season showed a considerable increase in efficiency. While no cargo records were broken, the average cargo carried was the highest ever and the average stay in port was considerably diminished. From the underwriters' standpoint the season was also gratifying."

Vessels Lost.

Of the twenty-five vessels lost during 1914, fourteen were steamers, six were barges, four were tugs and one was a dredge. On April 27, the Benjamin Noble foundered in a heavy gale on Lake Superior, carrying down her crew of twenty. On April 29 the William Jamieson sank with her crew of six in Lake Ontario. No further mortality occurred until Nov. 19, when the C. F. Curtis, with the barges Marvin and Peterson in tow, were lost near Grand Marais with twenty-eight hands.

Reference was made to the seaman's bill now pending in congress as follows:

"It is impossible to predict the ultimate fate of this measure, but hope is expressed that it will be permanently shelved as no real reason ever existed for drafting it."

Attacks Resolution.

President Livingstone also attacked the resolution introduced in the national house of representatives by Representative Hardy of Texas, entitled "to better regulate the serving of licensed officers in the merchant marine of the United States and to promote safety at sea." He declared it is "most pernicious in character and without excuse."

All of the officers who served the association during the past year were re-elected. William Livingstone of Detroit is president, W. F. Schauffele of Cleveland and C. C. Joyce of Milwaukee were added to the board of directors. The only member of the 1914 board not re-elected was S. P. Cranage of Bay City. Mr. Cranage has disposed of his marine interests it was announced.

Storm Warnings for Ships.

Speaking at the Lake Carriers' annual banquet last night, Charles F. Marvin, chief of the United States weather bureau, announced that a naval wireless station is to be built on Lake Michigan near Chicago, next year to be used in flashing storm warnings to ships on the Great Lakes. This station, Mr. Marvin said, will share the work which the wireless station at Arlington, Va., has been doing. The weather forecaster urged the lake carriers to install wireless outfits on all of their boats.

Several Canadian government officials, including A. Johnston, deputy minister of marine, spoke upon the cordial relations between the two governments in their work of improving the Great Lakes waterway.

The fixed program today was short and adjournment was expected this afternoon.

Paper By J. J. Hill.

James J. Hill, in a paper on "Freedom for Our Foreign Trade," said the "indispensible" condition for such freedom was adequate ocean carriage in American ships. To buy service by big subsidies was, he declared, a losing game. The need of merchant ships in America was almost as great as that of other nations for munitions of war.

"In the month of November," he said, "the exports from the port of New York were $12,000,000 more than the year before. There was an increase of about 300 per cent in the exports of food products. The foreign demand must increase in direct ratio with the exhaustion of supplies in warring nations. How are these goods, which we desire to sell and others are anxious to buy, to be carried to the oversea markets?

"Such a slight relief as was afforded by the wise removal of the prohibition of registry for foreign-built vessels has been given. It is hardly a drop in the bucket. Up to the week ending Dec. 26, 1914, American registry has been granted to 105 vessels heretofore operated under foreign control, aggregating 373,840 gross tons. This is not enough to prevent present congestion and holds out little hope for the supply of further needs.

Costs Here Higher.

"American cost of ship construction is from 50 to 100 per cent higher than that abroad, and according to a reported statement of Capt. Robert Dollar, who operated ships in both domestic and foreign trade, it costs about $17,236 more a year to operate a ship of 3,000 tons under the American than under the British flag. These are the disadvantages under which our foreign trade labors.

"There are but two resources; one a merchant marine owned and operated by the government; the other a merchant marine provided by and for the people.

"The former, just now urgently advocated, is an unwise—and would be certainly a disastrous—experiment. Aside from the complications, almost certain to drag us sooner or later into the European conflict, owing to the uncertain and conflicting claims of national neutrality, this policy would be followed by the total destruction of the private shipping interest. Private enterprise cannot possibly compete with a government which pays no interest on the cost of its ships and throws aside consideration of profit and loss.

What of the Management?

"What is the prospect, in this case, of economical management, and of those lower rates which the advocates of the plan hold out as a bait for its adoption? We have an exact measure of the fact in some comparative railroad statistics. The Panama railway is entirely owned and operated by the United States. Like most affairs on the isthmus it has been handled by honest and competent men in their several lines. We have its official report for the year ended June 30, 1913, to be compared with the statistics of all the railways of the United States for the same period. The rate on the Panama line was 3.48 cents per ton per mile, as against .7268 of a cent for all the railways of the United States. That is, the government rate was almost five times the rate made by private enterprise over the entire country.

What Is Needed.

"At the International Trade conference of the Mississippi valley and Central West, which met at Memphis last November, the following resolution was reported:

"'Resolved, That congress be urged to enact maritime legislation looking toward placing the American shippers and ship owners upon a basis more nearly equal with those of competing nations, thereby enabling American exporters and ship owners to meet the competition of other nations in the ocean carrying trade.'

"'Not "more nearly equal," but "absolutely equal" should be the requirement of American ability and American pride; an equality secured neither by such protection as is accorded to the weak, or by gift money in the form of a subsidy, but a privilege offered to the strong that he may conquer what is his by right. That is the key to an ample expansion in our foreign commerce which we all know to be possible and which will be lost or won according to our wisdom or our folly.'"

HEAVY FIGHTING AGAIN IN PROGRESS

were repulsed. The French statement acknowledges that the Germans have retaken part of their lost trenches.

Another violent battle is in progress in Alsace, in which troops are engaged in hand-to-hand struggles. The Berlin war office asserts that the French were driven from the heights near Sennheim.

In the eastern campaign no change is reported today.

A dispatch from Berlin to Copenhagen states that the German aerial raid on the east coast of England on Jan. 19 was the work of Zeppelins of the latest type, with full crews and armed with heavy guns.

A conference was held in Paris between representatives of England, France and Russia, who are reported to have under consideration a joint loan of $3,000,000,000.

Russians Near German Border.

London, Jan. 22.—News dispatches referring to the situation in Poland set forth that north of the Vistula, in the vicinity of Lipno, Russian advance guards are within twenty miles of the German frontier, while to the northeast the Germans have evacuated Skempe, which is about twenty-five miles from the Prussian border and due southeast of Thorn.

If the Russians follow up their success at Skempe and continue their forward movement, it will give them an unbroken front, in the opinion of British observers, dangerously near German territory.

The western allies are watching this region just now with great interest and dispatches from Petrograd say that the Russians are pinning high hopes on this offensive thrust near the German line. Elsewhere they are planning merely to hold their own, barring, of course, the advance through Transylvania. The Austrians, however, appear not to have been crushed by their reverses in Bukowina, for the Russians themselves refer to the attempted Austrian offensive. Other news dispatches tell of the movement of Austrian reinforcements aimed to check the Russian advance.

In Western Arena.

In the western arena of the war the battle at Soissons still ranks as the only great conflict during many weeks past. There has been fighting at many points, but a trench here and a few yards there is all that either side has gained. If the German plan is a renewed general offensive or a serious concentrated attack at some strategic point, it has not yet materialized.

The Turks claim to have arrested the Russian advance in the Caucasus, but they give no details. The British press continues to assert that the proposed Turkish invasion of Egypt is doomed to failure, but it gives credence to many reports to the effect that such invasion will be attempted.

Destitution in Poland.

The suffering in Belgium, which the help of America has gone so far to relieve, is for the moment in the background, when compared to the destitution of non-combatants in Palestine, Poland and the Carpathians. From Palestine, Jewish colonists continue to flee to Egypt, being conveyed as rapidly as possible by the American cruiser Tennessee. The destitution of Poland is said to be terrible, and a new appeal for aid has been issued by Ignace Paderewski and Henryk Sienkiewicz, who speak for all factions. It is said that the situation in Poland is far worse than it is in Belgium. The fleeing people of Bukowina are living like animals in caves and fighting with wolves for such sustenance as the snow-covered country affords.

French Statement.

Paris, Jan. 22, 2:50 p. m.—The report on the progress of the war given out by the French war office this afternoon says very determined infantry fighting with ferocious hand to hand encounters is going on today in Alsace, but that the situation at Soissons shows no change. Other infantry encounters mentioned appear to be of minor importance.

Artillery exchanges in which the French were successful occurred between Ypres and the Oise; near Berry-au-Bac and in the Vosges, while in the forest of Apremont the German artillery drove the French away. The statement follows:

"In Belgium the enemy yesterday bombarded Nieuport with a fair degree of violence. Our infantry made some slight progress to the east of Lombaertzyde highway. Between Ypres and the Oise successful operations on the part of our artillery against field works, batteries and detachments of infantry of the enemy took place yesterday.

"From the Oise to the Argonne: The situation in the vicinity of Soissons shows no change. Near Berry-au-Bac a trench which we were compelled to evacuate following a violent bombardment, was recaptured by us. In the region of Perthes the enemy delivered an attack during the night of Jan. 20-21 at a point northeast of Beausejour, but without success.

"Between the Meuse and the Moselle: To the southeast of St. Michiel, in the forest of Apremont, an exceedingly violent bombardment made it impossible for us to retain the German trenches occupied by us yesterday for a distance of 150 yards.

"To the northwest of Pont-a-Mousson in the forest of Le Pretre, the enemy yesterday recaptured a portion of the trenches taken by us Jan. 20, but we are maintaining ourselves at all other points of this position.

"In the Vosges the enemy hurled against St. Die six projectiles of great caliber without, however, doing any serious damage.

"At a point between Mount Bonhomme and Mount Schlucht there has been an artillery engagement in which the German batteries were reduced to silence.

"In Alsace infantry fighting in the region of Hartman and Wellerkopf is going on with great ferocity. This struggle is actually hand to hand.

German Statement.

Berlin, Jan. 22, by wireless to London, 3:15 p. m.—Defeat for the allies in two important engagements was announced in an official statement given out today by the war office. French attack near Pont-a-Mousson, where the allies are attempting to cut the German communication with Metz, is said to have been repulsed with heavy losses. In Alsace the French were driven out of the heights near Zennheim.

The Germans were compelled to evacuate a trench near Berry-au-Bac, but gained some ground in the Verdun region. The statement follows:

"On Jan. 21, in the western theater of war, a continuous rain rendered impossible any important fighting between the coast and the canal of La Bassee. Artillery duels took place near Arras. One of the trenches which we took on the day before yesterday to the southwest of Berry-au-Bac, was abandoned and blown up. It has been partly destroyed by the collapse of the wall of a factory.

"A French attack north of Verdun was repulsed easily. After the battle of the day before yesterday to the south of St. Mihiel, small French detachments still held out in the neighborhood of our positions. By means of an advance, the region before our front was cleared of all Frenchmen as far as their old positions.

"The battle for Croix-des-Larmes, northwest of Pont-a-Mousson, continues. A strong French attack on the recaptured part of our positions was repulsed with heavy losses to the enemy.

"In the Vosges, north of Sennheim, our troops threw the enemy out of the heights of the Hartmann-Wellerkopf hills. We took two officers and 125 men prisoners.

"In the eastern theater of war the situation is unchanged. Our attacks on a branch of the Szucha made slow progress. There is nothing new east of the Pilica."

WATCHING MURDERER TO PREVENT SUICIDE.

Fargo, N. D., Jan. 22.—(Special to The Herald.)—Efforts of Robert Hendrickson, who murdered his wife last night, to commit suicide will not be successful. A physician announces he will recover. An officer is kept at his bedside in a hospital, and as soon as possible Hendrickson will be taken to the county jail. He formerly resided in Minneapolis and had been in Fargo but a few months.

I expect that he will be invited to come and brace up our spirits, not that they are sinking, but a rejuvenation is always a good thing."

NO DAMAGES GIVEN FOR OVERFLOW

Jury Returns Verdict in Favor of Defendant Lumber Company.

Axel Ohrn, homesteader, is not entitled to recover damages from the Angora Lumber company, according to a verdict which was agreed upon by a jury in Judge Cant's division of the district court late yesterday afternoon. Ohrn sued the company for $500 damages and asked the court to grant an injunction restraining the company from maintaining a certain dam on the Rice river.

Ohrn's farm is riparian to the river and it was his claim that during the spring of 1914, the defendant company by maintaining its dam on the river, caused the river to be backed up the stream so that it flooded thirty acres of his land and cut off access from his house to certain parts of his land.

A special question, reading as follows, was submitted to the jury:

"What was the amount of damage, if any, caused to the grass crops on plaintiff's land during the year 1914 by reason of water which was backed up and caused to overflow by the dam which has been referred to in the evidence?"

The jury answered, "None", and also reported a general verdict in favor of the defendant.

Ohrn's land was located in sections 18 and 19, 61-18, and was situated on a bend in the river. The dam complained of was located in section 9, 61-18. The river runs in a northerly and northeasterly direction through 61-18.

A similar action is on trial before Judge Cant today. Mrs. Anna Olson is suing Saari Bros. for $2,000 for damages to her land by overflowing by a reason of a dam built and maintained by the defendants across the Waterhen river. Her property is located in section 13, 56-17. She also asks for an injunction. John A. Keyes is her attorney, and Saari Bros., logging contractors, are represented by O. J. Larson and Neil E. Beaton.

FARRELL A CANDIDATE

Former Aspirant After Seat of Murchison or Hicken.

Safety Head Expected to Run; Petitions Out for Works Chief.

J. H. (Bert) Farrell, who ran for commissioner at the election two years ago, announced this morning that he will again make the run this year, and that he is out as a candidate for the office of either Commissioner Hicken or Commissioner Murchison, whose terms expire this spring. Petitions for his candidacy are now being circulated by his friends, who have asked him to take the race a second time, he said.

Commissioner Hicken refuses to say whether he will run or not, but it is understood that he will make the race, as will Commissioner Murchison, whose friends are already circulating petitions in his behalf. The terms of Mayor Prince and Commissioners Voss and Merritt do not expire for two more years.

City Clerk Palmer said this morning that voters cannot sign more than two petitions for the coming election on April 7, as there are but two offices to be filled this year. Each petition must contain the names of fifty voters, who shall sign individual certificates prepared by the city clerk's office. These petitions must be filed not more than fifty, nor less than forty days before election day.

Besides Mr. Farrell, it is understood that Bernard Silberstein, candidate two years ago, will also run again this spring.

CRIMINAL WORK HEAVY

County Leads the State in Percentage of Convictions.

St. Louis county will again lead all other counties in the state in the percentage of convictions obtained during the year in the criminal courts. This, it is believed, will be shown by the annual report of the county attorney, which will be completed and ready for publication this afternoon.

Although the actual number of cases handled by County Attorney Warren E. Greene and his assistants during the year 1914 has not been announced, it is believed that it will be close to the 800 mark. In 1913 the office handled 753 cases and it is thought that a substantial increase will be shown for 1914.

Only two murder cases were tried in the Duluth courts last year, Martin P. Johnson for killing his wife and George Bisel for the slaying of John Magnusson at Fairbanks. Johnson was convicted of first degree murder and sentenced to life imprisonment. Bisel was acquitted on an indictment which charged him with third degree murder. Ivan Zoroia, who shot and killed Neil J. Mooney, a New Duluth policeman, early in January, 1914, pleaded guilty to first degree murder and was given life imprisonment. Charles P. Lawler, charged with the murder of his sister-in-law, Mary Lawler, was found to be insane and without being tried was committed to the state hospital at St. Peter, Minn.

SUNDAY WILL BE INVITED

Committee Plans to Bring Baseball Evangelist to Duluth.

Three prominent Duluth laymen and probably several local clergymen will meet in Philadelphia next week to urge upon Rev. William (Billy) Sunday, baseball evangelist, an invitation to conduct a six weeks' campaign in this city next summer or fall.

Executive committees of various church organizations, including the Inter-Church council and the Ministerial union, met at the Y. M. C. A. this afternoon to complete plans for obtaining Rev. Mr. Sunday's consent.

A written invitation, signed by practically all of the ministers of Duluth and indorsed by religious and civic organizations, will be sent to Philadelphia, where the noted ball-player-preacher is in charge of a campaign.

W. L. Smithies, Watson S. Moore and B. C. Wade, general secretary of the local Y. M. C. A., will be in the East next week, and are expected to co-operate with the clergymen who make the trip to Philadelphia, in presenting the invitation.

Rev. J. W. Hoffman, pastor of the First M. E. church, who is interested in the proposed plan, believes it will be possible to secure Rev. Mr. Sunday for some time during August or September, as his vacation extends from the latter part of May until early in October.

FACES FEDERAL CHARGE.

Paul Kuculyma on Trial for Violating Immigration Laws.

Paul Kuculyma, who was indicted by the Federal grand jury on a charge of violating the immigration laws, was brought up for trial this afternoon before Judge Page Morris and a Federal jury. The indictment charges the prisoner with having brought Anna Benyuk, or Anna Ben, an alien woman, to the United States from Port Arthur, Ont., for immoral purposes. Attorney John H. Norton will appear in the defendant's behalf, while Egbert Oakley, assistant United States attorneyy, will conduct the prosecution.

CITY HAS NO RIGHT TO PAY

Commissioners Will Not Assume Judgment Against Firemen.

Members of the city commission said this morning that the city has no power to pay the judgment of $725 against Assistant Fire Chief Granzow and his chauffeur, Gerald O. Black, granted as damages for the death of Alida Hubert, 4 years old, who was killed on May 18 last by the assistant chief's car.

Last evening the West End Commercial club announced that it was the general sentiment of its members that the city ought to pay the judgment, but the commissioners declare they have no power or authority to take such a step. In this case, they explained, the city is not held liable for damages.

It is because the city is not liable, the city legal department explained, that Lelander Hubert, the child's father, did not bring action for damages against the city of Duluth. His case was against the two fire department employes, but the commissioners did all in their power by requesting the city attorney to defend the men at the trial.

It is understood that both defendants will appeal the decision of the jury in Judge Ensign's court and ask for a new trial. The city attorney's office will have charge of their case.

Idaho to Vote on Prohibition.

Boise, Idaho, Jan. 22.—By unanimous vote the Idaho house of representatives passed yesterday the Hart resolution providing for the submission to the voters at the general election in 1916 of an amendment to the constitution prohibiting the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquor in the state. The resolution was adopted by the senate Wednesday.

LEGISLATURE MAY PROVIDE MEMORIAL

Bill Calls for $10,000 for Monument to Spanish War Veterans.

Local members of the United Spanish War veterans are much interested in a bill that is being prepared and which will soon be introduced in both branches of the Minnesota state legislature. The bill provides for a memorial to be erected at a cost of $10,000 on the state capitol grounds to the veterans of the Spanish war and the Philippine insurrection.

Minnesota had four regiments enlisted in that war. These were the Twelfth, Thirteenth, Fourteenth and Fifteenth. Three companies of the Fourteenth regiment, Companies A, C, and G, and one company from the Fifteenth, Company L, enlisted from Duluth.

With the exception of the Thirteenth regiment none saw active service outside of the states. The Thirteenth was sent to the Philippines where it covered itself with glory. The Twelfth and Fourteenth were stationed at Chickamauga park during the summer and were mustered out late in the fall of 1898, and the Fifteenth was sent as far as Savannah, Ga., and returned early in the spring of 1899.

The proposed memorial is being pushed by the U. S. W. V. of the state as well as the Philippine veteran organization. The organization has nearly 2,000 members in the state and about twenty camps.

GOOD WORD FOR SATAN.

Glasgow Herald: An old Scotch woman was famous for speaking kindly. No sheep was so dark but she could discover some white spot to point out to those who could see only its blackness. One day a gossiping neighbor lost patience with her, and said, angrily:

"Wumman, ye'll hae a guid word to say for the deevil himself!"

"Weel, he's a vera industreeous body!"

INTENSE INTEREST TO LAST MINUTE

Fargo, N. D., Jan. 22.—(Special to The Herald.)—This is closing day of the big tri-state convention and the morning program was in charge of the Equity society. The attendance is just as large as during the last days, and delegates are staying for the finish of the proceedings, evidently as deeply interested as on the first day.

The chief themes this morning were terminal and state grain elevators, grain market and hail insurance. These subjects were discussed from various angles, but all speakers were favorable to North Dakota erecting a big terminal elevator in St. Paul or elsewhere, and considerable opposition was expressed to action of state board of control which has made adverse report to the legislature against the establishment of terminals as authorized by adoption of constitutional amendment by people at last election.

The chief speakers were N. J. Jensen of Wyndmere, M. P. Johnson of Donnybrook, Attorney Drake of St. Paul, M. D. Munn of St. Paul and George S. Loftus of Minneapolis.

This afternoon the regular tri-state program was resumed with reports of committees appointed by President Worst, election of officers and closing the afternoon session with two addresses by Supt. M. C. Gillican of the Manitoba experimental farm, and Maj. Murphy, immigration agent of the Soo.

Tonight the Equity society people again have the program in charge and a number of speakers will be heard.

SNOW HELPS LUMBERMEN

The coming of more snow during the last few days is proving a boon to the lumber companies and especially to the small independent companies in the big woods. Conditions are said to be more nearly ideal at this time than for years. Everything now points to a big cut of timber with the chances good for its being hauled from the woods at an early date.

The companies have been making big shipments of men almost daily of late, and the camps are now running with a big quota of cutters and haulers. The cold weather has filled the timber with frost, frozen the marshes, and the roads are now covered with a fine coat of snow that makes sleighing excellent. With conditions as they are, the logs can be hauled from camp quickly and put in position to move down the streams early in the spring. Conditions now are nearly opposite from what they were a year ago. The season last year was cut short at both ends by thaws.

Few idle men are now in the city—especially among those who are in a position to work in the logging camps. Others with families in the city are finding work through the various municipal enterprises begun to provide employment for those with families to support. The weather has done a great deal to aid the city in its endeavor to keep men in position to support their families.

ANNUAL MEETING IN THE TRENCHES

Directors of English Official Printers Pass on Business.

(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)

London, Jan. 8.—"Business as usual," the motto which the British tradesman adopted early in the course of the war, applies even to the business man who is on duty in the firing line.

An instance of this is seen in the announcement that the annual meeting of the board of directors of the firm of Vacher & Sons, official printers to the British parliament, was held "in the trenches," all the directors of the company being on duty at the front in France. The minutes of this unique directors' meeting are as follows:

"The directors were unable to deal with the minutes of the last meeting owing to the absence of the minute book.

"The accounts received from the company's auditors for the financial year ending Sept. 30 were considered and approved, subject to confirmation at the general meeting of the company.

"The directors present regretted the absence of their colleague, Capt. Claude Low, whose whereabouts at the front is unknown to them.

"There being no other business to transact, the meeting closed with a hearty vote of thanks to the chairman."

WINTER LIGHTS ON GREAT LAKES

Protection Sought for Mariners After Official Close of Navigation.

Protection for lake mariners, who make trips after the official close of the navigation season, is being sought by masters and mates living in Duluth and Superior, members of the Twin Ports lodge No. 12 of the shipmasters' organization.

Unattended acetylene lights were placed at various points in Lake Michigan last season after navigation officially was over and the lighthouse-keepers withdrawn for the season. The experiment was such a success that it probably will be followed on other lakes next fall, say local vessel men.

Louis M. Stoddard, inspector of the Twelfth lighthouse district, with headquarters in Milwaukee, has written to officers of the Twin Ports organization, asking whether or not they believe this service was warranted as an aid to belated mariners.

Duluth and Superior are in the Eleventh district of the lighthouse service, the headquarters and inspector being in Detroit, Mich.

Miss Senta Erd, well known in Duluth musical circles, will receive $14,779.99 from the estate of her father, the late John B. Erd, a Superior street jeweler, whose death occurred April 15, 1914. In probate court yesterday a tax of $47.80 was levied against her inheritance. The tax will be paid to the state.

Mrs. Marie Erd, widow, will receive one-third of the estate, or $7,389.99. The total estate, after all bills had been paid and all expenses deducted, inventories $22,169.98.

Baby's Happiness Depends on Health

Cross, fretful babies usually need a laxative to make them comfortable, and comfort begets happiness. Constipation is the cause of much discomfort. Mothers should watch closely the condition of their children's bowels and see that they are regular.

A mild, pleasant tasting laxative such as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, is ideal for children because of its natural composition and gentle action, and because it contains no opiate, narcotic or other harmful habit-forming drug. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is sold by druggists everywhere. A teaspoonful at bedtime will bring easy, certain relief.

STATE SUPREME COURT DECISIONS

St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 22.—(Special to The Herald.)—The following decisions were rendered today by the Minnesota supreme court:

ST. LOUIS COUNTY.
No Right to Change Venue.

State, ex rel., Great Northern Railway company, appellant, vs. Municipal Court of the City of Duluth, et. al., respondents—

Actions in municipal courts are within the purview of G. S. 1913, 7721, defining the county residence of railroad companies for the purpose of actions against them; and where the venue in such an action is properly laid thereunder the defendant has no right under section 272 to change it to another municipal court in the same county, though the latter is nearer its principal general office in the state and its principal place of business in the county.

Order affirmed.

PHILIP E. BROWN, J.

HENNEPIN COUNTY.
Discretion not Abused.

Hogan-Graseth, as father of Edith Graseth, a minor, respondent, vs. Northwestern Knitting company, appellant—

Trial court held not to have abused its discretion in the matter of qualification of witnesses to give expert testimony upon the practicability of fitting a mangle with hand guards.

Evidence in an action to recover damages for personal injuries received while operating a mangle in defendant's factory, held sufficient to take the case to the jury on the issues of defendant's negligence in not providing the machine with hand guard and in failing to instruct and warn.

The issue of the assumption of risk and contributary negligence were also for the jury.

Trial court's refusal to grant defendant a new trial on account of remarks made by plaintiff's counsel durmarks made by plaintiff's counsel during argument of his motion for an adjournment in order to enable him to procure expert testimony upon the practicability of guarding the machine, held not reversible error; the jury having been promptly directed not to consider the remarks, ample opportunity having thereafter been afforded for inspection of the machine, and the experts making the same having been allowed to testify in the case.

There was no reversible error either in the instructions given or in refusal of those demanded.

Verdict for $12,000, for injuries to a 17-year-old girl's right hand and forearm which not only disfigured, but rendered them practically useless, sustained.

Order affirmed.

PHILIP E. BROWN, J.

HENNEPIN COUNTY.
Order Reversed.

A notice to eliminate the right of redemption in a tax proceeding examined and held to accurately state the amount required to redeem.

Order reversed. HOLT, J.

RAMSEY COUNTY.
Verdict Excessive.

Ernest V. Padrick, respondent, vs. Great Northern Railway company, appellant—

In this, a personal injury action where the evidence shows an injury to the spinal cord which has permanently crippled plaintiff, virtually destroyed all earning capacity, and so paralyzed him that he is unable to attend to his wants without assistance, it is held that, although the injuries are so severe, the verdict of $35,000 is excessive and should be reduced to $30,000.

Affirmed on condition. HOLT, J.

RAMSEY COUNTY.
Sufficient Consideration.

Charles Wadsworth, respondent, vs. Ray Walsh, appellant—

The issuance and delivery of a policy of life insurance is a sufficient consideration for a note previously given for the first premium on such a policy. A clause in such a note giving the "privilege of increasing or decreasing insurance on first payment" gives to the maker an option, and if he desires to avail himself of it the obligation is upon him to so signify. Evidence of a contemporaneous oral agreement that before writing the policy the payee should inquire whether defendant desired to exercise the option, varies the written agreement and is not admissable.

A general offer of proof must be considered in connection with the pleadings of the party making it. It is no error to reject proof offered by a party where his pleadings admit the facts to be to the contrary. Held, an offer by defendant to prove want of consideration for a note was properly rejected, because, under the admissions of the answer, the evidence offered could not properly be received.

Judgment affirmed. HALLAM, J.

BECKER COUNTY.
Damages Not Excessive.

Jennie Engebretson, respondent, vs. Albert Bremer, appellant—

Plaintiff sustained personal injuries from an attack by a cow belonging to defendant. It is held:

1. The evidence was sufficient to justify the jury in finding that the animal was vicious, that defendant had prior knowledge of her character, and that he ought not to have allowed her to run at large in a pasture which with his knowledge and consent was constantly traveled by the children of neighbors and others.

2. Plaintiff was not a trespasser, and defendant owed her the duty to see that a vicious animal was not allowed to run at large in the pasture.

3. The evidence justified the jury in finding that plaintiff was not guilty of contributory negligence.

4. The damages, as reduced, are not excessive.

Order affirmed. BUNN, J.

SWIFT COUNTY.
Estopped From Asserting Title.

Thomas J. Purcell, respondent, vs. F. C. Thornton, appellant—

Plaintiff executed two mortgages on real property, the latter one being for commissions in securing the former, and containing no power of sale. There was default in both mortgages, and the commission mortgage was attempted to be foreclosed by advertisement. The mortgagee purchased at the sale, and at the end of a year went into possession. He and his grantees remained in peaceable possession for more than five years, paid taxes, made improvements, and paid off and procured to be satisfied the prior mortgage. Defendant purchased the land for a valuable consideration, without actual notice of the invalidity of the foreclosure. Plaintiff at all times knew of the attempted foreclosure, of the facts before stated, and of the defect which rendered the foreclosure invalid, but he remained silent, not asserting any title to or right in the land until he commenced this action to redeem. The property in the meantime had greatly increased in value. It is held that plaintiff is estopped by his conduct from asserting title to the land or the right to redeem.

Reversed with directions.

BUNN, J.

MEEKER COUNTY.
Conveys No Title.

George G. Wortz, respondent, vs. John R. Wortz et al., appellants—

1. A deed deposited with a third party for delivery to the grantee after the death of the grantor, but which the grantor reserves the right to recall at any time, conveys no title because no valid delivery has been made. Dickson vs. Miller, 124 Minn., 346, followed and applied.

2. The evidence is suficient to sustain finding that a certain deed was procured by undue influence.

Judgment reversed except as to the cancellation of the deed procured by undue influence. TAYLOR, C.

STEARNS COUNTY.
Question for Jury.

Thomas Johnson, respondent, vs. Sartell Brothers' company, appellant—

1. Whether the defendant negligently started its log carriage without giving the proper and usual signals was a question for the jury and was properly submitted.

2. The evidence did not justify a submission to the jury of the question whether the carriage was run at a high and dangerous rate of speed; and there was error in submitting it.

3. The plaintiff was not negligent as a matter of law.

Order reversed. DIBELL, C.

FRENCH AVIATORS' PAY IS INCREASED.

(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)

Boulogne, Jan. 8.—The pay of French aviators, which heretofore has been the same as that of soldiers of similar rank in other branches of the service, has been substantially increased for the duration of the war. Qualified pilots of the rank of non-commissioned officers will now receive 80 cents a day, while corporals and privates will get 40 cents. Apprentice pilots, of whom large numbers have been recruited, are allowed half the pay of qualified men.

ILLEGAL IN ENGLAND TO CALL MAN GERMAN.

(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)

London, Jan. 8.—A London police court has decided that in England to call a man a German, if he is not, is to abuse him and render oneself liable to prosecution. In the case before the magistrate, the prisoner had said of two men whom he met, "They are a couple of Germans." He was found guilty of "committing an act whereby a breach of the peace might have been caused," and was sentenced to pay a fine of 10 shillings, or spend seven days in prison.

Washing Won't Rid Head of Dandruff

The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

Do this tonight, and by morning most if not all of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy, every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop at once, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and never fails to do the work.—Advertisement.

COLD WILL CONTINUE

Weather Man Predicts Temperatures of From 10 to 20 Below.

If there was anything in the line of weather that was missed in the United States last night, the local forecaster, H. W. Richardson, would like to know what it was. Duluth, however, was one of the most favored spots compared to other cities in the Northwest. The lowest temperature was 9 below, and it was only 3 below at 7 a. m. today. It grew warmer, and at 10:30 it was 1 above zero. Colder weather is expected tonight, with temperatures ranging from 10 to 20 below zero.

The temperature in Canada was from 20 to 30 below last night, and it was 10 below in St. Paul this morning. The zero weather extended south through Kansas, which is unusual. Jacksonville, Fla., received another killing frost last night, which is expected to cause heavy damage to fruit. Another killing frost occurred there the night before. New York had a severe gale of fifty-seven miles an hour last night, and Santiago had a drenching rain of 1.76 inches. Heavy snow occurred over the Mississippi valley.

age to change the habit of a lifetime in order to win momentary applause."

Has Stopped Progress.

He declared it to be his "deliberate judgment that, taken as a whole, the course of the president has, in two years, turned back the hands upon the dial of progress so far that his party will not again be trusted with the timepiece of the twentieth century."

At length he attacked the president's influence on congress and declared, with the exception of the tariff law, all measures of general interest considered at the beginning of his administration had "been initiated in the White House or in the office of a cabinet minister."

Spirit Transformed.

"Somehow the spirit of our institutions has been transformed," said Senator Cummins, "and the legislative branch of the government has become a mere recorder. What the president really wants is a journal clerk instead of a congress. As a legislative body we have, for the time being, passed out of existence."

The attitude of the executive, the senator asserted, was "medieval in its character and destructive in its tendency."

Senator Cummins attacked all of the principal reform measures of the Democratic administration and said if the shipping bill should become a law "we will have imposed upon the people the most reactionary, indefensible legislation, which so far as my knowledge goes, has ever appeared in congress."

Prof. E. A. Ross of the University of Wisconsin declared "exclusion cannot be at Ellis Island, but must be in the minds of the possible immigrants." The literacy test was a good one, he said, because its requirements were easily understood abroad.

Asks Approval.

The president's approval of the bill as a protection to American workingmen was urged by William M. Clark, who said he represented various organizations of railroad employes, numbering 350,000 men. Prof. H. P. Fairchild of Yale university, spoke for the literacy test, because, he said, "it was highly American to require education." He contended the test would encourage education in Europe.

F. A. Dennis, formerly of Princeton university, who said he represented 245,000 members of religious and patriotic organizations in New Jersey and New York, also favored the test.

Opposed to Measure.

Opening the argument for the opponents of the bill, Representative Gallivan of Boston asked all on his side of the question to rise, but President Wilson objected, saying he would not be influenced by number.

Other opponents of the bill were Representative Moore of Pennsylvania, who said practically all foreign organizations in his state opposed the bill; David A. Laurie of Boston, who contended the literacy test smacked too much of "Russian autocracy," and Saul Cohn of New Jersey, representing the Independent Order of King Solomon.

Representative Gallivan also summed up for the opponents of the bill.

"Vicious talent sharpened and developed by letters is the most serious problem society has to deal with," he said. "Yet this absurd literacy test will admit the dangerous European criminals of the continental cities and

SPITTING NUISANCE

On Public Sidewalks Caused Mostly By Catarrh. How to Drive Catarrh From the System.

The person who spits on a public sidewalk may not be a "hog," utterly unmindful of the rights of others as many seem to think. He may be a catarrh sufferer who simply can't help himself.

Hawking, spitting, nose blowing, choking and foul breath are the necessary accompaniments of catarrh and stomach dosing, ointments to snuff up your nose and the whole remaining host of practically worthless makeshifts in which so many catarrh victims seek temporary relief, will never cure catarrh to stay cured—no, not in a thousand years.

Catarrh is caused by a germ and these germs thrive far up in the passages of your nose, throat and lungs, where no medicines or ointments can ever reach them. Before you can get rid of Catarrh you must get rid of the germs which cause it. Medical men are now practically agreed that the best way to kill catarrh germs and drive them from the system is to breathe up into the nose, throat and lungs the pleasant smelling but powerful medicated germicidal air called Hyomei, which is formed by combining the pure healing oil of Eucalyptus with powerful germicides and healing agents that utterly destroy every catarrh germ they reach. You breathe Hyomei far up into your nose and throat through a little hard rubber inhaler which all leading druggists furnish free with the complete outfit. This penetrating air not only kills the germs but it soothes and heals the sore, swollen, inflamed membranes, stops the discharge, spitting, hawking, etc., clears up the head and air passages and makes breathing easy again. Breathe it five minutes and you'll get blessed relief. Breathe it a few minutes daily for just a few weeks and every trace and symptom of catarrh will vanish. This isn't mere statement, it's proved fact and Boyce Drug Store and most every leading druggist in this vicinity backs it up by absolutely guaranteeing to refund your money if you do not get from it the relief you're seeking. Hyomei is pleasant and easy to use. You'll like it. And it certainly does put a stop to Catarrh as nothing else will or can.

The bill provides for the appointment of a commission of five, to be named by the governor, to select the location and to receive proposals from communities or individuals to donate sites or offer sites for sale.

The proposed institution, according to the terms of the bill, would be located north of the south line of Carlton county and east of the east line of Otterfail county.

The plan of locating the site thus proposed is the one that was followed when the hospital at Fergus Falls was located.

The bill carries an appropriation of $3,000 for the expenses of the commissioners named to pick the site, who are to receive $10 per day for the time actually spent on the work.

While Carlton will be an applicant if the bills passes, it is so framed that any community in Northeastern and North Central Minnesota could present its claims.

State Boiler Inspection.

A split between interests representing union labor and the Association of Stationary Engineers, an educational association, over the proposed reorganization of the state boiler inspection work developed at a hearing before the senate committee on labor yesterday afternoon. As a result, the matter was laid over to give the two interests an opportunity to get together.

Both agreed that the present system of boiler inspection and licensing of engineers is a joke, a humbug and a farce; but the union representative, who was present, thought the boiler inspection ought to be put under the state labor bureau so factory inspection could be combined with it, and the stationary engineers' organization had not contemplated that in the bill it presented through Senator E. J. Westlake of Minneapolis.

Judging from the criticisms made by both sides at yesterday's hearing, the present system isn't much. From these criticisms it appeared that there are fifty-three boiler inspectors, covering their districts without any system, rule or science; that there is no head—nor tail either; that there are boilers operating uninspected that ought to be put out of business; that there are engineers at work who are utterly incompetent; and that getting a license to operate a stationary engine is merely a formal matter of paying somebody a fee.

The stationary engineers, in the bill now before the committee, propose ten boiler inspectors, one of them to be chief and to direct the work. They are to be paid salaries, instead of subsisting fees, the fees all to go into the state treasury. The system would be self-sustaining, and would not cost the state a penny. The examinations of applicants for licenses to run engines would be real examinations, and incompetent engineers would not get licenses; though those now having licenses would not be required to take the examinations.

The same bill was before the legislature two and four years ago. Four years ago boiler insurance companies fought it, but at the last session their objections were met.

It is not unlikely that if the union men insist on their plan of merging boiler inspection with the bureau of labor, the bill will be amended to that effect. The efficiency and economy commission's reorganization plan provides for such a merger, and all that will be necessary is to amend the administrative features of the bill, leaving its details as they are.

Hearing on Labor Bills.

There will be a joint hearing before the senate and house committees on labor and labor legislation in the house chamber next Wednesday afternoon on the bill, by Senator George H. Gardner of Brainerd, requiring railroads to pay their men semi-monthly.

The bills by Senator Jones of Duluth to improve the conditions of labor in the woods will be taken up by the senate committee at the same time.

The senate committee on public domain, of which Senator O. H. Griggs of Virginia is chairman, had before it yesterday afternoon the two bills by Senator R. C. Dunn of Princeton to establish the state's right to lease iron ore deposits underlying the waters of meandered lakes and streams.

At the request of Chairman Griggs, the bills were laid over until next Thursday afternoon to give anybody who may be interested an opportunity to be heard.

Valuable iron deposits are understood to underly some of the waters of Northern Minnesota, and the attempt to assert the state's right to the use of these riches has been in progress for some time. As it stands, nobody can use them. The shore owners might come into the right to do so if the lakes ever went dry; in the meantime the state has dominion over the waters of the lakes, but unless its present contention can be established it cannot sell the ore.

Senator Dunn's bills would establish the state's right, and would keep off trespassers in the meantime. One of them is a proposed constitutional amendment, which will require a vote of the people to make it effective.

* * *

The house committee on public domain yesterday afternoon voted to recommend for passage the proposed constitutional amendment by Representative Thomas Knecland of Minneapolis taking the control of state lands out of the state auditor's hands, where the Constitution has lodged it. The purpose of the amendment is to make it possible to create a public domain department to handle the state's resources.

Elwell Road Law.

At a date to be announced later by Chairman Charles W. Bouck of Royalton, the house committee on roads and bridges will have a public hearing on the bill by Representative A. V. Anderson of Goodhue county repealing the Elwell road law.

Former Senator James T. Elwell of Minneapolis, author of the law, will be heard then, and doubtless there will be others who will wish to appear in behalf of the bill or against it, for while it has proved unpopular in some parts of Southern Minnesota, where it is believed that it has been abused, it appears to be popular in Northern Minnesota. It was intended to help the new sections to develop themselves and the use of the law to such an extent in Southern Minnesota as to arouse bitter opposition to it is an unexpected result.

The law is optional, and no county has to use it against its will. If sentiment for its repeal proves strong enough to put the law in danger, Senator John H. Baldwin of Frazee will propose as a compromise that the Elwell law be amended so that no road bond issues can be made without popular vote. This, it is believed, will meet the objections of Southern Minnesota.

Hearing on Game Laws.

At a date to be fixed by Chairman Edward Indrehus of Foley, the house committee on game and fish will have a public hearing—perhaps several—at which anybody who has suggestions to make looking toward improvement of the game laws will have a chance to be heard.

In the meantime, on motion of Representative Fred Bessette of Orr, the chairman of the committee was directed to appoint a sub-committee of three to receive suggestions, Chairman Indrehus to be one of the committee members. Representatives Paul W. Guilford of Minneapolis and H. O. Bjorge of Lake Park were named as the other members.

There have been many intimations that the game laws need a pretty thorough overhauling, and it is the intention of Chairman Indrehus and the members of the committee to get all the suggestions they can, and then whip the whole into the shape of a complete rewriting of the fish and game code.

Anybody who has ideas about what ought to be done to the game laws, therefore, should communicate with Mr. Indrehus.

The house committee on drainage yesterday afternoon voted to introduce a committee bill providing the $2,000 needed by the state drainage commission to get out its report and complete its year's work. Objections vanished when the situation was explained, and it was shown that the work of the commission is being carried on economically.

Consolidation of Villages.

The house committee on villages, of which Representative Charles T. Murphy of Aurora is chairman, laid over for one week Representative Samuel C. Scott's bill to authorize the consolidation of villages whose boundaries are like the same or half a mile or more. The law now authorizes such consolidation where the boundaries are identical for a mile and a half.

Mr. Scott aims to make possible the consolidation of the village of Kittsville with the village of Hibbing; but Representative E. R. Syverson of Ironton found that as it stands the bill would affect his community, and he will urge an amendment, which Mr. Scott says he will accept, providing that only villages of 8,000 people shall be affected. This will confine the application of the bill to Hibbing and Kittsville, and will eliminate such villages as Costin and Mountain Iron as well as Ironton and Crosby.

The house committee on appropriations yesterday afternoon recommended for passage the bill by Representative G. B. Bjornson of Minneota appropriating $43,062 to pay the bills for publishing explanations of the constitutional amendments last campaign.

The committee thought the bill pretty steep, though it is very little larger than it used to be when only three newspapers were used in each county, while now every newspaper is used.

The committee authorized Chairman Spooner to appoint a sub-committee of three to see if it can't be done cheaper. This committee will confer with the house committee on elections. Some members want to get out a pamphlet and mail it to the voters; others want to see if the newspapers will not provide the necessary publicity about the amendments free of charge.

The Lydiard-Malmberg bill appropriating $36,000 to pay for Minnesota's exhibit of a model farmstead at the San Francisco exposition was considered by the committee, and was laid over for a hearing next Tuesday afternoon, when the commissioners having the matter in charge will appear.

FARGO ALSO WOULD ENTERTAIN PRESIDENT.

Fargo, N. D., Jan. 22.—(Special to The Herald.)—President Wilson has been invited to spend a part of a day here this year, either going or returning from the Panama exposition. It is stated he will tour the Yellowstone park and make one leg of the trip via the Northern Pacific. Fargoans want him to break his journey by stopping off here for a few hours to be shown the great wheat fields and to make an address. A state-wide meeting will be held here with 50,000 citizens of the state to greet the nation's chief executive, if he will agree to the stop-over. The matter has been presented to him and he has agreed to give Fargo serious consideration in making up his itinerary. Grant, Harrison, McKinley, Roosevelt and Taft each drew large audiences when they visited Fargo and the citizens are anxious to honor Mr. Wilson.

Mixup Over Adjournment.

Senate adjourned to Tuesday at 11, and the house to Monday at 11, though the house had a characteristic mixup over the question and for a time it seemed doubtful if it would adjourn at all.

Representative Bouch moved to adjourn to Monday at 8 p. m. Representative Minette moved to amend it to Monday at 11. Representative Adams offered a third amendment making it tomorrow at 11. On a roll call, Adams' amendment was adopted, 61 to 60, and then the amended motion was defeated, 63 to 60.

Representative Sawyer raised the point that under the rules, when a motion to adjourn has been defeated, it cannot be renewed until other business is transacted.

The house was through with its order of business and no work was before it. Speaker Flowers then ruled that the vote was on Minette's motion to adjourn to Monday forenoon, and that motion prevailed.

To Be More Raids.

Berlin, Jan. 22, wireless to Sayville. —The first page of all the newspapers published in Berlin this morning was given to news of the attack made by Zeppelin airships on the English coast.

With remarkable unanimity the German press appears to expect that this raid will be followed shortly by others. Satisfaction is expressed in the fact that all the Zeppelins returned safely, and in the announced belief that the moral effect of the bombardment cannot fail to be very great.

until he had had time to go into the details of the bill.

"I don't want to be classed as an obstructionist," he said, "but I feel that I ought to have time to examine the details of this bill before I vote on it. It is an important matter, and it ought not to be decided until the members of the committee have had a chance to consider it carefully. If it is impossible to get a copy and go through it in detail, I should feel compelled to refrain from voting."

Senator John W. Pauly of Minneapolis agreed with this contention, and moved that consideration of the bill be postponed until the members of the committee had been given copies and a chance to study them.

Ylbert Opposes Delay.

Senator Fred D. Ylbert of Cloquet opposed the idea of delay. He said that the bill was practically the same as those considered at previous sessions.

"Though I have not been a member of the legislature before," said Mr. Ylbert, "when I was appointed to this committee I had interest enough in my duty to get a copy of the bill and read it and digest its details. There is no use in delaying it. It has to be fought out, and it might as well be fought out now."

F. W. Zollman, speaking for the brewery interests, said that he did not wish to delay the consideration of the bill in any way.

"We are here today," he said, "to say what has been said against the bill, though what we have to say would of course be better understood when the senators have had a chance to look into the bill."

The same opinion was voiced by Thomas Spillane of St. Paul, representing interests opposed to county option, and James A. Wharton of Duluth, who appeared in behalf of the Minnesota Merchants' and Manufacturers' association, which is also opposed to the bill.

Senator Albert L. Ward of Fairmont raised an objection to the committee's giving preference to the county option bill over the prohibition bill.

"Why," he asked, "are we putting the cart before the horse? Let us see if the people want prohibition first, and then, if they don't, give them the next best thing—county option. I can't see any difference between county option and local option, and what I want to know is whether or not this prohibition bill is to be killed and buried right here."

It appearing that the majority of the committee favored giving the county option bill the right-of-way, Senator Ward's objection was overruled. The question of postponing consideration of the bill being put to the committee, a majority of the members agreed to a later hearing. The hearing for Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock was then agreed upon.

It is alleged his friends in St. Paul put up the money for him, which amounted to about $100.

STEAMER BURNS TO WATER'S EDGE

Believed All Passengers Were Taken From the Maryland.

Baltimore, Jan. 22.—The Chesapeake Bay steamer Maryland burned to the water's edge off the Magothy river mouth early this morning, but her captain by beaching her succeeded, it is believed, in saving her passengers, numbering seventy-six, and the crew of thirty-four.

Capt. Howard was quoted as saying he believed everybody escaped, but he could not be positive owing to the rapid spread of the flames. Engineer Startt, who said he and the captain were the last to leave the vessel, declared, however, that he was positive everybody was taken off.

When it was seen that the fire had gotten beyond control, the steamer headed for the beach, about a mile away, and was stranded a quarter of a mile off shore. As soon as the vessel grounded, the passengers were handed into the steamer's boats and taken ashore.

In their excitement three of the male passengers jumped overboard and swam ashore, according to one of the reports. The sea was quiet and the night clear.

Two boats of the Chesapeake Bay Steamship company brought the passengers to Baltimore.

ARMOUR MINES CHANGE OWNERS

Rogers-Brown Properties Purchased By Inland Steel Company.

Crosby, Minn., Jan. 22.—(Special to The Herald.)—On Wednesday night officials of the Inland Steel company and the Iroquois Iron company of Chicago reached Crosby by special train. Thursday morning the officials met in the offices of the Rogers-Brown Ore company, and it was announced that the Armour Nos. 1 and 2 mines had been purchased by the Inland Steel company.

As a result of the transaction the Rogers-Brown company will move its office and force to Cuyuna, where they will handle the business of the Kennedy mine, the only working property they have left on the Cuyuna range. It is expected the new owners will soon have the Armour properties working full capacity, which will improve business conditions greatly for Crosby and other range towns.

"THE CENTER OF GAYETY IN DULUTH"

PUPILS EXPRESS LIFE AIMS

Nearly 10 Per Cent of Central Students Would Be Accountants—8 Per Cent Farmers—Grand Opera and Other Professions Named.

Nearly 10 per cent of the boys now going to Central high school want to become accountants when they start out to wrestle with the cold world for their fame and fortune. Eight per cent of them are embryo farmers, according to the same report, issued yesterday by the vocational guidance committee of the Schoolmasters' club.

In starting its work, the committee gave slips to boys in Central high school to fill out, showing their preferences. Of the 556 boys, 355 had a definite occupation in mind and 201 were undecided.

From grand opera singer to sailor, the list of occupations ran the entire gamut, and contained many surprises for the teachers. Salaries varying from $15 a week to several hundred dollars a night were desired.

Every branch of the engineering profession will be represented by this class, if the boys have their wish, as nearly 20 per cent of the total, or 113 boys, wanted to be either a civil, mechanical, electrical, mining or railway engineer.

There will be twenty-six lawyers, seventeen doctors, twenty merchants and so on, down the list, to two journalists, and a private secretary. Many boys have been working to equip themselves for unusual vocations, there being a pipe-organist, a cartoonist, a florist, and a sailor.

Many original answers to questions seem to have been prompted by a desire on the part of the boy to follow in the footsteps of his father, the instructors believe. This list also reflects the ambitions of many fathers and mothers, who loved to think of their son as an engineer building a mighty bridge, or a doctor, or a prominent attorney.

The complete list, showing the number of boys who selected the various occupations, follows:

Accounting, 52; agriculture, 37; architecture, 19; artist, 1; banking, 2; building contractor, 5; cabinet worker, 1; carpenter, 1; cartoonist, 1; chemist, 1; clerk, railway mail, 1; commission merchant, 2; commission grain, 4; commercial illustrator, 1; commercial teacher, 1; dentistry, 4; draftsman, 16; engineer, electrical, 22; engineering, mechanical, 16; engineering, mining, 10; engineering, railway, 4; florist, 1; forestry, 5; grocery clerk, 1; insurance, 1; journalism, 2; law, 26; lumbering, 2; machinist, 8; manual training teacher, 1; medicine, 17; merchant, 26; merchant, hardware, 2; musical, 2; navy, 2; opera, 1; organist, pipe, 1; painter contractor, 1; pattern maker, 1; pharmacy, 6; photography, 1; pressman, 1; real estate, 1; salesmanship, 4; secretary, private, 1; traffic manager, 1; undecided, 201.

CLUB WOULD AID FIREMEN

Members Would Have City Meet Judgment for Death Claim.

Granzow and Chauffeur Can Ill Afford to Meet Loss, They Say.

That the city of Duluth should come to the assistance of Assistant Fire Chief Fred E. Granzow and his chauffeur, Gerald E. Black, and pay the judgment of $725 awarded by a district court jury against them in an action for damages for the death of Alida Hubert, age 4, killed May 18, 1914, was the sentiment expressed at the meeting of the West End Commercial club at its meeting last night at the Simonson hall, Twenty-first avenue west and Superior street.

The child was killed at Vernon and Third streets by the assistant chief's car as he was returning from a fire in the western end of the city. The child was returning from a store where she had gone to purchase candy. The father, Leander Hubert, 323 Vernon street, brought action in the district court for $5,000 damages against the two men and a jury in Judge Ensign's court brought in the verdict of $725 against the defendants.

The members of the club contend that the city should be held responsible for the action of its employes, and in this belief, say that the city should pay the judgment. The payment of the sum, members of the club said last night would prove a hardship for the firemen.

The club will select a desirable site for the proposed West end branch of the public library. A request from Mayor W. J. Prince that the club agree on such a site was received. It is proposed to select a place somewhere on First or Second streets between Twentieth and Twenty-third aveneus.

A committee consisting of James Maghan, A. B. Anderson and George M. Jensen was appointed to extend an invitation to the Northwestern Agricultural society to hold its meeting on Friday, Jan. 29, at the clubrooms. Quarterly meetings are being held by the society in this city.

The club postponed action on the election of new officers until Thursday evening, Feb. 4.

BOY INJURED BY STREET CAR DIES

Wallace Anderson, the 6-year-old lad whose leg was crushed by a street car backing around the "Y" in front of the Ensign school at Twenty-third avenue west and Tenth street, Wednesday afternoon, died at 9:30 o'clock last night at St. Luke's hospital. No funeral arrangements have been made. The body was taken to Olson & Crawford's undertaking rooms. The little fellow was the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Anderson, 2124 Piedmont avenue.

The accident happened as the boy, with three other companions, were going to the afternoon session of the kindergarten. They started across the street without noticing whether the car was moving. The boy's left leg above the knee was crushed under the wheels of the car.

The principal of the Ensign school stated this morning that the "Y" on which the cars turn should be moved from in front of the school.

Mr. Anderson has been superintendent of the school since the church was organized. He was also at the head of the school for several years when it was holding its meetings at the Bethany Swedish Lutheran church. Mr. Anderson was organist for the school, also. Prof. E. P. Gibson is the new superintendent. Mr. Anderson refused re-election because he will be out of the city considerably this year.

WAR BRINGS ADVANTAGES

European Turmoil Shows Americans Benefits of Foreign Trade.

St. Louis, Mo., Jan. 22.—"One week of the European war did more than ten years of academic discussion to convince Americans that foreign trade is a vital element in domestic prosperity. No doubt remains that the nation is determined to see its foreign commerce safeguarded and increased. Differences of opinion relate only to the method."

This statement was made last night by James A. Farrell, president of the United States Steel corporation in an address at the banquet of the foreign trade convention here.

"All elements are united in patriotic co-operation for the common end," Mr. Farrell said. "What advantage the European war will bring us depends largely upon changes in industrial trade relations that cannot be forecast. Meanwhile the interests of the United States are sufficient to warrant a proper respect for neutral commerce and the United States will, in maintaining its trade at as high level as a just regard for belligerent interests permits, serve the larger and permanent interests of those not engaged in hostilities.

Must Pursue Foreign Trade.

"Whatever may be the political outcome of the European war, it is apparent that each of the belligerents will find it essential, vigorously to pursue its foreign trade to repair the ravages of its domestic commerce, to provide labor for soldiers returned to peaceful pursuits, and to ameliorate the burden of taxation.

"Diplomacy of the future as of the past will be ultimately concerned with the commercial aggrandizement. It is, therefore, of vital consequence to America's future that advantage be taken of the present opportunity to exploit the products of American invention and establish a firm foothold in the markets of the world which neither political effort, tariff, discrimination nor low prices successfully can assail.

Vessels Transferred.

"Under the shipping registry act, over 100 vessels have been transferred to American registry. Some of the onerous restrictions of the navigation laws were suspended by executive order. It should be remembered that this modification is not a repeal of existing navigation laws, but merely a suspension. While there may be difference of opinion as to the proper policy of upbuilding the merchant marine, it appears to be generally recognized that as long as these restrictions are not legislatively repealed, the possibility of an enlarged American merchant marine competing successfully with the ships of other nations in time of peace, will be a matter of slow growth.

"Too little weight is given the fact that the war, which for the time being eliminated half of Europe as a source of supply, likewise curtails Europe's consumption of South American products. South American purchasing power eventually will improve, but American manufacturers and producers embarking for the first time in foreign trade should exercise patience."

McCORMICK RESIGNS.

No Longer Illinois Member of National Progressive Committee.

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 22.—Medill McCormick of Chicago, who as a Progressive member of the legislature recently cast his lot with the Republicans, last night announced that he had resigned two months ago as the Illinois member of the national Progressive committee and that Harold Ickes of Chicago had been elected to fill the vacancy caused by his resignation. Mr. McCormick, who was considered one of Col. Roosevelt's strongest supporters in Illinois, refused to give any reason for his resignation.

TUGWELL GUILTY OF KILLING MRS. KENNEDY

Los Angeles, Cal., Jan. 22.—Percy Tugwell was found guilty of the murder of Mrs. Maud B. Kennedy late last night. He was sentenced to life imprisonment.

A spectacular attempt of his bride to break the chain of circumstantial evidence against him by drinking a vial of chloroform in open court to disprove the prosecution's theory that a similar quantity of the poison caused the almost immediate death of Mrs. Kennedy proved unavailing. The drug appeared not to have injured the young woman.

Five members of the Tugwell family collapsed after the verdict was returned and were placed in five cots in a row in a receiving hospital. One of these was Mrs. Thelma Tugwell, the young wife.

The murder of Mrs. Kennedy was committed on the night of Aug. 31, after she had been lured from her home. Diamonds and jewelry valued at more than $1,000 were missing. Tugwell's motive was said to have been the need of money to finance his marriage and honeymoon trip. He was married four days after the murder and went to San Francisco, where he was arrested in October.

CUT THIS OUT

OLD ENGLISH RECIPE FOR CATARRHAL DEAFNESS AND HEAD NOISES.

If you know someone who is troubled with catarrhal deafness or head noises, cut out this formula and hand it to them and you will have been the means of saving some poor sufferer perhaps from total deafness. Experiments conducted in England some time ago seem to prove conclusively that catarrhal deafness, head noises, etc., were directly caused by constitutional trouble. It was further brought out that salves, sprays, inhalers, etc., merely temporize with the complaint, and seldom, if ever, effect a permanent cure. This being so, much time and money were spent in perfecting a pure, gentle, yet effective tonic that would quickly dispel all traces of the catarrhal poison from the system. The prescription which was eventually formulated and which has aroused the belief that catarrhal deafness and head noises will soon be extinct is given below in understandable form so that anyone can treat themselves in their own home at little expense.

Secure from your druggist 1 oz. Parmint (Double Strength.) about 75c worth. Take this home and add to it ¼ pint of hot water and 4 oz. of granulated sugar; stir until dissolved. Take one tablespoonful four times a day.

Parmint is used in this way not only to reduce by tonic action, the inflammation and swelling in the Eustachian Tubes, and thus to equalize the air pressure on the drum, but to correct any excess of secretions in the middle ear.

Every person who has catarrh in any form should give this recipe a trial and free themselves from this destructive disease.

Important—In ordering Parmint always specify that you want Double Strength. Your druggist has it, or he can easily get it for you. If not, write to the International Laboratories, Binghamton, N. Y., who make a specialty of it. —Advertisement.

EUGENIC LAW PROPOSED FOR STATE OF ILLINOIS.

Chicago, Jan. 22.—An eugenic marriage bill providing for a physical examination of women as well as men before a license for them to marry can be issued, was recommended by the city council health committee yesterday. The bill will be forwarded to the legislature for enactment.

The law would require all the accepted laboratory tests for diseases and differs from the Wisconsin and Oregon laws in that it makes $10 instead of $3 the maximum charge for examination.

READY FOR REFUGE HARBOR DIGGING

Contract for Keewenaw Point Improvement Expected to Be Let Soon.

Calumet, Mich., Jan. 22.—(Special to The Herald.)—Chief Engineer George H. Banks, Houghton, in charge of the Federal waterways through the Keweenaw peninsula, is preparing for the department data on the construction of the harbor of refuge projected for the Portage entry. He expects early action on the letting of the contract for the dredging work. The department is considering the use of a hydraulic dredge, in preference to a dipper, and, if found satisfactory, a sandsucker will be employed in the work. All dredging operations in these waters have heretofore been done by dipper dredges.

The Federal government owns a large tract of land along the site of the proposed harbor of refuge, largely swamp land, where it is proposed to dump the sand taken out in the dredging work. Numerous revisions have been made in the plans and specifications for the new work. The contract will be the largest to be undertaken by the government on Lake Superior this year. The harbor will be half a mile long and 800 feet wide, with a mooring pier 2,000 feet in length, along the west side.

The new refuge harbor is necessitated because of the increasing number of boats that each fall seek shelter in Keweenaw bay and adjacent waters from the fury of the northwestern gales that sweep Lake Superior each year. At present there are but insecure harbors in which shelter seeking vessels may tie up along Keweenaw bay.

Aitkin Factory Operating.

Aitkin, Minn., Jan. 22.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Aitkin barrel heading factory started operations again Wednesday, having shut down before the holidays for the lack of timber. They now have a good supply on hand and the factory employs thirty men.

Woman's Realm

At a special meeting of the Woman's council, held this morning, reports were heard from clubs regarding the stand taken by them in the matter of lunches for school children. Dr. J. H. Andres spoke of the need of a free dental clinic for the school children and Mrs. C. J. Le Sure, chairman of the educational committee, reported on the work done by that committee in regard to the clinic.

The Woodland Neighborhood club, Lester Park Literary club, Saturday club, Twentieth Century club, Housewives, league and West Duluth W. C. T. U. offered to help in the work of supplying school lunches, either by actual work or by co-operation. A committee to confer with the board of education was appointed, the members of the committee being the presidnts of the clubs who favor the plan. Mrs. A. H. Brocklehurst of the Saturday club was appointed chairman.

Dental Clinic.

Dr. J. H. Andres, who spoke on the need of a free dental clinic for school children, said, of the 7,214 children examined in the year 1913-1914, there were 4,499 children with defective teeth. He gave the following statistics:

Dr. Andres gave the opinion of Dr. Osler, who has said children with defective teeth and diseased gums, absorbing the toxins attendant upon these conditions, are worse off than if they were given a pint of whisky a day.

The speaker said, "Children have been shown their permanent teeth and have been told when anything is wrong with the teeth to notify their parents. It was thought that in this way parents would notice the teeth in general but there has been no co-operation on the part of the parents. At one school arrangements have been made with a druggist to supply the children with brushes at 10 cents each and a firm that manufactures tooth paste has sent samples to the children. One firm has sent samples to the children who pledge themselves to use the paste. This has done some good. In the large cities from 75 to 90 per cent of the children have defective teeth."

Dr. Andres, who has talked with some of the dentists of the city who offered to devote some time to the clinic if it is established, said the dentists did not want the children to go to their offices, but they would give their services if a room were provided for the work.

Money Needed.

Mrs. Le Sure reported the committee appointed by the Woman's council two years ago to look into the matter of a dental clinic found $600 or $700 would be necessary to put it into operation. She told of the work of the National Mouth Hygiene association, with headquarters at Cleveland, Ohio, that numbers many prominent dentists of the United States, an organization that works among its members for the improvement of the teeth of the people at large. A dentifrice is manufactured by the association, the sale of the article enabling the work of dental clinics to be carried on. A plan of this association, carried out in Cleveland, made possible the raising of $30,000 for the establishment of five dental clinics with a steady income for their maintenance. According to this plan a certain number of persons pledge themselves to buy four tubes of this dentifrice for $1.00 and obligate themselves to get five additional persons to do likewise. If the dentifrice is sent direct to the buyers 40 per cent of the proceeds reverts to the organization in charge of the undertaking. If a large quanity is sent by freight 50 per cent of the money reverts to the organization in charge of the local work.

A motion to the effect that the plan adopted in Cleveland for raising money be taken up in Duluth, provided the dental clinic become a reality.

The steady records for the Cleveland clinics is obtained by the regular trade in the dentifrice put out by the National Mouth Hygiene association, dentists of that city carrying the article in their regular stock.

A letter from Dr. Thomas B. Hartzell of Minneapolis, an acknowledged authority on pyorrhea, was in part:

"A free dental clinic, particularly for those children who are unfortunate and backward, has been shown to be of greatest value in sharpening their mentality.

"The Marion school experiment in Cleveland upon twenty-seven backward children showed a difference as made evident by the psychological tests in the beginning and end of the school year of 40 to 90 per cent in increased ability. In general health it has been shown that the greatest benefit is conferred upon the child, shutting the door to all kinds of infection.

"Many of the most careful observers now believe that the tubercular glands of the child are chiefly the result of infection occurring through the swollen, bleeding gum and open porous bone surrounding the teeth.

"Detroit, Cleveland, Rochester and New York have made great strides in this direction. I am convinced by my own observation that a city or community which would adopt a systematic treatment for the poor who suffer most seriously from dental ills would be of greatest value, and that the improved condition of the children would make them such an increased asset in the way of greater accomplishments and better citizenship that the money expended would be a mere bagatelle in comparison with the positive good accomplished by the clinic."

The matter of lunches and a dental clinic will be taken up at the meeting of the board of education to be held Feb. 5. If the board approve of the plans the clubs that favor school lunches will take up the work and the county association of dentists will meet to discuss the part they will take in the clinic.

The young people met when Mr. Appleton was recuperating from the strain of the great Yale-Harvard race at York Harbor last summer. Miss Reath is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Reath of Philadelphia. She is one of the popular members of the young set of the Quaker city.

Chicago, Jan. 22.—Full skirts reinforced and made non-transparent by heavy lining are to be a feature of next summer's fashions in place of the recent scant and semi-transparent garments. This fiat was pronounced today in the style bulletin of the Fashion Art league of America which declared that the gowns of the old crinoline days were being approached step by step.

AMUSEMENTS

TONIGHT'S ATTRACTIONS.

LYCEUM—Baldwin Players in "A Pair of Crooks" and "Lost—Twenty-four Hours."
ORPHEUM — Vaudeville and motion pictures.
NEW GRAND—Vaudeville and motion pictures.
REX—Feature films.
ZELDA—Motion pictures.

Amusement Notes.

Lyceum audiences are seeing Miss Dorothy Shoemaker as a brunette for the first time this week.

In the one-act play, "A Pair of Crooks," which is used as a curtain raiser this week, Miss Shoemaker plays the part of the wife of the mayor in a very becoming black wig. Her admirers hardly recognized her when she made her first appearance, for the wig is not easy to detect, and Miss Shoemaker as a brunette was a surprise.

In the three-act comedy, "Lost—Twenty-four Hours," she discards the wig. The work of Miss Shoemaker, Mr. Hall and Joseph De Stephani in the curtain raiser is one of the most pleasing features of this week's bill.

Last evening the curlers had possession of the theater. Tomorrow the usual Saturday matinee will be given and the last performance of the current bill Saturday night.

Sunday afternoon and all next week the Baldwin Players will be seen in "The Virginian." This is the biggest production they have yet attempted. The last time "The Virginian" was presented in Duluth, Dustin Farnum was seen in the title role. Trampas and Steve and the little New England school teacher will be well remembered by theater-goers. The fight between Trampas and The Virginian, the death of Steve and the comedy of "Honey," the fat cowboy, are features of the play that are not soon forgotten. Some new faces will be seen in the company for the one week only, as the cast is so big that extra people have been engaged by Mr. Baldwin. It will be the first Western drama the Baldwin Players have presented and it is expected to prove the most popular bill of their Duluth engagement.

Henry W. Savage's famous melodramatic farcical production, "The Million," is a real gloom-chaser. There is a continuous stream of mirth and if the old philosophers are right in saying "laughter is wealth," then every patron of the Rex today and tomorrow will be a millionaire.

The subject presents one of the most remarkable examples of character acting shown in many years. Edward Abeles not only presents varied physical appearance, but gives each of the six roles he impersonates a distinct personality; first as the crook with the police baying at his heels; then as Ike Danskinski, the second-hand clothing dealer of the Bowery, and, following these two characters, the blond cabaret dancer. The absorbing swiftness of the changes call into play all the well-known ability of the star among character actors, Edward Abeles. It is a Paramount-Famous Player feature.

At the Zelda theater Sunday and Monday, the wonderful sacrifices made by Father Damien and scores of other men and women who have given their lives to alleviate the last sufferings of the lepers in the Hawaiian islands and in the Culion colony, on the island of Palawan, in the Philippine archipelago will be shown.

Only once in a great while does one hear of the life of these doomed wretches, who wither away in solitude behind barbed wire screens in a city of their own. They have their own money and their own system of exchange and barter. In most cases they act as nurses for each other, but there are some cases which even the lepers themselves refuse to touch.

Armed soldiers guard the enclosed lepers, and so far only few have been known to escape. These, however, are rounded up, for the signs of their misfortune are branded upon them. Burton King has written an intensely interesting photoplay about these exiles.

Tanguay Act at Grand.

Weber, Dolan and Frazer, who took an aeroplane flight into the vaudeville field with Eva Tanguay and her cyclonic two-a-day artists some time ago, are at the New Grand, offering the same high-class line of entertainment that they did when playing the high-priced houses with the irresistable Eva. Their act yesterday was cyclonic in its effect, and after the players thought they were all through for the evening, they were called back repeatedly.

They don't dance to speak of, but they seem to have caught the Tanguay movement in the interpretation of their song-movements without any special significance except that they are spontaneous and appropriate. They are undoubtedly among the best entertainers seen at the Grand for a long time.

Copeland, Draper and company in a skit entitled, "Rooms No. 44 and 45," have an act that is bubbling over with bright, catchy humor, and the generous applause was a sufficient recommendation for their merit. Almost every line brought a laugh.

The Engfords, European novelty contortionists, do a lot of turns that seem almost incredible, and pleased the audiences well.

The pictures as usual were one of the best features of the show, offering a fine variety of subjects and scenes. "The Friendship of Lamond," a three-reel drama film deserved special notice. The plot centers around a romantic woman, who grows tired of her prosaic husband. The home-wrecker enters only to be thwarted in his purpose by a home-saver in the guise of the husband's friend, who sacrifices himself for his friends. Helen Holmes again appears in another number of her thrilling railway pictures—this time "The Girl Telegrapher's Peril." Miss Holmes is becoming a familiar figure to Grand patrons and gains in favor weekly. The Hearst-Selig News Pictorial shows many scenes of current news events. Other films round out the bill.

BABIES USED IN TESTS IN PURE MILK CRUSADE

The Rockefeller Institute of Research and the New York Health Department have conducted experiments with babies in the tenement house district of New York to arrive at the cause of infant mortality.

250 babies were observed in summer and the following statistics were announced by Dr. William H. Park, Director of the Research Department of the New York Board of Health.

2 per cent of babies using Certified Raw Milk DIED.
8 per cent of babies using Good Raw Milk DIED.
14 per cent of babies using Ordinary Raw Milk DIED.

NOT ONE BABY USING PASTEURIZED MILK DIED

Dr. Park said that after 50 babies had been given Pasteurized Milk for three weeks, half of them were suddenly changed to good milk not pasteurized. "Eleven out of the twenty-four became ill," said he, "which proves conclusively the effects of pasteurization."

Mothers—Will you continue to take chances on raw milk for your children in the face of the warnings of all Health Authorities?

OUR MILK IS PASTEURIZED and is the only perfectly pasteurized milk in Duluth.

WANT WOMEN THEMSELVES TO VOTE ON SUFFRAGE FIRST

"Antis" Want Legislature to "Refrain From Placing On Women of State Duty of Suffrage."

A protest has been placed on the desk of every senator and every legislator at the capitol the past week, in which the anti-suffragists virtually ask for a referendum to women before the question of woman suffrage is submitted to the present electorate of the state. Women in anti-suffrage organizations feel that the women themselves should have a voice in a matter that so vitally concerns them.

Embodied in the plea that the legislature and senate "refrain from placing on the women of the state the duty of suffrage," is a direct request that the question be put to the women themselves for a vote. The request follows:

"In all fairness, we ask you at least to refuse to put this constitutional amendment, affecting all of us so vitally, before the legal voters of the state until the women have had an opportunity, by means of a referendum to women, to declare whether or not a majority of them desire it."

The anti-suffragists' protest brands the proposed woman suffrage amendment "unnecessary, inexpedient and harmful," and states the case further as follows:

"It is unnecessary, first, because the laws which in the past discriminated against women have been so changed that legal advantage is nearly always on the side of the women. These changes have been effected without woman suffrage, although woman's influence has played a large part in bringing them about. Moreover, the laws relating especially to women and children are already better in non-suffrage than in suffrage states.

"It is unnecessary, secondly, because what we need in the ballot is not greater quantity, but improved quality. We believe that some women would be better voters than some men, but that the total vote of women would show about the same degree of judgment and conscience as that of men; and we see no reason for doubling the vote unless we can also purify and improve it.

"Wages are governed by economic forces and are independent of the ballot. Taxes are raised and lowered by the votes of non-taxpayers as well as those of taxpayers, and the taxpaying woman would find her ballot a useless weapon when it came to the matter of her own property.

"Woman suffrage is inexpedient because of her present influences, in many cases very considerable, would be impaired if it became a positive influence. Men listen with interest to an intelligent woman's comment on political affairs, while if they felt behind it the animus of party sentiment they would discount it as candidly as they do the opinion of a prejudiced man. Not only this, but the woman herself thinks more freely and clearly without the consciousness of party bias than she could do with it.

"It is inexpedient because it sets two people to do the work of one; because the basis of government is force, and women should not be set to making laws which they cannot enforce; and because women, so far as tested, do not use the vote in great or increasing numbers where it has been granted."

OBSERVATIONS

By PEGGY PEABODY

Birthright Is a Treasure Indeed.

I would not give much for the chances of the young woman, were matters reversed, who stands so nobly and solidly for her affianced husband but recently apprised of the fact that the man and woman he has long believed were his parents are not related to him by ties of blood or even by the legal ties of adoption. And more, that his mother is some mysterious woman, known to him as a family friend, who has watched his growth from babyhood to manhood, with undoubted motherly love.

What would be the attitude of the man who has filled the role of father to this boy, so ruthlessly shorn of the most dependable friends in life, if the thunderbolt which has fallen in the midst of the two families preparing for the wedding came from the girl's side of the house?

One can well believe, as it has been demonstrated only too many times, that a mystery in the parentage of a woman works a vastly different result in the minds of some, taking everything desirable from her character, though she herself be spotless as new-fallen snow.

It is always horrible enough for a man to be the innocent victim of his mother's folly (you know it is always the mother's folly, with hardly a word about the rascality and criminality of the father) but, oh, a so much heavier burden for a woman to bear. Thank heaven for the promised judgment day, when all the irersponsible fathers must answer for their own.

Of course, a man who would blackmail a man for an amount of money, great or small, or for any reason, is a pretty contemptible sort of a human being, one that anyone might wish to disown. But when it really comes to casting your own off, it is another story. You feel an immeasurable contempt for the one who wants to be rid of those of his own flesh who are weaklings.

Anyone capable of desiring to forget the existence of his own flesh and blood is also capable of feeling that contamination itself exudes from the bodies of perfectly innocent men and women of whom, unfortunately, there must always be a question or a certain knowledge that they are the victims of circumstances over which they have no control.

TRADE GOOD IN CANADA

A. H. Smith Says Unemployed Are Fewer Than If No War.

Imperial Agent Gives Manufacturers Plenty of Work to Do.

A. H. Smith, who until he deserted six years ago, was an ardent Duluthian, is down from Winnipeg, a member of Bill Carson's rink, attending the spiel. Mr. Smith is probably the best known, locally, of the curlers who have invaded Duluth this year, and he talks interestingly to his friends about the conditions in Canada during the present war times. Mr. Smith has three sons in the Canadian contingent that is now being trained at Winnipeg to go to the front in the spring. He declares that the only gloomy feeling in Canada is over the boys who are going to the trenches to meet the enemy of the empire, for, he adds, "God only knows if we will ever see them again."

Speaking of conditions in Canada, Mr. Smith says that conditions are really better than if the war had not started—especially the Northwest.

"One hundred and four thousand Canadians," said Mr. Smith, "are either in France, England or under arms in Canada. That takes that many out of trade and labor and gives that much more work to those who would otherwise be unemployed this winter. We expected, before the war began, to have a lot of people out of work and many manufactories closed, because dull times were upon us. Instead of that we are busy. F. W. Stowbart, imperial agent to Canada, is issuing orders for clothing, boots, underwear, rifles, ammunition and other things, and these orders are keeping men employed who otherwise would be out of work. Canada, in a manufacturing way, is in good condition and her people are doing well.

"For instance, in Winnipeg alone, where there are 7,000 men being trained, and getting on an average, about $10 a week, most of which they spend, there is bound to be good trade from that source. Other cities are similarly situated. The luxuries have suffered—such as theaters, for thousands have sworn not to attend a theater or other place of amusement while the war lasts, using the money that would be thus spent for relief funds and the like. Hundreds of men who have been moderate drinkers have sworn off for the same reason, and the bars have consequently suffered a good deal. But other lines of business have not suffered.

"We are not talking about the war. I have heard more war talk in Duluth than in Winnipeg. We are right down to brass tacks and fighting. We are preparing to sow an immense acreage to grain, not for profit only, but because the empire needs it and must look to the colonies for it. We take the war very seriously, but we are not gloomy or despondent."

LODGING RECORD A GOOD THERMOMETER

Zero Weather Drives Homeless Men to the Police Station.

Whenever Fred S. Johnson, assistant secretary of the police department, wants to know how cold it is, he looks up the record of the men lodged by the police on the previous night.

"As a thermometer this record is hard to beat," he declared this morning. "As soon as it gets cold the men begin to come in and the lodgers' room fills up."

Last night sixty-three men applied for shelter from the sub-zero weather and on the previous night fifty-eight men obtained a free bed. During the recent warm snap, the "roomers" were more independent and the totals fell to half that number.

Last year the police distributed more than 11,500 such free beds, the record for a single night, made on one of the coldest days last fall, being 158 men.

GIVEN CHANCE TO TRY JAIL MEALS

Tendency to be an epicure has caused Frank Hahn, aged 26, considerable trouble recently, resulting first in a 60-day work farm sentence and then a 60-day jail term.

When brought before Municipal Judge F. H. Cutting this morning on a charge of attempting, with two others, to escape from the county work farm, he declared that the soup wasn't palatable, that he stood it several days and then decided to leave.

"There's something wrong with the man who objects to that fare," said His Honor, "because I've had several meals at the work farm and know what the men get. We'll see if you like the county jail means any better."

Hahn was serving a 60-day sentence for vagrancy, following a dispute with a waiter in a Superior street restaurant about a meal on Jan. 4.

With Anthony Fink, aged 22, and Raymond Boyer, aged 27, Hahn left the work farm about 4:30 p. m. yesterday, while the three were clearing some brush. Hahn made his way to Duluth Heights and thence to First street, between Fifth and Sixth avenues west, where he was picked up by Police Sergeant John Roberg. He tried to escape last week, but the attempt was frustrated.

Fink and Boyer surrendered to Supt. Fred Ward, Assistant Supt. B. C. Erickson and Guard J. Nelson about two hours after their escape when the officers came upon them in the woods a short distance from the farm. Both men were serving 60-day sentences, Fink starting with Hahn and Boyer being arrested Jan. 14.

BELIEVES EXPLORERS LONG SINCE PERISHED.

Boston, Mass., Jan. 22.—Capt. Robert Bartlett, commander of the steamer Karluk, which conveyed the Stefanson expedition to the Arctic, expressed the belief that the eight missing explorers of the expedition perished long ago.

"These eight men set out last February from the place where the Karluk was crushed in the ice and headed for Wrangell island, eighty miles distant," he said. "They never reached the island. The men had neither proper supplies nor experience in Arctic work to carry them safely through all the months since February, 1914. They perished without doubt."

"PAULINE" FIGURES IN DIVORCE TRIAL

Mysterious Affinity Broke Up Home, Declares Mrs. Jennie Boucher.

A mysterious "Pauline" figures as co-respondent in a divorce case which Mrs. Jennie Boucher, 49, started yesterday afternoon in district court against Adolph Boucher, 50, whom she married nearly twenty-nine years ago. The decree is sought on the grounds of infidelity and desertion.

Mrs. Boucher declares that she knew the woman who was responsible for breaking up her home by no other name than Pauline. Boucher, she said, often boasted of relations with his affinity, and on Aug. 29, 1913, she claims, he made her pack his trunk. He left to live with Pauline, she says. All were living at Hibbing at the time of the incident, she says.

Since her husband deserted her, Mrs. Boucher claims that she has been obliged to earn her living by taking in boarders. The Bouchers were married at Ishpeming, Mich., June 13, 1886. She asks the court for the right to take her maiden name, Jennie De Marse.

WILL CAPTURE DACIA AND PURCHASE CARGO.

Washington, Jan. 22.—The British government announces through her embassy here that if the former liner Dacia proceeded to sea, she would be captured and taken to a prize court. Her cargo of cotton will be purchased by the British government or forwarded to Rotterdam without further expense to the shippers, according as the owners may prefer.

The state department had communicated this information informally to the owners of the Dacia as a result of a message from Ambassador Page, and was notified in reply that the vessel was loading at Galveston and would put to sea, notwithstanding the British government's position. It was believed that the owners had resolved to test the issue in a prize court.

Incidentally, the war risk insurance bureau of the American government issued a policy insuring the cotton cargo at 4 per cent, but declined to insure the vessel itself.

SPECIAL ELECTION COST CITY $1,600

Taxpayers Must Pay for Expressing Views on Lighting Question.

Tuesday's special election on the electric lighting issues cost the city $1,600, according to a report completed yesterday by City Clerk Palmer.

The salary of the judges and clerks, the rental of thirty-eight polling places and the printing and distribution of copies of the ordinances and sample ballots amounted to $1,800, while the 56-page booklet sent to 12,000 voters entailed a cost of $300.

By not holding a special registration day, the city saved $600, City Clerk Palmer said.

FREED OF LARCENY CHARGE.

John Hoy Is Declared Not Guilty of Stealing Butter.

A jury in Judge Fesler's division of the district court late yesterday afternoon acquitted John Hoy, railroad switchman, who was on trial charged with grand larceny in the second degree. He was accused of having broken into a Northern Pacific box car Dec. 10 last and stolen seven tubs of butter worth $125. He was indicted for the offense by the January grand jury. Railroad detectives appeared as the principal witnesses against him. James J. Courtney appeared in court as attorney for Hoy and Harry F. White, third assistant county attorney, prosecuted.

ENGLISH PHEASANTS ARE IN SPALDING LOBBY.

George W. Reynolds, proprietor of the Spalding hotel, is still adding to the attractive features of that hostelry. His latest addition in the line of decorations is the mounting of four beautiful English pheasants in the lobby. The birds are of a rare type, and for beauty of plumage and graceful bearing would be difficult to duplicate. Two of these handsome birds are placed over the registry desk and two at the south end of the lobby. Mr. Reynolds is arranging to mount some golden pheasants, which are said to be even more beautiful than the English species.

Aitkin, Minn., Jan. 22.—(Special to The Herald.)—Miss Olga Delborg and John Nelson, both of Aitkin, were quietly married Sunday afternoon at the home of Rev. J. A. Forsberg, Fleming Lake, who performed the ceremony. The young people are both well known here, the bride being a teacher in the county and the bridegroom is connected with one of the mining companies operating in this vicinity. The marriage ceremony was twice postponed owing to serious illness in the bride's family.

They were attended by Miss Eva Cook and Howard Dodge. Mr. and Mrs. Day departed for a wedding trip to Medale, Iowa, and will, upon their return, reside on a farm in the town of Morrison.

BEAUTY AT SWEET SIXTEEN

Comes Back When One Clears Up the Complexion By the Quick Acting Stuart's Calcium Wafers.

Pimples are an offense to others and a crime against yourself. People have only tolerated you because they considered the condition of your face to be a misfortune against which you have no remedy. But now that it is universally known that Stuart's Calcium Wafers will usually banish pimples, blackheads, blotches, eruptions and liverspots, your continued negligence will be considered inexcusable.

"I Wish I Could Make Every Pimply Woman Take Stuart's Calcium Wafers Just One Week."

The person with a pimply face is always unattractive and at a disadvantage in society. Those ugly disfigurements set at naught the effect of the most perfect features. If your face and figure had the classical outlines of a Greek statue, a mass of pimples would still destroy your beauty. A clear, fresh skin is absolutely essential to any real beauty.

A beautiful complexion is dependent on a rich, pure, abundant supply of blood to the skin. Calcium sulphide has long been recognized as one of the most effective of blood purifiers. Quickly converting all impurities into gaseous form that readily escapes from the pores, it purifies the blood in remarkably short order. Calcium sulphide is the chief constituent of Stuart's Calcium Wafers, which contain besides, certain mild alteratives that invigorate the blood. You will be delighted at the rapidity with which all face disorders will disappear, once the blood has been cleansed of its impurities through their use.

You have a right to beauty and health and happiness. You have a right to the admiration and respect of others. Take the step that will gain you all of these. Get a 50c box of Stuart's Calcium Wafers of your druggist and win back your birthright. A small sample package mailed free by addressing F. A. Stuart Co., 175 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

KNEW THEM BOTH.

The Delineator: The family doctor was paying a semi-social visit. As he took a leisurely departure he paused to discuss with Margaret's mother the general health conditions of the city.

"We're not so badly off—comparatively, that is," he said. "For one thing there are only two uncontrolled, unmitigated smoke nuisances in the town."

From the sofa in the corner Margaret spoke:

"Yes, doctor, I know," said she. "Papa and Uncle Jim."

WAGE SYSTEM IS EXPLAINED

Thinks Employes Should Be Represented in the Directorate.

New York, Jan. 22.—Among the many suggestions made by witnesses as probable solutions of the industrial problems of the country, that made by George W. Perkins, director of the United States Steel corporation and other large corporations, before the Federal commission on industrial relations, that government supervision of large industrial units would do much toward eliminating the abuses from which labor has suffered under the competitive system, was expected to be discussed in more detail when Mr. Perkins resumed his testimany today.

Explains Wage System.

The examination of Mr. Perkins was continued when the hearing was resumed today. He explained in detail the wage system of the United States Steel corporation.

Only 22 per cent of the employes in the mills and mines were forced to work twelve hours a day, he said. He denied that the system of allowing the employes to purchase stock in the corporation had a tendency to curtail the personal liberty of the employes in that it prevented them from making complaints about wages and the length of working hours.

The witness believed that profit-sharing was the "missing link between capital and labor," which would decrease industrial unrest.

Mr. Perkins said he thought it advisable to have the employes of the Steel corporation represented in the board of directors and that such a question had recently received considerable attention by the board.

The witness believed the present condition of business and the failure of the Steel corporation to earn profits at the present time were due to the new tariff law.

Ford Testifies.

Henry Ford of Detroit, automobile manufacturer, detailed the working of the wage system which he introduced at his plant last year, under which no employes receives less than $5 a day. Mr. Ford said that since the plan had been introduced the following benefits had accrued to the employes:

Bank deposits had increased more than 130 per cent.

The number of life insurance policies taken out by employes and the number of homes bought by them had greatly increased.

Intoxication among the employes had decreased.

It was a rare thing, Mr. Ford said, for an employe at his plant to be arrested. The plan, he added, was based on the belief that work well done should be rewarded.

ZAPATA FORCES NEARING PUEBLA

Carranza's Troops Evidently Preparing to Leave the City.

Washington, Jan. 22.—Zapata forces were within four miles of Puebla when an official dispatch was filed from there to the statedepartment late last night and the Carranza defenders were reported loading artillery and equipment, apparently for retreat. The Carranza troops recently drove the Villa-Zapata army out of the city with heavy loss.

The Carranza agency statement today mentioned reports that Villareal, former treasurer of the Mexican National convention, has been executed with other prominent Villa sympathizers by troops of Banderas in the capital and said a private telegram reported Gen. Murguia, a Carranza commander, as besieging Queretaro. Vera Cruz to the agency reported economic conditions in Mexico City critical and said Villa troops were committing depredations.

Carothers Joins Villa.

El Paso, Tex., Jan. 22.—Word was received here early today that George O. Carothers, special agent of the American state department had joined Gen. Villa's headquarters in the field below the city of Chihuahua.

No Credence in Report.

Washington, Jan. 22.—Consular Agent Carothers, in a dispatch dated yesterday reported his departure from Aguas Callentes. State department officials said they placed no credence in published reports that he had fallen into a personal encounter with Gen. Villa and had been wounded.

NOT A TOTAL LOSS DURING THE SEASON

Great Lakes Protective Association Hears Annual Reports.

Detroit, Mich., Jan. 22.—The consideration of annual reports and the election of officers for the coming year composed the principal business before the Great Lakes Protective association in session here today.

The association came through last year without the total loss of any steamer enrolled in its membership. This favorable result was attributed to the care exercised in navigation, to the wise adoption of separate courses for east and west bound vessels and to a strict observance of the rules of navigation in fog.

A proposition to increase hull insurance from 25 per cent to 50 per cent of a ship's valuation was expected to bring out a lively discussion.

NEW OFFENSIVE MACHINERY USED

Powerful Land Mines Employed By Germans Near Warsaw.

(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)

Petrograd, Jan. 2—The German army in front of Warsaw is using some new offensive machinery in its trench war fare with excellent results. Among these new weapons are some very powerful land mines, which are set at night by sappers and exploded later by electricity. So-called "torpedoes" and improved hand grenades are also used.

The torpedoes are really bombs of formidable size, which explode on contact and spread death-dealing fragments of jagged iron, at the same time poisoning the air for twenty yards around with a deadly gas. These are hurled silently from a sort of ballista or catapult, which has a useful range of about 150 feet.

The hand grenades resemble in appearance a large sky rocket. A tin canister with a pointed head is fixed on a stick or handle about two feet long. The canister is filled with bullets and an explosive charge fired by contact on the pointed head. The grenade is thrown by hand, the stick serving both as a handle and as a tail which insures the pointed head striking first and exploding the contents. They are used in infantry charges during the few moments when the rifles cease firing and the bayonets are not yet within striking distance.

STATE BANKERS WILL MEET IN ST. PAUL.

Minneapolis, Minn., Jan. 22.—The Minnesota State Bankers' association will meet this year at St. Paul June 29 and 30. This was decided by the executive council which held a meeting at the offices of G. H. Richards, secretary, Wednesday.

USE COCOANUT OIL FOR WASHING HAIR

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, the less soap you use the better.

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Just plain mulsified cocoanut oil (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than soap or anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily, and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get mulsified cocoanut oil at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months.—Advertisement.

WOULD LIMIT ARMAMENTS

Resolutions Presented to New York State Bar Association.

Buffalo, N. Y., Jan. 22.—Resolutions urging President Wilson to consider and submit to the next international congress the proposition of limitation of armaments, both on land and sea, and the establishment of an international police force, were submitted to the New York State Bar association today by the committee on international arbitration, disarmament and international police.

After review of The Hague conventions, the committee's report reads:

"It thus appears that, so far as mutual agreements embodied in treaties are concerned, the principal nations of the world have agreed to settle their differences by peaceful means; yet, during the year 1914, in spite of these treaties, and others to which we need not now particularly refer, we find many of these same nations involved in the most bloody and destructive war that has happened since the beginning of the world. It is not to be supposed that these nations were not sincere in their mutual declarations. On the contrary, we are bound to assume that they were, but that they were carried away by the heat of passion when questions arose which might have been submitted to an impartial tribunal for its decision. This danger was greatly increased by the fact that it had become the policy of some of the nations to make every able-bodied citizen a soldier, and drill and equip him in such fashion that he could be called into the field, or, as the phrase is, 'mobilize,' at a moment's notice. Hence, we have a war in which literally millions of men are engaged on each side, in which all the resources of science and all the ingenuity of mechanism are employed for mutual destruction.

International Police.

"For the enforcement of agreements and of statutes, which bear the same relation to civil law that treaties do to international law, each nation has provided an internal police, which may, in case of need, be supported by the national army. Since the nations have been able to agree upon the formation of an international court of arbitration, should they not be willing to follow the analogy of this institution existing in each and provide an international police? In such case, the independent army of each nation should be strictly limited. As a result each nation would be without the power to begin war on a great scale. An international police could check any turbulence and invasion of one nation by another, just as the police of a particular nation, seconded, if need be, by the army of that nation, puts down a mob or suppresses an insurrection.

"In the year 1817 a treaty was made between the United States and Great Britain limiting the naval force to be maintained upon the American lakes by Great Britain and the government of the United States to one vessel each on Lake Ontario and Lake Champlain and two vessels on each of the upper lakes. It was further agreed 'That all other armed vessels on these lakes shall be forthwith dismantled and that no other vessels of war shall be there built or armed.' This treaty has remained in force and been observed ever since, and with one or two trifling modifications occasioned by special circumstances which were approved by both parties. It is probably due to this treaty more than any single cause that there has been no war between this country and Great Britain for over one hundred years."

FUTURE OF OUR FOREIGN TRADE

Depends Upon the Participation of More Smaller Manufacturers.

St. Louis, Mo., Jan. 22.—The future welfare of American foreign trade largely depends upon the participation in it of an increasing number of smaller manufacturers and merchants, according to W. C. Downs, United States commercial attache for Australasia, who addressed the second annual foreign trade convention here today on the subject of "How These Smaller Manufacturers and Merchants Could Successfully Enter the Foreign Trade."

Mr. Downs, who was formerly an exporter and importer of many years' residence in South America, declared that with all of the facilities now offered by the government, the railroads, banks and various foreign trade organizations, there was no excuse for an American manufacturer not being able to ascertain whether his goods were suitable for any particular market. The problem of getting the goods into that market could be solved largely by co-operative foreign selling organizations and export commission houses.

It was far better for a small manufacturer to undertake his foreign business in co-operation with other manufacturers, he said, than it was for him to entrust the future of his export business to his own representatives unless he was justified in assuming the heavy expense of an exclusive traveler. In his opinion these co-operative groups should be limited in number, non-competing, and yet produce kindred or allied lines of goods, in order to work with the most efficiency.

If the smaller manufacturer was unable or did not care to enter such combination, he had at hand ready to serve him the highly trained and efficient organizations of the export commission houses, who already have permanent agents and exhibition rooms abroad. The commission merchants, he said, always have been and still are the pioneers who still handle a very considerable percentage of American export trade.

The small manufacturer, he said, should inform himself thoroughly as to which were the best represented and best equipped commission houses operating in the territory which he wished to enter, and lay out with them a selling campaign that should be mutually satisfactory. In any event it was a matter of intelligent co-operation of all interested parties that would solve the problem of extending the foreign trade of the smaller manufacturers and merchants.

BABY GETS DAMAGES.

Recovers $300 for Injuries Received Prior to Birth.

Eldorado, Kan., Jan. 22.—John A. Holliday, 5 months old, has won a damage suit for $300 for injuries received two months before he was born. His mother was struck by a Frisco train before the child was born, and it was proved that the shock stunted the baby's growth and made him nervous and fretful.

BUTTER AND EGGS LOWER

Receipts Picking Up and Cheaper Prices Yet Looked for.

Apples Still Plentiful—No Advances as Yet in Quotations.

Butter and eggs are cheaper today and unless the thermometer slips down below the zero mark and lingers there over an unduly prolonged spell, prices are likely to go lower yet.

This will be pleasing to consumers who during the past month have felt much perturbed over the steady climbing up of the market in dairy products and eggs.

Creamery butter is off a cent, with quotations at from 32 to 34 cents a pound. "Butter has dropped on account of the better receipts of cream, and it may fall another cent within the next few days. It is, however, largely a weather proposition," said B. M. Ruse, sales manager of the Bridgeman-Russell company today. New York and the other Eastern markets are also slightly off, but they are in a nervous state, he said, as dealers regard it as impossible to guage the probable production with any degree of accuracy during the next few weeks. In the meantime consumption is good and all the fresh butter offering is being grabbed for.

Hens Begin to Lay.

Hens have begun to lay a trifle better, and the result is that the famine in fresh eggs is not so pronounced as it was a week ago. While really fresh eggs are still quoted at around 40 to 42 cents a dozen, they are more readily procurable than they were. The trade does not look for any material reduction in their figure during the present month, but strong promise of betterment from a consumers standpoint is held out for early in February. Storage eggs are unchanged at from 26 to 30 cents a dozen. The New York market in the storage article is firm as supplies are becoming light, but it is weaker in fresh eggs.

In live poultry, springs and hens are up a cent a pound to 15 cents as receipts are small, and with cold weather checking shipments from the country, only occasional coops are available. Frozen poultry is abundant all through the list and practically no changes have come about in prices.

Apples Still Cheap.

Apples and oranges are the features in fruits, according to the Fitzsimmons-Palmer company, and the Stacy-Merrill Fruit company. Apples remain exceptionally cheap and supplies are holding up well. The earlier varieties are becoming cleaned up, and the quality of the late fruit offering is considered unusually good. A good sale in oranges is reported, that being promoted by the tempting quality of the fruit arriving from California. The grapefruit movement is picking up, being helped along by the reasonable prices current. California drum grapes and pears are selling on the same price basis as a week ago.

Green Vegetable Lines Complete.

California green vegetables are complete in all lines with their quality pronounced up to the standard of previous seasons in every particular. It is expected that quotations in California celery will be raised next week, as stocks of it are being cleaned up.

All roots are firm and a good movement in them is reported. Minnesota potatoes are still 50 cents a bushel, and if the weather does not become so cold as to interfere with shipping them from producing points, no advance in their figure is expected for a time yet.

HYDROGRAPHIC OFFICE PRAISED

Duluth Ranked Among Four Best in the Country.

New honors for Duluth and its harbor are conceded by Capt. Thomas Washington, United States hydrographer, in his annual report to the department of commerce, just issued.

"Hydrographic offices at Norfolk, New York city, New Orleans and Duluth," reads the report, "are doing particularly good work in assisting mariners. The results already are far-reaching and have shown that the hydrographic offices in general, and these in particular, have done an effective work in furthering maritime interests."

When on his tour of inspection early last fall Capt. Washington expressed himself as being very much pleased with the hydrographic bureau of this district, and complimented Capt. Albert Swenson, local hydrographer, on the showing he had made.

The national hydrographic department maintains sixteen bureaus at various large ports on the Atlantic, Pacific, the Gulf of Mexico and the Great Lakes. It is planned to establish bureaus at Los Angeles, Cal., and on the Panama canal during the coming year.

Some idea of the scope of the work done by the department can be gained from the fact that 37,061 masters or mates availed themselves of information and instruction concerning waterways provided at the various ports.

HAVE FAILED TO SEND IN REPORTS

Duluth Manufacturers Are Negligent in Forwarding Data for Census.

Director William J. Harris of the census bureau has called attention to the fact that a large number of manufacturers have neglected to make the reports required for the census of 1914. This not only delays the publication of the census, but adds greatly to the cost of the work. The law directs that a census of manufactures shall be taken every fifth year, and the director has done everything possible to facilitate the work. The blanks on which to make the reports were mailed to all manufacturers with a request that the returns be forwarded to the census bureau by Jan. 15, 1915. The co-operation of chambers of commerce, boards of trade, and other organizations interested in our industrial development has been solicited, but, notwithstanding their very general response and assistance, comparatively very few reports have been received, and a large number of those that have reached the office are very defective.

It is feared that the importance of these statistics showing the condition of all industries during the year 1914 is not appreciated. Unless all manufacturers make proper returns the relative standing of one industry with another and of one city with another will be seriously affected. Attention is drawn to the necessity of Duluth not losing the position to which it is entitled indnstrially, and that it is the duty of every citizen to see that full and complete returns are made of all our industries.

The Commercial club recognized the importance of having the city properly represented in this census, and has recommended that all manufacturers give the requests for census reports prompt and careful consideration. The hope is expressed that each manufacturer will appreciate his individual responsibility, and send in his completed schedules at once.

REPTILES FOUND IN BANANA CAR

Freight handlers at the Northern Pacific yards are considering themselves lucky that they were not bitten by two venomous reptiles found in a refrigerator car of bananas shipped from New Orleans. A large tarantula and a banana snake of the deadly species, were found in a car yesterday, and the escape of the freight handlers is no doubt due to the fact that the temperature of the car kept the reptiles inactive.

The snake, which is about two and a half feet long and nearly two inches in diameter, was taken to Grochau's drug store, corner of First street and Fourth avenue west. There the snake was placed in a glass jar and warmed up. Mr. Grochau turned the specimen over to the laboratory of the Duluth Central high school, where it will be kept on exhibition.

Mr. Grochau says he often secures snakes and tarantulas from friends at the freight yards. This snake, he says, was unusually large and more deadly than the rattler. The tarantula was about two and a half inches long. The tarantula, Mr. Grochau says, is also very deadly, and the danger from this form of reptile is augmented by the fact that tarantulas can jump fully ten feet. They are particularly venomous when angered, but are generally harmless when unmolested.

CHOCOLATE EATEN BY GERMAN SOLDIERS.

London, Jan. 8.—"We call the Germans the chocolate soldiers," writes a soldier from the front, "because they appear to be always eating chocolate. When they attack or are attacked, when they are wounded or sick; by night or day, it's all the same. We have found some of their dead with cakes of chocolate between their fingers.

"During one of our Christmas armistices, one of the German soldiers told me that the chocolate ration had been recommended by scientists as a convenient and exceedingly nutritious food and had sustained them very well in some of their long marches, where other foods were not available."

CHILD'S TONGUE BECOMES COATED IF CONSTIPATED

A child simply will not stop playing to empty the bowels, and the result is, they become tightly clogged with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sours, then your little one becomes cross, half-sick, feverish, don't eat, sleep or act naturally, breath is bad, system full of cold, has sore throat, stomach-ache or diarrhoea. Listen, Mother! See if tongue is coated, then give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the system, and you have a well, playful child again.

Millions of mothers give "California Syrup of Figs" because it is perfectly harmless; children love it, and it never fails to act on the stomach, liver and bowels.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

GETTING FOREIGN TRADE.

We are hearing an unusual amount this year about the possibilities of getting foreign trade that has heretofore been closed to our commerce. At the same time certain elements in this country have been calamity-howling to the effect that there is no market for manufactured products. So it is interesting to see what efforts are being made by American manufacturers to get business abroad.

First of all comes to hand the authenticated story of the glass manufacturers who shipped boxes of their product to South America, carefully marked "Fragile," "Handle with Care," "This side up," etc., but with all the labels written in English, though the goods were destined for countries where only Spanish is spoken. The manufacturers, no doubt, were properly amazed when they heard what had happened to the glass.

In this same connection it may be mentioned that the glass shipped from this country that did not break was found to be all in American standard sizes, based on inches, instead of according to the metric system in use in the countries to which it was sent.

There comes also word that although American gold-filled jewelry is acknowledged abroad to be of better quality than that turned out by other makers, the manufacturers "fail to accommodate their style and workmanship to the requirements of the foreign market," and so are unable to make sales.

Another interesting story is found in the United States Commerce Reports, where it is told as follows by an American consul in India:

> Owing to the necessity of quick action by importers here on account of the shortage in many articles of import since the war began, many orders are being sent by cable. American firms have MAILED offers in a number of instances, and failed to state what codes are used and also their code address word. This omission has caused delay and lost possible orders. Cable messages to America are expensive, and no firm likes to pay sixty-eight cents a word for such an address as, for instance, "The International Fruit Preserving company," when a single code word would suffice. Also firms here do not know at times which of half a dozen codes may be used.

Of course—at least we hope it is of course—these sample incidents may not represent the general practice of American exporters, any more than some samples sent abroad by American firms are said to be fair examples of the goods delivered under orders. But if we are to judge from the implications in consular reports, these instances are sufficiently numerous to demand a protest against such methods.

If the manufacturers who are thus wrecking their own opportunities are the same ones who have previously enjoyed the benefits of a protective tariff, and also are the ones who are making an outcry about business conditions, the combination of incidents gives an interesting sidelight on the state of mind in which they are conducting their calamity propaganda.

If you really think you are capable of rising beyond the cavilings of the flesh, just try the effect of a good, old fashioned stomach ache.

BE ON GUARD.

The annual report of Fire Chief Randall, showing that the department last year responded to 512 alarms, comes at a time when it serves to warn us to be especially watchful against fires.

The cold months, when there is a certain need of forcing stoves and furnaces in order to make the home or other building comfortable, are times of especial danger from fires. So this is equally a time for especial care to prevent them.

Among the things everybody can do is to examine the flues and chimneys. Are there places where hot pipes touch inflammable material? Or are there cracks in flues or fireplaces? Is the chimney in such condition that it may burn out? All these things should be looked to, and any defects found should be remedied at once. Chief Randall's report shows that 132 of last year's fires were from these causes.

Then of course there are always the dangers from matches, either lighted by children or chewed by rats or mice. The careless use of oil, especially gasoline; the cigar butt and the burning cigarette; lamps upsetting or igniting curtains, papers or woodwork—these things we have always with us, and they all figure in the fire chief's report.

Watch for them. Be on guard, not only for your own sake, but for that of others. A fire can grow into a nasty proposition, and most of our fires are due to somebody's carelessness.

There are those who argue that the greatest difference between the mumps and the Philippines is that Uncle Sam has the Philippines.

A MORE COMPLETE ANSWER.

Not long ago a correspondent wrote asking The Herald to reply to the attacks made on the Wilson administration and policies by Governor Colquitt of Texas. The reply given included explanation of the futile efforts of the cotton interests to make the public purse recompense them for the losses they shared with others as a result of the war. It also told of some of the more personal reasons why Governor Colquitt might be found in the anti-administration ranks.

But now comes a better and more complete answer. Briefly, the Texas legislature has unanimously commended President Wilson for the "statesmanlike manner in which he has conducted the affairs of this nation," and also for "the wisdom shown in his policy adopted concerning Mexico and for the strict neutrality maintained with belligerent nations."

This from Texas, which was pictured as being half ready to secede on account of the Mexican and other policies followed at Washington. It would be hard to find a more complete answer to the petty whinings of the Lone Star governor.

Meanwhile, why do we not hear something from Fairbanks?

SOMETHING NEW IN TAXATION.

Taxes are taxes the world over, of course, but once in awhile something startlingly different appears even in this line. This time it is an account sent by United States Consul Andrew J. McConnico from Trinidad in the British West Indies, of a tax imposed there to "meet the expenses incident to the importation of coolie laborers from India, and to maintain the system under governmental supervision."

The tax is imposed on the produce of the colony, and for this year it includes the following items: On sugar, thirty-six cents per hundred pounds; molasses, twenty-four cents per hundred gallons; rum and bitters, sixty-eight cents per hundred gallons; coffee, eight cents per hundred pounds, and cocoanuts, eight cents per thousand.

How would our American workmen like it if the goods they produced were taxed to raise a fund to bring cheaper labor to this country? A great system is it not? Of course conditions in Trinidad and in this country are vastly different, and no doubt plenty of fault could be found with any attempt to draw a parallel. But the fact of the Trinidad system is interesting to every student of taxation and industrial problems.

Do you realize that next month this war will have been going on for half a year?

BUSINESS BOOMING BOOSTERS.

Some enterprising fellow at Providence, Rhode Island, has conceived the idea of advertising the fact that the present year is to be "a hummer" as he calls it. In order to accomplish this advertising stunt he proposes to send, for a small consideration, a quantity of "Business Booming Boosters" to anybody who will use them. The "boosters" are neat and catchy appearing little stickers that would go handily on letters or elsewhere, and which carry also the legend, "1915—U. S. A."

The idea is not exactly original, but its application is good and the principle back of it is the everlasting truth that it pays to advertise. Advertise it, whatever it is, whether it be goods, good bargains or good times.

The "Business Booming Boosters" ought to help the good work along. May they prosper and spread far and wide their gospel of optimism. As their promoter says: "A mite from each becomes mighty. Send your mite and do your mite with all your might—and there won't be any 'might have been' to look back at twelve months from now."

Speaking of probing the big foundations reminds one of those stories of concrete bases that were circulated shortly after the war began.

Wanted Badly.

Portland Spectator: A Louisville man tells of an incident at a Sunday school convention. In answer to the roll call of the states reports were verbally given by the various state chairmen. When Texas was called a big man stepped into the aisle and in stentorian tones exclaimed: "We represent the imperial state of Texas. The first white woman born in Texas is still living—she has now a population of over 3,000,000." Whereupon a voice from the gallery cried out in clarion tones: "Send that woman to Idaho—we need her."

Causeless Irritation

Editorial in the New York World.

Nothing in the president's Indianapolis speech seems to have caused more irritation in Republican circles than his remark that the Republican party "has not had a new idea for thirty years."

Yet this is precisely what 4,000,000 Republicans said in 1912, and they not only said it but voted it. Why should it be regarded as an exhibition of offensive partisanship for a Democratic president to say of the Republican party what 4,000,000 Republicans have said of it at the ballot box?

The Republican party of 1915 is not only reactionary, but it is even more reactionary today than it was in 1912. Then, at least, the progressive leaven was at work. Now the party has meekly submitted to the leadership of Penrose and Cannon and Barnes and Gallinger, and confesses to no principle except the property principle.

Its attitude toward government is identical with Webster's attitude, as described by Emerson:

> He is a man who lives by his memory; a man of the past, not a man of faith and hope.
>
> All the drops of his blood have eyes that look downward, and his finely developed understanding only works truly and with all its force when it stands for animal good; that is, for property.
>
> He looks at the Union as an estate, a large farm, and is excellent in the completeness of his defence of it so far. What he finds already written he will defend. Lucky that so much had got well written when he came, for he had no faith in the power of self-government.
>
> In Massachusetts in 1776 he would, beyond all question, have been a refugee. He praises Adams and Jefferson, but it is a past Adams and Jefferson. A present Adams and Jefferson he would denounce.

The Republican party stands where Webster stood. It is the great champion of property and property rights and property privileges. It has no other dominating idea. Why, then, should there be so much irritation against the president for defining its place in contemporary politics?

Every country needs one party that stands for property and property rights, provided the property principle is not carried to extremes. That is the Tory function of self-government. The Democratic party wrecked itself and almost wrecked the country once by carrying the theory of property to what it regarded as a logical conclusion. The Republican party wrecked itself in 1912 and brought the country to the edge of a great political revolution by carrying its more subtle theory of property to a logical conclusion.

After the Civil war the country soon tired of idealism, and it may again be tiring of idealism. If it is, the Republican party and property rights will carry the elections in 1916. But there should be no false pretenses about it. It will be a new triumph for the one idea that the Republican party has consistently represented since reconstruction, and as a historian Mr. Wilson could hardly be expected to proclaim it as a new idea.

A truly consistent Republican would not be irritated by the president's references to his party. He would be proud that the Republican party for three decades had never permitted sentiment to swerve it from its unyielding devotion to property interests and property privileges.

He Cured the Disease

Joseph Wallace in the New York Telegram: "According to a college professor, the average woman's hankering after jewels and fine clothes is only a disease and can be cured," I remarked to Trixie, the waitress.

"Talking about a liking for swell scenery being only a disease," she rejoined, "remember that queen with the golden hair what used to sit at your table? I know for a fact that she used to eat only once in four days so she could be right there with every new style in the windows. One day she was introduced to a gink what was surrounded with golden ducats and she started in to get his number.

"There were twelve queens what had their hooks out for him all the time, but blondy had them beaten a mile. She and her ma used to sit up until 4 in the morning doping out schemes to land that boob. As she said to me, 'He hasn't any use for a doll dressed up like a house on fire, so it's my cue to get some clothes what crossed the Delaware with Washington.

"'The idea of spending money is as welcome as a burglar with him, but after the wedding bells have played their tune and I get my hands on his bank roll you'll hear the splash in Brooklyn.' He was tickled to death with Blondy's bread line make-up, because she wore a hat what looked as if it had been sleeping out in the rain for a week, and one night he proposed.

"On the way home from the church after the execution he said: 'Wifey, I have enough coin to free Ireland, but money wasn't made to spend on foolish things like food and clothes. That is only a disease and it can be cured. I'll train you to cabbage the pennies and the dollars will be sentenced to life imprisonment in a bank.' Now"—

"You need not go any further," I interrupted while a new customer at the first table chuckled with delight at discovering a real oyster in the oyster stew.

"That's the funny part," Trixie replied. "Hubby was right. He could train a hungry spider to bandage up a crippled fly. Blondy lives on goldfish food and she takes as much pleasure salting the sugar in a bank as I do in giving a jewelry window the once over. She follows a nickel to its grave and as for a quarter, why the poor eagle hollers for help every time she comes in sight. Can you beat it?"

A Joke on Bismarck.

Youth's Companion: The great Iron Chancellor of Germany, Prince Otto von Bismarck, who first welded the nation into an empire, was a most devoted and docile husband and very docile to his wife's advice. And her ready wit, although it saved him many a weary hour, once got him into a ludicrous position.

Lord Russell, an English nobleman, was one day calling on the prince, when he remarked that Bismarck was doubtless annoyed by countless visitors who took up his time unnecessarily.

"That is true," responded the chancellor with a laugh, "but my wife has a trick for getting rid of all bores in a graceful way. If she sees I have a visitor who is likely to prove dull, she comes in and makes some pretext for getting me away."

"Otto," she said, in a commanding voice, "you must go at once and take your medicine; you ought to have had it ten minutes ago."

It is needless to say that in spite of the hearty laugh that followed, the English visitor did not long delay his adieus.

The Illiterate Immigrant

Editorial in the St. Louis Republic.

There is a foolish streak somewhere in the wisest man, and the same thing is true of legislative bodies. The present congress will long be remembered as the most efficient lawmaking body that has sat in Washington in fifty years, but in passing an immigration bill imposing a literacy test it has temporarily mislaid its judgment.

It takes three things to make an immigrant out of a man and send him across the sea to a new land with a strange language. He must have a good deal of courage, or he would never make the venture; a good deal of thrift, or he could never get the money together working at the wages paid in the countries that furnish us immigrants; a good deal of dissatisfaction with his surroundings, or he would stay in them. We only get discontented or ambitious people—how discontented or ambitious we may judge by asking ourselves how much it would take to induce us to emigrate to a land of strange customs and strange language.

Now the literacy test in connection with immigration reduces itself to this: Does it pay us to shut out the kind of a man who immigrates, simply because he has not had a chance to learn to read?

Here is a Magyar, born and brought up in a little village in the midst of the great Hungarian plain. He can neither read nor write; three-quarters of the people in his village are in the same case. He has a desire for better things; the boy walks to Budapest and gets a job unloading steamers on the quays of the Danube, under the shadow of the great castle on the rock. He eats the coarsest fare; his feet are bare and his legs, too, up to the short trunks of coarse blue cloth which cover his thighs. Here, on the quay, he hears about America from a man whose brother is in St. Louis. He forms a mighty resolve. He begins to save money, a few heller at a time. It is the work of years; he falls ill with fever and some of his precious money goes in the weeks of weakness that follow the discharge from the hospital. Finally, however, he steps proudly aboard the ship at Fiume—bound for America!

What makes America rich? Our greatest wealth is in the spirits and souls of men. We may put inspectors at Ellis Island who will accurately determine the health and physical force of every immigrant, count his money and test his knowledge of books. But all this only touches the surface; it takes no account of the invisible riches of faith, hope, purpose—the vision that sees things hidden beneath the horizon, the soul that clings to an ideal in spite of the handicap of ignorance and poverty and lack of opportunity.

In the old days, when children at school "spoke pieces," we used to memorize extracts from the utterances of great Americans who praised this nation as "a refuge for the oppressed from all nations." It is an old-fashioned conception, perhaps—but the republic is glad to go back to it. Our modern statesmen are willing to have America still the refuge for the oppressed among all nations—provided, however, that the oppression has never proceeded far enough to deprive them of the opportunity to learn to read! If a man has been the victim of oppression to that extent they will have none of him.

The proposition to exclude immigrants who cannot read is snobbish and un-American and undemocratic. The bill containing it ought to be vetoed. The sons and grandsons of European illiterates, who were such because they never had opportunity to learn, are today coming from American colleges and universities. One of the things that lured those men on was hope of schooling for their children. The Republic is heartily glad that they, so poor in learning, so rich in self-sacrifice and the vision of better things, were not excluded from the "land of promise" they labored against such difficulties and discouragements to possess.

Dont's for Parents

Don't let the nursery be used as a laundry nor a larder. Food should never be kept in it.

Don't think that any room in the house will do for the nursery, as "it's only for the children." The sunniest, most airy and most cheerful room in the house should be given to the children if you want them to be healthy.

Don't think that money is wasted in buying pretty paper and bright colored paint for the decorations of the nursery. Money spent on brightening life at its opening will bear good interest in health and happiness.

Don't shake or scold a child who wakes up and cries out in the night. Often the terrors are a purely nervous affection, and any harshness only makes matters worse.

Don't say "don't" to your little one. Remember to tell the child what he is to do, not what he is not to do.

Don't forget that you sometimes do harm to your children by doing too much for them. There are things that it is far better to teach the children to do for themselves.

Sauce for the Goose.

St. Louis Globe-Democrat: An old sailor once appeared to give evidence in a case of assault, when he was asked the following questions:

The Judge—Where was plaintiff standing when defendant struck him?

Witness—Who are they?

The Judge—Well, you are a nice chap to come here and give evidence! And you don't know the plaintiff from the defendant! Where was he when the man struck him?

Witness—Abaft the binnacle!

The Judge—Abaft the binnacle! Where is that?

Witness—You are a fine chap to sit as a judge! And you don't know where "abaft the binnacle" is!

Caruso a "She?"

Leslie, Ark., Record: Walter Johnson, the great pitcher, wants $20,000 a year, the little sum of $600 for each game, but some people are howling terribly about it, while Caruso, the Italian singer, gets about $3,000 a night for standing on the stage and screeching so no one but her own race knows what she says. So there you are.

Statesmen, Real and Near

By Fred C. Kelly.

Washington, Jan. 22.—(Special to The Herald.)—A call came into the Congressional library for a pair of books. The attendant who was sent to the shelves after the books, remarked:

"It's the first time either of those have been out for a year. I'll bet I can guess who they're for. Only one man would be wanting such little-known books. They must be for Senator Sherman of Illinois."

And they were, too. Sherman is always associating himself with some book that scarcely anybody else ever heard of. We ourself cannot now recall the titles of the two books just referred to. Yet we heard them only yesterday. We could not remember them long enough to put them down on a piece of paper.

Now every time Sherman has an obsolete volume yanked from the library shelf he does not necessarily read it—that is, not all of it. He may not read more than one page of it. But from that page he will flush a phrase or a fact that he can use in a speech. Little-known phrases and facts are things that Sherman dotes on. He cares for them not only for themselves alone so much, as because of their use in a speech he hopes to make. Always Lawrence Y. Sherman is at work on a speech. Sometimes he will not deliver the speech for a year, but if ever occasion arises he has it ready. If it were not for the hours each day he devotes to working on speeches he would derive an extremely scant amount of fun from life, for preparing speeches is his chief if not his sole amusement.

Whenever Sherman reads anything of interest he stops and wonders if it has any application to any bill pending in the senate. If not, he then considers the possibility that there might be a bill in the course of a year or two which could be affected by a speech from him in which might be incorporated his newly-discovered fact. In case there is any chance at all of the fact being useful at some future date, Sherman carefully stores it away in his mental warerooms, with a memory tag on it, so that he can fetch it out in front on short notice. He rarely takes notes, except in the case of exact figures, and he does not need to. When he has tucked a fact away in the back of his head against a rainy day in the future, it is just as available for his purposes as if he had it jotted down in a little book. Sometimes he will rummage through a dozen big dusty tomes in the course of a day, reading and absorbing a page here and a page there, but never putting anything down except mentally—and when he is ready to write his speech all this material drops right out of the chute into his lap as fast as he wants it.

* * *

Practically every big second-hand book dealer in the United States and England has Lawrence Y. Sherman on his mailing list. And yet Sherman is not a collector in the ordinary sense. He never buys an old book unless he thinks he can get something out of it that he can utilize in a speech—a speech prepared for the purpose of annoying the Democratic side of the senate chamber. He does not care a continental how far back he has to go for a fact. Indeed, if he could employ a line from the tomb of Rameses II in support of a tariff contention, he would gladly quote that in preference to a nice fresh copy of the morning paper.

A member of congress was making a speech the other day on a comparatively unimportant bill and was accompanying his remarks with much gesticulatory emphasis. Speaker Clark's official timekeeper whispered that the member's time was up.

Me and Jane Jones.

Jane Jones keeps a-talkin' to me all the time,
An' says, "You must make it a rule
To study your lessons an' work hard an' learn,
An' never be absent from school.
Remember the story of Elihu Burritt,
An' how he clumb up to the top—
Got all the learnin' that he ever had Down in the blacksmithin' shop."
Jane Jones, she honestly says it was so.
Maybe he did—I dunno.
O' course, what's keepin' me back from the top.
Is not never havin' no blacksmithin' shop.

But full of ambition an' brains;
An' he studied philosophy all his hull life,
He brought electricity down from the sky
With a kite an' a botttle an' key,
An' we're owin' to him more 'n anyone else
F'r all the bright lights that we see.
Jane Jones, she honestly says it was so.
Maybe he did—I dunno.
O' course what's always be'n hinderin' me
Is not havin' any kite, lightnin' nor key.

She says 'at Abe Lincoln had no books at all,
An' used to split rails, when a boy.
An' Gen. Grant was a tanner by trade,
An' lived 'way out in Illinois;
But when the big war with the South first broke out
He stood on the side o' the right,
And when Lincoln called him to take charge o' things
He won nearly every blamed fight.
Jane Jones, she honestly says it was so.
Maybe he did—I dunno.
But then, I ain't to blame, not by a big sight,
For I ain't never had any battles to fight.

She says 'at Columbus was out at the knees
When first he thought up his big scheme,
An' told all the Spaniards an' I-talians, too,
An' all of 'em said 'twas a dream.
But Queen Isabella just listened to him,
An' pawned all her jewels o' worth
An' bought him the Santa Maria, an' said,
"Go hunt up the rest o' the earth."
Jane Jones, she honestly says it was so.
Maybe he did—I dunno.
O' course that may be, but then you must allow
The' ain't no more land to discover, just now.

His Native Air.

Boston Transcript: "I think if I were Tommy Atkins going to France, I'd join the bicycle corps."

"Why so?"

"Then, if I got homesick, I could puncture a tire and once again breathe my native air."

Duluth and The Herald

Bouquets and Brickbats from the State Press.

Likes the Answer.

La Porte News: In an editorial on "Christmas, 1914," The Duluth Herald gives one of the best, if not the best, answer to the statement that "There is something wrong with our Christianity," that we have as yet seen.

Thanks!

St. Cloud Journal Press: Duluth wants the summer meeting of the Northern Minnesota editors and Sauk Center wants the winter meeting a year hence. We vote for Duluth and Sauk Center.

Newspapers Have Troubles.

Biwabik Times: The Duluth Herald has been having an experience that is common to all newspapers just now. It matters not what is printed about the great European war it is impossible to please the partisans of any of the contending nationalities. The result is that the cowardly publications no longer comment on the doings across the pond. Those papers that persist in commenting suffer more or less from that species of animal that wants to stop the paper the minute that he reads something that he does not like. This fellow is on a par with the man who does not believe that a man should express an opinion on any subject, if that opinion does not agree with that of some local oracle.

A Powerful Factor.

Akeley Herald: The Duluth Herald is one of the valuable newspapers received by the Herald-Tribune, and we consider it one of the most powerful factors in the development of Northern Minnesota.

Duluth Fortunate.

Brainerd Dispatch: Duluth has fifteen motor fire-fighting units already installed and Commissioner Hicken and the chief of the fire department are preparing to expend $16,000 additional from the 1915 fire allowance for additional motor equipment. In this matter Duluth claims to be ahead of most other cities of that class in that they have been able to improve the fire apparatus of the city out of regular appropriations, while other municipalities are obliged to issue bonds to motorize the equipment.

From the River of Doubt.

Eveleth News: Under the caption, "Helping Out a Fan," The Duluth Herald, through its Open Court, explains that Connie Mack is manager of the Philadelphia American league baseball team and that the Boston Red Sox have held the world's championship only one season. Must be a mistake somewhere. If a fan at all he must have returned only recently from the North Pole region or the River of Doubt.

Just a Moment

Daily Strength and Cheer.

There is an aged Christian in Dublin who relates the following eventful experience: "Some years since, I was traveling on horseback in a lonely district, when a sudden report of a pistol shot reached me. I was satisfied that I had been aimed at, and, nevertheless, thought I had escaped miraculously. Hastening home and taking off my coat, judge of my great surprise to find a leaden bullet embedded in a New Testament that I always carried in my breast coat pocket. It had penetrated right through to the Gospel of St. John, xvii, 11." "Holy Father, keep through Thine own Name those whom Thou hast given me."

There are many persons who brood over their own weakness, and waste their precious time in pining over opportunities lost, instead of arming for the conflict, and going forward with double energy to regain what has been lost.—Christian World.

For we are God's fellow-workers. I Cor. iii, 9.

Life is a struggle, but not a warfare; it is a day's labor, but labor on God's earth, under the sun and stars, with other laborers, where we may think and sing and rejoice as we work.—John Burroughs.

A Champion Speller.

Portland Oregonian: Illinois is blest, or cursed, with a champion speller. His name is William Greenwalt. He won his immortality by spelling correctly all but four words out of 330. The four he missed were bluing, navel, sleight and witch. The "sleight" that he tripped on means prestidigitation, not little or trifling. Bluing he ought not to have missed because it is one of the few English words that are spelled strictly by rule. The other three belong to the chaotic mass of our unintelligible orthography. Anybody might miss them. Anybody might happen by chance to spell them right. The odds are about equal either way.

The words we mispell most often are the short Anglo-Saxon derivatives which form the solid basis of the language. Our Latin and French importations are usually regular and fairly phonetic. The belief that polysyllables are more difficult than monosyllables is pure fable. They impose upon the simple by their bigness but, like many another giant, they lose their terrors when boldly faced.

The correct spelling of our lawless language is a pure matter of "form memory," as the psychologists call it. Memory of sound helps not at all. Indeed it is more likely to hinder. He who hopes to spell an English monosyllable by regarding the sound of its vowels is certain to be led into a pathless wilderness. His only recourse is to recall "how it looks" if he can. If he cannot he is lost.

Good oral spellers are ornamental rather than useful. Their oral skill by no means assures that they will do as well when writing. Usually they slump miserably at the pen or typewriter. The best spelling is done mechanically by the finger tips. It is an art that resides in the reflex centers. The less thought has to do with it the better. Any intrusion of intelligence into the realm of orthography is sure to work mischief.

English spelling must be taught, if taught at all, without any help from the reasoning faculties. For the most part it must be done in opposition to them. For that reason it is said by pedagogues to be a great strengthener of the power to think.

Degeneration of the House.

Philadelphia Public Ledger: No jokes are better appreciated than those that are made unwittingly by sober-minded men.

Not long ago a solemn member of congress from Iowa was holding forth in that body in a pessimistic strain about what he felt to be a great falling off in the character and standing of that august body.

"Since I came into this house four years ago," he announced with the utmost gravity, "the confidence of the public in it has much diminished."

Twenty Years Ago

From The Herald of this date, 1895.

The first ballot in the Minnesota legislature on the United States senatorship was cast at noon today by the two houses in separate session. There was no choice, and balloting in joint session will begin tomorrow. In the house, Washburn had 32 votes and Nelson 45. In the senate Washburn had 22 and Nelson 17. The other votes were scattered among half a dozen candidates.

The Republican city convention was held this afternoon. It was called to order by Lee Willcuts, chairman of the city committee. J. E. Meyers was elected chairman and Dr. Routh secretary. For city treasurer the names of E. G. Chapman, J. H. Logie, Walter Ingalls and C. F. Johnson were presented, and Chapman was nominated on the fourth ballot. For comptroller, W. G. Ten Brook, the incumbent, and A. N. Hopkins were named, and Hopkins was nominated on the first ballot. For judge of the municipal court, W. D. Edson, J. A. Hanks, J. H. Norton, J. D. Holmes, Ellsworth Benham and H. B. Dibell were placed in nomination. Edson was nominated on the fifth ballot. For special judge, J. H. Boyle won on the fourth ballot over J. D. Holmes, Carl Johnson, J. H. Norton and I. E. West. For judge of the municipal court at West Duluth, Charles W. Hoyt, George F. Davis, L. R. Weld and D. W. De Yore were named, and Hoyt was nominated on the second ballot. The retiring aldermen as follows were all renominated: First ward, James T. Hale; Second ward, C. E. Evens; Third ward, William E. Harwood; Fourth ward, Louis Christenseh; Fifth ward, George Goldsmith; Sixth ward, J. W. Nelson; Seventh ward, L. D. French; Eighth ward, Thomas Olafson.

William E. King, who has been a fireman about three months, was run over by the chemical engine at West Duluth yesterday. He attempted to jump upon the engine but lost his foothold and fell beneath one of the hind wheels. He was badly hurt, but it is expected today that he will recover.

Henry Truelsen is to have the privilege of contesting the water bond election, in spite of the decision of Judge C. L. Lewis to the contrary. Justice Collins of the supreme court handed down a decision yesterday afternoon reversing the order of Judge Lewis.

The large stock farm of Paine & Co., consisting of 2,000 acres just south of Carlton, has been leased for a term of years to D. V. Dart, a stock man of Duluth.

G. A. Tomlinson and Capt. F. N. La Salle, vessel agents, have formed a partnership, with offices in the Chamber of Commerce building.

Luther Mendenhall has been appointed by Mayor Lewis to succeed himself as park commissioner.

The Finishing Touch.

Philadelphia Ledger: The young man hesitated to believe the statement of her little brother that the young lady was not at home. He repeated the question, at the same time displaying a quarter. The boy eyed it longingly and again replied in the negative.

"But didn't she leave a message for me?" asked the disappointed swain.

"Yes," said the lad—and nothing more.

As one who sees a great light, the young man tossed him the coin. "Now," he said, "out with the message."

"She said she's not gonna see you any more and you're not to give me any money."

THE OPEN COURT

(Readers of The Herald are invited to make free use of this column to express their ideas about the topics of general interest, but discussions of sectarian religious differences are barred. Letters must not exceed 300 words—the shorter the better. They must be written on one side of the paper only, and they must be accompanied in every case by the name and address of the writer though these need not be published. A signed letter is always more effective, however.)

GAMBLING FOR CIGARS.

To the Editor of The Herald:

Would like to occupy a short space in your Open Court column regarding slot machines. Some time ago Commissioner Hicken eliminated the game of 26 and in its place has permitted them to use the gum slot machine. In the game of 26 a man had a possible chance for his money. On the gum slot machines there is no chance whatever.

I have witnessed at different times men inserting as much as $5 at a time and walk away without a cent's worth of gum.

The gum itself is there merely for an excuse to overcome the gambling clause. It is a misrepresentation and not worth carrying away.

These machines are owned by an individual who installs them in these different places, pool halls and cigar stores, and shares half the proceeds with the proprietor, which amounts to as high as $25 a day. When a customer makes a purchase the proprietor finds it an advantage to give him mostly nickels in change, so that he will dispose of them in the machines.

When the commissioner of public safety abolished the 26 game didn't he realize that he was permitting a much more enticing and grafting game to take its place?

In the game of 26 when you win you receive trade checks, which the patrons cannot use for playing the game again, but for value in trade, while the slot machine pays trade checks, which can be placed back in the machine.

Now, as a good, honest citizen and one who is strong for a better Duluth, I ask the opinion of others. Respectfully, AN OBSERVER.

Duluth, Jan. 20.

"THE VAMPIRE."

To the Editor of The Herald:

Would you please publish the poem, "The Vampire." I believe Rudyard Kipling is the author.

Also please straighten out an argument for me by advising whether the poem was printed before the painting was done or vice versa. Thanking you, I am, yours truly, AN OPEN COURTER.

Duluth, Jan. 20.

"The Vampire" is by Rudyard Kipling and can be found in any edition of his works. It was published after the picture was painted.—The Editor.

A NEW VIEW OF THE TAX QUESTION.

To the Editor of The Herald:

One taxpayer has proposed in The Herald that only the taxpayers should have a vote. Now who are taxpayers? I guess that all persons are taxpayers. We have two kinds of taxes, direct and indirect. You may easily find out that everybody, who consumes some article is a taxpayer paying it indirect. If you are an owner of some house and have rented that house to somebody, who pays the tax, the owner of the house or the person who pays the rent? The person who pays the rent, surely. You, the owner, are only a medium through whom the tax is collected. The payer of the rent is the real payer of the tax.

Now let us suppose that you don't pay direct taxes, because you don't own any taxable property. And then you buy a horse. You were disfranchised when you did not own the horse. You will acquire the right to vote as soon as you will become a horse owner. Question: Who has really the vote? You or the horse? My opinion is that you will be only a medium through whom the horse expresses his worthy will. And think, the horse may be a mare! Awful, isn't it. AN UNINFORMED.

Smithville, Jan. 20.

THE U. S. NAVY.

To the Editor of The Herald:

How does the navy of the United States rank with the other countries of the world? Yours truly, J. O. McKinley, Minn., Jan. 20.

It is ranked third, with England first and Germany second.—The Editor.

WHAT IT MEANS.

To the Editor of The Herald:

Will you please tell in the Open Court the meaning of the word "Alundum?" A. H. MELLOH.

Wrenshall, Minn., Jan. 20.

BIRTH RECORDS.

To the Editor of The Herald:

Would you please answer this question through the Open Court and oblige: Where would you write to get the record to prove the age of any person? M. H.

Boy River, Minn., Jan. 18.

Write to the clerk of the town in which the person was born.—The Editor.

TWO QUESTIONS.

To the Editor of The Herald:

Will the editor or some kind reader tell me what premium, if any, is offered for a coin dated 1870. It is a 3-cent piece of the United States of America, also a 1-cent piece dated 1850. I assure you the answer will be appreciated.

I also would like to know the meaning of the letters "H. M. S." before the English battleships. THANKFUL.

Duluth, Jan. 21.

The Editor will have to refuse to answer questions regarding the value of old coins. There is no market for them in Duluth, and such questions may become very numerous and crowd other matter out of the Open Court. The letters "H. M. S." stand for "His Majesty's Ship."—The Editor.

A POINT OF ETIQUETTE.

To the Editor of The Herald:

Kindly inform the writer through your columns what is correct in regard to removing of one's hat when in a passenger elevator with ladies.

In your opinion, should a man remove his hat when not with the lady? If he is with the lady does this alter the case? BOOBUS DE HICK.

Duluth, Jan. 20.

You should remove your hat when in an elevator with women, whether you are in their company or not. This little courtesy is so generally ignored that the man who does remove his hat is the exception, but The Editor is old-fashioned enough to advocate it yet—The Editor.

RELIGION IN ENGLAND.

To the Editor of The Herald:

Please answer in Open Court: Have English subjects in England the same religious freedom as we enjoy in the U. S. A.? What proportion of England is Catholic? Yours truly, E. P. WIGG.

Wrenshall, Minn., Jan. 20.

1.—Yes. 2.—In 1909 there were 2,210,000 Roman Catholics in England; 2,171,389 members of the Free churches, including Methodist, Baptist, Presbyterian, etc., and 2,142,039 members of the Church of England, our Episcopal church.—The Editor.

MR. SCHWAB'S SALARY.

To the Editor of The Herald:

Would you kindly publish in the Open Court column what salary Mr. Schwab received when he was president of the Steel corporation and oblige AN OLD SUBSCRIBER.

Knife River, Minn., Jan. 20.

It was reported at that time that he received $1,000,000 a year, but this was probably incorrect. What salary he received is something that only Mr. Schwab and the officers of the corporation know.—The Editor.

Answer to "The Gipsy's Warning."

Lady, do not heed her warning—
Trust me, thou shalt find me true;
Constant as the light of morning,
I will ever be to you.
Lady, I will not deceive thee,
Fill thy guileless heart with woe;
Trust me, lady, and believe me,
Sorrow thou shalt never know.

Lady, every joy would perish,
Pleasure all would wither fast,
If no heart could love and cherish,
In this world of storm and blast—
E'en the stars that gleam above thee,
Shine the brighest in the night;
So would he who fondly loves thee;
In the darkness by thy light.

Down besides the flowing river,
Where the dark-green willow weeps,
Where the leafy branches quiver,
There a gentle maiden sleeps—
In the morn a lonely stranger
Comes and lingers many hours—
Lady, he's no heartless ranger;
For he strews her grave with flowers.

Lady, heed thee not her warning—
Lay thy soft white hand in mine;
For, I seek no fairer laurel
Than the constant love of thine.
When the silver moonlight brightens,
Thou shall slumber on my breast,
Tender words thy soul shall lighten,
Lull thy spirit into rest.

"Keep a Watch on Your Words."

"Keep a watch on your words, my darlings,
For words are wonderful things;
They are sweet like the bees' fresh honey;
Like the bees, they have terrible stings,
They can bless like the warm, glad sunshine,
And brighten a lonely life;
They can cut, in the strife of anger,
Like a cruel, two-edged knife.

"Let them pass through your lips unchallenged
If their errand is true and kind,
If they come to support the weary,
To comfort and help the blind.
If a bitter, revengeful spirit
Prompts the words, let them be unsaid,
They may flash through a brain like lighting,
Or fall on a heart like lead.

"Keep them back if they're cold and cruel,
Under bar and lock and seal;
The wounds they make, my darlings,
Are always slow to heal.
May peace guard your lives, and ever,
From this time of your early youth,
May the words that you daily utter
Be the beautiful words of truth.

Tipperary.

I'm in love with a slip of a tip-tip-typ-ic-al Tipperary miss,
She's a regular clip with a rosy lip that you'd dearly love to kiss.
From the tip of her toes to the tip tip top of her nose I love her so.
I'd like to just take her and squeeze her;
I know that it wouldn't displease her.
If I could just meet her to see her and greet her,
I'm thinking I'd eat her, the little dear.
But she's many miles away from here and so I'll wait, I fear,
Till I take a notion to sail o'er the ocean to Ireland.

Chorus.

Faith it's me that's nearly crazy,
For me Tipperary daisy
All the day my heart's "un-aisy."
Sure the thing I find that's on me mind
Is the darling girl I left behind
Far off in dear old Tipperary.

Now I'll give ye a tip when I board the ship with me grip to trip away,
I'll be there with a yell when they ring the bell and I'll shout hip hip hoo-ray.
Then the whistle will toot and away we'll shoot with a toot toot down the bay.
From over the top of the railin.'
Then across the briny ocean to the tiny Emi-rald Isle,
I'd give me last penny, if I hadn't any,
Begorry, or many to see her smile
As she used to when she sat fer-ninst me down beside the stile.
But I was a rover, bedad, and came over from Ireland.

The Boston Burglar.

I was born in Boston,
A city you all know well;
Brought up by honest parents—
The truth to you I'll tell—
Brought up by honest parents,
And raised most tenderly,
'Till I became a sporting man
At the age of twenty-three.

My character was taken,
And I was sent to jail;
My friends found that it was in vain
To get me out on bail;
The jury found me guilty,
The Clerk, he wrote it down,
The Judge then passed my sentence—
I was sent to Charlestown.

To see my aged father
A standing at the bar,
Likewise my aged mother
A tearing of her hair—
The tearing of her old gray locks,
While the tears came rolling down
Saying: "Son, dear son, what have you done,
That you are sent to Charlestown?"

I was put on board an eastern train,
That cold December day
And every station that we passed
I'd hear the people say:
"There goes that Boston burglar,
In strong chains he'll be bound;
For some crime or another,
He is off to Charlestown."

There is a girl in Boston,
A girl that I love well,
And if ever I get my liberty,
Along with her I'll dwell;
And if ever I get my liberty,
Bad company I'll shun,
Likewise night walking, gambling,
And also drinking rum.

All you who have your liberty,
Pray keep it if you can,
And don't go 'round the streets at night
To break the laws of man,
For if you do you'll surely sin,
And find yourself like me,
Who am serving out my twenty years
In the penitentiary.

McKERCHER IN ST. PAUL.

Humane Agent R. D. McKercher left last evening for St. Paul with three children, who will be placed in the state hospital for crippled and deformed children. While at the capitol Mr. McKercher will appear before a legislative committee in the interest of legislation establishing and providing maintenance for a state humane society.

DEBTS OF HONOR CAN STAND TILL WAR ENDS.

(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)

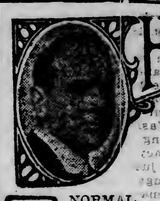

Boulogne, Jan. 8.—Debts of honor can stand over till the end of the war. Such is the precedent established on New Year's day, says a letter from Paris, by the seconds of two gentlemen who had come to blows in the course of argument. The principals were informed by their seconds that every French sword for the present be at the service of the nation, and that the shedding of blood in a duel would be inexcusable as long as war lasted.

FEW FOLKS HAVE GRAY HAIR NOW

Druggist Says Ladies Are Using Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Hair that loses its color and lustre, or when it fades, turns gray, dull and lifeless, is caused by a lack of sulphur in the hair. Our grandmother made up a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to keep her locks dark and beautiful, and thousands of women and men who value that even color, that beautiful dark shade of hair which is so attractive,, use only this old-time recipe. Nowadays we get this famous mixture by asking at any drug store for a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which darkens the hair so naturally, so evenly, that nobody can possibly tell it has been applied. Besides, it takes off dandruff, stops scalp itching and falling hair. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also brings back the gloss and lustre and gives it an appearance of abundance.

HEALTH TALKS

by William Brady, M.D.

Antiseptic Mouth Wash

A NORMAL, clean mouth—which is an exceedingly rare condition—certainly requires no disinfecting as part of the daily toilet, no chemical disinfecting at any rate. A diseased, neglected mouth—which is a very common factor of ill health—should be disinfected frequently. The mouth cavity, under certain familiar conditions, makes an ideal place for the culture of disease germs. The conditions are (1) decayed teeth, (2) diseased gums, (3) diseased tonsils, (4) adenoids, and (5) nasal catarrh.

In a clean mouth the natural secretions, the mucus saliva, and cellular elements given off from the mucus membrane particularly over the tonsils, exercise an adequate germicidal influence for all ordinary needs. In a clean mouth the teeth are sound, the tonsils are healthy, the gums are pink and firm, the breath odorless.

If our regular diet were sufficiently varied to include plenty of fresh vegetables, especially green garden truck, even the toothbrush would be a questionable luxury. In other words, if mastication were as thorough as it should be, the teeth would not decay. Mastication is the natural way to clean the teeth and Nature furnishes the best of brushes.

But our diet is refined for us before the materials reach the table—white flour milled to a degree which renders mastication not worth while; sugar extracted from the original cane, bleached, powdered and perhaps supplied ready dissolved; cereals refined to the point where they defy mastication.

Under the stress of modern civilization it is doubtful whether vegetarianism would keep the race at its present state of mental and physical efficiency. There is no question, however, but that many individuals profit mentally and physically by a diet which is practically free from animal protein. The vegetarian races of the world always have fine teeth.

Soap as Good as Any.

What is a good mouth wash or dentrifice for daily use?

If there is trouble with the teeth or gums the dentist or physician should prescribe a suitable preparation for each individual. But for general cleanliness nothing is better than plain soap. Most any standard toilet soap will do. It tastes as agreeable, if not more agreeable than most of the highly advertised "antiseptic" articles. A mouth thoroughly washed with soap and water is about as clean as it can be made by any means short of strong chemical disinfectants applied by the dentist or doctor. Soap is alkaline, detergent, non-gritty, mildly antiseptic, non-medicated—what more could be said of a mouth wash? Moreover, it is cheap as well as efficient, and that is something we cannot say of the popular preparations sold under that magic and misleading description, "antiseptic."

"Care of the Baby," by Dr. J. P. Crozer Griffith of the University of Pennsylvania, will fill the order. It is published at $1.50, by W. B. Saunders company, Philadelphia. It is a "doctor book" in which a young mother can browse at will and much to her baby's advantage.

REPLY.

Putting aside the temptation to a facetious reply, lemons contain citric acid, which has a cooling effect on the system, by stimulating perspiration and kidney excretion. The acid combines with soda or potash salts in the stomach and blood, and circulates as an alkali. Hence it reduces acidity in the blood and in the urine.

GOVERNOR IS A PUZZLE TO POLITICAL LEADERS

Has Surprised Legislature and Astounded the Office-Seeker.

Opens Own Mail and Makes Up His Own Mind.

Charles F. Stuart in the Minneapolis Tribune: Winfield Scott Hammond went to Owatonna last night, leaving behind him what is declared to be the most remarkable "first two weeks" gubernatorial regime in the history of the state.

The new governor has not done anything the way he was expected to do it; and he has done a great deal more than he was expected to do. Incidentally he gives promises of continuing as he began. He has astounded the Democratic political leaders of the state. He has been a source of continual surprise to the members of the legislature.

When Mr. Hammond returned from Washington a couple of weeks before the day set for his inauguration it was expected that he would go into conference with a few of the actual Democratic leaders of the state, go over the list of officers to be filled and, before taking the oath of office, announce his appointments.

What Was Expected.

It was thought that at this conference the department heads only would be decided upon and the arduous work of making the appointments to the hundreds of minor posts within the direct or indirect gift of the governor left to others.

But it did not work out that way. The then governor-elect immediately upon his return to Minnesota called the Democratic leaders into consultation and heard what they had to say. Then he went into executive session all by himself.

When prepared he announced appointments. Some of these appointments agreed with the counsel given by his political advisers and some did not. But no man but the governor knew who were to be the appointees until he announced the names.

No One "Close" to Him.

He has undertaken alone the gigantic task of receiving in person all delegations which call in behalf of aspirants for positions. Those who call in behalf of applicants for minor posts receive the same consideration as those who are urging appointments to major positions.

Those who have called upon the governor in the interest of aspiring friends emerge from the executive's office with a new idea of the information the new governor desires.

Said the spokesman of one delegation:

"This applicant was indorsed the other night at a meeting of such and such an organization at which 885 members were present."

"How many of those present voted on this indorsement?" he asked.

"Not quite all, perhaps."

"How many?"

"Probably 200."

"Of the 200 how many knew anything about the qualifications of this man for the place he seeks?"

The spokesman began to crawl. He confessed that many probably knew little about the applicant.

In days gone by it was not deemed necessary that an applicant for a place such as game warden present himself in person before the governor.

Wants to Look Them Over.

But the new governor wants to look them over. He says he can obtain a good idea of the character of an applicant by sizing him up in person.

This desire has created some consternation among some of the old timers, who had an idea that they could land on the payroll by proving up to some one of the state leaders that he had delivered his full quota of the votes in his home precinct.

The new governor does not put them on that way. He insists that the applicants come in and stand on the carpet long enough for him to determine whether, in his estimation, they can make good at the job sought.

Not seven the daily mail is left to subordinates in the governor's office. For a great many years the executive messenger has slit the letters open and distributed the mail around. Letters to past governors have been received, read, answered and the correspondent fully satisfied without the governor ever seeing them.

Hammond Reads the Mail.

Mr. Hammond gets the mail nowadays; and it is not slit open either.

Every letter addressed to the governor goes first to him. He opens and reads them all. As soon as he has the contents mastered he either gives them to his secretary or executive clerk, directing the answer he deems necessary.

It is declared a herculean task that the new governor has undertaken. At the capitol some say he cannot keep up the pace for he is besieged from the time he is out of bed in the morning until he climbs into bed at night. One result is that but few appointments have been made and hungry Democrats are crying out that their new governor is letting precious days slip by when the Democrats rather than Republicans should be on the pay roll.

"I am going to have these appointments right if it takes until next June to make them."

Those who have sought to obtain these last few weeks advance information on what the governor was going to do have gone up against a stone wall. They have sought to gain knowledge from such men as Samuel D. Works, newly appointed insurance commissioner Fred B. Lynch, Democratic national committeeman; A. L. Sorter, Jr., chairman of the Democratic state committee, and others known to have been prominent in the support of the governor. Their answers are truthful and the same:

When They Hear About It.

"He sometimes asks us questions, but we know only when the official announcement is made."

Take Hennepin county, for example. There are several in Hennepin who have thought that distribution of patronage here should be their privilege. Each fondly imagined that the new governor would call him to the capitol, motion him to a big leather chair, and, drawing up, friendly like, says:

"Now, Bill, who of the faithful who delivered in Hennepin should have the jobs?"

It's All a Dream.

That's all a dream. These two weeks have dispelled it for them all. Mr. Hammond has given special recognition to no one, in Hennepin or elsewhere.

All the Hennepin leaders have been over to see the governor. Each has had an extremely courteous audience. The governor has listened with respectful attention, fired one or two of his quick questions, and then:

"Thank you for this information. It gratifies me to have it."

Wherewith the interview seems to be closed.

Nobody knows who is "leader" in this or any other county. They have come to the conclusion that the governor is going to give respectful attention to all information and make up his mind in executive session of one.

MINIMUM WAGE LAW APPEAL IS ARGUED

St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 22.—The minimum wage law passed by the legislature of 1913 was attacked yesterday in the supreme court. The employers of Minnesota contended that the law delegates legislative power to wage commissions, and that it violates the fourteenth amendment to the Constitution in that it takes away the individual's right to contract. The arguments were presented by E. T. Young of St. Paul and L. L. Brown of Winona.

John O. Nethaway, assistant attorney general, in defense of the law, argued: "That the legislature fixed the standard as a living wage necessary to maintain the worker in health and supply her with the necessary comforts and conditions of reasonable life, and granted the commission the power to investigate the facts and measure that standard in dollars and cents.

"That the individual's right to contract is subject to the police power of the state, that inasmuch as a maximum hours' law is within the police power of the state, so also is a minimum wage law."

The case was appealed from the decision of Former Judge Catlin holding the law unconstitutional and granting an injunction restraining the commission from putting into force wage orders on Nov. 23, 1914.

WILL NOT PRAY FOR SUCCESS

Canon of Westminster Refuses to Pray for British Victory.

(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)

London, Jan. 8.—Dr. William Carnegie, canon of Westminster, announced to his parishioners on "Intercession Sunday" that he would not comply with the request that had been made of him to pray for the success of British arms. He said: "Among the things which I hold should not be prayed for—I mention it with great hesitation, but feel it to be my duty, since it is set forth in the seventh section of the authorized form—is the triumph of our cause. We hold that our cause is righteous, but our foes are equally convinced that righteousness is on their side. God is the judge, and we must pray for submission to his will, whatever be the issue."

The movement of animal lovers to introduce a special prayer for animals into the service also has no support in the higher clergy, if at all in the clergy of the English church.

"I cannot sanction for use in church the Litany which contains a prayer for the animals and speaks of them as of 'living, rational lives,' says Dr. Gore, bishop of Oxford. "It has never been the custom of the church to pray for any other thing than those we think are rational. It is a complete mistake to suppose the orthodox churches would countenance any such prayers. We can, of course, pray for men that they may be kind to animals."

STREET BEGGING IN NAME OF CHARITIES.

London, Jan. 8.—Street begging in the name of various charities has become such a scandal and nuisance in London that steps are now being taken to investigate these societies, some of which are obvious swindles, and to keep from the streets the young girls who sell cheap pamphlets at a penny each in the name of some cause likely to touch the sympathies of the public.

Recently a young girl was arrested for blocking the passage of several men on the sidewalk and thrusting pamphlets in their faces. When brought before the magistrate, she could tell nothing about the society by which she was employed; knew nothing about the money she turned in and had never seen the manager. She usually sold about 300 pamphlets a week, which brought in $6, and received, as a bonus, about $1.50 or $1.75, which paid her expenses. She had been selling papers about two months.

In the rivers of North and South Caroline and Georgia there are nearly 1,500,000 horsepower available, of which only 429,000 is being utilized.

Women Everywhere

Praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Women from the Atlantic to the Pacific, from all sections of this great country, no city so large, no village so small but that some woman has written words of thanks for health restored by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. No woman who is suffering from the ills peculiar to her sex should rest until she has given this famous remedy a trial. Is it not reasonable to believe that what it did for these women it will do for any sick woman?

Wonderful Case of Mrs. Crusen, of Bushnell, Ill.

BUSHNELL, ILL.—"I think all the trouble I have had since my marriage was caused by exposure when a young girl. My work has been housework of all kinds, and I have done milking in the cold and snow when I was too young to realize that it would hurt me. I have suffered very much with bearing down pains in my back and such miserable pains across me, and was very nervous and generally run down in health, but since I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound my back never hurts me, my nerves are stronger, and I am gaining in health every day. I thank you for the great help I have received from your medicine, and if my letter will benefit suffering women I will be glad for you to print it."—MRS. JAMES CRUSEN, Bushnell, Illinois.

A Grateful Atlantic Coast Woman.

HODGDON, ME.—"I feel it a duty I owe to all suffering women to tell what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for me. One year ago I found myself a terrible sufferer. I had pains in both sides and such a soreness I could scarcely straighten up at times. My back ached, I had no appetite and was so nervous I could not sleep, then I would be so tired mornings that I could scarcely get around. It seemed almost impossible to move or do a bit of work and I thought I never would be any better until I submitted to an operation. I commenced taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and soon felt like a new woman. I had no pains, slept well, had good appetite and was fat and could do almost all my own work for a family of four. I shall always feel that I owe my good health to your medicine."—MRS. HAYWARD SOWERS, Hodgdon, Maine.

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No one sick with woman's ailments does justice to herself if she does not try this famous medicine made from roots and herbs, it has restored so many suffering women to health.

Write to LYDIA E. PINKHAM MEDICINE CO. (CONFIDENTIAL) LYNN, MASS., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

SENT BACK TO HIBBING

Famous Cow Case Will Be Heard in Range Court.

Residence of Railroad Is Any Place It Does Business.

An interesting decision affecting municipal court procedure and the rights of defendant railway companies in change of venue proceedings was handed down in St. Paul by the Minnesota supreme court today on an appeal from an order of District Judge Fesler sustaining a demurrer to a mandamus action instituted by the Great Northern Railway company to compel Judge W. L. Windom of the Duluth municipal court to try a small damage suit brought by a Hibbing man against the railway company.

The defendant company wanted the case tried in Duluth, instead of Hibbing. The case was begun in Hibbing, then removed to Duluth on a change of venue proceeding. Judge Windom sent it back to Hibbing for trial and attorneys for the railway company sued out a writ of mandamus in district court to compel the Duluth judge to try the action. In district court the writ was quashed and the supreme court today upheld the contention of both of the lower courts in the matter.

The supreme court upholds the ruling of the district court to the effect that damage suits instituted against railway companies in the range town municipal courts cannot be shifted to Duluth for trial on the theory that the county seat and metropolis or principal place of the company's business is its legal residence within the purview of a 1913 statute defining the county residence of railroad companies and their rights in change of venue proceedings in counties having more than one municipal court.

Much Disputed Question.

The decision disposes of a much disputed question and one which will affect a large number of cases. No longer will railway companies sued in the range town municipal courts be permitted to shift their cases to Duluth for trial, causing great inconvenience, often to litigants and witnesses on the plaintiff's side of the case. The high tribunal sustains the positions taken by the two lower courts in holding that the residence of the Great Northern Railway company is anywhere within the county where it does business and not particularly in Duluth, although the latter may be nearer its principal general office in the state.

The mandamus action resulted from a suit started in the Hibbing municipal court by August Juntonen against the railway company in which he sought to recover for the loss of a cow alleged to have been killed by one of the company's trains. Baldwin, Baldwin & Holmes, attorneys for the railway company, filed affidavits in the range town court setting forth that the residence of the company was in Duluth, its principal place of business and asked to have the case transferred here for trial. The order was made by the Hibbing court accordingly.

Attorneys Victor L. Power and A. E. Templeton, who appeared for the plaintiff, objected and threshed out the same questions before Judge Windom, who took a different view than from the Hibbing jurist and sent the case back to the range town for trial. Attorneys Baldwin, Baldwin & Holmes then sued out a writ of mandamus against Judge Windom. The latter appeared by his attorney, A. E. McManus, and demurred to the mandamus action. Judge Fesler after hearing arguments on both sides sustained the demurrer. It was from the order sustaining a demurrer to the mandamus writ that an appeal was taken to the supreme court.

EDITORS GATHER AT THIEF RIVER FALLS

Members of Northern Minnesota Editorial Association in Session.

Thief River Falls, Minn., Jan. 22.—(Special to The Herald.)—The members of the Northern Minnesota Editorial association meeting here held their annual business meeting this morning. The meeting was called to order by Asa M. Wallace of the Sauk Center Herald, chairman of the executive committee in the absence of President C. F. Scheers of the Akeley Herald-Tribune, who is confined to his home by illness and Vice President Fred Schilplin of the St. Cloud Times. The members present are: Paul Burah of the Lancaster Herald; A. G. Rutledge of Minneapolis, secretary of the association; Martin Widsten of the Warroad Pioneer; Alvin and A. W. Mattson of the Warren Sheaf; P. J. Vasaly of the Little Falls Herald; George Erickson of the Spooner News; Asa M. Wallace of the Sauk Center Herald; J. C. Morrison of the Morris Tribune; J. F. Kienitz of the Cambridge Independent-Press.

Morrison For President.

The association has 112 members. A feature of the annual report of the secretary and treasurer, A. G. Rutledge made the suggestion that the Northern Minnesota Editorial association indorse J. C. Morrison of the Morris Tribune, as a presidential candidate of the State Editorial association. The program for today includes a short business session and a trip to Goodridge, twenty miles east at the terminal of the new electric line.

This evening there will be a banquet at the Hotel Evelyn, participated in by the editors and local citizens, to be followed by a vaudeville entertainment at the Lyceum theater, when the moving pictures of last summer's outing will be shown.

OIL AND WATER WILL COST $30,000

Oil and water for Duluth's streets during 1915 will cost approximately $30,000, according to Commissioner Murchison, head of the division of public works.

Estimates for the sprinkling of oil are now being prepared, Commissioner Murchison said this morning, and he will shortly present an ordinance to the commission asking for an appropriation covering this expense for the entire year. The water used in sprinkling the streets is paid for at the end of year, when the water and light department presents its statement.

Last year, according to the assessment rolls just completed by City Assessor Scott, the total cost of water and oil for Duluth's street was $25,735.01. Of this amount the city will pay $229.91 assessed against its property, while the Duluth Street Railway company will pay $4,040.

The ordinance appropriating money for the oil is prepared early in the year, so that contracts may be awarded and active preparations made before the sprinkling season arrives.

FIRED MERELY TO SCARE HER ENEMY

"Ah just done it to scare her—that's all."

Mary Traverse, a colored lady of large proportions, who was brought to trial for being too handy with a revolver in the presence of her neighbor, Pearl Ball, summed up her defense to the assault charge preferred against her when she gave the above explanation of the gun play. She also claimed self-defense.

There had been bad blood between Mary Traverse and Pearl Ball, also colored, for some time and when they met at Mrs. Traverse's back door on South First avenue east early on the evening of Dec. 16, 1914, there was shooting. Miss Ball says that Mrs. Traverse fired three shots at her and she ran. The defendant's version of the affair is that she was fired upon by Miss Ball and grabbed a revolver, which was close at hand, for self-protection and returned two shots, not to kill but to scare.

John H. Norton appeared in court as attorney for the Traverse woman and Harry F. White, assistant county attorney, handled the prosecution. The case went to the jury this afternoon.

THE DAILY ROLL CALL; A COLUMN OF SPORTS

BY BRUCE.

Milwaukee, Wis., Jan. 22.—(Special to The Herald.)—A great throng filled the huge Auditorium here last night when Mike Gibbons and Jimmy Clabby crawled through the ropes. Down in the far corner of the vast hall some one started cheering for Gibbons. Like a spark ignites the flame that leaps along to a roaring blaze, so this throaty utterance of an enthusiastic individual ignited the oral fuse and the explosion occurred. Men stood and waved hats and newspapers in the air. Then when it seemed as if the noise and enthusiasm had reached the height of human power, a greater shout arose, a crescendo of final effort, and the curly head of Jimmy Clabby was seen weaving through the standing mass of humanity, as the pride of Hammond, Ind., made his way down the crowded aisle.

As the fighters posed for the flashlight picture, it could be seen that they were both trained to the minute. The cherubic smile of Gibbons played over his countenance, while the gleaming eyes, steely bright, of Jimmy Clabby betokened both confidence and determination. Two finely molded athletes, patterned after the classical litheness of Hermes, he of winged foot fame; two clean-cut fighting machines, with tapering lines like the greyhound, yet with power where fighting force is the most effective.

Clabby Is Aggressive.

MARTY FORKINS and your correspondent sat in the front row, next to Billy Burch, Walter Eckersall, Sam Hall, and a few more of the press gang. With the clang of the gong Clabby started after the Phantom. A straight left popped Mike high on the head, as Mike tried to take the blow on the top of his Bermuda. Mike feinted with hands and feet and then came in with a left that Jimmy slipped neatly. Again that left of the Hammond flash shot to the mush of the Apostle. Mike came in close and landed a glancing blow with his right. The first round was Clabby's.

The second round found Clabby still the gingerly aggressor. He sprang from his chair at the call of the bell and raced over to meet Mike. Jimmy feinted once or twice, made a pretense of drawing an opening for a right to the body, and then popped Gibbons fair with the tantalizing left. Few blows were dealt in this round. Mike missed a cross with his right, the wind of his blow fanning the curly locks of the Hammond boy. They went into a clinch and Clabby here showed that he was a master of the intricacies of in-fighting. The Hammond boy held Mike's arms and then gradually worked his gloves down low.

Sure enough, with the clang of the bell Gibbons sprang out of his corner like a panther leaping for his prey. Mike drove Clabby across the ring and to the ropes by the fury of his attack. He popped the Hoosier with a hook and then corked him with a hard right. For the first time during the battle the Hammond boy went into a shell. Suddenly Clabby straightened up and electrified the crowd by slugging with Gibbons. The boys fought to the ring center, the crowd rising to its feet en masse. Gibbons uppercutted to body. Clabby came back with left to head and a right swing to body and then Gibbons let loose with a demoniac attack. Clabby received a right cross fair on the jaw. His knees sagged and his eyes grew glassy. Like the bay of the wolf pack, rose the cry of the crowd. It had received its first taste of blood.

"Knock him out, Mike," rose on the air from the black pit. Pandemonium reigned. Clabby's face was bespattered with blood. On came Gibbons, ripping and tearing with hooks, waiting for one chance with his right—

At this point the baby cried and we woke up. Perspiration mantled our pale brow. But pshaw, poor Pauline again, we were not in Milwaukee—and to make the awakening bleak and dreary and the world full of misery, the furnace fire had gone out.

CY SHERMAN, one of the well known sporting writers of the West, writes from Lincoln, Neb., where Waino Ketonen is training for his meeting with Walter Miller here the second of February, that so well do a crowd of Lincoln fans think of the chances of the little Finn in the approaching mat battle, that a pool will be formed in Lincoln for the purpose of covering any money that the followers of Miller may want to wager on his chances against the Finn.

In Lincoln they regard Ketonen as the greatest 158-pound wrestler in the world. Waino has wrestled a number of contests in the Nebraska state capitol, and so impressed are the fans with his ability, that they are willing to back their belief in the little Finn's ability to beat decisively his hated enemy, Walter Miller, with cold and material coin of the realm.

According to the wire from Lincoln, Ketonen will pull stakes and leave for Duluth the first part of next week. For the past two weeks the Finn has been working like a demon for the contest that is expected to be a gruelling and bitter struggle. The finishing touches of his work will be done here.

If the St. Paul fans, admirers of Miller who believe that he is the greatest 157-pound wrestler in the world, are sincere in this belief, Lincoln admirers of Ketonen are ready to debate the issue with them.

Pal Brown Again.

PAL BROWN and Menter Monroe passed through here en route to the Milwaukee fistic fracas. While in the city Brown adjusted his difficulties with Sig Abrams of the Twin Ports Athletic club. A wire was immediately sent to Tommy Walsh, manager of Joe Mandot, asking him if he would permit the French baker boy to come up and meet Brown according to the terms of the original agreement, which was so rudely shattered by the refusal of Brown to sign.

Whether Mandot can be secured at the present time, is doubtful. The French lad has several engagements in New Orleans, a meeting with Ad Wolgast being one of the possibilities.

Jack Britton, without a doubt the greatest lightweight in the world, and this statement is made with full knowledge of his scope and boldness, may be secured to meet Brown.

Should Britton be signed to meet the pride of the Minnesota ranges the fans around these parts will see settled once for all the question as to how good Brown is. If Pal Brown has the nerve to meet Britton, we for one give him full credit for his courage. If the range boy can stand up under the raking fire of this Britton, a real ring demon, then we for one will also salute him in the full sincerity of acknowledgment of ability.

Jack Britton—one of the greatest living fighters. Bring him on.

BIG DULUTHS TO PLAY NORTHERNS

Crack Hockey Teams of Duluth Amateur League Will Meet.

The Northerns and Big Duluth teams of the Duluth Amateur league will meet this evening at the French rink in what is expected to be one of the best hockey games of the present season.

Both teams are classed among the leaders of the league. Some of the star hockey players of the city are in the line-up of both teams. There is also a great deal of rivalry between the members of each seven. The winner of this game will be in a position to take the lead in the league race. A grand contest is looked for by those who have followed the playing of the members of the teams.

AMATEUR BASEBALL SERIES IS PLANNED.

Chicago, Jan. 22.—Details of a world's amateur championship baseball series between eastern champions and the best amateurs on the Pacific coast, to be played in the stadium of the Panama-Pacific International exposition late in October, are to be worked out at a meeting of the National Amateur Baseball association of America, to be held in Cleveland on Jan. 28, according to an announcement here.

The winner of the series will be entitled to retain possession for one year of the Patterson trophy and permanent possession of a cup emblematic of the world's amateur baseball championship for 1915.

CURLERS' CONCERT WAS FINE SHOW, SURE IT IS

Disguised as a Steam Fitter, Companion Correspondent Gets Into Theater and Gets the News—Hans Haroldson Makes Funny Speech and Other Things Happen—Police on Hand to Stop Tom Cameron From Singing.

Curling club, Jan. 22.—(Rush wire to The Companion.)—Jerry down here has promised to get this on the wire ahead of all them other massages and try to gave the Companion another big scoop. We give Jerry a segar yesterday. Maybe Jerry ain't smoked it yet, cause he still speaks to your correspondent. You gotta take chances in this newspaper business. After we disguised ourselves as a rug by going without a shave and borrowing an old mackinaw that belongs to George Reedal, while we didn't look like no oriental rug which we did not intent to represent we got away with this disguise and came nearly findin out the plans of that concert.

This darin' feat or ourn made Harry Hurdon and Doc Cheney mad, especially did Doc Cheney get mad when we wrote to The Companion about that hyperdermic needle, cause Doc says sometimes tham insinuations leads to false impressions and this is a bad year.

So they says we will keep them two Companion correspondents out of the Lyceum theater. We was disguised as a steam fitter and said we was goin' into the theater to fix some pipes. So we is able to gave you all the news to day.

Hans Haroldson made a fine speech. Some of them witty remarks must have came out of The Companion. But Hans should have mentioned Artie Michaud along with some of the other curlers, cause yesterday we heard some fellows say Artie was no regular curler.

When that actor says he was out with "Mackie" Rochon last night, he should have said I was out with Bill Carson. If he had hadda said that he would have made some of them Canadian curlers fall out of their seats a laughing fit to bust. Ask Bill.

When Jack McGuigan came out dressed in them Scotch kilts some of the people thought it was Tom Cameron. Back near the radiator which we was pretendin' to fix so no one would throw us out, some one said well I see Troyer and Hicken has condescended to let Tom Cameron sing. Just then we was prepared to hammer the pipes and make an awful noise so that Tom's voice would not sound so bad. But when Jack started to sing we knowed it wasn't Tom Cameron and we let the hammer fall gently down. A lot of other people knowed it wasn't Tom Cameron when the first note was heard. Norman Terry and Herman Toewe was there ready for action. They didn't even get a segar. That is the Scotch of it, said Toewe as he passed us. Even the trained and eagle eye of the well known sleuths could not pierce our disguise. That fellow is a regular steam fitter, says Terry, cause he ain't done a tap of work for the past two hours.

John MacGregor was in a box with Ray Withrow and Mrs. Mac. Ray and John was in the box so no one could call them to the phone and ask about a draw.

Walter Tannery of the Lewis rink of Hibbing, which is up on the iron range, was called to the box office. When he passes us where we was leanin' on that radiator and actin' the steam fitter, Walter says to himself I steam fitter, Walter says to himself I told that girl to call me at 7:30 and here see what time it is.

After the concert Jamie Myron and some other curlers went over to the Spaldin'. Jamie Myron told some one that Johnnie Walker and Gooderman and Wertz was going to hold a little reception for the boys. Who Johnnie Walker and them Gooderman and Wertz is your correspondent could not find out. There was also a John Collins, whoever he be.

It was some concert. The theater was decorated with flags of England and our country, which only goes to show that a little thing like embargos on boats ain't goin' to break up no curlin' games. No chance. Curlin' stones was on the stage. We have it straight that these stones belonged to The Herald rink. Steve Jones come to Schulte and says let us take your curling stones, cause all they is good for anyway is decoration.

Steve Jones was in a box with Billy Stewart and Sandy McNabb. Sandy left in the middle of the second act. We don't know where he went but we have suspicions.

Please put this story in a prominent place in the paper, cause it is a scoop and was got in spite of Harry Hurdon and Doc Cheney. They will be het up when they pursue this story, curse 'em.

WALTER POEHLER
Of Minneapolis, Who Learned to Curl in Duluth and Has Not Forgotten It.

THE M'LEOD BROTHERS AMONG THE CURLING "400"

John and Ron Have Fought In the Trenches for Years; Both Are True Gentlemen and Both Are Good Curlers.

Now there are the McLeod boys. Nice, amiable chaps, quiet and all that. Yet on the ice, in company with the roarin' stanes, we have it on well founded evidence that the brothers would stand for several hours, their feet cold and their faces blue with chill, and argue over the building up of the head.

John was with us in the days that have yored. He used to play on the same rink with Brother Ron, who was last evening elected president of the Northwestern Curling association.

Ron is very quiet on and off the ice. John is quiet off, but on the ice has a fog horn voice that goes rolling and booming down the caverns of the rink, cajoling, admonishing, driving and ordering his lads to further effort.

The McLeod boys have been to the present curling bonspiel what seasoning is to the pudding. Every once in a while some rink members would get together and talk over their chances. Suddenly someone would think of the McLeods. Then despair would rankle in the breasts of conspirators. Last season John McLeod had 'em all guessing. This season the boys have been one of the strong factors in nearly every event.

John McLeod has been one of the main hopes of Minneapolis these past few years, and Ron has been one of the first cooks in the Duluth camp.

John looks lovingly forward to the time when Minneapolis will have a fine curling home, something similar to the beautiful pile of masonry that is the envy of every curler that comes to the Duluth spiel.

John will say to Ron:

"This Minneapolis is a great town, brother; come, mon, and move down."

Then Ron will come back:

"Yes, John, mon, but ye nae have a curling house like ours."

All of which is true, trite and to the point. There is no answer to that statement. To a Scotchman of the name of McLeod, this is a clincher. John says Minneapolis right now is gathering sinews of war for the construction of a fine home. When that house is erected and about to be dedicated, John will be one happy Scot. He will send an invitation to Ron. When Minneapolis builds a great curling club, it will have become an ideal city to the heart and mind of John McLeod.

Genial, with the soul of true gentlemen and sportsmen—and it is the soul and not the veneer that counts—the McLeods, John and Ron, are a credit to the sport whose chief charm is the bounty of its invigorating good fellowship.

GATES PUT OUT BY SCRUB TEAM

George's Rink Stops Superior Four's Career Toward Grand Average.

A sad fate befell Clough Gates of Superior and his rink on Wednesday night, and it cost them an enviable position in the race for the grand average. At the same time it proved to be something of a joke on the Gates bunch and proved somewhat of a Gates a-jar.

Gates was drawn with H. L. George in the St. Paul Jobbers' event. Now, George, who is a Duluthian, be it said, in passing, is a cracking good curler, but he had no rink when the 'spiel began, So he got together three other fellows, some of whom had never played together a minute before in their lives. Of all "scrub" rinks that could truly bear the name, they held, at least, first mortgage. But they played through the events which they entered like a house a-fire, and in the St. Paul Jobbers especially. They are at this writing in the fourth round, matched against the redoubtable Reedal of Phillips, who is expected to prove their Nemesis—but who can tell?

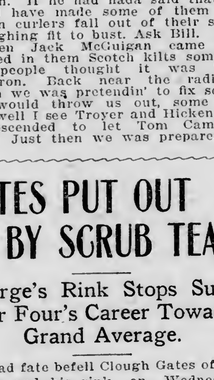

Well to return to our muttons, as our English brethren would say, Gates looked with disdain on the scrub rink and not wishing to waste his time on them, and the hour growing late, asked George to forfeit, for Gates wished to save himself and his men from the morning work, and to keep in better condition for the grand average. George wouldn't listen to it, but declared that he would play. Gates then asked Manager Jack MacGregor if it would be permissible to play one or two ends and call it a game.

"Nay, not so," replied Manager Jack firmly, "if you are going to play, play the usual twelve heads."

So instead of putting it over until yesterday morning—for they were in the 9 o'clock draw—they started play at midnight.

Gates is out of the running for the grand average and the scrub rink is still a contender for the St. Paul Jobbers' trophy.

LEMMON LOST HIS "NIGHTIE;" PEEVED

Lead for St. Paul Crack Rink Forgot to Tip Porter.

W. T. Lemmon, lead for the Stewart rink of St. Paul, is a more thoughtful man than he was.

In the hotel where he was stopping, Mr. Lemmon was not satisfied with his room and had it changed. The porter was very obsequious and obliging and waited around expectantly, when suddenly one of the other members of the rink burst in and shouted:

Mr. Lemmon hurried out tossing his key to the porter and asking him to lock up. That night when it came time to crawl into the sheets, the former legislative representative could not find his "nightie." So he had to do the best he could. The next night, again no robe de nuit. Again a makeshift and Mr. Lemmon was muchly provoked. The next day several of his friends were in the room with him, when the porter came up for some reason or other and one of those present said in a joshing way:

"Say, porter, why don't you give Mr. Lemmon his nightshirt?"

The porter looked surprised and then sulky.

"Well," he said, "what is there in it for me? There was nothing for the moving."

Amid the laughter of his friends, Mr. Lemmon, taking the hint, fished out a half; shortly afterwards the missing garment was sent up by a bellboy, who was sure that he did not know where it came from.

THAT DEAR OLD PRESS TABLE—NOT

There are things that cling and cling to one's memory throughout life. One that will forever hold a place in the minds of the "press gang" in connection with the bonspiel of 1915 is the press table at the rink.

There is nothing that makes perfect like practice. Therefore every man who had anything to do with that table should be from now on a past master in the art of profanity. But the table didn't care. It withstood the verbal assaults of the fellows that cussed it with a placidity, stolidity and imperturbability that was truly admirable.

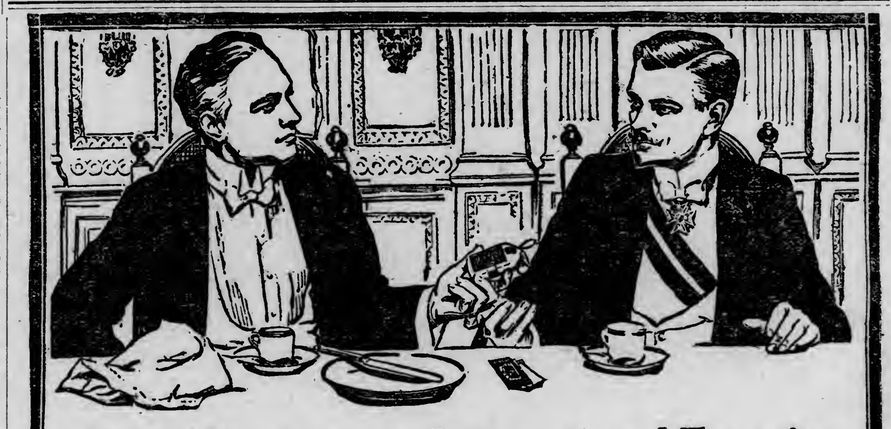

The table was of the extension variety, and in whose backyard it was found nobody has yet figured out; as nobody has put in a claim for it, the general supposition is that it has been cussed before and at last thrown out. Its top was delightfully loose and adjustable until after Jack MacGregor was put wise, when he had it nailed down. Parts of the leaves were arranged so that they resembled the illy-laid top of a lumber pile, and a man was supposed to write on that! The middle leaves had a disagreeable habit, when one got writing with an enthusiastic fire kindled by the divine afflatus, of suddenly flying up because of the weight on the outer edge, and hitting one a sound rap on the nose.

When they tear down that press booth, if they ever do, the lumber in it should make fine kindling wood because of the heated language it must have absorbed.

Where that press table goes between now and next year's spiel nobody knows—and nobody cares, so long as it is not on the job again.

CASE MAY BE THROWN OUT

Judge Landis Believed to Be Considering Move in Baseball Suit.

Either From Lack of Jurisdiction or on Federals' Failure.

Chicago, Jan. 22.—The question of the Federal court's jurisdiction and the renewed declaration that the National and American leagues have so modified their contracts that a player becomes a free agent the year after the expiration of his agreed term of service, were features of yesterday's session of the anti-trust suit against the most powerful bodies of organized baseball.

Judge Landis brought up the question of jurisdiction again and making the first statement of the side of organized baseball in the case, Attorney George W. Pepper of Philadelphia discussed it at length after the Federal attorneys had stated their side of the case. Pepper quoted authorities to show that there must be a Federal question involved to secure hearing in a Federal court. He declared the intervening suit of Lee Magee was not to be regarded, and said the only Federal question was that in the charge that the defendants maintained a monopoly in restraint of interstate commerce.

Sections of the Clayton law were cited that labor is not regarded as an article of commerce and that the decision in the Haunnerstein-Metropolitan opera company case was brought in as another authority. The decision holding that the labor of opera singers was not a commodity of commerce, was held by Pepper applicable to the labor of ball players. Judge Landis did not decide the question, and it was said last night there was possibility that the case will now be thrown out of court.

In his general argument, which followed after Attorney Keene Addington had ended his presentation of the plaintiff's case and Attorney Quincy Meyers had talked on the jurisdiction question, Pepper declared he did not know what the Federal league was asking to have enjoined.

"Their grievance is not that we prevent them from finding the young ball players on the lots and developing them through training in various minor leagues, as we do; they want to attain in one bound the advantage we have gained through ten years of labor; they want to profit from the skill developed by our money," he said.

Pepper declared there were few cases of individual hardships worked against players by the ten-day clause, the reserve rule and the judgments of the national commission.

HIGH SCHOOL TEAMS WILL CLASH

Central and Cathedral Will Meet First Time This Year.

Both the Central and the Cathedral teams are in readiness for the big basket ball contest at the Central gymnasium this evening. During all of the past week Coach Glyer of Central and Hanson of Cathedral have been drilling their men faithfully, but neither is overconfident. Big Duluths..... 0 1 .000

All the more assurance of the fact that the game will be a thriller and an immense crowd will certainly turn out.

The real ability of each team de luths. This will be the first game for the tonight and both will fight valiantly before they give in. The Cathedrals, with practically the same line-up that won them the high school championship of this part of the state last year, will enter the fray with a strong team and the odds favor them very slightly. Central's team is composed of several new faces, but they are good players and capable of taking the measure of their opponents. The game will begin promptly at 8 o'clock.

BILLIARDS

Buffalo, N. Y., Jan. 22.—Melbourne Inman defeated Willie Hoppe, 600 to 207 in the second block of their 1,200 point contest, English billiards, here last night. Springfield, O., Jan. 22.—Jake Schaefer of New York, defeated Marcus Catton of Chicago last night in an Interstate billiard Players' league match 300 to 276.

THE 1916 BONSPIEL IS GIVEN TO DULUTH CLUB

Permanent Secretary Will Be Appointed By Directors of Association.

Duluth will be the scene of the 1916 Northwestern bonspiel. This was decided without a dissenting vote at the annual business session of the delegates, held at 7 o'clock last evening.

An innovation enacted by the delegates was that of deciding upon a permanent secretary for the Northwestern Curling association. Secretary Ray Withrow, in making his report, declared that the association had grown to the extent that the duties of the secretary had become burdensome and exacting. Upon the recommendation of Mr. Withrow, who retires from the position this season, a permanent secretary will be appointed and paid a real salary.

E. J. McLeod of Duluth was elected president of the association for the ensuing year; George B. Reedal of Phillips was re-elected to the office of vice president and R. J. Tipton of Superior second vice president.

It was the belief of officers and delegates of the association that the Northwestern Curling association has reached the point where it is nearly as large as the Manitoba Curling association, one of the greatest curling associations in the world, if not the greatest.

Spiel Drawing to Close.

Finals in four events of the big spiel will be played off today. In the Patrick, Ordway, Consolation and Duluth Curling club events the winners will be determined.

Winnipeg rinks defeated Minneapolis in the Patrick event in the afternoon draw and the Duluth rinks put the Superior entrants out of the running.

Rochon is the holder of the Louis Hill International trophy until next season at least. This crack curler and his gallant rink defeated "Little Willie" Carson's brave band in the playdown for the handsome prize, the game going to 13 ends, with Rochon on the long end of a 9 to 8 count.

Brewer-Whytes Out.

Bobby Miller's Superior rink is the jonah of the Brewer-Whytes. Early on the opening day of the spiel the Superior youngster staked the Brewer-Whytes to a beating. Again yesterday in the St. Paul Jobbers' event Miller repeated his previous performance. Reedal put Steve Jones out of the running also.

It looks as if the spiel will be cleaned up nicely by tomorrow. There have been few delays and the games are completed to the stage where the end is definitely in sight.

FAST THUNDER BAY TEAM TO OPPOSE THE LINDERITES

Great Hockey Contest Looked for in Meeting Between Duluth and Port Arthur—Visitors Rated as Faster Than Seven That Defeated Locals Last Season.

What looks like the best hockey game of the season todate is carded for this evening at the curling club between the fast Port Arthur seven and the crack team of the Duluth Curling club.

Port Arthur is one of the homes of hockey. Last season the Port Arthur team defeated the Duluth seven in two straight games. The team of the Thunder Bay club is said to be even faster than the team of last year. With so fast an aggregation the contest should be a thriller from start to finish. There is little doubt of the fact that Joe Linder has the fastest team that has ever represented Duluth. Mohon and Nicholson are two real stars. The addition of these men has rounded out the Duluth team and made it one of the fastest in the country. If Port Arthur is stronger than last season, some grand contest is going to result from the meeting.

Game to Start on Time.

The game will start promptly at 8 o'clock. This fact should be borne in mind by ticket holders. The majority of the hockey contests have been delayed somewhat in starting. Announcement was made today of the determination to have the contest of this evening start on the stroke of 8.

Joe Linder has his men in shape for a fast game. Arnie Olson was suffering from illness on the Calumet trip, but has recovered form. Jack Barkell, as spare, can fill in satisfactorily, should any injuries occur. The members of the Duluth team are in even better shape than in the Portage Lake game, and it is expected that Linder will send his men in at the first bell to rush the Canadians off their feet.

Members of the Thunder Bay team arrived here late in the forenoon. Practice was held at the curling club rink. All of the visiting players are confident that the Port Arthur aggregation will be returned the winner. One of the largest crowds of the season is expected.

The lineup:

Duluth—H. Nicholson, E. Bogan, J. Linder, R. Barkell, H. Mohan, A. Olson, J. Mahan and J. Barkell.

Port Arthur—A. Welington, E. Servais, A. Whalen, Robert Bell, A. Chase, W. L'Heureux, C. L'Heureux, John Murray, Morley Bruce and J. Ryan.

CLABBY LOSES TO GIBBONS

St. Paul Phantom Gets Newspaper Decision By Shade in Milwaukee.

Some Rounds Are Whirlwinds—Two Other Bouts on the Card.

Milwaukee, Wis., Jan. 22.—Mike Gibbons of St. Paul had a shade over Jimmy Clabby, Hammond, Ind., middleweight, in a ten-round no-decision boxing bout last night, according to a majority of sporting writers at the ringside.

Both men used their lefts effectively. Gibbons' blows being mainly directed to the head and body, while Clabby played mostly for the body. Both men were strong at the finish.

Gibbons appeared to have the better of six rounds, two were even and two were Clabby's.

The first round went to Clabby by a shade, he landing on Gibbons' face and body with stiff rights. Gibbons landed right and left to body at the close of the round.

Clabby started the second, peppering stinging lefts to Gibbons' face. Gibbons retaliated with two hard swings to the head and Clabby came back to Gibbons' face. Gibbons took the batter of the infighting and started the blood in Clabby's mouth. Gibbons' round by a shade.

The third round was tame, both men being cautious and landing few blows. Clabby worked to the head and Gibbons rocked Clabby with an uppercut at the end. Round even.

Swift Fighting.

Gibbons drove Clabby to the ropes at the opening of the fourth and drove two fast lefts to the face. Clabby swung to the head and Gibbons peppered his face with short lefts. Gibbons had a shade in a hot exchange near the end of the round.

Gibbons started the fifth in whirlwind fashion and drove his left to the head and body almost at will. Clabby drove two to the body and one to the face and Gibbons drove him across the ring. Gibbons' round by good margin.

Gibbons opened up the sixth with rights and lefts to the face and body. Clabby brushing Gibbons' face. Gibbons landed hard to the head and won the round on heavy swinging to the body. Gibbons' round.

The seventh was slow, the men saving themselves and tapping each other to the face and body. Clabby drove right and left to head and body and Gibbons came back with a hard left to the face. Gibbons closed the round with fast blows to the head and had the advantage. The eighth was Gibbon's by a good margin, and the ninth was even, neither boxer extending himself.

The last round was fast, both boys swinging hard to the face and body. Clabby landed hard right and lefts to the face and followed Gibbons across the ring, driving in body blows. Gibbons retaliated with blows to the head at the end, but the round was Clabby's by a good margin.

Gibbons Has Majority.

The men had met in the ring three times prior to last night's contest, each having been awarded a decision and one bout resulting in a draw.

Clabby last night had an advantage of but a quarter of a pound when the men weighed in, tipping the scales at 153¼ and Gibbons registered 153 pounds. In measurements, the boxers were about equal, the main difference being a half inch in height and a half inch in reach to the advantage of Gibbons.

Jose Welling, Chicago lightweight, stopped Battling Terry, Newcastle, Pa., in the sixth round of a scheduled eight-round bout, which was a special feature of the card. Welling scored a knockdown in the first round, and had the better of the fifth. Terry took the fourth by a good margin, the other rounds being even. The winning blow was a straight left jolt to the jaw, which put Terry down for the count.

Johnny Ertle, St. Paul featherweight, easily defeated Young Herzog, Oshkosh, in the first round of a six-round bout. Referee Stout stopped the bout when Herzog was shown to be completely outclassed.

Auditorium

See Frank Bryant and Raymond Kelly go after world's 24-hour mark. Continuous skating for 24 hours. Doors open all day. Big, gruelling contest will end at 9:30

Tonight

Be there to see the skaters beat the world's mark of 260 miles. It is a grand contest.

Skating to the public from 9:30 to 11:30.

KELLY AND BRYANT AFTER LONG MARK

Frank Bryant and Raymond Kelly started on their attempt to lower the 24-hour world's roller skating mark at the Auditorium at 9:30 last evening. Bryant started the assault on the world's mark by reeling off the first mile in 3:12. The little Duluth boy then settled into a steady pace and reeled off the miles. Kelly took up the going at the end of fifteen minutes. From the point where Kelly relieved Bryant the boys will skate alternate half hours. Each boy will snatch sleep whenever the opportunity presents itself.

At an early hour today the boys had passed the 186-mile mark. The worlds record for twenty-four hours is 261 miles and 6 laps of a 12-lap track. This record was made at the Madison Square Garden in New York three years ago by Jesse Carey and Roland Cloni, two of the greatest skaters in the world.

The way the Minnesota boys are going now, it looks as if they had a chance to shatter this mark. Bryant is in grand condition and Kelly looks strong.

The latter hours of the race will bring a severe strain to the two skaters. Want of sleep and the terrific tax on the powers of endurance may cause the handlers of the boys to use stimulants and drugs to keep the skaters up.

PEST HOUSE NOT NEEDED

So Declares Dr. Bracken, Speaking on Health Matters at Cloquet.

State Health Board Official Also Advocates Compulsory Vaccination.

Cloquet, Minn., Jan. 22.—(Special to The Herald.)—A very interesting lecture was delivered in the high school last evening by Dr. H. M. Bracken of the state board of health. Dr. Bracken said that at least half of the deaths caused by disease in Minnesota are preventable; that the question lies wholly with the people. He attributed their negligence to two causes, ignorance and indifference.

"The people," said Dr. Bracken, "are lamenting the fact that $8,000,000 were lost during the last year from hog cholera; but we hear few people mention the fact that we lost $12,000,000 from the effects of tuberculosis. The moral of this is 'Dear Hog.'"

Favors Compulsory Vaccination.

In speaking of smallpox, Dr. Bracken said that the day of the "pesthouse" is gone. "Vaccination," he said, "should be compulsory. If an adult wishes to have smallpox let him have it; but it is a crime to allow children to contract the disease in cases where it is avoidable."

Dr. Bracken spoke of the general attitude of the people toward vaccination with extreme disgust. "If a community wishes smallpox rather than be vaccinated, let them shut themselves away from the rest of the world; we have no objection. What we are trying to do is to check the disease among those who do not want it."

Dr. Bracken made special mention of the work being done in Cloquet along health lines. He says that medical supervision in the public schools is one of the important factors in the prevention of disease.

BEFORE ANOTHER JUDGE.

Judge Flannigan Will Try Alleged Murderers Second Time.

Houghton, Mich., Jan. 22.—Judge Patrick H. Flannigan has declined to confirm the appointment made by the supervisors of Attorney Joseph F. Hambitzer of Houghton to act as special assistant prosecutor in the Seeberville murder cases, and instead named George E. Nichols of Ionia as special prosecutor and Former Prosecuting Attorney Anthony Lucas as assistant.

Judge Flannigan also declined to sit in the case, but it is not yet known who will be on the bench at the forthcoming trial.

Bonds of the four men, Groff, Polkinghorne, Cooper and Davis, who were returned to Houghton from Marquette, were fixed the same as when they were previously arraigned, $5,000 each, and were secured.

WALKER MAN DENIES WOLVES TREED HIM.

Walker, Minn., Jan. 22.—(Special to The Herald.)—Bob Ross, who was reported in the press to have lost his hands and feet by having them frozen by taking refuge in a tree from a pack of wolves, showed up in town this week and was very much surprised to find out what a furore he had created in the daily papers. He states that he hasn't seen a wolf for some time, let alone being treed by them.

INDIANS LOSE IN INJUNCTION CASE

Engler Lumber Company Not Restrained From Cutting Timber.

Brainerd, Minn., Jan. 22.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Engler Lumber company of International Falls will not be restrained by the district court from cutting timber on Chippewa Indian lands on the Red Lake reservation. Judge McClenahan so ruled in denying the application of William Potter and John W. Carl on behalf of certain Chippewa tribes against E. A. Engler and the E. A. Engler Lumber company.

About 20,000,000 feet of timber was advertised for sale by the government and Engler and others were bidders at the sale. As a result of that bidding the department awarded the timber to Engler. In May he entered into the contract for cutting and removing it, gave the required bond and made deposit of $15,000, the percentage required under the law. The contract bond and deposit still stands. Of course that contract was between Engler and the United States, and the Engler Lumber company made a contract with other parties cutting and removing timber and the contractors had commenced work when this action was started.

Not Highest Bidder.

The plaintiff's claim is that Engler was not the highest bidder at the sale and that the actual sale to him was a private transaction between him and the interior department, and therefore void. The plaintiff further claims that the lowest bidder was Edward W. Backus. The defendants claim title to the timber under contract with the government. Now in this action to enjoin the cutting and removing of timber, the United States is a party to the contract. The United States was not made a party and could not have been made a party successfully because the United States cannot be sued. Under the law the United States holds the legal title to such Indian lands and timber and the title of the Indians is only an equitable title, the relationship between the United States and the Indians being in the nature of a trust. H. B. Fryberger of Duluth, represented the defendants.

WARROAD'S COAL CALLED LIGNITE

State University Analysis Indicates Good Fuel Has Been Struck.

Warroad, Minn., Jan. 22.—(Special to The Herald.)—Reports from the state university on the samples of coal sent there for analysis show the coal struck while digging a well here to be a high-grade lignite. While it has some appearance of lignite, is it a superior grade to that found in North Dakota. The vein was about fourteen feet in depth. After going through the coal the drill struck a clay substance of indigo blue color. This formation is claimed by people versed in coal mining to be an indication of another bed of coal which usually appears from nine to fifteen feet below the first lode. This bed is invertible bituminous coal. The present deposits are considered to be sufficient to be a paying proposition and hundreds of people are hourly watching the developments of the well drillers.

ENGINE EXPLODES AT FARGO DEPOT.

Fargo, N. D., Jan. 22.—(Special to The Herald.)—A locomotive at the Northern Pacific passenger station here this morning created a panic around the depot when an explosion occurred and the dome was blown off. Those around the engine escaped injury.

The dome of the locomotive was hurled entirely over the elevator of a seedhouse, falling through the loading platform and narrowly missing workmen. The locomotive whistle was blown higher than the McGill block and fell through the skylight into a business office, but the occupants escaped.

NORTH DAKOTANS WANT CENSUS TAKEN.

Fargo, N. D., Jan. 22.—(Special to The Herald.)—The realty men of the state are beginning to wonder whether the agitation about the state's shortage of finances will prevent the census this year. There is a provision under the state laws for a state count in each year that ends with "5." This is for the purpose of getting more up-to-date figures than furnished by the Federal census in years ending with "0." Former legislatures in the years on which the count is to be made have always made an appropriation for the census, and it is presumed the present legislature will look after that matter, although no mention has yet been made of the plan. The realty men are anxious for the figures as they believe the state has shown a great increase in population during the last five years and there will be a great deal of other information that can be brought out along agricultural development lines, which will attract the interest of prospective settlers.

Fiery Blood Disorders Checked

The Sources of Disease are Cleaned and Blood Purified

Those who have used S. S. S. marvel at the way it checks blood diseases. See a man today with his skin all broken out; see him again in a week or two after using S. S. S. and he is a wonder to behold, all cleared up, skin healthy, eyes bright, a big smile replaces the droop. What is S. S. S. that can accomplish such wonderful results? First of all it is a natural medicine. Like milk, eggs and other foods that can not be imitated, S. S. S. owes it to Nature for its power to overcome disease just as food prevents emaciation. S. S. S. is not a combination of prescription drugs. It is a preparation direct from medicinal plants that retains all the virile potency of what we need, what we must have in the blood to counteract those destructive tendencies that assail us throughout life. If it were not for our natural secretions to sustain us, aided by such known helps as S. S. S. there would be small chance of any of us surviving childhood.

EVELETH COUPLE ARE WEDDED FIFTY YEARS

Mrs. G. A. Burns, First Woman to See St. Mary's Lake, Named It.

Eveleth, Minn., Jan. 22.—(Special to The Herald.)—Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Burns, old residents of this section, a few days ago celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding. They were married in Susquehanna county Pa., Jan. 16, 1865. Mr. Burns came to the Mesaba range in March, 1892, and took up a homestead, and Mrs. Burns joined him in July; and for many years they "pioneered" in the woods in this section, living in a cabin where they entertained many sportsmen. Mrs. Burns says:

"I was the first white woman in that vicinity, the first one to visit St. Mary's lake, which I named and christened by stooping into the first birch bark canoe 'toted' in by a white man.

"The woods were full of game, partridges and grouse so tame one could almost pick them off the ground. Moose and deer plentiful, and no game laws to prevent the settler from supplying his larder with fish or game necessary for subsistance.

Build Log House.

"In the fall of 1892 Mr. Burns, with the help of a Swede and an Icelander from one of the exploration camps, built a large, substantial log house near the D., M. & N. track, which we occupied for more than twenty-one years. The first winter of our life in the woods was cheered by the coming of our only son, Harry, who remained with us until September, 1893, when he left to attend the World's fair at Chicago.

"In the early days we entertained a great many sportsmen, who came from distant parts of the country on account of the hunting and fishing. They kept us in touch with 'the beautiful world outside,' we used to say.

"In October, 1913, we moved into Eveleth, where we have many comforts and privileges we could not have on the homestead."

LARGE LAND DEAL IN ITASCA COUNTY

Grand Rapids, Minn., Jan. 22.—(Special to The Herald.)—One of the biggest real estate deals that has taken place in Itasca county for several years was closed this week.

The consideration involved was $31,166 and for this amount 1,850 acres of unimproved land changed hands. This land was owned by W. D. Washburn, Jr., and Edgar H. Loyhed of Minneapolis and was sold to the Scribner-Kelley interests of the same place. It comprises a tract lying between and northeast of Deer and Moose lakes.

Between Two Lakes.

One particularly choice piece of the tract is 375 acres lying between Deer and Moose lakes, five miles northeast of Deer River and ten miles northwest of Grand Rapids. This tract has a shore frontage of five miles and is from ten to twenty feet above the level of the lake. The larger portion of it is practically an island, connected with the shore by causeways some forty feet broad. The water in these two lakes is clear and transparent to a depth of about twenty feet and the lakes are well supplied with fish, making the location a most desirable one for summer resorts.

Plan Small Tracts.

It is understood that the Scribner-Kelley people intend to plat this land, providing from two to five-acre patches for summer homes. The location for this purpose is ideal and probably one of the best in Itasca county. With the carrying out of the present plans of the purchasers of this land, it is likely that many people from the cities will build cottages there and spend the summer in this perfect summer resort region. It is also possible that an amusement park may be located on the shores of Deer and Moose lakes if the shore frontage will warrant the necessary expenditure.

He was swinging a double-bitted ax over his head, and it glanced down on to his head with considerable force, cutting a gash about an inch deep and the width of the blade, on the left side of his head, just above his ear, and extending down the side of his face. The skull was fractured, an artery severed, and it is feared that concussion of the brain may develop.

Buhl, Minn., Jan. 22.—(Special to The Herald.)—Clearing of land for agricultural purposes is being carried on extensively in this vicinity this winter and it is expected that in a year or two farming will be one of Buhl's most productive industries.

Nels Ryan, Fred Hill, John Spoler, John Doherty and several others have been cutting the wood off their lands and the removal of stumps will follow immediately. For president, George Matakovitch, it is understood, will again seek this office and P. M. Stone is talked of as being his opponent.

For village clerk, C. W. Extrum will be a candidate to succeed himself and as it is conceded by everyone that Mr. Extrum is a competent and trustworthy official, it is thought that he will have the field to himself. On Tuesday, members of the council, consisting of President Barrett, Clerk MacInnis, Trustees Bordeau and Connors, went to Chisholm to inspect the plant recently installed at that place. The construction work will likely be begun as soon as the plans are completed and approved by the state board of health as there is danger of the supply from the Genoa mine becoming exhausted at any time and especially so when the snow begins to melt in the spring. DRINK HOT TEA FOR A BAD COLD

Get a small package of Hamburg Breast Tea, or as the German folks call it, "Hamburger Brust Thee," at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teacup full at any time. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus breaking a cold at once.

It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore harmless.

Greatest of All Human Blessings

The most wonderful thing in the world is love expressed in the helpless infant. And among those aids and comforts for expectant mothers is the well known "Mother's Friend."

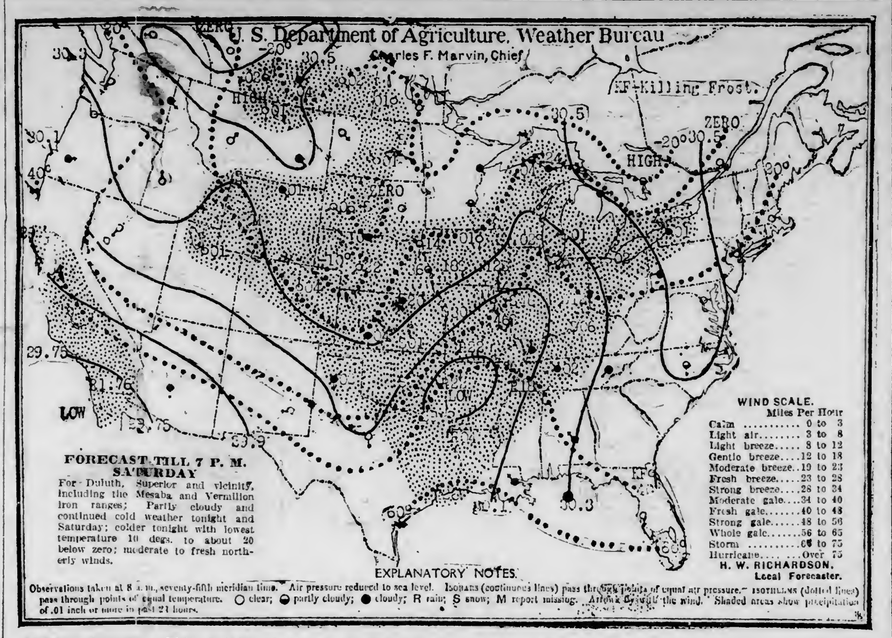

This is an external application to enable the abdominal muscles to become more pliant, to expand naturally without undue pain from the strain upon cords and ligaments.

Applied as directed upon those muscles involved it soothes the fine network of nerves with which all the muscles are supplied. Thus a great share of the pains so much dreaded may be avoided and the period of expectancy passed in comfort.

There is no question but what such relief has a marked influence upon the general health of the mother.

In a little book sent by mail much useful information is given to inexperienced mothers. It tells how to use "Mother's Friend" and how to avoid caking breasts. It has been prepared in our laboratory for over forty years and is known favorably to most druggists everywhere. Get a bottle to-day and write for book to Bradfield Regulator Co., 309 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. Be sure to ask for and see that you get "Mother's Friend."

HOMESTEADER HAS COMPLETED DRAMA

John Norstog Finishes "Moses" in Bad Lands of North Dakota.

Alexander, N. D., Jan. 22.—(Special to The Herald.)—"Moses," the new drama in five acts, written by John Norstog, who is regarded as the greatest Norwegian-American writer of this country, has just been completed. Norstog, the author, is a homesteader near Cherry in this county. He has a claim on a hillside and north and east of him are some of the most fertile lands of the state, while to the south and west rise the rugged hills of the famous Bad Lands and he is close in touch with the mystic influences of that strange geological formation.

Author Quaint Character.

Norstog is a quaint and original character. He lives almost entirely alone. He has a printing and bindery plant. After he writes he sets his manuscript into type with his own hands and also prints and binds the volumes himself. Once printed, however, he loses interest in that volume and immediately begins to write another, the ideas of which have been forming in his head during his mechanical labors on the preceding volume. He lacks entirely the commercial instincts and makes no effort to sell his works disposing of the volumes only to those who seek them without solicitation on his part.

His first work was "Kain" and it attracted international attention among literary critics familiar with the Norsk language. His new work is "Moses." It has to do with the experiences of the great Jewish leader. It tells in a striking manner of the battles of the forces of evil and good and demonstrates there are certain fundamental and unchangeable principles of right and truth that must govern the acts and development of the human race at all times. It is a drama in five acts.

Wahpeton Tournament Plans.

Bismarck, N. D., Jan. 22.—The board of trustees of the state firemen's association met here this week and discussed the fourth next tournament to be held at Wahpeton on June 1. Owing to the cut in the annual appropriation necessitated by the financial condition of the state the board has decided that it will be practically impossible to hold any races this year, but a strong effort will be made to get manufacturers of fire apparatus to make a large exhibit of fire extinguishing equipments, and make demonstrations at Wahpeton.

THE AMERICAN DISEASE

Neurasthenia may be called a distinctively American disease because the condition of nervous strain that produces it is more prevalent here than in any other country. Overwork and worry, ambition, haste, the high tension at which business is conducted, all use up the nerve force and produce neurasthenia, for the disease is simply exhaustion and excessive irritability of the nerve centers.

A tendency to neurasthenia is inherited by many Americans whose ancestors had but a small stock of nervous energy to bequeath. Grief, excessive worry or disappointment in love, business or school work may cause neurasthenia.

The symptoms include a feeling of exhaustion upon rising in the morning, of disturbed sleep, headache, with a sense of weight and tightness about the head. The patient is irritabte, difficult to please, and suffers from depression.

The treatment is to remove the cause if possible (as when overstudy is responsible) take abundant rest, spend ten hours in bed out of every twenty-four, eat as much nourishing food as possible and take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to restore the nerves. Send today for our free booklet on "Nervous Disorders." Address: Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y. Your own druggist sells Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

Federation confers upon the Federal council or some body with the powers of a Federal council plenary and exclusive jurisdiction to determine conflicts between the fundamental law and ordinary statutes, as well as to enforce the bill of rights.

"Resolved further, That in a Federal democratic republic, with forty-nine legislative units, one federation and forty-eight states, either judicial review or else a supreme Federal council with plenary power to revise, veto, annul or suspend all legislation, both Federal and state, either in whole or in part, is the only peaceful means of resolving the inevitable conflicts between the Constitution and the rights and duties of the Federation and the legislation in forty-nine legislative units, as well as to uphold and enforce the bill of rights.

"Resolved further, That the experience of 134 years of court review of unconstitutional or ultra vires laws has demonstrated that not only the citizens of the United States, but those of the British empire and of several other countries as well, where there is no Federal council with plenary power to veto, annul, repeal or suspend laws, prefer court review to the establishment of a Federal council with absolute power to veto, annul, repeal or suspend all or part of any legislation, state or Federal."

BAR TAKES ISSUE WITH ROOSEVELT

Buffalo, N. Y., Jan. 22.—One of the special committee reports submitted to the New York State Bar association here today took issue specifically with utterances of Former President Roosevelt concerning the judiciary system of the United States.

The subject was treated under the professional heading of "The Report of the Committee on the Duty of Courts to Refuse to Execute Statutes in Contravention of the Fundamental Law." In general it was a studied reply to critics who complain of judicial usurpation of legislative power by the American judiciary, but at the outset the report reviews particularly the writings of Col. Roosevelt, and in reply to his arguments, as well as those of others, it offers 139 printed book pages of legal citations, historical data and other matter.

At the conclusion of the exhaustive presentation of its case, including the survey of the judicial system in many other countries, the committee submitted the following resolutions:

"Resolved, That in Federations possessing a written fundamental law, it is the duty of the courts to uphold the fundamental law as against legislation in contravention thereof by refusing to enforce, as ultra vires or unconstitutional, all statutes in excess of or in contravention of the fundamental law, save and except where the written fundamental law of the Phillips, Wis., Curlers Added to Winnings in Early Draw.

Sandy McNabb Defeals Steve Jones in Closely Played Game.

It looks like George Reedal of Phillips for the grand aggregate. In the early morning draw of the St. Paul Jobbers' event, Reedal defeated Evered of West Duluth, increasing his lead over all contending rinks for one of the most prized trophies of the spiel, and perhaps the most sought-after honor.

One of the best games of the early draw was that between Steve Jones and Sandy McNabb. McNabb won after a game that was nip and tuck all the way, thus going into the third round of the Western.

The Brewer-Whytes won from the veteran, Tom Cameron, and also progressed into the third round.

Perhaps the most decisive beating of the spiel was administered to Dr. Catterson's rink by the John McLeod rink of Minneapolis. The genial Scot from the Mill City piled up a total of 15 points in eight ends, while Catterson and company failed to score in a single head.

It might also be mentioned that this is the first time in the ten-year curling career of the diminutive doctor that he has been shut out of every head.

Duluth Rinks Down.

In the Patrick-Duluth event, which is city against city, or two rinks against two rinks, the Canadian contenders, Chisholm of Winnipeg and Montgomery of Port Arthur, put Oldham and West out of the running. West defeated "Monty" by a 14 to 12 count, but Chisholm was curling in rare form and put Johnny down, 12 to 5, the Canadians thus having a point margin of 6 points.

A large share of the games will be cleaned up in the play of the remainder of the day. The spiel will be over in good season tomorrow, and its close will mark one of the most successful bonspiels that has ever been held under the auspices of the present association.

NATIONAL INSTITUTION

Judge Landis Says Blow at Baseball Would Hit Heavily.

Chicago, Jan. 22.—"Both sides understand that any blow made at the thing called baseball would be regarded by this court as a blow at a national institution," declared Judge Landis during today's hearing of the Federal league's anti-trust suit against organized baseball.

The remark was called forth by the attempt of George Wharton Pepper, concluding his argument for the defendants, to protest his love for the national pastime. Pepper sought to appeal also to Judge Landis' enthusiasm for the game when the judge interrupted:

"You may leave the 'love and affection' out of this lawsuit," and then stated the position of the court.

The existence of the Federal league nullifies its own charge that organized baseball is a monopoly, according to Pepper. He attacked, article by article, the prayers for relief made in the Federal league's bill of complaint, mainly on legal grounds. He declared the plaintiff had not a direct interest in the suit.

George W. Miller, taking up the case for the defendants, discussed the several incidents in which players had left clubs in organized ball for the Federals.

The question of jurisdiction, which threatened for a time to terminate the suit, was not touched upon early in today's suit.

CLASSES WILL PLAY FOR HOCKEY TITLE.

The Senior and Junior hockey teams of the Duluth Central high school will meet tomorrow morning at 8 o'clock to decide the championship of the school for this year. Both teams appear strong and evenly matched, and a fine exhibition is expected. Harry Parsons is captain of the Senior aggregation and John Richards heads the Juniors.

MANDALAY'S THREE HEADED ELEPHANT.

Wide World Magazine: Of the many curiosities to be seen in the wonderful temples of Mandalay, few arrest the attention of the traveling Westerner more than the three-headed elephant in the Arakan pagoda, which is regarded by the Burmese as one of the most sacred of their many shrines. The principal object of adoration in this temple is a seated image of Buddha, twelve and a half feet high, and heavily coated with gold leaf. This gold leaf is constantly being renewed with the offerings of pious devotees; you can buy a leaf for a rupee, follow the pilgrims who flock to the temple up the steps leading behind the image, and place the glittering morsel on Buddha's back, thus performing an act of great merit in Burmese eyes. The three-headed elephant is Buddha's guard and occupies the sanctuary that leads into the holy of holies. This strange statue is made of bronze, and apart from its freakish character, is a clever piece of work.

According to figures published by the Monetary Times of Toronto, the sum total of American investments in Canada was $636,904,000 in 1913, as compared with $417,143,000 in 1911, and $279,075,000 in 1909.

FATHERS' CLUBS.

"What sort of a father are you?" This question is found on every program of what is claimed to be the first fathers' club in the United States, organized at Council Bluffs, Iowa, a little over a year ago, according to information received at the home education division of the United States bureau of education.

Ten clubs, with an average membership of fifty, have been formed during the year for the purpose "of bringing the fathers into closer touch with the children, the teachers and the board of education in an endeavor to bring about the very best results. The motto of these clubs is "Make the Indifferent Different." Membership is limited to males 21 years of age or over.

Each month the "fathers' clubs" debate such questions as "Are our children trained for, or away from, the age in which we live?" "How many children out of 1,000 reach high school in our town? What about the rest?" Or they discuss topics like the following: Comparative public expenditures in various states; juvenile courts, school hours, instruction, compulsory education, open-air schools, playgrounds, medical inspection, the sex question, business education, the cultural influence of newspapers, magazines, music, books, etc., women on the school board, the school house as a community center.

Guests representing various community groups are invited to the meetings; interested fathers from other districts, clergymen, physicians of the neighborhood, members of the board of education, mayor and city council and the bar association. The clubs were addressed at different times during the year by a judge of the United States circuit court, university professors, senators, school superintendents, a judge of the superior court, a member of the state board of education, as well as other interested citizens.

It is planned in the near future to form the existing clubs into a federation, with a uniform program for all the clubs every month.

WANT A BIG CATTLE SHOW

Northern Michigan and Wisconsin Would Join This Community.

Agricultural Committee of Commercial Club Favorable to Plan.

If plans that the agricultural committee of the Commercial club should materialize, Duluth will have, next fall, the biggest cattle show in her history, one that will be far larger than was hoped for for two or three years yet at least.

Recently one of the members of the committee, who is identified with the dairying interests of the Northwest as perhaps no other man in the state is, received several letters from different people in the northern peninsula of Michigan and in Northern Wisconsin asking why arrangements cannot be made so that owners and breeders of dairy cattle in those sections of the Northwest may join with those in this community and hold a cattle show worth while each fall instead of the community show now held in connection with the Industrial exposition.

"The implied suggestion, it occurred to me," said the man addressed, "was that we should get away from the matter of holding merely a community show and spread out, taking in all the northern dairying sections. The idea struck me, and, I may say, the rest of the committee as a most excellent thing in various ways. Not only would it show what a dairying country there is all around us here and tell the world about it, but it would serve as a trade drawer from all sections considered with Duluth as the center. There is no telling how fast a growth of trade from the northern peninsula and Northern Wisconsin might develop, and the merchants and others here would profit by it.

"The whole question in our minds was whether or not we could get up something practical, and whether or not we could finance anything so ambitious. But it would be great if we could just do it.

"A cattle show of that kind would be confined, of course, to dairy cattle only, no beef cattle being permissible for the main object would be to show the dairying possibilities. We would probably have as many as 100 to 150 head of cattle on exhibition.

"In the meantime we will consider it and find out if we can pull it off. The question of that is the only reason any of us hesitate."

WORDS AND DEEDS.

National Monthly: An eminent Methodist bishop was advocating a more liberal loosening of the purse strings, and during a sermon one day told his congregation that he at one time sent an article to a paper, in which he said, "We pray too loud and work too little."

The intelligent compositor did a most satisfying job, and when it appeared it read:

"We bray too loud and work too little."

"I let it go at that," said the bishop. "The fact is, I believe the printer was right, and never ventured to correct him."

EFFECTIVE FROSTING.

Los Angeles Times: Make ordinary boiled frosting and after you have beaten it stiff enough to hold its own firmly on a cake empty it into a double boiler.

Place the double boiler over a good fire that will keep the water in the lower pan at a brisk boil. Do not stir the frosting at all, but watch it until it begins to fudge around the side of the pan.

Then take it from the stove and beat it in the pan until it is cool enough and thick enough to swirl in your cake, holding its own in whatever irregularities you wish to perpetrate.

If you let it get too cool it will harden in the pan perhaps before you have finished frosting your cake. If it does harden a little hot water beaten in will remedy the difficulty.

Do not use a knife to put on frosting when you want the frosting to have a swirly, irregular look. Use a fork handle.

To ELAINE DODGE

I can help you. Your letter in yesterday's paper, made me feel for you and want to rush right out and help you.

I imagine you are pretty much upset, from what you say and want to hear without delay from anyone who can help you and your father.

Now, I would not be of much good myself, Miss Dodge,—but I am very close to a man, who I think, is the greatest detective that ever lived.

I know I can persuade him to help you, for he is the aid of the weak and oppressed always. And I will!

Indicate how and when I can meet you with my friend and we will be there. To show you that I am sincere, and I mean you no harm, you may have a policeman with you. Respectfully yours,

SHIPS FOOD TO GERMANS

Consigned to American and Intended for Non-Combatants.

New York, Jan. 22.—Carrying a cargo of food supplies shipped by an American firm and consigned to an American citizen in Germany, the American-owned steamer Wilhelmina was given clearance today from this port for Hamburg and is expected to sail this afternoon. The shippers assert the food is meant only for consumption by civilians.

This is the first food carrying American vessel to leave an American port for Germany since war began in Europe. If she is seized by warships of the allies; her consigners, the W. L. Green Commission company of St. Louis will file a protest with the American state department, according to local attorneys of the company, claiming that the allies are not within their rights or privileges under international law in preventing the shipment of conditional contraband to non-combatants in a country at war with the allies.

To Controvert Claim.

In order to controvert in advance a possible claim by Great Britian or any other of the allies that the Wilhelmina's cargo is intended for use by the German government or its naval or military forces or by agents or contractors which supply that government with foodstuffs, the cargo is consigned to an American citizen who will be in Hamburg on the date which the vessel will arrive if she escapes seizure. Furthermore, both the consignors and the German government guarantees, according to the attorneys, that the cargo is intended for consumption by non-combatants only.

W. T. Brooking, representing the St. Louis shippers who have chartered the Wilhelmina for this voyage, plans to sail on the Holland-American liner Rotterdam on Saturday for Rotterdam and will go thence to Hamburg. It is up to him that the Wilhelmina's cargo has been consigned for disposal to the civil population according to Norvin R. Lindheim of Hays, Kauffman & Lindheim, attorneys here for the St. Louis company.

The Wilhelmina's cargo consists of 900,000 pounds of wheat, 840,000 of corn and 450,000 of bran, and lard, beef, pork, hams, pickled tongue, dried fruit, peas, beans and oats.

Before deciding to risk this cargo on the high seas, its owners, according to Mr. Lindheim, consulted the state department.

SMART GRANDSON.

Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph: A well known man recently lent his grandson money to purchase a motorcycle. The money was to be paid back by installments, the machine to remain the property of the grandfather until the last payment had been made. The other day, while out riding, the boy met his grandfather and jumped off his motorcycle.

"Say, grandfather," said the boy, "who does this machine belong to?"

"It belongs to me until you have made the last payment. That was the agreement, you know. But why do you ask?"

"Well, I just wanted to make sure," remarked the boy, with a grin. "Your motorcycle needs a new tire."

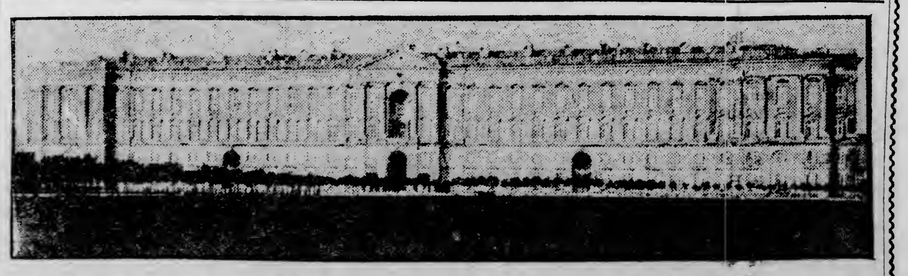

THE RIB.

Washington Star: At a luncheon Dr. Lyman Abbott sat beside a suffragist, who harangued him from the hors d'oeuvre to the coupe jacques on the importance of woman.

With his urbane smile, Dr. Abbott endured the young lady's eloquence till the coming of the coffee. Then he ventured to say, very mildly:

"The importance of woman? The importance of woman? I have heard nothing but the 'importance of woman' for the last hour. Yet surely Scripture teaches us that woman is but a side issue!"

WHEAT UP ON EXPORT CALL

Market Advances With Urgent Foreign Demand and Light Offerings.

Flaxseed Bulges Again on Crushers' Inquiry; Strong at the Close.

Duluth Board of Trade, Jan. 22.—The market was slightly easier at the close. May wheat closed ⅞c up and July ⅞c up. May durum closed ½c up and July 1c up.

Oats closed ⅛c up at 53¼c, rye unchanged at $1.18, barley 1c up at from 65c to 76c and corn ⅛c up at 71⅝@72⅛c.

At Winnipeg, May oats closed ¼@⅝c up at 61⅝@61½c and July ⅜c up at 62½c.

Puts on Minneapolis May wheat closed at $1.39¾ asked and calls at $1.35⅞ bid.

Holders had it all their own way in the wheat market today. Quotations were in the ascendant from the start as a result of higher Liverpool cables and reported urgent export inquiry in all the markets. Export sales were reported by Duluth houses in grain at Chicago and to go out from Southwestern points through Galveston. A local exporting house was also a heavy bidder for May wheat here, signifying the booking of foreign contracts for spring delivery. Another significant incident was the sale of a substantial tonnage of No. 3 northern wheat at Minneapolis for shipment to Chicago. Operators here who control the bulk of the wheat now afloat and in store at Buffalo, are reported to have raised their limits to 2c over the Duluth May and to be receiving some nibbling for it. A special sale was rumored in a lot of it today at 4½c over May. Great Britain, France and Holland were advised to be in the market for all the grain that could be picked up, and that contributed to bullish sentiment in every quarter, especially in view of the fact that growers are said to be letting little stuff go even on the present price basis in expectation of higher figures later on.

May wheat opened on the Duluth market ⅝c up at $1.39½, and after holding at around that basis during the first hour, above up was made to $1.40⅛, where it stood at the noon hour. For July $1.38⅛ was bid at that time, or 1¼c above yesterday close, with however no business put through.

There was again steady inquiry for durum with however light trading in view of little stuff being offered. May opened ⅝c up at $1.54 and later eased off ⅛c. July on the other hand advanced 1⅛c to $1.53½.

Clearances of wheat and flour were liberal today, amounting to 1,291,000 bu. World's wheat clearances for the week were reported by Bradstreet's at 8,395,000 bu.

Upturn in Flaxseed.

Flaxseed was strong on urgent inquiry from crushers, while receipts and offerings fell below requirements. Operators specializing in that market are reported to be growing increasingly bullish from a supply and demand standpoint.

May flax opened unchanged at $1.90 and closed 2¾c up at $1.92¼ bid.

At Winnipeg, May flax closed ½c up at $1.71½.

Modern Miller says: Weather conditions favor the winter wheat crop with snow covering generally except in Oklahoma, Southeastern Kansas and Southern Missouri. Following light rains in Oklahoma, the ground is in good condition and spring plowing has commenced. In general the weather has been mild and so far the wheat plant has not suffered from extreme weather or lack of protection. There is some apprehension as to winter killing on the thin stand in the West. The tenacity with which farmers hold wheat indicates it will take higher prices to exhaust reserves."

* * *

Minneapolis cash market was steady with a good demand. No. 1 northern blue stem sold at 3@3½c over May, and velvet chaff, 1½@2c under May.

Flour sales were moderate, but there were good shipping directions. Cash No. 1 northern sold there at from $1.36½ to $1.42 and No. 2 northern at from $1.33½ to $1.40.

C. E. Lewis wired from Minneapolis: "Wheat here is now 2c under Duluth and 6½c under Chicago. It is possible that it may sell at a wider difference under Chicago during the month of May, but we are selling spring wheat to go to St. Louis, and foreigners continue to take supplies out of Duluth. The mills and elevators realize that good spring wheat is going to be scarce here and are taking their hedges out of May and putting them into July. Big premiums are forcing country elevators to clean out their houses wherever possible, and later in the spring this market will be a strong one. Just nothing in the situation this morning at all bearish. The Argentine estimates of oats for export have been sharply reduced. Corn, being by far the cheapest food product, is attracting speculation. We look for everything to rule strong."

Argentine exportable oats surplus has been reduced from 80,000,000 to 45,000,000 bu.

* * *

Export of domestic wheat and flour from the United States in December broke all records being 37,000,000 compared with 10,600,000 bu the previous year. Oats exports in December of 5,203,000 were larger than for any two months of 1913. Export sales of cash wheat at seaboard Thursday were 400,000 bu., 310,000 bu. corn and 900,000 oats.

* * *

Argentine shipments: Wheat, 313,000 bu, last year 848,000 bu; corn, 2,406,000 bu, last year 1,215,000 bu.

* * *

Broomall cabled: United Kingdom—Port stocks on Jan. 1 were officially posted, wheat 19,984,000 bu, against 15,695,000 bu, last year for the same period, and corn 6,944,000 bu against 13,983,000 bu. Oats—Market has had a rapid advance as a result of decreasing supplies continued large consumption and decreasing offers from Argentina even at the advanced prices."

* * *

Argentine exportable figures have been largely reduced, and it is understood that a good portion of the crop has already been contracted for and now holders are very firm.

* * *

Italian weather continues wet and damage reports are coming to hand. The importance of India and Argentine as shippers of wheat cannot be overrated. Indian prospects at present are highly favorable and as a result of cold weather and rains, and it is expected that this crop will go through in fine shape.

CHICAGO MARKET.

Torrential Rains Said to Have Fallen in Argentina, Bulls Wheat.

Chicago, Jan. 22.—Torrential rains said to have fallen in Argentina had a bullish effect today on wheat. Likelihood that the movement of the Argentine crop would be still further delayed tended to encourage the bulls. There were also advices of heavy new export sales at the United States seaboard. After opening a shade off to ⅜@½c up the market here made a decided advance all around.

After a brief reaction, prices climbed higher than before. It was said France was again buying and that a round lot for export had been taken from here. The close, however, was easy at ⅛c off to a shade advance, compared with last night's close.

Corn rose with wheat and as a result of western storms. Offerings were light. The opening which ranged from ⅛@¼c decline to a gain of ¼@⅜c was followed by a moderate general upturn.

Later the market touched the highest price on the crop, 79⅞c May. Rural consignment notices showed a material decrease. The close was ⅛@¼c net advance.

Bullish reports from Argentina counted against the bears in oats. Estimates on the Argentine exportable surplus were reduced nearly one-half.

Lower quotations for hogs acted as a weight on provisions. Demand was slow.

REACTION IN STOCKS

Decline Due to Persistent Selling, Largely for Foreign Account.

Speculative Favorites Drop to Their Lowest in the Last Hour.

New York, Jan. 22.—Stocks showed some uncertainty at the opening, a few of the leaders recording slight losses but a fresh buying movement soon set in, with the result that some of yesterday's high prices were speedily eclipsed. Great Northern, Northern Pacific, Lehigh Valley, St. Paul, Louisville & Nashville, New Haven and New York Central rose a point. Exceptions to the general tendency were Canadian Pacific and Smelting which lost a point. Reading and Pennsylvania manifested some early heaviness but the entire list strengthened by the end of the half hour.

Stock exchange trading in the first hour exceed 150,000 shares, which marked a high record since the reopening. Activity was at the expense of values, however, leading issues with few exceptions relinquishing much of their advantage under foreign realizing and short selling.

Other important stock including coppers and United States Steel fell below yesterday's close. With this setback came a halt in the selling and some slight recovery from the low level.

Buying of convertible bonds was again noticeable, St. Paul 5's making a high record. Missouri Pacific convertible 4's showed renewed weakness.

The pressure against the list lifted in the early afternoon and there was a general hardness of prices. Western stocks were conspicuous on the recovery, particularly Atchison and Northern Pacific.

Persistent selling, largely for foreign account, caused a general reaction in today's stock market after an early period of strength and activity.

Speculative favorites declined to their lowest in the last hour, Reading falling 1¾ below yesterday's final. Virginia certificates advanced 6 points on the recommendation holding West Virginia liable for its share of the debt of Virginia at the time of the former's secession. The closing was heavy.

DEDUCTION RESTRICTED

Only Losses in One's Own Business Recognized in Income Tax Law.

Persons who have begun making up their income tax returns early this year have been greatly surprised to learn that a radical change has been made in the regulations concerning their losses on stocks, bonds, and real estate. Last year the rule was that profits from sales must be included in income and losses could be deducted from income. This year profits must be included in income, but losses may not be deducted.

In other words, if an investor having two blocks of stocks or bonds sold one of them in 1914 at a profit of $5,000 and the other at a loss of $10,000, he would have to include the $5,000 in his income but could not deduct the $10,000, as he was permitted to do last year. The same is true as to dealings in grain, cotton or real estate.

The only exception is in the case of a person whose business it is to buy and sell for others, such as a stock broker. The same rule applies also to corporations and to fiduciaries, such as executors and trustees.

J. J. Robinson, attorney of Duluth, explains the situation in this way:

"A man to be able to deduct losses from his income tax, must establish that the loss is incurred in his regular business and not in a side line. For instance: If a man in the real estate busin ss buys a bankrupt stock of goods hoping to make something on it, but loses, he cannot deduct that loss from his income because it was not his regular business. Or if a dry goods man invested in real estate and lost, he could not deduct. However, if each of these men suffered losses in their respective lines of business, they could deduct. This comes under the head of losses in trade."

Made in July.

This ruling was first made on July 3 in the form of instructions to collectors, and concluded with the statement that "all existing rulings and regulations in conflict herewith are hereby annulled and superseded." Few taxpayers watch closely for new rulings on the income tax in midsummer, and as this was sent only to collectors it received little general attention.

The tax is based primarily on "income from all sources," and there has never been any question that this included profits on sales of property. The deductions from gross income permitted to determine net income, however, are specifically enumerated in the law, and in discussing losses that may be deducted it provides that they must be incurred "in trade." The department rules that this expression confines the deduction to persons engaged in the business in which the loss is made.

Treasury decision 2090, which is a synopsis of previous rulings, says:

"As to losses on stocks, grain, cotton, etc., if these are incurred by a person engaged in trade to which the buying or selling of stocks, etc., are incident as a part of the business, as by a member of a stock, grain or cotton exchange, such losses may be deductible * * * and his status as such dealer must be clearly established. (T. D. 2,005.)"

A letter addressed recently to a bond house by the internal revenue department says, referring to T. D. 2,005, that "one who buys and sells for his own account only is not considered a dealer in stocks and bonds, or as engaged in trade within the meaning of the income tax law."

In a treasury department letter relating to the question of income on the sale of securities received by a beneficiary under a will, the income tax ruling was:

"If such securities are sold by the beneficiary at a price greater than the appraised value placed upon them in the settlement of the estate, the gain in value is held to be income to him and subject to tax under the provisions of the Federal income tax law. If such securities were sold by the beneficiary at a price less than the appraised value, the loss may not be claimed as an allowable deduction, as it would not be one incurred 'in trade.'

"However, if securities belonging to an estate are sold prior to the settlement of the estate by the administrators or trustees at a price greater than their cost price to the estate, the amount of gain derived from the transaction is considered income accruing to the estate and subject to income tax. If a loss results from such a sale, deduction therefore cannot be claimed, as such a loss would not be one incurred 'in trade' unless the deceased had followed the business of a stock broker and such business was being continued by the administrators or trustees of his estate at the time the same were sold."

HEALTH WEEK WILL CLOSE

Dr. C. E. Barker Will Make Final Address at the Y. M. C. A.

With many private interviews late into the night Dr. Charles E. Barker closed another strenuous day of activity in his program of physical efficiency at the Young Men's Christian association.

Beginning at 9 o'clock he addressed more than 400 students at the Washington junior high school, and his address was well adapted for students of that age.

At 12:15 Dr. Barker was the guest of the Rotary club at their luncheon at the Spalding hotel. Nearly 100 men were present, and Dr. Barker's address on "Personal and Physical Efficiency" was listened to with much interest.

Last night in the gymnasium he spoke to young men of the city on "Social Purity." He handled the subject tactfully.

The program for today, the last day of his visit in Duluth, was a long one. There was a special meeting at 12:30 for business men. About 300 letters of invitation were sent out by the association to business men to attend this address.

A meeting for business and professional women and mothers at the Y. W. C. A. will be held at 4 o'clock.

Tonight will be his closing address, and every man, woman and child in the city is invited to hear Dr. Barker in the gymnasium.

HEARS NOTHING OF INSTRUCTIONS

Alfred Jaques, United States district attorney for Minnesota, says that he knows nothing, as yet, at least, of orders issued to him from Washington to probe the flour situation in Minnesota as the first move that the government will make in the inquiry being instituted today to investigate Chicago and Minneapolis as grain market centers. News to the effect that the probe by Judge Jaques was received in a dispatch from Washington.

"I have no intimation of such instructions," said Mr. Jaques today. "Of course my instructions would be specific and would come by mail, so they may be on the way for all I know. I do not know how I will be ordered to go about it, and will not know until the instructions arrive. I suppose I shall be given direction of special agents working in Minneapolis; but that is merely surmise."

PROPOSE TO ADOPT COL. THORP'S PLAN

Crow Wing County Man Shows What Conservation of Moisture Will Do.

Fargo, N. D., Jan. 22.—(Special to The Herald.)—A national organization to be known as the New Farming association will be formed to carry out theories and experiments of Col. Freeman Thorp of Hubert, Minn., "on the complete conservation of moisture." He spoke before the tri-state convention last night and made a profound impression by his address on preliminary work, theories and experiments which made it possible for him to grow 100 bushels of corn per acre on sandy soil, near Brainerd. He will also issue a publication called the New Farmer for promulgating his ideas. Many visitors at the convention signified their intention of affiliating with Col. Thorp's new association.

BURNS CELEBRATION AT SPALDING MONDAY.

The Robert Burns celebration, an annual affair conducted by Clan Stewart, will take place next Monday night at the Spalding hotel, beginning at 8 o'clock, and an exceptionally fine program is promised. The occasion will be the one hundred and fifty-sixth anniversary of the birth of Robert Burns, the Scots poet. The address on Robert Burns will be given by E. W. MacPherran. Following the program there will be dancing. The usual banquet will be omitted this year, something of an innovation at a Burns celebration. The program follows:

GERMANS DROP BOMBS ON DUNKIRK, KILL SIX; BRITISH AIRMEN BOMBARD DOCKS AT BRUGES

PRIMARY ELECTION MAY BE RESTORED TO THIRD TUESDAY IN SEPTEMBER

General Sentiment in Favor at House Committee Meeting.

Bill to Protect Candidates From Anonymous Attacks Indorsed.

To Consider Election Contests at Night Hearings Next Week.

By a Staff Correspondent.

St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 23.—(Special to The Herald.)—If the sentiment developed at the first meeting of the house committee on elections yesterday afternoon is at all indicative of sentiment in the legislature, the first trial of the June primary date last year will be its last.

The committee yesterday afternoon voted, 14 to 1, to recommend for passage the bill by Representative Anton Borgen of Duluth restoring the old primary date of the third Tuesday in September, which prevailed up to the election of 1914.

Only one voice, that of Representative T. T. Morken of Crookston, was raised in favor of the June primary. He said that the country people had more time to vote in June than in September, because September is threshing time and the farmers are busy.

However, Oscar A. Swenson of Nicollet, L. G. Prendergrast of Bemidji and others representing rural constituencies said that their view of it was that the farmers would rather have the primaries in September than in June.

The city members were of one mind. Threshing or corn cultivation means nothing to them, but the long campaign necessitated by the June primary means a good deal.

Bjornson for September.

And Representative Gunnar B. Bjornson of Minnesota, chairman of the committee and also chairman of the Republican state central committee, fresh from the direction of the first state campaign under the June primary system, was emphatically for the old September date.

It developed in the discussion, as it developed during the discussion two years ago when the primary date was changed from September to June, that while it has been assumed that the farmers were all in favor of the June primary, they are not. The wheat farmers, who thresh in September, prefer it; but the corn farmers, who are cultivating in June and watching the corn ripen in September, do not like it.

NEW YORK HAS THAW AGAIN

Famous Prisoner Returned to Custody of Empire State Officials.

Legal Formalities Occupy Less Than Five Minutes.

Concord, N. H., Jan. 23.—Harry K. Thaw was returned to the custody of New York state officials today. The formalities which made effective more than sixteen months of legal effort by the New York authorities, occupied less than five minutes.

In that time Thaw's legal status underwent three changes. He was arraigned before Judge Albrich of the United States district court as a Federal prisoner; by order of the court was surrendered to the state of New Hampshire, and finally upon the presentation of the New York warrant for his arrest as a fugitive from justice, which was accompanied by Governor Felker's order for his extradition, he was given into the custody of Sheriff Hornbeck of Dutchess county, New York.

Taken to Courthouse.

Thaw arrived here this forenoon and

PASTOR'S WIFE ASKS COURT FOR DIVORCE

Names Los Angeles Woman as Co-Respondent in Her Charges.

Oakland, Cal., Jan. 23.—Rev. Arthur Maxson Smith, president of the Pacific Coast Unitarian conference and former pastor of the First Unitarian church of Berkeley, Cal., was made defendant yesterday in a divorce suit filed by Mrs. Sarah Bixby Smith. She names Miss Alice Giffen of Los Angeles as co-respondent.

Miss Giffen and Rev. Mr. Smith became acquainted while he was a professor at Pomona college. According to Mrs. Smith's complaint, they have visited several cities as husband and wife.

Mrs. Smith is the daughter of the late Llewellyn Bixby, millionaire mining man. Following her wedding she asserts she used her money to give her husband the best education that could be provided. She asks the custody of five minor children.

HALT MOVEMENTS TO BURY TURKISH DEAD.

London, Jan. 23.—"In the Plock region, in Northern Poland, the Russians are continuing their notable advance from Skompe toward Lipno," says a Petrograd dispatch to Reuter's Telegram company.

"In the Caucasus military movements are temporarily halted by the necessity of burying the Turkish dead, which are strewn in the mountains and valleys near Sari Kamysh to such a degree that an epidemic is feared."

REORGANIZE COUNCIL; MERRITT, PRINCE AND VOSS TO SWITCH JOBS

Merritt Asks to Be Relieved of His Present Duties.

Will Assume the Public Welfare Work, Prince Relieving Voss.

Voss to Head Public Utilities—Hicken and Murchison Unaffected.

Duluth's commissioners will redistribute the various divisions of the city government among the present members, according to tentative plans made yesterday afternoon. The change may be made either at a special meeting of the commission this afternoon or at the regular meeting Monday.

The change is being made so that Commissioner Merritt, head of the public utilities division, who has expressed a desire to handle another department, be granted his request. He has said to the commissioners that he feels he will be able to do more effective work in some other division of the city government, and it is for this reason that a change is now being considered, it was explained in the city hall this morning.

Although nothing definite has yet been done, the tentative plans provide for the shifting of Mayor Prince and Commissioners Voss and Merritt, while Commissioners Hicken and Murchison will continue as the heads of the divisions of public safety and works, respectively. The plan is to place Com-

$8,000 DISCREPANCY IN DOMINICAN FUNDS.

Washington, Jan. 23.—As a result of charges of a deficiency in the accounts of the public works department of the Dominican Republic, Secretary Bryan has ordered an investigation which is now in progres under the direction of Assistant Secretary Osborne.

Details are being withheld at present, but it is understod that the alleged discrepancy is about $8,000 and that it relates to expenditures made by Dominican officials or Americans appointed by and responsible to the Dominican government over whom the United States government had no direct control.

ALTER PLAN OF CAMPAIGN

Germans Believed to Have Changed Tactics in Russian Poland.

Next Heavy Fighting Likely to Occur in the South.

Petrograd, via London, Jan. 23.—It has become apparent to the Russian general staff that the Germans have altered materially their plan of campaign on the Russian front, with a view to attempting to oust the armies of Gen. Ivanoff from Bukowina, Northern Hungary and Eastern Galicia. In consequence, it is believed that the most severe fighting of the next few weeks is likely to occur in the south rather than in Central Poland, along the Warsaw front.

The new German plan is thought to have been elaborated at a recent meeting of Austrian and German staff officers at Breslau. Russian military officials say that the Austrians have failed in their allotted task of stemming the Russian invasion and that the Germans have awakened to the seriousness of the situation and consequently have adopted the new plan. The change is regarded as largely responsible for the prolonged lull about Warsaw, where military operations are much less aggressive.

Many Troops Forwarded.

During the last month Russian military authorities have been receiving

MINE PERIL IN BALTIC SEA FAST SPREADING.

London, Jan. 23.—A dispatch to the Exchange agency from Copenhagen says:

"The mine peril in the Baltic sea is spreading. In addition to the loss of the Swedish steamer Drott, which struck a mine off Raumo, Finland, Thursday and sank with the loss of six of her crew, the steamer Apus is supposed to have met the same fate with the loss of thirteen of her crew. It is feared that the steamer Hammar also has been lost, either in the rough weather or by coming in contact with a mine."

BRUGES, ATTACKED BY BRITISH AIRMEN

NINETEENTH WOMAN CLEARED OF CHARGE.

Chicago, Jan. 23.—Mrs. Mary Kozicki, who married the brother of her dead husband, consequently preventing his testifying against her, was acquitted tonight of murdering her husband. She was the nineteenth woman acquitted of murder in Cook county within the last few years, the consecutive record of acquittals being broken recently when Mrs. Pasqualina Forte and her daughter, Anna, were convicted of manslaughter.

Mrs. Kozicki's plea was self-defense.

To Raise Funds for Serbs.

New York, Jan. 23.—Mme. Slavko Grouitch, formerly Miss Mabel Dunlap of Virginia, now wife of the permanent under-secretary for foreign affairs of Servia reached here today on the steamship Lusitania to organize a committee and raise a fund for the restoration of the families of Servian farmers to their homes devastated by the war.

THIRTY-TWO DEPUTIES SPEND NIGHT IN JAIL

New Brunswick, N. J., Jan. 23.—Thirty-two deputy sheriffs of Middlesex county, employed by a private detective agency to guard the fertilizer plant of the American Agricultural Chemical company at Roosevelt, N. J., spent the night in the county jail here and faced arraignment today on charges of murder. The deputies, it is alleged, participated in the shooting at Roosevelt last Tuesday in which nineteen strikers were wounded, two of them dying of their wounds.

The imprisoned deputies faced the prospect of staying in jail at least two weeks before the grand jury could pass on the charges. In the event of indictments being returned, the county prosecutor said, they will be tried as quickly as possible.

The deputies were arrested at Roosevelt last night, where they were guarding the company's two plants.

REDISCOUNT RATES FOR CHICAGO BANKS.

Washington, Jan. 23.—The Federal reserve board today announced its approval of the following rediscount rates for the Chicago reserve bank:

Four per cent on maturities up to 60 days; 5½ per cent on maturities 60 to 90 days, and 5 per cent for longer maturities.

CAST EIGHTY MISSILES ON FRENCH CITY

Dead and Injured Number Twenty and Warehouse Is Set on Fire.

Damage Done in Belgium By Briton Is Not Yet Reported.

One Airship Reported to Have Foundered in North Sea.

Paris, Jan. 23.—A semi-official note issued last night says that a number of German aviators attacked Dunkirk yesterday, throwing eighty bombs. The victims numbered twenty, six of whom are dead. A large warehouse was set afire by one of the bombs.

French and English aviators, who chased the German aeroplanes, brought down one at Bray-Dunes on the Belgian frontier. Its two occupants were made prisoners.

BOMBS ON BRUGES.

Amsterdam, via London, Jan. 23.—A British airman today dropped bombs on the important Bruges, Belgium, docks, according to news which has reached here. The result of the attack is not yet known. The aviator escaped unhurt although he was attacked by the Germans.

SEE AIRSHIP FOUNDER.

London, Jan. 23.—Fishermen arriving at Noordwijk today asserted, according to a dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph company from Leyden, that they saw an airship founder in the North Sea on Friday night. The fishermen, the message adds, were unable to assist the aircraft. The description of the vessel given by the men indicates that it was a Zeppelin. Noordwijk is a watering place of the Netherlands, seven miles northwest of Leyden.

No Raid on England.

London, Jan. 23.—Although the reports of a Zeppelin raid on England last night are this morning seen to have been false, there has been a striking renewal of aerial activity on the continent. The Germans have raided Dunkirk in force, and British airmen launched an attack on Bruges.

The German raid on Dunkirk resulted in considerable loss of life and damage to property. One account says ten aeroplanes took part in it. British aeroplanes assumed the defensive and succeeded in bringing down one of the visitors.

This method of defense is regarded

DANGEROUS TO WORKERS

Louis D. Brandeis' Opinion of Present Great Corporations.

Believes Certain Amount of Unrest Among Men Desirable.

New York, Jan. 23.—Louis D. Brandeis of Boston and Charles P. Neil, former United States commissioner of labor, were the witnesses called to testify today in the inquiry being conducted here by the Federal commission on industrial relations into the causes of industrial unrest. Mr. Brandeis is expected to advocate the minimum wage as a cure for industrial unrest.

Louis D. Brandeis of Boston was the first witness. He did not believe the directors of large corporations had knowledge of facts sufficient to permit them to improve effectively the condition of employes.

Dangerous to Workers.

Great corporations were dangerous to the workers, Mr. Brandeis asserted, because they had endeavored to develop an absolutism, benevolent, but an absolutism, nevertheless. He believed a certain amount of unrest was desirable. Industrial democracy, he thought, should be attained.

Profit-sharing and mere liberality could not remedy present conditions, Mr. Brandeis said; a division of responsibility was needed. He believed that the absentee owner of corporations should be held absolutely responsible for conditions among his employes.

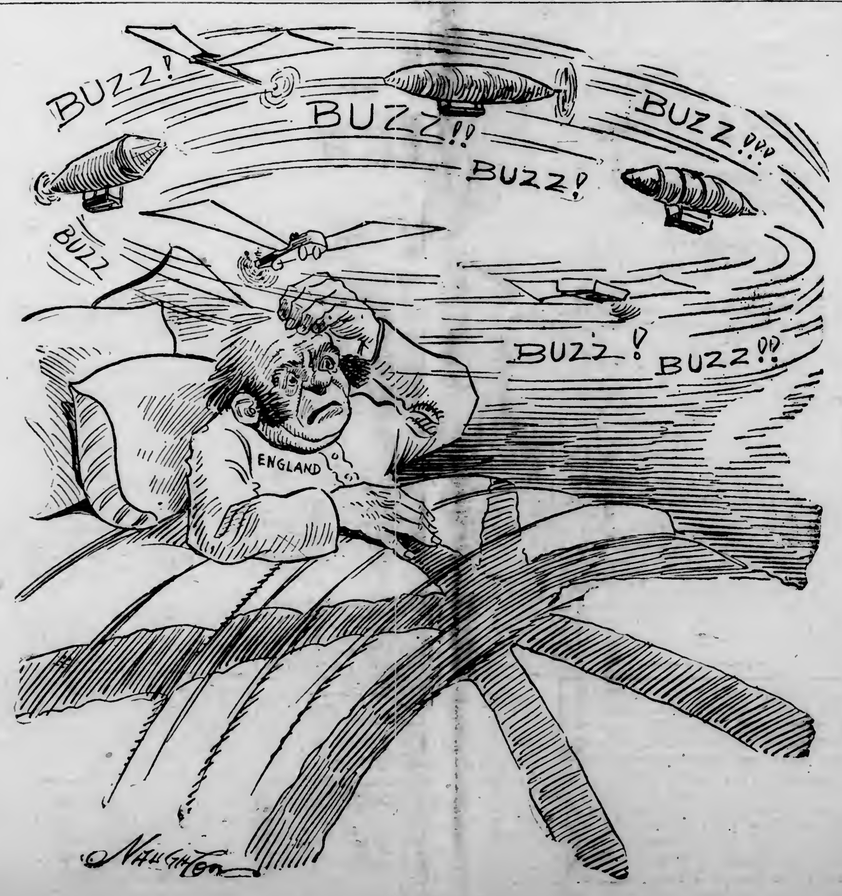

No Innocent Stockholders.

"There is no such thing as an innocent stockholder," he said.

He doubted if much could be accomplished for the worker by legislation unless it was to regulate unions.

Philanthropic foundations, such as the Rockefeller foundation, Mr. Brandeis thought, were formed with an honest plan of aiding humanity.

SHIPS THAT PASS IN THE NIGHT.

SUMMARY OF THE WAR NEWS

A complete change in the eastern campaign is expected by officers of the Russian general staff. They say the German and Austrian military chiefs have abandoned aggressive movements against Warsaw and are concentrating troops in Hungary to repel the Russian invaders in Bukowina, Eastern Galicia and Northern Hungary. It is in this section that they look for the heaviest fighting for the next few weeks.

Fishermen reaching a Dutch port today assert that they saw in the North sea a wrecked airship corresponding to one of Germany's fleet of Zeppelins.

In France and Belgium military activity is at low ebb, except in Alsace and the Argonne, where desperate fighting continues without advantages for either side. Minor victories are reported by both sides.

Two steamers flying the American flag soon will be at sea, each bound for Germany and each sailing with the avowed purpose of testing the right of the British government to interfere, under certain conditions, with American shipping.

The Dacia, cotton laden from Galveston, waiting moderation in the weather to up-anchor, will determine the question of giving American registry to a German vessel, and the voyage of the Wilhelmina, from New York last night for Hamburg, with American food stuffs, will decide, it is expected, whether Great Britain can stop American vessels from carrying to Germany American goods destined for consumption by the civilian and not the military population of that country.

The Dacia, a German steamer, took American registry since the beginning of the war. The British government says it will stop her and test the case before a prize court. Great Britain has said nothing as to her course in the case of the Wilhelmina. This steamer passed a British cruiser just outside New York harbor last night and was not molested. She may, of course, be held up when she reaches the other side and tries to enter a German port.

The recent activities of German aerial raiders continue to hold public attention in England to the very present fear of a concerted onslaught from the clouds.

Last night there were reports from the east coast of England that German Zeppelins again were flying over Norfolk, headed in a southerly direction, and a note of alarm ran through the country. Hurried investigation, however, brought no confirmation, and this morning the reports seem to have been unfounded.

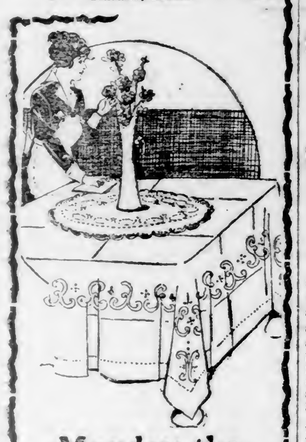

But yesterday did see a fatal German air raid on Dunkirk, France. A group of airmen threw eighty bombs on this French port. Six persons were killed and sixteen wounded. A Zeppelin was reported over the British channel yesterday and Ostend is credited with seeing one this morning.

Following the German raid on Norfolk, the early part of this week, this renewal of activity in the air is causing sharp anxiety in England.

A report from Constantinople on military developments has come to hand by way of Amsterdam. It avoids any reference to the recent Russian claims of decisive victories at Kara-Urgan and Sari-Kamish, but recites a Russian defeat in the Caucasus and says that in Arabia the Turks have defeated certain British contingents.

WIDOW SUING TO RECOVER $50,000

Wants Damages From Father of Boy Who Killed Her Husband.

Fargo, N. D., Jan. 23.—(Special to The Herald.)—The $50,000 damage case of Ross against Cooper, from Traill county, was finally begun here after two days were spent in securing a jury. J. E. Ross was foreman on the Cooper farm, near Hillsboro. In a quarrel between Ross and young Cooper, the former was shot and killed. The youthful shooter was acquitted at Grand Forks after a trial in which sensational charges of bribery were made. Mrs. Ross, widow of the dead foreman, now sues the elder Cooper for $50,000 damages as a result of the death of her husband. The case was transferred here on a change of venue.

There are fewer suicides among miners than among any other class of workmen.

We will clean free of charge the teeth of all persons calling at our office for free examination before Feb. 1st. Children must be accompanied by parents.

Metropole Proprietor Says He Will Not Fight Commission.

Weitzel Recedes From Former Position; Loses $800 on License.

No fight will be made by E. L. Weitzel, manager of the Metropole hotel, when the commission meets Monday afternoon to consider the charges made against him by Commissioner Hicken, and as a result the saloon license will be revoked without any opposition, the head of the safety department said this morning. This is the second time the saloon has been closed in the last two years.

Early this week Mr. Weitzel denied the charges made against him by Commissioner Hicken at the meeting of the commission last Monday, when the former's saloon license was temporarily suspended, and he was ordered to appear next Monday afternoon to show cause why his license should not be revoked. Mr. Weitzel declared that he would not fight the case to a finish.

Will Not Fight Hicken.

However, during this week Mr. Weitzel and his attorneys appeared before Commissioner Hicken and declared that no fight would be made, and the matter would be left with the commission. The request was made that part of the license money be returned, as it was renewed but two months ago, but Commissioner Hicken refused and the license will be revoked completely Monday afternoon, Mr. Hicken said. As a result, Mr. Weitzel loses about $800 on the license alone.

Hicken Carries Point.

When Commissioner Hicken presented his resolution to the commission last Monday asking for a temporary suspension of the license until Mr. Weitzel could appear, his proposal was at first objected to, but he finally carried his point. He was criticized during the week for taking such action, but he declared in explanation that the Metropole case was so flagrant that he could do nothing else but insist on such a move.

"And similar action will be taken on any other violator," said Commissioner Hicken this morning. "I do not want to be arbitrary, but the law must be obeyed and when it is violated in a most flagrant manner and where there is no doubt of the violation, the saloon keeper can expect no mercy whatever. "The commissioners have all seen the evidence against Mr. Weitzel and the license will be revoked without any opposition."

Commissioner Hicken obtained two affidavits last week, both charging Mr. Weitzel with permitting a violation of the law in the Metropole hotel. One was from a woman, a former inmate of a resort, who stated that she had been visited by several men while in her room and that she was arrested two weeks ago while in company with a man. This woman is now serving thirty days in the county jail. The man made a statement to the same effect. In addition the woman declared that Mr. Weitzel knew of her actions.

Hotel Will Not Close.

The closing of the Metropole saloon, said Mr. Hicken this morning, does not mean that the hotel will close also. He declared that he will permit Mr. Weitzel to continue running the hotel in an orderly manner and that if another man is secured he might consider granting a transfer of a saloon license to the Metropole.

"I do not wish to close any of the buildings in the city," he said, "but the law must be obeyed. If a good man is secured to manage the hotel, I will not hesitate for a moment to permit the opening of the bar. However, a new license will not be granted, but I will grant a transfer."

The Metropole bar was first closed on May 29, 1913, after Joseph Kenney, proprietor, was arrested two weeks previous for permitting gambling in his saloon on Sunday. It was the first saloon closed after the commission government went into effect and it is now closed for the second time. The Hicken liquor code was not passed until Sept. 16, 1913, and as a result did not affect the Metropole with regard to its reopening.

EXPERT TO HELP MEN CHOOSE WORK

"What Are You Best Fitted for?" Will Be Answered at "Y."

Are you following the occupation intended for you by nature, and if not what are the lines in which you may be most successful?

This is the question that will be answered by Joseph Blumenthal in an address at the Y. M. C. A. Thursday evening, given under the direction of the educational department of the association. Mr. Blumenthal, with his brother, Gustave, has gained a reputation as one of the few people fitted to be leaders in the work of showing people how to make the most of their lives; according to Secretary A. L. Turner of the educational department.

The United States government, recognizing the value of advice of this kind, recently established a bureau in Washington, D. C., and secured the services of Gustave Blumenthal to direct it. The other brother is at the head of a similar "clearing house for misfits" in the Twin Cities.

"Experts have agreed that the first and most important law of efficiency is that a man must do the kind of work for which nature intended him," says Mr. Blumethal. "This problem of finding the square holes for the square pegs and round holes for the round pegs is a most important one, and one that has not been attempted by scientists until recently.

"Each person has the native ability to follow some particular line of work more successfully than any other," he declared. "How to find out what that particular line of work is, is the great unsolved problem for the masses of American people today."

Following his lecture, Mr. Blumenthal will remain in Duluth a day for personal conferences with those who wish to consul him.

TRACTION COMPANY SUED FOR $5,909.

When a west-bound street car collided with a dray wagon which Ford A. Smith was driving along Superior street near Thirty-third avenue west on Oct. 8, 1914, Smith was thrown from the rig and severely injured, according to claims made today in a suit filed in district court against the Duluth Street Railway company.

Smith is suing the traction company for $5,909.30. He is asking for $5,000 general damages and $909.30 as special damages. He asserts that his horses were injured and his dray partly demolished. In addition he claims that as a result of the accident and the injuries which he sustained he lost considerable time, for which he asks compensation.

John Jenswold, Jr., is his attorney.

DELEGATES ARE CHOSEN

Duluth Will Be Represented at State Grocers' Meeting.

Two Bills of Importance Discussed—Will Push Duluth Products.

At a regular meeting of the Duluth Retail Grocers' association, held at the Commercial club last evening, the following delegates were elected to attend the annual state convention to be held at the Ryan hotel, St. Paul, Minn., Feb. 22, 23 and 24:

M. R. Bush,	J. W. Lent,
Edward Strange,	J. Logan,
A. M. McEwen,	L. A. Paddock,
J. E. Roos,	W. B. Logan,
J. O. Johnson,	G. A. Trolander,
Alfred Lysen,	G. A. Hjerpe,
Herman Olson,	Paul Lueck,
C. B. Nunan,	P. Sjosellius,
J. Moir,	J. Gilman.
Edison.

The delegates, together with representatives from local wholesale houses, will have a special car attached to the regular afternoon train on the Northern Pacific, leaving here Sunday afternoon, Feb. 21, and will return on the Soo road in a body.

The convention this year promises to be one of large attendance, as considerable of interest pertaining to the retail trade will be considered, and the fact that the legislature is in session, will also draw to the capitol.

The two bills introduced by Senator George M. Peterson, who is secretary of this association, relating to the elimination of the fees of the weights and measures department for annual inspection, and one providing the changes in the weights of certain food commodities to make them conform with regulations of uniformity were discussed and unanimously indorsed. These bills also received the indorsement of the weights and mensures department, and railroad and warehouse commission.

Trade and conditions in Duluth were discussed at length, and a very optimistic sentiment prevailed. At the meeting last evening, a thorough test and examination was made of the matches manufactured in Duluth, resulting in a favorable attitude which has always been extended by Duluth merchants towards home manufactured goods.

LACKED ONLY "SIX BITS"

Seventy-five cents stood between Charles Harris, 29, colored, and a realization of his dream of walking down the church alsle with a dusky bride of 21 on his arm and halting before a parson who would pronounce them man and wife.

And if Harris had been endowed with a little more of the coin of the realm, he would have been able to purchase the necessary passport to the matrimonial altar. But being unable to assemble more than $1.25 in cash or convertible collateral, he was obliged to temporarily abandon his plan of holding down the other end of the breakfast table with Mrs. Lydia Watson, 21, and marriageable. Mrs. Watson, his intended, is also colored.

Harris strode up to the marriage license counter at the courthouse yesterday afternoon and asked for a wedding permit. Frank E. Smith, deputy clerk in charge of marriage licenses, gathered the necessary information from Harris and filled out a license blank in his favor.

"Two dollars, please," said Mr. Smith.

"Two what?" inquired Harris as if bewildered.

Mr. Smith explained that yesterday was no bargain day for marriage licenses and that $2 was the flat rate.

"Ah—Ah, suttanly have been somewhat misinformed," stammered Harris. "They done told me that it would cost a dollah and a quartah. That's all Ah can scare up."

Mr. Smith told Harris that he might secure 75 cents more and call again for the license. This Harris said he would do.

The wedding credentials are still being held for him.

LAYMEN TO URGE REV. BILLY SUNDAY

Duluth Delegation Will Present Invitation of Churches.

Leaving here Friday, Jan. 29, a party of ten or twelve laymen from various Duluth churches will make a trip to Philadelphia and urge upon Rev. William (Billy) Sunday, baseball evangelist, an invitation to come to the Head of the Lakes during August or September and conduct a six weeks' campaign.

Plans are outlined and decided upon by committees from various church organizations in a meeting at the Y. M. C. A. late yesterday afternoon include a campaign among civic, social and religious organizations of the city, to secure their support in carrying out the project.

"We want as many prominent laymen to make the trip as possible," said Rev. John W. Hoffman of the First M. E. church today, "in order that the success of our venture can be assured."

The evangelistic committee of the Inter-Church council was appointed to arrange for the trip and select those who will make it. An appointment with Rev. Mr. Sunday for Monday, Feb. 1, has been made. Watson S. Moore, B. C. Wade, general secretary of the Y. M. C. A., and W. L. Smithles probably will be included in the delegation.

ATTORNEY WILL TURN FARMER "SOME DAY"

Judge W. G. Bonham has returned from his old home in New Jersey, where he recently closed the deal for the purchase of a farm about fifty miles east of Philadelphia. He says he will continue to practice law in Duluth, but hopes some day to settle down and become a Jersey farmer.

WANT $9,000 FOR ROAD OIL

Murchison to Introduce Ordinance for Year's Appropriation.

Council Will Pass on Final Results of Special Election.

At the meeting of the city commission Monday afternoon Commissioner Murchison will introduce an ordinance asking for an appropriation of $9,000 to be used in the purchase of road oil for sprinkling purposes during the coming year.

Last year the city spent about $8,000 for road oil and the head of the public works division has estimated that a slight increase will have to be made during 1915. The money will be taken from the improvement fund, but will be assessed against the property owners at the close of the sprinkling season this fall.

City Clerk Palmer will announce the canvas of the election and the result will be passed upon by the commissioners. This action will mark the formal rejection of the unit plant ordinance and the adoption of the 6-cent ordinance. It is expected that the contract with the Duluth-Edison company will be made during the week.

In addition the ordinances by Mayor Prince and Commissioner Murchison asking, respectively, for $8,000 with which to purchase books for the library and $12,000 for road machinery, will receive their readings Monday and will undoubtedly be passed without opposition.

The construction of a storm sewer in Tenth avenue east, between Eighth and Ninth streets, and a sanitary sewer in Magellan street, between Thirty-eighth and Thirty-ninth avenues west, will also be ordered at the meeting.

CITY NOT LIKELY TO REACH 100,000 MARK

Europe's war, which has now been raging for the last six months, is the indirect cause for the failure of the city commisioners to each get a $500 increase in their annual salaries.

As provided for in the city charter, the commissioners are to receive an increase from $4,000 to $4,500 a year, when the population of Duluth has reached 100,000, the figures to be determined by either the Federal or state census. This summer a census will be taken under the supervision of the secretary of the state, and it is not expected that the total population of Duluth will reach the 100,000 mark.

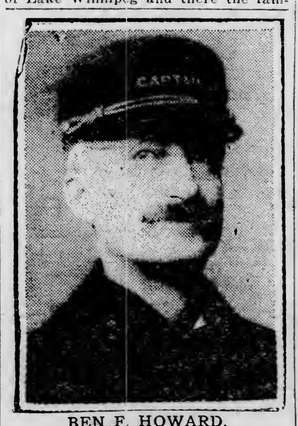

And the war in Europe is given as the reason for it is claimed that but for the war, the immigration to Minnesota would have been heavy last fall, Duluth gaining comparatively, while the steel plant would have been opened this coming spring. The opening of the steel plant would doubtless have meant an increase of several thousand residents to Duluth.

About 8,000 more people are needed in Duluth, before the commissioners can hope for a $500 increase in salary, while the city will have to grow to 150,000 inhabitants to guarantee an annual salary of $5,000 to each member of the commission.

CAPT. BEN HOWARD BACK TO OLD HOME

Visiting Duluth for Two Weeks—Likes His Canadian Home.

Capt. Ben F. Howard, for many years a resident of Duluth, one of its real pioneers, in fact, but who went to Western Canada about two years ago, is here for a visit of two weeks. Capt. Howard, his wife and three sons took with them the famous old Howard mill, which for many years sawed lumber east of Lakewood. He settled at a point about 100 to 130 miles north of Winnipeg on the west shore of Lake Winnipeg and there the family has taken up about 1,000 acres of land. The mill is employed all of the time and Capt. Howard says the country has treated him kindly.

BEN F. HOWARD.

He has nothing but good to say of business up that way and is much pleased with the outlook for the coming year.

Capt. Howard was identified with Lake Superior traffic here for years and was one of the best known mariners of this part of the country. He was navigator for the Minnesota naval militia from its establishment until he left here.

WIFE CHARGES DESERTION.

Kate O'Leary Files Suit for Divorce and Alimony.

Kate M. O'Leary, 34, started suit for divorce this morning in district court against John O'Leary, 34, whom she charges with desertion. They were married in Duluth June 20, 1910, and she claims that he abandoned her Dec. 12, 1913. O'Leary is a locomotive engineer. She asks for temporary alimony during the pendancy of the suit. In addition to a divorce she asks for permanent alimony and the right to resume her maiden name, that of Kate May Hunter.

Judge Dancer today signed findings for a divorce decree in favor of Anna Bendixen, 46, against John Bendixen, 52, to whom she was married in Duluth, Oct. 2, 1897. The court divided the custody of the two children and made provisions for alimony. Bendixen is a fisherman.

PRIZE SHIP MUST LEAVE OR INTERN

British Collier Captured By Germans Cannot Stay at San Juan.

Washington, Jan. 23.—The steamer Farn, a British collier brought into San Juan, Porto Rico, as a German prize by a crew from the cruiser Karlsruhe, must put to sea or be interned during the war. The state department holds she will be dealt with as a naval tender.

The Farn must leave twenty-four hours from a certain date, announcement of which is withheld that no advantage may be given to the British cruiser Bristol which is reported waiting nearby outside the three-mile limit. If the Farn interns, her crew and a German naval lieutenant also must be interned.

SUPERIOR

HORSE FALLS THROUGH ICE AND DROWNS.

A horse owned by the Superior Lumber company was drowned yesterday afternoon while being driven across the ice on Superior bay near the East end. The horse fell through an air hole and would have dragged his teammate after him but for the timely arrival of men from the Daisy flour mill. The team was hauling lumber from the East end to Wisconsin point.

ARE RE-ARRESTED AS THEY LEAVE COURT.

Michael Miller, Stephen Borke and Joseph Rant were arrested yesterday afternoon as they were about to leave the courthouse after having been discharged in the superior court. The men were re-arrested on a Federal warrant by A. A. Pugh, deputy United States marshal, and are charged with entering a car containing goods in interstate transit. They are alleged to have stolen thirty-five sacks of sugar and other groceries.

Many Damage Claims.

Out of forty-five cases that will be tried by the February term of the district court in Douglas county, thirty are for deaths and personal injuries. Ten of the suits have been filed against the Duluth-Superior Street Railway company and grew out of the accident when a Billings park car went over the viaduct on Twenty-first street. The other suits are filed against railroads entering the city.

TRADE REVIEW

New York, Jan. 23.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Review of Trade says:

Trade conditions continue to improve slowly, confidence in the future developing more rapidly than actual commercial activity. The most noteworthy improvement continues to be in foreign trade. Financial conditions reveal increased strength week by week.

The record of the New York Stock exchange shows an increasing breadth and strength in the market for securities. Railroad managers, encouraged by the recent rate decision, are displaying more confidence, and several of the important lines are contracting with some degree of freedom for rails and other supplies. Railroad gross earnings for two weeks of January declined 7.76 per cent, but this is a marked improvement over the three preceding months.

Reports from the iron and steel trade are of increasing activity, although the total output is still below capacity. The textiles are moving with greater freedom and confidence and showing a tendency toward higher prices. Building operations are held back by unfavorable weather, but better conditions prevail in coal and there is an increasing output of copper.

Wheat exports for the week were 5,934,134 bushels against 4,002,426 in 1914. Bank exchanges aggregated $2,765,014,563, a decrease of 11.1 per cent as compared with $3,109,406,773 in the same week last year.

Failures in the United States were 713 against 456 in the same week last year; in Canada, 87 against 48 last year.

SAYS IRON TRADE IS IMPROVING

W. G. Mather, president of the Cleveland-Cliffs Iron company, is hopeful regarding the outlook in the iron and steel trade for the year, and he predicts that steady improvement will take place from now on:

In the course of a recent interview in the Ishpeming Mining Journal he said that there has been a gradual betterment in the iron and steel business for some weeks and that steel men throughout the country are optimistic. They believe there will be a continual improvement and they are hopeful that it will not be long before conditions in the iron centers will be normal. A great many of the steel mills, he said, are operating much more actively than a few months ago, and as a result the daily consumption of iron ore is increasing—evidence that it will not be long before the surplus stocks of ore will be drawn upon.

Mr. Mather expresses the opinion that business conditions in general are showing a decided improvement the country over, but he was sorry to state that the upward trend in the iron trade has not kept pace with the increased movement in other industries. The mines have not benefited to much extent up to this time, for the reason that there were large stocks of ore at the mills, at the docks and at the shafts at the close of navigation. It will take some time to consume the surplus. For the present, Mr. Mather said, his company will not augment the forces employed at its properties.

HEARING CASE OF MOUNTAIN IRON

In district court before Judge Dancer this afternoon the hearing on the application of the village of Mountain Iron for a modification of a restraining order prohibiting them from spending in excess of $52,000 so as to permit them to build a village hall to replace the one recently destroyed by fire, will be taken up. It is possible that an arrangement may be reached out of court between protesting mining companies and the village officials.

The mining companies object to the village spending more than $16,000 for the village hall. The contention of the village is that the sum of $30,000 is a reasonable expenditure for the construction of a new village hall and that they are not in contempt of the terms of an order in injunction issuing out of the district court last summer restraining them from expending more than $52,000 plus the difference between the outstanding indebtedness of the village and the money to be received from taxes for the current year.

The proceedings first came before Judge Dancer a week ago. The village officials demurred and requested a week's time to answer to the charge that the terms of the injunction order had been exceeded and that the amount of $30,000 was not necessary for the construction of the new village hall.

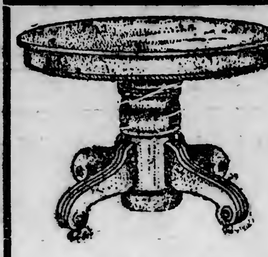

STEAMSHIP DACIA IS STILL AT HER DOCK.

Galveston, Texas, Jan. 23. — The American steamship Dacia, which cleared for Rotterdam yesterday with a cargo of 11,000 bales of cotton for trans-shipment for Bremen, was still at her dock here early today and indications were she will not sail today as had been intended. A strong norther blew nearly all night, making the gulf at the harbor entrance very rough and it was not likely that the Dacia would sail until the weather moderated.

BANKERS COMPLETING LOAN FOR ROUMANIA.

(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)

London, Jan. 12.—A loan on behalf of the Roumanian government is being completed either in London or New York. Bankers here are bound to secrecy as to details but the recent visit of Roumanian bankers to London and their departure to America to buy war material is no secret. It is confidently believed that a loan for $25,000,000 at about 95, bearing 5 per cent interest will soon be placed to pay for Roumanian war purchases.

Work Farm Prisoner Comes to Court as Witness Without Guard.

Gives His Testimony and Returns to Serve Out Sentence.

A striking illustration of how misdemeanants committed to the keeping of Fred Ward, superintendent of the county and city work farm, respond to the requirements of the "honor" code was again furnished by Mike Contos, a work farm prisoner, who, unaccompanied by a guard, walked in from the work farm to testify in a case on trial yesterday afternoon in Judge Fesler's division of the district court. Contos was also a witness before the grand jury and on that occasion also demonstrated that he needed no guard.

After court adjourned yesterday afternoon Contos walked back to the farm and reported to the superintendent. It is probable that he will be needed as a witness again Monday and will be allowed a day's leave of absence for that purpose. Contos is serving a six months' sentence at the farm for complicity in the theft of thirty-nine sacks of wheat from the Great Northern railway company Dec. 16. Contos pleaded guilty to the crime of grand larceny in the second degree last month and was given a work farm sentence by Judge Dancer.

As a state's witness yesterday afternoon in the prosecution of Peter de Selley, accused of the same offense, Contos declared that he and de Selley planned to steal the wheat from a freight car. He testified that at de Selley's direction, he went to the store of Helmer Jentoft and borrowed several empty sacks and that he and de Selley loaded them with sweepings from a car of loose grain. Contos filled the sacks and passed them out of the car to de Selley who carried them a short distance and then hid them under a pile of hay, he testified. Later, de Selley hauled them away and delivered them to Jentoft, a feed dealer, who paid for them. The witness declared that he and the defendant were partners in the deal.

Jentoft, the feed dealer, whom Contos declared had purchased wheat sweepings from him on several occasions, is under indictment and awaiting trial on a charge of receiving stolen property. Contos testified that de Selley got a tip that the police were on his trail and after delivering eighteen sacks of the thirty-nine to Jentoft, he took the rest to another dealer.

The trial will be resumed before Judge Fesler Monday.

YOUNG HOLD-UP WORSTED.

Would-Be Victim Takes Gun Away and Boy Is Arrested.

Oakes, N. D., Jan. 23.—(Special to The Herald.)—A. Caldwell became peeved on his way home at night when a stranger shoved a gun under his nose and demanded his money. He took the weapon away from the would-be robber and proceeded to give him a sound drubbing. Later the highwayman was arrested. He proved to be Lester Yerrington, an 18-year-old boy, who says his parents reside at Storm Lake, Iowa, and he says he was desperate because he was without funds or employment and in a strange country. His father has been notified of the boy's condition.

RE-ARRESTED AFTER BEING ACQUITTED

Paul Kuculyma Held By Immigration Authorities for Deportation.

When Paul Kuculyma had been acquitted yesterday afternoon in the Federal court on a charge of bringing an immoral alien woman into this country for immoral purposes, he had enjoyed his liberty but a few moments when local immigration officers seized him for deportation to Austria when the war closes.

Kuculyma was indicted on a charge of bringing Anna Ben from Port Arthur, Ont., to Superior and of living with her in a house furnished by him. The woman testified that he had taken $60 from her before they left Canada, had paid her passage, and that they had begun housekeeping together five days after reaching this country.

After they had lived in the City of Destiny in this manner for about a year, according to testimony, the real Mrs. Kuculyma appeared with two children, having come from Canada to find her husband. The real wife and her children were sent back to Canada as undesirables, but Kuculyma was taken by the Superior police and turned over to the immigration officials.

After both were ordered deported, the department of justice began action against Kuculyma.

The acquittal yesterday was based on the fact that immoral relations of the two had not been planned when they were in Canada. Their purpose in coming to Saperior was to obtain aid from relatives.

CONVICTED OF ASSAULT CHARGE

Jury Finds Mary Traverse Guilty After All-Night Session.

Mary Traverse, colored, faces a term of five to ten years in the state penitentiary at Stillwater as punishment for the crime of assault in the first degree. After being out all night, a jury in Judge Fesler's division of the district court at 9:20 o'clock this morning reported a verdict of guilty. The jury took the case at 2:07 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

The Traverse woman took two pistol shots at one Pearl Ball, also a negress, when the two met at the rear door of the former's house on South First avenue east, Dec. 16 last. Mrs. Traverse declared that she was obliged to shoot in self-defense and that she fired, not to kill, but simply to scare the Ball woman away. There had been bad blood between them. The defendant said that she was fired upon first, but the complaining witness denied this.

Harry F. White, third assistant county attorney, presented the state's case at the trial and John H. Norton, former county attorney, defended the prisoner. The woman will be brought before the court later for sentence.

ARE GIVING FULL WEIGHT

State Inspector Declares Coal Dealers Are Playing Fair.

Makes Favorable Report After His Inspection in Duluth.

There is no kick coming on the Duluth coal dealers, according to J. H. Nordby, state inspector of weights and measures, who is making an inspection in this city. Coal delivered this season has been up to or above the weight fixed. The dealers have good scales that weigh correctly, the inspector says, and the only handicap is that some of the scales are a little small for the large auto trucks. This handicap will be removed in the near future. Inspector Nordby made the following statement to The Herald today:

"The people of Duluth have nothing to complain of regarding the treatment they receive from the coal companies, as every load investigated to date has been correct or has had overweight. The fact is that the coal dealers are alert and eager to deliver the correct amount, as they have good scales and faithful men who perform the weighing, but there are a few scales that cannot accommodate the large modern auto trucks, and that handicap will be removed soon. Owing to this defect there might be an unintentional small variation in the amount of the load. I have covered a good part of the city, and what is left will be looked after at any time during this busy coal season."

HAS REMARKABLE CASUALTY RECORD

N. P. Accidents Last Year Less Than Half Former Year.

According to the report of the state railway commissioners for the calendar year 1914, only one employe of the Northern Pacific was killed in the state of Montana during the year. Not a fireman or conductor was killed during the year on the entire transcontinental system.

The following is a comparison of the records as contained in the commissioner's report: On the Great Northern, 37 people were killed during the year, 12 of these being employes. On the Milwaukee road, 10 were killed, four of whom were employes. On the Northern Pacific, 29 were killed. One of these was an employe and the other 28 were stealing rides.

The public is concerned mostly with the civilian. This includes people killed on highway crossings or while pursuing legitimate vocations on railroad property. In the Montana division of the Northern Pacific, 21 persons, or 60 per cent fewer than 1913 were killed in the calendar year of 1914.

Said Charles T. Banks, special representative of the road: "This last year has seen a net decrease of 56 per cent in the total of deaths on the entire system for 1914. No passengers, except one in the state of Washington, were killed during the year. The central district of the Northern Pacific, which extends from Mandan, N. D., to Paradise, a distance of 1,620 miles has a spotless record. With last year's accomplishments to build upon, it is our intention to approach as near as possible a perfect record for the present year."

RECOMMENDS SOME RADICAL CHANGES

Building Inspector Would Have Revision of Building Code.

Requesting more power over repairs and removals of dangerous buildings, more rigid regulation of heating, ventilation and wiring of buildings and a revision of the building code so that two sets of plans must be filed with every application for a permit and the installation of sprinkler systems in all basements in the business district, S. M. Kielley, building inspector, yesterday submitted the annual report of his department to Mayor Prince.

In his report Inspector Kielley states that the department is on a higher level of efficiency than ever before in its history, but that the above changes are necessary for the city's welfare.

During 1914, according to the report, a total of 1,591 permits were taken out for the construction of buildings throughout the city at an estimated cost of $2,805,223.

In addition, Inspector Kielley would have larger fire limits, with more rigid restrictions, so that property would be better protected.

THANK YOU!

Mr. Jameson and Friends

It is so kind of you all to be so lovely and kind to me in the troubles that are before my father and me.

Mr. Jameson, I feel sort of instinctively is going to help me, really, through his friend, the detective. I don't know what makes me say this, but a woman's intuition is nearly always right.

So you will meet me with your friend! Well, tomorrow at eight in the evening, I will be at the City Hall. Will wear a green suit with a rose in my corsage. I will be with two men (my father and one other). If by any chance we should miss each other, I will have another announcement in the paper, the day after tomorrow.

Thank you again, I feel easier in my mind already.

WILL PROBE FINANCES

North Dakota Committee to Hold Hearings Next Week.

Bismarck, N. D., Jan. 23.—(Special to The Herald.)—Organization of the joint committee which will investigate the finances of North Dakota was perfected at a meeting held yesterday when Treadwell Twichell was elected chairman. This committee will hold a series of hearings next week at which time the heads of the various state institutions and the state departments and other state officials will be called into conference.

The object of this investigation is to devise a scheme of state finances that will meet the needs of the state. At the present time there is a considerable shortage that is giving the legislature a great deal of concern.

With respect to the educational institutions, it is proposed that the system be re-organized with the object in view of doing away with duplication to a large extent.

State Tax Commission.

The joint committee to investigate the state tax commission will organize today. The house members of that committee are Messrs. Baldwin, Kellogg and Burgett. There was no opposition to the investigation in the house.

The state affairs committee of the house will report next Wednesday or Thursday on the resolution of Representative Rott, Jr., which asked an investigation of the state board of control. The hearings held this week were quite interesting and resulted in bringing forth considerable discussion of affairs at the state penitentiary.

Senator H. A. Bronson has introduced a bill asking an appropriation of $6,000 for the state fair at Grand Forks. The purpose of this appropriation is to make up the deficiency caused by the slash in all standing appropriations by the board of equalization.

Senator Gibbons has introduced a bill empowering the county agricultural and training schools to make loans to carry on their work.

Would Appoint County Officers.

Representative Dickinson of Ward county has introduced a bill providing for the election of a county commission which would have the power to name the other county officials, with the exception of the county judge and state's attorney.

A chiropractic board is asked in a bill by Senator Englund of Ward county.

On the recommendation of the elections committee the senate killed the non-partisan election of county officers' measure. There was no debate on the question, and as the house has previously disposed of the proposition, it is a dead issue so far as this assembly is concerned.

Constitutional Convention.

The death in the senate of the four-year bills, under which terms of officials would have been made four instead of two years, has revived discussion of the possibility of a constitutional convention, and it has brought other members of the legislature in line for such convention. Senator Wartner has a bill before the upper house proposing the calling of a constitutional convention by submitting the matter to a vote of the people, at the 1916 election.

ASKS AID FOR EFFICIENCY BILL

Strong Appeal Made By Governor Hammond for the Measure.

Minneapolis, Minn., Jan. 23.—Governor Hammond made a strong appeal for the passage of the efficiency and economy bill by the legislature and urged everyone to use his influence with the members of the legislature to enact the bill into law in his address to the Minneapolis Association of Office Men at the West hotel.

"With all due respect I can say that we have a most unbusinesslike form of government in this state," the governor said, "and I believe the remedy is the efficiency and economy bill as recommended by the commission of thirty men appointed by my predecessor.

"It was with great pleasure that I learned today that the state senate and the house would hold joint hearings on this great bill. Opponents and proponents of the bill will argue before these two bodies sitting in joint session. The hearings will be public.

"It is indeed unfortunate that there should be opposition to a measure of this sort, which seeks to centralize all state work. But if this bill is enacted into law many of the present state offices would be legislated out of existence. So the present officeholders do not want the efficiency and economy bill passed. It is almost deplorable that this should be the state of affairs. But to you isn't it better for one man to sacrifice his plan than to have the state of Minnesota continue in his unbusinesslike and unsatisfactory way? It would be of the best service for the state of Minnesota."

LIEUT. COL. SEELEY TO BECOME CHIEF WHIP

LIEUT.-COL. SEELEY.

London, Jan. 23.—The Times announces that Lieut.-Col. John Seeley, who resigned the secretaryship of war during the crisis at the Curragh campaign in Ulster, when British officers resigned rather than hold command when trouble seemed possible in Ulster, has returned to London. Premier Asquith, the Times states, has offered him the post of chief whip in succession to the late Percy Holden Illingworth, which he is expected to accept.

PHONE COMPANY WOULD DISSOLVE

Subsidiary of Tri-State Corporation Files Petition in Court.

Having ceased to do business, the Northland Telephone company, a subsidiary of the Tri-State Telephone company of Minneapolis, through its several stockholders today petitioned the district court for an order authorizing its dissolution. Judge Cant fixed Feb. 20 as a date for a hearing on the petition.

The company was organized Sept. 22, 1901. It was incorporated with a capital stock of $25,000, of which $4,500 was paid in. The stockholders who petitioned for dissolution were: Zenith Telephone company, owner of thirty-four shares; C. B. Randall, one share; A. J. McCulloch, three shares; G. W. Robinson, three shares; F. E. Randall, three shares, and Leslie S. High, one share.

The company has assets, but no outstanding indebtedness, the petition represents.

SHIP CONGESTION AT LIVERPOOL IS ACUTE

Imports of Foodstuffs and Other Commodities Unprecedented.

(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)

Liverpool, Jan. 15.—Imports of foodstuffs, raw materials and other commodities at Liverpool continue on an unprecedented scale. The congestion, already acute, has been accentuated by the arrival of twenty-one more cargo vessels from various parts of the world.

Shipping, dock and railway interests in turn assert they are doing their best to relieve the situation and clear the cargoes as rapidly as possible. A suggestion is made that the government could relieve the situation somewhat by expediting the clearance of prize cargoes and shipments of sugar and nitrate arriving to their orders, as the latter are said to have priority over others.

Some vessels are said to have been lying in the river a fortnight, waiting to be unloaded.

At the Zelda.

The photoplay bill at the Zelda for next week promises to be of much interest. The feature picture will be "The Island of Happiness," with an extra two-reel drama, "Collingsby Pearls."

Tuesday and Wednesday the feature photoplay will be "Star of the Sea," and the Universal Weekly, showing Canadian troops preparing for call to fight; kaiser's guards in captivity, hundreds of the German emperor's crack regiment captured in battle being taken to England's detention camps. The priest of Tirlemont cathedral returns after seven weeks' captivity to find his church in ruins. The subway disaster is shown, with hundreds unconscious from smoke in the fatal fire which imprisoned thousands of passengers in trains during the rush hours at New York. Broadway was turned into an open air hospital and passing autos rushed victims to hospitals. Every ambulance in the city answered the call and pulmotors saved hundreds from death.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Active Work of First Semester Closes at Central—New Industrial Club Is Formed—Plans Made for Senior Party—Senior Quint Is Presented With Jerseys—Lambs' Club Outlines Work.

Last week marked the close of the active work of the first semester and the examinations will be held next week, beginning on Wednesday. The week after, the first one in February, will open the second semester.

School will be held on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday morning of next week and the first examination will be held at the Central high school at 1:30 Wednesday afternoon, the regular time for the beginning of the sixth period. There are definite times for each examination, although several subjects will be held at the same time resulting in conflicts for many of the students. These have been arranged for by Principal Young by either lengthening the time for each examination or else by giving special tests.

The students will hand in their programs next Tuesday with the course of study that they wish to pursue next semester. If enough pupils wish to take studies not now in the regular course of study, classes in these will be formed.

Wednesday, Jan. 27—1:30-3:15 p. m., English.

Thursday, Jan. 28—8:30-10:15 a. m., history; 10:15-12 a. m., French, Swedish, Norweglan and biology; 12:30-2:15 p. m., mathematics; 2:15-4 p. m., German, cooking and commercial arithmetic.

Friday, Jan. 29—8:30-10:15 a. m., Latin; 10:15-12 a. m., chemistry, physics and art; 12:30-2:15 p. m., physiography and history of commerce; 2:15-4 p. m., agriculture and commercial geography.

What promises to be one of the most popular and successful clubs at school was formed Thursday afternoon in the manual training building. It is to be composed of junior and senior boys of the manual training department and will probably be called the Industrial club. Mr. Gregory presided as temporary chairman and gave a short talk. Mr. Lawson, also an instructor in the manual training department, will be the other faculty advisor. A committee of five will be appointed by the president to draw up a constitution and bylaws.

The officers of the organization were elected as follows: President, Townsend Hoopes; vice president, Clarence Thomas; treasurer, Charles Gustafson, and secretary, Ralph Osman. Townsend Hoopes has been the biggest booster of the idea and he was accordingly selected to the highest office.

The purpose of the organization is to take up manual training work as a means of obtaining the best training for the life work and of developing the standards demanded in the scientific world. The club will carry on a series of lectures to be given by men prominent in all mechanical branches and several trips will be made to large and small factories in order that the members may obtain a thorough knowledge of the more advanced methods of the outside world. In this way it is hoped that the common inconsistencies of the average high school industrial graduate may be eliminated and that the boys shall reach the true goal of mental and manual dexterity and alertness. This will all have been supplemented by the proper training and when the student leaves the high school and enters into the school of life he will be better adapted to the work that he wishes to take up, thus assuring a much higher measure of success.

The club will meet twice a week, the meetings to be held probably on Thursday. Interest in the organization is very high as there were nearly fifty present at the opening meeting and there are many more who are desirous of entering.

The Athenaeum Literary society billed its regular meeting following the close of school Tuesday. Practically every one who is a member of the club was present, thus showing that this organization is one of the most active in the school. A motion was made to the effect that every one who is a member of either the Stump or Athenaeum should drop his membership in one society or the other, but it did not carry, and the rumored "split" between the two organizations has not a very sound foundation. About Feb. 19 the Stump and Athenaeum debating societies will meet in chapel, and the teams of both organizations are practicing hard for the big event. For the preliminary try out question the Stump members will discuss Duluth's electric lighting problem.

The program of the last Athenaeum meeting was an interesting one. A debate was held on the question, "Resolved, That Further Immigration Should Be Restricted by an Educational Test." Maurice Altman spoke on "Russia of Today," and George Bush delivered an address on "The Three Great Foreign Men." It was decided to have a sleigh ride sometime after the examination, to which the members of the Delphian society will be invited.

The Zenith board held an important meeting Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Rankin, the head of the new printing department, addressed the students on the possibility of having the Zenith printed at the school department. The board of education has set an expense limit above which the students who are editing the annual cannot go, and there must be a saving wherever possible. Having the book printed by the students would save a great deal, probably about $300 less, but the only objection is that the quality would be impaired. The Zenith board is far from accepting Mr. Rankin's suggestion as it wishes to have the book up to, if not better, than the standard set by former classes. Mr. Rankin has advised them, however, that the quality will certainly be just as good as former publications and he feels confident that the board would be satisfied. The linotype work and binding will of course have to be done outside, but the money saved on the making up of the book would be considerable. The elimination of the advertisements will cut down the expenses considerably and it is believed that the expense limit will be easily made. The cost of last year's annual was $1,485 and the limit for this year is $1,200.

Most of the class contributions have been called in and the time limit for contributions is Jan. 1. If the school is to print the book, which is hardly likely, the copy will have to be in by April 10, not Feb. 1, as has been rumored. The method of printing the senior pictures was finally decided upon yesterday after some hot discussions, and the pictures of the "hopeful" graduates will be collected by Editor Coe very soon. The members of the board are busy "writing up" their various parts, and each has been given about fifteen names to write about. The Zenith slips will probably be put on sale again soon after the beginning of the second semester and this will be the last opportunity to obtain one.

At a meeting of the seniors Monday, plans were made for the senior party, which is to be held on Saturday evening, Feb. 6. The same plan which met with much success last year will be followed out again this year, in that there will be a banquet followed by a dance and games for those who cannot dance. The party of the present senior class last year was one of the most successful affairs of its kind ever held at school. There were nearly 200 present and they all enjoyed themselves very much. The affair will be held this year in the corridors of the main building. An enthusiastic committee, headed by Townsend Hoopes and Mary Middlecoff, has charge of the arrangements for the event.

During the chapel period Monday morning, Dr. Barker addressed the students on the subject, "How to Make the Most Out of life." His talk was exceptionally interesting and was well received by the students. He showed that in order to make the most out of life a person should be well fitted physically, to have a clear head and a brave heart. His address was largely upon health subjects and was clearly brought out by the use of excellent examples.

The Agricultural club held its regular be-weekly meeting Tuesday. It was decided to have a sleighride on Jan. 29. It was moved that each one who goes should pay $1 and the rest should come out of the club treasury, but this idea was voted down, and the conclusion was that the ones who had the pleasure should foot the bills.

As the work in connection with the Gazette is ever increasing, it has been found necessary to create a new position. As Irving Grover, the editor, already has an assistant in Walter Masseau, Jacob Garon became determined that he should have a coworker, and Lawrence Moore was elected to the position of assistant manager. The Gazette is the most powerful influence about school, and it is increasing in size and quality every issue.

The members of the senior basket ball team, who won the school championship some time ago, were dragged to the stage yesterday morning and awarded with jerseys for services rendered on the floor this year. They received their due share of praise and after receiving their prizes they suddenly became aware of the fact that their captain, "Locky" Taylor, had sneaked out of the side door of the stage, and they all disappeared, blushing considerable. Those who received jerseys were Capt. Locklyn Taylor, Robert Kerr, Lawrence Nelson, Reginald Reed, Franklin Neff and Douglas Moore.

On the Tuesday after school opens the Agricultural club will hold its semi-annual election of officers. The names of prospective candidates are being put on the board in the "Aggie lab" and these names will be voted on at the meeting.

Friday afternoon the newly formed Lambs' Dramatic society gathered in Prof. Rasey's room for the purpose of officially organizing and outlining their plan of study for the year. Prof. Rasey's talk was the main part of the program. He gave a brief outline of the work to be taken up this year and explained the method of doing it. He emphasized the fact that it was just such little societies as this one that were making the drama of today what it is. He showed how the drama of today had grown and how it had improved morally and how the tastes of the people for the many centuries past had been satisfied. He said that more time would be spent in the study of the present-day drama, its tendencies, and a few of the typical plays, rather than on the drama of the past.

Harry Haines, the wide-awake president of the club, has arranged for a benefit night to be given by the Baldwin Players of the Lyceum. The tickets will be printed by the high school printing department and the members of the club will sell them. The Lambs' club will get all over a certain amount, and this will probably be divided with the Zenith board in the event that the board becomes badly in need of money. The play may be chosen by the members of the club, but the Baldwin company will do the acting. This will be held on Monday night, Feb. 15. A program committee of three will make further arrangements.

WRITERS RECEIVE BAPTISM OF FIRE

At Feast With French Officers in Hotel at Reims.

(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)

Copenhagen, Jan. 9.—How a number of war correspondents received their baptism of fire while at a feast with French officers in a hotel at Reims is described by a representative of the Politiken who writes:

"Here we received our baptism of fire, and we received it during a feast. The occasion may be termed epic. It was so impressive and remarkable that none of those who were present is ever likely to forget it.

"It seemed that to sit down to such a feast at a moment when France was involved in this terrible war of peoples, was nothing short of being a criminal insult to mankind.

"We had arrived too late from Epernay to take a look at the city before luncheon, and for this reason we were immediately taken to the hotel.

"An odd spectacle greeted my eyes as I stepped from the automobile. The entire front of the hotel building had been wrecked by shells. I asked the hotel servant when this had been done. He replied: 'The day before yesterday, sir.'

"One would have thought that this sort of thing would have caused one's spirits to go down a little. Nothing of the sort happened. We had brought with us some of the good cheer of the troops in the field, and noticed that the inhabitants of Reims moved about in a rather careless manner.

"So we sat down and enjoyed the very excellent luncheon. The large windows of the dining room looked upon the square where a little while before some German shells had landed. There was nothing to insure us against one of the German iron greetings breaking in on us with explosive fervor. Possibly, many of us thought of this, but conversation soon became animated. Some of the officers present had just returned from the trenches and were full of stories regarding their experiences.

"Bordeaux wine was followed by champagne. And why not—considering that the latter is the product of the country we were in. So we drank and forgot all about the Germans and their guns.

"The last glass had not been filled when a shell exploded under one of the windows of the dining room. A correspondent got up, raised his glass, and made a speech for the republic and the French officers who had accompanied us, beginning: 'Gentlemen and colleagues: The shot just now reminded us of our duty——'

"The speech ended. We went to the window to see what damage the shell had done. Our hostess smiled, saying: 'It exploded 200 yards from here!'

"Just then came a shrapnel.

"'That's a little nearer,' said the woman. 'About 100 yards.' A third shell came, and when the noise of the explosion was over, we heard a house collapse with a mighty, crunching sound.

"The hostess was a little graver now. 'Gentlemen,' she said apologetically, 'I have done everything possible to keep it secret that you would be here today, but I am beginning to think that the enemy has learned of it nevertheless.'

"The luncheon ended with a cheer for the 'pluckiest hotel in the country,' which in spite of the bombardment had not closed its doors for a single day."

WOULD CARE FOR AUSTRIAN WAIF.

Men Are Interested in Boy Who Walked From Winnipeg.

Perseverance and bravery are qualities very much in demand, according to A. L. Turner, educational secretary of the Y. M. C. A., who still is receiving offers of employment for William Jarmala, the 15-year-old Austrian waif who arrived in Duluth several days ago after walking the 420 miles from Winnipeg.

Almost as soon as the boy's plight became known, a Duluth family offered to care for him. He now is attending school, and has a good home. Mr. Turner today received a letter from a Pine City, Minn., farmer who admired the boy's stick-to-it-iveness and wanted to employ him.

The lad left his home in Austria-Hungary about eighteen months ago and has cared for himself and made his own way since that time.

Putting Off the Evil Day

There is no more practical way to keep off the evil day of dependence and want than by saving in your time of prosperity.

Do you realize that the pennies, nickles, dimes, quarters and dollars you are spending with such a free hand today, in a few years would mount up wonderfully in a First National Bank savings account? With the aid of compound interest, they would form a strong bulwark "against that day."

NEW YORK BROKER IS RELEASED ON BAIL.

New York, Jan. 23.—Lorelys Elton Rogers, the New York broker, who was arrested after the grand jury of Bronx county had returned an indictment charging him with having induced Mrs. Ida Walters to live with him for immoral purposes and who was locked up in default of $7,500 bail, was released from custody last night after a surety company had signed his bond.

The arrest of Rogers resulted from an investigation conducted by District Attorney Martin since Dec. 29, when Mrs. Walters, mother of Rogers' two children, gave the children fatal doses of poison and took a quantity herself. His case is to come up next Thursday.

Cold Fresh Air for the Wee Wee Folk

PREACHING the value of cold, moving air as a preventative and curative in all sorts of conditions for all sorts of people, we have been a trifle weak kneed in urging it for the teenty-weenty babies, fearing, perhaps, a storm of indignant protests from young mothers flanked by fresh reserves of old experienced nurses. We now withdraw the exception. Cold, moving air is good for all human beings from 100 years down to zero, and then some. It has been found a great life-saver for even delicate and premature infants in the incubator stage of existence—breathed while the wee wee folk were kept well warmed by external heat, you understand.

A prominent pediatrician by the name of Dr. H. D. Chapin of New York, discussing the management of delicate and premature babies at a recent medical session, remarked that although he had two modern incubators at the hospital he did not use them any more, because, while they kept the babies warm enough, they failed to give the babies sufficient cold fresh air to breathe, and delicate babies demand fresh air more than any other class of patients.

So much for the opinion of one baby specialist. But in medical affairs nowadays you have to hurry to get ahead of Philadelphia physicians whatever you may say of Philadelphia lawyers. Up rose Dr. S. M. Hamill, a renowned pediatrician of the Quaker town, and said: "I, also, protest against the older type of incubator, and emphasize the importance of supplying fresh air to the premature infant. I have not used an incubator for some years. An experience demonstrated that a premature infant is able to breathe cold air without detriment——" The speaker told how he had treated one such case in a ward with open windows, the air being only 55 to 60 degrees, though the baby's temperature was kept up by external heat to about normal, and the baby did better than any similar case the doctor ever knew.

Cold fresh air for the wee wee folk! Come, grandma, isn't that the last straw?

Questions and Answers.

Don't Say. City: Correspondents enclosing stamped addressed envelope should write the name of the city or place of residence, and not address the envelope "City" — for that won't carry it.

* * *

Chicken-pox: How soon can I take my baby into a house where the children have had chicken-pox?

REPLY.

Not until the last trace of skin rash has entirely disappeared from the last case. Not until at least a month after the beginning of the last case.

* * *

Vaccine Treatment Easy to Take: Kindly inform a reader whether it is necessary to go to a hospital for vaccine treatment for chronic joint trouble, whether vaccine treatment is painful or disabling in any way.

REPLY.

No. Vaccines are generally administered at the doctor's office or the patient's home. There is no more pain or disability than would be expected from any other sterile hypodermic injection.

* * *

Christian Science Follower: Sends an inquiry of a personal nature but omits the stamped addressed envelope for reply. Mortal error. We give all such cases absent treatment.

* * *

Palpitation: What is the cause of palpitation of the heart? Is there any help for it?

REPLY.

Some of the common causes are tobacco, anemia, digestive disturbance, excessive use of tea or coffee, alcoholism, emotion, neurasthenia, and sometimes actual organic heart disease. Whenever the individual is conscious of his own heart beat he has palpitation. In exophthalmic goiter palpitation is frequently complained of. It is usually responsive to treatment.

* * *

Policeman Writes: What causes "Rigg's disease?" Can it be cured?

REPLY.

Bacterial infection, producing chronic inflammation and suppuration of the gums. It can at least be stopped by persistent treatment, and some cases can be completely cleared up.

If your question is of general interest it will be answered through these columns; if not it will be answered personally if stamped, addressed envelope is enclosed. HAVE PASSED BIG CRISIS

Panics Due to Over Extension—Urges Care in Credits.

Under far more serious conditions than those which started all of the six panics experienced in the United States, financiers have "sat tight during the last few months and held steady, because they knew no one would get up and rock the boat." In this way did J. Harry Tregoe of New York city pay tribute to bankers of this country, at a banquet given in his honor last night at the Spalding hotel by the Duluth-Superior Association of Credit Men.

Mr. Tregoe, who is national secretary-treasurer of the organization, with F. R. Salisbury of Minneapolis, a former president of the credit men, addressed the club on "Progress in the Credit World." Following the dinner, Mr. Tregoe left for Nashville, Tenn. H. A. Sedgwick, credit manager of the Marshall-Wells Hardware company, and head of the local organization, presided. Willard B. Cross, treasurer of the F. A. Patrick company, introduced as "the man who rocked the cradle of Duluth's credit organization," welcomed the visitors.

"Men have believed in their brothers," said Mr. Tregoe. "They have had confidence and have co-operated, so that we experienced scarcely more than a thrill in passing through the greatest crisis the country ever has had to face.

The Greatest Danger.

"The greatest danger on the commercial sea is over-extension," he declared. "Every panic we ever have had has been caused by over-extension.

"'Way back in 1819 we had a panic because of over-extension in real estate buying.

"In 1837 it was over-extension in canal building.

"In 1857 it was over-extension in financing railways.

"In 1873, the most terrible of all, it was over-extension of continental railways.

"In 1907 it was a security panic—over extension in stocks and bonds.

"Many business men have sailed the commercial seas for generations without a chart," he continued. "They don't know where the lights are. This is partly due to lack of knowledge of business history and principles.

"The squall now has subsided and the ships, guided by those beacon lights of confidence and co-operation, have steered away from reefs and are putting into a safe harbor.

"If the business men of the United States persevere in this attitude and confidence, their country will some day be the peer of the world."

Mr. Tregoe warned Duluth and Superior men against the evils which are found in every comparatively "new" part of the United States. "You of the North country," he said, "I want to warn particularly against over-extension.

"Every new country depends largely upon credit for its further development. Extend it wisely, all of you, and carefully preserve your own."

Making Merchants.

Telling of its interest in curling, which he watched yesterday for the first time. "Those men love the game. That's why it is such a great success. When you love the game we are playing in the credit world, you will make merchants of storekeepers. The advance in human efficiency has not kept pace with mechanical efficiency. Human efficiency is nothing more than intelligence combined with loving the game."

Ex-President Salisbury told of the work the national body is doing for credit men, referring in particular to legislation proposed by their committees. A bill allowing them to penalize owners of property which is destroyed by fire, through carelessness, and in so doing injures adjoining buildings, now is being prepared, according to Mr. Salisbury.

He also urged support for a national fund to be used in prosecuting fraudulent debtors.

President Sedgwick asked that members co-operate in raising the membership before the annual convention, to be held at Salt Lake city in June. Nearly 100 men attended the dinner.

ROSE TESTIFIES IN SULLIVAN'S BEHALF

New York, Jan. 23.—Bald Jack Rose, erstwhile gambler and star witness in the trial of Police Lieutenant Charles Becker for the murder of Herman Rosenthal, appeared yesterday in the role of character witness for James M. Sullivan, American minister to the Dominican republic, whose fitness to hold office is under investigation by Senator-elect Phelan in behalf of the state department.

Rose, who said he was now lecturing on "the duty of a young man to live an upright life," gave Sullivan credit for inducing him to confess to the district attorney all he knew about the Rosenthal murder. Sullivan was at that time his atorney.

The former gambler declared Sullivan had been "besieged with threats and promises" because of his activity in obtaining the confession, and suggested that "the present attack" upon the minister might be an aftermath of this refusal to be swerved from his duty. Sullivan acted for him without pay, he said.

Rose was followed on the stand by Frank J. Mitchell, president of the Banco Nacional of San Domingo.

Mr. Mitchell admitted that he had asked Sullivan to help in getting his bank appointed depositary of customs receipts. This he did not consider asking a favor.

"We were an American bank and the only bank in the country established under the banking laws," he said.

To practically all other charges against the activities of the institution he put in a general denial.

Walker W. Vick, former receiver general of customs, who resigned his position and instigated the present investigation, Mitchell denounced as "disingenuous, not to use a shorter and uglier word."

It was Vick who brought about the withdrawal of the customs receipts from the Banco Nacional.

ORDERED TO LEAVE EAST GRAND FORKS.

East Grand Forks, Minn., Jan. 23.—Two women giving their names as George Nelson and Grace Williams appeared before Judge Rasmussen in municipal court Thursday and were sentenced to spend ninety days in the county jail. They were allowed their liberty, sentence being suspended on their promise to leave the city before 6 o'clock last evening. If found in the city after that time they were to be taken to the county jail at Crookston. They pleaded guilty to disorderly conduct with the above results. Had they not pleaded guilty to that charge they would have been arraigned on a far more serious charge and would have faced a possible term at Stillwater.

President Adams Offers $5.00 for His Wife's Beer

John Adams, 2nd President of the United States, was the progenitor of admittedly the most distinguished family in America. In a direct line from him came a President of the United States, a famous lawyer, a famous statesman, a famous writer, a successful artist and numerous other individuals of his lineage who achieved renown.

In a letter dated May 22, 1777, to his wife Abigail Adams, complimenting her on her skill as a brewer of fine lager beer, President Adams wrote: "I would give $5 for a gallon of your beer."

Note:—Professor Atwater is his "History of New Haven Colony" says: "A brew house was regarded as an essential part of a homestead, and beer was on the table as regularly as bread." That beer is a wholesome food is testified by the fact that every American athletic record is held by men whose diet includes beer.

FITGER'S KIESELGUHR FILTER AN INNOVATION IN BREWING

Heretofore all bottled beer was pasteurized, it being the only method known that would "keep" bottled beer. But while pasteurization keeps beer, unhappily it also robs it of that delightful flavor and aroma which distinguishes fresh beer drawn from the wood.

Fitger's Natural Beer, filtered by the Kieselguhr filter, the first of its kind in America, gives you what is seemingly a contradiction, a natural draught beer in bottles. The Fitger Kieselguhr filtration preserves the full natural character, taste and aroma of the natural beer, as drawn fresh from the wood, and adds a clear and sparkling brilliancy which Kieselguhr unfiltered beer cannot possess.

EXPORTS SHOW IMPROVEMENT

Marked Gain Made in Foreign Trade for Month of November.

Washington, Jan. 23.—Marked improvement in the foreign trade of the United States is reflected in latest reports to the department of commerce, an official summary of which, issued yesterday, follows:

"Sales of foodstuffs and certain lines of manufactures have been unusually large in November, the latest period for which detailed information is at hand. In that month exports aggregated $206,000,000, or double the total for August last, when, by reason of the outbreak of war, our foreign trade fell to the lowest level in many years. In December there was further improvement, the month's exports being valued at $246,000,000, compared with $233,000,000 in December, 1913, and within $4,000,000 of the high records in December, 1912.

"An analysis of trade figures in the summary of general commerce shows that, while American cotton, mineral oils, naval stores, lumber and agricultural implements are in less demand abroad than in former years, there is a greater demand for our breadstuffs, meat, sugar, clothing and other manufactures, especially in Europe. A citation of a few of the larger factors in our foreign trade, will illustrate more clearly this fact.

"Of breadstuffs, the November exports exceeded in value $40,000,000 or four times as much as in November, 1913; of commercial automobiles the month's exports aggregated $3,350,000 or twenty-two times the value exported in November, 1913; of eggs $1,250,000 or three times as much; of sole leather, $3,250,000, eight times as much as in November a year earlier; of metal-working machinery and machine tools, nearly $2,000,000, or twice as much as a year earlier; of cotton wearing apparel $2,250,000, or almost three times the value for November, 1913; of chemicals, drugs and dyes, $3,250,000, or 50 per cent more than in November of the previous year; of cotton manufactures $5,500,000, or 30 per cent above the figures of the preceding November; of men's boots and shoes, $1,250,000, an increase of 60 per cent."

Striking changes in the movement of specified articles to given countries during November include $1,000,000 worth of corn to The Netherlands as against $4,000 worth a year earlier; large increases in wheat shipments to the United Kingdom, Italy, Germany and France, in sums ranging from $7,000,000 down to $2,500,000.

British purchases of American beef exceed $2,400,000 against less than $40,000 in November of the prior year.

THIRD CONTINGENT.

Final Arrangement Being Made in Canada for More Troops.

Vancouver, B. C., Jan. 23.—Final arrangements for the enlistment of a third contingent of Canadian troops are being made by Gen. Sam Hughes, Canada's minister of militia, who addressed Vancouver men at a luncheon yesterday. While Gen. Hughes spoke, 200 Vancouver women sat in the gallery knitting socks for soldiers at the front.

Most of the first Canadian contingent of 30,000 men is now at Salisbury Plain, England. The second contingent has been in training at many local centers for weeks.

ALABAMA WILL BECOME DRY AFTER FIRST OF JULY

Montgomery, Ala., Jan. 23.—Alabama will become a prohibition state July 1, under two related measures, which became a law last night without executive approval. Within a few hours after Governor Henderson had vetoed the bill and asked that the prohibition question be submitted to voters at a special election, both houses voted down his proposal and re-passed the bills by overwhelming majorities.

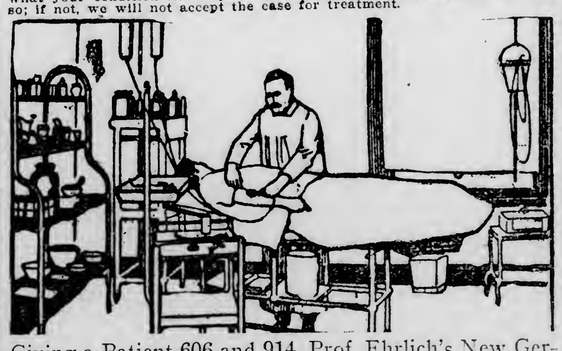

The prohibition measures re-elect the prohibition law repealed in 1911 after it had been in force two years. Under the 1911 local option law, all but eight of the sixty-seven counties have voted dry.

DULUTH MAN MADE CHIEF

H. E. Emerson Succeeds Late F. A. Eva as Chief Grain Inspector.

Horace E. Emerson, chief deputy grain inspector at Duluth, and a resident here for twelve years, has been appointed chief inspector of grain of the state to succeed the late Frederick A. Eva, whose death occurred at his home in St. Paul last Tuesday evening.

Mr. Emerson's appointment comes as a surprise as it was considered that influences at Minneapolis would have some weight in the choice in which event Mr. Emerson would have been considered out of the running. However the appointment came as a reward of merit, and his friends here, aside from the regret at losing him as a fellow resident of the city, are glad to learn of his promotion and he is being congratulated on all sides today.

Mr. Emerson will leave Duluth tomorrow night for St. Paul to take up his new duties. His successor here as chief deputy, C. F. Maxwell of Minneapolis, has already arrived to take over the office of his new chief. Mr. Maxwell has been, for some time, assistant chief deputy at Minneapolis.

H. E. EMERSON,

Mr. Emerson entered the grain inspection department as helper in May, 1892 at Minneapolis and came to Duluth as sub-department inspector in May, 1898. He resided here for four years at that time, returning to Minneapolis in 1902 as department inspector. He returned to Duluth again during the same year as assistant to the late F. A. Eva, who was then chief deputy inspector here, and held that position for one year, becoming chief deputy inspector when Mr. Eva was made chief inspector of grain; so that in all he has been a resident of Duluth for about sixteen years, the only interruption being part of one year.

Mr. Emerson was born in Portage, Wis., in 1867, but when a child the family moved to St. Paul and there he was raised. He is married and resides at 1225 East Fourth street.

COLD WAVE IS PASSING

But Zero Weather Will Prevail Until Sunday Afternoon.

The whole Northwest was in the grip of the Ice King last night and temperatures from 10 to 20 below zero were general over Minnesota, North and South Dakota, Montana, Wisconsin, in the United States and in Ontario, Saskatchewan and Alberta across the border. The same temperatures are expected to be repeated tonight, but a marked relief is predicted by Sunday afternoon.

The mercury dropped to 11 below zero shortly before 7 o'clock this morning and went to about 12 below shortly afterward. By 11 o'clock the temperature got up to 6 below with the trend still upward.

The cold was so intense and widespread last night that zero temperatures were felt in Kansas, Missouri and parts of Illinois.

missioner Merritt at the head of the department of welfare now in charge of Mayor Prince, while the latter will take over the finance division, and Commissioner Voss will become the head of the department of public utilities. It was said at the city hall this morning that the proposed change has met with the approval of all concerned and that the program as outlined will go through without any dissenting votes.

Special Meeting Called.

Late yesterday afternoon members of the commission decided to hold a special meeting at 8:30 o'clock this morning to consider the redistribution of the various departments, but the meeting was postponed, so that the matter could be discussed informally before final action was taken. This morning the commissioners had several meetings with one another and the proposed program was outlined to each member.

According to the commissioners, Mr. Merritt has expressed a desire to head the department of welfare, as he at one time served on the park board and, in addition, is well acquainted with that division of the city's government. Because of Commissioner Voss' record as head of the department of finance, the commssioners are anxious to place him in charge of the utilities division and give him an opportunity to reorganize that department. As Mayor Prnce is a banker by profession, he will be right at home in the division of finance, the commissioners say.

The original division of the various departments was made when the present commission took office in April, 1913. At that time Commissioners Voss and Murchisan were given their present divisions because of their connection with the work for many years past, while Commissioner Merritt, having expressed a desire for the utilities, was granted his request. Later Commissioner Hicken was placed in charge of the safety division and the mayor took over the welfare section.

In making the present change the commissioners are of the opinion that much good will be accomplished and that the city will gain in the end.

WHY HAIR FALLS OUT

Dandruff causes a feverish irritation of the scalp, the hair roots shrink, loosen and then the hair comes out fast. To stop falling hair at once and rid the scalp of every particle of dandruff, get a 25-cent bottle of Danderine at any drug store, pour a little in your hand and rub well into the scalp. After a few applications all dandruff disappears and the hair stops coming out.

GERMANS DROP BOMBS ON DUNKIRK; KILL SIX

by English experts as more likely to prove effective than the anti-aircraft guns with which the defenses of Dunkirk bristle.

It is believed here that the British raid on Bruges will be followed up by other attacks, as the Bruges docks are the head of the Zeebrugge ship canal system which the Germans are using for transportation of men, munitions and even heavy artillery.

Air raids are not the only indication of renewed activity in the western arena of the war. The Germans are massing troops in the neighborhood of La Bassee, evidently in preparation for a new struggle between Ypres and Courtral, and the allies are further strengthening their forces all along the lines in Northern France and in Flanders.

For the past twenty-four hours it has been give and take, each side admitting minor reverses offset by minor successes.

Tenseness Relieved.

The tenseness of the situation between Greece and Turkey has been further relieved by the release on the part of the porte of a Greek officer who for some time past has been imprisoned at Constantinople. Russian sources send a report of the suppression of a serious mutiny in the Turkish army accompanied by the execution of seventeen prominent Turkish officers.

The only new development on the Russian front is the Russian advance from Lake Skempe through the forests toward Lipno, which is an important junction on the roads from the Vistula region northiward into East Prussia.

Conferences between Austrian and German leaders as to the future conduct of the war against Russia and Servia are probably beginning today in Germany. Baron Burian, the Austro-Hungarian minister of foreign affairs, before leaving Vienna for Germany, was closeted for a long time with Emperor Francis Joseph and Count Tisza, the Hungarian premier, both of whom are described as seriously concerned over the sealing up of Hungary by Russian forces from the north, the south and the east.

The case of the British merchant steamer Durward sunk by a German submarine, continues to occupy British public attention and the feeling that this is the beginning of submarine activity against British commerce is reflected in the orders sent to two British steamers not to sail from the Hook of Holland until further orders.

French Statement.

Paris, Jan. 23, 2:55 p. m.—The continuance of severe infantry engagements in Alsace, but with no decisive outcome as yet, together with the customary artillery exchanges, and a minor fight near St. Hubert, which has not yet come to an end, are the outstanding features of the report on the progress of the fighting given out by the French war office this afternoon. The French claim a slight advance, 100 yards, in Belgium, and they destroyed some bridges over the Meuse near St. Mihiel. The report follows:

"The activity yesterday of our infantry along almost the entire front was devoted to the repairing of the damage done to our earthworks by the very bad weather of the past few days.

"In the region of Lombaertzyde we progressed for a distance of 100 yards.

"In the sectors of Ypres, Arras, Albert, Roye and Soissons there were yesterday artillery exchanges in the course of which we at several points gained the advantage. Berry-au-Bac was violently bombarded by the Germans.

"To the northwest of Beausejour the enemy delivered an attack which we repulsed.

"In the Argonne we administered a complete check to the Germans at Fontaine Madame, as was set forth in our report last night. An attack of the enemy at a point near St. Hubert resulted in an infantry engagement which has not yet come to an end. According to the latest reports we are holding all our positions.

"On the Meuse the fire of our artillery compelled the enemy to evacuate an ammunition depot and inflicted serious damage on the foot bridges in front of St. Mihiel.

"In Alsace the infantry fighting in the region of Hartmann-Weilerkopf continues. We are in close contact with the enemy, and there has been no interruption to the fighting. Near Cernay Hill No. 425 was attacked by the enemy, but without success. Further to the south we made progress in the direction of Petit Kahlberg, to the north and near the Aspach bridge."

German Statement.

Berlin, Jan. 23, by wireless to London, 4 p. m.—The official statement given out today by the German general army headquarters says:

"Hostile airmen dropped bombs yesterday over Ghent and Zeebrugge, (in Belgium), but with no success.

"The enemy yesterday made an attack between Souain and Perthes, to the north of Chalons, but the attack broke down under our fire. The enemy sought refuge again in his trenches.

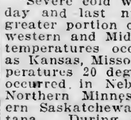

"In the Argonne forest, west of Fontaine La Mitte, our troops captured a position of the enemy and made three officers and 245 men prisoners, as well as capturing four machine guns.

"To the northwest of Pont-a-Mousson, two French attacks were beaten off with severe loss to the enemy. In fighting for our lost trenches since Jan. 21, we have captured seven cannon and five machine guns.

"Near Welsenbach, Alpine forces were beaten off. Several fierce attacks in force of the enemy were made on Hartmann-Weilerkopf, but they failed to achieve any success.

"In the eastern theater there is nothing to report from East Prussia.

"In Northern Poland, near Przasnysz, an unimportant attack made by the Russians was repulsed. The Russians have been driven out of Blinno and Gojak, and the advanced Russian division have been forced to retreat

CLOUDY

The brightness of the sunlight offsets today, to a very large degree, the really snappy condition of the atmosphere. Only once before this winter have people been holding their ears as late as 11 o'clock in the morning, but they did it today. But at that, the day is beautiful.

A year ago today was mild. The sun rose this morning at 7:44 and will set this afternoon at 4:57, giving nine hours and thirteen minutes of sunlight.

Mr. Richardson makes the following comment on weather conditions:

"Severe cold weather prevailed Friday and last night throughout the greater portion of Canada and Northwestern and Middle West states, zero temperatures occurring as far south as Kansas, Missouri and Illinois. Temperatures 20 deg. or more below zero occurred in Nebraska, the Dakotas, Northern Minnesota, Manitoba, Eastern Saskatchewan and Eastern Montana. During the last twenty-four hours snow or rain fell over Eastern Canada, the Lake region, Eastern, Central and Southern states, Arizona, Southern California and British Columbia. The temperature is rising in the extreme Northwest."

General Forecasts.

Chicago, Jan. 23.—Forecasts for the twenty-four hours endhig at 7 p. m. Sunday:

Minnesota—Generally fair to light and Sunday; slowly rising temperature Sunday.

Iowa—Fair tonight and Sunday; slowly rising temperature Sunday and in extreme west portion tonight.

information that all the railroad lines leading from Prussian Silesia through Hungary to the Roumanian frontier and Bukowina have been closed to non-military traffic while hundreds of trains loaded with troops and munitions have been forwarded from Germany. It has been noted, moreover, that during this time no reinforcements have arrived at the fields of action on either side of the Lower Vistula, while the Austrians seemingly are attempting merely to hold and fortify their positions along the Dunajec.

Russians Profit.

Russian staff officers state that when the war began the Germans were confident that the Russians would direct all their efforts toward the western frontier and that consequently Bukowina and the Carpathian passes were left insufficiently defended. The Russians profited from this situation, driving the Austrians from the Russian province of Volhynia and from Eastern Poland and pursuing them into the plains of Northern Hungary. In Central Poland, it is said the Russians attempted to do nothing more than to straighten their lines along the Vistula, Bzura and Dunajec, but they still continue an offensive movement northwest of Warsaw. In this section the Russian line today extends from the East Prussian frontier to Chorzellen, southwest through Radzanowo and Sierpez, to the Vistula at Dobrzyn.

The next aggressive move on the part of the Germans is expected to be an effort in conjunction with the Austrians to expel the Russian invaders from the Eastern Gallician passes and from Bukowina and Hungary. This movement, if successful, would prevent the occupation of Transylvania by Roumania should that nation decide to enter the war.

Japs and Chinese Confer.

Tokio, Jan. 23.—The Japanese government has just embarked on a series of important diplomatic negotiations with China, the object of which is to determine the future status of Japanese relations with China and decide certain questions concerning the future development of the Chinese republic.

FIRST BRITISH SHIP LETS STEAMER PASS

Fire Island, N. I., Jan. 23.—Under the nose of a British cruiser watching at the gateway of New York, the American steamship Wilhelmina, with her hold filled with food supplies for Germany, passed out to sea last night unmolested, and laid her course for Hamburg. The Wilhelmina dropped down the Ambrose channel at nightfall. Six miles to the eastward of Ambrose light ship, she sighted a two-funneled British cruiser just under steerage way, and with all lights out. Smoke was pouring from her stacks.

The Wilhelmina kept on her course. With all lights burning, the merchantman steamed past the warship, which did not even speak to the American. An hour later the Wilhelmina, driving through a thick snowstorm, was lost to view while the cruiser, still lazily swinging back and forth near the light ship, contented herself with playing her searchlight upon several tramp freighters waiting for pilots.

Only one British warship has been observed recently watching commerce in and out of New York harbor, but other British cruisers are said to be stationed along the trans-Atlantic lane. Capt. Brewer of the Wilhelmina flew the code flags giving the name of his ship as he put to sea.

SITUATION REQUIRES CAREFUL HANDLING

Editor of London Daily News Writes of Dacia Incident.

London, Jan. 23.—Alfred G. Gardiner, editor of the Daily News, contributes a special article to his paper dealing with the Dacia case. In it he contends that America's sympathy with the allies has been overwhelming and emphatic, but it must be recognized that there is a large population in America hostile to the allies and therefore the question requires handling with the greatest discretion. In the article Mr. Gardiner says:

"Some of us have never quite gotten out of the habit of regarding the United States as a British colony which has lost the grace of obedience. If it agrees with us, we pat its back, paternally; if it disagrees, we are shocked at its lack of filial piety.

"People who think in this way, headed by the poet who has demanded that America should join the allies or suffer immortal shame, do not represent Great Britain, but they easily misrepresent it and do incalculable mischief. They may lose us more sympathy which means so much and which Germany would give anything to gain."

Mr. Gardiner thinks there is much to be said in favor of the transfer of interned ships to neutral powers, under conditions which would make it impossible that Germany could benefit by the operation, and as a matter of fact, Germany would lose thereby because she would be helping to feed the allies.

"Whatever is the outcome of the incident," Gardiner concludes, "our duty is to keep our temper and avoid a nagging and censorial attitude toward the United States. If President Wilson is avoiding any part in the pooish feeling, that is his duty, but I have a profound faith in his wisdom and courage and I believe he will act in the right time."

members of the house and senate, there will be very little opposition to the change proposed by the Borgen bill.

Most of the members who had a fight for nomination or election or both, could write a book telling what they think about the June primary, with its intermission of more than four months between nomination day and election day. Some candidates who failed to land won their campaigns, and then because they could not keep what they had gained, lost them before election day rolled around. Managers of state campaigns found it extremely difficult to keep public interest alive so long, too.

Attempts were made to hold back the campaign after theprimaries so that it would not begin before the first of September, which would have made it plenty long enough. But this was hard work, and the anxiety of candidates, and their fear that the other fellow might be putting something over while they were idle, made it generally futile.

Attacks on Candidates.

The committee was unanimously for the bill by Representative Leavitt Corning of St. Paul to protect candidates from attacks by anonymous correspondents writing to newspapers. It prohibits newspapers from publishing letters "or other communications" attacking candidates for office unless the names and addresses of the writers are appended, and it requires newspapers to give the candidates attacked in this manner a chance to answer their assailants. These replies must be published within forty-eight hours of their receipt, providing they are not too long and do not contain libelous or improper matter.

Representative James Dwyer of Minneapolis thought the bill ought to be broadened so as to protect candidates from attack by organizations which use newspapers to attack candidates but whose members do not assume individual responsibility for their utterances. He had in mind, he said, such organizations as the Saturday Lunch club of Minneapolis, "which we call," he said, "the 'yellow dog club.'"

Representative A. M. Peterson of Coleraine thought that violations of the measure should be made misdemeanors instead of gross misdemeanors, because then convictions would be easier and more frequent.

It was suggested by other members of the committee that these points could best becovered by amendments offered from the floor when the bill is reached in committee of the whole, so it was unanimously recommended for passage as it stood.

* * *

Bills Rejected.

The elections committee voted to recommend for indefinite postponement two bills by Representative Edward E. Syverson of Ironton, providing that primary elections and presidential preference primary elections shall be held on Mondays instead of Tuesdays. The purpose of the bill was to give commercial travelers and railroad men a chance to vote Monday morning after their Sunday home. As to the primary change it was suggested that Mr. Syverson could offer the Monday primary plan as an amendment to the Borgen bill when it is considered on general orders. No suggestion was made as to how the presidential primary date can be changed. This action was taken in the absence of Mr. Syverson.

The senate committee on game and fish yesterday afternoon voted to recommend for passage a bill by Senator James A. Carley of Plainview that will deprive pickerel of their last stand in this state as game fish. They are game fish legally now only in the boundary waters between Minnesota and Wisconsin, and this bill makes them no longer legally game fish even there. If the bill passes there will no longer be a closed season on pickerel anywhere in the state.

Census Bill Laid Over.

The census committee yesterday afternoon took up the bill by Senator Callahan of Minneapolis providing for a state census next month under the state labor bureau, county auditors and township assessors, but took no action on it. Senator Callahan had planned to have the census taken in February so the unemployed could be given work in the cities, but it was shown that it would be impossible to get the bill through and the work organized before July, so the bill was laid over for future consideration.

NO RECORD OF HIS COMMISSION

John G. Williams Probably Serving as University Regent Without One.

By a Staff Correspondent.

St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 23.—(Special to The Herald.)—Though John G. Williams of Duluth was reappointed as a member of the board of regents of the state university by Governor Eberhart a year ago, there is no record in the governor's office of any commission having been issued to him, and he may have been serving without one. Mr. Williams has been notified and is looking to see if he has received a commission. If none has been issued, Governor Hammond will see that he gets one.

was taken in an automobile to the courthouse. A small crowd that had met him at the station followed. William Travers Jerome and his party had arrived an hour earlier.

Thaw appeared unconcerned during the brief proceedings. He chatted genially with his custodian, bowed and smiled greetings to Sheriff Hornbeck and Bernard Jacobs, the resident legal representatives of New York state; and as opportunity offered shook hands with a waiting row of sympathizers.

The court room was crowded. Mr. Jerome began the proceedings by presenting to the court the mandate of the supreme court and the surrender of the prisoner followed without objection. Thaw was not represented by counsel.

Leaving the courthouse with his new custodian, Thaw was again greeted with friendly salutations from a constantly increasing crowd. He bowed right and left as he was hurried to a nearby hotel. Five minutes later he was seated before a cheerful open fire, his face wreathed in smiles and talking in an animated and companionable manner with Sheriff Hornbeck.

Following luncheon, preparations were made to take the train this afternoon to Boston.

Wish Thaw Success.

Manchester, N. H., Jan. 23.—A large crowd gave Harry K. Thaw a friendly demonstration at the railway station on his departure from here this morning to be given into the custody of Attorney Jerome at Concord. Many shook hands with him and wished him success.

Except that Sheriff Drew was always at Thaw's side there was nothing to indicate that he was a prisoner. A "good-by" chorus followed the train as it drew out.

COAL MINERS FIGHT AGAINST EVICTION

First Cases Listed for Trial in Court at Adena, Ohio.

Adena, Ohio, Jan. 23.—The first eviction cases in the East Ohio coal field were listed for trial here today, four striking miners of the Roby-Somers Coal company having demanded jury trials when eviction notices were served.

The men have occupied company houses since last April when the strike was called without paying rent.

Operators Testify.

Cleveland, Ohio, Jan. 23.—Further testimony of the operators' side of the controversy in the Eastern Ohio coal fields, where 15,000 miners have been on strike since the first of April last, was heard here today by Daniel J. Keefe and Hywel Davies, Federal conciliators, appointed by Secretary of Labor Wilson.

The two conciliators arrived here yesterday from Chicago, where on Thursday they conferred with John P. White, international president of the miners; William Green, international secretary and John Moore, president of the Ohio organization of the miners.

Mr. Davies said "We consider that we are making progress."

M'CORMICK MAKES AN EXPLANATION

Tells Why He Joined With Republicans of Illinois.

Chicago, Jan. 23.—Medill McCormick, former Illinois national committeeman of the Progressive party and Progressive member of the Illinois legislature, today issued a statement explaining his acceptance of the invitation to attend the caucus of Republican legislators at Springfield and his efforts to aid in organizing the lower house of the Illinois general assembly. He said:

"The great number of letters which I have received from Republicans, as well as from Progressives, all over the country, show that undue importance has been given to my participation in the Republican caucus of the Illinois house of representatives, because of the unintentional misquotation of my statement to the caucus, on the part of correspondents, who, of course, were not present. A purely personal reference to the pleasure of association with old friends belonging to the party of my fathers has been made to imply that we gave obligations regarding our future party affiliations. We gave none and none was asked of us."

Mr. McCormick then said he and Mr. Hicks, an associate Progressive, were confronted with the duty of breaking a deadlock over the speakership in the assembly.

Refering to the future of the Progressive party, he said:

"It may be that in 1916, neither of the older parties will adopt a program or put forward candidates who can be approved by the Progressive national convention, but if either of the older parties do so, it is probable that it will secure the support of the majority of the Progressives. Some few, of course, especially in states like California, Colorado and Pennsylvania, will go to the Republican party, without reference to collective action by the majority."

Austrian Premier Resigns.

Rome, Jan. 23, via London.—Count Karl Stuergkh, the Austrian premier, has resigned, according to a dispatch to the Messaggero from Vienna. The count probably will be succeeded, the dispatch adds, by Dr. L. Von Billinski, the Austro-Hungarian minister of finance.

BAD COLD? TAKE CASCARETS FOR BOWELS TONIGHT

No Headache, Constipation, Bad Cold or Sour Stomach By Morning.

Get a 10-cent box.

Sick headache, biliousness, coated tongue, head and nose clogged up with a cold—always trace this to torpid liver; delayed, fermenting food in the bowels or sour, gassy stomach.

Poisonous matter clogged in the intestines, instead of being cast out of the system is re-absorbed into the blood. When this poison reaches the delicate brain tissue it causes congestion and that dull, throbbing, sickening headache.

Cascarets immediately cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, undigested food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out all the constipated waste matter and poisons in the bowels.

A Cascaret to-night will surely straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist means your head clear, stomach sweet and your liver and bowels regular for months.

STUCCO RESIDENCE IN AMERICAN TYPE

The above residence, which has just been erected by the Lakeside Land Company, at 5411 Glenwood street, has attracted the attention of a great many prospective homebuilders during the course of its construction. The design is a novel one, and a number of new features were introduced into it. The building is now completed, and will be open for inspection tomorrow afternoon, when an opportunity will be given the public to examine the premises.

A NEW LINE OF FLOORING!

The readers of the Home Beautiful page are this week made acquainted with a new line of flooring, "The Idrolith Terrazzo and Composition,' which is sold and laid by the European Sanitary Floor company. Toffoli, manager of the company, claims that his flooring is the best for any public building and private home; especially for kitchens, toilets and corridors. This material is fireproof, waterproof, germproof, jointless, dustless and sanitary. It makes a smooth surface and is particularly easy for the feet.

Mr. Toffoli, who has recently opened offices in Duluth, has had numerous large jobs in his line throughout the country. The last job done by his company was the St. Mary's hospital at Niagara Falls, N. Y. Mr. Toffoli claims that on this job they used 30,000 square feet of usual terrazza and 48,000 square feet of hydraulic terrazzo with 13,000 running feet of base. They also finished 62 closets and 400 steps and rises in addition to completing numerous minor detail. Their work turned out very satisfactory to the St. Mary's sisters and the architects in charge.

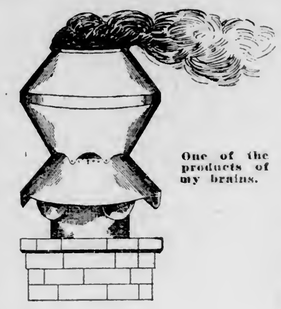

Mr. Toffoli states that this particular kind of flooring would prove very beneficial to barrooms and buffets. A specimen of their work can be seen at Mr. Johnson's saloon (now occupied by Mr. Berg) opposite the Soo Line station.

Anyone contemplating work of this kind can entrust it to Mr. Toffoli and be assured of a first class job. You can always find him by calling at his office at 1813 West Superior street or phoning Melrose 7098.

Regulate the Giving of Tips.

Is it possible to do away with the outrageous custom of tipping, and if so, who can evolve a plan by which the practice may be abolished, or at least regulated? Even those who are pecuniarily benefited by it will, I think, admit that the system is fundamentally wrong.

The giving of a tip was originally intended as a gratuity by a person of means who had been well served. It was a recognition of faithfulness and diligence. The tip, however, no longer serves its original purpose, for today it is practically the only compensation a waiter receives for his work, and in many cases his day's earnings must be shared with the head waiter, who in turn pays the hotel mangement for the privilege of lording it over the mere waiters, and of aiding and abetting them in their methods of extortion.

Of course we are not morally or legally bound to contribute one cent to the support of these servants after having paid the exorbitant charges usually demanded for whatever we consume, but most of us have not the courage of our convictions. Waiters grow more insolent in their demands regarding tips with every passing season, while the pernicious system itself has spread over everything.

It once seemed that waiters preyed more constantly upon the sterner sex or those who looked able to stand the drain upon their purses, but if this was ever true, they have bravely passed that stage in their development and are now prepared to treat rich and poor, old and young, alike. This, regardless of the sex.

My pity was stirred the other day when I witnessed the painful discomfiture of two victims of this evil. They were country folk, evidently man and wife, and unused to city ways and customs. It was quite evident that the waiter comprehended the situation, for his displeasure at having to wait on two unremunerative guests was without bounds. While serving their slender order his treatment of the couple was contemptuous to the point of indignity. Several who were lunching at the time observed this almost inhuman treatment on the part of the disgruntled waiter.

If tipping cannot be done away with, surely a scale of tips might be arranged and also some provision made for the more courteous treatment of those unsuspecting mortals who wander into a hotel in ignorance of what is before them in the way of exorbitant prices and insolence.

PERFECT BEAUTY
The fashion of the present day requires that the complexion of the well-groomed woman shall be clear and of snowy whiteness. The regular use of GOURAUD'S ORIENTAL CREAM
will bestow the charms that are so admired. Gouraud's Oriental Cream is a liquid powder, far surpassing the dry powders that have to be applied so frequently to gain the desired effect. It whitens, softens and clears the skin. It is absolutely free from grease and consequently does not encourage the growth of hair.

WILL READ FITCH PLAY FOR MEMBERS OF THE SODALITY

Under the auspices of the Young Ladies' Sodality of St. Clement's Catholic church Miss Mary Shesgren will read Clyde Fitch's "The Truth" Tuesday evening at St. Clement's hall. Miss Shesgren has given several successful readings of this play that shows how happiness can be wrecked by considering the truth lightly. The leading woman is facinating and lovable but has a passion for telling lies. A feeling of repulsion for her at the beginning of the play changes to sympathy when it is found she has inherited the weakness from her father who has lost the confidence and respect of everyone because, to use his own words, he "always hated the truth and liked to trim it up a little."

Miss Helen E. Cheesman, vocal teacher at Villa Scholastica, will give two soprano solos, "The Garden of My Heart" by Ball and "The Lass With the Delicate Air" by Arne. She will be accompanied by Miss Margaret Morin.

DULUTH SCOTSMEN WILL CELEBRATE THE BIRTHDAY OF ROBERT BURNS

ROBERT BURNS.

The birthday of Robert Burns, the Scottish poet, is probably more widely celebrated than of any other of the immortals. Wherever are found men of Scottish blood, and that means in every corner of the world, the twenty-fifth of January witnesses some sort of special function in honor of the day on which "a blast of Januar' win' blew hansel in on Robin'" in the "auld clay biggin" near the town of Ayr.

In Minnesota Burns' birthday is observed in at least a dozen different centers, but it is conceded that Duluth's celebration always surpasses the others. To such an extent is this so that this year, as in many former years, well known Scotchmen of the Twin Cities have announced their intention of being present at the Spalding hotel next Monday evening when Clan Stewart will give its annual concert and ball in honor of the memory of the poet.

There are always a large number present at this function from the range, Two Harbors, Ashland, Superior, Grand Rapids and other nearby towns, and as the clan during the year has added to its membership many from these places it is expected that larger numbers will be present this year that ever before.

The address on "Robert Burns" which will be one of the big features of the program will be given by E. W. MacPherran, of the law firm of Abbott MacPherran, Lewis & Gilbert. Mr. MacPherran has long been an enthusiastic admirer of the Scottish bard and during his residence in Michigan was called upon frequently by Scottish societies to toast "The Immortal Memory."

A musical program of unusual merit has been prepared. Mrs. Harry Faber White, who has scored such remarkable success in singing Scottish ballads, will be heard in two of Burns' best: "O' a' the airts the win' can blaw" and "Whistle and I'll come tae you, my lad'." Miss Jessie McGhie, Dr. J. G. Annand and J. R. Batchelor also appear on the program.

Miss Agnes Mac Johnson will read two selections appropriate to the occasion: "Laddie," and "Robert Burns."

There will also be exhibition Scottish dancing. That liveliest of all Scottish dances, "The Scotch Reel," will be danced by a quartet consisting of Miss Daisy MacAskill, Miss Mary MacAskill, Robert Tulloch and James G. Elder. This is one of the features of the annual Burns concert which causes the born Scotchmen to "booch" in spite of all efforts of their American wives to repress their enthusiasm. This dance will be to the tune of the bagpipes played by Pipe Major Robert Murray of Clan Stewart Bagpipe band.

Miss Mina MacAskill will act as accompanist and Angus G. Macaulay, the chief of Clan Stewart, will preside.

After the program La Brosse's orchestra will furnish music for a dance of twenty numbers. It is needless to say that the wee sma' hours will be beginning to lengthen before the festivities will close.

The celebration is not confined to Scotchmen, nor to men and women of Scottish blood, but all who delight to honor the memory of Burns are heartily welcomed at this celebration by the local clan.

PRIZES AWARDED FOR ESSAYS

Miss Edna Jenks Wins First Honors Among Girl High School Students; Ruth Fisher and Marion Linder Also Are Winners.

Announcement was made yesterday morning at Central high school that Miss Edna Jenks of 2401 East Fourth street has been awarded the $5 prize offered by the Association of Collegiate Alumnae for the best essay on "The Value of a College Education to a girl." A prize of $3 was won by Miss Ruth Fisher of 208 South Eighteenth avenue East and a prize of $2 by Miss Miriam Linder of 28 East Sixth street.

Judges of Essay Contest.

Mrs. Oscar B. Thayer, Miss Juanita Williams and Mrs. H. W. Nichols were the judges of the nine essays that were submitted. The contest was open to the young women of the junior and senior classes of Central high school, Denfeld high school, and the normal school, but the only contestants were students of Central high school. The length of each essay was limited from 500 to 700 words. Miss Jenk's paper follows:

Miss Jenk's Essay.

"The Twentieth Century expects so much of a woman in business, social and public life that she needs a broader, more efficient training in order to meet these demands. The college supplies these needs and gives her the ability to fill a responsible position in the world of today.

"When a girl goes to college she leaves the restraint and protection of her home where all her problems have been solved for her. As she must take her own decisions and bear her own burdens she soon develops responsibility. The regular hours for work and recreation teach her to use her energy wisely, to save time and to cultivate good habits. In the classroom and in the study she develops accuracy, persistence, ingenuity, concentration and systematic thought and work. She is trained to work with others, to strive for the ultimate good, rather than to follow her own impulses. The association with large numbers of girls from all parts of the country tends to broaden her character, since she must recognize the rights of others and must learn to judge people and circumstances. Among these students are those who will be the leaders in the near future and among the faculty are some of the best men and women of the modern times. Their influence gives a girl high ideals which last through life. She graduates from college with a well rounded character and a confidence in her own powers.

College Graduate Independent.

"The college graduate is financially independent if she wishes to earn her own living. She may prepare to enter one of the many professions which are now open to women, or she may enter the business world which is ready to receive her because she is able to give the impression that she is worth employing, that she can face difficulties and can make wise decisions. The regular hours and physical culture in college have given her good health which helps her to endure the strain of business life and continually to increase her efficiency.

"The community is benefitted by her influence. She is interested in public life and understands it. Through clubs, sometimes through the ballot, or through some public office, she helps to make better laws and to improve living conditions. She benefits her own associates by making the most of her own life. Instead of being discouraged by misfortunes she profits by the experience and encourages all who work with her.

The Married College Woman.

"If the college woman marries, her education is not wasted, but it makes her better able to fulfill her duties. She is a more efficient housekeeper and intelligent spender, because she has been trained to make her brain save physical effort and has learned the value of money. She is a better home-maker, because she is broad-minded, has high ideals and works to make all the details into an effective whole. Because of her interest in public affairs and her knowledge of the business world, she is a congenial companion for her husband. She often furthers her knowledge of public life by club work, and thus does not become narrow-minded or lose her position and influence in the world. She has studied hygiene and therefore knows how to preserve the health of the family. Her knowledge of human nature helps her to understand her children and to bring out the best in them. She can help them with their studies and thus gain their respect and admiration. She is a mother in the highest sense of the word.

"A college woman leaves the world better than she found it. She develops her powers to the utmost and makes her own life worth while because she is physically and mentally prepared for life. No one is hindered since she can be absolutely independent, if she so wishes. Every one with whom she comes in contact is benefited by the influence of her strong character, capability and far-seeing judgment. She establishes a happy home and trains useful citizens for her country so that they may carry on the work she has started."

JOHN KENDRICKS BANGS.

Noted Humorist Will Come to Duluth Next Month.

John Kendrick Bangs, to give the third lecture of the Association of Collegiate Alumnae course, America's greatest humorist, is coming to Duluth Wednesday, Feb. 10. Mr. Bangs was born in Yonkers, N. Y., May 27, 1862 and was graduated from Columbia college in 1883. He is the son of an eminent lawyer, who was at one time president of the New York Bar association and is a grandson of Dr. Nathan Bangs, president of Wesleyan college in Middletown, Conn. His home is on the coast of Maine except during the short period of the year when he is on the lecture platform.

John Kendrick Bangs is best known perhaps as the inventor of "The Genial Idiot" and the discoverer of "A Houseboat on the Styx," although his nearly fifty volumes of humorous prose and verse have placed him in a class second only to Mark Twain.

It may not be so well known that other activities have varied his busy life. He has been in turn managing editor of "Life," editor of the departments of humor for Harper & Bros., editor of "Literature"; editor of "Harper's Weekly" and of the "Metropolitan Magazine."

18TH CENTURY DRAMATISTS.

Mrs. Cronk Gives Readings at Meeting of Twentieth Century Club.

At the meeting of the literature department of the Twentieth Century club in the library clubroom yesterday afternoon Mrs. F. E. Cronk spoke on some of the leading dramatists of the eighteenth century and gave readings from Ben Johnson's "Every Man in His Humor" and "Every Man Out of His Humor," Beaumont and Fletcher's "The Knight of the Burning Pestle," and Dryden's "Indian Queen." The works of these dramatists were taken up and mention was made of Field Shirley and Milton. Mrs. Cronk said, in part:

"Jonson outlived Beaumont by several years, and proved that his ability was even greater than that of his collaborator by producing a number of plays alone, though the two had written so nearly alike that the work of one could not be distinguished from that of the other. During their lives they over-shadowed Shakespeare, but their plays did not stand so well the test of time because of their superficial character and the depravity of the age, perfectly mirrored in the writings of these two men for the stage."

ACTRESS IS HOSTESS TO HERALD NEWSBOYS

More Than 400 "Newsies" Are Guests of Ray Samuels.

Expressing the wish that all the 400 newsboys and carriers of The Herald were hers, Miss Ray Samuels, the "blue streak of vaudeville," at the Orpheum this week, gracefully welcomed them as her guests at the theater last evening. The boys attended the show on Miss Samuels' invitation, and she entertained them so well that they would have kept her behind the footlights until midnight if the iron hand of the stage manager had not rung down the curtain to give other performers a chance to do their turns.

The party for the newsboys and carriers last night was the result of the fact that Miss Samuels began her career in big-time vaudeville in Duluth three years ago last October. She got a great reception here, and the generous acknowledgment of her abilities in the columns of The Herald helped to put Duluth on the map in her memory to stay. Since then Miss Samuels has been rising rapidly in her profession and is now among the topliners.

The boys had a "big time" last night, but kept their enthusiasm within the bound of reason. Not one of them forgot that he was "out in society," and even when the "movies" were put on there was no undue noise heard. The newsboys were seated in the gallery, the carriers and the chaperons of the party were luxuriously ensconced upon the balcony cushions.

Miss Samuels was well pleased with the party last night and says it has added one more pleasant event in her career to those already enjoyed in the Zenith City.

NEW RULING MADE ON SALOON LICENSE.

Madison, Wis., Jan. 23.—That the provisions of the law regarding the location of saloons permit the reissuance of a license to that part of a building only which was previously occupied by a saloon, is the opinion of Attorney General Owen to District Attorney Markham of Beaver Dam. The attorney general declared that while this question had never been ruled upon in the courts, it is his opinion that a license can be issued only to that part of a lot previously occupied.

OPPOSED TO AMENDING ANTI-ALIEN LAND LAW.

Sacramento, Cal., Jan. 23.—Governor Hiram W. Johnson went on record today as opposed to any amendment to the anti-alien land act passed by the 1913 legislature. He indicated that if the Shartel bill, introduced in the assembly yesterday, eliminating the three-year leasing clause, passed the legislature, it would be vetoed.

REFUSED LICENSE IN MINNEAPOLIS

Rev. James Darnell Would Marry Mother of His Child.

Minneapolis, Minn., Jan. 23.—Rev. James M. Darnell, whose marital difficulties resulted recently in a divorce being granted to Mrs. Doris Vaughn Darnell of Chicago, made an unsuccessful effort here this afternoon to obtain a license to marry Ruth Soper, the Owatonna, Minn., woman with whom he lived at Kenosha, Wis. Mr. Darnell was accompanied by Miss Soper, her 5-months-old child, her mother, and Mr. Darnell, Sr.

In refusing to issue the license, Clerk of Court Nielson gave as his reason the divorce law of Minnesota which requires six months to elapse after divorce before either principal can again marry.

REEDAL WINNER OF THE ST. PAUL JOBBERS' EVENT

Defeats Miller Rink of Superior in Final Match.

Also Wins Grand Aggregate—Two Events Yet Unfinished.

George Reedal's Phillips rink this morning won the St. Paul Jobber's event, defeating Miller of Superior. Ralph Bradley defeated Ron McLeod of Duluth, going into the semi-finals of the Minneapolis event, and McNabb defeated Bert Dunlop of Duluth in the West Curling club event, thus moving into the finals of that event with Reedal of Phillips.

Bradley and McLeod went to thirteen ends. Bradley made two great shots, taking McLeod's rock out with his first and laying. His second shot took McLeod's second rock out and gave the game to Bradley.

Reedal is apparently assured of the grand aggregate prize.

ASKS SUGGESTION AS TO INJUNCTION

Judge Landis' Request May Be Significant in Baseball Suit.

Chicago, Jan. 23.—Endeavoring to clear up, as Judge Landis requested, just what the court should write in a restraining order "should one be issued," E. E. Gales today in the Federal league's anti-trust suit against organized baseball, stated the measure of relief desired at once by the plaintiff.

The order, he said, should restrain the clubs of organized ball from harassing the plaintiff, from tampering with or inducing its players to leave its ranks and from prosecuting or initiating a multiplicity of law suits.

"We are not seeking to stop the defendants from operating their usual business," said Gates. "We do not ask that they be prevented from carrying out their training plans, now or in the end. But we do ask that they be temporarily stopped from going in various state courts and getting injunctions against our players. What harm can it do the defendants if this court says: 'Wait until the general questions involved are settled'?"

Judge Landis again today declared the question of jurisdiction still unsettled, and Quincy A. Meyers cited authorities in answer to the defendants' doubts concerning the interstate commerce laws as applied to labor.

Meyers charged that the exception of labor noted in the Clayton act was "only a sop to organized labor," and doubted its force. In his argument he cited decisions to emphasize his contention that labor comes under the provision of the interstate commerce act.

TELLS STORY OF SWINDLE

R. S. Taylor Returns From New York After Giving Testimony.

Couple Who Took Half Million By Fraud Imprisoned.

A story of the unearthing of a gigantic swindle by secret service men who trailed a New York man and woman all the way across the continent and finally landed them in prison is related by Robert S. Taylor, official reporter of the district court, who returned yesterday afternoon from New York city, where he had been subpoened as a witness for the Federal government in the prosecution of Francis and Clara Griffin, the offenders. The Griffins pleaded guilty just before Mr. Taylor arrived in New York, making his services as a witness unnecessary.

The Griffins by a scheme, which took years to evolve, hoodwinked victims scattered all over the country out of large sums of money. According to the government prosecutor in New York, says Mr. Taylor, they swindled people out of an amount ranging from $300,000 to $500,000. The exact amount has not been determined, but it is know to be more than $300,000.

Some Are Heavy Losers.
They represented that they held large contracts with the government in handling stenographic court reporting work, and that their contracts covered all of the government's big cases. They needed money to finance their enterprise and appealed to their friends and others. On first investments in their scheme, they paid large dividends. This invited larger investments, which they pocketed themselves. One man lost $52,000, and there were other heavy losers.

Mr. Taylor stated that the Griffins even defrauded their servant girl out of the savings of a lifetime and left her nothing except a blind husband on her hands.

Was a Minister's Son.
Francis Griffin at one time was a prominent member of the New York bar, the son of a clergyman and even while engaged in his swindling scheme with his wife, stood high socially in New York. He was connected with several large charities and philanthropic institutions and used his connections in securing victims.

Mrs. Clara Griffin conceived the scheme, and was working at it before they were married. She claimed to be a shorthand writer. They were indicted last March by a grand jury in New York. After being arrested they gave bail in the sum of $37,000. After giving bail, they secretly left New York, Mrs. Griffin taking four trunks packed full of gorgeous gowns and personal effects. Government detectives finally caught them in San Francisco.

Both Plead Guilty.
After they were brought back to New York, the Griffins were held for trial. Mr. Taylor reported a number of government cases in which they claimed to hold contracts and the government wanted him as a witness to disprove their story. They pleaded guilty the day before he arrived in New York.

Griffin was sentenced to serve seven years in the Federal penitentiary in Georgia and his wife was sent up for six years on Blackwell's island.

SAFETY DEVICES.

Madison, Wis., Jan. 23.—That electric companies must furnish devices which protect the safety of persons and property is the decision today of the railroad commission in the case of the Bloomer Electric Light company. Complaint was made by L. P. Martiny of Black River Falls because no transformer was furnished to reduce the current from the high tension transmission, whereas one must be established outside the premises of the company. This is the first decision of the kind announced by the commission.

GIVING CHEERFULLY.

Philadelphia Ledger: The father of a Germantown lad had given him a 10-cent piece and quarter of a dollar, telling him that he might put one or the other on the church's contribution plate.

At dinner the father asked the boy which coin he had given.

"Well, father," exclaimed the youngster, "at first it seemed to me that I ought to put the quarter on the plate; but just in time I remembered the saying, 'The Lord loveth a cheerful giver,' and I knew I could give the 10-cent piece a great deal more cheerfully. So I put that in."

A FIT CHARACTERIZATION.

Pittsburg Dispatch: "No," said the old gentleman, sternly, "I will not do it. Never have I sold anything by misrepresentation, and I will not begin now."

For a moment he was silent, and the clerk who stood before him could see that the better nature of his employer was fighting strongly for the right.

"No," said the old man again, "I will not do it. It is an inferior grade of shoe and I will never pass it off as anything better. Mark it, 'A shoe fit for a queen,' and put it in the window. A queen doesn't have to do much walking."

HE COULD TRUST HER.

Lippincott's: Mrs. Capron saw old Uncle Timothy starting away on a fishing expedition, and knowing how hard his wife worked, thought it a good time to reprove him for his laziness.

"Timothy," she said, "do you think it's right to leave your wife at the washtub while you pass your time fishing?"

"Yessum, miss," replied the old colored man, "it's all right. Mah wife don' need any watching. She'll wuk jes' as hard as if I was dah."

Next week the Baldwin Players will offer the first Western play given during their Duluth engagements.

Probably no Western drama, with the possible exception of "Arizona," has the popularity that has been the portion of "The Virginian." The play is a dramatization of Owen Wister's famous novel, which for years was one of the "best sellers."

The play made fortunes for its producers, and made the reputation of at least one actor—Dustin Farnum, and the book made a fortune for its author.

Of all the many Western dramas it is the one that has been acknowledged as "ringing true." The story of the little New England school teacher, the big-hearted Virginian, their honeymoon in the hills, and his fight with Trampas is known to almost every theatergoer and every reader of novels of the present generation.

It has been so long since Duluth has seen the play that the production of it by the Baldwin Players next week will make it seem almost like a new story.

Every regular theater-goer will remember the lilting little strain:

"Ten thousand cattle, straying,
Over the hills and farther away,
Ye sons of guns that's what I say,
They rustled my pile, my pile away."

Again the Virginian's "Smile when you call me that" became almost a byword a few years ago.

The fight with Trampas, the "bad man" of the West, is one of the most thrilling and dramatic bits in modern drama.

Who can forget the scene with "Steve?" The wild, carefree, generous friend of the Virginian is caught stealing cattle and it falls to the lot of the Virginian and his posse to mete out the usual punishment to cattle thieves. The farewell between Steve and his friend has brought a tear to many million eyes in the United States.

Then there is the comedy of "Honey," the fat cowboy.

That is what has made "The Virginian" so popular—it's comedy and pathos are so closely intermingled, and above all it has action and a simple but thrilling story. There is not a dull moment in "The Virginian."

Three characters stand out pre-eminently, those of the hero, his little New England sweetheart and Trampas. The latter is one of the best "villain" parts in modern drama. Trampas is such a courageous, out and out "bad man" that the audience cannot wholly dislike him. The part will be played by Joseph De Stephani and Mr. De Stephani's friends are looking forward to seeing him in a new light as a "heavy."

The role of the hero will be a new departure for Homer Barton also. Mr. Barton has played so many light comedy parts that he is associated with such roles as Monty Brewster and Broadway Jones in the minds of Baldwin patrons, but in "The Virginia" he will have a role that will be entirely different—that of the rather mysterious, romantic, carefree cowboy of the Western plains.

Nor is the leading feminine role colorless. In a play where the male characters are drawn in such impressive style, the female characters might be neglected, but Miss Dorothy Shoemaker will have plenty of opportunity for some interesting work in the role of Molly Wood.

The production will be an elaborate one, and the most expensive the Baldwin Players have yet attempted. The cast is so large that it will necessitate the bringing of several extra people to Duluth. Mr. Baldwin has added to the strength of the company by the addition of actors from the Twin Cities and Milwaukee, borrowed from other stock companies for the occasion. It is expected to be the biggest week in the history of the Baldwin company. The usual performances will be given, with matinees Sunday, Wednesday and Saturday.

WILL M. CRESSY,
At the Orpheum, Next Week.

Orpheum

President Wilson, in a recent interview for the Saturday Evening Post, stated that he enjoyed a good vaudeville show more than any other class of amusement, and the vaudeville theater which the president attends in Washington offers practically the same acts that are being offered at the Orpheum, the best there is obtainable in the vaudeville world. The coming week's bill at the Orpheum will measure up in every respect to the high standard of vaudeville excellence that has been set by the Orpheum during the last several weeks, every act on the bill being one of more than the average merit and entertaining qualities.

Will M. Cressy and Blanche Dayne, a pair of Orpheum favorites, will head the list in Mr. Cressy's latest one-act play, "The Man Who Remembered." Mr. Cressey writes a new sketch for himself and Miss Dayne each year, and each one seemingly better than the preceding one, and his present offering is a finished comedy that is interwoven with touches of serious thought. Mr. Cressy plays the part of a New Hampshire storekeeper and Miss Dayne is a traveling saleswoman.

"Three Beautiful Types," three young women representing three different types of beauty, blonde, brunette and auburn, will be another special feature of the bill. The trio of young women, who are said to be the most beautiful that the present day vaudeville stage can produce, appear in living representations of famous paintings, and not only represent a posing act that is truly beautiful, but form a practical exhibit which may settle among many the question, "which type is the most beautiful," which has been discussed since the world began.

Grace De Mar, the dainty little singing comedienne, whose vogue is analyzed as being about 50 per cent personality and 50 per cent songs, will fit in nicely on the unusually good bill and add much to the entertaining value. Miss De Mar has a new cycle of songs that will probably be whistled for many weeks here after her engagement.

As a musical novelty there are few acts in vaudeville that can equal Cervo, piano accordionist, who handles the instrument in a manner that fairly makes it a human voice. His selections are of the best, ranging from grand opera to ragtime.

Bertish, an European novelty gymnast, offers an exhibition of strength and agility that is remarkable.

* * *

Through a series of important roles in numerous successful musical comedies, Adele Ritchie has gained an enviable reputation. Despite this fact, however, she is known in the West in name only. The Orpheum circuit tour which she is about to inaugurate will be her first professional trip to the Pacific coast.

* * *

Porter Emerson Browne has provided Homer B. Mason and Marguerite Keller with their new vehicle. It is called "Married" and is admirably suited to these two players. Mr. Mason and Miss Keeler have just begun an Orpheum circuit tour, where they require no introduction. It is probable, too, that Mr. Browne is also favorably remembered both because he wrote "In and Out," Mason and Keeler's last vehicle, and through his play "A Fool There was."

* * *

Not since "The Cat and the Cherub" and "The First Born" has there been a Chinese playlet as powerful as "The Green Beetle." In fact dramatic criticism generally leans to the opinion that the newer product is even more gripping than the others. "The Green Beetle" is by John Willard, and is one of the important productions Jos. Hart has made for the Orpheum circuit.

* * *

Recently a young woman gained a world-wide reputation by swimming the dangerous whirlpool rapids of Niagara falls. This woman was called Ideal, and her sensational accomplishment was done to make her claim to the title of champion woman swimmer indisputable. Ideal is now in vaudeville, presenting an interesting series of fancy dives and swimming strokes, and is about to begin an Orpheum circuit tour.

* * *

Bessie Clayton has been added to the long list of important players to be seen this season on the Orpheum circuit. Miss Clayton has originated an entirely new set of dances, and with the assistance of the Clayton Sextet, has been winning fresh laurels for herself with them.

James O. Barton, who, when the Progressive Buslesque circuit shut up shop, took a half dozen of the shows of that organization and continued operations, has had to submit to the inevitable at last. It is said that Barton will try to form a new burlesque circuit.

* * *

The state of Nat Goodwin's health, which recently caused him to cancel an engagement in Milwaukee, is such that he will probably be forced to take a rest.

COPELAND DRAPER AND COMPANY

The New Grand

There is more good wholesome fun in the New Grand bill this week than any bill seen so far this season at that playhouse, and that is saying a good deal, for the Grand's reputation in providing pleasing entertainment for its patrons is excellent.

Copeland, Draper and company offer a skit, "Room 44 and 45," that is so full of laughs and effervescing fun that it bubbles over. There is no plot or worrisome dialogue but jut fun, and plenty of it.

Weber, Dolan and Frazer, late of the Eva Tanguay Volcanic Vaudeville company, fill in twenty minutes of singing, dancing and comedy. The boys have excellent voices and exquisite harmony, and have proved themselves big favorites during their short stay. Another fun festival is the comedy sketch of Gardner and Nicholai, "At the Pay Station", Mr. Gardner as the red-headed messenger boy, and Miss Nicholai as the telephone operator are a pair hard to beat. Almost every line in the sketch is good for a laugh, and there are plenty of lines and some clever songs for good measure.

The Engford's, European novelty gymnasts and contortionists, as well as balancing experts, offer an extraordinary display of strength and endurance tests and accomplish many seemingly impossible feats.

The Hearst-Selig News contains many pictures from the war zones in Mexico and Europe any many other places and events in the making of the world's history. Among the photoplays is the two-real feature, "The Friendship of Lamond;" one of the Helen Holmes railroad stories, "The Girl Telegraphers Peril," and a comedy, "They Called It Baby."

On Monday the bill will be changed entirely and will be headlined by Mlle. Nadge, the famous physical culture girl, in feats of strength and classic poses. Her act is new and one that will be enjoyed. Mlle Nadge's wardrobe is a great asset to the wonderfully formed woman.

Arthur O. May and Sunny Kilduff will present a new comedy skit: "A Limb of the Law," which is brim full of all that goes to make a pleasing entertainment. The Connolly sisters will offer a singing and dancing diversion with a repertore of new songs and original dances. Woodford's animals consisting of a dog, monkey and pony will be something new in animal acts. Arthur, the man-monkey, said to be endowed with almost human intelligence, rides bicycles, dances and eats with a knife and fork and accomplishes many other interesting things.

Somethin- new in the way of motion pictures will be introduced. This new series is called Bert Levettes, and nothing quite like these unique and interesting playlets have even been shown before. Vaudevillians will remember Bert Levy as one of the greatest cartoonist of famous characters on the stage, and he has brought his work into filmdom and expresses through the cineinatograph his interesting personality and unusual ability as an artist and entertainer. If these pictures are the success that the management expects, they will become a part of the regular program hereafter.

Among the photoplays will be the two-reel biograph special, "The Third Act;" one of the "Alive Opportunity" series, "Olive's Manufactured Mother;" "The Snallburg Volunteers," a comedy and a Western play, "Broncho Billy's Mission" featuring George M. Anderson. On Tuesday and Wednesday, special feature days, the roaring comedy, "My Friend From India," in three reels, will be added to the regular program.

AT THE REX

Porter Emerson Browne, who has been hailed as "The American Dramatist," accomplished his great success when he penned his daring, virile drama of a weak man and an unscrupulous vampire-woman, "A Fool There Was," of which the screen version has been made by William Fox, as a production extraordinary. This remarkable drama, in which Robert Hilliard starred and achieved a notable success, created a nation-wide discussion at the time of its presentation and record-breaking run at the Liberty theater, New York city. Based on Kipling's poem, it is the tale of a weak-willed man and a woman of sinister beauty and vampire heart. At the vampire's request, he leaves all that is dear. It is the beginning of the tragic end of "The Fool." The "rag and a bone and a hank of hair" to whom he has made his prayer, toys with him like a tigeress with her prey, for well she knows the strength and tenacity of the web she has woven. "A Fool There Was" will be at the Rex Monday and Tuesday.

"The Girl of the Golden West," a Paramount-Lasky feature, is a big, breezy play that just radiates the atmosphere of the glorious West, making it easy to fancy oneself on the ground and an eye-witness to each thrilling scene of this red blood drama of love and adventure. It will be seen Wednesday and Thursday at the Rex.

Georgo Beban, the famous Italian actor, is booked to the Rex for Friday and Saturday in a wonderful production directed by Thomas Ince and C. Gardner Sullivan and titled "The Italian." This is a simple story of love and faith and loyalty that will appeal to all people. The scenes of the play are laid in sunny Italy and the New York Ghetto. A famous actor, a famous producer and a famous story are the recommendations for "The Italian."

The SUNBEAM

"The Secret of the Ring," a powerful and thrilling mystery story in three parts, will be the Sunday offering at the Sunbeam theater.

The story is offered as the photoplay masterpiece of George Kleine, the well-known Chicago producer, and is declared by the critics to be full of exciting and fascinating moments.

George Ade's comedy fables dramatized in motion pictures are also to be presented tomorrow. "Love, Luck and Gasoline," a Vitagraph comedy which set the pace for laughter at the Vitagraph theater recently in New York city, will be the attraction for Monday and Tuesday. John Bunny, the eminent leading player of the Vitagraph company, who is now starring in a musical production entitled "Bunny in Funnyland," portrays the leading role. "The Way of the Woman," an Essanay story, in which the prettiest "hello" girl in America played the leading part, will come to the Sunbeam on Wednesday for two days. Hundreds of thousands of persons throughout the country are eagerly awaiting this photoplay because of the widespread interest it created through the selection of the most beautiful telephone girl in America to take a part in the play. The contest was won by Miss Irene Estelle Hough of Omaha, Neb. For next Saturday only Evelyn Nesbitt Thaw and her son, Russell William Thaw, will make their first appearance in motion pictures in the five-reel playlet entitled "Threads of Destiny."

GOSSIP OF THE RIALTO

"Joseph and His Brethren" has closed its tour at St. Louis. This was one of the undertakings of the defunct theatrical firm of Liebler & Co., which recently went into the hands of a receiver. The closing was under the orders of the receiver.

EXHIBITORS ARE EAGER FOR SPACE

With the date of the holding of the Minneapolis annual automobile show only one week off, exhibitors are beginning to fight for space. Every foot in the armory and annex has been sold, and there will of necessity be considerable trading of locations and divisions of spaces to accommodate the demand. Heretofore, the competition between exhibitors, while keen, has not been of a hoggish nature, so it can be anticipated that there will be a disposition to accommodate all comers as far as possible.

What should especially interest motorists of the Northwest is that the popular, medium-priced cars will have motors that are much lighter with smaller bore and longer stroke than in former years. Mechanical propulsion on bad roads requires so much power that light and powerful motors are needed. Lessons taught by the aeroplane have had the effect of the adoption of smooth streamline in their bodies and exposed part that they may move with less friction.

These features of the new models are going to be emphasized by the comparison that will be made by the exhibition of types of cars made in former years. They will not be exhibited as historical curios, for it must be remembered that it was only in the year 1897 that automobiles were first marketed in the United States. They will be shown as object lessons to demonstrate the improvements that have been made. This will be a new feature of the show and certainly a very interesting and instructive one.

The attendance at last year's show of country buyers was so large that it will not be surprising if makers cater especially to them in their displays this year. It will be remembered that early in the morning before most city business men had come down town after breakfast that visitors from outside towns had begun to arrive at the armory and were making inspections that proportionately resulted in more sales than in the afternoon and evening when the aisles were thronged and the band was playing. This year there are going to be still more visitors from the country for the lesson has been taught that the automobile has raised the value of farm lands, increased the productiveness of the tilled ground, besides promoting social intercourse and enjoyments that has made rural life more attractive.

It should not be conjectured that there is to be an absence of high-priced cars that are miniature palaces on wheels. It is expected that at least forty-two lines of pleasure cars will be shown. There will be a much larger exhibit of accessories in the balcony than ever before and the motorcycle is expected to be in more evidence.

Decorations of the armory, which will be on a more elaborate scale than ever before, are well in hand. St. Paul day has been fixed for Wednesday, when the Minnesota State band will be in attendance and Miss Martha Cook, contralto, and Everarnd Lehmann, the boy soprano, will be soloists.

The Minneapolis auto show, which stands for the Northwest, is now recognized as one of the big four national shows which follow in succession beginning with New York, Jan. 2-9, followed by the Detroit show the week of Jan. 16, the Chicago show this week and the Minneapolis show, Jan. 30 to Feb. 6, a circuit as well arranged for close connections as the circuits that are carefully mapped out for touring dramatic opera companies.

THOMAS FREED FROM MILITARY DUTY

Driver Will Compete in Next 500-Mile Contest.

Indianaolis, Jan. 22.—Rene Thomas, winner of the 1914 Indianapolis 500-mile race, has cabled that injuries sustained in the aviation service of the French army have excused him from military duty, and that, accordingly, he will compete in the next Hoosier contest.

Though he did not specify a car, it is generally thought that he will bring over one of the Delarges that raced in the last French Grand Prix. This make of machine, being the first to employ a positive, instead of a spring-controlled valve action, is credited with being the fastest for its size ever produced. Its comparatively poor showing in the last Grand Prix is accounted for by the fact that a faulty carburater adjustment on the morning of the race cut down its speed at least ten miles an hour.

Thomas is known through out the world as one of the most daring aviators ever born. Back in the days when Hubert Latham was setting the world on fire with his sensational flights, Thomas was going him even one better. His tumbles out of the blue sky were enough to shake the hardiest individual, yet he kept right on.

Robert Laly, who rode with Thomas in the last Hoosier contest, will not be with him this year, having been captured by the Germans shortly after the outset of the war, and relegated to a concentration camp far from the line of battle. It is thought Thomas will attempt to pick up an American mechanican, as he is sufficiently skilled in automobile mechanics to need no assistance, save to keep him posted as to his position when driving.

NEW AUTO AGENCY HERE.

Fisk Rubber Company Engages Fred Newman as Agent.

Announcement was received here from New York this week that the Fisk Rubber company will establish an agency in Duluth some time during next month, and that Fred W. Neumann, well known among local motorists, will have charge of the salesrooms.

Mr. Neumann, who confirmed the report, stated that the agency will open about Feb. 15 and that the branch will be located in the Dodge block, Fourth avenue east and Superior street. In addition, Mr. Neumann plans to conduct a repair shop for auto tires.

During the last four years Mr. Neumann conducted the Duluth Auto Supply house and in that time he has made a host of friends among local motorists.

Unique Sales Contest.

A highly effective sales contest has been conducted by the Hudson Motor Car company the last four months. It came to a close Dec. 31. The idea was originated in the sales and advertising departments, and the purpose was to break all records for sales of Hudson cars during September, October, November and December.

The company offered a series of silver cups to certain leagues which were composed of a number of teams made up of dealers, somewhat on the style of a baseball league. The winning team in each one of the six leagues gets a silver cup. The teams are named after officers of the company, such as the Chapin league, the Coffin league, the Jackson league.

Other prizes offered were individual prizes to salesmen who exceeded their quota of cars which they are expected to sell, and also monthly prizes of gold to salesmen who had the highest percentage of sales.

Much to the gratification of the Hudson sales and advertising departments, even the very stringent regulations of the contest failed to hold down the number of winners, and thousands of dollars were paid out in prizes to salesmen and dealers who exceeded the highest anticipation of the company in delivering cars during the four months mentioned.

TO REACH MILLION MARK.

With the completion of the 300,000-car schedule Aug. 1, 1915, there will be 1,000,000 Ford cars in operation. A million Ford owners mean Ford dealers in proportion. There are nearly 6,000 Ford dealers. And in the hands, always, of these Ford dealers is kept a stock of Ford parts aggregating about $12,000,000.

The ratio of Ford owners as compared to owners of all motor cars is shown, for example, by California, Iowa and Florida, three extreme points in the Union. More than 50 per cent of all the automobiles owned in these three states are Fords, and there are 113,000 cars in Iowa, too. There is a Ford dealer every ten miles in Iowa. In greater New York city and vicinity there are Ford branches in Long Island City, Brooklyn, the Bronx and Newark.

All these stupendous figures—1,000,000 Ford owners, 6,000 Ford dealers and $12,000,000 of Ford parts in the hands of dealers—merely mean that it is impossible for a Ford driver, anywhere in the country, to get out of the zone of immediate Ford service. It is the basic principle of Ford service, not only to take care of every Ford owner immediately, but to take care of him immediately, wherever he is.

WOMEN CAN DRIVE THEM.

Ford Cars Do Not Need Skilled Attention, Says Filiatrault.

"It is not necessary for a woman to be an expert mechanic or electrical engineer to drive a Ford car," said E. J. Filiatrault of the Mutual Auto company, local agents for the Ford. ....

"That is because Ford cars do not need much skilled attention these days. They are built to take you where you want to go and bring you back again. It is a rare thing for an emergency to arise in which really expert knowledge is required. If a Ford car has intelligent care and inspection in the garage the chance of the motor stopping suddenly in the street is practically negligible.

"Tremendous strides have been made in the last few years in motor car design and construction and in the material used. The old-time necessity of having to crawl under the car or fuss with the intricacies of the engine or the carburetor every few miles has been forever eliminated.

"It is because of these advances in motor car building that thousands of women who would not have touched a steering wheel a few years ago are today realizing the joy and exhilaration of driving with perfect propriety and safety.

"Ford cars have always been peculiarly favored by women. That is because from the very beginning the Ford has been to the highest degree simple in construction and simple in operation and control. To such an extent is this true that in the eleven years of its history there have been few changes in the essentials of design and construction."

PRIZE MONEY FOR AUTOMOBILE RACERS.

Prize money for automobile racing, conservatively estimated, will total not less than $200,000 this year, with the possibility that this amount will reach $400,000 before the season is out. The largest individual purse, of course, belongs to Indianapolis, with its $50,000 in cash, and $25,000 in accessory prizes and trophies.

The cash awards, in the order of their financial importance, are as follows: Indianapolis, $50,000; Sioux City, $25,000; Omaha, $25,000; Tacoma, $16,000; Venice, $15,000; Vanderbilt, $10,000; grand prize, $10,000; Elgin, $10,000; El Paso-San Diego, $10,000; Los Angeles-Phoenix, $10,000; Oklahoma City, $10,000; Galesburg, $5,000; Galveston, $5,000; Uniontown hill climb, $5,000; total, $205,000.

Prizes which may be added, provided the promotive schemes in back of them do not fail, are Chicago $50,000, New York $50,000, Minneapolis $50,000, Detroit $25,000, and Los Angeles $10,000; together with minor offerings by dirt tracks.

CAMPING IN A FORD.

That success can only be attained through the observance of minute details even on a hunting trip in the wilds of Maine, is the claim of Warren H. Beede of Lynn, Mass., who returned recently after a month's sojourn in the Maine woods. As a hunter, Mr. Beede is proud of the results of his trip, but as a thorough sportsman he is more proud of his equipment, and that is what he terms his Ford auto-kitchen - sleeping - room - armory - express - freight-mobile.

Mr. Beede left Lyons about the middle of October with a hunting companion for his annual trip to the Maine woods, and since that time he has not slept or eaten under a roof other than the top of his Ford automobile. For the expedition Mr. Beede had a veritable hunting machine and one thoroughly equipped for its own peculiar use. Leaving only the original front seat and the chassis of the machine, he has arranged a unique contrivance in the vehicle line.

The body of the car was lengthened about two feet, and in the place of the rear seat is a gun rack, ammunition box and sleeping bunks for three persons. In one corner is a folding kitchen, that is, a receptacle for a cook stove and a closet with dishes and utensils. The interior is lighted by electricity. On one side are hooks, on which a table may be suspended, and instead of mattresses in the collapsible bunks, folding air mattresses and sleeping mats of rubber are used. The mudguards are so arranged that they can be used as shelves for the carrying of big game, while along one side of the interior is a small game box.

On leaving the city for the trip the hunters went over the road to Beddington, Me., and thence to the Gould Brook camps, where they took on a guide. The party of three then spent the next weeks along the Narraguagues river, in Washington county. Two snow storms were encountered, and in one instance they plowed through snow to the depth of eight inches.

"FOLLOW UP" SYSTEM.

How Business of Selling Cars Is Done in New York.

How prospects are followed up in New York was told by George Stowe, manager of the Chalmers Motor Car company of New York, at the Chalmers dealers' convention. He said:

"We use an accurate follow-up card system in New York. Every salesman has to make a daily report. The young woman whose sole business it is to keep up our card system in turn transfers these daily reports to the card index.

"Suppose, for instance, that a salesman turns in a report on a prospect. That report is held for thirty days without a further report being required on it. If a report does not come within thirty days, that prospect may be taken from the index by another salesman in the company and, if the second salesman sells the prospect, he gets the credit for the business.

"Or if a prospect is held in the card index for thirty days, and the original salesman does not furnish any further report on it, and the prospect comes into the store on the thirty-first day and buys a car—the salesman who handles him gets the credit for the sale.

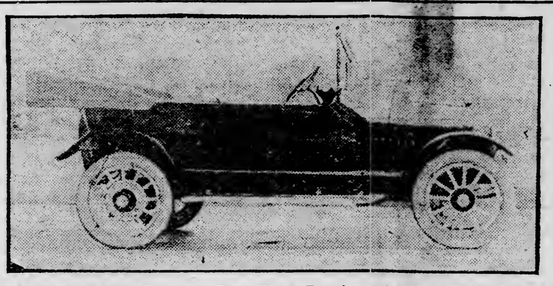

"This system is used regardless of the amount of work done on the prospect by the original salesman.

"On owners we give salesmen ninety days in which to follow up. If we don't receive a report in ninety days, and the owners comes into the store on the ninety-first day and buys a car, the man who handles the sale gets the commission.

"We have a further plan by which we encourage our salesmen to make as many straight sales as possible. This works right in line with following up prospects, because it is the new prospects that bring the straight sales. Our plan briefly is this; We pay a certain percentage of commission on the amount of money that a man turns in. We pay double that amount of commission on a straight sale. If a salesman takes in a used car and sells it for as much as he allows for it plus the amount of repairs, we also include that with the bonus paid for a new car and count it as a straight sale.

"We keep a strict account of every penny we spend on used cars, so that the salesman can get full credit providing these cars are sold for their full allowance price plus the cost of repairs."

NEW 8-CYLINDER KING

The Interstate Auto Company Last Week Received the New Eight-Cylinder King Car, Which Is Now on Display in the Showrooms at 8 West First Street.

FRANKLIN BUSINESS DURING DECEMBER.

An idea of the immense amount of work which modern efficient sales organizations are called upon to do is shown by some figures given out by the Franklin Automobile company which bear on their recently completed December sales campaign.

Telegraphic communications, confined to sales information entirely, numbered 723 during the month. Telephone toll calls totaled 146. A total of 3,540 special circulars and letters, 20,650 mailgrams, and 8,850 bulletins were sent out to Franklin dealers and salesmen, besides an unusual volume of daily correspondence. The mailing department, employing eight people, was kept busy eight and nine hours a day on this work alone.

The results of this campaign are considered phenomenal. Five hundred and fifteen sales represented the business of the month, these being equivalent to 20.7 per cent of the total year's output. Orders for Franklin cars continued to increase each week during the month, the second showing of 50 per cent over the first, the third 97 per cent over the second, and the fourth 189 per cent increase over the third. The December orders were 222 per cent over December, 1913, and exceeded any former one month's orders in the history of the company. It is significant of the prosperity being enjoyed by the Franklin Automobile company that purchasers spent considerably over $1,000,000 for the Franklin cars in December, 1914.

AUTO DEALERS WILL ATTEND BIG SHOW

Several Duluth automobile dealers are planning to attend the Chicago automobile show next week, while virtually every dealer in the city is arranging to visit the Minneapolis show the following week.

The Chicago show, which opens today, is considered the largest in the world and besides being a display room of all the cars manufactured, is also a gathering place for the largest dealers of the country. Hundreds of conventions are scheduled during the week between the officials of the various companies and their respective dealers.

E. J. Filiatrault of the Mutual Auto company and Joseph T. Peacha, Jr., of the Interstate Auto company, will leave for Chicago tomorrow, returning the latter part of next week. On Monday Mr. Filiatrault will attend a conference to be held by Hugh Chalmers, president of the Chalmers Motor company.

Fred Kleyn of the Kleyn Auto company is in Detroit this week visiting the Hudson factory and he will attend the Chicago show before returning home.

Virtually all of the other dealers in Duluth said yesterday that they are planning to attend the show in Minneapolis during the week of Jan. 30-Feb. 6.

OFFICIAL CAR FOR SAN DIEGO EXPOSITION.

The Cadillac eight-cylinder has been made the official car of the Panama-California exposition at San Diego. Three Cadillac cars, two with seven-passenger touring car bodies and one with a seven-passenger limousine body, have been ordered by E. A. Davidson, the chairman of the fair committee. These cars will be used by the members of the executime committee on official business. The three cars will be delivered through the Los Angeles house of the Don Lee organization.

Two Cadillac cars have also been purchased for the Panama-Pacific exposition at San Francisco. Special ambulance bodies are to be mounted on the stock Cadillac chaises, and these cars will be stationed constantly at the fair grounds to care for any sick or injured persons.

The Overland Brakes.

That the factor of safety is one of the most important features of present day automobile practice is pointed out by engineers of the Willys-Overland company, Toledo, Ohio. These experts illustrate the attention given this feature in the Overland car by showing that their product has greater braking power in proportion than the biggest locomotive.

The heaviest type of passenger locomotive weighs about 250,000 pounds. Its total braking surface with cast iron and steel shoes operated on each wheel, is about 1,000 square inches, or one square inch to each 227 pounds of weight. The Overland Model 80 touring car has four separate brakes, which total 276 square inches. The car, without occupants weighs 2,900 pounds, thus having a little more than a square inch of braking surface to each ten pounds of weight.

It is further pointed out that Overland brakes are much more effective than locomotive equipment, for they consist of a band of asbestos faced steel in contact with the steel of the brake drum.

With this powerful braking equipment any kind of stop is possible, from the instantaneous stop required in case of emergency to a gradual and almost imperceptible slowing down.

THE HOUSE THAT JACK PATCHED.

Jack had a craze for patching things up. Maybe you've seen that kind of a chap—always ready to put something on here or there, either to strengthen the original piece, or to make it look more uniform or for any one of half a dozen reasons, that always satisfies him, whether it does anybody else or not.

But Jack was an enthusiast in this line, where others only dabbled in it. If he saw a place in a board fence where a knot had fallen out, he at once wanted to stick a patch over it. Or if the knot hadn't fallen out he liked to patch the place up anyway so it wouldn't fall out. And if he found a little crack in the wall, where a board had warped a sixty-fourth of an inch or so, he wanted to put a patch over that, too. And then he'd put another patch opposite that one, just to preserve the continuity of the general appearance, he would say.

For awhile Jack's neighbors took his ideas seriously, not liking to laugh for fear it might hurt his feelings, and thinking that at least it was his own place he was working on, so it really was none of their business. And so he kept on with his practice without anybody telling him he was making a mistake.

After a few months of this kind of thing, the neighbors began to wonder where the patching business would end. They even got to being amused by it, and would begin to laugh whenever they heard the sound of Jack's hammer on house or barn or fence. They would say to each other that Jack had found another bare place, and was sticking something over it so it wouldn't feel lonely.

It was the same with paint. Any place that could stand a new daub of paint would be sure to get it, until the house and the barn and the fence looked like—well, even the neighbors hesitated to tell that.

But at last things got so bad that a committee of neighbors was appointed to call on Jack and tell him that although he might have a right to patch his own possessions in that fashion, to a certain extent, he certainly had no right to make the place an eye-sore to the whole neighborhood, and to destroy the appearance of that locality for any visitors who might come that way. And they finally did prevail on Jack not only to give up the patching habit, but to take off as many of the patches as he could, and smooth the scars over with new surfaces that left a uniform and sightly effect.

Jack was a nuisance, before his reformation. And yet, it is doubtful if he really was very much more of a nuisance with his everlasting patching of the house and barn and fence than he would have been if he had confined the patching to his daily conversation.

And conversation can be patched, very easily. Just an unnecessary word here and there—a word that adds nothing to the strength of what is said, but rather detracts from it by distracting the attention from the sense and attracting it to the expletive; a word that not only adds nothing to the sense, but that really confuses the sense by adding a sound or an appearance that is out of taste or perhaps even unpleasant.

You start patching your conversation with these words—"cuss" words as a rule—and you keep adding more and more patches, and putting them in places that you never would have thought of putting them at first. And pretty soon the whole structure of your conversation is marred by them.

Then try to take the patches off and see what you have—a scarred and unsightly thing on which you must work and work and still work some more in order to get it in such shape that it will not be an eye-sore—or an ear-sore—to others.

The house that Jack patched never gained a thing by those patches. And the conversation that is patched with expletives and profanity and indecency gains nothing from those patches. The only thing to do in either case is to rip off the patches and renovate and repair the whole outfit. And until that is done, the owner will be liable to a call at any time from neighbors who will demand that, in one way or another, the nuisance be abated.

To be sure tomorrow isn't "Go to Church Sunday," but maybe you could bring yourself to do it anyway.

OPPORTUNITIES PILE UP.

Concrete evidence of the existence of foreign trade opportunities newly opened to American commerce has not been lacking. Every week for the last three or four months has brought its quota of inquiries or orders for products of one kind or another. But the most striking evidence of the multiplicity of these opportunities is the fact that the Federal department of commerce has had to issue a special edition of the Daily Commerce Reports to give publicity to the great demand.

This special edition is an interesting document. It contains the usual amount of information from various places where United States consuls are stationed, and then come twelve pages devoted entirely to definite opportunities for American firms to get new footholds for trade.

And a variegated list it is, ranging through the whole general list of manufactured articles, with some specialties wanted here and there. Every branch of manufacturing is represented in these international want-advertisement columns, and it would seem as if any nation with no trade at all, if it could only supply these demands or half of them, could jump at once into the lead among commercial powers.

Opportunities for trade? They are everywhere, and of all kinds. If, by the close of this war, American commercial interests have not fastened their grip on every quarter of the globe, it will be to the shame of those interests, and they should never have the effrontery to ask for any further favors at the hands of the American people.

PAID COLLEGE COACHES.

President Hibben of Princeton university is quoted as criticizing the present system of having paid coaches to train college athletes. He sees in the method too much that smacks of commercialization of amateur sport, and thinks it would be better to return to the old way of having the coaching done by undergraduates, men who have been on the teams in other years, and who can take the recruits in hand and give them pointers on what to do and what not to do.

Nobody will quarrel with President Hibben on the proposition that anything that tends to commercialize amateur sport should be discouraged. But we think the Princeton prexy is mistaken in this instance, and that to do away with the paid college athletic coach would be a serious mistake.

Part of the coach's work, for instance, is to look over the men who seek to get on the teams, and weed out those who are unfit. It is up to him to do that effectually, for unless he can turn out reasonably strong teams, considering the material he has to work on, his job will not be safe. One of the things he must do, then, is to study the physical condition and capabilities of every man, and see that none is allowed to participate in the game who is incapable of standing the strain and effort.

How could an undergraduate, untrained in judging physical qualifications of men, do what the coach now does? As a matter of fact, he couldn't, and the result would be that instead of the steadily decreasing list of fatalities on college athletic fields we would go back to the days when the annual death list could be reckoned by dozens instead of only by individuals.

Not that these fatalities and lesser casualties are welcome or to be condoned. Rather the exact opposite. But nobody contends that college sports should be abandoned altogether, and it is far better that the young men have an experienced and capable instructor and overseer to look after them in these things than that they be left to fall victims to their own inexperience and misjudgment. Let us avoid commercialism in their sports, by all means. But let us not add unnecessarily to the dangers they encounter in those contests.

Also it will soon be time to look for the groundhog again.

THE BIG DITCH IN USE.

It is always interesting to get direct personal reports from anybody who has had actual experience in using any new or novel thing; a vast deal more interesting than it is just to hear or read of the thing itself and of the hopes of its makers or others as to what it will do. And we have heard and read so much about the Panama canal that it is doubly interesting to know exactly what those who use it think of it.

United States Consul General J. I. Brittain, stationed at Auckland, sends an account of the arrival there of the British ship Purley, from New York—the first vessel to reach New Zealand traveling by way of the canal.

The captain of the steamer was enthusiastic over his voyage, the consul says, and praised the new route, not only on account of its being shorter than the old one, but because the weather was better.

He spoke of the time consumed, and pointed out that although by the old route he would have had to spend about seventy-two days on the voyage, he had this time made it in thirty-seven days, and could have done better still with a little effort. The distance via Cape Horn is 11,571 miles, and the canal route only 8,500 miles. A steamer that left two weeks before the Purley, and took the old route, had not yet arrived.

These figures represent no theory. They give a concrete example of the Panama canal in operation. With them as a working basis and the thought of the immensity of the trade between the West and the Far East, one begins to realize something of what the Panama canal will mean to the commerce of the world.

The Siamese navy consists of one old battleship. Some people will wonder how on earth Siam ever managed to exist this long.

ANOTHER LAUGH FOR NEUTRALS.

The neutral world laughed aloud when the Russian government announced that its capital was no longer to be known as "St. Petersburg," but as "Petrograd," a name wholly Muscovite instead of Teutonic in origin. The neutral world laughed again when the German royal family renounced all titles, honors and degrees conferred by England or English institutions. It laughed yet again when France dropped the names of famous Germans from the rolls of her scientific organizations.

And now it has another laugh due, for according to an official statement by an American consul in England, the familiar terms "German silver" and "German steel" have been dropped from the commercial language of the country, and instead the phrases "nickel silver" and "nickel steel" are being used.

If the war lasts long enough, perhaps a lot of Americans will come to realize that their existence does not depend on making a trip to Europe every year.

IDENTIFY THE RECIPIENTS.

Among the bills before the present congress is one to amend the postal regulations so that recipients of registered mail, either letters or parcels, must not only sign their names, but also give the place at which the letter or parcel was delivered.

Complaints have been made by merchants that the present system of requiring nothing but signatures is unsatisfactory and leads to errors and misunderstandings, and they are the ones who are seeking this change. They say it would help materially not only to identify recipients, but to establish the fact of the receipt.

The change sought is simple and the reasons for asking it appear reasonable. If the old system has proved inefficient and unsatisfactory in this respect, it would certainly be a benefit to the postal service to make this change in the regulations.

Only two Wisconsin men looked for gas leaks last year with lighted matches. No doubt the advocates of the literacy test will see a great significance in this fact.

TWANGING A FALSE STRING.

Players of stringed instruments are familiar with the string that is said to have "a wolf" in it. These strings have at some place an enlarged or a shrunken section, perhaps only a fraction of an inch long. When the string is vibrated it moves unevenly, owing to this irregularity, and the result is that instead of a clear, steady tone, it gives a wavering note, and sometimes even drops or rises as much as a full tone in the course of a couple of beats of time.

Such a string will ruin the performance of any selection, because it wrecks both the harmony and the sequence of tones. It jars on all who have to hear it.

Of the same character as the twanging of one of these false strings is the statement by the Philadelphia Inquirer that "it is hardly necessary to repeat for the fiftieth time that the alleged war tax is a mere subterfuge to cover the failure of the administration to raise money because of its low tariff duties."

This is a favorite charge by the Republican press and Republican talkers, and yet nothing could be more absurd, if one will only stop to think of the facts. How much better off would the country be if the Republican high tariff scale had been in effect when the war shut off the bulk of imports on which duties could be collected?

The war's effect on commerce left this country, as far as its income from the tariff is concerned, in the same position as the fisherman with the fishing season closed. Not even a Republican tariff law could bring in money when there was little on which to collect duties, and the very purpose of the Republican tariff was to squeeze all possible funds out of the American pocketbook.

Every time a newspaper or speaker tries to tell you that the war had nothing to do with the war tax, you can know that he is twanging on one of those false strings. The truth is that if we had been as dependent on tariff income as would have been the case under the Payne-Aldrich law, the deficiency caused by the war would have been so great that it would have taken a vastly heavier war tax to make up the difference than that which has been imposed by the present congress.

An aged prophetess in Abruzzi has scared the Italians by predicting that the worst earthquake of all will shake Italy on Jan. 25. As if Italy hadn't troubles enough already without that kind of talk!

THE BEANS ARE SPILLED.

There is a destiny in the affairs of nations. That was demonstrated at your Alamo and again in the Civil war, yet the magnificent resources of Mexico never will be given to mankind and that country never will come into its own until it is brought under the civilizing influences of the American flag. How and when that condition will be brought about is not for me to say at this time, but it is coming.

Of course you couldn't guess who said that—whether it was some Texas politician or some New York capitalist. Well, it was neither. Those words are part of a speech made at San Antonio, Tex., by Warren G. Harding, United States senator-elect from Ohio.

The words are doubly interesting because they effectually spill the beans out of the political bag that is devoted especially to this Mexican question. In other words, they will be accepted throughout the country as an expression of Republican sentiment regarding Mexico.

Who have been at President Wilson to interfere in Mexico? The interests that have mining and other concessions there; the interests that have taken the risk of Mexican investment on the chance and in the hope of making quicker and greater profits than they could in this country. As long as Diaz held power and they could buy their way to special favors, they were satisfied. Now that there is no Diaz to rule the country with a mailed fist, now that the chance they courted in making their investments is proving to be a fickle dame and is giving them a taste of what they defied, they want to abandon the original bargain and employ the power and resources of the whole United States government to help them out.

This has been the attitude, frankly, of some of these interests. Others have been less blunt. But it has fallen to the lot of a senator-elect from the state of Mark Hanna and of high tariff to link the scheme definitely with the Republican party. The great regret will be that the how and when are not to be revealed "at this time." If we could only get those data, perhaps the people could better save their own purses and their nation's integrity as a power that does not seek territorial aggrandizement.

How many seed catalogues have you received so far?

TRAFFIC ON THE LAKES.

Reports of lake carriers' organizations for the season recently closed show two things above all others—improvement in methods and greater care in operation.

President Livingston, to be sure, reported a falling off in the traffic as compared with the preceding year, but this can be accounted for in great part by the fact that, like many other operations which are compelled to stop at a given time whether or not the slate is entirely clean, lake traffic usually ends the season with a rush that takes in every available vessel; and last year the war put a sudden damper on all kinds of traffic just when this final rush would naturally have come about.

It is also to be noted that President Livingston predicted a greater year than ever for the coming season.

Of the improvement in the methods adopted by lake carriers much could be said. Antiquated ways of handling parts of the traffic on the lakes have been vigorously criticized, and though there is much room for improvement in that respect today, it is worth while to note that any improvement at all has been made. This increased efficiency has appeared in the fact that boats last year were not compelled to spend as much time loading and unloading and waiting idly in harbors as has frequently been the case. President Livingston was fully justified in congratulating the carriers on this improvement.

The greater care in operation appeared in the report that there was not a single case of total loss of vessel, cargo and crew on the Great Lakes in the entire season of 1914. In other years there has been severe criticism of the operation of lake boats in this respect. It has been charged that steamers were sent out in the face of storm warnings, and that in the effort to rush traffic to the utmost, owners have even gone so far as virtually to instruct ships' officers to take chances with the elements rather than risk a few hours' delay.

That such methods would necessarily lead to disaster and loss of both lives and property goes without saying. The statement that no total losses occurred in the year just passed may reasonably be taken to indicate that a greater measure of care has been adopted both by owners and officers.

It is probable that few parts of the country not directly associated with lake traffic conditions and possibilities realize the extent to which this immense chain of fresh water enters into the country's transportation affairs. Under the recent rulings of the interstate commerce commission it is reasonable to expect that this influence will be exerted more forcibly than ever, and it is reassuring to hear from one so well informed as the president of the Lake Carriers' association, the prediction of steadily increasing traffic on the lakes.

Also it is doubtful if the average farmer has half the trouble deciding what to plant on forty acres that the city man has deciding what to plant on forty square feet.

WATCHING WISCONSIN.

If any one state in the Union is being watched more than another during these days of legislative action or inaction, it is Wisconsin.

For a good many years Wisconsin has posed as the very latest thing in statehood. It has developed one idea after another in matters of legislation and management, and has been hailed by many as the most advanced of all the united states.

Now comes what looks like a revolt from this system. Some of the people claim the taxes have been raised altogether too high, considering what has been accomplished with the extra income. There have been charges of one kind or another made against the different boards that have been put in charge of the state's varied interests. In fact, the change in sentiment has become so marked that Governor Philipp himself announced that the state had undergone a complete change in policy, and was going to do its work now on an entirely different basis.

As if to back up the governor's statement, there appeared almost at the opening of the session of the legislature a movement to investigate all the numerous boards and commissions that have been intrusted with state affairs. The movement met with instant opposition, but it has not been dropped, and indications seem to be that it will at least lead to an inquiry into some branches of the state's operations.

What is to be the result of it all? Is Wisconsin to lose its place as progressive leader in the nation? Or is the charge of some of its heretofore displeased citizens—that the state was being made into an experiment station at the cost of the people—to be given credence?

It is impossible to tell as yet. But the fact remains that Wisconsin, more than any other one state, is this year being subjected to a close scrutiny by the economists of other states, and that which ever way the Badger state turns this year, her name and experience will be quoted even more in the future than in the past, when questions of the handling of state affairs are discussed.

Prof. Taft adds "fad-ridden" to the list of our adjectives. Now it is the other ex-president's turn.

The Bible in Journalism

President Nicholas Murray Butler of Columbia university lately lamented the "shocking ignorance," among the collegiates, of the Bible and of English literature. The discovery appears to have grown out of the examination of a large class in the school of journalism in that institution. We are not advised whether examinations in Bible literature are made more searching in Columbia's school of journalism than in other departments of that university. If they are, the fact is encouraging, as indicating that the men in charge of that particular school know well what they are about.

A wide knowledge of Scripture is a valuable aid, even to the cub reporter. If he has been well grounded in those great and basic truths of all possible human experience with which the book is filled "from kivver to kivver," he can go into that great new world opening before him not as a stranger, but as one who has felt, even if he has not yet seen, all of the drama and all of the tragedy of life, and very much of those human frailties and inconsistencies which, in our modern world, go into the making of humor. He will not be conscious of the sources he is drawing upon in being able to meet and deal, speedily and understandingly, with situations never before coming under his observation, but which he is to put into word pictures so that he who runs may not only read but feel. So he may come to be known as a graphic writer, and star reporter, and later as one who goes where the best men must do the best work. And by that time he will begin to understand what has helped him.

Great lawyers freely admit their indebtedness to Bible literature, but we have often thought that the law owes it less than journalism does. If the school of journalism in Columbia university is postponing the admission of young men until they are better qualified, through knowledge of Scripture, to lay the foundations of a career, it is doing well. Let them better qualify themselves by a reading of what is the deepest well of the water of real life ever sunk in this desert land. And if, after reading far into the Book, one fails to see that it is an epitome of all human experience, and that, knowing it, nothing can be so new to him that he will not know what to do with it, led him abandon journalism as a career. He might ride on its surface cars. But its elevateds and its subways are not for him.

Statesmen, Real and Near

By Fred C. Kelly.

Washington, Jan. 23.—(Special to The Herald.)—To excel in any given line of endeavor one must be like the successful vaudeville performer—always on the alert for new stuff.

Thus we have started our tale with a generality, but those who stick through the entire performance will find out in due course precisely what we are getting at.

Senator Hamilton Lewis, it might as well be stated without further ado, is to be our hero. He is a shining example of what a man may accomplish by being ever on the lookout for that which is neat, novel, and nifty; by seeking and finding; by observing and absorbing. In a sense, Lewis is the human up-to-the-minute. But this did not just happen. Verily, we are the carpenters and sculptors of our own fortunes, and James Hamilton Lewis' place in history was not gained by mere chance. He got where he is today in consequence of deep thought; in consequence of profiting by the experience and discoveries of others; by gaining good ideas where'er he could.

For example: A few nights ago Senator Lewis strolled into a Washington hotel dining room with a view to making a purchase of food.

He paused at a table to shake hands with a friend, and while there was introduced to a number of guests, including a prosperous business man from Philadelphia named Bourne.

After Lewis had got himself seated at his own table it began to sink into the consciousness of Bourne that somebody was staring at him. He was being stared at, in sooth, by a United States senator. The senator was none other than Hamilton Lewis of Illinois.

Now, it was the first time the Philadelphia visitor had ever been stared at by a United States senator. The thing was disconcerting. He felt of himself to make certain that he was fully attired and that nothing had come unfastened. Everything seemed to be all right, but still the senator stared.

Bourne called his companions' attention to the bit of phenomena, and all marveled with him.

"I beg your pardon," he began, in a tone so gracious as to dissolve any possible criticism. "I beg your pardon, I say, for my seeming impertinence. But I have been noticing your shirt. I can say to you without qualification that it is the only three-stud shirt I ever knew to lie so nice and flat. I once had a two-stud shirt that was very neat in that respect, but never a three-stud shirt. Where, if I may ask—again begging your pardon—did you buy your shirt?"

* * *

Senator O'Gorman, though a rather approachable statesman, is almost relentless in his dignity. In private committee meetings where other senators relax and call one another by their given names O'Gorman is just as dignified as if they were sitting for a moving picture. He still addresses his fellows as Senator This and Senator That.

One senator sizes up the situation like this:

"I'll venture to say that when O'Gorman is entirely alone even his thoughts are dignified."

Christianity.

Our religion is different from other religions and from modifications of Christianity, because it is true to its center. All religions contain truth, but the true religion contains all the truth. It gives us the truth in final form, the form of personality. "I am the truth," says the Christ, who also testifies that Satan was a liar from the beginning.—Rev. Lawrence Keister, D.D.

The Four Greatest Railroads

Lewis R. Freeman in the World's Work: When all the great railroad trunks of the world have been built, a decade or two hence, four of them will appear upon the map in heavy black, indicating that they surpass all others in importance. These will be: The Pan-American, from the Arctic wastes of Canada to the Straits of Magellan; the Trans-Siberian, from the Atlantic to the Pacific across Northern Europe and Asia; the Trans-Persian, or some other line, from the southeast of Europe to India, and the Cape-to-Cairo. The Pan-American and the Indo-European railways may surpass the Cape-to-Cairo as commercial arteries, and the Trans-Siberian will doubtless figure more potently as a strategic line, but for the sheer interest of the country traversed—for the picturesque variety and romantic appeal of the panoramas running like double cinematograph films past the car windows—the great African trunk can never know a rival. * * *

Six thousand miles, across 65 deg. of latitude; a score of climates and the lands of a hundred different peoples or tribes; the second longest of the world's rivers and two of its largest lakes; the greatest dam ever built, conserving water for the world's richest lands; the most imposing and ancient of all temples; the greatest waterfall, and the most important gold and diamond mines; and, finally, one of the last great expanses of real wilderness, the only place in the world where the wild beasts of the jungle may be seen in the primitive state from a train; all these seen, traversed, or experienced in twelve days! Surely, there can never be another such railway as this.

SATURDAY NIGHT TALK

Successors of Abraham.

The pioneer makes irresistible appeal to the imagination. It is the man who does the thing first who compels our homage. The Daniel Boones and John C. Fremonts who first found the way across plains and over mountains have left behind them records of never ceasing fascination. We follow our well-beaten and comfortable pathways because of the vision and the courage of these blazers of the trail.

Not otherwise is it as regards the sea. Sailors who skirt our modern-charted and lighted shores do not lack the respect of us landsmen. But those intrepid men who pushed out across uncharted seas—Columbus with his tiny caravels, Sir Francis Drake in his little Golden Hind—such as these win our abounding admiration. The ships of all time follow in their wakes.

Adventure of any sort will always come back to Abraham as its first and great hero. He it was who, first in recorded history, left a certainty for an uncertainty and pushed out into the unknown. A sublime picture it is, that of this hardy soul leaving, by divine command, his ancestral home in Ur of the Chaldees and going forth "not knowing whither he went."

He had embarked on a tremendous venture. He went not only to explore new lands, but to establish a new faith. His brethren believed in many gods—Abraham believed in one. While his neighbors beheld a diety in each tree and hill and river, this man had sensed the truth of monotheism and worshiped one Creator and Lord of all. The change in creed represented a new departure in human thinking.

And so, because his God had willed it, this man, the Father of the Faithful, pulled up his tent stakes, packed his goods, left behind every familiar scene, and set off across many a league of desert to an unknown country. Could more of epic grandeur be crowded into any life record than is in that of this dweller in the dawn of history? "By faith, Abraham, when he was called to go out into a place which he should after receive for an inheritance, obeyed; and he went out, not knowing whither he went."

Do I hear you remark that this is merely a yarn out of the foggy mists of antiquity? It is far more than that, my brother. It is a transcript of life, of what is happening every day to all the sons of men. The story is strictly up to the minute if you will rub out the ancient names and write in modern ones. We are all obliged to do exactly what Abraham did. We go out into the activities of each new day not knowing what lies before us.

Do you know what a single hour may bring forth in your life? Do you know where you will be at the end of this opening year—whether, indeed, you will even see the end of it here in the flesh? Do you know what experiences of joy or sorrow, of success or defeat the coming months are to bring you? Of all these things you are as completely ignorant as Abraham was of what was coming to him when he fared forth from Ur of the Chaldees into an untried country.

What gives the life of the patriarch eternal significance is his confidence in God. He did not know where he was going, but he knew that Jehovah knew—and that was enough. No man can be a victim of either fear or of sloth who is sure of that. They travel hopefully who can say with Whittier:

I only know I cannot drift beyond His love and care.

GARRULOUS ELOQUENCE

By SAVOYARD

Washington, Jan. 23.—(Special to The Herald.)—It would be an extremely difficult task to name an abler man in either house of our congress than Senator Burton of Ohio, the foremost intellect that great state has contributed to the national councils since the retirement of Allen G. Thurman and James A. Garfield from the American congress. It was a reflection on Ohio and a detriment to the country entire when for a little independence Mr. Burton was not allowed to stand for renomination and is to be succeeded in the senate by a volceful mediocrity of the standpat stripe.

But Mr. Burton cheapens himself. It announced that it is his purpose to speak for ten days in opposition to the policy of President Wilson which contemplates the purchase of foreign merchant craft and sailing them as a merchant marine to advance and promote our carrying trade on the high seas. No man in our public life can make a finer speech than Mr. Burton, but a ten-day speech is a monstrosity worthy a little mind only and not a great mind such as Burton is manifestly endowed with.

* * *

The senate ought to be a deliberate body where argument is employed to convince, or eloquence to persuade. No ten-day speech can be called an argument; certainly it is not eloquence. It is a filibuster. We could expect such a speech from Mr. Gallinger, who is opposed to any American merchant marine that is not spawn of a subsidy—the taxings of all the people for the advantage of a few of the people; but we expected better things from Burton, who is a thinker and a statesman.

If Wilson's proposal was to buy ships turned out in American yards only, then Gallinger and his set would be in for it up to the handle; but to buy an interned German ship, or other craft made in a foreign yard Mr. Gallinger considers same as treason or a little samer. The president's proposal is an experiment and the policy may not be sound, but it is worth the trial, as all other expedients in that behalf have heretofore failed.

* * *

In my time at this capital—and Conkling and Blaine were here when I first came—Thomas B. Reed was the most effective speaker when party politics was on deck that the Republican party has shown. He was not the orator Matt Carpenter was, but so far as I am advised Carpenter never made a purely political speech in the senate. Perhaps he was incapable of it, for he was a Democrat with a Republican label.

The longest speech Tom Reed ever made in the American congress was less than one hour and a half in delivery—his speech closing the debate on the William L. Wilson tariff in 1894, for the minority side of the question. It was a great, a brilliant, a magnificent effort, and had it been a two-day speech it would have been stupid, just as Burton's speech surely will be if it lasts ten days.

* * *

John G. Carlisle never made a speech that consumed two hours in its delivery during all his career. He was the political rival of Reed. In some respects he had a finer mind than Reed's and in others Reed was his master, and these two giant intellects always knew when to quit, and each sat down when he had exhausted the subject from his standpoint. One day I heard Tom Reed disagree with his colleague, Milliken, as to the respective excellence of George Evans and Pitt Fessenden. Reed gave the palm to the latter because he had never made a speech that required an hour in its delivery. However, there be folk who contend that George Evans only required decency in private life to have contested with Webster himself for first place among all the Northern men in our public life for mental superiority. He worshipped Webster and was content to be his follower rather than his rival.

The late David Turpie, a wonderful man, a perfect master of our tongue and a holy terror in debate, declared that he would not dare characterize any remarks of the Hon. Henry Cabot Lodge delivered in the United States senate as a "speech." He admitted that when that gentleman rose to a question in that awful body it was always and ever an "address," but Lodge in his great "address" rarely inflicted on the senate two hours of his stately and pedantic eloquence. Possibly Lodge is the only man in either house who ever quoted eloquence. Possibly Lodge is the only man in either house who ever quoted Greek in the original in an "address." How small Lodge must feel as he contemplates the Mexican paragraph of Woodrow Wilson's Indianapolis speech!

If you will turn to the trial of Andy Johnson you will find that the two greatest speeches were made by counsel for the respondent—Mr. Curtis and Mr. Evarts. Ben Butler says that when Curtis finished opening for the defense the trial was virtually over, and his speech did not occupy one entire sitting of the senate. Evarts was several days making his speech, and, great as it was, it does not compare with that of Curtis, who spoke less than two hours.

It would be a great thing for our country if that useless publication, the Congressional Record, were suspended. Do that and congress will finish its annual job in half the time. I am sometimes persuaded that when our country shall pass in its checks as a leader of the nations the verdict of the "crowner's quest" will be couched in words like this: "Died of garrulity."

THE SHORT BALLOT

II—ARMED DEMOCRACY

By H. S. GILBERTSON,
Executive Secretary, The National Short Ballot Organization.

Last year, during the strike troubles in Colorado, the governor was confronted with the problem of maintaining peace and order in the disturbed portions of the state. The Constitution gave him considerable discretion. It named him chief executive of the state, and when he took office he obligated himself to enforce the laws.

The governor sincerely desired to enforce the laws and to uphold the dignity of the state, but the instant he sought to put the administrative machinery of the state in motion he realizer that, in the first place, the principal agencies at his hand were not subordinate to him except in theory, and that with one exception they were inclined to work at cross purposes to his policies. The reason for their insubordination was that they were not selected by the governor himself, but by the people of the state, and since they derived their authority from the same source as himself, they felt at perfect liberty to interpret the laws of the state for themselves. Nor is it a justification for their point of view that the enforcement of the laws by militia was objectional to a large class of citizens. The laws may have been right or wrong. Either it was right or it was wrong to enforce them. But in neither case was there any logic in leaving the responsibility for exercising important state functions open to doubt.

And so, in this very critical situation, the machinery of government in Colorado broke down. Social conditions arose which approximated the conditions of civil war, and it became necessary to call upon Washington for aid.

This was the logical outcome of long-ballot government. Had the people of Colorado, under their Constitution, given the governor the same power to choose proper instruments for executing their wishes; had they made the principal state officers actually as well as nominally subordinate to the governor, it would have been impossible for the latter to escape responsibility, even if he had so desired.

The governors of nearly every state are just as powerless! Their weakness is seldom brought out in the sensational way as in the Colorado situation. But in the conduct of the regular day's work the various departments work in their separate orbits, sometimes at odds with each other, often duplicating each other's work. The wise governor knows better than to interfere, but he knows perfectly well that in any crisis the whole machinery would prove inadequate, and that every day it is militating against the proper enforcement of the laws and the most economical management of the state's affairs.

It is doubtless due, in large measure, to the form of organization which goes with the long ballot that so many powers formerly exercised by the states over great industrial organizations have been taken from them and diverted gradually into the hands of the Federal government, which, being organized on a short-ballot basis, is equipped for dealing competently with the problems of the country.

BELGIUM'S FUTURE---BY EDWARD A. FILENE

Vice President of International Congress of Chambers of Commerce Tells How to Solve the Problem Not Only of Feeding, But of Reconstructing a Paralyzed Country, Restoring Its Credit and Giving Work to Its People.

Edward A. Filene, the Boston merchant, has written this article for the Commission for Relief in Belgium, 71 Broadway, New York, which is the general shipping and clearing house for this relief work, and the only one recognized by the powers at war.

Before one can visualize the Belgium of today one must recall the Belgium of yesterday—the busy, prosperous, densely populated, happy little Belgium of yesterday.

Today she lies cold and desolate, under a black pall of hopeless misery, full of bitter hatred for the nation that has destroyed her happiness. Her fields are plowed by the enemy's shells, many of the public buildings in her cities are gone, thousands of her people are dead or have fled to other lands.

Her roads are empty except for soldiers, peasants foraging for food, and hopeless families, returning in desperation to their former homes. Her factories are closed. There is no raw material in the country and no money to buy raw material to manufacture, no railroads or ships to bring it in if it were possible to secure it elsewhere, no means of getting manufactures out of the country.

There are practically no telegraphs, no banking facilities, no postal system available and no newspapers of their own. Each day two one-sheet papers are published in Brussels, but the Belgians declare these are in reality German papers and believe nothing in them.

With nothing of their own, they are hemmed in at every move by German restrictions. German prohibitions and warnings placard the walls of their cities. The Belgians have copied many of these and sell them surreptitiously in pamphlet form. To do this is running a risk both for the seller and buyer. Here is a sample of these proclamations:

"Brussels, Aug. 31, 1914.

"No notices may be published by the city government without my permission.

"THE MILITARY GOVERNOR."

The three following notices are of a different type, issued by the military governor with the statement that they are published as a warning and that in future acts of a similar nature will be even more drastically punished:

"Sept. 14, 1914.

"Van Der Hagen, Joan, laborer, for resisting a German sentinel in pursuit of his duty. Six months in prison.

"Verheyden, Hortense, a widow, grave offense against German army and one of its members. A year in prison.

Needless to say—with no news from the outside, with nothhing before their eyes but such printed reminders of their subjugation, the desolate fields where once were harvest fields, piles of bricks where once were homes, with food growing scarcer and scarcer until they find themselves dependent on the generosity of alien nations across the sea for their bread during the coming winter—that the bitter hopelessness in the hearts of thousands of idle men and women bids fair to rival the misery of their material conditions.

How Belgium is Isolated.

Unless one has actually seen the hunger of these people for authentic news one cannot understand. I have seen $8 paid for one copy of the London Times and have heard that another copy brought $40. They meet in groups in the cities, the villages and the fields, read the German proclamations posted on the walls, talk of and wait and hope for the conquering allies. False rumors of victory run like wildfire through the larger cities. I myself was one day drawn secretly into a doorway by a man and offered a typed copy purporting to be the account of an ally victory for 10 cents. These reports are sized up by the people and believed until the last shred of hope is torn from them. Until the Germans were in actual occupation of Brussels the Belgians believed that the allies were almost at their gates with aid. They believe it yet. They cannot believe that they have been permanently conquered. But fast prisoners as they are, with even the carrier pigeons watched and the owners object to German martial law, they can do nothing but hope and wait.

The Psychology of the Problem.

In any consideration of the state of affairs in Belgium today very serious account may be taken of the psychological side. In my personal opinion it is as serious and as dangerous as the prospect of actual famine. Already among certain classes it has hindered some efforts to bring the Belgian people together for the first steps of rehabitation. It should not be forgotten that for years the Belgian working people have used the local and general labor strike as a protest against working conditions that, in their opinion, were intolerable. It has been their one method of industrial warfare.

Today, those not actually fighting in the ranks are using the same methods. I do not mean, of course, that they are at present actually refusing work. That is not so; for as yet the chaotic conditions can furnish no work. What I do mean is that among themselves the people are saying: "To build up our country again is, under present conditions, to build it up for Germany. We believe none of their guarantees for our security. They destroyed our neutrality. They will break every promise they make. If tomorrow we could all return to our factories, the Germans might confiscate every article we put out. We cannot trust them. Those of us who are not fighting one way, may still fight another. We can hurt Germany this way. Better to die by inches than help Germany in the smallest degree."

For this reason, any plan to help Belgium to a permanent restoration, to give back to her people their self-respect, or rather their initiative—for their self-respect, their pride, they have never lost; in other words, to build them back again into a nation—must run along two lines.

First, of course, they must be kept alive. Famine must be averted.

Second, they must be rehabilitated. They must go back to work.

Neither task will be easy. Each presents difficulties that seem from some angles insurmountable. To get a clear understanding of these two problems it is necessary to discuss them separately. Let us first deal with the problem of simply keeping the Belgians alive.

1. At the lowest estimate there are still within Belgium from four to five million people.

2. At the lowest possible rate one must allow ten cents a day for the bare maintenance of each adult. This would provide just enough food and fuel to insure life.

All through the diary which I kept I find entries like this even as early as the first week of October.

"Bread is scarce," a woman told me.

"Coal is $10 a ton—it is usually about $4."

"Petroleum is scarce and rapidly getting scarcer."

"Bread is scarce; city government has fixed the amount available for each buyer at two and one-fifth pounds. The city government makes up the loss to the baker."

Brussels alone is feeding 200,000 people and as one man put it, "We do not get enough to live on, and yet we get too much to be able to die."

Everywhere throughout Belgium there is a marvelously simple generosity—it is as if all were saying: "I have no right to more than another."

At the funeral of an important Belgian, the simplest of hearses was followed by only three members of the family on foot. They felt that they had no right to expend on the dead money needed for the living.

The Sacrifices Made.

One morning a friend and I went into a small bakeshop. It was early enough so that a small amount of bread was still on hand. Through years of hard labor the baker had succeeded in getting two tiny shops. For the population of both these shops she is allowed to buy only 220 pounds of flour a day. At the fixed price at which she is allowed to sell, her profit amounted to nine francs, from which she had to pay her rent, her help and keep her family.

Only a short time remained before she would have to give up. The odds were too great. While my friend and I were talking—and here let me say that American citizenship is an open sesame into the very hearts of the Belgians—two little boys came in, one about 9, the other perhaps 7. They came in silently, the older pushing the younger forward. We stopped talking.

In a deathly stillness these hungry mites advanced. They came slowly, slowly towards us, their eyes on the bread. Then they stopped. With trembling lips the woman shook her head—she could not. There were only a few loaves—such a few loaves. Three days at the most stretched between her own family and starvation. Slowly, slowly, without a word, the two little boys backed out. They understood.

If she could have done it she would. They accept the conditions with the stoicism of necessity. Still with their eyes on the bread, they went, silent as they had come, the big one drawing the little one gently away. When they had reached the door, the woman suddenly burst into sobs, and seizing two of the loaves from her tiny store, rushed after them and thrust a loaf under the arm of each of the children. Then she came back and cried and cried.

On another day, while going on business through a country district I came on a family trudging wearily along the road. They carried a few vegetables in their hands. I halted the auto and insisted on giving them a lift to their home. They had walked two hours to get that handful of vegetables. There had been no bread distribution that day.

One might go on forever enumerating cases like these. Such is the condition of the people. Remember I am talking of early October. Try to picture then what it is going to take to keep the people alive, say, at the very lowest estimate, for the next months; that is until the next harvest comes around.

Waiting for Next Harvest.

We will leave out of consideration the possibilities or probabilities of there being a next harvest or of the conditions being such that a harvest can be sown in time. We will deal simply with quantity. Perhaps a list of what was requisitioned by the Germans for the support of their soldiers in Brussels alone for four days will not only give some idea of the quantity of food needed to ration a number of men, but by a process of subtraction will paint vividly the pitiful resources left to the Belgians themselves.

Brussels, August 20-21—40,000 pounds of bread, 23,000 pounds of farina, 13,000 pounds rice or its equivalent in potatoes, the ratio to be 5 pounds of potatoes to one of rice; 1,300 pounds roasted coffee, 220 pounds salt, 22,000 pounds sugar, 158,000 pounds hay, 1,300 pounds cocoa.

August 21—An increase over the preceding day's list: 66,000 pounds of bread, 11,000 pounds smoked meat, 37,000 pounds living cattle, 22,000 pounds rice or similar grains, 3,000 pounds coffee, 3,700 pounds salt, 264,000 pounds hay, 370,000 pounds tea, 3,700 pounds sugar, 1,500 pounds cocoa, 22,00 liters wine.

August 22—44,000 pounds of bread, 44,000 pounds flour, and the same quantity of other things as on the preceding days.

August 23—66,000 pounds of bread, and same quantity of other things as on the preceding days.

With these requisitions went the command that if the things were not furnished then the Belgians of Greater Brussels (which includes the suburbs of the city) would be required to pay a fine of double the market value for every article not furnished.

All this was in addition to the 50,000,000 francs already levied in cash on Greater Brussels and the 450,000,000 francs on the province of Brabant, and bear in mind that it must be furnished by a country without harvest, without work shops; a country that has depended on her imports for fully 60 per cent of her own food.

Despair That Breeds Desperation.

Then you will get some idea of the despair of these people, which is breeding among them rebellion and hatred; and there, I think, is where the greatest danger to the cities that are still undestroyed lies today. For the fact that their women and children are starving may lead any day to some act by a few men which will cause very drastic reprisal on the part of the Germans. For it is a German war measure to fasten upon an entire city the responsibility for the acts of its citizens and to punish the community. I was told that one of the suburbs of Brussels was fined $200,000 because one telephone wire had been cut, but I am not sure that the statement was true. And even if it is true, it is only just to remember that the Germans interpret all these acts as measures of war. Personally I have seen none of the atrocities attributed to the Germans and in every case of such a claim in which I pushed investigation to the bottom, I have been unable to prove them. I have found that the rumors sprang from one-sided evidence or personal terror.

It should be evident to thinking people that the Germans do not want the Belgians to starve. On the contrary, it is very easy to see that it is greatly to Germany's advantage that food should reach the Belgians promptly. A dead nation will be no good to Germans, but a Belgium as it was before the war, one of the most densely populated and prosperous among the small nations, would be a good asset. Therefore, the Germans are sending out calls for the exiled Belgians to return and the call is being answered by thousands. Whole families are coming, carrying back their pitiful belongings to their devastated villages. In some sections the roads are crowded with people, old grandmothers, fathers, mothers, little children, dragging their few possessions on any kind of a vehicle they can get hold of—hand and dog-drawn carts, makeshift wagons, or baby carriages—and usually surmounting the whole is a wee baby. To what are they returning?

The Home-Comers.

They are coming blindly back, as a wounded animal seeks its home. There are many among their clearest thinkers who regret it. They think they see very clearly the German policy in urging it. Desperate men and women, they say, will clutch at the straw nearest. If in any way Germany can identify herself with the reconstructed homes, the Belgian peasant in time may come to accept the German yoke. That, at least, is the belief of those who are against the return of the peasants to their homes. Personally, from what I have seen of the people, I do not agree with this view. I have talked with many of them; for they talked freely to Americans, whom they have come to trust through their great admiration for Brand Whitlock, the American minister in Brussels, who has done remarkable work on their behalf.

I believe that the hatred of the Belgian people for the Germans will not be wiped out for generations. It goes too deep. No matter what prosperity might come to the Belgians from that source, they will never forget that Germany laid waste their land and killed their loved ones in the first place. Nowhere, in town or city, have I seen the least evidence of a relenting on the part of the Belgians; I have never seen groups of Germans and Belgians together. This is true from the top to the bottom of the social scale, from the lady to the street-walker. They walk apart on the same sidewalks as if in separate worlds.

Unprecedented then as is the task of feeding the Belgians, the difficulties in the way of rehabilitating them are even more evident. In fact, under the existing conditions they seem almost impossible. Nevertheless, there are devoted men there with whom I was invited to consult, who are anxious to do all in their power to help their country find itself again.

At their request I pointed out some things which might be accomplished and which might help the situation in some degree, from the very fact that through them their best administrative leaders still remaining would be drawn together and thus form a nucleus of stability from the present chaotic conditions. It would not matter so much if the immediate gains were small. The plans necessitated getting permission from the Germans to bring in raw material, and then to export the manufactured articles—for Germany controls every means of transportation. Then it was necessary to make arrangements in England for the marketing of the articles exported.

The First Work Given to Belgians.

For many reasons the making of lace handkerchiefs and collars seemed the best starting point. In the first place the making requires no machinery and the raw material could be most easily imported on the backs of men and exported in the same way if necessary. Then many of their women were already familiar with the work, and it is simple enough so that large numbers of them could be easily taught. Moreover, there is always a demand for such articles, and in this case it semed likely there would be an additional sentimental demand. Moreover they would be of no value to the army.

So the work has been organized to proceed on a large scale, and arrangements have been made with a number of large retail houses in England to market them up to a certain number. After that it is planned to begin to supply the American market.

In addition to these initial steps, money is greatly needed. There is now under discussion a plan to raise a loan of $200,000,000. It will have to be on a firm business basis. There is no more gold in the country. Whatever money the Belgian national government, now at Havre, might be able to raise would be largely needed for the army and for actually running the government. On the other hand the communities of Belgium, the cities and towns, are so democratically constituted that they are naturally good agents for this purpose.

It is proposed to ask each community how much they would like to borrow for immediate needs, supposing such amounts could be obtained. What each would make itself responsible for and, if further legalization was necessary, to take the necessary steps through the central government. This total amount needed by the pooled communities to be raised in America and England, by issuing, through banking houses and the other proper channels, bonds sold at a rate of interest that would make them marketable at par and be issued in small enough denominations to be subscribed for by everyone who has Belgian sympathies. These buyers would be sure of a reasonably safe investment; for with this loan added to their existing debts, the total indebtedness per inhabitant in Belgium is less than the total indebtedness per inhabitant of France, whose credit has not been doubted.

Each community would get by this plan what it had subscribed for, minus 5 per cent, which 5 per cent would be held back as a guarantee to pay the debt of anyone or more of the communities that by any chance would be unable to meet their requirements on the maturity of the bonds. And if this sum was not needed by other communities it would go back to its original community.

If they can agree to undertake it, the psychological effect of such a reconstructive effort would be of inestimable value to them, and the world at large, seeing that they were taking all possible means to help themselves, would probably be much more liberal in their giving toward the immediate relief which is so necessary.

Reconstruction Difficulties.

Whichever way one looks at the problem of the saving and rehabilitation of the Belgian people, there are many and great difficulties to be met. The country is overturned and so devastated, and the condition of the people is such that it is almost hopeless to plan methods which require peace and stability for their execution. I think the logical, scientific solution which would occur to anyone spending a few weeks of study in Belgium would be to get the women and children out of the country, and keep them out until the war is over. Whether this is practically possible, or whether they will go, are other questions. Personally, I regret the return of the peasants to their homes, and their pitiful attempts to reconstruct them. For everywhere the Germans are repairing the forts, and it is probably inevitable that the tide of battle will roll back; and if it does, they will fight as long as they can on Belgian soil.

Besides this danger, there is that other possibility which I have mentioned before—the possibility that the intense hatred which the Belgians feel toward the Germans, and the great strain to which lack of food for their women and children are subjecting them, will cause attempts from time to time to interfere with German lines of communication or even resort to desultory firing on German soldiery, that would inevitably result in the Germans punishing the entire community in which such an attempt occurred, for it is a military necessity that their lines of communication through Belgium should be kept intact, and they cannot discover individual offenders.

Rehabilitation is important, but the difficulties in the way are great and will take much time and study to overcome. In the meantimo, it is necessary to keep the people from starving if we are to have them to rehabilitate.

CORNERING SPORT THOUGHT FOR A QUIET LITTLE CONVERSATION

Mike Yokel Declares He Will Meet Winner of Ketonen-Miller Contest—Pal Brown Is Again Matched With Joe Mandot—Port Arthur Has Great Hockey Team—Good-by, Marty—Gibbons and Clabby Once Again.

BY BRUCE.

MIKE R. YOKEL, "Old Mike" Yokel of Salt Lake City, today announced his intention of meeting the winner of the Ketonen-Miller contest. The response upon the part of the Utah wonder came in a telegraphic communication in answer to the query of Promotor Tilt Lewis.

Not only this—Yokel has stated that he can and will do 158 pounds ringside, just as Ketonen and Miller are going to do in the contest that is attracting so much attention and that promises to prove the greatest match yet wrestled in Duluth.

With the opportunity of meeting the Rocky Mountain Lion, and with all the money going to the winner of the struggle between the little Finn and the proud little Pole, fans are looking forward to one of the most bitter contests that has ever been wrestled in this portion of the Northwest.

As the intervening time elapses the Miller followers are becoming imbued with more confidence. The really wonderful form of the little Pole is the cause for this. Stories of the daily performances of Walter in his training with Henry Ordeman, Dan Larkin and Tommy Russell are being bruited about. The final week will be spent by the Pole in Chicago.

From Lincoln, Neb., come also stories of the remarkable form of Ketonen. Lincoln is a great stronghold of the grappling game. The fans out there declare Ketonen is the greatest of the 158 pounders and stand ready to back him liberally against Miller.

Ketonen's Lord Lonsdale belt arrived yesterday. The little Finn will arrive in Duluth the coming week and will put the finishing touches of his training on here.

Brown Matched Again.

PAL BROWN hopped off the Milwaukee rattler yesterday and between trains took occasion to state that he was again matched with Joe Mandot. According to the statement made by the range battler, Pal and the French Market boy are to meet before the Twin Ports Athletic club on the evening of Feb. 22.

Before leaving for the Gibbons-Clabby fight, Brown and the faithful Colie Munroe held a lengthy conference with Sig Abrams. At Milwaukee, Brown and Munroe got in touch with Tommy Walsh, manager of Joe Mandot. As a result of the two conferences the match has been definitely announced as being on again.

It might also be stated that Brown gave it as his verdict that Gibbons had it on Clabby from every angle of the game. According to the version of the rising young citizen of Chisholm, Minn., Gibbons outboxed the Hammond flash completely and left absolutely no remaining doubt of his supremacy—at least of his supremacy over the 10-round route.

Our Canadian Friends.

THIS column wishes to take this opportunity of paying a glowing compliment to the members of the Port Arthur Hockey team. We doff our chapeau to them, individually and as a team; you're there, lads, and as sportsmen we offer sweet salutation.

Edward Furni's solution of the wizardly ability of these Canadian companions, is that the Dominionites are reared with a pair of skates and a hockey stick. Be that as it may, the succulent fact remains that in stick handling and skating these players seem to outclass the American players.

The exhibition of last evening was a classic; a de luxe edition, bound in gilded leather covering.

Our team was defeated fairly and the better team won. Such checking, so superb a defense, and such speedy work on the wings has seldom been exhibited on the local ice. Body checking was seldom resorted to. But in agile and effective use of their sticks and in hooking the elusive puck, again "How," to the clever players from the Head of the majestic Canadian Lakes.

The Port Arthur team for the most part played two men down the ice with the puck and one man trailed along behind. In the event of a pass being short, the third man was there and took up the thread of the hockey yarn.

Opposed to this system of offense and one might say defense, was the method of Duluth of playing three and four men with the rubber. Who shall say which is the better method of attack and defense?

In passing permit us to say that the Thunder Bay outfit is a sweet one—and one, laddie, that will take a lot of beating. It is also a team of which the good fur-hatted people of Port Arthur should be justly proud.

Good-Bye, Marty.

FOR the past week we have had in our municipal midst Marty Forkins. As a former leader among the boxing managers of this country, and as a clean-cut boy with clever ideas and a decent conception of the ethics of the sporting game, it has been a rare pleasure to mingle with the stranger during the passing week.

Forkins is the new type of sport promoter. The old type is slowly passing. A cultured lad, a man more like a collegian than a sporting man in appearance and conversation, let us say that prejudice against boxing will vanish when more of the Marty Forkins become identified with the game.

Another Match Required.

ADMITTING that Gibbons had it on Clabby in the hurricane contest battled in Milwaukee Thursday evening, we voice our opinion that boxing fans from Bangor, Maine, to the southern extremities of the gulf will wail for a decision over the palpitating route of 20 rounds.

Don't forget this, people—Clabby is one fighting fool. He is a fiend at the 20-round route. He is a body fighter and a body fighter never looks particularly good in ten sessions. We for one would not pull too strong for Gibbons over the Derby route.

In Australia and again on the coast, Clabby made all of his fights at 20 rounds. In fact the majority of his battles have been made at the longer going. This is not meant in the least to intimate that Clabby is the better man of the two. For long months we have waved hands aloft and sounded the toesin for Michael Clancy Gibbons; but, and buts are often ominous—we do think that Clabby's chances would be greatly enhanced as the length of the going was drawn out.

Clabby was coming strong in the final round at Beerville. Before risking part of the weekly stipend on the chances of either boy in a 20-round go, we would hesitate long and fondly and whistle several bars of popular music.

END OF HEARING IS IN SIGHT

Attorney for Organized Baseball Emphasizes "Unclean Hands" Idea.

Chicago, Jan. 23.—Charges of "unclean hands" and hypocrisy were made against the Federal league yesterday by George W. Miller, who presented what is believed will be the concluding argument on the side of organized baseball in the anti-trust suit brought by the Federals. He declared a temporary injunction asked by the Federals would destroy an institution it had taken organized baseball forty years to build.

In support of his charges, Miller cited instances in which he said the Federals had signed players under contract with clubs in organized ball; the sections of the Federal league contracts he alleged correspond to the criticised ten-day and reserve rules; and the alleged justification of raids by the plaintiff on the ten-day clauses.

Quoting at length from the affidavit of Roger Bresnahan, Miller emphasized the portion where Bresnahan said he had been told by Federal league emissaries they would have a street cut through the grounds of the St. Louis Nationals. This, the lawyer contended, strengthened his charge of "unclean hands."

The end of the hearing is in sight. It was said, when the statement by E. E. Gates, counsel for the Federals, had been concluded, probably today. Judge Landis would take the case. None of the attorneys would hazard a guess when a decision would be announced.

SOPHS LEAD IN SWIMMING

Third-Year Athletes in Central High Are Year's Champions.

By a score of 40 to 37, the sophomores of Central high school yesterday defeated the juniors in the championship swimming meet. The juniors had formerly won from the seniors by a score of 50 to 36 and the sophomores had easily disposed of the lowly "freshies." The meeting between these two unefeated teams yesterday was to decide the school championship and by their victory the sophomores win the banner which is presented each year by the boys' department of the Y. M. C. A. Last year the present juniors, then sophomores, won the championship, but this season their leader and star performer, "Fat" Hall, was unable to participate, thus lowering their chances considerably. There were several crack "ducks" in the junior class this year, however, and they came very nearly winning the school honors. All of the class teams were exceptionally good this year and swimming now holds a high place among high school sports.

The meet yesterday was witnessed by a large crowd and was a thriller throughout. Some exceptionally good records were made and it was shown that there are many good swimmers in school. The individual star performer of the meet was "Ollie" Maggard, the sandy-haired "soph." There were several others who did remarkably well and contributed in a large measure to the success of the affair. Burns and Auxer, who tied for second place in the individual honors, were both in the limelight at all times. With the two teams practically tied, it was up to the relay race to decide the winner. This was the most exciting event of the meet and the finish was sensational. The junor team, composed of Burns, Thorp and Auxer, was pitted against the stars of the sophomore class in Paine, Peterson, Parsons and Maggard. Up until the time that Maggard dropped into the water the juniors were leading by a scant margin, but by sensational work of the "soph" star the second-year men were finally returned the winners. A complete summary of the results and scores is given below:

Twenty-yard dash—First, Burns; second, Maggard; third, Auxer; time, 11 3-5 seconds.

Forty-yard dash—First, Maggard; second, Burns; third, Auxer; time, 27 seconds.

Plunge for distance—First, Watts; second, tie between Thorp and Auxer; distance, 36 feet, 9 inches.

One hundred-yard swim—First, Peterson; second, Maggard; third, Auxer; time, 1 minute, 29 3-5 seconds.

Twenty-yard back swim—First, Paine; second, Maggard; third, Burns; time, 15 4-5 seconds.

Four-cross dives—First, Auxer; second, Parsons; third, Burns.

Floating contest—First, Thorp; second, Parsons; third, Walker; time, 8 minutes, 35 seconds.

Dives — First, Stenerwald, 1,223 points; second, Parsons, 1,188 points; third, Peterson, 1,176 points.

The individual scores were as follows: Maggard, 14; Burns, 10; Auxer, 10; Parsons, 9; Thorp, 7; Peterson, 6; Paine, 5; Stenerwald, 5; Watts, 5; Walker, 1.

In a game replete with fast play and exciting from start to finish, the Big Duluth hockey team last evening defeated the fast Northern hardware team by the score of 5 to 3 at the French rink.

So close was the game that it was necessary to play a ten-minute overtime period to decide the issue.

No goals were scored in the first half. At the close of the second half the score was 3 to 3. In the extra period of play Olson and Miller shot goals, Miller making a net in one minute and Miller shooting his in just four minutes after the start of the overtime period.

All the way through there was no advantage. First one team would show some slight edge and then the other team would show a burst of speed and offset this. It was one of the best games ever seen at the West end rink and showed with emphasis the class of the league hockey.

Canadian Visitors Take First Game By Score of 5 to 2.

Last evening the Duluth Curling club hockey team met its Waterloo—and it was another Wellington who contributed largely to the overthrow.

Port Arthur trimmed us decisively by the count of 5 to 2. The score faithfully represents the difference in strength between the two teams, as represented by the play of the initial contest.

At the end of the first half the speedy and aggressive Thunder Bay outfit led by the score of 2 to 1. Shortly after the opening of the second period Mahan of Duluth tied the count. Then the visitors seemed suddenly to call upon their reserve strength. Up here we think we have seen some fast hockey games—we thought we had; last evening, after the elapse of nine minutes of play in the second half, the charge of the Thunder Bays made the eyes of onlookers pop and jaws gape.

Wellington a Star.

Whalen registered in the initial eight minutes of play. Mahan executed one of the most brilliant shots ever registered in a local net at the conclusion of 19 minutes. From clear over against the boards, about a midway from center ice, Jack shot. The lift was a beauty, and went straight as a die into the net.

Then Servais came back right before closing time in the initial period and in close scrimmage, received a pretty pass from Whalen and slammed the rubber by the vigilant guard of Nicholson.

Things are Started

Some berobed enthusiast up high in the seats yelled forth that the second half would swing the turn of battle. Most of the loyal followers of Duluth confidently believed that condition would tell; that Linder and gallant cohorts would sally forth in the concluding period and play the Canadian speed merchants off their feet.

It was not so. The play of the Port Arthur collection of wizards was fast in the opening period—it was meteoric in the deciding half. The boys from up yonder let out several links and simply smothered our defense. Thi playing in a period of 15 minutes was simply brilliant. Adjectives whine at the imposed task of adequately describing the remarkable exhibition.

Wellington was substituted at the start of the second half for Bruce. There is where the trouble started. Wellington has had a game ankle. They were told to be careful of this chap before the Porth Arthurs left home. What would Wellington do with two good ankles? Let X represent the unknown quantity.

After Mohon took a pretty rebound shot off the boards in the rear of the net and slammed it through the almost invulnerable guard of Bell, the local followers fondly imagined the turn had come. Up to this time Duluth had been forming pretty three-abreast combinations and taking the puck right down to the very portal of the Thunder Bay net.

Here Wellington started. Alone he dashed up the ice, like the speed of the vaulting wind, and from near the boards, at a healthy distance, executed a beautiful shot that placed the visitors in the lead.

Just exactly one minute after this the duke of Wellington further shattered the fond hopes of Napoleon Linder by shooting another beautiful shot from side ice. Vision of "Ham" Baker.

Just as Ed Furni was about to give the final call for the end of the game, Whalen and Wellington came down the ice. Back and forth they passed the rubber, executing some clever passes and displaying some beautiful stick handling. Whalen shot old Mister Puck over and this Wellington chap shot it in. Poor Pauline.

Some Old Game.

She was a grand game. Come tonight and see another. The defense of the Port Arthur team was simply amazing. Bell at goal is a wonder. He was bombarded at various times and stopped them with his skates, stick and manly chest. Bell should be given three rahs and a tiger.

Wellington, of course, carried off stellar honors. But Ryan was there, and so was Whalen and so was Servais. But what's the use. It is futile to attempt to pick individual stars from the high level of efficiency of the Thunder Bay aggregation. It was not individual play that won so much as the magnificent team work and the superlative defense.

Linder played a bear of a game. Mohon was off in shooting. Barkell missel several golden opportunities. Mahan was there at every stage of the game, caging one beautiful puck and missing one—if he did—by an inch. Some thought that Jack really did make this cage, but the goal judge ruled no. Gil Bogan worked beautifully on defense with Captain Joe. Arnie Olson worked effectively. Port Arthur indulged in no body checking, playing the puck with consummate finish and deadly effect. The remarkable defense of the visitors broke up Duluth's combination play again and again and was, outside of brilliant playing of Wellington and Whalen, the greatest factor in the defeat of the Linderites.

SPORTING EVENTS OF THE WEEK AS SEEN BY THE HERALD CARTOONIST

TWENTY-SECOND ANNUAL CURLERS' BONSPIEL IS DRAWING TO A CLOSE

Three Duluth Rinks Will Fight Out the Minneapolis Event.

A sensational ending was reached in the Patrick-Duluth event late yesterday, when after the contest was apparently won by E. J. Rochon and William Carson of Winnipeg, "Cam" Chisholm, playing as a city with Montgomery's Port Arthur rink, laid four stones in the final head and tied up the aggregate score.

Rochon defeated Montgomery in the finals for the Patrick trophy by a 7 to 6 score, but Chisholm came from behind, with old Bill Carson leading by three points, and laid his four end, making the final result a tie. One extra end was played by the four rinks to determine the winner. There was a "bald head" in the Rochon-Montgomery contest. Montgomery laid his final rock, Rochon took it out and just curled out of the final circle in so doing.

Old Bill Carson lay two rocks before Chisholm's final shot. Chisholm drew to the button and lay shot. It was a wide open shot for Carson's final rock, and he took "Cam's" rock out and won the contest.

A huge gallery watched the finalists fight it out. At the conclusion of the Rochon-Montgomery contest Rochon's men packed their rocks and started for the train. Then it was shouted from the housetops that "Little Willie" Carson had been laid by the heels and fallen for a four head. Mr. Rochon used choice and forceful expletives. Back came Rochon and his men. The extra head, the dramatic piece of curling literature of the spiel, was played off, and when roading Bill Carson let go his last rock you could have heard a pin fall.

Duluth in the Finals.

Ralph Bradley defeated McNabb yesterday in one of the greatest games of the spiel. This was in the Minneapolis Curling club event. The game went thirteen ends, Bradley laying three in the final head. At the end of the ninth head Bradley led by three points. McNabb laid a rock each in the last three ends and tied the score. Then Ralph came through with some brilliant curling and built up a three-point head and went into the semi-finals of the Minneapolis event with Ron McLeod of Duluth. Elmer Whyte defeated A. K. Smith of Superior in the samo event and moved into the finals. Whyte today will play the winner of the Bradley-McLeod contest for the trophy.

In the Western Curling event John McLeod of Minneapolis is in the finals. Sandy McNabb's Grand Rapids rink, a real live bunch of curlers, are to play Dunlop to see which rink will oppose McLeod, and Bobby Miller and the strong Reedal rink will fight it out in the finals of the St. Paul Jobbers' event.

Spiel Over Today.

For the first time in a number of years the annual spiel will be closed up early. So great has the progress been in the various events that Spiel Manager John E. MacGregor darkened the house last night and gave all of the rinks a rest for the evening. Most of the visiting curlers attended the hockey game.

The Donald Kid rink of West Duluth gave the veteran John McLeod of Minneapolis a lusty battle in the semi-finals of the Western Curling club event. The kid rink laid a four head in the final end, just being nosed out by one point.

Has Been Great Spiel.

From all sides comes trooping the acknowledgment that the spiel that is nearing its end has been perhaps the most successful of recent years. So even has the play been, so strongly have some of the supposedly weak rinks come to the front and defeated the strong paper rinks, that one surprise had followed closely on the heels of another.

No rink has tied up the spiel, as has been the case in other years. The fight has been a remarkably even one throughout. Playing conditions have been simply ideal, the ice has been great, on delays have occurred, and the party has been a lovely one.

Following is the score of the final games in the Patrick-Duluth event and the announcement of the winners in the other events completed yesterday:

PREPARE FOR SPRING SPORT

Basket Ball, Bowling, Rifle Practice and Other Sports Prominent.

Minneapolis, Minn., Jan. 23.—(Special to The Herald.)—Looking upon their defeat last Saturday at the hands of Wisconsin rather as a stimulus to further and harder work than as a serious setback to their championship aspirations, the Minnesota basket ball team is continuing to work with increased effort in preparation for the coming games. Naturally, none of the Minnesota supporters is satisfied with the results of the last game. Minnesota had hoped for, but did not dare to expect a victory, and then to see their hopes for its realization snatched away in the last minutes of play by the speedy Wisconsin men, was disappointing.

Prepare for Spring Sports.

With twenty-five men registered and working out three times a week on the "gym" floors, Coach Leonard Frank is laying the foundation for the spring training season, following the mid-year "exams." By far the larger part of the men who comprise the squad have never been in competition, but are hoping by an early start to do something within the year. The letter men from last year's championship together with the champion members of the cross-country team, have appeared and are following for the present the same course of exercises as the less experienced members of the squad. Coach Frank hopes almost to double the size of the squad by the time of the all-university indoor meet the latter part of February. Coach Frank is in sympathy with the movement of athletics for all and has volunteered his services in instructing all candidates whom the intramural committee may bring together. He is making arrangements with St. Thomas to obtain their new dirt indoor track for the use of his track men during February.

At a meeting of the bowling representatives at the Delta Tau Delta house Monday night, plans were made for taking up inter-fraternity bowling immediately after examinations. No decision has been reached as to the place the meet is to be held in, but the committee is investigating. There will be a trophy for high average and another for high team score.

"Frat" Men Report.

Thirty-four athletes reported at the armory last Saturday afternoon to qualify in the high jump and shot-put requirements for Sigma Delta Psi. Only four of this number were able to make the high jump, while 16 qualified in the junior requirement of 4 feet, 6 inches. For the first time since the new rule went into effect the trials were conducted under the new rule, 30 feet to be the requirement for a man of 160 pounds or more and that to be scaled down in accordance with the following proportions: One hundred and sixty pounds is to be the candidate's weight as 30 feet is to the requirement for him. Eight men made the senior and 22 the junior requirements.

Riflemen Showing Not Good.

The Minnesota rifle team completed its shot against Illinois with a score of 927. This is comparatively low, as last season the team shot around 950 continually. However, new targets, which did not prove satisfactory, contributed to this poor showing. Some good work was done, Col. Lambert making a perfect score of 100 prone, while Rollman shot 96 off hand, a remarkably good feat. Laurentz, a new man, with 178, got on the team. The Illinois score has not yet been received by Minnesota.

Fraternity Basket Ball.

With the two games played Tuesday, academic fraternity basket ball is over until the end of the final examinations. Each of the twenty teams has played one game and have four more to play before the finals, when the winners in each of the four sections are to be determined. Tuesday Phi Kappa Psi defeated the A. T. O. team by a score of 22 to 2. Sigma Nu won from the Kappa Sigma, 20 to 3; Alpha Delta Phi defeated Sigma Alpha, 14 to 9; Sigma Chi won from Beta Theta Pi, 15 to 13, with Sinclair and Wallace making the most points for the winners; Theta Delta Chi beat Chi Psi by 22 to 2. The winner in each of the four sections will be determined on a percentage basis and the winners will play an elimination contest for the championship. The professional fraternities, organized for the first time in a professional league, began their schedule Thursday night.

First Intercollegiate Ski Meet.

The university has been invited to participate in the first intercollegiate ski meet ever held in the United States. The Dartmouth Outing club is the prospective host to the winter athletes at Minnesota. The meet will be made the feature of the annual winter carnival at Dartmouth next month. The program is made up of the dashes, cross country runs and relay races for snowshoers and contests in ski jumping. The meet is somewhat similar to the winter carnival being planned for next month by students of the agricultural college at the university.

The skating classes for girls, which were recently organized, are becoming very popular. Every day at 1 o'clock there is instruction in some kind of skating. One week, Monday, Wednesday and Friday are devoted to figure skating and cricket practice, and on Tuesday and Thursday to speed skating. A large number of girls are eligible for the cricket team and the large amount of material will give a splendid team.

Students' Part in Athletics.

A new aspect on the much-discussed question of student participation in athletics was revealed by W. K. Foster of the department of physical education, in which he says that 2,470 students take part in athletics in that department alone in a year. A careful estimate of the number of athletes engaged in games in his department has enabled Foster to give out the following figures, which, however, ignore any possible duplication:

Gymnasium	500
Interfraternity basket ball	200
Interfraternity baseball	300
Interclass basket ball	320
Interclass baseball	480
Intercollegiate basket ball	80
Intercollegiate baseball	120
Intercollegiate swimming	50
All-university handball	80
Advanced gymnasium	85
Gymnasium dancing	15
Wrestling	20

These figures do not include the men who try out for the varsity teams in all the branches.

CATHEDRALS BEAT CENTRAL

Rough Game Gives Catholic High School Quint Close Victory.

The Cathedral high school basketball five last night met and defeated the Central high school quintet in a rough and tumble contest at Central's gymnasium by the score of 20 to 13. The first half found the Catholics leading by a 10 to 7 score and both teams scored about the same in the second half.

The Cathedrals were just a little better than Central at all times, their team-work and shooting being somewhat more in evidence than that of the hill-top team. Their scrappy captain, "Red" Monahan was the shining star in their lineup. He played a hard and fast game.

For the Central team it would be exceptionally hard to pick a star. Moore scored 8 of the 13 points, but the whole team played well despite the fact that they were on the loser's end.

The decided feature of the game was the "rough-house" playing, furnished mostly by the winners. Scrivens, the classy Central forward was badly hurt and was forced to leave the game. Karon, his forward mate, was injured in the second half, but after a little rest he was able to finish the game. The referee called nearly twenty fouls on the Cathedrals and by good free throwing Central could have won the game. Last week the Cathedrals lost a game to the Superior Central high school because that team had a good foul shooter.

The crowd was the largest of the season and they kept up a continuous roar. Play after play, all of them sensational, kept the rooters on their toes at all times.

On Feb. 26 the two teams meet again at the Cathedral gymnasium. Next Friday evening Central high meets the Denfeld high team. The lineup and summary of last night's game:

Central—		Cathedral—
Scrivens, Nelson	f.	(capt.) Monahan
Karon	f.	McNamara
Moore	c.	Hart
Solheim (capt.)	g.	Nicholson
Taylor	g.	Cole

Summary: Goals—Monahan, 5; Cole, 1; Nicholson, 1; Hart, 1; Moore, 1; Karon, 1. Free throws—Monahan, 3; Cole, 1; Karon, 1; Nelson, 2; Moore, 6. Referees—Conley and Deighton.

The Denfeld high school basket ball team last night was defeated by the fast Central high school "gym" class in an interesting contest by the score of 38 to 17. The contest was closer than the score indicates and amused a large crowd. Between halves the second teams played and the "gym" men were again returned the victors. The gymnasium aggregation is a fast one and they are exceptionally hard to beat. The score of the second team game was 16 to 6. The gymnastics all played together and it would be hard to pick a star. For the West Duluth aggregation Ross was the star, getting 13 of the 17 points scored by his team. The lineup and summaries of the games is given below:

"Gym"—		Denfeld—
Mason	f.	Ross
Pedrizetti	f.	Clark

New York, Jan. 23.—A new world's record in the amateur 200-yard relay four-man team swimming was established here last night by the New York Athletic club four, which covered the distance in 1 minute, 43 3-5 seconds in competition with the Montreal Amateur Athletic association team. The former record, 1 minute, 45 seconds, was set some years ago by a New York A. C. team. The members of the new champion team are Walter Ramme, Harry O'Sullivan, James R. Reilly and Robert Bennett.

MINNESOTA BRINGS BIG SUIT AGAINST POWER CO.

Asks $1,000,000 From Company Operating International Falls Dam.

Bemidji, Minn., Jan. 23.—(Special to The Herald.)—Charged with having devastated vast tracts of rich agricultural land and, having submerged valuable timber by reason of having constructed a dam across the Rainy river, in Koochiching county, the state of Minnesota, in one suit alone seeks to collect $1,000,000 damages from the Minnesota & Ontario Power company of International Falls, of which E. W. Backus is the head.

At the present term of court, being held at International Falls, other suits brought by individuals alleging overflows caused by the same dam are to be tried and the amount of damages demanded aggregate many thousand dollars, in addition to the state's $1,000,000 suit.

Brought by Attorney General.

The suit is brought on behalf of the state by Lyndon A. Smith, attorney general, and the complaint is signed by him and his assistant, Clifford L. Hilton.

The suits brought by the individuals are given precedence over the state's $1,000,000 suit, which will not get into court at this term.

The complaint describes the dam, telling of the waters it backs up and, continuing, says: "That said defendant since said June 1, 1912, has continued to and now does unlawfully and wrongfully maintain its said dam and keep said sluices, floodgates and locks in said dam closed as aforesaid, and ever since said time has in consequence thereof unlawfully and wrongfully cast the waters of said lakes and rivers upon the lands of the plaintiff, and also unlawfully and wrongfully cast upon said lands large quantities of bark, sand and other debris.

Much Land Overflowed.

"That by reason of the unlawful and wrongful acts of the defendant aforesaid, a large portion of the land hereinbefore described was and ever since June 1, 1912, has been overflowed and entirely submerged. That said lands are and were valuable, suitable and proper in part for use for farming and agricultual purposes, and a large portion of which said land consist of meadow lands, and that the hay crop upon said meadow lands for the season of 1912 was totally destroyed, and plaintiff was wholly deprived of the same during said year, and was wholly deprived of said land for any use or purpose during the agricultural years of 1912 and 1913, and of the year 1914 up to the time of making of this complaint."

The state's complaint then details the damage to land and timber from the high water, the depositing of earth and floodwood thereon, destroying the land's usefulness and in conclusion alleges:

Damages in Essence.

"That the overflow of said lands and the depositing of floodwood, sand, bark and foreign material and other debris thereon, and the destruction of the soil of lands for agricultural and other purposes, and the destruction of meadow land as hereinbefore set forth, together with the destruction of trees and timber thereon was caused by reason of defendant's erecting, constructing and maintaining said dam across said Rainy river, and the maintaining of the sluices, flood gates and locks therein in an unlawful and wrongful manner, so as to stop and hold back the waters in said rivers, and lakes from their natural flow, and causing such waters to back up on to and over said lands with the consequent results as hereinbefore set forth.

"That the action of the defendant in wrongfully and unlawfully and negligently damming up said waters, forcing them out of their natural course, an casting the same upon the lands of this plaintiff, was without plaintiff's consent, and that by reason of the premises and all thereof, the plaintiff has been damaged in the sum of $1,000,000."

"Wherefore plaintiff demands judgment herein against said defendant for the sum of $1,000,000, together with its costs and disbursements herein."

NATIONAL GUARD IS GOING TO BIG FAIR.

Fargo, N. D., Jan. 23.—(Special to The Herald.)—The proposed trip of the North Dakota National Guard to the San Francisco exposition will be jointly financed. It will be partially provided for by the state and the rest of the funds will be furnished by the individual members of the company. It was found the state funds which are used for the annual encampment would be insufficient for the expenses of the entire trip to San Francisco. An investigation showed that if each member contributed $25 the rest of the funds would be sufficient. This was unanimously voted upon by the members of the different militia organizations and some of the companies have already raised the funds. Others are tardy and in some cases where the members lacked the necessary cash citizens have signed individual notes for the members and the fund has been guaranteed. It now looks like there will be little danger of the trip falling through.

MARKET UP AT THE CLOSE

Flaxseed Is Weak, With Light Crushers' Demand and Some Selling.

Duluth Board of Trade, Jan. 23.—The wheat market was distinctly weak at the opening today in sympathy with lower Liverpool cables and a lack of export inquiry for the time being. Considerable realizing and there was some closing out of trades by operators who hesitated to carry their lines over the holiday in view of possible developments in the market situation. The close was strong on the reported working of some export business at Omaha, and buying by millers at Minneapolis. It was also intimated that the marketing of the Argentine crop might be delayed on account of unfavorable weather. The early loss was entirely recovered in the near future but July showed a moderate decline at the finish.

May wheat opened unchanged at $1.40, ensed off ⅛c and closed unchanged to ⅛c up at $1.40@1.40⅛ bid. July opened ⅛c off at $1.37⅝, and closed ¼c off at $1.37½ bid.

Durum showed sharp weakness with the appearance of liquidation and the catching of stop-loss orders. There was an evident disposition to allow the market in the grain to seek a lower level. May durum opened unchanged at $1.53¾, gained ⅛c and then eased off to a close of $1.51⅝ asked, a drop of 2⅛c in the day. July closed 2¾c off at $1.50⅛ asked.

Oats were strong, followed liberal export buying at Chicago, closing ⅛c up at 53⅛c for on the track. Rye closed 1c up at $1.19; barley 1c up at from 66c to 77c, and corn ⅜c up at 72@72½c.

At Winnipeg, May oats closed ⅜@½c up at 62⅝c, and July ⅝c up at 63¼c bid.

Receipts of wheat at Duluth are running in slightly better proportions than last year, inspections today amounting to 46 cars against 32 a year ago. Minneapolis inspection came to 13 cars less than a year ago at 272.

As a result of the shipments of durum that have been going forward all-rail to the seaboard, stocks in the local elevators showed a decrease of 83,000 bu in the last six days, and now amount to 9,397,000 bu. Supplies of all grains here gained 233,000 bu in the week, aggregating 13,442,000 bu.

Flaxseed Turns Weak.

Flaxseed was weak due to limited inquiry from crushers and steady offerings through the session. Some buying, said to be on account of one of the large linseed oil concerns appeared at the opening. May flax opened ⅜c up at $1.92, and closed 1c off in the day at $1.91¼ bid.

At Winnipeg, May flax closed ½c off at $1.71.

MARKET GOSSIP.

At Minneapolis—There was a generally firmer tone to the cash wheat, with good local and outside milling demand. No. 1 northern blue stem sold at 3½@4c over May for bulk of the offerings, and velvet chaff at 1½c under May. Flour sales were fair with a little export business. Cash No. 1 northern wheat sold there at from $1.36 to $1.41½ and No. 2 northern at from $1.33 to $1.42½.

C. E. Lewis & Co. had the following from Chicago: "Some falling off in export demand for wheat has more or less affected sentiment. Trade is looking for a material increase in Argentine shipments of wheat, in the near future, and a slight intimation of the possibility of Austria suing for peace will have a tendency to keep speculative buying out of the market. We believe, however, that on good reactions of from 2 to 3 cents, it will be perfectly safe to take the long side. There was some pretty fair buying of the coarse grains yesterday and the export business continues fairly steady."

* * *

Broomhall cabled from Liverpool: "The undertone was steady but trading dull. Winters are held at 3d advance but with small inquiry. Private advices received here tell of damage in Southern Argentina from the recent rain. The spot market was unchanged and consumption liberal but arrivals are liberal and satisfying present needs. Plate offers are less firm.

"Corn market tended lower with trading dull. Plate offers are 3d lower and spot market easier. American mixed on spot is quoted at 7s 8d and Plate 7s 3¾d."

* * *

Argentine weather is more favorable. The recent rain was torrential in parts and damage is feared. The export inquiry for wheat there continues good with arrivals liberal.

* * *

An official French report just issued says: "The wheat crop of 1914 is placed at 320,000,000 bu and the deficit, allowing for occupied territory, is 36,000,000 bu. Imports since the commencement of the season to Dec. 31 amount to 34,000,000 bu, and thus the provisioning of the country is assured.

A Minneapolis wire said: "On the break around $1.37 the mills were the best buyers here, commission houses selling. The late rally was due to the reports of some export business from Omaha and further unsettled weather in Argentina."

Fort William and Port Arthur stocks—Wheat, 5,132,926 bu; oats, 1,872,068 bu; barley, 263,182 bu; flax, 749,038 bu.

N. S. Mitchell, president; M. L. Jenks, vice president, and Charles F. Macdonald, secretary of the Duluth board of trade, returned today from Chicago, where they attended the annual meeting of the National Council of Grain Exchanges. They said that interesting discussions took place during the two days' sessions and some instructive papers were read. The uniform bills of lading measures now before congress and the senate at Washington were discussed. Prof. Moore of the Wisconsin State university read a paper on "Seed Improvement" and Prof. Biggs of the Central Western Development association read a paper treating upon general farm methods.

* * *

C. E. Lewis & Co. had the following closing letter from Chicago: "The nervous tone which has characterized the market of late continues. It took little buying to lift May ¾c over yesterday's close and little selling to put it off 2c from the top. A letup in the export demand and local pressure made the break. While the market will probably have these sinking spells, there is no change in the situation and ultimately a high range should be witnessed."

CHICAGO MARKET.

Wheat Develops Fresh Strength, Showing Moderate Rise All Round.

Chicago, Jan. 23.—Wheat developed fresh strength today, influenced somewhat by reports that purchasing for the Pacific coast was being noticeably enlarged east of the Rockies. In addition, cash houses here agreed that rural offerings were light and that farmers gave no sign of any increased willingness to let go of reserve holdings. The opening, which varied from ⅛c off to ¼c advance, was followed by a moderate rise all around.

Subsequently peace rumors referring to Hungary brought about a sharp temporary setback in prices. Export sales were said to be small. The close, nevertheless, was strong at ⅞c to 1c above last night.

Corn hardened with wheat. There was talk also of improved feeding demand. After opening a sixteenth lower to a like upturn the market scored a general gain.

A decline ensued when wheat turned down grade. It was said congestion of railroad facilities east was interfering with the call from the seaboard. The close, notwithstanding, was firm at ¼@⅝c to ⅞@1c net advance.

Oats shared in the firmness of other cereals. There was but little pressure to sell.

Higher prices for hogs helped the bulls in provisions. Changes, however, were not wide.

Midway Horse Market.

Minnesota Transfer, St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 23.—Barrett & Zimmerman report: The market remains in about the same condition as for the past two weeks, there being practically no demand for any class other than loggers and farm mares. While the buying in these classes is not as brisk as in other years during the same period, it is fair, considering untoward conditions in other lines of business having a direct effect. Messrs. Allain of St. Anne, Ill.; Erickson of Chisago City, Minn.; Anderson of Milaca, Minn., and Lane of Robbinsdale were in the market today. Shipments made to Mora, Minn., and Alma, Wis. Tom Bloom and Sam Montgomery are on the market with carload consignments. Prices rule about as follows:

Drafters, extra	$140@185
Drafters, choice	115@155
Drafters, common to good	110@140
Farm mares and horses, extra	145@185

COPPER METAL STILL ADVANCES

Sales of Metal Reported 14 3-8 Cents—Mining Stocks Steady.

Business in mining stocks was comparatively light today, but quotations were fairly well maintained. Further strength in copper metal was a bullish development in the day. Sales of it were reported at 14⅜c a pound at New York and Boston, a new high point since the bulge began a month ago.

In the Boston curb list as reported to Paine, Webber & Co., Calumet & Corbin sold from 18 up to 25c. An important announcement affecting that stock is expected next week. Jumbo extension sold at $1.38; First National Copper at $1.25; United Verde Extension at $2.00; Stewart at $1.63; Copper Mines at $1.12; Atlanta at 40 cents; Crown Reserve at 80 cents; Calumet & Sonora closed at 20 cents bid; Chief at 80 cents bid; Cliff at 29 cents bid; South Lake at $5.00 bid; Denn-Arizano at $7.00 bid, and Yukon Gold at $2.50 bid.

Increased shipments are expected from the Butte & Ballaklava mine by March. Repairs are being rapidly made to the main shaft, and it is thought that the big hoist will go into commission late in February. The Jessie vein is said to be showing increased values in silver and copper in the drift at the 1,600 level. It is thought that vein will prove a bonanza by the time the 1,800-level is developed.

* * *

Referring to the general market situation Skillings' Mining and Market Letter of today says: "The market for mining stocks was strong all of the week. There has been some profit-taking on the issues which have shown special gains, but on the whole the market has acted especially well. It is showing greater breadth, and prices of metals are gradually advancing. The Duluth curb stocks are in better demand, and some of them have shown gains of late. It looks as if the markets will work higher before there is any general realizing. The coppers are showing good strength. The zinc stocks are well bought, and should reflect the advance in spelter. Copper and spelter prices have been advanced moderately this week."

RECESSIONS IN STOCKS

Entire List Steadies in the Final Dealings, Closing Irregular.

Selling for Profits Is Renewed on Very Moderate Scale.

New York, Jan. 23.—The course of today's two-hour session of the stock market bore the familiar week-end aspects. Yesterday's selling of leading stocks, presumably for profits, was renewed on a very moderate scale, total sales being far below recent averages. Recessions ranged from minor to substantial fractions in prominent issues while Western Maryland, Missouri Pacific and "Soo" lost 1 to 2 points. Among specialties and industrials there were declines of 1 to 3½ points in American Tobacco, Bethlehem Steel, Mercantile Marine preferred, California Petroleum preferred and Western Union. The entire list steadied somewhat in the final dealings, Reading leading the partial recovery. The closing was irregular.

Further selling was indicated by the early stock market, first changes showing a preponderance of losses over gains. Changes either way in leading stocks were trivial, however, Mercantile Marine preferred and Wisconsin Central being the only issues to reflect marked heaviness. Missouri Pacific was again active at a lower level and the Pacifics were mainly down, likewise the metal shares. Americans were again off in London, New York Central and Reading losing a point each, with Baltimore & Ohio showing a moderate gain.

LAWLESS ELEMENT BARRED BY AMALGAMATED COMPANY

Anaconda Company Prospecting With Drills at the Butte-Duluth.

North Butte's Report Expected to Show Richness in Lower Veins.

Butte, Mont., Jan. 23.—(Special to The Herald.)—For the first time in its history, the Anaconda Copper Mining company, or Amalgamated, has declared itself openly and unmistakably on a matter of local policy. In a public statement it has declared that it will not give employment to men responsible for the labor agitation which resulted in the destruction of life and property last summer, and that there is and will be a recognized blacklist. This statement was the result of a meeting of the lawless element to protest against the blacklist, and together with reports of the meeting the Anaconda company published this statement of its position:

"This company has refused employment to certain men, and will undoubtedly refuse employment to certain other men, should they make application. The plain purpose of the company is to give preference at all times to peaceable, law-abiding, permanent residents of Butte. Common humanity prompts the employment of men with families and men with dependents, so far as may be practicable. No fair-minded person, however, can reasonably expect this company to make places in its mines for men who precipitated a condition of actual anarchy last summer; for men who have, during the present winter, insidiously counseled personal violence and sabotage, or for men who make it their whole business to disrupt the long-established friendly relations between employing companies and the various labor organizations of this community. Statements have been and are being made that applicants for employment are questioned as to their affiliations with labor unions. These statements are wholly untrue. No change whatever has been or will be made in the form of the application blank used."

Attached to the statement is the form blank of application, which all applicants for employment must fill in. This includes name of applicant, age, birthplace, whether citizen of the United States or not, trade or occupation, whether or not employed by the company before and in what mine or department, married or single, whether the applicant can read and write, residence address and residence of family. The only inquiry the company then makes is in a former letter sent to the applicant's previous employer to ascertain if his statements are correct.

Butte-Duluth.

Diamond drilling outfits of the Anaconda company are driving holes in the pit of the Butte-Duluth, eighty feet apart, the prospecting of the ground of the latter company under an option to purchase, the option extending till March 1. These diamond drill holes will be driven to a depth about 200 feet, and a number of holes will be sunk in the pit in an area embracing several acres. The Butte-Duluth holdings embrace about eighty acres and at different points the ground will be diamond drilled, and upon the showing made by the cores from the drills, it is said, will depend the exercise of the option. The drills will make about fifteen feet a day. Considerable delay has ensued because of the soft character of the ground chucking the drills. These drills are being worked continuously day and night.

President A. B. Wolvin of the Butte-Duluth churn drilled holes in the pit to a depth of about 250 feet, the pulp showing a continuation of copper values. The churn drill method of prospecting the ground is not regarded as so satisfactory as diamond drilling, because in the former method the rock comes up pulverized, while from the diamond drill is had a core which shows the rock structure as it is where penetrated by the drill. Capt. Wolvin's churn drill operations indicated an increase in copper values. Upon the success of the drilling of the Anaconda company is focused the eyes of Bullwhacker stockholders, whose property is an immediate neighbor. A continuation of values at depth also will attach significance to the holdings of North Butte in that neighborhood, which are extensive.

North Butte's Report.

North Butte's annual report is expected to show a decided improvement in the condition of the Edith May and the Snowball veins on the lowest levels, particularly the former, where on the 2,800-foot level the ledge is showing some of the richest ore ever found that famous vein. The showing disclosed is such as to encourage an apparently well-founded belief that deeper development of the Edith May has still better things in store for North Butte. While the ore body uncovered on the 2,800-foot level does not even begin to approach the size of the shoot above the 1,800-foot level that brought North Butte into fame in the mining world from 1905 to 1907, the grade of the rock on this level is far superior to anything North Butte has ever had.

Besides the high copper content of the shoot on the 2,800-foot level of the Edith May, the ore body is showing a continuity and a permanency extremely gratifying. Above the 1,800-foot level but one shoot was in evidence in this vein, the deposit showing a width of from five to seven posts and assaying as high as 7 and 8 per cent copper. Below the 1,800-foot level this large shoot of high grade copper ore petered out with the faulting of the Edith May ledge. The vein appears to have undergone considerable movement and when ore again was found on the 2,400-foot level, which was traced upward and opened on the 2,200-foot, it was found that there were two shoots, one on the hanging wall and one on the foot-wall. It has been opened for more than 200 feet on the 2,800 and the showing, say the miners, is far superior to that disclosed on the 2,600, 2,400 or 2,200-foot levels, apparently indicating a trend toward improvement with depth.

Snowball High in Silver.

Conditions on the lowest level of the Snowball vein in the eastern portion of the ledge are good. The vein, however, differs considerably from the Edith May in that it carries a comparatively high silver content, and while not showing near the high grade copper ore being uncovered in the Edith May, nevertheless is disclosing a wholesome tonnage with substantial values, the silver of which gives a credit of no small amount when measured against the production cost of copper.

North Buttte, also, it is believed, can look forward to the possibility of uncovering large ore bodies in the Berlin claim in consequence of developments on the 2,400-foot level of the Pilot-Butte mine, where there has been uncovered a large ore body the width of which ranges from fifteen to twenty feet. While no great amount of development work has been done on the ledge, the presumption is that it finds its way into North Butte ground.

Development Is Restricted.

It cannot be said, as intimated, that North Butte has got down to the proposition of looking to two veins, the Snowball and the Edith May, for its immediate ore supply, this intimation arising from the last quarterly report of the company which dwelt principally on the progress of the Snowball and Edith May ledges, speaking but casually of the other veins of the company. It can be said that practically the other ledges of the North Butte stand where they did in July, the development work in those veins being restricted by the retrenchment order now in effect. With an enhancement in the price of copper, ore bodies in the several ledges of North Butte will be worked and development pushed, it is expected.

With the cost of the installation of the mammoth hoisting engine at the Granite Mountain shaft out of the way and that new shaft in commission, North Butte, it is believed, will embark upon an extensive program of underground development as soon as the copper market warrants. North Butte has been subjected to heavy expenditures in the sinking of the Granite Mountain shaft of three compartments to a depth below the 3,100-foot level, the cost up to Dec. 1, including crosscuts and stations connecting the workings with those of the Speculator being $220,477. It will be several weeks yet before the engine will be in commission. When the hoist is in place and found to be working to its guaranteed efficiency, a final payment of $23,300 is to be made.

The Granite Mountain shaft, when the big engine is placed in operation, will become the permanent working shaft of the North Butte, the Speculator shaft being used for air purposes, and occasionally for lowering timbers, although this has not been decided upon.

Barnes-King.

The Barnes-King Development company mined and milled 5,500 tons of ore at the North Moccasin mine in December, the value of the gold recovery being $40,000. It was the largest amount of ore ever mined in one month from the property. It is expected that the new mill at the Piegan-Gloster property, in the Marysville district, will be in operation by March 1. The company is bringing electric power to the property, and a large portion of the line has been completed. The shaft on the Piegan-Gloster has been retimbered to the water level, 200 feet below the surface, when the electric power will be used to unwater the shaft to the bottom, at the 500-foot level. The Piegan-Gloster has an enormous tonnage of ore in sight.

Butte-Ballakiava.

Only a little development work is being done at the Butte-Ballakiava property and enough has been taken out to pay the expense of the up-keep. The new bond issue is expected to provide a good working fund, and the mine will be put in good condition in anticipation of the time when business conditions right themselves and there will be the expected demand for copper. The whole amount of the $200,000 bond issue will not be issued at once, but the $40,000 in bonds which became due Jan. 1 have been taken care of. Of the remaining bonds of the new bond issue only such amounts will be sold as are required by the company for its development work. During December about 1,000 tons of ore from the mine was added to the Washoe smelter to provide for the peyment of current expenses. The new development work planned is on all the levels of the mine between the 700 and 1,600-foot levels, and some changes will also be made in the shaft.

Safety First.

The safety first movement inaugurated by the Anaconda company is having practical results in the great decrease in the number of accidents in the Butte mines. The department is developing into one of the most important of the company, and already employs a large number of men whose only duty is in connection with a promotion of safety and comfort for employes of the company.

AT THE CHIEF CONSOLIDATED

Nice Face of Ore Is Reported in the Scotia Property.

Eureka, Utah, Jan. 23.—There is a very nice face of ore in the Scotia property, where work has just been taken up by the Chief Consolidated company. It is not the intention of the Chief to put the mine in the shipping list at this time, as development work will be given first consideration, but next spring it may be possible to keep a regular tonnage of ore moving toward the smelter.

The Scotia is about twenty miles to the west of Eureka and since the news was given out that the Chief company had become interested in the property the owners adjoining claims have been getting busy. There should be considerable activity in that section during 1915.

NEW LOW RECORD MADE BY MOHAWK

Copper Cost During the Past Year About Nine Cents.

The Mohawk Mining company's operations in 1914 resulted in net earnings of about $4 per share, against which $2 was paid to stockholders. The copper cost about 9 cents a pound, a new low record for this property.

Production approximated 11,100,000 pounds from rock, giving the best yield of copper per ton in the history of the property. In November the recovery was better than 20 pounds as compared with former monthly averages of about 15 pounds.

The output for December was 792 tons of mineral, making a total for the year 6,916 tons, as compared with 3,891 tons in 1913 and 7,881 tons in 1912.

PRODUCTION OF THIRTY MILLIONS

Miami's Average Cost Is Slightly Less Than Nine Cents a Pound.

The Miami Copper company produced about 30,000,000 pounds of copper during 1914. The July output was 3,200,000 pounds, but that for August, under curtailment, droppd to 1,870,000 pounds. Since that time no official reports of monthly operations have been made, but it is understood that production has continued close to 1,500,000 pounds a month. The average cost of production was slightly less than 9 cents a pound.

Against a recovery of about 31 pounds of copper per ton of ore in 1913, Miami has been extracting about 33 pounds of late.

The company carries no unsold copper into the new year and through temporary omission of dividends has materially strengthened its cash position.

Miami Copper company has again deferred action on the quarterly dividend. Regular quarterly dividends of 50 cents a share were paid up to October, 1914, at which time action was deferred, due to conditions arising from the European war.

TRANSFER OF PROPERTIES

Drilling Is Reported to Be Increasing on Cuyuna Range.

Brainerd, Minn., Jan. 23.—(Special to The Herald.)—There have been placed on file at the register of deeds office in Crow Wing county leases and assignments of leases conveying the sale to the Inland Steel company of the Armour No. 1 and the Armour No. 2 mines. There has been recorded a mining lease dated Feb. 1, 1911, from the Pine Tree Manufacturing company to the Iroquois Iron company, covering the south half of the northwest quarter of section 11, township 46, range 29, the lease being for thirty years with 50 cents a ton royalty. The minimum tonnage is 25,000 tons the first year, 50,000 the second year, 150,000 tons the third year and every year thereafter. There is also recorded a mining lease of the Interstate Exploration company to the Iroquois Iron company, dated Jan. 24, 1911, and covering the southeast quarter of the northeast quarter of section 10, township 46, range 29, which is the Armour No. 1 mine. Assignments of leases are then made by the Iroquois Iron company to the Inland Steel company. There has also been placed on file the release of the writ of attachment which Louis J. Hopkins and George C. Swallow, co-partners as Swallow & Hopkins, secured against the southeast quarter of the northeast quarter of section 10, township 46, range 29, and the south half of the northwest quarter of section 11, township 46, range 29. The attachment was levied at the time Swallow & Hopkins brought suit for alleged failure to carry out an ore contract, alleging damages in the amount of $70,000. This is now cleared up by the recording of the release of the writ of attachment.

The Armour No. 1 mine, not worked for some time, has been drained of water down to the 200-foot level, the water being led into the Armour No. 2 and pumped out by that mine. This seems to indicate that the Armour No. 1 mine, silent for some time, is to be worked this season.

More Hopeful at Ironton.

At Ironton a feeling of hopefulness pervades and the people assume that the Cuyuna-Mille Lacs and Cuyuna-Duluth mines of the American Manganese Manufacturing company will start operations on Feb. 1. The annual meeting of the stockholders of the American Manganese Manufacturing company will be held at Philadelphia on Monday, Jan. 25.

The Armour No. 2 mine and the Kennedy mine are hoisting and accumulating stockpiles. These mines are the pioneer producers of the range. Considerable timber has been ordered and is being delivered at the mines to be used in the underground workings. The Wilcox mine of the Candadian Cuyuna Ore company at Woodrow is drifting in ore and will be a shipper this season. The ore pockets of the head frame have been completed.

At the Brainerd-Cuyuna mine in the city limits of Brainerd the three-compartment timber shaft is five feet past ledge. Under the direction of D. C. Peacock as engineer and Capt. Andrew Johnson as superintendent the shaft was made a success and the stockholders are greatly pleased. Drifting will begin in prospect as the required depth is reached. A spur of the Northern Pacific railway runs to the mine. It is believed that some shipping can be done this season.

Drilling at Poor Farm.

At the county poor farm of Crow Wing county the E. J. Longyear company is completing a year's drilling in which time it put down eight holes, located quite an ore body in the south half of the northeast quarter of section 33, township 45, range 30. In the ninth hole the drill is still in surface, being 223 feet deep. The city of Brainerd has completed title to its lands conveyed to it by the late Judge C. W. Holland and efforts will be made to have the tracks located on the north side and southeast side of Brainerd explored. Mr. Harrington of Virginia had previously made the city an offer to explore with the option of a mining lease, but at that time the city did not have complete title.

The Rowe pit mine of the Pittsburg Steel Ore company has added fifteen men to its crew at the machine shop in Riverton. The Pennington pit mine is getting its machinery together. The Thompson pit mine anticipates opening up on March 1. The Hill Crest pit mine west of Ironton, it is reported, will open up its territory this spring. The forty has already been cleared of brush. The Cuyuna Iron & Manganese company is expected to develop its property near the Pennington, forming another pit mine.

At the Cuyuna-Sultana Iron company property work in shaft No. 2 has been suspended pending the report of the stripping engineers. The Sultana is claimed to control an exceptionally large body of manganiferous iron ore, the manganese content claimed to be considerably higher than that of some of the older mines on the range. Ore from Sultana, it is claimed, can be used in the manufacture of spiegeleisen and a low grade of ferro-manganese. The European war having in great measure shut off the importation of ferro-manganese, more attention will be paid the manganiferous iron ores from the Cuyuna range.

Drilling Increasing.

Drilling is increasing on the range. It is reported that the south range is to have seven new drills at work early in February. The C. W. Potts Exploration company will soon put on more drills. Tom Cole of Deerwood has two drills at work near Woodrow. The Adbar Development company of Deerwood has a drill in section 22, township 45, range 30. Moe Bros. of Virginia have put a drill at Klondye and it is reported they will soon have a battery of two at work. The Adams interests have a drill in the southwest quarter of section 30, township 46, range 28, on the Adams mine property. H. J. Kruse of Crosby has two drills working in the Little Pine country in the north end of Crow Wing county. The Hale-Bradley Exploration company of Deerwood has two drills in the Rice river country, near Aitkin. The Barrows Mining company is drilling at Barrows and Hole No. 10 A is to be started soon. A deep hole will be sunk so as to determine the depth of the ore body. The Brainerd Mining company's drilling is continuing on both its properties at Barrows. The Barrows-Mississippi Iron company is still drilling its eleventh hole at Barrows. C. B. Buckman of Little Falls has an eighty near Barrows believed to be in the mineral belt. Some interests in the property have been conveyed by Mr. Buckman to other parties.

Changes of Interests.

The Immigration Land company has quit-claimed to William T. Ten Brook for $220 the northeast quarter of the northeast quarter of section 33, township 46, range 28. Arthur H. Burg has conveyed to Anna A. Speelman an undivided thirty-second interest in lot 2, the southwest quarter of the northwest quarter and the north half of the southwest quarter of section 9, township 136, range 25.

Roger Hill of Saginaw, Mich., owner of the Hill Crest mining property, has contracted with the Cuyuna Range Power company for electric current to be used in the drilling operations. Water will be taken from Blackhoof lake, near by, and the hydraulic system, similar to that of the Rowe mine, employed. Work will begin March 1, being directed by Wilbur Van Evera of Virginia. About 250 horse power will be used to pump the water from the lake to the mine and 300 horse power to pump the sand and water back. After forty acres of the Hill Crest have been cleared, a garage and office building erected and work will soon start on a blacksmith shop.

PHENOMENAL STRIKE MADE

Keweenaw Copper Runs Into Deposit of Coarse Shot Copper.

Some Talk of Consolidation Between Lake and South Lake.

Houghton, Mich., Jan. 23.—(Special to The Herald.)—Keweenaw Copper, which is in very good ground at all of the levels except the third east, where the rock is only fair in quality, has, in cutting at the seventh level a skip-pit of about twenty-five feet in depth so that the top of the skip can be lowered even with the floor of the level, run into a phenomenal occurrence of coarse shot copper which is considered to the best deposit in an amygdaloid. It covers the bottom of the shaft and to course its extent is problematical, as it has only been entered for a few feet. The rock greatly resembles that of the Ahmeek mine in color and general texture, and because it is somewhat softer than most of the amygdaloids in the Copper country. It divides or cleaves along parting lines, where the rock is barren of metal and the pieces as they lie on the stockpile or as they are picked up in the drift appear to be worthless, but when broken they are found almost invariably to carry the metal, it being sometimes of very rich values.

South Lake.

South Lake has a very good showing of copper in the third South Lake lode, which has been entered for a length of about thirty feet without meeting with the hanging wall by the long cross-cut on the sixth or bottom level. For the first fifteen feet the disclosure is very similar to that of the same lode at hole No. 7, drilled four years ago, where, between the depths of 487 and 505 feet, the cores were exceptionally rich with much mass and shot copper, the eight feet of trap overlying the lode, carrying a rich display of the metal in seams. At the other four holes where this lode was reached by the drill, it had a width averaging thirty-three feet, the core at No. 4 being officially characterized as rich and revealing much mass and nugget copper, that of No. 5 as being well charged with shot copper for fifty-six feet, that of No. 6 as being very rich for five feet and then grading off, and that of the last hole drilled, No. 8, being very rich especially for six feet. Thus far the revelations of the metal in the crosscut have been very good and have certainly justified the great faith placed in the lode. Of the six holes, when they were exhibited here at the time they were taken out, four years ago. There is some talk of consolidation between Lake and South Lake and there are in the minds of many of the best posted mining men here sufficiently strong reasons to warrant such action, as the Lake has a splendidly equipped shaft raking towards the South Lake and a very strong financial backing and as the South Lake has the larger territory, about one-quarter of a section on the lode, which is much steeper there than at the Lake, the dip of the latter being under 57 deg., the depth at the boundary, as compared with that of 75 deg. as revealed in the cross-cut now being driven, which, of course, means that much more of the lode in depth can be mined at the South Lake.

Mohawk.

Mohawk is now averaging in its daily shipments to the mill 2,660 tons, which is about the capacity for a day in and day out sustained run. In order principally to open up more levels so that the system of drifting to the boundary lines can then stoping, that is taking out the mineralized rock, back, can be properly worked out and also incidents tally to ascertain the quality of the ground, sinking is being done at shafts Nos. 4, 5 and 6. Within a few days No. 6 shaft will arrive at the thirteenth level and No. 5 at the fifteenth level. As at many times in the past this mine is nearly up to its highest possible standard, its production being to the limit of the mill's capacity, its yield averaging high, and as a copper producing machine its efficiency being very great.

New Arcadian.

New Arcadian this week doubled the number of its drills from three to six. Two are now extending the cross-cut on the 900-foot level beyond the lode to seek at a distance of about 100 feet to the east another lode that was discovered at the No. 4 diamond drill hole on the New Baltic property and which disclosed a far better core than the holes that revealed the new lode in which such values are now being met with. It was thought best as the distance is so short to explore for this eastern lode before the regular mining operations on the new lode were begun. The two drills on the 900-foot, or bottom level, will continue to ascertain its mineral contents. That on the northern drift was advanced 250 feet and is meeting with the same high grade coarse stamp copper encountered after the broken zone, in which the cross-cut entered the lode and which has been met with on all the levels so far, had been passed through, twenty feet in on this drift, and also in the raise which was carried up for fifty feet. That on the southern drift which also started in the broken zone has been for some time in light finely disseminated copper, but is now giving rather positive indications that it is passing into the usual good ground of this lode. Another drill has been located in the northern drift on the 750-foot level and the sixth or last drill on the 250-foot level, so that there are three drills exploring the ground towards the New Baltic, that on the 250-foot level having 250 feet to go and the lowest, that on the 900-foot level 600 feet. There is every reason to believe that this good shoot revealed everywhere, except on the southern drift of the 900-foot level which is only opened about eighty feet, with a depth of very nearly 900 feet, as it is fair to assume that the mineralization extends to the top of the ledge which is covered to some extent with some overburden, and with a length on the lode of nearly 500 feet, the occurrence of the metal being very uniform, persists with length and depth. The formations are very regular as is shown by a cross section in the company's office on which the lode is seen to almost parallel the course of the shaft. It would seem therefore that the lode with its mineralization seems to have surely passed the stage when it could be in any way considered as a "pocket" and to demand its place among the large shoots of the district.

Victoria.

Victoria has out of a width of eleven to twelve feet ten feet of heavy copper, mass, barrel and stamp, the two first predominating, in the western drift of the twenty-sixth level. When crosscut from the lode there was with same width six feet of only fair mineralization, but after two to three feet had been opened by the drift this copper bearing streak widened and became much richer and has persisted for a length of about twenty feet. The eastern drift continues as when the lode was opened by the crosscut. After the distance of 100 feet has been cut by each of the drifts, a raise will be driven up on the most promising to connect with the good ground on the twenty-fourth level and that in the shaft below the twenty-fifth. Supt. George Hooper is greatly strengthened, by the rich copper occurring on the twenty-sixth level, in his belief that there will be in the near future continuation of this heavy copper that is being encountered with depth sufficiently extensive to be profitably mined. Progress is rather slow just at present owing to the low water in the Ontonagon river and consequently the mine can only be run the day shift.

Indiana.

Indiana is still endeavoring at the sixth level to ascertain the trend and nature of the felsite body there so that it may be able to more understandingly continue its search for the famous felsite body discovered by Nos. 2 and 9 diamond drill holes at he same depth as that of the bottom of the shaft, 1,415 feet. In 1913 there were six radiating horizontal holes from 200 to 250 feet in length drilled from the 1,400 plat and one vertical hole of 70 feet without any definite information hole being obtained. At the sixth level the felsite has a length from the shaft on its southeastern side, which is now flaring out to the southwest of about 450 feet without any indications of an end. The felsite shows two sides meeting at an anglo of about 20 degs. slightly northwest of the shaft. There has been found a considerable quantity of the two ores, the carbonate and silicate, of copper of commercial value. In September, 1912, through the failure of Stephen E. Dow, the company lost about $33,000 and to meet the expenses from Aug. 1 that year an assessment of $1 per share was called payable Oct. 16. Dec. 31, 1913, there was on hand about $3,000 with unpaid assessments of $3,500. Undoubtedly money has been borrowed for the continuance of the work last year, and the assessment called Jan. 20, and payable Feb. 4 by stockholders of record Feb. 3 will clear off the loans and leave a good balance. There have been issued 80,000 out of 100,000 shares and there has been paid in $10.50 a share. The syndicate that control the United States Smelting, Refining & Mining company is represented by on the board of directors by three members. There were disclosed five good looking lodes in one-half of the three-quarters of a mile northwest of the shaft by five diamond drill holes during 1910 and 1911 and it was the intention to explore them, and in fact a little work was done on one of them, but owing to the scarcity of labor, the depletion of the treasury by the failure, and the concentration of energy and money on the sinking of the shaft, this exploration has been deferred to some future date.

North Lake.

North Lake will near the end of the month complete the winze from the third level to the fifth, which was made necessary by the indications that the crosscut on the third level would pass into the overburden, or it reaches the fifth level theoretically there should only be a distance of about fifty feet to open in order to enter the so-called Evergreen lodes discovered by the shaft at the South Lake, 700 feet having been already opened on the third level.

COST OF EIGHT CENTS A POUND

New Plant of Granby Not Worked to Capacity Yet.

The output of the Granby Consolidated Copper company in 1914 was between 22,000,000 and 23,000,000 pounds of copper. Approximately 12,400,000 pounds came from the Phoenix smelter and 10,000,000 pounds from the new plant at Anyox.

The rapidity with which the new Hidden Creek property came along after the first furnace of the new smelter was blown in during March was one of the most notable events of the year's operations. Running at but two-thirds capacity, this smelter turned out in October nearly 1,800,000 pounds of copper at a cost, landed at New York, of 8 cents a pound. Curtailment of production, maintained with other producers, has prevented the management from ascertaining just what the new plant can really do working at capacity.

Granby's mineral production for the past year was as follows:

	Copper. (Lbs.)	Silver. (Ozs.)	Gold. (Ozs.)
Phoenix smelter	12,331,332	256,849	24,735
Total	21,951,449	357,752	27,879

The Grand Forks property was shut down in August as the management arranged under its curtailment program that production should come entirely from Hidden Creek. During December, however, two furnaces at Phoenix were again blown in primarily to aid its employes in that district.

RECONSTRUCTION IS STILL IN PROGRESS

Butte, Mont., Jan. 23.—While the date of resuming work at the Pittsmont smelter is at this time as much of a problem as at any time since the closedown on Aug. 5, the management and the stockholders in the East Butte company do not look upon the time as lost. In fact, it is considered just the opposite, in view of the low price of copper than has prevailed. Considering the relative size of the copper deposits of even the great Butte district as compared with the amount necessary to supply the world's demands in the next few years, it is not to be wondered at that the producers of the district would prefer to retain the copper deposits intact and wait for a better price. This fact is mentioned in connection with the policy of the East Bute as well as other copper-producing companies of the district.

For the past three years the East Butte has been desirous of making changes and improvements to keep the smelter up to the increasing requirements. Immediately after the plant was closed, these improvements began and are still going on. The reconstruction work has extended to all parts of the plant, and in remodelling many enlargements have been made. These affect the furnaces particularly. When the smelter resumes operation, it will be possible not only to treat a far greater quantity or ore, but to treat it at a greater profit.

OPTIONS LAND AT IRON MOUNTAIN

Iron Mountain, Mich., Jan. 23.—Capt. John T. Spencer has secured a long-term and favorable option on the holdings of the Keweenaw association to the west and north of the city. The tract contains about 400 acres and extends from the holdings of the Oliver Iron Mining company on the east to the Menominee river.

Capt. Spencer plans to explore the lands in a systematic manner and already has a small crew of men at work. The initial work wil be done at a point locally known as the West Chaplin. Some work was done here in 1890 by Capt. Spencer. A shaft, 5½ by 9½ feet inside the timbers, was sunk to a depth of about 100 feet. This shaft is now being repaired and it is planned to sink the same several hundred additional feet and do considerable cross cutting and drifting.

Operations later will be extended to the exploration known as the Federal No. 1, where Capt. James H. Cundy, representing the Illinois Steel company, sunk a shaft to a depth of about 600 feet. Capt. Spencer had optioned the property to the Illinois Steel company. After the Illinois concern became a part of the United States Steel corporation, this shaft work was discontinued. At a later day, the Oliver Iron Mining company explored a portion of the tract with a diamond drill.

HOSPITAL SHIP FOR FISHERMEN

Deep Sea Dangers and America's First Aid.

By GERTRUDE SEYMOUR,

(Exclusive Service The Survey Press Bureau.)

The Androscoggin, the first American ship especially equipped to carry medical aid to the deep-sea fishermen of the North Atlantic, sailed from the Boston navy yard on Jan. 6.

It is estimated that there are not less than 6,000 of these fishermen on the vessels engaged in our deep-sea fisheries along the Atlantic coast. The mortality among them from the extraordinary hazards of their calling is higher than among those working in the most dangerous trades ashore.

What this means has been graphically pointed out by Dr. Thomas W. Salmon of the Federal public health service, who was the first to propose the hospital ship.

Gloucester's Sea Victims.

Writing in The Survey he said: "Every August a little company of sad-faced men and women and curious summer-boarders gathers in Gloucester to take part in a ceremony such as can be witnessed nowhere else in the United States. Only in the fishing villages of St. Pierre or Northern France or Newfoundland do people come together for the same purpose, for it is the annual memorial service for the deep-sea fishermen who have perished at sea during the year. After children have strewed flowers upon the receding tide, young widows return home with the dread which dwells always in the hearts of wives of fishermen, come to full realization." During the last ten years, the names of more than 600 Gloucester fishermen have been read at these services.

"This," continued Dr. Salmon, "is the toll which the deep sea takes from those who gather her harvest. It is not all, however; for other brave men were lost whose names were not read at the services by Blynman Bridge, and for whom no flowers were strewn upon the water. These fishermen died in bed in marine hospitals, attended by nurses, and provided with many comforts not given their lives through the dangerous nature of their calling just as certainly as their comrades in the dories which went astray or in the schooners which foundered on the banks.

Untimely Care to Save Suffering.

"Some of them had survived the hardships of terrible days and nights adrift in dories only to sustain injury which made the end just as certain, although a little more remote. Many of them died from illnesses which the resources of modern medicine, if they can be applied in time, are quite sufficient to cure.

"Besides those who die, many fishermen are badly maimed through infected wounds, which could be treated so successfully, were they received ashore, that only the slightest permanent defects would follow them. Fractures which have to be neglected for days and even weeks until port is reached have a very different outcome from those which are promptly cared for: and when a giant sea boards a little schooner and roars down her length, a broken bone or two is very likely to be included in the wreckage."

Deep sea fishermen have been exposed year after year to these risks with the added danger which arises from long delay in obtaining medical or surgical relief. Yet, until the provision of the Androscoggin for this purpose, the only means by which sick or injured fishermen could obtain treatment in an emergency was through the services of the French hospital ship, St. Francois d'Assise, which crossed the Atlantic each summer from France and gave aid to all who needed it under whatever flag they sailed. In Dr. Salmon's words: "The American fisherman's only chance to obtain medical aid on Banquereau, St. Pierre Bank, and the Grand Banks is when this hospital ship, maintained by charity and by a small grant from the French government, makes her summer visits to the fishing grounds. At other times on these banks and at all times on the banks which lie nearer home no medical aid whatever is available in time of need. The injured man must grit his teeth and bear it, with the chance of being permanently crippled increasing every minute, and the man stricken with sudden illness must console himself with the reflection that perhaps he has one of those diseases which doctors cannot cure anyway."

War Prevents French Aid.

This year the European war will prevent the St. Francois d'Assise from making her usual trip, and there will be an opportunity for the Androscoggin to perform for the French fishermen on the Grand Banks the services which were given so freely to Americans in former summers.

The Androscoggin in her revenue cutter days figured in many thrilling rescues at sea. She will be remembered best for the dash made in company with the Gresham in 1911 to rescue the fishermen imprisoned in Newfoundland ice. She has been completely refitted for her new duty and she is provided with every essential for giving efficient medical and surgical treatment at sea. A male graduate nurse will assist Dr. Cox. A comfortable sick-bay, an isolation room with two bunks for cases of contagious disease, tiny operating room and a well-equipped dispensary have been provided.

Wherever the fishermen go the Androscoggin is to follow. In winter they are to be found on the banks as far north as Sable Island; in summer they go as far as the Grand Banks or even to the coast of Greenland. The cruising grounds have been determined by a committee of owners and skippers of the fishing fleet who will advise with her commander from time to time. Patients requiring continued treatment will be taken to Halifax, Portland, Gloucester or Boston and for the present Boston will constitute the home port.

Since the urgent need for such a sea-going hospital was pointed out more than seven years ago by the surgeons on duty at the United States marine hospital at Boston, the plan has received the support of many bodies representing maritime, commercial and humanitarian interests and finally, through the aid of Hon. A. P. Gardner, congress was induced to act. The present detail of the Androscoggin was authorized by an act passed last July. Assistant Surgeon O. H. Cox of the United States public health service will be responsible for the efficiency of the relief work undertaken and Capt. W. E. W. Hall of the revenue cutter service will command the vessel.

ON THE IRON RANGES

GERMANY PROSPERS REGARDLESS OF WAR

Hibbing Man Gets Letter Telling About Industrial Activity.

Hibbing, Minn., Jan. 23.—(Special to The Herald.)—Industriously, Germany is more prosperous now than ever before, according to a letter received by W. J. Ryder from Hans Schnall, who lives in a small hamlet near Berlin. Schnall, Ryder said, is 70 years old and since 16 years of age has been working in the same factory, which he says in the letter he just recently quit.

"Wages now," the writer says, "are equal to $2 of your money daily for common labor. This is unheard of before this time. New Year's day and the second New Year's day, times in which factories were closed down before, were running full blast this year trying to fill orders which have been rushed for lately. I quit work two weeks ago."

No mention is made of the war. Ryder says that Schnall has lived in the same house during the time which he worked in the factory.

FRANK CRASSWELLER SPEAKS AT EVELETH

Duluth Man Addresses Church Club on Subject of "Honor."

Eveleth, Minn., Jan. 23.—(Special to The Herald.)—The regular fortnightly study meeting of the Presbyterian Boys' Study and Recreation club was held last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jesmore of 718 Jones street.

The subject of the evening was "Honor" and in this connection the life and character of Chevalier Bayard, the knight "without fear and without reproach," was studied under direction of Rev. Philip A. Scharwz, leader of the club. Interesting papers were read by Clarence Frout and Reid Rutty.

Frank Crassweller of Duluth was the speaker of the evening and gave the club an able and interesting address, taking for his subject the topic of the evening, "Honor." Mr. Crassweller spoke informally and in a way that was most helpful to the boys. He defined the difference between true and false honor, illustrating the same by many instances from history and everyday life and urged the boys ever to maintain a high standard of straightforwardness, honest living and thus in time to become known as men of honor.

One of the delightful features of the evening was the singing of school and college songs by Miss Griggs, who was accompanied by Miss Mitchell, the boys joining in the choruses.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Jesmore, the hostess being assisted by Miss Way. The next study meeting of the club will be held on Friday evening, Feb. 5 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph S. Wilson, when the subject will be "The Panama Canal" and the speaker E. K. Coe of Duluth.

COW CASE UNIQUE.

Action Over Animal Gets Supreme Court Ruling.

Hibbing, Minn., Jan. 23.—(Special to The Herald.)—Mayor Victor Power is advised of the ruling of the state supreme court compelling a corporation to meet a case in a court in the locality in which the case originated, although it be a minor court. This grew out of the suit of a local cattleman against the Great Northern Railroad company for a cow which had been killed on the tracks.

The plaintiff was represented by Mayor Power, who started civil action in municipal court. From here the case was removed to Duluth by the company, on the ground that the city was its place of residence. Power protested this, and as the case is unique in the state, it was taken before the supreme court for settlement.

Mr. Power said that it is probable that the railroad company will settle out of court for the cow. "I was certain of this decision of the court," said the mayor. "I'm glad also that the decision is final."

HIBBING QUINT BEATEN.

Defeated By Cloquet Five By Score of 36 to 11.

Cloquet, Minn., Jan. 23.—(Special to The Herald.)—The high school basket ball team won an easy victory over the fast Hibbing team last night, 36 to 11. At first it seemed that the contest was going to be a close one, but the Cloquets soon got the lead and until the end of the game outclassed their opponents at every turn. A good sized crowd attended the game and much enthusiasm was shown. A preliminary game between the midgets and the giants afforded amusement between halves.

LOOKS LIKE BUSY YEAR.

Big Lumber Concern Getting Out Much Timber Around Cusson.

Virginia, Minn., Jan. 23.—Judging from the activity displayed at the logging headquarters of the Virginia & Rainy Lake company at Cusson, the large mills here will, in all probability, work to their normal capacity next summer. A man who came down from Cusson yesterday stated that the company is giving employment to over 1,800 men in the woods at the present time and that the cut this winter will be fully as large as that made last spring. The company has been operating only one mill this winter and, therefore, the force usually employed at the plant has been greatly reduced.

CANDIDATES ARE COY.

Few Announcing Themselves for Various Chisholm Offices.

Chisholm, Minn., Jan. 23.—(Special to The Herald.)—Local political street talk centers upon the few who have definitely announced themselves. The most interest seems to be in the contest for the municipal judgeship for which Judge Masters, Attorney Cooke, George Trask and D. C. Hackett are mentioned. Judge Masters and Attorney Cooke have both made their candidacies public.

For the presidency, the possible candidates seem to be J. H. McNiven, Henry Fugere, Dr. Nelson and D. C. Hackett. None of those have announced themselves, but report was circulated that Mr. Fugere had announced himself for the recordership, but he has since denied this. Monty Tramontin has withdrawn from the fight for the treasurship, leaving C. E. French the only candidate.

No change has been reported in the recordership struggle. A. B. Dugar and William A. Williams both have distributed their announcement cards, while B. E. Culver seeks to succeed himself. Edward Ramponi is in the field.

For the three trusteeships not one candidate has come out and few are spoken of as likely to make the run.

THE LATE SENATOR PATRICK R. VAIL MONUMENT RECENTLY ERECTED AT THE CALVARY CEMETERY AT VIRGINIA, MINN., BY P. N. PETERSON GRANITE CO. OF DULUTH AND ST. PAUL

This monument is one of the largest ever erected in Northern Minnesota. It is constructed entirely of the finest of gray granite from the famous Barre, Vermont, quarries. The dimensions are 10 feet by 6 feet 10 inches at the base and it stands 13 feet high.

To give one an idea of its weight, it required two flat cars to transport this monument to Virginia.

Both design and detail are the work of the Peterson studio, which was established in 1880, and is one of the best known in the United States.

Patrick R. Vail was born in Shellsburg, Lafayette county, Wis., in 1859. Losing his parents at the age of 6, he was taken to Ontonagon, Mich., by his uncle. After receiving a common school education here, he was obliged to care for himself. He soon left Ontonagon for the Menominee Iron Range, where he worked at various "jobs." At the age of 27 he first entered politics, trying for the office of sheriff for Iron County, Mich.

His ability, as a business man and politician, became apparent when he came to Minnesota, locating at Ely in the year 1887. In 1894 he was elected mayor of Ely. In 1896 he was sent to the State Legislature from the Fifty-fourth district, representing the Republican party. He dropped politics for a while to engage in mining operations and entered the brewery business, erecting and becoming president of a large brewery at Virginia, Minn., where he was making his home.

Senator Vail was a man with many friends, having a wide acquaintance throughout three states, and was considered a man of wealth.

He died at his home in Virginia, Jan. 30, 1913, of heart disease, leaving a widow and four children.

SLOW ABOUT TAKING OUT THEIR PAPERS.

Hibbing, Minn., Jan. 23.—(Special to The Herald.)—Many of the foreigners appearing in municipal court here on charges of fighting or discharging firearms in the mining locations have not nor will ever take out citizenship, according to Judge Thomas F. Brady.

Not long ago a man in his court admitted that he had been in the United States twenty-four years and had not yet taken out his first citizenship. "This is not at all unusual," Judge Brady said. "Frequently they admit that they have been here anywhere from four to fifteen years without even thinking about it. Judging from the number who are citizens of the United States appearing in court here, the percentage of those working in the mines is very low.

SEEKS TO RECOVER 120 ACRES OF LAND

Action Involving Mortgage on Tract Near Buhl Aired in Court.

Virginia, Minn., Jan. 23.—(Special to The Herald.)—Judge Hughes is holding a special session of court here today trying, without a jury, the case of A. B. Jackson vs. B. H. Gabriel, involving 120 acres of land near Buhl, which Gabriel alleges he lost through sharp practice.

Jackson alleges that in 1909 he executed a mortgage to Gabriel, then a steam shovel engineer and salesman for a steam shovel company in the Buhl district. The mortgage was given on a loan of $600 and bore interest at 8 per cent. Jackson paid the interest for the first year when it became due. On the land was a considerable quantity of valuable timber. One of the terms of the mortgage was that Jackson could not remove any part of this timber without the written consent of Gabriel. He alleges that in 1910 he deeded the land to Gabriel with the understanding that in doing so Gabriel was to sell the timber, discharge the mortgage and give Jackson clear title. Gabriel sold timber from the land during the years 1913, 1914 and 1915, the net value of which is placed at $2,100. He has refused to acknowledge that the deed was given as security.

The judge is asked to rule that the mortgage has been paid, that the plaintiff is entitled to the difference between the amount of the mortgage and the amount of the money received by Gabriel, approximately $1,600, be turned back to the plaintiff and that the deed executed by Jackson be declared in effect a mortgage and cancelled.

JEWS OPEN DOORS TO THEIR WOMEN

Latter May Now Hold Membership on Church Boards.

Women members of the Hebrew congregations throughout this country are now eligible to membership on the church boards, said Dr. Maurice Lefkovits at the regular Temple Emanuel services last evening when he made his report on the convention of the Union American Hebrew congregations, held in Chicago early this week.

Dr. Lefkovits represented Temple Emanuel at the Chicago convention and in place of the regular weekly sermon last evening, gave a detailed report of the gathering. He explained that, after considerable debating, the delegates finally voted to permit women on church boards. This is a great aid to the feminist movement, Dr. Lefkovits declared.

"Among the notable addresses," he said, "was that of Rabbi Samuel Schulman of New York city, who spoke on the war and nationalism, declaring that war will continue as long as the nations are not willing to make the sacrifice of individualism which they demand of the individual. When nations learn to sacrifice for the general good, he said, wars will cease."

During the convention the delegates sent telegrams to President Wilson congratulating him on the attitude of neutrality being shown by this government towards the powers at war and, in addition, sent resolutions asking for the veto of the literacy test bill now before the senate.

CHARGE CHANGED; TWO ADMIT GUILT

Warehouse Thieves Are Brought Back to Municipal Court.

After being held in the county jail since Dec. 18 to appear before the grand jury on a charge of grand larceny, Andrew Storang and Thomas Storbi were brought before Municipal Judge F. H. Cutting this morning and pleaded guilty to a charge of petit larceny. They were given a sentence of $40 and costs or thirty days at the work farm.

The pair were accused of stealing numerous articles from the Omaha railway freight shed, where they were employed, the list including five 22-caliber rifles, three axes, three woman's handbags and several pairs of mittens. The county attorney ruled that inasmuch as the thefts were known to extend over a period of at least two years, the amount stolen at any one time was not enough to constitute grand larceny.

Officials of the road stated that both men were old, trusted employes and that their guilt was discovered only by an accident. Savings which the pair had hoarded in a trunk in their rooms were stolen and when policemen, in answer to their complaint, investigated their suspicions were aroused by the many articles which they found in the room.

REAL ESTATE NEWS

BUILDERS LOOK FORWARD TO VERY BUSY SEASON

Will Proceed With Work Held Up From Last Year.

So satisfactorily are new building propositions being unfolded that architects and builders are banking upon the coming season being the most active in years, both locally and through the district. It is expected that the easing up in the money market that has come about during the last few weeks will permit the going ahead with considerable work that had been held over from last season on account of the financial stringency that developed in August after the outbreak of the European war.

Two expensive home projects were announced yesterday by Frederick W. Perkins, architect. Plans are in preparation in that office for a residence and garage for W. C. Agnew in Congdon Park. Mr. Perkins will be the architect of a modern home also to be built in Congdon Park for G. H. Spencer. The surveying of the site has just been completed by the Duluth Engineering company. Work upon both homes is to be proceeded with in the spring.

Decision to build a two-story business block on First avenue west between the alley and First street, has been reached by the Dickerman Investment company. According to the plans as prepared by Holstead & Sullivan, architects, the ground floor will be laid out for stores and the second story as a loft suitable for manufacturing purposes. Figures upon the job will be received up till Jan. 26. Its cost is estimated at $18,000.

* * *

Figures upon the proposed new armory to be built on London road are being taken by Kelly & Williams, architects. They will be opened on Feb. 2, and it is understood that the contract will be let at once, affording considerable employment at the outset in the way of getting stone and other materials on the ground. The building will be one of the most complete of its kind in the Northwest and will entail an expenditure of approximately $112,000.

* * *

William Fawcett, contractor for the new children's hospital and infirmary being built above the Boulevard, is making good progress on the job. It is expected the structure will be ready for occupancy about next April. Bray & Nystrom were the architects.

* * *

In spite of the spells of excessive cold weather, substantial headway is being made by Jacobson Bros., the contractors for the Harriet Beecher Stowe school at New Duluth. The building is completely inclosed and interior work is now proceeding. It is taken as assured that the structure will be ready to open for next fall's school term as stipulated in the contract. Kelly & Williams were the architects.

* * *

Ten of the permits issued at the building inspector's office this week were for new dwellings and improvements, showing that home building is being pushed upon a fairly active scale for the winter months. Architects aver that they have numbers of plans for moderate priced homes on their boards, some of which are likely to go out for figures within the next three or four weeks.

MORE WILLINGNESS TO INVEST IN REALTY SHOWN

Dealers Report Far Less Hesitancy on Part of Inquirers.

Bill to License Agents May Be Presented to Legislature.

There were more real doings in local real estate during the present week than in some time back. Some of the inquiries that had materialized during the past month, rounded up into actual business, and as prominent operators see it, this is only the beginning of better things to come. It is agreed that prospects are much brighter from every point of view than a year ago, so dealers are correspondingly sanguine.

"People who have money do not appear to be as afraid to invest it as they did," said a real estate man today. "Judging from the number of inquiries for all classes of properties that have been coming in since the beginning of the month, we are banking upon putting through a good grist of sales between now and the early summer."

Receipt of earnest money on a central business property was reported by an office. The consideration mounts up into a substantial figure and it is expected that the deal will be closed by the end of the month. Papers in another Superior street transaction, upon which an advance payment was made two weeks ago, are expected to pass early next month. The prospective purchaser is a Minneapolis man.

The sale of a fifty-foot frontage on Superior street near Twenty-fourth avenue west to Frank A. Johnson, was reported today by the Pulford-How company. That office also sold a Waverly Park lot to N. Caderette for improvement in the building of a home in the spring.

Want Agents Licensed.

Members of the Duluth Real Estate exchange are interested in the adoption of policies and suggestions designed to increase its usefulness. Among the moves under consideration is the introduction at the present session of the state legislature of a bill to license real estate agents. It is said that such legislation has been found beneficial in other states in raising the status of the business through preventing undesirable persons from engaging in it.

The A. A. Fider company sold for Austin W. Stromquist to F. Podell, a house and lot on Third street between Eighth and Ninth avenue east for $3,000, and a lot on Sixty-fourth avenue west and Wadena street for E. H. Cobert to John Boyle at $400.

* * *

The Harris Realty company sold for Mary Prince to Bertha M. Jensen of Ashland, Wis., a flat property on Fourth street near Seventh avenue east at a consideration of $3,000. The Little & Nolte company represented the seller. The house will be remodeled and made thoroughly modern by the purchaser, who bought it for investment.

* * *

Four sales in Gary Central division were reported by the Gary Land company. That outside interest is increasing in properties in the steel plant district is shown in the number of inquiries being received. Representatives of an Iowa syndicate were in the city yesterday with a view to making an inspection and report upon the Gary townsite proposition from an investment point of view.

* * *

Charles P. Craig & Co. reported sales of two Lakeside building lots, one on Dodge street to A. Nyman at $350, and the other at Forty-ninth avenue east and Pitt street. A five-acre tract at Greyson Farms was also disposed of for immediate improvement.

* * *

H. H. Jungck, sales manager of the N. J. Upham company, commented upon the extent of the inquiry being met with for Waverly Park lots. Five lots were disposed of there by that office during the week, two of them being resales at good advances by owners who made investments in the park when the plat was placed on the market last summer. It is understood that ground will be broken during the early spring for at least six houses.

* * *

The Ebert-Walker company sold to J. Saarl, a twenty-acre tract on the Mesaba electric railway between Iron Mountain and Kinross station, on a basis of $30 an acre.

Advice for Investors

There are probably many people who delay making investments for the reason that they are not acquainted with the investment and have no way of ascertaining its real value.

This is especially true of the person whose means are limited. They probably represent years of saving by close economy and thrift. Naturally such a person hesitates to risk his little all on something he knows nothing of. No doubt many such people would like to invest their money in a home or speculate in a small way in real estate, but ignorance as to values, location, the likelihood of increase or decrease in values, etc., leaves them undecided.

Such a one need not allow his money to lie idle. The city of Duluth has what is known as "TheReal Estate Exchange," an association composed of real estate operators in the city. This exchange has a committee known as the "appraisal committee," whose services are at anybody's call, whether he be a member of the exchange, a firm or corporation, or an individual in no way connected with the real estate business.

This committee is made up of men of long experience whose knowledge of values are unquestioned and who are in a position to render an absolutely unbiased opinion as to the value of any piece of property, whether it be an unimproved lot in the residental district or a million dollar factory site.

If you are contemplating any investment in this line, bear this in mind if you happen to be unacquainted with condiions. It is no longer necessary to pay an expert an exorbitant price for a valuation survey.

The Real Estate Exchange will do it for you at only a nominal charge, for they, better, perhaps, than any others, realize that fair and impartial valuation is the one big thing in real estate business that is conducive to a steady and substantial growth of any city.

THREE OF SEVEN RINKS ARE WINNERS

West Duluth Curlers Make a Good Showing in the Bonspiel.

Three of the seven rinks of the Western Curling club that were entered in the bonspiel of the Northwestern Curling association, which has been held in the city during the present week, will "bring home some of the bacon." The successful rinks are those skipped by Charles Iltis, Walter M. Evered and Alex Donald.

The Iltis rink has won the second prize of the consolation event. The Evered rink will get either the third or fourth prize of the St. Paul Jobbers, and the Donald rink will get similar prizes in the Western Curling club event.

The showing made by the seven rinks at the bonspiel was the best ever made in the history of the club. Only two of the seven were put out of sufficient principal events to be eligible to take part in the consolation event and each of the rinks got into the eights of some of the events.

The other rinks entered in the bonspiel were skipped by Frank H. Wade, Emil J. Zauft, Melvin Olson and Joe McDonald. The latter was an organization of high school boys.

The local club members will again settle down to the grind on Monday evening. The principal game scheduled is between Tom Quinn and Alex McDonald in the semi-finals of the Union Match event. The winner will play the Wade rink for the matches.

NEED ADDITION TO MERRITT SCHOOL

Mothers' Club Goes on Record Urging It; School Too Congested.

A lecture on communicable diseases, their symptoms and treatment, was given yesterday afternoon before the Mothers' club of the Merritt school, Fortieth avenue west and Sixth street by Dr. M. A. Nicholson. The program also included musical numbers by Miss Irene Hanson, Miss Helen Hedberg and the school orchestra.

The crowd that attended the meeting packed the room and as a result the club went on record as desiring the enlargement of the Merritt school, proposed by the school board, made as early this year as possible. The school is now said to be taxed to its capacity and some of the children are required to attend the school only half of the time.

It is claimed that the building of the junior high addition to the Lincoln school will not relieve the congestion at the Merritt, and that none of the children of that district have been benefited by the creating of the junior high at the Irving school. Residents of the community say the only thing that will relieve the congestion is the building of the addition.

FARMERS FIX ROADS FOR SLEIGHING

Hundred Men Cover Bare Spots on Highways Leading to City.

People who had occasion to use the Hutchinson road yesterday forenoon were impressed with the sight of a large gang of men working at shoveling snow on to the roadway over a stretch of nearly a mile. Some of the men who witnessed the work were of the opinion that this was a new form of employment provided by the city or the county.

The fact was that the men were farmers of Hermantown who had taken the forenoon off from their regular labors about the farms for the purpose of fixing up the road for better sleighing. At the meeting of the Farmers' and Producers' club early this week a report had been given that the road was poor for sleighing.

Quick action was taken to ask all to get out and assist in covering the road with the snow. Nearly 100 men responded, and within three hours after the work was started bare spots in the Hermantown, Hutchinson, Morris Thomas and Getchell roads were covered with the snow.

SURVEY OF YEAR'S WORK

County Agricultural Agent Gives Review of His Activities.

More Than 300 Farmers Visited and Forty Meetings Held.

A survey of the work of the county agricultural agent for the year 1914 is given by H. G. Larson, St. Louis county agent, in his weekly agricultural letter. The report shows among other things that more than 300 farmers were visited on the farms last year. Mr. Larson says in this connection:

"Many of these visits were in the nature of first aid to the new settlers, giving suggestions on brushing land and seeding to clover, the kind of crops to plant and how to plan buildings. In addition to attending meetings and twenty-six farmers clubs, six new clubs were organized during the year; eight short courses were conducted. The agent addressed forty meetings with a total attendance of 2,251 people.

"A federation of farmers' clubs in the vicinity of Duluth was organized and material aid given to opening public markets in Duluth and sustaining same during the summer and fall and to a limited extent into the winter. Much progress was made in communities growing but one variety of potatoes for market and practically all farmers were induced to treat their potatoes for scab and a few were induced to spray for prevention of blight, and to make hill selection of seed.

"Over 200 cows were tested for production, two pure bred dairy sires were purchased and others exchanged through the county agent's advice. The county agent co-operated in running an agricultural train for ten days in St. Louis county, reaching 2,000 people. The instructors were piloted by the county agent to many farms at each point visited by the train.

"The greatest problem of St. Louis county is that of land clearing and the county agent's work is creating a sentiment in favor of clearing more acres on each farm each year that is beginning to show results, more acres being brushed and stumped in 1914, even on the older farms, than in any previous year. The county agent has had the hearty co-operation of the county superintendent of schools, so that the teachers have co-operated in the twelve boys' and girls' club potato contests, and in instruction by the agent in twenty schools reaching 800 rural children.

"A number of farmers have mapped out their farms and commenced a definite system of crop rotation. One hundred seventy-eight articles were published in the county papers, 1,540 circular letters and bulletins distributed and 450 letters written.

"Two farmers' clubs were assisted in making a survey of the cows in their community and determining on the advisability of starting a creamery. It was found that more cows were needed in each case to insure success.

DO YOU WANT TO BE A LANDLORD

There is no better way than to first buy your own home. It will take only a few years of your usual rent money to pay for it.

THEN YOU WILL HAVE FORMED THE HABIT of making a monthly payment on an investment, and as surely as night follows day you will buy another house, or build another, and resell it to someone who has not yet learned the lesson of paying rent to himself.

On the second investment you make, the terms will work out easier because while you will be paying something out every month you will also be collecting a similar amount from your customer.

OTHERS HAVE DONE THIS

and why not you? The majority of our middle rich people started with a small investment, just as a baby learns to walk by creeping.

TRIUMPH OF BRITISH NAVY PLEASES PEOPLE

STRONG OPPOSITION TO EFFICIENCY BILL, BUT IT MAY NOT BE DEFEATED

Committees Are Dominated By Men Friendly to the Measure.

Bill to Reorganize School System Seems Doomed to Defeat.

By a Staff Correspondent.

St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 25.—(Special to The Herald.)—What is going to happen to the work of the efficiency and economy commission?

Is it slated for defeat? If so, why?

Questions like these reach here; many of them. It is a little soon to expect answers to them.

Guessing just now mainly seems to be to the effect that the bill presented by the commission will be defeated. But it does not follow from that that it will be defeated. If one were forced at this stage to prophecy, the prophecy would be that the bill will fail. But the session is young yet, the legislature has not even begun the consideration of the measure, and many things can and will happen between now and April 22, when the session will end unless by resolution the legislature ends it sooner.

But this can be said: If the legislature rejects the work of the commission appointed by Former Governor Eberhart, it will not be the result of any devilish conspiracy, or any "combine," or any organized attack upon it within the legislature or either branch of the legislature. For there is no such thing, and there is not likely to be any such thing.

It may be beaten. I am not prepared to say now that it won't be beaten; and it is only fair to say that on the whole the chance now seems to be that it will be beaten. But if it is beaten its enemy will not be the dynamic force of an organized, subtle, subterranean opposition, but the static force of the inertia of custom and conservatism.

Those Against It.

The state board of control, misliking the proposal that it be wiped out of existence, is against the bill, and its members and friends are working against it.

The state board of health, resenting

WOULD DETERMINE SANITY OF THAW

Lawyers Ask He Be Sent to Bellevue for Examination.

New York, Jan. 25.—A motion to have Harry K. Thaw sent to Bellevue hospital so that it might be determined there whether he were sane, was made today by Thaw's attorneys at his arraignment in the supreme court here on a charge of conspiring with others in effecting his escape from the Matteawan asylum, in August, 1913.

Decision on the motion was reserved.

No attempt was made to obtain Thaw's release on bail and he was remanded back to Tombs prison.

Justice Davis announced that Thaw would be arraigned next Wednesday. The justice will, on that date, decide the motion to have Thaw sent to Bellevue.

BIG ADVANCE IN FREIGHTS

Trans-Atlantic Rates Have Increased 900 to 1,150 Per Cent.

Report Submitted to Senate By Secretaries McAdoo and Redfield.

Washington, Jan. 25.—Evidence of extraordinary advances in trans-Atlantic freight rates since the outbreak of the European war, amounting in some instances to 900 and even 1,150 per cent, was presented to the senate today in a joint report from Secretaries McAdoo and Redfield.

"While this report is being written," the statement says, "information is received that rates are higher than those given in some of the tables presented and that even at these extraordinary figures it is difficult to obtain cargo space for earlier sailings than March and April."

The report contains numerous tables of rates on various commodities from American to European ports and summarizes the principal advances since Aug. 1 last, as follows:

New York to Rotterdam, on grain, 900 per cent; on flour, 500 per cent; on cotton, 700 per cent.

New York to Liverpool on the same commodities, from 300 to 500 per cent.

Galveston to Liverpool, on grain, 174 per cent; on cotton, 361 per cent; to

SENT BACK TO AUTHOR

House Refers Resolution on the Limitation of Appropriations.

Move to Have the Efficiency Bill Reported Back Feb. 10.

By a Staff Correspondent.

St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 25.—(Special to The Herald.)—After battling until long after the noon hour the house today, by a vote of 54 to 51, referred back to its author for correction the resolution offered by Representative Paul W. Guilford of Minneapolis, instructing the appropriations committee to hold its budget within the limits of the 1911 appropriations, which, according to the state auditor's report, were about a million and a half lower than those of 1913. This was done after Mr. Guilford had modified his resolution so that instead of commanding the committee to do this, it merely stated it to be the sense of the house that it should use its best efforts to do so.

Inexcusably Extravagant.

Representative Spooner, chairman of the appropriations committee, supported the motion on the ground that the statistics given in the bill are incorrect, the 1913 appropriations having actually been more than four millions higher than those of 1911. "The 1913 legislature," said Mr. Spooner, "was the most inexcusably extravagant legislature in the history of the state."

"As I understand it," said Representative Devold, Socialist, Minneapolis, "that legislature was in control of the Progressives. If that is so, I thank the Lord I am not enrolled with either the Progressives or the reactionaries."

Calls It Impracticable.

Representative Sawyer said the Guilford resolution was impracticable without change, because while the committees are fixing up the budget the legislature is always passing appropriations so the committee could not keep track of the total.

Representative Prendergast of Belmeji said that in his county the tax rate is 66 mills, while the state tax is only 4.75 mills. "If the people want economy," he said, "let them begin at home."

Representative Adams said the reso-

GLAD IN MOURNING FOR HER HUSBAND

Spouse Not Dead, However, and Returned on Ship With Wife.

New York, Jan. 25.—Mrs. James McKay Oswald, who was Miss Davina McRoberts of St. Paul, Minn., now the wife of Capt. Oswald of the Seventh Scotch Royal Fusiliers, reached New York today on the steamship Cameronia, wearing mourning for her husband, who stood at her side as the ship docked.

She had not had time to purchase other garments before the Cameronia left Glasgow, where she had put on black because her husband's name had been listed among the dead in the trenches in France.

Capt. Oswald was only wounded, however. When he had recovered he went to Dundee, where he had left his bride, and found that she had left and, mourning him as dead, was about to sail home on the Cameronia. He hurried to Glasgow and reached there a short time before the ship sailed.

DULUTH THE THIRD PORT IN THE UNITED STATES IN VALUE OF TONNAGE

New York Leads the List With Galveston Second.

United States Engineer Completes Report on Shipping for 1914.

Ocean Ports That Lead Duluth Open the Entire Year.

Maj. E. D. Peek, United States engineer in charge of the Duluth district, has just issued his official report of commerce coming to or going out of the harbor at the Head of the Lakes, officially known as the Duluth-Superior harbor. In it he goes into detail as to tonnage and valuation in the various commodities, the registered tonnage of vessels plying in and out of the harbor and other interesting data.

Under the existing law, the United States engineering office is able to keep an accurate account of the amount passing the piers each way, for the masters of the vessels must report their cargo and its amount. Freight valuations are obtained from the various trade journals, commercial records and the principal wholesale dealers, and are based on average wholesale prices on board vessels for shipments, and landed on wharves for receipts.

In connection with the report is an interesting statement showing the amount and value of iron ore, compared with other freight, leaving this harbor during the past year. Of iron ore, 19,225,904 short tons were shipped out of this harbor, and of all other commodities, 14,309,800 short tons were shipped. However, even though the tonnage of iron ore was more than the others combined, the value was less, as shown thus: Value of the ore, $44,288,244; of other commodities combined, $242,714,716, a difference in favor of the commodities other than iron ore of $198,426,472, a difference not generally supposed.

During the last year 32,965 passengers arrived in the city and 28,918 departed, the remainder of them perhaps being pleased and deciding to stay.

The Third Biggest.

The total commerce of the port during last year amounted to 33,535,704 tons, valued at $287,002,960. The only comparative figures of other American ports so far available are those of 1913, and taking them for a basis, Duluth, as to valuation, is the third American port, New York being first, Galveston second and New Orleans fourth. In view of the fact that the other three mentioned are ocean ports, open the year round, and Duluth is a lake port, open only eight months in the year for interlake traffic, and some times not that, it is claimed that Duluth, in pro-

DECISION OF IMPORTANCE TO UNION MEN

Kansas Coercion Statute Annulled By U. S. Supreme Court.

No Right, However, to Employment By Opponents to Union.

Washington, Jan. 24.—The Kansas so-called coercion statute, making it unlawful for any individual or corporation to coerce, or influence any person to enter into any agreement not to join or remain a member of a labor organization as a condition of such person securing or continuing in the employment of such individual or corporation, was today annulled as unconstitutional by the supreme court.

The decision was regarded as of the first importance in the labor world and was announced by Justice Pitney. Strong dissenting opinions were given by Justice Holmes, Justice Day, Justice Hughes concurred with Justice Day, leaving Chief Justice White and Justices McKenna, Lamar, Vandeventer and McReynolds concurring with Justice Pitney.

The decision was in the case of T. B. Coppage, a superintendent of the St. Louis & San Francisco railway at Scott, Kan., convicted of violating the law in threatening A. R. Hedge, a switchman, with discharge if he did not sign an agreement to withdraw from the switchmen's union.

Right to Join Unions.

"The court intimates nothing is inconsistent with the right of individuals to join labor unions," said Justice Pitney, "nor is the legitimacy of such organizations questioned so long as they conform to the laws of the land as others are required to do. But the individual has no inherent right to join the union and still remain in the employ of one who is unwilling to employ a union man, any more than the same individual has a right to join the union without the consent of that organization.

OFFENSIVE MOVEMENT

Object to Clear Russian Invaders From Territory.

Petrograd, Jan. 25, via London.—There has been pronounced activity along the entire Austrian front of 300 miles during the last few days. This is regarded here as marking the initiation of the plan for an Austro-German offensive movement, which is believed to have been adopted recently with the object of clearing the Russian invaders from Bukowina, eastern Galicia and Northern Hungary.

In Galicia, between the Rivers Vistoka and Jasiolka, approximately thirty miles east of the Dunajec, Gen. Brojevitz, commander of the fourth Austrian army, has undertaken a forward movement in the direction of Przemysel. Whether this is an attempt to relieve Przemysl, which has been under siege for several months, or to force the Russians to withdraw from Bukowina, is not yet clear.

Simultaneous Attack.

Simultaneous attacks are recorded on the Russian positions in Bukowina, in the vicinity of Kimpulung, and in the South Polish provinces of Radom and Kielce, along the line from Inowlodz to Konskie and thence to Sobkow, where

London, Jan. 25.—An attempt by a German cruiser squadron to repeat the attack recently made on Scarborough, the Hartlepools and other British coast towns, was frustrated yesterday by the British patrolling squadron, and in a running fight, the German armored cruiser Bluecher was sunk and two German battle cruisers were seriously damaged.

The British ships suffered only slight injury. So far as is known only 123 of the Bluecher's crew of 885 was saved.

A battle also occurred between the light cruisers and destroyers accompanying the bigger ships but the result of this engagement has not yet reached the admiralty.

British Superior in Ships.

The British were superior in ships engaged, weight of armament and speed, and the flight of the German ships into the mine and submarine infested field possibly saved them from further losses.

The Bluecher was a cruiser of 15,550 tons displacement, and although commissioned in 1908, was completely rerigged last year. She was not classed as a battle cruiser, but was in the next class to those formidable fighters. With her were the Derflinger, Germany's latest battle cruiser, which had just left the builders' hands, and the battle cruisers Seydlitz and Moltke, the latter a sister ship of the Goeben, formerly of the German but now of the

BRITISH DESTROY 400 WAR AUTOS

Airmen Drop Bombs on Repair Shop at Essen in Last Raid.

Amsterdam, Jan. 25, via London.—The British air raid last week on the town of Essen resulted in the destruction of 400 war automobiles, according to a correspondent of the Handelsblad. These cars were in a repair shop which was wrecked by the British bombs.

The loss of this large shop and its elaborate equipment, the correspondent continues, has been a serious blow, and the Germans have been compelled to take over a private automobile factory at Aix-La-Chappelle, where hundreds of Dutch workmen have obtained employment.

CONFIDENCE IN THE FLEET IS RESTORED

Sinking of German Cruiser Arouses Enthusiasm in England.

German Official Report Says British Cruiser Was Sunk.

Admiralty Denies This and Says All British Ships Safe.

London, Jan. 25.—Yesterday's naval engagement in the North sea has aroused much more enthusiasm among the British public than either the fight off Helgoland or off the Falkland islands, although both of these engagements perhaps loomed larger in actual results. To the English people the combat of yesterday means the triumph of their long time confidence in their big gun fleet, and it calms the fear of the east coast of frequent repetitions of the Hartlepool and Scarborough raid. Sir David Beatty, the youngest admiral in the British navy, has become the most popular hero of the war.

The German official report on Sunday's fight admits the sinking of the cruiser Bluecher, but offsets this loss with the assertion "according to information available one British battle cruiser was sunk." This statement has been directly denied by the British admiralty, which says clearly:

"No British ships have been lost."

Sunday Fighting.

This engagement keeps up the reputation of the present war for Sunday fighting, which has been so frequent, both on land and sea that Sunday has now come to be a day of increased vigilance rather than of relaxation.

No important developments in the land fighting on either front have been reported in London, but some improvement in the weather in the west has resulted in considerable activity, which, however, has thus far produced no notable results.

The contending forces in Bukowina are forming for a new battle and the Austrians claim the advantage in the preliminary skirmishes. The Austrians claim also that they have driven back the Russian advance through some of the Carpathian passes.

Turks Suffer Reverse.

The Turks, according to London reports, have suffered another reverse at Khorasan, in Turkish territory.

The question of food supplies is being considered urgently in both London and Berlin. The British government has appointed a cabinet commission to consider the matter. The labor party has demanded that the gov-

NEW GERMAN NAVAL GUN OF GREAT RANGE

Krupps Are Manufacturing Weapon of Marvelous Carrying Power.

Berlin, via London, Jan. 25.—Remarkable figures regarding a new German naval gun are given by a German artillery expert, writing in the Artilleristische Monate Hefte.

In discussing an assertion by the London Times that the German navy possesses a gun which carries three miles further than the best British weapon, the writer admits that Krupps are manufacturing a gun whose projectile weighs 920 kilograms (about a ton) and which develops muzzle velocity of 940 meters (about 3,700 feet), a second. The expert reckons from these figures that the gun has 38 per cent more muzzle force than the British navy's best weapon and has a range of about 42 kilometers (about 28 miles), while the channel at Dover is only 33 kilometers (about 22 miles) wide. He says the figures given, if correct, will permit the Germans eventually to command the English coast from Calais for a distance of 9 kilometers (about 6 miles) inland with the new gun.

ANNOYING.

SUMMARY OF THE WAR NEWS

A new attack on the Russian armies has been initiated by Austria and Germany in the east, in accordance with the plan believed in Petrograd to have been adopted by the Teutonic allies. Austrian forces have struck at their opponents all along their 300 miles front, but so far as is known in Petrograd no important results have been achieved. The object of the attack apparently is to relieve Hungary from possible invasion by clearing the Russians from Galicia, Bukowina and Northern Hungary. Vienna reports state that the czar's men already have been checked in Bukowina.

Desperate fighting at close quarters is in progress in Central Poland, where many men have died from cold. The most determined efforts of the opposing forces have not resulted in breaking the deadlock there.

On the western battlefields severe encounters continue in Alsace and the Argonne.

Neither the French nor the German statement today claims marked successes, although the Berlin communication states that on the heights north of Sennheim, Alsace, the French were repulsed with heavy losses. The German statement reports the loss of a trench near Berry-au-Bac.

The German official reports of yesterday's engagement in the North sea says that, "according to information available," a British battle cruiser was sunk. This is at direct variance with the official English version of the fight, which states that none of the British vessels was lost. The German report confirms the sinking of the German armored cruiser Bluecher and states that the other German vessels returned to port.

According to Vienna reports the Austrians have administered a definite check to the Russian army which invaded Bukowina. An official statement from the Austrian capital today, however, says merely that quiet prevails after the latest successful battles in Bukowina and makes no mention of the hurried Russian retreat and heavy losses reported previously. The statement shows that the Russians again succeeded in penetrating passes of the Carpathians.

The defense of the garrison at Przemysl, Galicia, one of the dramatic features of the war in the east, is said at Vienna to have been carried on with such success that Russian assaults on the city have virtually ceased. The siege has lasted for month after month.

FISHING STEAMER SHUT OUT BY ICE

Hovering Around Edge in Lake About Five Miles Out.

One of the numerous fishing steamers that ply between Duluth and north shore points all winter, has attracted some attention among those along the Lake avenue water front today as she has been hovering around the edge of the ice in the lake, and is now about five miles out.

Whether or not she is endeavoring to find a passage through the drifting ice is not known, but it is believed that she has been waiting to see if there is an early change in wind that would drive the ice out and break it, allowing her to get in. It is not believed that she will attempt to come through, otherwise.

In such cases these craft usually put back to Two Harbors or go to Port Wing, where the harbors are almost always clear.

The name of the boat is not known.

BILL WOULD GIVE RELIEF

Senator Adams and Chief Troyer Frame Pension Measure.

Retired Policemen, Widows and Orphans Would Be Aided.

Members of the city commission will some time this week consider a new police pension bill for home rule cities of the state having 50,000 or more population, as prepared by Chief of Police Troyer and State Senator Charles E. Adams. Commissioner Hicken will ask that the commissioners indorse the bill before it is introduced in the state senate by Mr. Adams.

The bill includes Duluth and St. Paul and it provides for the pensioning of disabled and retired policemen, their widows and orphans under 16 years of age, disabled or retired police matrons and their orphan children under 16 years of age, and widows of policemen, who die in the service, and their orphan children. All funds now in force by state regulation do not include widows and orphans.

Would Provide Relief.

Chief Troyer, who prepared the bill with the assistance of Senator Adams, said this morning that the proposed law gives Duluth and St. Paul police departments the power to organize as pension bodies and to provide for such relief as is proposed in the statute.

The bill provides that each department should receive its apportionment of one-seventh of a mill tax levied by the state, but that in addition, each member of the force should pay a monthly installment, the money to be deducted from the salaries by the city treasurer, while the dog license taxes should also revert to the police fund. Any reward received by an officer for an arrest for outside cities will go to this fund, the bill states.

Governing Board.

The governing board of the relief association will consist of the mayor, chief of police and treasurer, who will act as ex-officio members, while five others shall be named annually. The city treasurer will act as custodian of the fund.

The bill provides that chiefs shall pay $1 each month to the fund, captains and chiefs of detectives, 80 cents; superintendents of bureaus of identification, 75 cents; lieutenants, detectives and court officers, 70 cents; secretaries, 65 cents; sergeants and chauffeurs, 60 cents; telephone operators and janitors, 40 cents; matrons, 25 cents, and patrolmen and other members, 50 cents.

Provisions of Bill.

Following is the provision in the bill regulating the pensions:

"Section 2.—The following sum per month shall be paid to each of its pensioned members who shall have reached the age of 50 years or more, or their widows and orphan children under 16 years of age.

Chiefs, $75; captains and chiefs of detectives, $65; superintendents of bureau of identification, $62.50; lieutenants, detectives and court officers, $60; secretaries, $55; sergeants and chauffeurs, Class A, $50; telephone operators and janitors, $35; matrons, $25; patrolmen and all other members of the department, $45.00; when such member shall have arrived at the age of 50 years or more, and shall have done active police duty as a member of such paid municipal police department for a period of twenty years or more in the police department of such city in which such relief association shall be so organized or, who having been disabled physically or mentally because of injury received or suffered while in the performance of his duties as such police officer, so as to render necessary his retirement from active police service, any such member may be placed upon the pension list, and shall receive such pension as may be provided for in said articles of incorporation or constitution and by-laws; and, provided further, that the widow and orphan children under 16 years of age, of any such pensioned and retired member of the police department, and the widow and orphan children under 16 years of age, of any police officer who dies while in the service of the police department of any such city, may be placed upon the pension list, and shall receive such pension as may be provided for in said articles of incorporation or constitution and by-laws, not exceeding $25 per month for such widow, and $6.00 per month for each of such orphan children under the age of 16 years; provided, however, that in the event that any such widow remarries, she shall receive no further benefits under this law; provided, however, that said fund shall not be used for any other purpose than for the payment of service, disability or dependency pensions as herein provided."

HUSBAND MUST CARE FOR WIFE

J. E. Warren, Confessed Forger, Is Placed on Parole.

If Jerome E. Warren, 44, confessed forger, expects to keep out of the penitentiary, he must make an attempt to provide for his wife and children and keep away from the company of other women.

Such was the admonition which he received this afternoon when he stood before Judge Cant in district court awaiting sentence for the crime of forging checks and passing them on Duluth merchants. Warren was placed on parole and directed to make regular reports to County Attorney Warren E. Greene.

Warren was arrested Sept. 1, charged with forgery, and until today has been in jail awaiting the disposition of his case. Some time ago he appeared before the court and pleaded guilty. His attorney, John H. Norton, asked the court to parole him, and Warren's friends also interceded in his behalf. Judge Cant stayed the execution of his sentence until Dec. 31, 1915, and ordered him released from custody.

Warren came to Duluth from Winnipeg about the middle of August. He took up employment as a barber at the St. Louis hotel. On Sept. 1 he purchased a $136 camera from Zimmerman Bros., who accepted his check on the Canadian Bank of Commerce at Winnipeg for $136.50. Later it developed that he had no funds in the bank and that the paper was worthless. Four other checks drawn on the same bank were passed on Duluth merchants.

At the time of his arrest, Warren was living with a woman whom he held out to the police as his wife. Investigation later proved that she was not his wife. It was also learned that Warren was a married man and had a wife and children in Chicago. He admitted to Judge Cant this morning that he had not been living with his family for four years. Before coming to Duluth, Warren lived in Winnipeg for about a year.

Judge Cant gave Warren a stern lecture on the necessity of taking care of his own family and letting women, other than his wife, alone. "It is certainly your duty to keep away from other women. You can not be the right sort of a man and be chasing around or living with any other woman than your wife. The effect of such living can only be to drag you down."

WILL TAKE CHARGE OF SCOTT ESTATE

An estate consisting chiefly of mining stock and estimated to be worth several thousand dollars was left by the late David Y. Scott, one of the proprietors of the Scott-Bevier mine. Mrs. Anna Hughes of Superior, daughter and sole heir, was this morning appointed administratrix of the estate by Judge S. W. Gilpin of the probate court.

Mr. Scott, who was a well-known mining man in Duluth and on the Vermilion iron range, died suddenly while at the Scott-Bevier mining camp about seven miles northeast of Tower and Soudan on Dec. 9, 1914. He was 65 years of age at the time of his death.

Listed among his property is $50,000 worth of stock in the Scott-Bevier Mining company, the value of which has not been definitely determined. He also owned real estate in Carlton county valued at $1,000.

Judge Gilpin will leave Wednesday for Virginia to preside at a range term of the probate court. He will return to Duluth Saturday.

CITY WILL SPEND $8,000 FOR LUMBER

About 500,000 feet of lumber, entailing an estimated cost of $8,000, will be purchased this year by the department of public works for use in constructing sidewalks and fences.

Some time next month Commissioner Murchison will introduce an ordinance asking for an appropriation to purchase the lumber. An estimate as to the exact amount needed is now being prepared by the city engineer's office.

Last year the department spent about $7,000 for lumber used in constructing sidewalks.

ELECTRIC APPARATUS FOR Y. M. C. A. CLASSES

A new electrical laboratory is being installed at the Y. M. C. A. The new course in practical electricity will open this evening at 7:30.

Some of the apparatus has already been received. In order to add to the practical value of the course it has been decided to let the class help install the apparatus during the first few laboratory periods. The first step will be to go over plans for the laboratory, estimate the material required, set the machines, do the wiring, etc., all to be done under the supervision and instruction of an expert electrician.

This class means a new opportunity for men connected with electrical work to increase their earning power in a short time by devoting a part of their spare time evenings to this work.

Keep window spaces warm!

As a rule you'll find 20% of the exterior of a house consists of windows, and the heat leakage through the glass constitutes 40% of the total heat loss in or from the average home. Our ideal heating provides the only means of offsetting the heavy onslaughts of cold at the windows by placing the radiators directly under or alongside the glass, thereby keeping the window spaces at the same uniform temperature as every other part of the house.

"The heat that brings contentment"

AMERICAN RADIATORS & IDEAL BOILERS

No matter how fiercely winter rages at windows and doors, the faster will be the natural flow of warmth to the AMERICAN Radiators to offset the cold. That's the beauty of our way of heating—it is founded on natural laws. AMERICAN Radiators immediately meet the cold—unlike hot air registers which have to be placed in a protected corner of a room to coax the heat up, especially on windy days. A coal-economizing outfit of IDEAL SMOKELESS Boilers and AMERICAN Radiators will transform a moderate size bin of coal into extra months of abundant, sanitary warmth—and no fuel waste.

And what an astonishing amount of drudgery is lifted from mother, wife and maid in the doing away with lugging and heaving of scuttles and ash-pans, the blacking, taking down and storing of stoves, the heavy after-sweeping and cleaning, and the consequent wear on the furnishings and decorations of the home.

A No. 4121 IDEAL Boiler and 420 sq. ft. of 38-in. AMERICAN Radiators, costing the owner $190, were used to heat this cottage. At this price the goods can be bought of any reputable, competent Fitter. Whether your building is old or new—store, school, church, farm or city house—put in at once an outfit of IDEAL SMOKELESS Boilers and AMERICAN Radiators and enjoy solid, clean warmth to the end of your days. These outfits do not wear out; purchasers always get full money back, sell property quicker, or secure 10% to 15% greater rental. They are an investment, not an expense. They reduce the cost of living and better the living!

These outfits can be put in without tearing up, or disturbance to occupants or present heating devices until ready to put fire in the new IDEAL Boiler. Keep the windows and all other spaces warm as toast—put in the outfit now and enjoy at once the contrasting comfort, convenience and cleanliness. Prices now rule the lowest of a decade and you get the services of the most skillful fitters. IDEAL Boilers have large fuel pots in which the air and coal gases thoroughly mix as in a modern gas or oil mantle or burner, thus extracting every bit of the heat from the fuel. Easier to run than a stove.

U. S. AGREES WITH BERLIN

Willing to Make Changes in Consular Service in Belgium.

Washington, Jan. 25.—The United States has sent a formal note to Germany, which, without discussing the sovereignty of Belgium, expresses a willingness to make such arrangements as may be necessary with the German military authorities in de facto control of Belgium territory for the continuance of American consular service there.

The American note should have been delivered in Berlin by today.

Although the first note from Germany did not explicitly raise the issue, officials of the Washington government, in making their reply, carefully avoided any expression which could be construed as a political recognition of Germany's control of Belgium.

Decision Awaited.

The decision of the United States has been awaited by Central and South American governments, who instructed their diplomatic representatives here to discuss it in the Pan-American union. The note from the German foreign office, sent identically to all neutral governments, announced that the exequaturs or certificates of authority, of all neutral consuls, had "expired."

No reference was made in either the German note or the American reply to the status of diplomatic officers.

American Minister Brand Whitlock will continue at Brussels where he is in active charge of Belgian relief work.

Reply of United States.

In its reply the United States declares that it considers a consul not a political but "a commercial representative," who derives permission to do business, irrespective of his legal right, from the authorities in direct control of the district to which he is assigned. In view of the German military occupation the United States further asserts that it "is not inclined to question at this time the right of Germany to suspend exequaturs."

The language of the American note reveals that this government considers the exequaturs originally issued by the Belgian government to have been "suspended," and not "expired," as characterized in the German communication. This construction is in accord with similar phraseology used by the United States on previous occasions.

While not questioning the German government's military occupation the American note presumes that the American consular officers at Brussels, Antwerp and Liege are personally agreeable to the German authorities. If they are not, the communication asks that the Washington government be promptly informed. It does not state whether new consuls would in that case be designated to replace them.

WOULD SEND 500,000 MEN

A. H. Smith, a former resident of this city and who was one of the enthusiastic curlers at the recent spiel, declared before leaving here for his home in Winnipeg, that Canada stood ready to send 500,000 men to the front if they were needed. Mr. Smith is an officer in the motor transport service of the Dominion. He has three sons and a nephew at the front. Mr. Smith declares that he is ready to go to the front at any time.

"The young business men of the Dominion are proving themselves excellent soldiers," said Mr. Smith. "The idler, the bum and the man who has joined the service because he is out of work, is finding the routine irksome and the drill too hard. Mind you, some of the drills take the men fifteen miles on forced marches across the prairies. Part of this hike is taken on the run.

"The duties of the men start shortly after 6 in the morning and continue until late in the afternoon. We have closed all of the bars in Winnipeg at 8 o'clock. We have put temptation out of the way of the recruit.

"Let me tell you this—Canada has already sent some 36,000 men to the front to fight the fight for the mother country. In the next consignment 104,000 men will be sent across the water. After that 68,000 more men will be ready. If more are needed, Canada is prepared to send them. The Dominion will send 500,000 soldiers to swell the 9,000,000 soldiers of the allies, if it is deemed necessary."

Mr. Smith described a parade of the soldiers quartered in Winnipeg. In columns of fours the soldiers marched through the streets of that city. Not a cheer was heard, according to the statement of Mr. Smith. Fighting up there, he declared, had assumed all the aspects of grim, death-like business.

"We have never considered the thought of losing," continued Mr. Smith. "No such thought has ever entered the heads of the Canadian people. Canada has already spent $167,000,000 and is willing to spend a great deal more. Canada is asking no aid from the mother country. We are asking for no money to be paid back. We are in the fight and we are prepared to go to the last extremities."

"SPILLED THE BEANS"

Unforeseen Hitch Occurs in Plan to Redistribute Departments.

Action Postponed, But Change May Be Made Later.

Somebody "spilled the beans."

The redistribution of departments on the city commission, as outlined in The Herald Saturday evening, will not take place, for the present at least.

The plan as outlined in The Herald Saturday evening was authentic, in spite of denials. The information was given to The Herald by a man who was present at the meting when it was discussed, and those who are in the confidence of the commission admitted this morning that "The Herald had it lined up about right."

But a hitch occurred in the plans Saturday afternoon after The Herald appeared.

At a conference held last Friday morning it was tentatively agreed upon by several of the commissioners that final action would be taken at a special meeting to be held either Saturday afternoon or Monday.

The members of the commission had agreed to keep the plan a secret until final action was taken at a council meeting, but the publication of the plan evidently put a new aspect on the matter.

Mayor Prince said this morning that he will vote for any change that he feels will be for the best interests of the city in general. Similar statements were made by Commissioners Hicken and Murchison, while Commissioner Voss declared that he has the interests of Duluth at heart and would accede to any plan favored by the rest of the commission. Commissioner Merritt is opposed to the change outlined.

Asked if he would object to becoming the head of the public utilities department, Commissioner Voss declared that if a majority of the commissioners so decide, he will gladly take charge. He also stated that if any such plan carried, he would first insist on absolute power in the department, with a right to reorganize the entire division and go ahead on his own progrom.

As a result, the entire proposition is still being considered, and it may come up at any time within the next few weeks.

GHOST OF BEAU BRUMMEL OUTRAGED

Man Wears Enough Clothes to Start Rummage Sale; Arrested.

Beau Brummel's ghost stalked abroad, indignant, last night, when the police brought in a man wearing five shirts, two vests, two sack coats, an overcoat, slippers and at least two pair of trousers.

This man, aged 34, whose name is the Russian for John Smith, he said, was pacing up and down before a barn near Twenty-fourth avenue east and the lake front, flapping one arm vigorously, to keep warm.

Under the other arm was a large bundle, containing an assortment of shoes, slippers and one dancing pump. There were no two shoes that were mates, and Smith, unlike Beau Brummel, lacked even more discrimination, because color evidently made no difference to him. The shade of the English court "dandy" is said to have recognized, with much sorrow, the cravat worn by Smith, but this is not vouched for by Police Capt. Fiskett.

Patrolman Hood, upon investigation, found that Smith had made the barn his castle for three days, and he arrested him on a charge of trespassing. When he appeared in municipal court this morning his case was referred to Probation Officer Hicks.

DIES AFTER EATING HEARTY BREAKFAST.

About an hour after eating a hearty breakfast, John Bovick, aged 37, was found in his room at 216 Lake avenue south yesterday morning, dead. Bovick, who had been a laborer, had been unable to work for several weeks because of illness, it is said. A search for friends or relatives of the deceased so far has proved unavailing. Deputy Coroner James McAuliffe will hold an autopsy at Crawford's undertaking rooms this afternoon.

MORE MEN ARE NEEDED

Chief Troyer Also Recommends a Work Farm for Women.

City Never More Orderly, Says Police Head in Annual Report.

Duluth has been a cleaner, more orderly city during the year ended Dec. 31, 1914, than ever before in its history, according to the thirteenth annual report of Chief of Police C. H. Troyer, which was submitted to W. A. Hicken, commissioner of public safety, this morning.

"There is a better spirit among the officers," reads the report. "No one resigned voluntarily and the city never has been in a better condition."

Recommendation for a larger appropriation, so that the force can be augmented; need of a reformatory institution exclusively for women; and a tribute to the work done by Supt. Fred Ward at the county and city joint work farm since its establishment, were features of the report.

"Duluth needs an institution for women that will do for them what the work farm is doing for the men," stated the chief. "The municipal lodging house and the industrial home are doing good work, but they were not established for the purpose of taking care of old offenders, such as often fall into the hands of the police, and who, necessarily, are either sent to the county jail or turned loose to re-engage in their unlawful and immoral practices.

Probation System.

"The probation system has done efficient work," the report continues, "but the work farm, established Jan. 14, 1914, probably was the greatest step forward ever made by the city in the way of taking care of delinquents, inebriates and other minor offenders. The joint work farm commission certainly was fortunate in its selection of Fred Ward as superintendent of this farm."

Praise for the commission form of city government is found in statistics dealing with the criminal cases handled. There were 5,278 arrests, a decrease of 562 from the previous year. Of these, 230 were females, compared with 257 in 1913 and 410 in 1912, the last year under the old form of municipal government.

No Drunkards on Force.

Discipline in the department is on a higher plane than ever before, according to the chief, who says: "For many years there never was a time when there were not some policemen in the department who drank to excess. This feature has been eliminated entirely and there is not a drunkard on the force."

Two men were discharged during the year and five resigned "under pressure," there being no one who left voluntarily. "This shows that the men are better satisfied with their work and therefore are making better officers," comments the chief.

"More men are needed on the force, so that the residence districts can be patrolled more thoroughly," in the words of the report. "Now it often is necessary to withdraw men from beats temporarily for other work."

Five homicides were recorded during the period covered by the report. The murderers were arrested in the city limits excepting in one case, that of the man who shot Patrolman Neil Mooney, who was caught in Superior.

"I am proud to say," says the chief, "that in the last seven years we have captured every murderer, with one exception. There have been thirty-one such cases."

FEE OWNERS WILL GET ORE ROYALTIES

Settlement of Long Standing Longyear Lake Case Made.

Royalties which have been in dispute for the past four years pending a lawsuit involving the rights of the state as to ore underlying Longyear lake near Chisholm have been deposited by the Euclid Iron Mining company with the First National bank of this city and will be paid to the respective fee owners in accordance with an order of Judge Cant of district court, filed Saturday afternoon.

The question of who was entitled to receive the royalties due under a lease held by the Euclid Iron Mining company was one which was involved in a mandamus action instituted by the state against Eliza Korrer and other fee owners, who were interested in the property. It was recently held by the supreme court that the state had no right or interest to the ore upon which royalty payments have become due.

Since the action was started, Eliza Korrer, one of the defendant fee owners, died. The money due her will now be paid to the representatives of her estate. They will receive $4,155.58. Other fee owners will receive as follows: John Brennan of Superior, $1,038.91; White Iron Lake Mining company, $640.55; and Anna L. Korrer, $2,077.80. The money has been held up since Oct. 26, 1910.

To ELAINE

Be reassured. You are safe!

My friend, Mr. Jameson, has informed me of your great upheaval of spirits, and has requested me to see you and inquire into the nature of the case. From casual investigation I have made into the cases of Messrs. Haxworth, Fletcher and Sherburne, whom you mention in your advertisements, I think the same parties are responsible for your annoyance.

But you need not worry. The detection of crime, Miss Elaine, in these modern days is all science. Finding a criminal is not more difficult than working out a chemical analysis.

If, by any chance we should miss you at the proposed meeting place at City Hall, I will watch for your announcement in tomorrow's paper.

CITY'S FAME DRAWS IDLE

Noted for Taking Care of Unemployed and Outsiders Crowd in.

Police Surgeon Murphy Makes Monthly Report to Chief Troyer.

"Duluth is famed as a city that cares for its unemployed, and consequently men are drifting in here from all parts of the Northwest, to be given meals and lodging," said Dr. I. J. Murphy, police surgeon, in his fourth annual report to Chief of Police C. H. Troyer, submitted this morning.

"Idleness begets disease as well as crime," he declares, "and the problem of providing for unemployed men is one of the most important we have in this city. Our reputation has increased the seriousness of the problem."

An increase of practically 100 per cent in the number of insane cases cared for by the city, from 22 persons last year to 43 this year, is one of the noteworthy items in the report.

"There is little doubt," says Dr. Murphy, "that this has been caused, at least in part, by business conditions. The lack of employment, with the resultant want of proper nourishment and suitable environment, is a big factor in such cases."

The police surgeon, with his assistants, has cared for 492 patients during the period, an average of 41 a month. Of these, 42 were women. Twenty-two of these cases resulted in almost immediate death, there being a large variety of causes. Of the suicides, two were by phenol poisoning, one from knife wounds, and one from drowning. Two accidental deaths by drowning were cared for, and two cases of death from excessive drinking.

Bullet wounds, street cars and automobiles each were responsible for one death, according to the report.

Recommendations of the police surgeon are confined primarily to a plea for recognition of the importance of the problem of the unemployed.

"It is hoped," says the report, "that steps will be taken soon to provide some method of taking care of these men, so that they will not drift into the hands of the police, as they otherwise do.

"I would like to see a bureau established that would cover the state, and co-operate with similar bureaus in other states, so that we would know where men are needed and where we could direct them. There usually is work, and if we control the situation in this way it would make a big difference. This is indeed a case where an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure."

ROBBED WHILE RETURNING HOME

Footpads accosted A. X. Schall, manager of the Fitger Brewing company, as he was on the way to his home at 318 South Twenty-first avenue east shortly after 10 o'clock last night, and after a short altercation, knocked him down and relieved him of $35. The robbery occurred at Fourteenth avenue east near Jefferson street.

He reported the affair to Police Lieutenant Barber several minutes later by telephone. He said that the thieves had obtained three $5 and two $10 bills, together with a small quantity of silver. He was unable to furnish the police with a description of his assailants.

CONCILIATORS HOPE TO MAKE REPORT SOON.

Cleveland, Ohio, Jan. 25.—When Daniel J. Keefe and Hywell Davies, Federal strike conciliators, conferred here today with coal operators of the Eastern Ohio field, where 15,000 miners have been on strike since the first of April last, they hoped to be able to conclude hearing the mine owners' side of the controversy before tonight. Davies said it was possible that a report would be made soon to Secretary Wilson.

IN FAVOR OF LABOR UNIONS

So Long as They Have Due Regard for Interests of the Public.

So States John D. Rockefeller, Jr., at Industrial Hearing.

New York, Jan. 25.—John D. Rockefeller, Jr., told the Federal commission on industrial relations here today that he is heartily in favor of labor unions so long as they have a due regard for the interests of the public.

He denied that he had sought or even wished to exercise absolutism over the coal industry in Colorado, and explained why he had declined to take a more active part in settling the recent strike of employes of the Colorado Fuel & Iron company.

Statement Prepared.

Mr. Rockefeller took with him to the stand a prepared statement which he read to the commission.

"The only coal property in Colorado in which we are in any way interested is the Colorado Fuel & Iron company," he said. "For me to have attempted to dictate a policy or control the situation would have meant an assumption of authority far beyond what the investment which I represent would have justified, and if tolerated by the management of that company would have been resented by the other companies involved in the dispute."

Were Directors.

Commissioner Walsh asked if during 1914 Starr J. Murphy, Jerome D. Green and the witness, sit on the personal staff of John D. Rockefeller, were directors of the Colorado Fuel & Iron company. The witness said yes.

Prior to that, the witness said, he and others came to believe it was a mistake to maintain secrecy regarding great corporations and determined to get facts before the public. He communicated last spring with Ivy L. Lee, who was then connected with the Pennsylvania railroad.

Paid By John D., Sr.

Lee worked in Colorado during his vacation, Mr. Rockefeller said. For his services John D. Rockefeller, Sr., paid Lee a salary of $1,000 a month. No charge was made against the Colorado Fuel & Iron company for the money Mr. Rockefeller, Sr., paid to Lee, the witness asserted, nor against the Victor-American Fuel company or the Rocky Mountain Fuel company.

The policy of publicity was determined upon last June by the elder Rockefeller and his personal staff. The witness, personally, engaged Lee for his work in Colorado. He gave no suggestions, as he thought he should make his own plans.

Lee went to Colorado after he had suggested himself that he issue a series of bulletins containing the truth about the situation in Colorado.

Jenkins Keeps Books.

Commissioner Walsh wanted to know who kept the books of John D. Rockefeller, Sr. The witness said a man named Jenkins. Any money paid to Lee for his services would appear in the elder Rockefeller's books. Mr. Rockefeller said that some time the other operators might pay part of Lee's compensation, but that if they did not the account would remain as he had described it.

When Mr. Lee joined the Rockefeller staff he automatically became a member of certain boards, Mr. Rockefeller continued.

"Lee became a director of the Colorado Fuel & Iron company," he said, "he did not have any connection with the Rockefeller foundation.

Sort of Family Affair.

"Our office is a sort of family affair," said the witness. "We discuss business and philanthropy in the office."

Although Mr. Lee is not a trustee of the foundation, Rockefeller said he would not hesitate to discuss its affairs with him.

Mr. Walsh then asked Mr. Rockefeller to produce at a later date all the correspondence between the New York and Colorado offices of the Colorado Fuel & Iron company during the last two years in which there was any mention of labor conditions.

While Mr. Rockefeller testified, a police lieutenant in uniform stood behind his chair and watched the crowd, and police detectives were distributed in the room.

Not Financial Success.

Mr. Rockefeller said his interests did not intend at the outset to develop the coal and iron mines in Colorado. The Rockefeller interests, he said, bought only a small stock of ownership. The company was not a financial success, so it was reorganized, he said. In Minnesota, the witness related, the Rockefeller interests decided to develop the iron industry before they started operations.

Testifying at length regarding the value of real estate of the Rockefeller interests in Colorado, equipment of the plants and the amount of money which had been put back in the property, he said the investment was probably worth $20,000,000 more now than when the Rockefeller interests got control.

DIVORCES GIVEN TWO ABUSED WIVES

Both Women Grow Weary of Cruelty of Husbands.

Judge Ensign in district court today signed findings in favor of the plaintiff in the divorce action brought by Jane E. Rounds, 36, against Albert L. Rounds, 39, to whom she was married at Oneanta, N. Y., Nov. 29, 1893. The case was tried at the November term of court.

The decree was granted on the grounds of cruel and inhumane treatment. Mrs. Rounds declared that since the spring of 1910, she had been subjected to beatings and assaults from him. Since 1911, she said, she had supported herself and their young child, Elita, aged 5. She was given the divorce and the custody of the 5-year-old child.

The custody of their other child, Eva, aged 15, was not determined by the court.

Judge Fesler on Saturday afternoon granted a divorce to Mathilda Stark, 39, from Charles G. Stark, 41, on the grounds of cruel and inhumane treatment. Mrs. Stark was awarded the custody of their five minor children.

The Starks were married at St. Paul on Nov. 19, 1891. Mrs. Stark testified that her husband failed to properly support her and the children and that most of his earnings went for drink.

ROOT LEADS THE ATTACK

Denounces Action of Democratic Caucus on Ship Purchase Bill.

Says Measure Is Reversal of Principles of U. S. Long Maintained.

Washington, Jan. 25.—Senator Root led the Republican attack on the administration ship bill in the senate today with a denunciation of the Democratic caucus, which made the bill a party measure; of the parliamentary tactics by which the Democrats have so far forced the Republicans to do all the debating, and finally with a denunciation of the bill itself.

The attitude of the Democrats he characterized as "a conspiracy of silence" to put through the bill by pressure on "physical weakness."

For ten days, he said, the minority had been compelled to do eight hours continuous talking without a word of discussion from the majority side, and without more than half a dozen Democratic members in the chamber.

Not Right Kind of Discussion.

"It does not seem to me that this bill, which would put the government into the business of foreign shipping, is receiving the kind of discussion it should have," said he. "It is important not merely because it involves a vast expenditure at a time when we have been forced to make up a deficit; but also because it embarks the government on a new departure based on a reversal of principle of government long maintained.

"No such change in policy was contemplated when they put the present administration in power.

Step Fraught With Danger.

"We abandon today the performance of our function of so discussing this measure among ourselves as to enlighten the people concerning it, and we have taken one step further than ever before in the process that makes us a registering body rather than a legislative body. We have taken a step fraught with dangers and results fatal to a representative government.

"The liberties of a free people depend on the courage and persistency of a minority. They depend also on the independence of thought and action of all members of a legislative body. If we are out to register and smother our judgment, we are contributing our part to a process more fatal to our country than any legislation that we can devise."

SECOND CONCERT BY ORCHESTRA

Interest in New Organization Increasing—Svea Club Is Heard.

That the career of the Duluth Concert orchestra is destined to be remarkably successful was demonstrated yesterday afternoon when a large audience gathered at the Central high school to hear the second of the series of Sunday concerts. The attendance was up to the mark set at the first concert and the enthusiasm even greater. The Svea club was featured on the program, and helped round out a most interesting program.

The arrangement of the program reflected great credit on the conductor, Fred Bradbury. The wide variety of selections and the nice discrimination shown in their choice added in no small degree to the keen enjoyment of the audience. Program making is one of the big problems of a new orchestra, owing to the limited funds for the purchase of music, lack of time for rehearsal and the varied tastes of an audience which is as yet unaccustomed to orchestra music.

The conductor has evidently tried to steer a middle course between those who want the lighter, popular numbers, and those who call for the heavier, more difficult selections. As examples of the former, yesterday's program included the always popular march, "Pomp and Circumstance," by Edgar, and the descriptive numbers, "Mice and the Trap" and "Forge in the Forest."

Two lighter dance numbers were also well received. They were a Spanish dance by Steger and the "Festival Dance and Waltz of the Hours" by Delibes.

Offsetting these lighter numbers was the beautiful Beethoven overture to "Egmont," in which the orchestra appeared at its best. The violin section is especially strong. The conductor has been fortunate in having available some excellent violinists, and the Duluth orchestra has provoked some enthusiastic condemnation from local music lovers for the strength of its violin section in particular.

The appearance of the Svea Glee club, a body of Duluth singers already widely known and admired, was the occasion for a hearty demonstration of applause. The fine blending of their voices and their skill displayed under the baton of Charles Helmer made their part of the program one of the most keenly enjoyed. Their rendering of a chorus arrangement of the sextet from "Lucia di Lammermoor" was intelligently interpreted and given with much spirit and sympathy. The club has made excellent progress in musical achievement and its work yesterday added new laurels to its fame in this city.

The third concert of the series will be held Sunday, Feb. 7, at the Central high school.

WILL CRESSY RETURNS.

Familiar Character Actor Headlines New Bill at the Orpheum.

Will M. Cressy, one of the best known character actors on the vaudeville stage today, with Blanche Dayne, heads the bills which opened for the current week at the Orpheum theater yesterday afternoon.

New England characters have been depicted truthfully by Mr. Cressy for years and his latest playlet, "The Man Who Remembered," gives him another opportunity for excellent work. With Blanche Dayne as a traveling saleswoman who attempts to sell him a bill of goods, Mr. Cressy gives his audience a good picture of Hiram Howe, storekeeper, quaint and crabbed, the meanest man in New Hampshire.

"Three Beautiful Types," an unusual act, presents Kalene Carter, Grace Cooper and Georgie Russell in representations of famous pictures. A ravishing blonde, a brunette type that should be recommended to Charles Dana Gibson, and an auburn one that might have outshone Cleopatra, provide a novel act, with the assistance of Charles deSoria. Reproductions of "The Lovers" and "The Storm," were particularly good.

Musical features of the bill are provided by Cervo, piano accordionist, and Grace de Mar, commedienne. Cervo probably can be called the best of the long list of accordionists who have appeared on the local vaudeville stage this season. If his reception yesterday was criterion, he undoubtedly is the best.

Miss De Mar, with several pleasing songs and some original gowns, adds to the strength of the bill materially. Her strap hanging scene in a street car provoked a good many laughs and helped to pass an enjoyable fifteen minutes.

Bertish, "combination of strength and agility," is all of that. His "strong" act is certainly as impressive as any that ever has appeared locally. His performance is dressed elaborately and on the whole should rank high among features of that variety.

In "Jaunts and Journeys," movie artists build a house and install a family in record time—a brick house—at that. Other comedy, adventure and travel films fill outthe bill.

Doughnuts

That will remain moist.

Every housewife who bakes her own bread knows that if a little potato is added to the sponge, the bread will not dry out as quickly. In this recipe potato is utilized to make doughnuts that will remain moist and fresh for several days.

K C will be found to have distinct advantages over any other Baking Powder for doughnuts. K C is a double acting baking powder with which a large batch of doughnuts may be mixed and fried a few at a time. The last will be as light and nice as the first.

K C Potato Doughnuts

By Mrs. Nevada Briggs, of Baking School fame.

3½ cups flour; 2 eggs; 1 cup sugar; ¼ level teaspoonfuls K C Baking Powder; ½ teaspoonful salt; ½ teaspoonful mace; 1 cup cold mashed potato; ½ cup milk, or more if needed.

Sift three times, the flour, salt, spice and baking Powder. Beat eggs with rotary beater, then still using rotary beater, gradually add sugar, then work in the mashed potato with a spoon and alternately add milk and flour mixture. Make a soft dough, roll into a sheet, cut into rounds, pinch a hole in the center with the finger and fry in deep fat.

Fat for frying should not be hot enough to brown the doughnut until it has risen. When the doughnut is dropped into the fat it sinks to the bottom. As soon as it comes up it should be turned and turned a number of times while cooking. This recipe is excellent as they do not take the fat in frying and will stay moist for days.

Omega Oil FOR Neuralgia

Rub Omega Oil gently over the aching nerves; then cover with flannel soaked in the Oil. Put a piece of dry flannel over this and bind tightly against the face. This simple treatment has brought peaceful rest to people who have suffered agonies.

BIG THINGS PLANNED FOR DULUTH CONCERT ORCHESTRA

Bigger things are already being planned for Duluth's Concert orchestra.

Next year the new armory will be available. Work will begin on it within a few weeks and it will offer an immense auditorium at a low rental. The plan, which is already being quietly discussed, is to give a series of at least four big concerts, bringing the greatest stars available to Duluth. Such artists as Schumann-Heinck, John McCormick, Mischa Elman and others are being considered.

It is hoped that by that time the orchestra will have developed into a full-fledged symphony orchestra, and with the immense seating capacity of the new armory it will be possible to offer such attractions as a symphony orchestra concert with a soloist like John McCormick for an admission of perhaps 25 and 50 cents.

These plans are far from being fully developed, but it is such an object that the committee behind the orchestra has in view and its accomplishment depends largely on the support given the orchestra during the remainder of the present season.

"THE VIRGINIAN" PLEASES.

Duluth matinee-goers flocked to the Lyceum Sunday to witness the Baldwin Players' presentation of "The Virginian." They were not disappointed; the players again scored a triumph in Duluth. The scenery used is excellent; the company, augmented for this week's entertainment, is nicely balanced, and it would be some one hard to please, indeed, who found fault with either play or presentation—especially at the range of prices asked by the stock company. The attendance yesterday set a new record for an opening day.

Homer Barton, using comedy where it is written into the lines, also showed conclusively that he can be serious, even dramatic, and his "Virginian" was well received. In the last act, especially, did he show his caliber as an actor. His scene with his sweetheart, Molly Wood, (Miss Shoemaker), in which he tells her of the ways of the West, where men could either do or die, or suffer in the estimation of their fellowmen, was effectively carried out. Barton's Virginian drawl was good.

Miss Shoemaker did her work well, and she makes this week a most lovable little schoolma'am—the sweetheart of the Virginian.

But perhaps the best bit of acting, is accomplished by de Stefani as Trampas. Trampas is bad—really, absolutely, positively, emphatically bad! It is as such that de Stefani excels, and this week gives him his chance. One could wish that the play had been written with even more opportunities for Trampas to show just how bad he is.

For some unaccountable reason, one likes to see Trampas swagger about the stage, ill-natured, and full of ill-natured liquor. It is a foregone conclusion that Trampas must die, but the audience likes him, even if he is a rogue, a cattle rustler, a man who shoots his enemies in the back. De Stefani adds his own methods to show just how "sore" Trampas is, with the result that the character stands out above all others in the show. As the Baldwins' heavy, De Stefani shows a lot of class.

Louis Leon Hall, as "Honey" Wiggin, did exceptionally well. Al Smith gets his share of "talking lines" this week as Horace of "talking lines" this week as Horace of Nebraska, as does Chester McLeod, who has been absent from the company for some weeks, but is back this week as Baldy.

Walter Baldwin, Jr., plays Steve, the boy who goes wrong through the persuasion of Trampas. The affection shown between Steve and the Virginian is pathetically touching, reaching its climax when Steve, "caught with the goods," is led, in company with a pal in mischief, a Spanish cattle thief, to a tree off-stage and hanged.

Among the women members of the company, aside from Miss Shoemaker, leading lady, that deserves especial mention, is Miss Lotus, the so-called "second woman" of the company. She hasn't a lot to do this week, but as the affected Eastern person who finds herself among the crudities of the big West, she scored several good laughs and quit a number of "Ohs" of derision from her feminine audience—a tribute to her character work. This young woman is no mean actress, as was definitely shown last week in "Lost, 24 Hours" in which she played the difficult part of the adventuress.

The whole company this week in fact, is doing work that seems above criticism. The stock company perhaps is the best that Duluth ever has had, and the presentation of "The Virginian" shows to a great extent the scope of the company's talents.

The scene showing Horse Thief Pass, in the third act, is one of the best yet put on by the company. The street scene in Medicine Bow, in the fourth and last act, also is good, as is that of Judge Henry's ranch house in the second act.

"The Virginian," written by Kirk La Shelle and Owen Wister, is a dramatization of the novel of the same name. The Virginian rescues a pretty young school teacher when a drunken stage driver misses the ford in a river. He, the Virginian, retains her handkerchief. The momentary meeting in the river leaves both girl and boy in love. Later they meet at a christening at Uncle Howie's ranch.

Trampas, wherfior he also loves the school teacher or not, the play failing to make that clear, tries to besmirch the girl's name. For this he is called to account by the Virginian and the two men become enemies—gun enemies. Meanwhile Trampas works his wiles on Steve, a dear boy friend of the Virginian. Eventually Steve is captured and hanged. Trampas escapes.

The Virginian and the schoolma'am become engaged. The day before the marriage, Trampas, accompanied by his rowdy cowboy friends, comes to Medicine Bow looking for trouble with the Virginian. He gets the first shot, misses, and is shot dead by the Virginian.

A lot of side lights run throughout the play—comedy, tragedy interweave.

"The Virginian" will run throughout the week with the usual matinees Wednesday and Saturday.

Next week the Baldwins will put on "Mary Jane's Pa," using little Muriel Cole, the child who took the title role of "The Littlest Rebel" when it was presented here some months ago by the same company, to play "Mary Jane." The piece is said to be a great melodramatic comedy, with fifty people in the cast.

THE "PERILS OF HELEN" RIVAL THOSE OF PAULINE

Miss Helen Holmes, the popular "movie" star, who is becoming a prime favorite at the New Grand through her appearance in the series of thrilling railway pictures known as "The Hazards of Helen," was once a stock actress in Duluth. Now she has the unique distinction of being the only actress in America who is managing a leading film company—the Kalem company—which is producing the weekly railway thrillers.

Miss Holmes takes her life in her hands almost every week in some daredevil act. One week she will jump off a high trestle into a river, again she will leap from a rushing train, or rescue a child by running in front of a speeding engine.

In the picture series she is called upon to do many things of an unusual nature. She can drive a locomotive, an automobile, ride a horse, swim and dive. Her athletic accomplishments are fast making her famous.

"A Fool There Was."

In making the screen version of "A Fool There Was," the latest of the William Fox productions extraordinary, which opens an engagement at the Rex theater today, Director Frank Powell has introduced several distinct novelties, some of the most striking of which occur in the "introductions" of the various characters. Quite noteworthy indeed are some of the Powell effects in Porter Emerson Browne's drama of "The Vampire-woman," which is released through the Box Office Attraction company.

Miss Theda Bara, the leading woman of the Gymnase and Antoine theaters in Paris, and equally well known in Berlin and Vienna, for her remarkable powers, is seen literally at first as the "rag and a bone and a hank of hair," of Kipling's poem. Gradually the evolution of the vampire takes place till Miss Bara herself is seen on the screen in a wonderful gown that accentuates the serpent-like character of the siren, holding a white rose. The rose gradually becomes fiery scarlet and then dissolves into a splash of crimson blood.

New Bill at Grand.

Mlle. Nadge, the "Physical Culture Girl," will head the new bill opening at the popular New Grand this afternoon. Her poses, exquisite gowns and feats of strength make an interesting act.

The Connolly Sisters promise something new in the way of topical songs and clever and original dances. Both are said to have beautiful voices, winning personalities and exquisite costumes.

Woodford and his wonderfully trained animals will be seen. Woodford handles his beautiful animals in a masterly manner and his training of the famous man-monkey, "Oscar" who does nearly everything but talk, is a rare feat in animal training.

May and Kilduff offer a comedy character skit, "A Limb of the Law," full of wholesome comedy and with songs that contain a laugh in every line.

Something new in the way of motion pictures will be shown in the "Bert Levyette." "New York and Its People" is the title bestowed by this artist-entertainer on his first subject which is his debut into filmdom. Among the photoplays is the two-reel feature, "The Third Act," "Olive's Manufactured Mother," one of the Olive stories; "The Snallburg Volunteers," a comedy, and a Western story, "Broncho Billy's Mission" complete the bill. On Tuesday and Wednesday the three-reel feature, "My Friend from India" will be added to the above program.

At the Zelda.

At the Zelda will be seen today for the last time, "Their Island of Happiness." For tomorrow and Wednesday, "Star of the Sea," played by Pauline Bush, William Dowland and Lon Chaney, will be the attraction. This drama presents an interesting story excellently produced, by Joe de Grassee. It shows how a cloistered gay, young sculptor broke away from his evil companions because he is called upon to execute a great work for the church. During his work he also meets the woman he eventually marries.

GREAT CHANGES FOR THE THEATER

Revolving Stages Predicted By Pioneer Vaudeville Actor.

Will N. Cressy, who is one of the pioneers in American vaudeville, declared at the Holland today that the vaudeville of the future will be played in larger theaters and at cheaper prices. He also predicted that within a very short time vaudeville will be played on revolving stages, such as several of the theaters of Japan have, which will be the means of saving time in making changes.

"Mrs. Cressy and myself were the first legitimate stage performers of this country to enter vaudeville," said Mr. Cressy. "At that time Boston looked upon vaudeville with some doubt. The good and very conservative people of that city associated the idea with variety and burlesque. It was then that Keith, who comes from the same part of New Hampshire as myself, hit upon the idea of getting legitimate actors to force the recognition of the more conservative playgoers. This you might say was the start. Now vaudeville numbers some of the greatest actors and actresses in the world. "The telephone was like manna from heaven to the writer of vaudeville sketches. It made more situations possible and abreviated action. Yet today the sketch is the most difficult phase of vaudeville."

FOOD SOURING IN STOMACH CAUSES INDIGESTION, GAS

"Pape's Diapepsin" Ends All Stomach Distress in Five Minutes.

Wonder what upset your stomach—which portion of the food did the damage—do you? Well, don't bother. If your stomach is in a revolt; if sour, gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented into stubborn lumps; head dizzy and aches; belch gases and acids and eructate undigested food; breath foul, tongue coated—just take a little Pape's Diapepsin and in five minutes you wonder what became of the indigestion and distress.

Millions of men and women today know that it is needless to have a bad stomach. A little Diapepsin occasionally keeps this delicate organ regulated and they eat their favorite foods without fear.

If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion; if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember, the quickest, surest, most harmless relief is Pape's Diapepsin which costs only fifty cents for a large case at drug stores. It's truly wonderful—it digests food and sets things straight, so gently and easily that it is really astonishing. Please, for your sake, don't go on and on with a weak, disordered stomach; it's so unnecessary.

SUPERIOR

Died While He Slept.

Hack Bokas, age 45, was found dead of heart failure Saturday afternoon in a rear room of Joe Koske's saloon, 1716 Third street, where he had gone with two other companions to sleep. The other two men were sleeping when the bartender came to wake them up. The three men had come in from a camp early in the day and had asked the bartender if they might rest a while. After the men had been there about five hours the bartender went to wake them up. Bokas was found dead. The coroner said he had been dead for about three hours. The man is not known to have any relatives at the Head of the Lakes.

Free With Firearms.

Several shots were fired at random Saturday night on lower Tower avenue, one of the bullets striking a sign in front of Joseph Galprin's clothing store, 515 Tower avenue. The proprietor informed the police that he believed the shots were intended for him. He said he knew of no enemies that wanted to take his life. The police are conducting an investigation.

Held for Robbery.

Carl Anderson, 24, a laborer was arrested yesterday morning on complaint of John A. Johnson of Duluth on a charge of highway robbery. Johnson claims that while he was walking from Superior to Duluth, Anderson demanded his "money or his life." Johnson instantly shouted and Patrolman Thurber came to his assistance. Anderson will be arraigned on a charge of highway robbery in police court today.

IS FARMING A GOOD BUSINESS? SENATOR NELSON THINKS IT IS

Down in Rock county, Minnesota, the little garden spot tucked away in the extreme southwest corner of Minnesota, the farmers and business men are not worrying about the war—in a financial way at least—or the tariff, or the high cost of living.

Senator S. B. Nelson of Luverne, who is looked upon as one of the most substantial business men in the entire southern tier of counties, and as one of the "squarest" and most influential men who ever sat in the state legislature, is in Duluth today. He and Mrs. Nelson are the guests of Judge and Mrs. J. D. Ensign, friends of long standing. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Nolte of Duluth are also old friends of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson, Mr. Nelson and Mr. Nolte having served together on the board of equalization before the state tax commission took charge of its work.

"The farmers of Rock county are making big money as the result of the high prices," said Mr. Nelson. "Land in Rock county is hard to find at $100 an acre. Recent sales have been made at from $115 to $135 an acre, and as high as $175 an acre has been paid for highly improved land.

"They are going in chiefly for corn, hogs, cattle and potatoes with butter and eggs as a big side line.

Own Automobiles.

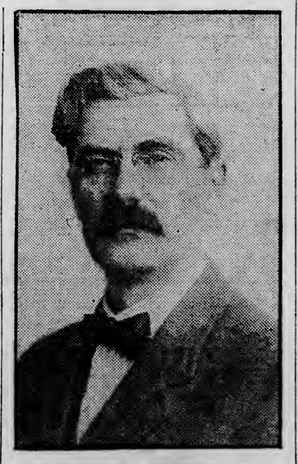

"I think I would be safe in saying that nine out of ten of the land owners of the county have automobiles. On Saturday we have a man at our store, who does nothing but meet the automobiles of farmers as they drive up to the door, help them out with their parcels, and assist them to load their machines.

"Life on the farm has few of the hardships it used to have. The automobile has brought those living ten and fifteen miles from town, in close touch with us. They drive in after supper to a motion picture show or to visit their friends in town, and drive home afterwards. With good roads, a ten-mile drive is nothing. They have rural mail delivery, and telephones in their homes. Farmers ten miles out are closer than they used to be in the suburbs a few years ago.

"They are good business men, too. They take a daily paper and they watch the market reports closer than the men in the cities or villages. Farming has become a business, and the young men are finding it to be a good business. They are staying on the farms.

"When I first went to Rock county you could buy land for $5 an acre. It is worth more than twenty times that now."

Senator Nelson was disinclined to talk politics, saying this visit to Duluth was in the nature of a social call on old friends made possible by an adjournment of the legislature.

SENATOR S. B. NELSON.

FINICKY ABOUT HIS JAIL RATIONS

When August Larson, aged 61, appeared at headquarters last night and demanded that he be fed, he was given food by Jailer Kreager, but when he objected to the menu, he was arrested on a charge of vagrancy.

Larson, who is an old offender, recently was sentenced to the work farm and on Jan. 13 was re-sentenced to the county jail for ten days, for assaulting a fellow prisoner.

For two days he has been living at the police station. Police say that the man is insane. His case has been referred to Probation Officer Hicks and an effort will be made to have him recommitted to a government institution near Portland, Or., where he was formerly held.

STANDING ROCK INDIANS PLEASED

Gratified to Know Big Cattlemen Cannot Lease Lands Again.

Fort Yates, N. D., Jan. 25.—(Special to The Herald.)—The ruling of Secretary of Interior Lane against leasing the Standing Rock reservation lands to big cattlemen has caused a lot of rejoicing among the Indians on the reservation. The lessees had large herds of cattle which frequently overran the legal limits of their leased range and got not only onto the grazing lands of the Indians, but onto their wheat, oat and corn fields, causing so much damage that frequently the entire crops were destroyed. For several weeks the Indian department has forced adjustments on many of these damage claims, but many others remain unsettled.

It is anticipated that all the unallotted lands on the reservation will be thrown open for settlement in April, after which time there will be no unoccupied lands of sufficient area to lease to cattlemen.

RITUALISM IS ATTACKED

Pastor Says Religion Is Not Matter of Outward Form.

"World Groaning Under Burden of Conventionalized Foolishness."

"The Morality of the Spirit" was the subject of the sermon by Rev. Gebauer at the First Unitarian church yesterday.

"Religion is not a matter of outward form or intellectual belief," he said, "though these may have their place, but of inward principle, which turns to the worship of God and the service of man. We must act righteously because we are righteous within, are in harmony with the forces not of ourselves that make for right.

"This is all very simple, and yet Christianity is still largely controlled by the leaven of the Pharisee, by religious legalism. Too much prevails the notion that God delights in burned offerings and sacrifice, in holy candles and sweet incense, as much at least as in mercy. The ceremonial and ritual are still often exalted out of all proportion to the service of heart and soul. Men and women still hold that to drink wine and to break bread in the name of the Master will give them real communion with Him and through Him at-one them with God.

"There still are millions who hold that the baptismal service has certain miraculous powers. Now all this is akin to the Judaism of the law, but is not Christianity nor even the Judaism of the prophets. Not that ceremony and ritual and law is bad in itself, but it is apt to stand in the way of real morality and religion. Then man who thinks that he can please God by saying certain prayers, repeating certain formulas of creed, dropping on his knees, may be as far from the kingdom as was the average scribe and Pharisee in olden days. The religion of Christ, better true religion, is an inward experience, an inner realization of what is right, which naturally demands, impels moral action and worship in spirit and in truth. And while the religion of the law genrally cultivates negative moralism, which will refrain from doing harm to the neighbor, the religion of the spirit inculcates the desire to help, the joy of sacrifice. At the same time that spirit of religion makes us aware rather of our failings than of the faults of others. The true Christian may fail to see the beam in his brother's eye, but he will surely see the mote in his own. He is not so much concerned about how his neighbor acts toward him, as he is eager to do the right thing by his neighbor.

Civilization of Law.

"I am much more concerned about the legalism, which in various forms pervades our entire social life. Our civilization is largely the civilization of law and fashion and convention, and not of the spirit. And if our civilization has broken down, the reason lies in the utter inefficiency of law to make man truly moral. Not that laws and statutes are altogether superfluous and harmful, but that in themselves they are inefficient and are very apt to deceive mankind as to the real issues of life. Men will forget that greater than any outward law is the spirit, of which the law is but a faltering expression. The spirit of goodness alone can make man good. 'What is there which so obstricts a teacher of righteousness at the present time as the conventionalism and externalism of modern morality?' asks a modern great teacher. 'It is legalism, which only too often interferes with the healthy action of the moral law. That what is not against the law is at first considered permissible, then proper and finally good. Woe to him who burglarizes a home, but no censure for him who under the cover of legality robs a poor widow of her home. The notion of mere legality is apt to callous the conscience. And as form in a church may kill the spirit of worship, so externalities forms, conventions, fashions may kill the true spirit of social life. The world is groaning under burden of conventionalized foolishness, which is accepted as the law of life. But after all life is not in these outward things, but in inward being. The free man and woman are they who in the strength of their spiritual self break the fetters of mere convention. Ethical judgments are not determined by majorities or conventions, traditions or fashions, but by the soul aware of its divineness. Christianity is freedom, freedom in good, in God, and Christ came to make us free from the bondage of laws, conventions and fashions."

SOCIAL JUSTICE IS HIS THEME

Rev. R. Edward Sayles Declares It Essential for Support of Christianity.

"Social justice is the greatest problem before the world today," said Rev. R. Edward Sayles at the First Baptist church yesterday morning.

"Social Justice" was his theme. He dealt with it as being the main thing in the cementing of mankind.

"One of the ancient prophets wrote, 'What doth the Lord require of thee but to do justly and to love mercy and to walk humbly with thy God?'" he continued. "Mr. Guggenheim has advocated taxation of large fortunes on the death of the owners as a means of aiding the poor; the establishment of government agencies to find work for the unemployed; provision for the care of aged workers, and industrial democracy wherein the workers received a portion of the profits from their labor.

"There is a growing feeling that the state must provide work for unemployed men who are willing and able to work. Money wrongly gained by men who are prominent in modern churches—that is not true of all men of wealth—does untold injury to Christianity today.

"If we ministers do not preach social justice; if these churches do not stand for it; if you laymen do not support us in this; if Christianity does not stand for the spiritualization of modern business and industry—we are lost; the wage earners will desert us, and we deserve to be deserted.

"The irreligion of today has its economic side. Social justice is just as necessary as a preachment, and as a practice of the modern church, if it is to succeed, as a revival conducted even by Billy Sunday."

FLOODWOOD BANK INCREASES CAPITAL.

Floodwood, Minn., Jan. 25.—(Special to The Herald.)—The First State Bank of Floodwood has increased its capital stock from $10,000 to $15,000 at its annual meeting. The total deposits of the bank amount to nearly $100,000.

TAKES RAP AT CHILD LABOR

Is Declared Contrary to Teachings of Christ, By Dr. Hovis.

Urges Passage of the Palmer-Owen Bill Now in Congress.

In his sermon yesterday morning Dr. William Forney Hovis, pastor of the Endion M. E. church, preached on "Offending the Little Ones," and in his discourse he protested against child labor and depicted the evils resulting from it. His sermon in part follows:

"It is said that the Chinese pay a doctor to keep them well instead of to cure them when they are sick. Their best physician, therefore, would be the one who has the least to do with ailments. They act, it would seem, on the principle of the philosophy that 'an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure.' The idea is correct. It is a great thing to be able to heal a person who is sick, but greater still to teach well people how to keep from getting sick.

"We are told to 'swat' the fly, to practice sanitation, to breathe pure air, to live in moderation, and to take the proper exercise, that our bodies may be healthy. Social welfare demands a consideration of the causes of disease.

"The particular type of social malady with which we are concerned in this address is what is called 'child labor.' It is one of the newer ills of human society which have grown out of the industrial conditions of modern times. The demand for child labor is coincident with the age of machinery, the expansion of the factory system, the intensification of agricultural pursuits, and the intricate complexity of the social structure of our day. It is only in recent years that the practice has been recognized as an offense against the God-given freedom of the 'little ones.'

Work Supposed Harmless.

"The machine age, factory service, truck gardening, and the need of innumerable pages, carriers, and messengers, seemed to afford an innocent opportunity for the employment of children at light and supposedly harmless work. The situation was accentuated by poverty on the one hand, which seemed to find a blessed relief in the pittance brought home by little hands hitherto unemployed in the household, and on the other, by the miserly cupidity of heartless employers who saw an opportunity to increase efficiency with a reduction of expense.

"It is only within the last ten years that any adequate investigation has been made of the extent, conditions, and results of child labor in America. During this decade a national child labor committee with office in the city of New York has been active in compiling statistics and creating a literature on the subject. This committee has revealed among other things the facts as to where child labor exists, in what forms, and what forces must be met in seeking legislation to combat it. It has been instrumental in setting on foot the most important public service ever rendered by the Federal government—the establishment of a Federal children's bureau, and it is now before congress asking the United States government to outlaw the traffic in the products of child labor among the states by passing the Palmer-Owen bill, which forbids 'the shipment in interstate commerce of the products of any mine or quarry which have been produced in whole or in part by the labor of children under 16 years of age or, the output of any mill, cannery, factory or manufacturing establishment, produced wholly or in part by children under 14 or by children between the ages of 14 and 16 working more than eight hours a day or six days per week or after 7 p. m. or before 6 a. m.'

Extent of Child Labor.

"The enormity of the extent of child labor can only be approached when we are informed that the volume of occupations of the thirteenth census of the United States reveals the astounding fact that in 1910 of all the children between the age of 10 and 15 years more than one in six was found at work—nearly 2,000,000—to be specific, 1,990,225. Almost half of these (895,976), were less than 14 years of age. Among the surprising features of the above named volume is the report 355 little boys from 10 to 13 years of age were at work as laborers on steam railroads and that more than 2,000 from 14 to 15 years old were similarly employed.

"There is a popular idea that work keeps children out of mischief. However, the Federal report on juvenile delinquency and employment shows that among working children, both boys and girls, there is a greater tendency than among non-workers 'to go wrong and to keep on going wrong after the start has once been made.' By numerous comparisons, covering a wide range of possible occupations and offenses and considering age, sex and home life, it has been clearly demonstrated that working children furnish far more than their proportionate share to the group of juvenile delinquents.

"There are children working in every state in the Union. The number varies with the nature of the industry in each state, with the adequacy of the child labor provisions and their enforcement, and the existence of a well-enforced compulsory education law. A pamphlet published by the national child labor committee, Jan. 1, 1915, (twenty-four days ago) indicates that there are six states, Alabama, New Mexico, North Carolina and South Carolina, Utah and Wyoming, which have no fourteen-year limit in their factories. Fourteen states: Delaware, California, Colorado, Georgia, Idaho, Indiana, Maryland, Mississippi, Nevada, South Dakota, Texas, Vermont, Virginia, Washington and the District of Columbia, have a fourteen-year limit or higher in factories with exemptions. Thirteen states: Georgia, Maine, Maryland, Nevada, New Mexico, Pennsylvania (continuous industries) Mississippi (boys), South Dakota, Texas, Utah, West Virginia, Washington (except in bakeries) and Wyoming have no sixteen-year limit in night work. Twenty-eight states: Alabama, Connecticut, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Idaho, Iowa, Louisiana, Maine, Maryland, Michigan, Mississippi (boys), New Hampshire, New Mexico, North Carolina, Oregon, Peennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Carolina, South Dakota, Temnessee, Texas, Utah, Vermont, Virginia, Washington (boys), West Virginia and Wyoming have no eight-hour day under 16 in the factories. Twenty important mining and quarrying states, Alabama, California, Florida, Georgia, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Louisiana, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, New Jersey, New Mexico, South Dakota, Utah, Virginia, West Virginia and Wyoming have no 16-year limit for mines and quarries. Six states have no compulsory education law and sixteen have no educational requirements for work permits.

Institute Petitions.

"The Palmer-Owen bill, affecting interstate relations as it does, is deemed necessary because a child labor law in each state is liable to be opposed by the industries that would be affected on the ground that they would be handicapped in competition with other states, whereas the provisions of this bill will put all states on an equal footing and strike the death-blow to child labor in all its phases. It is encouraging to note that the first provision of the bill is already in force in fifteen states, the second provision is in force in forty states, the District of Columbia and Porto Rico, and the third provision (the eight-hour clause) considered the most radical portion of the bill is on the statute books of eighteen states and the District of Columbia. Night work for children is already forbidden in thirty-three states, the District of Columbia and Porto Rico.

"Child labor is a crime against the care-free years of childhood and a mortgage against the strength of after days. It is an offense against God's 'little ones.' The charge is so grave that the Master who loved the children well would say that such an offender should be utterly destroyed and lost from sight. We would not permit like offense if we were awake to the fact. No child-destroyer could with impunity strangle his victim before our eyes. There isn't a man of us that wouldn't help lynch him on the spot. But we suffer the same thing to happen by slow degrees behind the scenes and scarcely utter a feeble cry of protest.

Care of Childhood.

"The care and nurture of childhood should be a vital concern of the nation. The children of today are the republic a generation hence. National life suffers the penalty of every offense against its childhood. God pity the land that allows its children to deteriorate into criminals or that imposes on them burdens which devitalize their bodies and minds. When our nation realizes that the demand for the protection of its children is a call to lofty patriotism, and enfolds every child within its strong, protecting arms, then with confidence we may face the future unashamed and unafraid."

EQUAL BEGINNING; DIFFERENT END

Saul and Paul Compared—Latter Triumphed Through Faith.

Taking the lives of Saul and Paul, two great characters in Biblical history, as an example, Rev. A. W. Ryan of St. Paul's Episcopal church in his sermon yesterday morning on "Human Development," outlined their life stories and showed the ending of each, the former in a suicide's grave and the latter midst a glorious service towards humanity.

"Saul, the anointed king of Israel, is a revelation of human character, in a book that is rich in character study," he said. "Both Saul and Paul started with much the same mental equipment, courage, the spirit of adventure, consideration—yet one pathway led up the heights and one down.

"Without ideals, depending on no aid outside himself, the king of Israel became distrustful, a prey to melancholia, suspected his dearest and closest friends, and ended a disappointed life in a suicide's grave.

"The Apostle Paul, depending on the life of Christ for inspiration, went 'From Glory to Glory,' gathering to himself the greatest treasures of the mind and spirit through a life devoted to service. He had a real call in life, a real work to do, and found the greatest riches of happiness and mental peace in serving to the fullest, seeking his own in the welfare of others."

TELLS OF VARIOUS BIBLE VERSIONS

Pastor White Discusses Origin of the Duoy Edition.

Pastor Stemple White spoke to a large audience last night at the Seventh Day Adventist church, Sixth street and Tenth avenue east, on the subject, "The Origin and Teachings of the Duoy Bible." Taking his text in John xvii, 17 and Col. ii, 8, "Sanctify them in truth. Thy word is truth. Beware lest any man cheat you by philosophy and vain deceit, according to the tradition of men," Mr. White said:

Old Testament in Hebrew.

"The Old Testament was originally written in Hebrew and the New Testament in Greek. These have been translated from time to time into the various languages of the earth, nearly all versions of which read practically the same. Although more copies of the Bible are printed each year than the sum totals of one hundred of the leading other books, it is a most regrettable fact that the Word of God is really so little read today, there being few people who have read it through once. At the council of Trent, 1545-1563, the Latin Vulgate was recognized as the only authorized version, but in order to harmonize the different variable editions of this Latin version, Pope Sixtus V commanded a new revision, which was published in 1590 at Rome. Although this was accompanied by a bull, enjoining its universal reception, and forbidding the slightest alterations under pain of the most dreadful anathemas, it was soon discovered that this abounded with glaring erros. This edition was called in, and in 1592 a more correct edition was issued by Clement VIII, accompanied by another bull. In the work, 'Bellum Papale,' by the learned Dr. James, he pointed out 2,000 variations. The Duoy Version, commonly called the Catholic Bible, was translated, not from the original Hebrew and Greek, but from the Latin Vulgate.

Influence of Luther.

"Since Luther had shaken the world by the gospel truth of justification by faith, it is not strange that in the Duoy version the words 'do penance' take the place of 'repent.' Yet on other points, this version reads much the same as other versions. It tells us that Jesus is the 'one mediator between God and man,' and that while the church is built upon the foundation of the apostles and the prophets, yet Jesus Christ is the chief cornerstone. It says 'call no man your father on earth' and states three times that Peter was a married man. Peter always subscribes himself 'an apostle' and 'servant,' and although James was presiding in the Jerusalem council as related in Acts xv, yet in the his epistle he uses the expression 'my brethren' fifteen times. Not only does it repeatedly declare that Christ was 'once' offered, and that he is forever alive, but it as plainly declares 'the soul that sinneth, the same shall die.' Life and immortality through Christ on gospel condition is clearly taught in the Duoy version, as well as the unconscious state of the dead in the grave; final rewards at the coming of Christ; baptism by immersion; the need of a new birth; the perpetuity and immutability of the law of God; and other fundamental truths of the gospel."

Effect of Traditions.

"Let us be sanctified by the truths of Jesus Christ," concluded Mr. White, 'and not become entangled by any human tradition of whatever name. God is tenderly calling us from darkness to light. Let us line up."

PLANNING LARGE CROPS.

Saskatchewan Farmers Will Cultivate Every Possible Acre.

Fort Frances, Ont., Jan. 25.—(Special to The Herald.)—Saskatchewan farmers recognize a great opportunity before them this year in raising bumper crops and every available acre of land will be ploughed and seeded to grain, according to former Mayor Christie, who has just returned from the great wheat belt.

Mr. Christie has a farm of 640 acres there and will put in crop next spring in every available acre. He will also erect a large barn and other buildings on a modern plan with a view of caring for his large herd of cattle in the winter months.

Mr. Christie said that there was never so much land plowed and ready for seeding as this year. He considered that the grain sown next spring would be an increase of from 25 to 35 per cent over last year if not more.

Woman's Realm

"My idea of music," said the Young Husband at the high school auditorium yesterday afternoon, while waiting for the orchestra concert to begin, "is to hear a fat soprano trying to beat a flute."

"She can't do it," said Friend Wife. "I have heard it tried by Melba and Calve and Nordica. The flute always won."

"Yes," said the Young Husband, "but as long as they keep on trying there is hope. I like to hear a soprano tackle it. First she warbles, and then the flute flutes, and then she warbles a little higher, and the flute stays right with her. I like to hear a flute chase a soprano right up to the roof this way. It always seems like a good betting proposition to me as to which will win. If I can ever find a soprano who can make the flute 'break' she can have my money every time she sings."

"I hope they will try a symphony soon," said Friend Wife.

"What is this symphony stuff?" asked the Young Husband.

"Why a symphony," said Friend Wife, "is a piece of music written for an orchestra. It is generally in four movements, and each movement has a theme of its own, which is worked out by the different instruments. You watch for the theme and then see how it is worked out."

"Every little movement has a meaning all its own, eh?" said Young Husband. "Why don't they go to it?"

"Give them time, dear," responded Friend Wife. "An orchestra can't tackle a symphony right at first. When you started to read you didn't begin with Browning, did you?"

"Then this stuff we are getting now is just the A B C of music."

"No, far from it. It's good music, and they play splendidly."

"This Lucia sextet always gets to me," said Y. H. "If there is anything I like as well as the fat soprano and a flute, it is six Italians, three men and three women, going after the sextet in the original Italian. I don't know what they are talking about, but it sure listens good to me."

"Where did you ever hear it?" asked F. W.

"Why, several years ago an Italian opera company came to Duluth, and tore it off in great style."

"I wish Mr. Bradbury wouldn't play those descriptive pieces," said F. W. "That clock store number last week wasn't up to the standard the orchestra should set."

"But they ate it up," said Y. H., slangily.

"I know they did," said F. W., "but the orchestra should aim higher than that. Perhaps they had difficulty in getting suitable music in time for the first concert. The other numbers were excellent."

"Gee, don't they try to please their audiences in this music business?" asked Y. H. "I should think that if the audiences wanted it they'd play 'Get Out and Get Under.' I don't know much about music, but I like that."

"Well, what's the matter with that?"

"Everything's the matter with it. You think that is a rather smart attitude to assume, but it isn't. It is the attitude of everybody who doesn't know anything about music. It's just the same as if you said you didn't know anything about machinery, but you knew the kind of machinery you liked. But you'll know better by the time you have heard these eight concerts. Everybody starts in with your smart Alec attitude toward music, and ends up by liking what they call the 'classical stuff' if they have a spark of intelligence, and I think you have, John."

"All right, dear, lead me to it. I'll tackle anything once for your sake."

"Don't do it for my sake; do it for your own."

Duluth is developing its taste for music, and these are trying days for Friend Wife in many a Duluth home.

IF YOU HAVE A TALENT, USE IT

Kansas City Star: Nobody, nowadays, is much interested in amateur accomplishments unless they are of the highest order. Professional entertainment has reached such a high plane of perfection, of diversity, that it is relied on by everybody. Dancing is the one grace, the one old-fashioned accomplishment—albeit in a constantly changing, new-fashioned guise—that the modern girl has time for.

The modern girl should take time to develop any talent she may have in the way of an accomplishment. For she can treble her value to whatever social life she is a part if she possesses one or more of the old-time accomplishments. And if rainy days come in her fortune she can, if she has the modern girl's wit and ingenuity, turn her accomplishment to account in a money-making way.

The wise girl will find out what accomplishment she is best adapted for and then really endeavor to shine in that.

The girl who can play or sing immediately casts about in her mind for probable pupils. These may not readily materialize, but in the meantime numberless women are only too glad to have some pleasant girl help entertain their friends with music: accompanists are at a premium, but for singers and players upon stringed instruments benevolent institutions and certain hospitals are only too glad to pay someone to play when music cannot be had free, and there are schools without number, both private and public, which need a pianist, not as a teacher, but to accompany the singing of the pupils, their marches and many of their physical exercises. The girl who can play just a little has a wide field in which to earn a living.

Singers and players upon stringed instruments have much the same field except that theirs is more restricted, and the singer is ever in demand to help at small entertainments and to sing at funerals. This last is profitable.

Then there is the girl who learns just a little painting and drawing. Few of these girls know that original designs of simple kinds are profitably sold to manufacturers of fancy articles, decorative embroideries and lace houses.

There is always a large demand for original menu cards, dinner, tea and luncheon favors, cotillion favors, entertainments where decorated cards can be used for special purposes, the cards being appropriately decorated to suit the occasion.

China painting offers a large field for artists in that branch of painting, and almost every millinery and dressmaking establishment finds use for a girl who can paint flower decorations upon gowns and their accessories.

A girl who has no gift for singing, playing or painting may always learn the art of entertaining, than which few, if any feminine accomplishments, are more appreciated. Such a girl is ever thrown upon her own recources she can make capital of her art of entertaining.

Such a girl can also get any number of engagements to engineer entertainments of various kinds. Women on committees are only too thankful to employ the services of one who can attend to matters that vex most people.

The girl who has learned to read well can always get women to employ her services for certain hours in the day or evening.

Then there is the accomplishment of doing fancy work. The girl who can embroider well, make fancy stitches, lace or other sorts of decorative work can always get all the work she wants to do. Her work is in demand in private homes, dressmaking establishments, fancy work houses and shops of various sorts.

OBSERVATIONS

By PEGGY PEABODY

Most Jealousy Unnecessary.

Jealousy is actuated by distrust, covetousness or the fear that personally one has not the mental or physical attributes to win some desired object or end. It is an admission pure and simple that one lacks confidence and that the characteristics and attractiveness of one's friends are eminently more desirable than one's own. For that reason the egotist is almost never troubled with any jealous doubts or fears.

The pangs and gnawings of jealousy are among the most disconforting and distressing of all the mental ills that afflict humanity, and one is often moved to pitying some person thus tormented, although one's pity cannot help but have contempt mixed with it. The spectacle of a man or woman enslaved by jealousy is not a pleasant one to contemplate, and the onlooker must always wonder why some effort is not made at control or at least dissimulation.

I have known women who seemed to glory in the fact that they were able to inspire jealousy in the heart of a man who seemed to think that it was a sort of tribute to their charms and fascinations. But as jealousy of this character is only founded upon despicable distrust and questioning of the faithfulness and unapproachable intentions of the one under scrutiny, it can safely be placed under the head of insult, provided there is no occasion for the frenzy that some people work themselves into.

And this is equally true whether of married or single lovers. Unless a man and woman are worthy of trust and confidence, they are not worthy of much of anything in this world, and certainly not of the love of another human being. And then again, how can love exist without confidence in the object of one's affections and hopes? To be spied upon and questioned seems to offer satisfaction to some people, but you can depend upon it that those who are pleased by such flattering attentions are not very deeply in love with the one in whom they arouse suspicions.

For a woman to consider that every act of courtesy directed by a husband toward members of her sex is proof of his unfaithfulness, and for a man to hold that the common civility necessary in the treatment of men by women is a cause for all sorts of jealous distrust, approached the ridiculous if not a disordered state of mind that borders upon insanity or something closely akin to it.

If you cannot learn that jealousy has no place in the lives of those who truly love each other, you can make an effort to control it, and if that is impossible, conceal it to the best of your ability in the interests of your own self-respect.

SCOTS WILL CELEBRATE BURNS' DAY

Clan Stewart Will Conduct Program at Spalding in Observance of Hundred and Fifty-Fifth Anniversary of Plowboy Poet.

There's a Name—a Famous Name.

There's a name—a famous name,
Of Scotia's name the wale,
That's heard abraid—that's heard at hame,
O'er moorland, hill and dale.
That name still, and fame still,
Each generation learns
And dear still 's to hear still
The name of Robert Burns.

Auld Scotia lo'es her famous bard,
And points to him wi' pride;
And in her heart wi' high regard
He shall for aye abide.
He clearly and dearly
Her veneratian earns;
For what land but Scotland
Had e'er a Robert Burns.

And Scotchmen here and Scotchmen there,
Baith hame and far away,
With joy elate will celebrate
Their bardie's natal day.
And then, man, ye ken, man,
Whene'er the day returns,
Till licht, man, 's in sicht, man,
They spend a nicht wi' Burns.
—Dr. J. Semple, Langdon, N. D.

This is "Robert Burns' day," and all good Scots will duly celebrate it. The official celebration, of course, will take place this evening at the Spalding hotel, under the auspices of Clan Stewart No. 50 Order of Scottish Clans, and to which a large number of the Scotsmen of Duluth and vicinity belong.

The usual banquet, with its haggis and other native dishes, has been abandoned for this year, and the celebration of the 155th anniversary of the birth of Scotland's plowboy poet will be confined to a program and a dance. The usual address on Robert Burns will be given by E. W. McPherran of Duluth, and the program provided is made up of the best talent the city affords.

Scotland has had many famous men and many famous authors, but none seem to have so touched the hearts of his countrymen or of the world at large as has "Bobbie" Burns. Wherever two or three Scotsmen can congregate in any part of the globe, Jan. 25, the poet's birthday, is celebrated in some form. The same cannot be said of perhaps any other author or poet of any other country; but it is true of the Scots—they never forget the humanizing poet and never fail to do his memory honor.

The program for tonight follows

The consumption of eggs in the Philippine islands is remarkably large. There are no statistics from which to compute the number of chickens annually raised in the islands, but the total is great. Throughout the country, remote from the larger port cities, chickens and eggs form a considerable portion of the diet of the people, who can afford more than rice and fish.

AMERICAN NEUTRALITY.

Here's hoping that every man and woman who has accused the United States of non-neutrality in the European war will read and read again the statement by President Wilson on that subject, and that all the other citizens will read it until they are familiar enough with its contents to be able to answer these critics should they ever break out afresh.

It has been pointed out again and again that if the allies are able to obtain over-seas supplies better than Germany and Austria can, that is something for which Germany and Austria are responsible for allowing their foes to have control of the seas. It is not a thing with which the United States has anything to do. Suppose the situation to be reversed, with Germany and Austria in control of the sea and France, England and Russia cut off from foreign commerce as the dual allies now are. Would it then be unneutral for American exporters to sell to Germany goods which England could not secure? No more than America's present attitude is unneutral.

No better answer to the charge of partisanship in the war could be made than the record of protests to belligerents on both sides in cases of violation of the rights of Americans as neutrals, and in this letter several specific instances of such protests are given.

The position of a neutral nation in such a conflict as this, especially when the people of that neutral nation include thousands of natives of the warring countries, is hard enough without having to face continual and misguided charges of non-neutrality from within its own borders. If there were any violations of neutrality committed by the United States, the offended belligerent would be quick to demand cessation and reparation, and it is safe for the partisans in this country to leave such charges to the powers whose cause they would like to espouse.

Each of the belligerents is far more jealous as to American neutrality than any individual could be, and moreover, the belligerent powers are in position to know and understand many facts which are beyond either the knowledge or comprehension of individuals who are living thousands of miles from the scene of action, and who have at best but imperfect knowledge of international practices and precepts, as well as of the facts in any particular affair. Yet it is to these individuals that this letter has had to be particularly directed, and not to any of the warring powers.

Washington has a right to hope that this letter will make these various accusers at least as tolerant of America's efforts to remain neutral as are the nations which have something at stake in the continuance of that neutrality.

New Mexico claims to have a lemon sixteen and a half inches in diameter. But as yet it hasn't run for office.

IS IT TRUE?

To the Editor of The Herald:

Can you tell me how a woman over fifty, that is depending on herself for a living and doesn't want to ask any assistance from the city, can get something to do to make an honest living? It used to be some time ago that an elderly person could get work where a young person could not; but now it seems as though old people have no right to get anything. Thanking you in advance for the space in your columns, I am

Yours respectfully,

A CITIZEN.

Is it true—this woman's charge—that nobody will give work to one of her years who is able to work and who needs that means of making a living? If it is true, something is radically wrong with conditions in the city where a person of ability and willingness to work is driven to make such a plea as this. Or is her difficulty due to the fact that she has not taken the proper means to look for an employer? Her letter implies that she has exhausted all the means she knows of, or is able to afford. There is a note of bitterness in it that may be only the outward expression of hours of disappointment.

What can a woman in her position do, if those who might employ her refuse to do so? Granting, of course, that she is not disabled, that she can do the work she offers to do, is it not almost a duty to choose one such as she in preference to a younger person who could more readily adapt herself to some other means of earning a livelihood? It seems so to us.

If conditions are as she pictures them, there probably are other women in the city in the same predicament as herself. They ask no charity, they ask no favors other than the privilege of earning their own way in the world. They have passed the time of life when privation can be borne easily, and when the loss of one day or one week can be made up by recuperation in the next. And if our social fabric is such that people of this order are being shoved aside to make room for others better able to endure, then there is something wrong with the social fabric, or at least with the general interpretation of social duty and responsibility.

Think of this the next time you have occasion or opportunity to give work to somebody now idle, and see whether, in your own case, the charge made by this woman against society in general is baseless or well founded.

The world is now said by scientists to be a hundred million years old. And yet see how it is cutting up, even at that age.

THE SEPTEMBER PRIMARY.

It is hardly to be expected that any serious opposition will be found to restoring the date of the primary elections to September instead of leaving it in June, as it now is. The experience of the legislators themselves has been an argument against the long interim, and the fact that even in committee the proposal to change the date back was approved fourteen to one goes a long way towards demonstrating that the proposition will meet with the approval of most of the members.

It is unjust to a candidate to make him spend five months in campaigning, and if he spends less than the whole time between the primary and the regular election he necessarily loses a certain portion of the strength that brought him out a winner in the earlier vote. The long campaign is too much of a strain on both the candidate, his managers and the people among whom he is working, and the way things went this last year demonstrated the impracticability of trying to stave off the campaign itself until a few weeks before the election.

It looks as if the primary election bill is bound to go through with a safe majority, and it is not at all likely that there will be any great number who will regret the action.

At least there is no chance to dispute the outcome of a battle in which the enemy is sent to the bottom of the ocean.

LET THE LAW GO ON.

One of the best signs of recent times is the arrest at Roosevelt, N. J., of the deputies supposed to be responsible for the shooting of nineteen men at that city last week. The deputies are being held on a charge of murder, two of the wounded men having died. It is expected that the prisoners will have to spend at least two weeks in jail awaiting grand jury action.

The country has seen quite enough of the kind of action taken by the deputies. Violence has not all been confined to strikers, though they have been the ones generally made to suffer. But this Roosevelt case was more flagrant than any of the others, and it furnishes an excellent chance to begin to check the whole system.

In this instance there has been nothing to show that the strikers made or offered to make any serious attack on the deputies. All the workmen did was to surround a train which they believed was bringing strike-breakers to the chemical company's plant. On the train were a number of deputies sent to guard the plant, and when the train stopped these men jumped from the cars. As they came out they ordered the strikers to fall back, and this the men did, it appears, without making any attempt to advance on the officers. And the next act was the firing of a volley from the deputies' revolvers.

There is some excuse for officers using their weapons when they are facing an angry and irresponsible mob that is actually menacing them, but in too many cases they have not waited to find whether there was any danger or not. This New Jersey affair should be pushed to the limit, and the fear of a just law be put into the hearts of such men as these deputies.

Medill McCormick continues to explain his return to the G. O. P., but he has yet to explain why he ever got away from it.

Our Last Battle With the British

From the Kansas City Times.

A century ago occurred one of the most memorable campaigns in America's military history, the defense of New Orleans by Gen. Andrew Jackson. It was surprising because of the defeat of England's seasoned veterans of the Napoleonic wars by half as many backwood militiamen. It is unique in history because it was fought more than a week after peace had been declared between Great Britain and the United States.

The series of engagements began Dec. 22 after the British had effected a surprise landing at Bayou Bienvenue, about twenty miles from New Orleans. The campaign closed with a disastrous defeat for the invaders, Jan. 8, after an attempt to carry the American fieldworks by direct assault, as they had done a few months before at Blandensburg, Md.

Gen. Jackson's entry into New Orleans was one of the dramatic events of the campaign. He arrived post haste from Alabama, where he had done some hard fighting. The French and Creole population lined the streets to receive the new commander. They expected an imposing military figure and military display. Governor Claiborne and military men of the city, in handsome uniforms, awaited their new general in a cotton merchant's mansion.

Surprise and disappointment followed the arrival. Instead of a gorgeously dressed general they had pictured, came a tall and emaciated man astride a scraggy horse. An old leather cap was on his head. A blue cloak and enormous boots whose wide tops flapped about his skinny knees completed the visible uniform. Loose riding Tennessee rangers dressed in leather clothing formed his escort.

Although shabby in appearance, Gen. Jackson's keen eyes, firm mouth and dignified carriage impressed the people. After one day under his energetic command they learned he was not "just another frontier flatboatman," as one had dubbed him.

All Gen. Jackson's care did not prevent the British from making a surprise landing. They did that through the treachery of a Portuguese fishing village on the estate of Maj. Villere, a militia officer. From there the invading troops were transported up the bayou and by Villere's canal to the east bank of the Mississippi about a dozen miles below New Orleans.

The British had scant respect for the military genius of Americans. Jackson somewhat improved it by a night attack on their camp Dec. 23. He called it his Christmas fandago. The Americans were repulsed, but the incident caused Gen. Pakenham, the British commander, to delay his march to New Orleans long enough for Jackson to throw up three lines of earthworks between the British and the city. As events turned out he needed only one line.

Pakenham ordered heavy siege guns sent from the ships accompanying his expedition. That angered old Admiral Cochrane, who was with Ross at the burning of Washington.

"What?" roared the admiral when Pakenham requisitioned his guns. "If the army cannot take those mud banks defended by ragged militia I will undertake to do it with 2,000 sailors armed only with cutlass and pistols."

Pakenham was supported only by a few under officers in his Fabian tactics. When the idea of direct assault was discussed at council, Col. Mullins, in command of the Forty-fourth Essex Foot regiment, demurred. "You are sending my regiment to execution," he said.

"Gentlemen, I have no patience with anyone who argues that the men who stormed Cuidad Rodrigo and Badajos can be halted by, much less repulsed from, a low log breastwork manned by ragged militia," Gen. Gibbs replied.

By Jan. 1 Pakenham had his artillery in position. He planned to cannonade the American works into silence and then carry the work by storm. The British artillery was answered, but feebly, by the American. The British became jubilant. Then the American fire suddenly increased in violence. One by one the British guns were dismounted until their fire was stopped.

It is interesting to note that the American artillerymen who did such damage to the British that day were the pirates of Jean Laffitte, who had been granted a general amnesty to join Jackson's force. Their long training as West Indian privateersmen had made them unexcelled in gunnery.

An unauthenticated story has it that Gen. Jackson watched the work of the pirates with interest. When the cannonading stopped he is reported to have said: "With a few more batteries of devils like those I'd charge hell."

Pakenham's plan of campaign was to cross the river and force Jackson to retire by threatening his flank. The Americans had only six or seven hundred militiamen on the west bank of the Mississippi, with some naval guns mounted in batteries. The argument of other officers that British honor demanded a direct assault caused Pakenham to consent to that procedure. He did send, however, 1,200 troops under Col. Thornton across the river and their success on the day of the main defeat indicates that, possibly, only British doggedness instead of American heroism saved New Orleans.

Commander Patterson of the American naval batteries thought the main attack would be made on the west side. When he saw Thornton's force crossing he sent a messenger to Jackson for reinforcements.

"Hurry back and tell Patterson he is mistaken," Jackson said. "The main attack will be on this side and I have no men to spare. Morgan must hold his position at all hazards." Morgan did not hold, but fought bravely and tenaciously and prevented the British column from progressing far enough to endanger Jackson's rear.

The British planned a surprise assault the morning of Jan. 8. The signal was to be two rockets fired from the British right flank. The troops, 5,000 in the two assaulting columns, were moved to within 400 yards of the American works. Another body, 5,000 strong, was a few hundred yards further back as a reserve under Gen. Lambert. Pakenham had 1,700 other troops he had not landed, which, with Thornton's force, made his army nearly 13,000 strong. Jackson could muster hardly 6,500 to oppose them. Less than 4,000 of these were in the trench to be assaulted.

The British troops were slow to take position. It was nearly morning when the lines were ready. An aid suggested to Pakenham that the assault be delayed. But he, stung by the remarks of his divisional chiefs, refused.

"Smith, order the rockets fired," he commanded.

Gen. Gibb's division of 2,392 men—the Forty-fourth Essex Foot, the Seventh Royal Fusileers and Fourth King's Own Foot—began the attack. They had orders to attack with the bayonet. They started across the 400 yards separating them from the American lines as if on parade.

The American riflemen fired as if one man. Their aim was unerring. Almost the entire first rank of British fell. A volley of grape shot from Laffite's pirates mowed down the second ranks. The heroes of the Peninsula wavered for the first time in their lives. Gibbs rode out in front and pleaded with them to advance. He turned and rode to Pakenham.

"The troops will not obey me. They will not follow me," he said.

"Then see if they will me," Pakenham replied. With that he galloped across the field, his cocked hat on his sword, shouting for his men to come. The ranks braced and began a slow forward movement. Just then Pakenham's horse was killed. As he arose from the ground a grape shot struck him and he was carried from the field mortally wounded. Gibbs dashed to the front when he saw Pakenham fall. He, too, was killed.

Along the river bank, the British left under Gen. Keane were having somewhat better success. He commanded the Sutherland Highlanders, the Royal Scots Fusileers and the Monmouth Light infantry. The Highlanders in the van were more than half disabled before they wavered. Just as Gibbs was killed, Keane was struck by a bullet which caused his death a day later.

The command now devolved on Gen. Lambert, whose reserve troops had come into action in the center. He carried on the assault for an hour more, until nearly 11 o'clock in the morning, when human effort could prevail no longer against the terrific American fire. In the series of engagements during the day the British lost 2,137 men killed and wounded, while the Americans lost only seventy-one, fifty-five of whom were killed in a foolish sortie after the retreating British.

The hodgepodge of races now fighting in Europe is hardly more of a mixture than the troops which fought at New Orleans. Scotch, Irish, English, Welsh, West Indian negro and Creek Indian regiments were on the British side. The Americans had battalions of Frenchmen, Creoles, Choctaw Indians, Freedmen and San Domingo negroes, in addition to American troops.

School histories used to make much of the cotton bale armor used by Jackson at New Orleans. It proved a failure because every time a British cannon ball struck a cotton bale the latter was hurled on the heads of the American gunners.

The cotton bales were used as a last resort. Gen. Jackson and Maj. Latour, his chief engineer, were inspecting the works one day.

"How would cotton bales answer the purpose of gabions, major?"

"I do not know, general. The experiment has never been tried, I believe. At any rate, the books on field works do not mention it."

"Never mind the books, major. We'll write one of our own. There are plenty of cotton bales."

Many tales are told of how Jackson, like Caesar, knew his men by name. It is small wonder, because most of them were from Tennessee and Kentucky, where he was widely known.

"Well, Joe, how are they using you?" he said to a ragged private one day. "Rather be home with Aunt Lucy?"

"Not by a damn sight," was the reply. "'D rather have Aunt Lucy here."

During the battle of Jan. 8 a young ensign named Robert Polk got excited and jumped to the top of the works, calling on the men to follow him in a counter charge. Jackson jerked him down, and borrowing a pistol from another officer, threatened to shoot the first man who emulated the young man. Then he said to Polk:

"Now, damn you, Bob, keep under cover."

At another time a regular army officer saw Jackson stop and show a letter to a private on sentinel duty. He wondered greatly until he learned the private was the general's nephew.

What Does a Man Produce?

Philadelphia Record: Among the banners of the unemployed in New York when they came in collision with the police was one reading: "We Want All We Produce."

There is a common impression among Socialistic workmen, encouraged by some of the newfangled college professors, that the weaver produces all the cloth that comes off the loom he tends, and he is robbed if his wages are only a part of the value of the cloth. But he is only one of a long line of producers, each of whom has to get some of the money for which that cloth is sold.

There was a farmer who grew the raw fiber. There was a railroad that transported the fiber. There was a long list of workmen who did various things in the preparation of that fiber. It took several classes of men to convert that fiber into yarn. Some men dug the coal and a railroad hauled it. It took a good many men considerable time to build the loom, and the engine, and the mill, and all of them have got to be paid. The men who have paid all these previous classes of workers may reimburse themselves out of a part of the proceeds of the bolt of cloth without committing any robbery. What are the dividends but the reimbursements of the people who have paid the miners and mechanics and builders for their work before the cloth is sold?

The report of the comptroller of the currency shows that the average return on all the shares and bonds of all the corporations in the United States was 4.3 per cent. That doesn't look unreasonable. It isn't much more than savings bank interest. Of course, some corporations make very much more, but many must make nothing in order to bring the average down to 4.3 per cent. Besides, there are few bonds that do not pay 4.5 per cent or more, so that the average return on the shares, which represent the ownership of the mills and factories, would be less than 4.3 per cent.

What does a man produce? Well put a man with only his bare hands upon a spot of earth, or in a mine hole, or by the side of a stream, and how much will he produce? What are the chances that he will not starve to death before he can produce anything? Give him tools, and "grub stake" him, in mining lingo, or support him until he has produced something and it has been marketed and the produce of other men has been given him and they have got to be paid for their produce in some way. The man in question can't have all he produces without defrauding the men who produced the tools and food which he used during the time he was getting his product made, or extracted.

Logical.

Los Angeles Times: A minister of a Scotch parish was called in to effect a reconcillation between a fisherman and his wife. After using all the arguments at his command to convince the husband that it was unmanly to strike his wife, he concluded:

"You know, David, that the woman is the weaker vessel."

"Weel then," said David, sulkily, "if she's the weaker vessel she should carry the less sail."

Statesmen, Real and Near

By Fred C. Kelly.

Washington, Jan. 25.—(Special to The Herald.)—To look at Jimmy Gallivan, member of congress from Boston, New England, is to know instinctively that Jimmy is a live wire. He is the type of man who, on finding that one way to do a thing will not do, promptly tries another way. In the course of his campaign last fall, Jimmy and his opponent held outdoor meetings one night almost within a hundred yards of each other. Jimmy's opponent had some good cheer leaders and they sent up a rousing cry of exultation that was extremely vexatious to the Gallivan crowd. All that the Gallivanites needed was a leader and they could have cheered loud enough to drown out the noise of the rival gathering. Suddenly they had a leader. A brisk, athletically-built little man with a sandy mustache stepped forth, began to gyrate his arms and yelled:

"Come on now, boys. Three rousing cheers for Jimmy Gallivan."

After the crowd had raised a stirring cheer, the leader signaled for them to do it all over again. They did it in a manner that was a tribute to the skill of the cheer-master.

There will now be a brief pause for the benefit of those who desire to know who the alert young leader was who stepped forth and saved the day, or the evening, for the Gallivan side.

The leader was Jimmy Gallivan—none other.

"Somebody had to do it," explains Gallivan. "How could I expect some other fellow to holler for Gallivan if I wouldn't do it myself."

Congressman George R. Smith of Minneapolis is fond of hunting and takes great pride in the ownership of a costly setter dog of noble birth. One day an old man who was acting as guide for the hunt, came near making a lifelong enemy of Smith by criticizing the dog's technique in the field.

"The dog's perfectly all right," declared Smith, indignantly. "I wouldn't trade him for any dog I ever saw, only he doesn't get quite enough exercise. I'm busy and have to keep him penned up a good deal. He ought to have more exercise and that would improve his hunting."

"Has he got any fleas?" inquired the old man.

"Should say not," replied Smith, insulted. "That dog has his bath every week the same as I hope you do."

"Why don't you give him a few fleas?"

"What do you mean, give him fleas? Why should I want a fine dog like him to have fleas?"

"Well," opined the guide, thoughtfully, "they'd give him exercise."

At the time the Hay-Pauncefote treaty was the big talk about the state department, the newspaper correspondents were wondering what day it would be signed. There was a possibility that the information would not be made public until some days after the signing was done and such a delay seemed to the correspondents highly objectionable. They desired to know at once. Elmer Payne, who was covering the department for the Associated Press, found out by means of a funny little bit of observation. He happened to notice a colored messenger walking briskly along the corridor with a stick of sealing wax in his hand.

"Where are you going?" asked Elmer gruffly.

"I'm taking this into the secretary's office," frankly replied the messenger. "They's fixin' t' drap some wax on sump'n."

Elmer was able to make a good guess as to the paper on which the wax seal was to go. And he succeeded in verifying his guess. It was the Hay-Pauncefote treaty.

How a Nickel Helps

Columbia Record: To show what can be done to relieve the suffering and acute distress of the unemployed of that city, a group of Baltimore charity workers prepared a list of some of the things a nickel, a dime, 15 cents or 25 cents will buy for hungry men, women and children. The figures are given here and are taken, it is understood, from actual market prices.

Five cents, the price of a car fare, a cheap cigar, a package of chewing gum, a glass of beer or soda water, will provide a poor family with one of the following:

A loaf of bread.
A pint of milk.
One pound of scrapple.
A head of cabbage.
A pound of oatmeal.
A package of noodles.

Ten cents, saved by going without a beer, a cigar or two, or a pack of cigarettes, ice cream soda or other trifling luxury, will give a family of half-starved children:

Two loaves of bread.
Three eggs.
A box of macaroni.
A half peck of sprouts.
A package of buckwheat.
One pair of stockings.
A can of syrup.
A half peck of turnips.

Fifteen cents, saved by going without several little luxuries, will provide:

One pound of soup meat.
A small bag of flour.
Five quarts of hominy.
Four pounds of rice.
Three cans of soup.
Four pounds of sugar.
A pair of woolen gloves.

Three Friends.

What's the good of grieving so?
Hurt? No cause for fretting!
Yes, forgiving's hard, I know,
But why not try forgetting?

Nothing's worth a frown or tear.
Trouble? Just forsake it.
There's a world of pleasure here
For those who care to take it.

Then, come gladness or distress,
Foul or pleasant weather,
You and I and happiness
Will just be friends together!

—Mary Carolyn Davies in the Youth's Companion.

A Bit of Botany.

Cleveland Plain Dealer: A teacher in a Woodland avenue school asked the other day:

"How many kinds of flowers are there?"

Three pupils held up their hands. She chose one to reply.

"Well, Isidore, how many kinds of flowers are there?"

"Three, teacher."

"Indeed? And what are they?"

"Wild, tame an' collie."

Keeping Up With Minnesota Editors

Press Comments on Current Events.

Republican Wreckage.

Holdingsford Advertiser: That gathering of Republican wreckage in St. Paul last week reminds of the times when that was all there was of Minnesota Democracy: A lot of superannuted codgers harking back to the "good old times." There will be new blood in the party when Minnesota Republicans again are victorious.

Back to the Farm.

Monticello Times: "Back to the farm" should be the watchword of every young man from the farm endeavoring to harbor as best he can the delusion that the city is the place for future advancement. The young man with limited means, who has but a few hundred dollars to begin life with, or perhaps has nothing but a pair of strong and willing hands, we would say to all such that the farm is the best place in the world. Do not be afraid of toil, but set an example to the weak, lazy loiterer about town by putting your hand to the plow. Your future is what you make it, no one will build it for you.

Business-Like Address.

Albert Lea Standard: Governor Hammond's inaugural message to the legislature was a clean-cut, business-like discussion of state affairs and contained timely and constructive recommendations for laws which should be considered and enacted by the state's lawmakers.

Let Us Be Thankful.

Preston Times: Teddy Roosevelt says he is a private citizen now and can say anything he pleases. He is especially intent on belittling the foreign policies of President Wilson. This, coming from an ex-president, naturally carries some weight and can do our country no good at a time when a small spark may cause a conflagration. There are some things at certain times which had better be left unsaid, even by a private citizen, and in the meantime we can thank God that Wilson and not Roosevelt is president of these United States.

Let Them Amuse Themselves.

Luverne Journal: Far be it from us to poke fun at the "reorganizers" of the Republican party in this state. They're a bold and valiant band—as indicated by their frank avowal of standpatism. And there's not many of them. So why discourage them?

Likely a Safe Prediction.

Olivia Times: Governor Hammond was inducted into office in St. Paul in the presence of an immense audience. The Times predicts that Minnesota will be given an excellent business administration under Governor Hammond.

Just a Moment

Daily Strength and Cheer.

Compiled by John G. Quinlus, the Sunshine Man.

Thy will be done in earth as it is in heaven.—Matt. vi, 10.

There is many a thing that the world calls disappointment; but there is no such word in the dictionary of faith. What to others are disappointments, are to believers intimations of the will of God.

When the mind thinks nothing, when the soul covets nothing, and the body acteth nothing, that is contrary to the will of God—this is perfect sanctification.—Anonymous, in an old Bible, 1599.

Put any burden upon me, only sustain me; send me anywhere, only go with me; sever any tie but the one that binds me to Thy service and to Thy heart.—On the fly-leaf of Miss Brigham's Bible.

Yet to the faithful there is no such thing
As disappointment; failures only bring
A gentle pang, as peacefully they say,
His purpose stands, though mine has passed away.

—C. M. N.

For the great mercies shown us, O Lord, we pray that Thou wilt show us the light that we may not be cast upon the rocks of wickedness. Help us ever to be grateful for these bounties and the food before us and that we may help others to do all that is best. Amen.

A Newspaper's Golden Jubilee.

"Striking" is almost too common a word to use in describing the Golden Jubilee and Exposition edition of the San Francisco Chronicle. The edition contains ninety-two pages of newspaper size and every page has something on it to attract attention. The big expositions of this year on the Pacific coast can furnish immense quantities of material for such a publication, but in the Chronicle's golden jubilee edition there is more than the stereotyped reproduction of facts and figures—throughout the whole publication there is discernible the jubilee spirit, the knowledge of fifty years of achievement in the newspaper field, and the growth from a four-page dodger dealing principally with theatrical affairs to a great daily newspaper.

This spirit and consciousness doubtless are due in great part to the fact that in all these fifty years one man has been at the head of the organization—M. H. De Young, who with his brother Charles founded the Chronicle on Jan. 16, 1865. They were mere boys at the time, but they built on firm foundations and today their publication stands in the front ranks of the profession. Something of the Chronicle's fight for existence and for its present position is to be found in the section of the jubilee edition devoted to "Journalism in California," but the article is vastly more valuable than it would be were it only the story of one newspaper. It fairly thrills the reader with some of its accounts of earlier days in that field.

Bret Harte was among the early contributors to the Chronicle, and Mark Twain was allowed "desk room" in the office in return for occasional scribblings, though he was not accorded a place on the regular staff.

M. H. De Young is the only man who has ever remained in continuous control and sole ownership of any paper in this country for so long a time as a half century, his brother having died thirty-five years ago. Mr. De Young still remains in active control of the Chronicle, and in this golden jubilee edition he can see in concrete form the best symbol of his personal achievements in that long period of service.

The Clever Motor Saleswomen.

New York Letter to the Pittsburg Dispatch: Some of the motor car dealers along Gasoline Row have discovered a new way to reach a man's checkbook. They don't appeal to the man any more to buy a car. They just invite wifey and daughter to an afternoon tea and a spin. The woman chauffeur, who is also a sales agent, does the rest. She runs the car here and there and picks out the busy streets, just to show them that a woman can manage a car as well as a man.

"How nice she drives; I bet I could drive, too, just as well," says mother. And daughter adds, "and I think I could drive it, too."

Then they tell dad all about it and before they know it he buys a car. All the woman sales agent does is to ask when they want the car delivered. Fine way to assail noble manhood!

Letters must not exceed 300 words—the shorter the better. They must be written on one side of the paper only, and they must be accompanied in every case by the name and address of the writer though these need not be published. A signed letter is always more effective, however.)

MONTANA..

To the Editor of The Herald:

Will some one who is well posted advise me through the Open Court the general conditions of Montana. Yours very truly, EARL PETIT.

Y. M. C. A.

Duluth, Jan 23.

This is a rather broad question to answer in an offhand way. Why not go to the library and look up some books on Montana? The most striking feature of present conditions in Montana is the remarkable agricultural development. Montana was formerly known only for its mines and ranches, but it is now a factor in the wheat and flax markets and rapidly growing in importance. It is one of the largest states in the Union, being third in area, and one of the richest in natural resources. The lull in copper mining effected it severely, but conditions in the cities dependent on this industry are reported to be rapidly improving. —The Editor.

THE LITERACY TEST.

To the Editor of The Herald:

Do you know that a peculiar, unjust, undesirable bill is awaiting the signature of President Wilson? It is not a law yet, and will not be a law if the American people will raise their voices in protest. Should it become a law, think of the widespread, deep misery that it shall bring.

Come with me, dear reader; let yourself be lost to the life you now live. Picture yourself in Europe, a poor, hard worker (an honest man), with a family of two or three. You are young, as in the Old World you married young. You have a fiery, lofty ambition, a boundless imagination, an iron will, and a heart full of hope. You have heard of the grand and free America. Many times you tell your wife and family of your airy dreams. There you sit at the supper table, happily smiling, your deeply set eyes twinkling as you tell of the prosperous future awaiting you in the wonderful land across the sea.

You have labored hard and honestly from sunrise to sunset to save enough for your passage.

Each day at sea you ponder unrestricted into the unknown future. You are now in the free land. How your chest feels the throbs of the joyous heart. What strange feelings overtake you. How unknown, unusual, all look to your unaccustomed eye.

Two men in uniforms approach you. One tells you in your native language that you must go through a physical examination. You pass O. K. But now—you are in a room with many strange charts decorated with weird figures. They ask you to read! You cannot. Can you write? No! You are pushed aside; a yellow tag is pinned on your coat. You follow a long line of men, children and women. You are now notified that because you could not pass the "literacy test" you must go home!

Like a huge thunderbolt from the clear sky, which shakes the earth and crushes the mightiest structure of your imagination, thus are you struck.

It flickers and goes out, the tiny spark of life; hope is the elixir of life. All is dark, damp and gloomy—better death than this cruel damper.

Why this? Why such a damper upon your glorious future? Because the people of this grand republic are letting a few chosen men run their government. The people of the United States are asleep to their own interests. Dear fellow-countrymen, do not let such a bill be signed. It is selfish, undesirable, unnecessary. What if a man cannot read or write? He has had no chance to get a schooling; from the time he could slave he has labored from dawn to darkness. If in his country there were compulsory educational laws, it would be a different story. But so long as he is willing to work, so long as he has high morals, he ought to be admitted into the land of the free and just. Yours truly,

RALPH MANTELL.

SUBSTITUTE FOR NATIONAL GUARD.

To the Editor of The Herald:

It would be easy, it seems to me, to develop in the United States within a few years, a million or more men trained well enough in military matters to afford a strong defence against an invasion from any other power or combination of powers.

I would first disband the state militia, an organization that long ago fell into ill repute because of its availability as a weapon for the selfish capitalistic interests against the perhaps misguided working people.

Then I would have the Federal government organize a reserve army of National Guards, or whatever would seem the most appropriate name. The purpose of this army I would have wholly and solely the defence of our nation against foreign invasion. I would make this an absolute condition of enlistment—that the recruit should never be called upon to take part in an offensive movement against a foreign power, nor should he ever be called upon to quell strikes or civic disorders of any kind.

I would have it thoroughly understood that as a member of this military organization he should never be ordered out to shoot down his own fellow citizen.

Then I would have the government detail drilled men to organize military companies, extending the organization as fast as possible into every city, village and township throughout the entire United States.

I am satisfied that with such an object in view the size of the defensive army of the United States would be limited entirely to the ability of the secretary of war to furnish drill masters and military equipment. Men, able-bodied, intelligent and brave, would not be lacking. A. E. P.

BURYING THE HATCHET.

To the Editor of The Herald:

If I misunderstood T. A. Daly in his first letter, I am surely willing to apologize. The only thing I objected to was the publicity with which I understood he would help the American poor; the rest I think was fine, and if I misunderstood, let me apologize.

Surely no one would object to cheerfully help the widows and orphans of Belgium, who have so helplessly been drawn into, and suffered from this awful war. I do not think that Ralph Mantel of Staples would either, and would much rather believe that we have all been mistaken in each other's meanings.

It may have sounded like "Appeal to Reason" logic as I have read several numbers of that paper, also "The Menace," "The Catholic World," "Frann's Iconoclast," "Jim Jam Jems," and most reasonable of all publications, also most impartial of all, "The Herald," and have found (what I consider) both good and bad in all.

I did make a desperate effort to reply, as I am not a professor of any kind, my education being limited to the eight grades of public schools, and furthermore I did not understand this to be an exhibition of "Essence of Eloquence—or Literacy," but merely our different opinions.

His closing verse was an excellent quotation and I think another fitting one in this instance would be:

"How many go forth in the morning,
Who never return at night;
And hearts are broken,
By harsh words spoken,
That sorrow can ne'er set right."

My Christianity is not confined to any particular denomination. The creed I try to believe in is "to keep myself within due bounds with all mankind."

Now, I think we all understand each other more clearly, so let us bury our "bone of contention," in the cemetery of past mistakes, and remember "we are traveling on the level of Time, to that undiscovered country," so "as we journey through life, let us live by the way, and be a friend to man."

MILWAUKEE MAN GETS INTO DISCUSSION.

To the Editor of The Herald:

After exhausting my dictionary in an attempt to read the article by Mr. Thurman Daly in answer to Mr. Mantell, I wish to compliment him upon his beautiful and exquisite sarcasm.

Permit me, however, to correct him in a few of his statements. If that gentleman (he seems fond of the word) will but go so far as the nearest office of the Associated Charities, he will find that Mr. Mantell greatly underestimated the number of homeless and starving, when he (Mr. Mantell) said there were only one million. Nay, if he had said two million, he would be considerably less than the real amount.

There are more than twice that many, wandering about from place to place without shelter, food, and I might almost say clothing. Many people of this city are feeding more than ten unfortunates daily. Our emergency hospital is filled with the frozen and starved wretches who are found, falling exhausted in the streets.

If Mr. Daly will consider the families of people receiving $600 yearly instead of those becoming millionaires out of that princely income, he will discover, greatly to his surprise, that the former have a very great majority. "All is not gold that glitters," saith the proverb. This is especially true in these cases. Many families are starving because they are what Mr. Daly calls bashful. But other people call it honest pride.

Hoping that the gentleman from St. Ignace will give this his consideration, and congratulating Messrs. Mantell and Elchlepp on their admirable, commonsense views, I am your obedient servant,

JOE SHERR.

THE LUMBERJACK AGAIN.

To the Editor of The Herald:

It seems to me that the lumberjack is coming in for more than usual amount of discussion lately, and friend Brandborg seems to have gotten in wrong, somehow. A correspondent in a recent issue of The Herald attempts to criticize Mr. Brandborg for his Appeal to Reason views, but it is very evident that said critic never studied economics from the Reason's viewpoint or from any other angle but the master class side.

Sure, Mike! And Mrs. St. Clair has truly met real jacks that were working in lumber camps for $30 per.

Great sport getting up at 4 a. m. and working from fourteen to fifteen hours with snow to your waist and for $13 per month. Yes! And then at night turn into a stall that friend capitalist would scorn to house his horses in and fight vermin until 4 a. m. again. Did I hear someone say something about beautiful books and literature to study? The lumberjack is not supplied with lamps to read by, not because the company cannot afford lights galore, but because the lumberjack is considered in the light of a dumb brute, too brainless to study anything but booze.

I agree with Mrs. St. Clair, the jack will not insult a woman and they are truly bighearted, and I trust them and admire them far more than the "pin head" that stands on street corners passing remarks about the women that go by.

And, friend critics, the laboring class, or, in other words, the producing class, are to blame for the vile conditions that they must submit to, and when they awake, as awake they must, then we will see if the millionaire will go forth and freeze and suffer and yea, die, for $30 per and for their health, too, forsooth. Thanking you, Mr. Editor, I am, yours very truly,

MRS. A. D. McAULEY,
640 Garfield Avenue.

A PUZZLER.

To the Editor of The Herald:

Please answer in the Open Court to the public: Where does the Boss in the cartoons get his supply of cigars? Why is it that Gen. Scoop doesn't get any in war time? Yours truly.

INQUISITIVE.

Taconite, Minn., Jan. 22.

The Editor gives it up. Perhaps they were electing a new general in the Boss' army. But Scoop still has his pipe.—The Editor.

APPEAL FOR WOOL.

To the Editor of The Herald:

We have learned that there is a great shortage of knitting wool in England and a total lack of it in Switzerland. As there are enormous numbers of destitute Belgians who would be thankful to knit for themselves, and as the means of almost every one permit of their buying a few skeins of knitting wool, may we make an earnest appeal to your readers for wool, even small quantities of which will be most graciously received and forwarded.

May we suggest "natural" khaki and gray as being desirable colors?

Either by post or express the wool should be addressed to Mrs. Fiske Warren, Harvard, Mass. Yours very truly,

LALLA VANDERVELDE,
GRETCHEN WARREN.

Harvard, Mass., Jan. 18.

ANOTHER COIN QUERY.

To the Editor of The Herald:

Would you kindly inform me in your Open Court if the Buffalo nickels are of any value? And would also like the poem, "It's a Long Way to Tipperary." Thanking you in advance. Yours truly, A SUBSCRIBER.

Duluth, Jan. 23.

The Herald as a rule does not answer questions on the value of coins, but would say there is no premium on the Buffalo nickel. The poem referred to was published but recently in The Herald.—The Editor.

THE QUEEN OF SPAIN.

To the Editor of The Herald:

Through the medium of your paper will you kindly let me know the queen of Spain's maiden name. J. H.

She was Victoria Ena, the daughter of the prince and princess of Battenberg. Her mother was the daughter of Queen Victoria of England.

MEDICAL ASSISTANCE.

To the Editor of The Herald:

Kindly answer in Open Court: I fell and struck my temple on a plank. It has left a red scar on my temple. What should I use to remove the red spot? Yours truly, A READER.

New Rockford, Wis., Jan. 22.

If the scar remains, see a doctor.—The Editor.

THE SKY PILOT.

To the Editor of The Herald:

In replying to H. A. Brandborg's statement against the Sky Pilot, I want to voice a plea for the Sky Pilot.

H. A. B. said the Sky Pilot failed to better the lumberjack's life socially, intellectually or spiritually.

This is a broad statement to make against a man who was so well loved by his fellowmen.

I don't know what H. A. B. believes in, but he talks as one who is a social crank.

Speaking of material wants, which seem to be his issue at heart: For instance take a drunken man; give him all the money and clothes he wants and the case is he is just as big a drunkard as ever.

It isn't material wants that will change a man, it's the heart that must be changed; first through the saving power of Jesus Christ.

This was the Sky Pilot's message to mankind as a disciple of Jesus Christ, and I know those who have been converted through his witness of the way of Salvation.

For shame on a man that would condemn one who has been faithful to God. Roman vi, 23, "The wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord."

John v, 24, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life."

Man looketh on the outward appearance, but God looketh on the heart.

For shame on us to grumble about material wants when God has been so gracious to us, who are so unworthy. John iii, 16, "For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten son that whosoever believeth on Him shall not perish, but have everlasting life."

John xiv, 6, "I am the way, the truth, and the light; no one cometh unto the Father but by me (Jesus). For without me you can do nothing."

What a great service to humanity to bring this message to the hearts of men. H. A. B., you haven't the main issue in life at heart, your's is subordinate. Read the life of Jesus. His whole life's work on earth was to save sinners. He said: Matt. vi, 32, 33, "First love the Lord thy God with all thy heart and the material things will be given you. For your Father knows you have need of them."

Thanking you for the space, I am one who has a heart cleansed by Jesus Christ.

MISS P. MATHEW,

In Old Madrid.

Long years ago in old Madrid,
Where softly sighs of love the light guitar,
Two sparkling eyes, a lattice hid,
Two eyes as darkly bright as love's own star;
There on the casement ledge, when day was o'er,
A tiny hand was lightly laid;
A face looked out, as from the river shore
There stole a tender serenade;
Rang the lover's happy song,
Light and low from shore to shore,
But ah! the river flowed along
Between them ever more.

Chorus—
Come, my love, the stars are shining,
Time is flying, Love is sighing;
Come, for thee a heart is pining;
Here, alone, I wait for thee!

Far, far away from old Madrid,
Her lover fell, long years ago, for Spain;
A convent veil, those sweet eyes hid,
And all the vows that love had sigh'd were vain;
But still, between the dusk and night, 'tis said,
Her white hand opes the lattice wide,
The faint, sweet echo of that serenade
Floats weirdly o'er the misty tide!
Still she lists her lover's song,
Still he sings upon the shore,
Tho' flows a stream, than all more strong,
Between them ever more.

This Winter Is a Hard One.

This winter is a hard one,
Mrs. Riley, so they say,
And it's you and I will remember it
For many a long day.
For you are not the only one
That stood behind the wall,
For my old, McGinnis,
Cannot get a job at all,
So cheer up, Mrs. Riley,
Don't give way to the blues,
For it's you and I will cut a shine
Next year in our new shoes.
For my part, I'm done crying,
I will neither sigh nor sob,
But wait until times get better
And McGinnis gets a job.

War's Victims.

Strike from the lives of mortals the things that they hold most dear.
The pressure and cling of kisses, the heart of the daylight's cheer,

Over the fleshy portals where souls in solitude wait,
Write, as ye oft have written, the screed of a deadly hate.

Scorch with the breath of anger the blossoms of love and peace,
Till blessing is turned to cursing, that never may know surcease.

Die as the soulless perish, nor know what ye perish for;
For ye are the victims offered to the red, red god of war.

O'er fields where the daisies nodded, let a gory river flow;
Lift to the arching heavens your voice of a deathless woe.

Press to your aching bosom, kiss with a sobbing breath,
The one whom your love has cherished; for lo, he shall sleep with death.

Give—for the price is written—the one whom ye hold most dear;
Give, though ye know not whyfore; give, with a scalding tear.

For the god of war drives earthward, and red is his regal car;
And ye and yours are his chosen, and his victims, too, ye are.

Masters, who rule the nations, kings on your lifted thrones,
Know ye the ones who perish? Hear ye the cries and moans?

Straight past the guarded portals, doth never a long-drawn sigh
Strike to your heart with pleading for those who for you must die?

Dying to build your greatness, victims of greed and vice;
Where was the structure builded that ever was worth such price?

Masters, who rule the nations, kings of exalted ways,
Build as ye will, but surely such structure a God shall raze!

The Wreck.

Veiled were our topsails to the blast, our helm was lashed a-lee;
And fearlessly our vessel drove before a stormy sea—
O, safely in our midst that night had lain an empire's crown;
For every mariner had said our vessel must go down!

Some shrieked aloud; some humbly knelt, who never knelt before;
And some, with outstretched arms, looked forth toward the viewless shore;
And rougher still the rough wind blew, and heavier roll'd the sea,
Till every heart was poured in prayer, God of the storm to Thee.

At length, about the middle watch, an aged man and gray,
Right in solemn hush, stood up, and said he could not pray,
And while, above our gallant deck, the mountain billows broke,
Each forgot the storm, while thus the trembling sinner spoke:

"I've been a rover of the seas these four-and-forty years,
And, in their darkest hours, my eyes have been ashamed of tears;
But now I fain would give myself an offering to the deep,
If I could say the prayers you say, or weep as you can weep.

"The blackest clouds along the sky, through which the thunders roll,
Are calm as peace, when measured with the tempest of my soul.
Once, when my heart was innocent, and joyous as a bird's
My mother taught me how to pray—I cannot say the words.

"'Tis well that mother died so soon, for oft, I know, she smiled,
And talked about the happiness that waited for her child;
And I have been long years of those whose troublings never cease,
Aside from virtue's pleasant ways, and all her paths of peace.

"My spirit grew the house of pride; I scorned our humble cot,
And deemed that for my lowliness the world loved me not.
Once, when the night was dark, like this, the thunder's roll as deep,
There was a whisper in my heart that would not let me sleep.

"I knew 't was Satan telling me, thou shalt not surely die;
And yet I went, as goes the bird, down to the serpent's eye.
Hard by my father's cot there dwelt a harmless man, and old,
Whose house was filled with merchandise and shining heaps of gold.

"That night I sought his dwelling out, and with a stealthy tread,
Winding the gloomy passages, I stood beside his bed.
I said the night was dark with storm; but, by the lightning's beam—
(Oh, would to heaven the arm uplifted had withered in its gleam).

"I saw him; I have been, since then, in lighted halls of mirth—
In deserts vast, and palaces, and caverns of the earth—
A thousand and a thousand times I've sailed across the deep,
And that old man has with me been, awake, and in my sleep.

"Almost my heart misgave me once, so wan he looked, and old;
But when I turned to flee away, I saw the cursed gold;
And so I slew him, twice he stirred, and once he feebly cried,
As with a rough and heavy stone I smote him till he died.

"Then clutching in my bloody hands, the prize, I fled away;
But shapeless things had followed me that I could never slay.
Three days in the thick woods I hid, afraid of every sound,
And o'er and o'er I washed my hands in every pool I found.

"My guilt upon the withered leaves seemed writ, as on a scroll,
And every wandering wind I met was questioning my soul,
I thought the dead man's gold so thrilled the marrow in my bones,
And, seeking out a lonesome cave, I hid it in the stones.

"But still there were accusing tongues in herb, and flower, and tree,
And so I left the haunts of men, and wandered on the sea"—
Just then our fated vessel struck upon a rocky shore—
One shriek arose, and all again grew silent as before.

I floated, as by miracle, upon the oft-torn deck,
And knew not any living soul was with me on the wreck;
But when the morn, with misty eyes, looked down upon the tide,
That old man, with his arms across, was sitting at my side.

CONNECTION WITH CONTEST EXPLAINED

Robert Hunter of Texas Leaves Madison With All Satisfactory.

Madison, Wis., Jan. 25.—Robert B. Hunter of Houston, Tex., yesterday left Madison, after he had explained his connection with the contest over the will of Frank A. Ogden, millionaire Wisconsin lumberman. He said that he had not been arrested in Pittsburg on Thursday and brought to Madison by a postoffice inspector. He explained that there had been a misunderstanding as to what was wanted of him, but that he had come voluntarily to Madison.

Hunter said he had negotiated with Ogden about the sale of some land and after the death of Ogden had written to the attorney for the Ogden estate in an attempt to renew the negotiation.

District Attorney John A. Aylward of Madison, said that Hunter's explanation was satisfactory and Hunter started for Pittsburg.

Simple Way to End Dandruff

There is one sure way that has never failed to remove dandruff at once, and that is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, common liquid arvon from any drug store (this is all you will need), apply it at night when retiring, use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve, and entirely destroy, every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.—Advertisement.

MORE MEN INSANE THAN WOMEN

Mental Diseases Which Are the Aftermath of Vice and Dissipation Account for Disparity Between the Sexes.

Washington, Jan. 25.—The report on the insane in the United States, prepared by Dr. Joseph A. Hill and recently issued by William J. Harris, director of the census, indicates that there is more insanity among men than among women. The report is based upon data relative to the insane in hospitals and asylums in 1910.

On Jan. 1, 1910, there were 98,695 males in institutions for the insane, as compared with 80,096 females, and during the year 1910, 34,116 males were admitted, as compared with 26,623 females.

There were 208 male inmates of insane asylums to every 100,000 males in the total population, while the corresponding ratio of female inmates to total female population was 199.6 to 100,000. The males admitted during the year 1910 represented a ratio of 72.1, the females, a ratio of 69.7. This means that in a typical community of 200,000 persons equally divided as to sex, 208 of the males would be found in insane asylums and 200 of the females, and in the course of one year 72 males would be admitted to the asylums, as compared with 60 females.

The number of males in asylums for the insane has increased faster than the number of females. In 1880 the two sexes had, in fact, a nearly equal representation in these institutions, as the total number of inmates included 20,635 males and 20,307 females; but by 1910 the number of male inmates had increased to 98,695 and the number of female inmates to 80,096, so that the males outnumbered the females by a ratio of 111 to 100. The excess of males among the current admissions in 1910 was still greater—128 males to 100 females.

One Reason Why.

Of peculiar interest in this connection is the table which distinguishes the cases diagnosed as alcoholic psychosis or general paralysis—mental diseases which, generally speaking, are the aftermath of vice and dissipation. Of the 34,116 males admitted to hospitals for the insane in 1910, 8,408, or about 25 per cent of the total number, were reported as suffering from one or the other of these diseases, while the number of females having these diseases was only 2,042, representing about 8 per cent of the 26,653 females admitted. If from the total number of admissions the cases of alcoholic psychosis and general paralysis are deducted, the disparity between the sexes practically disappears. There are left of the total admissions 25,708 males as compared with 24,611 females, a slight excess of males, but no greater than naturally would result from the fact that there are more males than females in the general population.

	Males	Females
Having general paralysis	3,041	1,086
Having alcoholic psychosis	5,220	902
Having both diseases	147	54
All other cases	25,708	24,611
Total number admitted	34,116	26,653

Comparison by Age Periods.

The statistics give the number of insane of each sex admitted to hospitals in each age period per 100,000 persons of the same age and sex in the total population. The ratio of admissions increases with advancing years, reaching its maximum in extreme old age, when senile dementa marks the weakening of the mental faculties.

This does not mean that a majority of the admissions to institutions for the insane are old people. On the contrary, only about 12 per cent of the insane admitted to hospitals were over 65 years of age, while about 57 per cent were between 25 and 30 years of age; but in proportion to the total number of people in the same period of life the number of admissions is larger in old age than in middle life, and larger in middle life than in youth. In fact, very few young people are included in the admissions, and practically no children.

Throughout the entire life period the ratio of admissions for males is larger than that for the other sex. Upon eliminating the cases of alcoholic psychosis and general paralysis, the ratio for males still remains higher than for females up to the age of 30 and above the age of 55, but is lower in the intervening years. This indicates, in other words, that when the cases of general paralysis and alcoholic phychosis are eliminated there are more cases of other forms of insanity among women than among men in the period of life from 30 years of age up to about 55, but fewer in early life and in old age.

NEW CHANNEL FOUND IN THE BERING SEA.

Washington, Jan. 25.—Official announcement was made today by Secretary Redfield of the discovery of a practical navigable channel from the Bering sea into the mouth of the Kuskokwim river, thus opening the second greatest river in Alaska to commerce. The discovery was made by Capt. Lukens of the coast and geodetic survey.

MAY ABOLISH FIRE MARSHAL

North Dakota Legislative Committee Regards Office as Superfluous.

Bill to Abolish Death Penalty Passed By the House.

Bismarck, N. D., Jan. 25.—(Special to The Herald.)—The state financial probing committee has practically decided to recommend the abolishment of the state fire marshal's department. It is maintained that this department, which has been established but a year and a half at a cost to the state of about $15,000, might just as well be abandoned.

The first report will be made early this week, covering a portion of the committee's recommendations. The committee will make piece-meal reports till the whole situation is covered, thus giving the legislature an opportunity to do its work as it goes along.

May Abolish Death Penalty.

The life of Joe Milo, in the state penitentiary under sentence of death, may be saved by Representative Torson's bill abolishing the death penalty. The house passed the bill Saturday with a margin of about ten votes, and today the measure was read in the senate and referred to the judiciary committee. There is a general sentiment in the legislature against the death penalty and it would not be surprising to see it abolished entirely.

State Printing Plant.

Under a report of a committee of the house, the state printing commission is urged, when it gives contracts for work, to consider the capacity of the printing companies for the work that is to be done. This recommendation is made in connection with the report that is returned on a recent resolution asking information as to the cause of the delay in several reports of state departments.

In line with this suggestion, Representative E. A. Williams of Burleigh county has advocated the establishment of a state printing plant, and has introduced a bill creating such a department.

State Bonding Department.

There were only seven dissenting votes in the senate against the bill by Senator Ellingson creating the state bonding department. This measure seeks to re-establish the department that was knocked out by the supreme court a few months ago as unconstitutional. The reason for the establishment of the department is the alleged agreement between surety companies, there being no competition for business, with the result that rates are declared excessive.

Today Senator Kretchmar's oil inspection bill was transmitted to the house, being unanimously passed by the senate. Under the bill as now passed, it reduces the inspection fee to 7½ cents a barrel, as against the former fee of 25 cents a barrel, which was declared excessive in a recent supreme court decision.

BRITISH FLEET SINKS CRUISER

Turkish fleet, which was recently reported damaged by the Russians in the Black sea.

Commanded By Beatty.

The British squadron, commanded by Vice Admiral Sir David Beatty, who also was in command at the battle of Helgoland, last August, consisted of the battle cruisers Tiger, Lion, Princess Royal, New Zealand and Indomitable. The first three of these mount 13.5-inch guns and even the New Zealand and Indomitable carry 13-inch guns, which are equal to those of the Derflinger, the only one of the German ships that had better than 11-inch guns.

The official report issued by the press bureau gives the following account of the engagement:

"Early this morning a British patrol squadron of battle cruisers and light cruisers, under Vice Admiral Sir David Beatty, with a destroyer flotilla under Commodore Trywitt, sighted four German battle cruisers, several light cruisers, and a number of destroyers steering westward, and apparently making for the English coast.

"The enemy at once aimed for home at high speed. They were at once pursued and at about 9:30 a. m., action was begun between the battle cruisers Lyon, Tiger, Princess Royal, New Zealand and Indomitable, on the one hand, and the Derflinger, Seidletz, Moltke and Bluecher on the other.

Running Fight Follows.

"A well contested running fight ensued. Shortly after 1 o'clock the Bluecher, which had previously fallen out of line, capsized and sank.

"Admiral Beatty reports that two other battle cruisers were seriously damaged. They were, however, able to continue their flight and reached an area where dangers from German submarines and mines prevented further pursuit.

"No British ships have been lost and our casualities in personnel are at present slight, the Lion, which led the line having only 11 wounded and none killed.

"One hundred and twenty-three survivors have been rescued from the Bluecher's crew of 885 and it is possible that others have been saved by some of our destroyers. No reports of any destroyer or light cruiser fighting have yet been received at the admiralty, though some apparently has taken place.

Comparatively New Vessel.

The Bluecher was a comparatively new vessel. She was built at Kiel yards in 1909 at a cost of $6,500,000 and three years later most of her big guns were replaced. The Bluecher was 489 feet long, 80.13 feet beam and her complement consisted of 847 officers and men.

The Bluecher carried 12 8.2-inch guns, eight 6-inch guns and 16 twenty-four pounders. She also was equipped with three torpedo tubes. The Bluecher was capable of traveling a little more than 26 knots an hour.

Commodore Reginald Y. Trywitt who also took part in the battle off Helgoland commanded the light cruisers and destroyers which accompanied Vice Admiral Beatty's battle cruisers.

Observed After Dawn.

The Germans were observed some time after dawn proceeding in the direction of the British coast. When they sighted the superior British fleet they turned, and made at full speed for home, and it was only after a stern chase that the faster British ships got within range. For more than four hours the running battle lasted, the firing being plainly heard in North Holland, where it was judged that the fight took place north of the islands of Ameland and Schiermonn-Oog.

The Bluecher which was slower than the rest of the cruisers, fell back and succumbed to the heavy guns of the Lion which was leading the British squadron. The other German ships got within the mine and submarine area, two of them in a badly damaged condition, and it was dangerous for the big battle cruisers to attempt to follow.

The fact that only eleven men were wounded aboard the Lion, which led the line, indicates that the British casualties were light. It is possible that more of the Bluecher's crew were picked up by the British destroyers.

Ships Engaged.

All the vessels named by the British official press bureau as having taken part in the naval engagement except the Bluecher, are battle cruisers, all heavily armed and capable of great speed.

The Seydlitz is somewhat smaller than the Derflinger, her displacement being 25,900 tons. She carries ten 11-inch guns, 12 6-inch guns, 12 24-pounders and 4 14-pounder anti-aerial guns. She has four torpedo tubes. She also is a new boat having been completed in May, 1913. Her speed is about 26 knots although in her time trials she made 29 knots.

The Moltke is a 13,000-ton boat and has a speed of about 27 knots. She is a sister ship to the famous cruiser Goeben which once belonged to Germany but which now flies the Turkish flag. The Moltke has the same gun power as the Seydlitz, except that she is not equipped with anti-aerial rifles.

Make Over 30 Knots.

The Lion, which was in the van of the fighting, and the Princess Royal are sister ships of 30,415 tons and each carries a complement of 1,000 officers and men. They are 680 feet long and have a speed of about 28 knots, although in their time trials the Lion bettered 31 knots and the Princess Royal 32. The vessels are armed with eight 13.5-inch and sixteen 4-inch guns and three torpedo tubes. The Lion was built in 1910 and the Princess Royal the following year.

It was reported at the time that the Lion was in the naval engagement off the Falkland Islands in which a British squadron under Rear Admiral Sir Frederick Sturdee sank the German cruisers Scharnhorst, Gneisenau, Nurnberg and Leipzig.

The Tiger is a 25,000-ton ship and was built in 1913. Her armament, however, is the same as that of the Lion and Princess Royal. Available naval records do not give her speed, but that of her sister ship, the Queen Mary, is recorded as 33 knots.

The New Zealand is a 26-knot ship of 18,750 tons. She was built in 1911 and is armed with eight 12-inch and sixteen 4-inch guns and three torpedo tubes.

A trifle lighter in tonnage, but carrying the same armament as the New Zealand, is the Indomitable, which was built in 1907 and has a speed of 28 knots.

Vice Admiral Sir David Beatty, who was in command of the British forces in this fight, also commanded the same battle cruiser squadron in the engagement off Helgoland bight Aug. 28 last, in which three German light cruisers and two German torpedo boat destroyers were sunk. The cruisers were the Mainz, Arladne and Koeln.

German Report on Battle.

Berlin, Jan. 26, via London, 11:35 a. m.—The following announcement on the naval engagement in the North sea yesterday was given out in Berlin today:

"During the advance of our armored cruisers Seydlitz, Derflinger, Moltke and Bluecher, which accompanied by four smaller cruisers and two flotillas of torpedo boats was steaming in the North sea, these vessels became engaged with a British detachment composed of five battle cruisers, several smaller cruisers and twenty-six torpedo boat destroyers.

"The enemy discontinued the engagement after three hours' time at a point seventy miles west northwest of Helgoland and retreated.

"According to the information available one British battle cruiser and one of our armored cruisers, the Bluecher were sunk. All the other German ships returned to port.

French Statement.

Paris, Jan. 21, 2:50 p. m.—The report on the progress of the fighting given out by the French war office this afternoon refers to encounters of minor importance only. No decisive engagements have occurred anywhere on the line. There have been the customary artillery exchanges, coupled with the taking of a few prisoners and the driving back of a counter-attack. The report follows:

"In Belgium we have made slight progress at a point to the east of St. Georges; on the rest of the front there were artillery duels yesterday.

"From the Lys to the Oise there was yesterday an intermittent cannonading.

"On the front along the Aisne there is nothing to report, except that at Berry-au-Bac a counter attack of the enemy yesterday was repulsed and the disputed trenches remain in our possession.

"In Champagne we have demolished several field works and protections of the enemy.

"In the Argonne, in the forest of La Grurie, a very spirited fusillade was stopped by the efficient shooting of our batteries.

"On the Meuse the destruction of the bridges of St. Mihiel was accomplished by our artillery.

"In Lorraine, at Embermenil, we surprised a detachment of Bavarian troops and took some of them prisoners.

"In the Vosges and in Alsace there has been very heavy fog."

German Statement.

Berlin, Jan. 25, by wireless to Sayville.—Sanguinary fighting continues in Alsace, according to the official statement given out at the German general army headquarters today. The Germans claim to have repulsed all attacks on this region and that the French have suffered heavy losses. In the center battle line in France the Germans concede the loss of a trench southwest of Berry-au-Bac.

In East Prussia the Germans claim to have inflicted heavy losses on the Russians in engagements northeast of Gumbinnen, about twenty miles west of the Russian border. The statement follows:

"There were artillery duels near Nieuport and near Ypres yesterday. To the southwest of Berry-au-Bas the Germans lost one trench taken a few days ago from the French.

"North of the Camp of Chalons yesterday only artillery engagements took place and these are being continued today.

"Infantry fighting still continues in the Argonne forest, while to the north of Verdun and Toul the artillery is very actyle.

"All the French attacks on Hartmann-Weilerkopf were repulsed with heavy French losses. No less than 400 Chasseurs were found dead and the number of French prisoners increases.

"In East Prussia an artillery duel was in progress on the front from Loetzen to the east of Gumbinnen and to the northward. The Russians were forced to evacuate several positions to the southeast of Gumbinnen.

"Russian attacks to the northeast of Gumbinnen were repulsed with heavy Russian losses.

"In Northern Poland there were no changes in the situation.

"To the east of the Pilica river (Southern Poland) nothing important transpired."

HOT TEA BREAKS A COLD—TRY THIS

Get a small package of Hamburg Breast Tea, or as the German folks call it, "Hamburger Brust Thee," at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teacup full at any time. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus breaking a cold at once.

It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore harmless.

inherent and constitutional right to deny membership to any man who will not agree that during such membership he will not accept or retain employment in company with non-union men, and just as a union man has the constitutional right to decline proffered employment unless the employer will agree not to employ any non-union man, so the employe shall refrain from affiliation with the union during the term of the employment.

Can Only be One Rule.

"There cannot be one rule of liberty for the labor organization or its members, and a different and more restrictive rule for employers.

"The employe's liberty of making contracts does not include a liberty to procure employment from an unwilling employer or without a fair understanding. Nor may the employer be foreclosed by legislation from exercising the same freedom of choice that is accorded to the employe.

"To ask a man to agree in advance to refrain from affiliation with a union while retaining a certain position of employment is not to ask him to give up any part of his constitutional freedom. He is free to decline the employment on those terms, just as the employer may decline to offer employment on any other, for 'it takes two to make a bargain.'

Still Free to Join.

"And, having accepted employment on these terms, the man is still free to join the union when theperiod of employment expires; or if employed at will, then at any time upon simply quitting the employment. And, if bound by his own agreement to refrain from joining the union during a stated period of employment, he is in no different situation from that which is necessarily incident to contracts in general.

"For constitutional freedom of contract does not mean that a party is to be as free after making the contract as before; he is not free to break it without accountability. Freedom of contract in the very nature of the thing can be enjoyed only by being exercised; and each particular exercise of it involves making an engagement, which, if fulfilled, prevented for the time any inconsistent course of conduct."

Similar laws have been passed in fourteen states, Justice Day pointed out in dissenting.

"Could an employer not be forbidden from demanding agreements that an employe should not join the National Guard?" inquired Justice Day. "Could not the state strike down agreements not to join a certain political party? Why not labor unions, whatever members of this court may think of these unions?"

lution would be notice to the departments to hold down their estimates.

One of Highest Taxed States.

Representative H. H. Harrison of Stillwater said that Minnesota is one of the highest taxed states in the Union and the advice to hold down to the 1911 limit, whatever it was, is good. In fifteen years state expenses have increased 245 per cent, while the population has increased but 17 per cent.

Representative Devold, Socialist, declared that labor wasn't interested in taxes, because if it is exploited too much, taxes don't count. "We want to spend all the money we can," he added, "to make the state better to live in."

"God save the country, then!" said Representative Harrison.

Representative Spooner said he had no particular objections to the resolution, except that it ought to state statistics correctly. The committee hopes, he said, to keep near the 1911 figures, anyway.

Mr. Guilford will probably check up his statistics and offer the resolution again.

To Push Efficiency Bill.

Representative Adams of Fergus Falls offered a resolution, which he asked to have lie over a day, calling on the efficiency and economy committee, which Speaker Flowers formally announced this morning, to report the efficiency bill back by Feb. 10. He offered this on the ground that many bills affecting the state government are pending, which will be repealed if the efficiency bill passes, "thus wasting the valuable time of the house."

* * *

Representative Sam Y. Gordon, chairman of the house census committee, introduced a bill providing for the taking of the 1915 state census with the secretary of state as supervisor, he to appoint enumerators and serve as superintendent for $500.

Enumerators are to be paid $2 per 100 people in cities over 5,000, $2.25 in communities of 500 to 5,000, and 2½ cents in the country. The bill carries an appropriation of $100,000.

* * *

Representative C. H. Warner, Aitkin, introduced a bill repealing the provision that where state land is paid for within ten years the interest rate shall be 6 per cent, and making the interest a flat 4 per cent on all sides, as it is now when payments extend more than ten years.

Lake County Salaries.

Other bills: By Representatives North and Woodfill, fixing salaries and clerk hire of Lake county auditor and treasurer; Representative Greene, increasing fee for horseshoers' examinations from $2 to $5; Representative Indrehus, requiring railroads to light depot platforms half an hour before and after train time; Representative Sanborn and Vaslay, allowing trust companies to do a saving bank business; Representatives Morken and Sanborn, raising the age of woman's coming to her majority from 18 to 21 years, the same as men.

* * *

The house went into committee of the whole for the first time this afternoon, with the chair filled by Representative Gilman of St. Cloud, former speaker and former lieutenant governor. His appearance in the chair of the house for the first time in forty years was the signal for an ovation.

Representative Spooner announced that the efficiency and economy committee would meet this afternoon.

AUSTRIAN CLAIMS ARE NOT SUBSTANTIATED.

London, Jan. 25.—Although Vienna reports via Amsterdam enlarge upon Austrian successes in Bukowina, claiming that the Russians are retreating with heavy losses of munitions and prisoners, a wireless dispatch from Vienna early today giving an official communication issued there, says only this about the fighting in that region:

The communication also tells of fighting in the Carpathians as follows:

"In the Carpathians the Russians were driven out of several trenches which they had pushed forward south of the passes."

HEATING OF STREET CARS

It is doubtful if many of the persons who complain of the way street cars are heated have given more than a passing thought to the difficulties of the problem.

There is nothing quite so hard to heat as a street car. This is particularly true when low temperature is accompanied by a high wind. Thus far no means has been invented for keeping the air just inside the constantly opening door or close to the walls which are practically all glass from 60 to 90 degrees warmer than the air immediately outside, as sometimes seems to be expected.

Our cars are heated by means of hot water, which is the most satisfactory method known for this climate. Most passengers keep on their heavy outdoor clothing while riding in street cars in cold weather and the temperature as high as that maintained in our homes and offices would be very uncomfortable to them. We instruct our employes to keep the temperature in the cars as near 60 degrees as possible at all times, but this is not possible when the outside temperature is below zero, with a strong wind blowing.

We wish to remind those who are familiar with the operation of hot water heating systems in their homes with the rapid circulation which they are able to secure by placing the heater at a considerably lower level than the radiating surfaces cannot be obtained in a car. In a car the radiating surfaces must necessarily be placed below the level of the heater and this is a serious handicap in obtaining good circulation.

While hot water heaters are, all things considered, by far the most efficient for heating cars in this climate, things sometimes go wrong with them, as would be the case with any other system. The causes of trouble are sometimes such as cannot be foreseen by the management, nor controlled by the employes, and sometimes due to an attempt to force the circulation too rapidly by the motorman, but the usual result in either case is poor circulation and a cold car with a hot fire in the heater.

If under such circumstances the employes increase the fire in the heater in response to the requests they always get from passengers to "fire up," it results in mixing steam with the water, shutting off the circulation entirely, and sometimes in blowing all of the water in the heater out through the safety valve on the roof of the car. When the circulation has been stopped by such forcing the only way to make the car warm again is to allow the fire to go down and then to rebuild it slowly, re-establishing the circulation of water very slowly, without getting steam mixed with it by attempting to force it. To do this, the car is pulled into the carhouse, but often while it is completing a long trip or before it can be exchanged for a warm car many passengers are likely to ride upon it and suffer more or less from the cold. We are using every effort to make such cases as rare as possible and we believe that our employes generally observe our instructions to notify the office promptly when they have a car which it is necessary to take off the line to get the heating system working properly again. It is possible that employes may sometimes neglect to do this, and for that reason we are always glad to have passengers promptly notify our office when they find cars unusually cold. We always make it a point to have cars looked after at the very first opportunity.

Sweitzer, county clerk; Carter Harrison, mayor; Thomas O'Dwyer and Frank J. LIGHT CONTRACT WILL BE SIGNED

Council Will Close With the Edison Company Wednesday.

The contract between the city and the Duluth-Edison company for the 6-cent lighting rate as adopted at the special election last Tuesday will be formally signed some time Wednesday.

At the meeting of the commission this afternoon, a resolution will be adopted accepting the official canvass of the vote and formally declaring the 6-cent ordinance carried and the unit plant ordinance rejected. On Wednesday Mayor Prince will sign the resolution and some time during the day the contract as offered by the Duluth-Edison company will be formally accepted and signed by the mayor, City Clerk Palmer and City Auditor Campbell.

In addition to action on the 6-cent lighting rate, the saloon license of E. L. Weitzel, proprietor of the Metropole hotel, will be revoked without any opposition, as he has announced that he will make no fight when his case comes up for hearing.

An ordinance appropriating $9,000 for the purchase of road oil for sprinkling purposes will be introduced this afternoon by Commissioner Murchison.

SOLDIERS GET READY.

Troops at Fort Frances Being Drilled for European War.

Fort Frances, Ont., Jan. 25.—(Special to The Herald.)—The members of the Ninety-eighth regiment being drilled here for war service have been granted the dining room and kitchen of the Shevlin-Clarke boarding house free of charge, together with all utensils, dishes, etc., for a mess room for the soldiers. A regimental cook, assistant cook and cookees are detailed under the direction of Lieut. Parry, actink quartermaster to prepare and serve all meals. Provisions, etc., are purchased from the local dealers and regular meals served. Three times daily the men march from the armory to the mess room and good substantial food is served under army regulations.

Quickly Relieves Without Distress

The congestion of waste and refuse from the stomach, fermenting in the bowels, generates poisonous gases that occasion distress and invite serious illness. Health and comfort demand that this congestion be speedily relieved and the foul mass expelled.

The well-founded objection most people have to the violence of cathartic and purgative agents is overcome by using the combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin that is sold in drug stores under the name of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. A dose at night brings relief next morning, without discomfort or inconvenience. A free trial bottle can be obtained by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 452 Washington St., Monticello, Ills.

CONDITIONS AT FRONT

British Eye Witness Continues His Narrative of the War.

Says Continuous Artillery Combat Takes Form of Game.

London, Jan. 25.—There was given out in London today a further recital of conditions at the front by an eye witness attached to the British general staff. It is dated Tuesday, Jan. 19, at the British general headquarters in France. A synopsis follows:

"The work of the artillery, particularly on the British right, is discussed and it is related that weather conditions are improving. The difficulty of maintaining good roads, which are ground to pieces by heavy motors, is mentioned and extended denial is given to a German report that the English have used German prisoners as aeroplane observers. Continuing, the observer says:

Takes Form of Game.

"The continuous artillery combat almost takes the form of a game in some parts of the field. As soon as the German batteries start shelling us our guns are directed against certain places on the enemy's lines the bombardment of which, we known by experience, will soon induce him to desist. Having obtained the range of most of the hostile batteries, we generally can reduce them to silence or render their fire comparatively harmless.

"On Saturday, Jan. 16, our guns made good practice against the German trenches and also found an excellent target in a German battalion marching through a forest, and they made direct hits on a convoy and observation station at Volaines. On Sunday the 17th, north of Givenchy, we shelled the German redoubts and forced the garrison to retire. On Monday, the 18th, the British left was heavily shelled without result.

Story a Fabrication.

"An alleged German official report declares that a certain German prisoner in the British lines claims that on several different occasions he was forced to ascend in a British aeroplane in his shirt sleeves to point out the German positions and drop a bomb. This whole story is a pure fabrication, but it presumably would not have appeared unless it was likely to be accepted as true in Germany and in some neutral countries. The absurdity of taking up a private soldier who never before had made an ascent in order to ascertain the position of units of which he knew nothing, is sufficient refutation. Moreover, we would be hardly likely to render his task more difficult by inflicting the needless hardship of exposure.

Keep Roads in Repair.

"Immense efforts and a great amount of material are being expended to keep roads in repair under the motor traffic. Furthermore, in many cases, the paved portions of the roads are so narrow that vehicles are unable to pass each other; consequently, it has been necessary to widen the paved surface. Although stone block is one of the most ancient and durable forms of road, it becomes broken up in time by heavy traffic.

"The weather is now dry and windy, which results in improving conditions in the trenches.

"The wind at the height of half a mile has reached a velocity of 90 miles an hour. In spite of this, successful aeroplane flights have been accomplished."

Bremen, on cotton, 1,061 to 1,150 per cent.

Will Make Enormous Charge.

The report declares that in one year, if American exports maintain the December, 1914, level, the increased rates will make a charge of $216,224,400 on American shippers and that if the imports be included on the same basis of calculation the amount would reach the sum of $311,864,400 or 141.6 per cent over the usual cost. If normal rates are taken in conjunction with the abnormal on the December basis the freight charge on both exports and imports in a year would make the grand total of $532,110,000.

The report contains several score letters from business men over the country declaring their inability to get bottoms for their freight, and charging discrimination by such carriers as are in business against freight that pays a low rate and the breaking of contracts by at least one of the big trans-Atlantic steamship companies.

The report contains also a letter from the Panama Railroad company which says:

Panama Short of Coal.

"Our stock (of coal) has been reduced from 90,000 to 40,000 tons and with the Earn line and our company scouring the charter market in the effort to secure sufficient tonnage to carry to the isthmus the amount of coal it is imperative we should keep on [illegible] will be observed," the report says, "with the greatest increase in rates and the heaviest tax has been made upon the products in which the American people is most concerned, namely, grain and cotton.

"The government has no power to control or regulate ocean freight rates. The steamship owners can increase rates without notice and upon the instant and our business men are helpless."

Favors Purchase of Ships.

The report concludes with an argument in favor of the ship purchase bill in which the senate is reminded that such unusual freight charges, if continued, may result in creating a big balance of trade against this nation. It points out that of American ships in all trade worth about $600,000,000 the bureau of navigation says that only ships valued at $69,000,000 are in the foreign trade. By some the argument is made, the report says, that the government should not do anything to cause competition with this $69,000,000 of private capital invested in ships, although foreign trade is left thereby "entirely at the mercy of foreign shipping interests and the relatively small amount of American capital invested in ships engaged in the foreign trade."

The nation's combined exports and imports for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1914, the report says, totaled $3,785,464,525.

Which Should Be Considered.

"It may well be asked," it continues, "which of these interests is entitled to the superior consideration of the government, the farmers and producers of the great grain states of the West and the farmers and producers of the great cotton and tobacco states of the South, the merchants, manufacturers and businessmen throughout the entire country, whose combined activities represent our vast trade, or the owners of the comparatively few American steamships engaged in the foreign trade, whose aggregate investment is approximately $69,000,000.

"There would seem to be but one answer and that is that it would pay us many times over to invest the $40,000,000 as provided in the shipping bill in an American merchant marine and bring about as quickly as possible a restoration of normal ocean freight rates with a saving to American business of more than $200,000,000 annually."

The report says assurance has been given that many ships suitable for the purpose can be promptly obtained. It continues:

Not German Ships Alone.

"It is not true, as alleged in some quarters, that only ships of German registry can be purchased. We do not know whether any of the German vessels interned in our ports can be secured, or would be desirable, but we are convinced that suitable ships of various foreign registry are available if the means for purchasing them are provided. There is attached to this report a list of ships offered by the agents of Marine and Engineering Review, which it will be seen that there are fifteen ships of English registry and seven of German registry which it proposes to sell. Other ships are obtainable."

STRONG OPPOSITION TO EFFICIENCY BILL BUT IT MAY NOT BE DEFEATED

bitterly the idea that it is to be deprived of its independence, forced into an organized correlation of state forces and compelled to submit to a business check upon its finances and business methods, is hotly against the bill.

Some state officers and state employes whose status is affected by the measure are also against it, and are quietly doing what they can to undermine it.

But these elements of opposition, though by no means factors it is safe to ignore, do not constitute the chief menace to the bill.

The measure proposes a big change in the administration of the state's affairs. A big change is needed. And as change is always opposed, so is this change opposed; and the opposition—or resistance—is big in proportion to the change proposed.

There has been talk that the "senate combine" is massed together to kill this bill. That's utter nonsense. The "senate combine" was simply the usual benevolent association of a majority of the senators to control patronage. A majority of the senators associated, parceled out the patronage, got places for their people—and then the combine, having served its purpose, vanished. The division that appeared on the patronage vote has not reappeared in a senate roll call since, and it will not reappear.

It is true that a majority of those composing the "combine" are to be ranked as conservatives; but no one begins to suspect that a majority of the senate members are to be ranked as conservatives, if not a majority of the whole legislature. There are evidences here, as there are in the country at large, that the tide of radicalism has reached its height and is rapidly ebbing.

Talk Is Mistaken.

There has been talk that the senate shows its hostility to the bill in that it created a standing committee on "civil administration" to handle it instead of a special committee on "efficiency and economy." That talk, though doubtless sincere, is also unquestionably mistaken. Lieutenant Governor Hjarquist wanted to deal fairly with this measure, and has dealt fairly with it. So has Speaker Flowers dealt fairly with it. The bill will have full and fair consideration in the committees of both houses, whatever may happen to it when it gets out of committee and before the legislature.

In point of fact, curiously few of the senators and representatives know much about the details of the plan proposed by the commission. All have had copies of the report and of the bill presented. Some of them have read these papers. Many have not read them at all and few have studied them. There are some in both houses who are flatly opposed to the measure; yet if you ask them what is the matter with it you have them stumped.

Here is what will save the measure, if anything does: the fact that pretty nearly every member of senate or house pledged himself to do something about efficiency and economy if he was elected, and that this is about the only measure bearing that label that he will get a chance to vote upon.

There has been a great deal of talk in the state during the last two years—and very wholesome talk it was—about efficiency and economy. It has been shown that state expenses have been racing up the grade at breath-taking speed. It has been shown that the state tax rate has been travelling right along with state expenses. It has been shown that though every increase in indirect taxes like the increase in the railroad gross earnings tax was advocated on the ground that it would wipe out the direct state tax, the more money the state got indirectly the more it wanted directly from the taxpayers, and the higher rose the state tax rate.

There was so much of this talk that everybody felt, rather vaguely for the most part, that something ought to be done about it. Former Governor Eberhart, the last legislature having failed to make any provision because of a disagreement, appointed thirty citizens to do something about it. That commission, composed of men of all parties, of all ranks, and from all parts of the state, got expert aid and at its own expense got up this plan, which includes a complete reorganization of the state's administration of affairs, a civil service system, and the budget plan of making appropriations. This plan, now before the legislature, is the answer, and the only answer available, to the demand that something be done to insure that the taxpayers will get their money's worth out of what they pay toward the support of the state.

Promised to Support It.

This being the case, and nine out of ten senators and representatives having solemnly promised the people that if they were elected they would work their heads off for efficiency and economy, the measure ought to have a pretty fair show for success, especially as the committees in both houses are dominated by men who are friendly to it.

And yet, there is the fact that it makes a revolutionary change in things, the fact that the average mortal is instinctively opposed to revolutionary change, and the fact that your average member of the legislature is an average mortal.

That makes a hard combination for any measure like this to overcome, and it will not be overcome unless the folks back home let it be known that they want those pre-election pledges redeemed.

But there is no conspiracy, no plot, no combine, working to scuttle this bill. It may not pass. It may develop that this session is merely a period of discussion and that the next session will be the time when the measure is due to become a law. Or it may develop that enough senators and representatives to pass it will be overcome by a realization that they are virtually pledged to this measure unless they can find sound excuse for voting against it.

And so far nobody has brought out any such excuse, nor anything bearing the remotest resemblance to any such excuse.

The commission that created the measure has worked loyally, public spiritedly, intelligently. The need of the state was clear, and the commission has done its level best to meet that need. It is up to those who would take against this bill to show that they have failed to meet it adequately; and this they have not yet done.

Some of those who would like to see the bill fail have searched every act of the commission and find that there is not something to base legislative indignation upon. There is nothing. The commission had and has preserved the utmost respect for the legislative prerogative. Its measure has been dressed nearly refrained from any slightest appearance of dictation or presumption. They have kept rigidly free from even suggesting how the legislature should consider the bill. They have abstained absolutely from any slightest appearance of lobbying for the bill. They stand ready to help the legislature when called upon. They stand ready to answer any questions, to make any explanations, to offer justification for the changes they propose—but only when called upon. They did not even accompany the bill with any argument for it.

Did Best It Could.

The commission's skirts are clear. It has done the best it could. The fair presumption is that its work offers a great improvement on the present system of administration, which, the aimless result of years of patch-work, is no system at all. The inescapable assumption is that unless these thirty citizens were thirty idiots, they couldn't contrive a plan worse than the painless, formless thing now in vogue.

Presently the committees will be considering the bill. Despite wild talk about a split between the two branches, doubtless the two committees will consider it together in joint session. Anybody, then, who sees flaws in the bill will have a chance to show them to others. Anybody, then, who sees a way to improve it will have a chance to offer his amendments. And when the committees are through, they will report the bill to the senate and house, and there again there will be the fullest opportunity to discuss, attack and amend it.

And after that the measure will be voted upon, and the state will have a chance to see which force is stronger and will prevail—the force of the public demand that something be done about efficiency and economy, or the force of the instinctive human resistance to change.

State School System.

Another somewhat revolutionary proposal that will soon be before the legislature for consideration is the report of the commission appointed, pursuant to a law of two years ago, to propose a reorganization of the state school system.

Indeed, if one may judge by current comment, the bill proposing it will not have a baker's dozen of supporters in either house.

In much of the discussion of this measure it has been assumed that the chief source of enmity to it is in the county superintendents, now elective, who under it will be made appointive by a county board of education, with educational qualifications imposed upon them.

The county superintendents are against it, and they are something more than eighty in number.

But if it were all, the bill would go through a-flying.

But not only the eighty-odd county superintendents are against it, but apparently the 21,000 trustees of the 7,000 rural school districts are, too. And would abolish are against it, too. And so, by the same token, are most of the people who live in these 7,000 districts.

Theoretically, the plan seems a good one. Practically, it is as bad as though it were vicious in its terms. Because it proposes a change that a huge majority of the people of the state will oppose violently.

Mainly, the schools now are in charge of these 21,000 district trustees, and the trustees are amenable to local sentiment in each of the districts they represent. Subject to the county superintendents and state regulations, home rule prevails in the management of the schools.

Under the proposed reorganization, all these local districts would be abolished, and the rural schools would be put under county boards which would not only run the schools as one district, but would appoint the county superintendents. The county boards would be under a state board, and the state school system would be changed from a state and local system of control to a system of state and county control.

This change has apparently provoked an opposition that is virtually insurmountable. The county superintendents may be against it, and doubtless are against it; but the bill would fall of passage, as it stands, if every county superintendent in the state were working day and night to pass it.

Will Be Busy Week.

This will be a busy week in the legislature, though so far as forecasts go the activity will be in the committee rooms rather than on the floor.

Tomorrow afternoon the senate committee on elections will have a public hearing on the Sageng woman suffrage amendment, when the women opposed to suffrage will have a chance to state their grounds of opposition. Doubtless the women in favor of suffrage will be there, too, and will have something to say.

Wednesday afternoon the senate committee on temperance will have a public hearing on the county option bill, when its opponents will say why they think it ought not to be recommended for passage.

Whatever is said before the committees, both these bills will be recommended for passage, and their friends will move to make them special orders for immediate consideration—possibly this week, certainly next week at the latest.

Wednesday afternoon the house committee on railroads will have a public hearing on the Bendixen bill to re-enact the two-cent fare law so the railroads will not be able to take advantage of the supreme court ruling allowing them to charge 3 cents a mile for the first five miles of any trip.

The railroads will not oppose this idea, but they will oppose the plan to take away from them the privilege, intended by the legislature of 1913, to charge 3 cents a mile for trips of five miles or less.

Wednesday afternoon, too, the committees on labor and labor legislation of the senate and the house will have a joint hearing on the semi-monthly pay bill, introduced in the senate by Senator George H. Gardner of Brainerd and in the house by Representative James H. Hynes of St. Paul.

This bill has been before the legislature for several sessions, and always has been defeated in the past. Senator Gardner is making a hard fight for it this time, however, and expects to pass it.

President Pro Tem.

The position of president pro tem. of the senate is the subject of a lively campaign which probably will come to a head early this week.

The candidates are Senator George H. Sullivan of Stillwater and Senator William S. Dwinnell of Minneapolis.

In the past, this position, which is purely honorary except that it carries the right of succession to the lieutenant governorship, and to the governorship if both governor and lieutenant governor are removed, has gone largely on the basis of seniority. On that basis, Senator Sullivan has the call, this being his third term, while Senator Dwinnell is serving his second term. Moreover, the indications are that Senator Sullivan has the votes, which is more to the point.

The house committee on game and fish, of which Edward Indrehus of Foley is chairman, will hold a public hearing at the capitol on the evening of Monday, Feb. 1, to consider the whole subject of game and fish legislation.

All who have suggestions to make about changes in the game laws are invited to be present, or to send their suggestions by mail to Chairman Indrehus at the state capitol.

Among the subjects announced for discussion are the following:

A permanent closed season for quail.

The advisability of allowing the use of artificial light in spearing fish.

A shortening of the open season on partridges.

A change in the season for trapping muskrat and mink.

A change in the law as to rewards paid by the game and fish commission for information leading to the arrest and conviction of violators of the game laws.

A proposal to reduce the bag limit for birds.

To make the state law conform more closely to the requirements of the Federal law on migratory game birds.

Prohibiting the use of nets for the purpose of catching fish in lakes stocked by the state.

Less Bills Introduced.

This legislature has made less progress with its work than the legislature of 1913 had made at this period; but as an offset, there is a marked falling off in the number of bills introduced in both houses.

The last session day in the house was the twelfth, and on that day the house had received 175 bills against 255 on the same day in the 1913 session.

The last session day in the senate was the eleventh, and on that day the senate had received 110 bills against 182 in 1913. The senate is 72 bills behind, and the house 80 bills behind. If it keeps up this way, the work of the session will be materially facilitated.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.

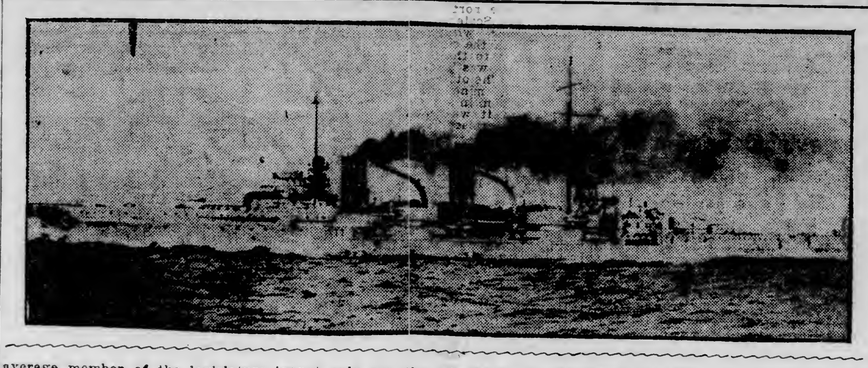

No griping is the "Keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth" now and then—a bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver and are constipated, you'll find quick, sure and only pleasant results from one or two little Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take one or two every night just to keep right. Try them. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

"My pet pigeon," came the reply. "The cat caught him this morning!"

OFFENSIVE MOVEMENT

heavy artillery engagements have occurred.

Northward there appears to have been little change. Northwest of Warsaw, from Radzanowo to Dobrzyn, on the Vistula, the Germans are still on the defensive. On the left bank of the Vistula, west of Warsaw, and along the Rawka, the Germans are stubbornly attempting to advance. Between Borgimow and Gumin, twenty-five miles west of Warsaw, desperate hand to hand fighting is reported. The village of Borgimow has changed hands several times as the armies surged back and forth. At last reports it was not occupied by either side, as neither of the opposing forces is able to hold it.

Germans Move Forward.

No less stubborn is the action on the line between Grauow and Kurdvanov, southeast of Sochaczew. In this vicinity the Germans are said to have moved forward in the open, over fields strewn with the dead, many of whom had died by freezing. The progress here was slight. Neither the Germans nor the Russians were able to get in more than a few yards.

ANOTHER PROTEST MADE BY GERMANY

Objects to Shipments of Hydro-Aeroplanes to European Nations.

Washington, Jan. 25.—Germany protested to the state department today through her ambassador, Count Bernstorff, against shipments of American hydro-aeroplanes to the European belligerents on the ground that such air craft are war vessels.

A statement issued by the embassy today says:

"The Curtiss works at Hammondsport, N. Y., have sold and sent to England the well-known hydro-aeroplane 'America' and five hydro-aeroplanes of the same type. Thirty-six hydro-aeroplanes of a different type have been ordered by England and are under construction by the same firm. Also Russia has ordered a number of these vessels from Curtiss for use in her navy.

"There is no doubt, and it does not need any explanation, that from the standpoint of international law, hydro-aeroplanes have to be considered as war vessels, and that, therefore, by Article VIII of the agreement concluded at The Hague on Oct. 18, 1907, neutral countries are prohibited to supply belligerent countries with such vessels. The selling of hydro-aeroplanes by the Curtiss works, therefore, constitutes a breach of neutrality. Hydro-aeroplanes are not especially mentioned in The Hague agreement for the simple reason that this kind of war vessel did not yet exist at that time."

LAST RAIL LAID ON C. N. RAILROAD

Line Now Completed From Lake Superior to Pacific Coast.

The Canadian Northern railroad is now completed from Lake Superior to the Pacific coast. The last rail was laid at noon on Saturday at Basque, a village on the North Thompson river, 200 miles east of Vancouver.

The ballasting of the line is expected to be completed by April 15 and the official ceremony of driving the golden spike is planned for May 1. Through passenger service is, however, thought unlikely to go into effect before midsummer.

The Canadian Northern enters British Columbia through the Yellowstone pass, where for many miles it parallels the Grand Trunk Pacific, for both of the railways leave Edmonton and thence strike west toward the Pacific. From the summit of the Rockies the line runs along the valley of the Thompson river until it meets the Canadian Pacific line at Kamloops, 200 miles east of Vancouver. Thence to Vancouver the Canadian Northern runs along the Frazer on the opposite bank from the Canadian Pacific.

GREATER CREAMERY PLANS DISCUSSED

Directors of Grand Rapids Concern Going After More Business.

Grand Rapids, Minn., Jan. 25.—(Special to The Herald.)—The new directors of the Itasca Co-operative creamery Saturday afternoon discussed the welfare of the creamery. All the members, President Bergh, Secretary Niles and Directors Sisler, Becker, A. V. Anderson and Hinegardner, were present. The directors voted to sell shares so as to bring the total number of shares sold up to eighty. The proceeds of this sale will be used to reduce the creamery debt, and that will be brought to $1,000.

The matter of the disposal of the sinking fund was taken care of by placing the fund at the disposal of the creamery officials as a working capital.

The board decided to use wood as a part of the fuel the coming year, and will buy twenty to twenty-five cords of green poplar wood this winter, giving the preference to the patrons of the creamery who are shareholders.

The steps to be taken to increase the volume of the business were discussed. It developed there are many farmers owning cows who would be only too glad to patronize the creamery if it were possible to market their cream without losing too much time bringing it in. In the summer time, the busiest part of the year, the cream has to be delivered to the creamery three times a week.

For farmers living five, six or more miles out, it does not pay unless they have very large herds, and it is the people with from four cows up who are affected the worst. The market for butter is not the best, and it is much less work to send the cream to the creamery if the hauling is eliminated, so that the products of one's cows do not require more trips to town than it would take to market the butter. The proposition of gathering the milk was proposed, but it was not thought feasible at this time.

Co-operation in Delivering.

It was finally decided to urge co-operation in delivering the cream to the creamery among neighborhoods, so that by mutually arranging days for going to town, several neighbors can get together and take turns in delivering the cream to the creamery, thus not necessitation so many trips for each farmer.

There are many farmers who have plenty of pasture and who raise plenty of feed to take care of quite a few more cows than they now have, but who are handicapped for want of funds to buy good cows. The matter of providing money to worthy farmers to buy cows was talked over, but no action was taken. It is quite likely, however, that a campaign will be started in the near future to place more cows on farms tributary to the creamery.

HARRY SWANSON STILL MISSING

Brother-in-Law Says Reported Finding in Mill City Is Untrue.

Blackberry, Minn., Jan. 25.—(Special to The Herald.)—Harry Swanson, the Chisholm bricklayer who was lost some time ago while hunting north of Chisholm and reported seen on the streets of Minneapolis after a long search made for him in this section, is still missing, according to his brother-in-law, Axel V. Anderson of Blackberry. It develops that Emil Johnson, a contractor, did not see Swanson in Minneapolis as was reported, but some one looking like Swanson.

"One thing is sure," says Mr. Anderson, "Swanson is not at home nor have his parents or any of his relatives seen him or heard from him since Nov. 30, when he was lost north of Chisholm.

"His brother has made a thorough search for him in Minneapolis and he could find no trace of him.

"I am Swanson's brother-in-law. I was up in the woods searching for him, and I am sorry that such misleading reports appeared in the papers."

SHORTAGE MADE GOOD.

No Prosecution Expected in Butte of Former Virginian.

Butte, Mont., Jan. 25.—There will be no prosecution of Earl Simons, assistant cashier in the local office of the American Express company, who left here suddenly over three weeks ago, as he has sent Manager R. T. Campbell from Canada the small shortage discovered in his accounts. It is believed that something besides financial troubles forced him to leave.

Simons was under a $2,000 bond to a bonding company, but there will be no prosecution. Men in the express office said they did not think the shortage was the cause of his disappearance, as the shortage could have been adjusted. In his letter, Simons made no explanation of his disappearance. Simons is reported to have figured in an escapade with a woman and this prompted his disappearance.

Simons, whose home is in Blackfoot, Idaho, came here from Pocatello. Before that he was employed at Virginia, Minn.

WOOD CUTTERS ARE ORDERED TO DESIST

Great Northern Stops Cutting on Land Near Nashwauk.

Nashwauk, Minn., Jan. 25.—(Special to The Herald.)—Some officials of the Great Northern Land company Saturday visited their land adjoining the village. As a result, a large number of wood choppers were driven off the land and the wood that had been cut and piled confiscated.

A number of men are said to have had in the neighborhood of 200 cords cut and were ready to have it hauled into town when the land men arrived. Those who had cut small quantities were allowed to take their wood by paying the owners $1.50 per cord, others who had large quantities were told to leave it and never to attempt again to cut wood on Great Northern lands. As a result of the invasion on village wood-choppers there will be no further trouble as far as the consumers are concerned.

Several small contracting firms in the wood business here have been finding plenty of material to work with of late that are called "forties," but owing to the change that took place, these forties are being moved to sections farther away from town. About twenty of Calumet's prosperous wood-getters were also given strict orders to obey the law.

Hibbing, Minn., Jan. 25.—(Special to The Herald.)—Grocers, physicians, dentists, merchants and pharmacists have been urged by the committee in charge of the Child Welfare exhibit to be given here tomorrow afternoon and night, to take part. It has been suggested by H. H. Faust, principal of the Jefferson school, that the dentists hold clinics showing the value of caring for teeth, that clothiers demonstrate results from exposures from inadequate clothing, and so on. Several declared today that they will give an exhibit and it is expected that the meetings will be the most enthusiastic.

VIRGINIA SKIERS ARE PREPARING FOR MEET.

Virginia, Minn., Jan. 25.—(Special to The Herald.)—Local ski enthusiasts are getting in trim for the National Ski association's tournament at Duluth Feb. 6, and already are practicing on the slide of the Virginia Ski club. It is also planned to have a tournament here during the winter.

SHIPPING FOREST PRODUCTS LIVELY

Large Amount of Logs and Pulpwood Being Secured in Lake County.

Two Harbors, Minn., Jan. 25.—(Special to The Herald.)—Local business conditions have improved very materially because of the increase in shipments of forest products over the Iron Range railroad since there is now sufficient snow in the woods and the lumbermen have commenced their winter's work. The shipment of forest products, largely saw logs, over the Duluth & Northern Minnesota railway at Knife River, has also showed a decided increase and that road has from six to eight trains per day hauling logs and pulpwood. It is expected that this volume of business will continue through the balance of the winter. The Duluth & Northern Minnesota shops at Knife River are now working full time. The logs brought into Knife River are handled from that point by the Iron Range road and consequently it has been necessary for the Iron Range to put on extra trains to haul the logs from Knife River to Duluth.

There will be little pulpwood shipped to this port this winter, for shipment, out by boat next summer. In winters past the pulpwood business has furnished work for many men here during the dull months of the winter, there being in the neighborhood of 20,000 cords shipped here yearly for the Hammermill Paper company at Erie, Pa. The parties who have the contract for getting out the pulpwood for this concern are getting all of it this winter on the Alger line and it is being taken to Knife River over the Duluth & Northern Minnesota railway, and docked there to be shipped by boat next summer.

An effort was made by the Two Harbors Commercial club to have the Iron Range reinstal their transfer at York so that some of the pulpwood could be transferred to the Iron Range and docked in this city instead of it all going to Knife River, but it was learned that the joint rate over the two roads, from this point loading in Two Harbors was higher than the rate straight to Knife River, so consequently and quite naturally the shippers would not consider such an arrangement.

Logs Going to Cloquet.

The Northern Lumber company is now loading on an average of fourteen cars of logs per day. These logs are being taken to Hornby and delivered to the Duluth & North Eastern railway to be taken to Cloquet.

The Mullery & McDonald Lumber company are making preparations to load thirty cars of logs per day on the Eastern Mesaba branch, and will have their spurs laid and be ready for business within a week. These logs will be taken to Duluth over the Iron Range. In addition to these logs it is apparent that there will be from twenty to twenty-five cars of pulpwood loaded on that branch per day. Most of this pulpwood will be shipped to points in Wisconsin. When this branch gets doing business it will necessitate the putting on of one or more train crews. There is already two crews working on this branch, and a crew has recently been put on between Two Harbors and Mesaba.

Walstein & Son, at Mile 60 on the Iron Range, have a large crew of men cutting pulpwood, ties, poles and posts, also there are several Finnish settlers doing extensive pulpwood business along the line of the Iron Range.

ZENITH MINER GETS INJURY FROM BLAST

Returns Too Quickly Just as the Charge Is Exploded.

Ely, Minn., Jan. 25.—(Special to The Herald.)—Joe Schneider was badly injured at the Zenith mine on Saturday by a blast. Three blasts had been set and only two exploded. Schneider, thinking the three had gone off, got back just as the last one exploded. It struck him in the face and on the body. He was taken to the Shipman hospital and later to a Duluth hospital, where his condition is serious.

WAS CLOSE CONTEST.

Two Harbors-Superior Game Anyone's Up to Conclusion.

Two Harbors, Minn., Jan. 25.—(Special to The Herald.)—Saturday evening before the largest crowd that has witnessed a basket ball game here this year the local city team defeated the fast Y. M. E. A. team of Superior, 17 to 14. The game was a hummer all the way through and during the first half the Superior boys were inclined to rough it considerably, but after they were penalized considerably they discontinued and settled down to basket ball. It was either side's game up to the last minute of play. The first half ended with a 10-to-10 tie. During the later part of the second half the locals braced up considerably and took the lead and kept it throughout the remainder of the game. As the Superior boys had to catch the 9 o'clock train the last half was cut to fifteen minutes.

Woodward, at center, and McCurdy, at guard, for the locals were the stars of the home team. Woodward made 15 out of the 17 points for the locals and McCurdy played a remarkable game at guard and appeared to be just where he was most needed all the time. Olson and F. Anderson put up the best game for the visiting team.

The following was the lineup:

Two Harbors—		Superior—
Sullivan (Capt.)	f	H. Olson
H. Johnson	f	F. Anderson
J. Woodward	c	Brew
Alf Filiatrault	g	H. Berg
R. McCurdy	g	J. Olson
H. Freeman	f

Referee, Edward Conliff; timekeeper, R. J. Olsen. Freeman was substituted for oJhnson in the latter part of the last half.

THREE REASONS.

Each With Two Legs and Ten Fingers.

A Boston woman who is a fond mother writes an amusing article about her experience feeding her boys.

Among other things she says: "Three chubby, rosy-cheeked boys, Bob, Jack, and Dick, respectively, are three of our reasons for using and recommending the food, Grape-Nuts, for these youngsters have been fed on Grape-Nuts since infancy, and often between meals when other children would have been given candy.

"I gave a package of Grape-Nuts to a neighbor whose 3-year-old child was a weazened little thing, ill half the time. The little tot ate the Grape-Nuts and cream greedily and the mother continued the good work, and it was not long before a truly wonderful change manifested itself in the child's face and body. The results were remarkable, even for Grape-Nuts.

"Both husband and I use Grape-Nuts every day and keep strong and well and have three of the finest, healthiest boys you can find in a day's march."

Many mothers instead of destroying the children's stomachs with candy and cake give the youngsters a handful of Grape-Nuts when they are begging for something in the way of sweets. The result is soon shown in greatly increased health, strength and mental activity.

MUST GIVE BACK LAND AND COIN

Judge Hughes Rules in Case Involving Property Near Buhl.

Virginia, Minn., Jan. 25.—(Special to The Herald.)—Judge Hughes announced his decision today in the case of A. B. Jackson vs. B. H. Gabriel involving 120 acres of land near Buhl and some timber cut therefrom which the court heard Saturday without a jury. Judge Hughes orders that Gabriel must deed the land back to Jackson and give him $250 beside.

A new trial was ordered in the case of Cornelius Witte vs. Frank Haben, a Hibbing policeman, against whom the plaintiff got judgment for $1,500 for alleged ill treatment.

Insurance Case Nearly Ended.

The case of Helmer Brothers vs. the Hamburg-American Fire Insurance company to recover insurance on burned logs, which began last week, was resumed today and may be concluded today.

Steve Sanich of Chisholm is also expected to be arraigned on a statutory charge.

FARMERS' CLUB TO DISCUSS MATTERS.

Grand Rapids, Minn., Jan. 25.—(Special to The Herald.)—The next meeting of Grand Rapids Farmers' club will be held at the high school building on Saturday evening Feb. 6. The meeting will be in the nature of a women's meeting, and the feature of the evening will be a lecture and readings by Miss Frances P. Lapham of Caledonia.

The Harris Township Farmers' club will hold their meeting this evening at the McCormick schoolhouse to discuss the disposition of the funds in the club treasury. Some of the members think that the money should be applied toward the construction of a community hall to be used as a meeting place and in which could be held dances, socials, and other community social doings. The funds in the treasury are moneys won by the club for exhibiting township exhibits at the county fair, and there are many who hold to the idea that the club should expend the money for some other purpose than the plan proposed.

The Laprairie club will hold their next regular meeting at the Laprairie schoolhouse on Friday evening, Feb. 5, and the feature of the evening will be the lecture and readings by Miss Lapham of Caledonia.

HIBBING ALUMNI WIN.

Easily Defeat Virginia City Team on Their Home Floor.

Hibbing, Minn., Jan. 25.—(Special to The Herald.)—Working like a well-oiled machine, the high school alumni basket ball tossers of this village Saturday night defeated the Virginia City team, 36 to 22, at one of the best exhibitions of the game staged in the local gymnasium this season. Not at any time during the game were the visitors ahead and superior teamwork on the part of the local five proved their downfall.

Carl Schirmer of the locals was easily the stellar performer in the clash. Besides being continually in the game, he was exceptionally accurate in locating the basket from all different angles. He heads the shooting list with seven field baskets. Cobb, Adams and Friday also did effective work.

For the visitors Williams was the shining light. His individual work did much to break up the teamwork of the Hibbing quint. His defensive work was unusual.

OFFICIAL MAP OF THE WEATHER

Zero temperature extends to Iowa and Southern Nebraska. The lowest temperature reported was 32 degs. below at Willston, N. D. Killing frost occurred last night at New Orleans. During the last twenty-four to forty-eight hours rain or snow fell over Eastern states and California, and snow over the greater part of the Northwest. Heavy snow occurred at Buffalo."

DIETING TO KEEP WELL

Some people are born with a tendency to certain diseases. What they eat either aggravates this condition or tends to correct it.

Anybody can see the importance of a proper diet but human beings, unlike the lower animals, lack the instinct that tells them what to eat and what to avoid.

It is a fact that proper diet and a good tonic will keep people well under most conditions and restore them to health except in acute diseases where the need of a physician is imperative.

Start today by writing to the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., for a copy of the diet book, "What to Eat and How to Eat." It is full of useful information and describes the tonic treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for indigestion, nervous dyspepsia, for those conditions of flatulency or gas on the stomach, discomfort after eating, caused by lack of tone in the digestive organs. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills supply the stomach with well-oxygenated blood without which good digestion is impossible. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a non-alcoholic tonic and are free from poisons.

A short course of treatment with these pills will show in an improved appetite, better digestion, refreshing sleep and quiet nerves. Your own druggist sells Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

NEGAUNEE'S FIRE LOSS IS $50,000

Started in Pearce Block Presumably From Spontaneous Combustion.

Negaunee, Mich., Jan. 25.—(Special to The Herald.)—Spontaneous combustion or the explosion of oil caused the fire originating in the McLaughlin block early Saturday that also destroyed the Pearce block and burned until well along in the afternoon, causing an estimated loss of about $50,000. A revised list of the principal losers follows:

Laughlin estate, $20,000; insurance $4,000; Harry Pearce, $12,000, insurance, $1,000; Sher, merchant, $6,000, insurance, $1,500; Peter Schoenhofen Brewing company, Chicago, $1,000, insurance, $500; W. J. Chapman, saloon, $800, insurance, none; Swanson & Chase furniture, $500, insurance, $500.

Discovered By Policeman.

The fire was discovered by Patrolman John Larson, who saw smoke issuing from the rear of the Laughlin block. People living in the vicinity of the blaze moved their furniture into the street, fearing the flames would spread and involve their home in a conflagration.

The fire department is highly praised for its work in confining the blaze to the two blocks and the buildings in the rear. It was evident from the first that the Pearce block could not be saved and attention was given to the Thoren block. The intense cold made the battle difficult, as the spraying water froze almost instantly and made the footing of the firemen precarious. The Mesaba stores in both blocks gave the flames easy access to every part of the burning property and with the start the flames had obtained, there was little to do except to confine the blaze to the two blocks.

How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Carried Her Safely Through Change of Life.

Cedar Rapids, Iowa.—"At the Change of Life the doctor said I would have to give up my work and take my bed for some time as there was no help for me but to lie still. I took Lydia E. Many people have no faith in patent medicines but I know this is good."—Mrs. E. J. RICKETS, 354 8th Avenue, West, Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

BY BRUCE.

SKI sport steps blithely to the front and asks for a hearing. On the sixth and seventh of the impending month the great national meet of all of the ski clubs of the northern portion of this country will be held in Duluth. Locally interest is beginning to yawn and turn over. She should be a great meet, she should.

In the first place the big ski slide has been made eight feet higher. Think of it! Before we wondered how they got away without breaking a leg or something else equally as important as rated by the accident insurance companies. But now they have gone and made the slide higher and steeper. Why pity poor Pauline?

Every effort is being burnished and polished and rushed to the front to make this tourney one of the greatest of recent years. There is an abundance of snow this winter; the big hill looks as if it holds several world's records up its sleeve, and enthusiasm seems ripe for one of the old fashioned tournaments of the past.

Entry blanks are being mailed to the greatest riders of the country, both amateurs and professional. Several features are going to be added to the program. Officials of the Duluth ski club confidently expect that a world's record will be written on the minutes of the meet—and they also expect some of the greatest sport ever staged on the famous old Chester hill.

Get your tickets early.

Our Hockey Team.

RACE horses, prima donnas and common human beings often experience form reversals. On Friday evening Port Arthur played majestic circles around our boys and copped the initial hockey game of the series. Saturday vesper time our team executed one of the most sensational comebacks that has ever been staged in these plebeian parts and literally threshed the hockey life out of the visitors.

Duluth simply smothered the Canadians. Team work made offensive play wonderfully effective and a stone wall defense broke up the offense of the Thunder Bays and made the rushes of the visitors particularly ineffective all through the game.

We said in this column Saturday that the people of Port Arthur should feel proud of their hockey team. They should of the team of Friday's vintage; also, let us jot it down here, that the fans of Duluth should feel proud and somewhat chesty over their team—the team of Saturday.

They say "Every Dog Has His Day."

We have some hockey team—verily, lads, some team. Hist, boys, we hand it to youse.

The 'Spiel Is Over.

FOR several days it will be lonesome for some of the brave souls who last week did everything but sleep at the curling club. At this point the thought comes tripping along—didn't Doc Catterson sleep one morning at the club. See score. Like a circus, the ending of a bonspiel leaves an aching void and causes loneliness for a few days.

In an off year—one that brought to the door steps of our neighboring country one of the greatest catastrophes of the sweep of history, there were some who feared lest the spiel of this year would fall behind the high step of progress set by other years. However such was not the case.

It is generally admitted on all sides and by all hands, from the bridge to the steerage, that the big winter sport event that sang its swan song late Saturday evening, eclipsed in interest and spectacular features any of the previous spiels of recent years at least.

Rinks that were casually counted out of the event or passed over with scant notice, surprised the wiseacres by figuring in the play far into the last ends. It was a spiel of surprises and one of remarkably even play. In general outline it was perhaps the most successful bonspiel held in Duluth in sundry and also divers years.

The Battle Royal.

THIS week Walter Miller and Waino Ketonen will enter upon the final week of their training for a contest that promises to go down in the local annals of the sport as one of the greatest of all wrestling matches contested here.

We predict that this match will be one of the greatest of recent years. Miller is desperate. In a way Ketonen has backed Walter into a corner and forced him to wrestle—and the effort required eighteen months of effort. If little Miller is desperate and will battle like a fiend to hold off the Finn and finally beat him down—for Miller would curl up and wither with humiliation were he to lose this contest—remember that Ketonen is grimly determined and is fired with the determination to wipe out on the mat an old score that he has long held against the little Pole.

Miller is confident of winning. This winter Miller is wrestling as never before. Last summer Walter went to Chicago and placed himself under some of the best grapplers of the Windy City. At that time Miller had Theodore Peter and Mike Yokel in mind. For two months Miller worked. We have it from Miller and others that the Pole has never taken such care of himself as this season.

Walter came back to St. Paul and finally secured the meeting with the 175-pound Peter. In this contest the little Pole completely outwrestled his heavier opponent and won hands down. That was where he got Peter: the only way Walter Miller can get to Mike Yokel is by beating Waino Ketonen.

Ketonen doesn't say what he is going to do. Here is what the Finn says:

"I am glad that this match with Miller is made. I've been trying to get him for two years, ever since he beat up my friend Nestor Tuominen at Calumet, Mich. Miller knows that there won't be any easy time when we get together, and that is the reason he has been sidestepping me so long. I am willing to lose all the purse and my training expenses if I don't beat him. I will settle once for all the grudge against Miller and the question which is the better man. I've been training for three weeks and with one more week to train in I will be right. I want to show the Duluth fans that I'm right there when I get a man of my weight against me.

EXPECT LANDIS TO DECIDE CASE SOON

Early Disposition Hoped for as Training Season Opens Shortly.

Chicago, Jan. 25.—Hope was expressed yesterday by both representatives of organized baseball and the Federal league that Judge Landis would make a decision soon in the latter's prayer for an injunction. He took the case under advisement Saturday night after lawyers for the contestants had spent four days in arguing the case from many angles.

Early settlement of the suit, which asks the dissolution of organized baseball and the national commission as a trust, as well as the several pending suits against ball players, is generally wished for by managers, that they may know in advance of their training seasons what the makeup of their squads will be.

Lawyers for the defendants will spend the next three weeks in preparing answers to the Federals' original bill of complaint.

WOULD COMPEL ROTATION OF GAMES.

Champaign, Ill., Jan. 25.—Football squads of the Universities of Indiana and Iowa are about to begin a campaign in the western conference for the compulsory rotation of football games by the college teams, it is announced.

The announcement called attention to the hitherto unnoticed lack of any rule compelling members of the conference to compete with each other.

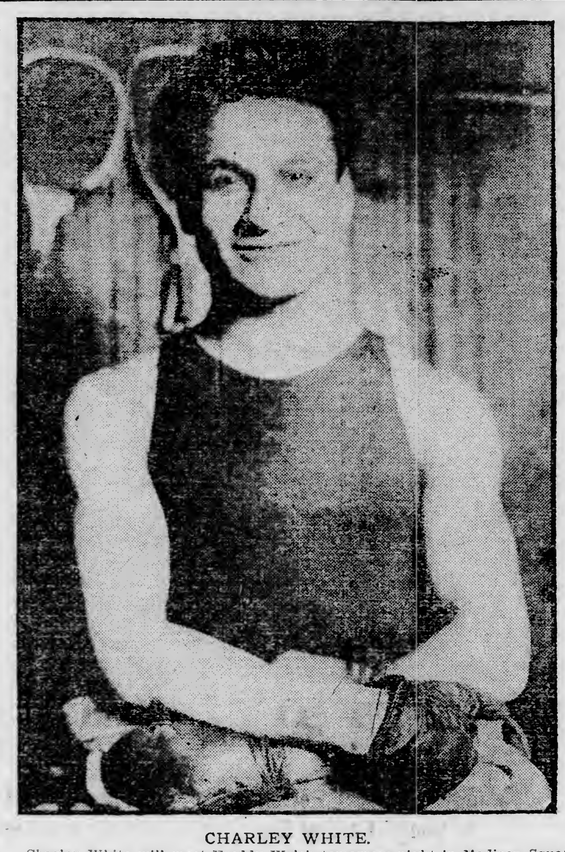

The Illinois understanding is that the conference jurisdiction can, in no way be reached.

MACCABEES TO STAGE TWO WRESTLING BOUTS

An athletic program will be offered by the Maccabees on Friday evening of this week. Pete Petkoff and Walter Dhein, welterweights, will meet, and Joe Wizard and W. Piering, heavyweights and two of the best in the city, will also clash.

The proceeds of the athletic exhibition will be used in buying baseball suits for the Maccabee indoor team.

CHICAGO FIGHTER TO MEET FREDDY WELSH

CHARLEY WHITE.

Charley White will meet Freddy Welsh tomorrow night in Madison Square Garden in a 10-round bout. Wiseacres are whispering that White will bear watching in this fight. They say that White is a demon when he does not hold a man in awe. Welsh failed to hurt Charley in the Milwaukee meeting. Welsh can't punch. White made a grand finish in Milwaukee; he may tear into Welsh from the first round. In that event he stands a great chance of winning, for the little Chicago Hebrew can punch. His left hook means curtains.

PLANS FOR JOHNSON-WILLARD FIGHT ARE BEING COMPLETED

Willard Will Train at El Paso and Johnson on the Mexican Side of the Border—English Professionals Entered for American Open Golf Championship.

New York, Jan. 25.—Plans for the Johnson-Willard championship battle at Juarez, Mex., on March 6 are rapidly being completed. The promoters have established permanent quarters at El Paso, just across the international boundary and mapped out a long list of details which must be arranged before the principals enter the ring. Training quarters for champion and challenger have been selected and the preliminary workout will begin within the next two weeks.

Willard, will do his conditioning in the suburbs of El Paso, where the summer home of one of the leading citizens has been placed at his disposal. Located on one of the principal boulevards of the city it will be easy of access and with the surrounding grounds and stables afford excellent facilities for both indoor and outdoor work. Johnson will prepare on the Mexican side of the Rio Grande. Training quarters have been secured for him in the Juarez opera house and accommodations for himself and staff of helpers in a nearby cottage.

To Arrive Early Next March.

Both pugilists are planning to arrive at the training camps early next month in order that they may become accustomed to the rarefied atmosphere. Both El Paso and Juarez have an altitude of close to 4,000 feet and training conditions are vastly different from those prevailing at lower levels.

This was brought out sharply in the Johnson-Jeffries contest in 1910. After spending some weeks in conditioning at close to sea level near San Francisco the camps were shifted to Reno, when the governor ordered the pugilists out of California. The change to the Nevada town at an altitude of approximately 4,500 feet set back the training for fully a week while principals and helpers were adapting themselves to the lighter air.

Under the present schedule the boxers will have from four to five weeks in which to prepare for the contest, which is none too long under the circumstances. Willard is expected to start his serious work at El Paso on or about Feb. 1 and Johnson is due to arrive at Juarez about ten days later. By that date the arrangements for staging the battle will have been fully completed. Material for the ring and stands will be assembled and the constructing details worked out.

Ring on the Race Track.

According to the present plans the ring proper will be erected on the race track of the Juarez course in such a manner that a portion of the present concrete stands can be utilized. Between the permanent stands and the track, the lawn will be used for other seats and boxes while on the track side of the ring will be the bleacher seats. Prices will range from $5 to $25 and each coupon will entitle the holder to a numbered seat. Accommodations for about 28,000 spectators will be provided.

From the center of El Paso to the Juarez race course is a trip of about ten minutes, the spectators crossing the international bridge spanning the Rio Grande, which separates the two countries at this point. Once in Mexico the visitor will witness the novel spectacle of a prize fight under government sanction and control. Mexican troops will police the course and the ring within, Gen. Villa having agreed to assign some 2,000 soldiers for this service on the day of the contest.

International Golf.

Contrary to early reports there appears to be a possibility that the coming golf season will be featured by at least one international tournament. The entry of several of the more prominent of the English professionals in the American open championship at Baltusrol, June 15 to 18, is almost certain in case the English open, set for about the same period, is declared off on account of the war.

The English golfing authorities have not as yet made a definite announcement regarding their tournament but close observers of the trend of the sport abroad are of the opinion that the open golf championship will be dropped for the season of 1915, as has been done with the Henley regatta, the Oxford-Cambridge crew race, and other English sports classics.

With their principal home tourneys abandoned, these professionals would welcome the opportunity to play in America, for their sources of revenue have been greatly curtailed since the beginning of hostilities. There is another side to the situation, however, which leaves the question of ultimate entry in doubt. While there are a number of prominent professionals who are not serving with the English regiments on the continent, a large majority are connected with various home defense organizations and are loath to leave England this spring for fear their motives might be misunderstood. If the war situation clears sufficiently, Braid, Vardon, Taylor and others may yet be seen competing in the American open in June.

Tennis Championships.

At the annual meeting of the United States National Lawn Tennis association, to be held in New York City early next month, the proposition to remove the national championships from Newport to another point, probably New York, is likely to be given careful consideration. The West Side club, situated at Forest Hills, L. I., one of the leading clubs of the metropolitan district, is expected to offer to stage the 1915 championship events. If this policy of moving the all-comers' tournament from Newport is adopted, it is thought that in years to come the championship play will be shifted from city to city each season, as is done in the golf title tourneys.

Opposition to the plan is certain to develop for the All-Comers' has been held continuously at Newport since 1881, when the national tennis championships were established. Without some form of eligibility rule with which to control the entries it is feared in certain quarters, that the tournament, if held in the larger cities, will be swamped by ambitious racquet wielders who desire to compete. Newport, because of the expense incidental to travel and accommodations never received much more than 200 entries yet the tournament in recent years has extended over a period of six to eight days.

Held in New York or Chicago it is probable that the entry would be double these figures. In order to reduce the list to a point where it could be handled with reasonable speed and satisfaction, a rating or eligibility standard would have to be adopted.

THE WHYTE-BREWERS WIN FINAL GAME OF SPIEL

Ralph Bradley Loses to Whyte in Final of Minneapolis.

Reedal of Phillips Wins Duluth Event and Grand Aggregate.

Elmer Whyte, skipping the Brewer-Whytes, won the closing game of the twenty-second annual bonspiel by defeating Ralph Bradley's rink in the final of the Minneapolis Curling club event. In the final of the Duluth Curling club event, McNabb of Grand Rapids came through in fine form and won from Reedal of Phillips.

John McLeod of Minneapolis tossed with McNabb for the first prize in the Western Curling club event, the Scot from Michigan calling the turn of the coin over the Minnesota Scot, thus winning the Western event.

While Reedal was the majority choice for a win over McNabb, the Phillips man was clearly off his game. This is not detracting in the least from the quality of play shown by the Grand Rapids men. Sandy was there—and Reedal was not.

Following is the score by heads of the two final games of the spiel and the list of prizes won:

DULUTH IS THE WINNER

Port Arthur Hockey Team Defeated By 10-to-2 Count.

Mohon Proves the Great Star of Game; Local Defense Fine.

The Duluth Curl'ng club hockey team Saturday evening reversed the result of the initial meeting with the Port Arthur hockey team, winning the second game by the score of 10 to 2 and completely smothering the Thunder Bays and outclassing the visitors in every department of play.

At the end of the first half the score stood 2 to 1 in favor of Linder & Co. In this period the play was even. In the second half the speed of the Duluth team increased and the steam of the visitors decreased greatly. Before the period was over the Thunder Bay players were slowing up and anxiously waiting for the welcome sound of the gong, while the Duluthians were going stronger than ever.

Mohon a Real Star.

Mohon, the lad from the Canadian Head of the Lakes territory, was played at rover in place of Russell Barkell, who was switched to center. The shift seemed to work wonders in the team. Seldom has a more remarkable exhibition of hockey been given by any player than that of the Canadian star.

Exhibiting dazzling speed and ability in puck rushing, that has seldom been equaled or surpassed here, the playing of Mohon played a large part in the one-sided victory scored by the Duluth team.

Port Arthur was the first to score, C. L'Hereaux caging the puck on a pretty pass from Chaise. This gave the followers of Duluth cold shivers. Just one minute later Arnie Olson tied up the score, raising a beauty in from nicely center ice. Barkell gave the home lads a one-point margin lead by netting a pretty pass from the ever-rushing Mohon in front of the net and caging a pretty goal.

Duluth was all over the ice in the second period. Combinations were formed speedily and effectively. Port Arthur's combinations were broken as a rule before the puck was carried to the first line of defense, Duluth forwards often intercepting the man with the puck and back-checking him.

Mohon rushed the puck into the opposing net after three minutes of hurricane play. Olson scored in two minutes later. W. L'Hereaux caged the final score for the visitors at the end of eight minutes of play, caging the shot on a pretty pass from his brother.

From this point on Duluth peppered the opposing goal and scored on an average of almost every two minutes. The visitors were utterly helpless before the whirlwind attack of the locals. By beautiful mass play the rubber was rushed almost continuously. While Port Arthur made a game effort at defense, and really executed some clever hooking and blocking, Duluth could not be stopped. The efforts of Barkell, Mahan, Mohon and Olson were like engulfing waves and simply swamped the defense of the Thunder Bays and rolled up a high score.

Condition Does Tell.

One of the factors in the turning of the tables was the excellent condition of the Duluth boys. From the first bell Duluth started to play the speed boys off their feet. In the second half the speed of the visitors was cut down and the back-checking of the locals resulted in keeping the puck in the curling club territory the greater part of the time.

The summary and lineup:

First Half.

2	Olson, Duluth	13 mins.
3	Barkell, Duluth	20 mins.

U. S. DEFENDS NEUTRALITY

State Department Issues Statement on Rights and Duties.

All Countries Treated Alike in the Matter of Supplies.

Washington, Jan. 25.—The United States government yesterday issued a lengthy defense of its interpretation of the rights and duties of a neutral in the European war.

A document, 5,000 words long, prepared by President Wilson, Secretary Bryan and Counsellor Robert Lansing, of the state department, after several days of consultation, was made public in the form of a letter from the secretary of state to Senator Stone of Missouri, chairman of the senate committee on foreign relations.

While the letter is a reply to an inquiry from Senator Stone for information as a result of complaints made in the press and in letters from various parts of the country charging the Washington government with unfairness to Germany and Austria, it also is intended as a pronouncement of policy of some questions of neutrality previously unexplained.

Answers Charges.

After answering nineteen separate and specific charges and calling attention to the fact that the United States has promptly taken to task Great Britain as well as Germany and every government which infringed on the rights of this country, the letter concludes with the following declaration on the much discussed question of exportation of war munitions:

"If any American citizens, partisans of Germany and Austro-Hungary, feel that this administration is acting in a way injurious to the cause of those countries, this feeling results from the fact that on the high seas the German and Austro-Hungarian naval power is thus far inferior to the British. It is the business of a belligerent operating on the high seas, not the duty of a neutral to prevent contraband from reaching an enemy. Those in this country who sympathize with Germany and Austro-Hungary appear to assume that some obligation rests on this government, in the performance of its neutral duty, to prevent all trade in contraband, and thus to equalize the difference due to the relative naval strength of the belligerents. No such obligation exists; it would be an unneutral act, an act of partiality on the part of this government, to adopt such a policy, if the executive had the power to do so.

Not Duty to Close Markets.

"If Germany and Austro-Hungary cannot import contraband from this country, it is not, because of this fact, the duty of the United States to close its markets to the allies. The markets of this country are open on equal terms to all the world, to every nation, belligerent or neutral."

During the course of the letter's discussion of the various charges made, the following facts hitherto undisclosed were revealed for the first time:

That the Canadian government recently asked the United States for permission to "ship war equipment" across Alaska to the sea and the request was refused.

Procedure Unwarranted.

That the United States has brought to the attention of an "offending government the searching of an American vessel, for German and Austrian subjects," with a declaration that such procedure, if true, is an unwarranted exercise of jurisdiction over American vessels in which the government will not acquiesce. The government to whom this declaration is made is not stated in the letter, but the incident is known to relate to the search by a boarding crew from a French cruiser of an American ship plying between two ports in Colombia, when it is alleged some German passengers were forced to sign a promise not to participate in the war. It was this occasion which led to a warning speech by Senator Stone to the belligerents against such searchers of American ships.

Sharp Representations Made.

That sharp representations were made to another allied government, because search was conducted on the high seas on an American ship for German and Austrian passengers. The name of the vessel or offending government was not revealed.

That on Dec. 15, last, the German ambassador by direction of his government delivered a memorandum to the United States government stating that "under the general principles of international law, no exception can be taken to neutral states letting war material go to Germany's enemies from or through neutral territory."

That representations were made to both Japan and Great Britain against the continued presence of their warships off American ports and that the protests were in each case heeded.

That since the announcement of the Washington government's disapproval of war loans, none has been made by foreign governments in this country.

In a general way the letter sets forth that rules of neutrality have been promulgated by the American government without discrimination and have been applied with equal fairness to all concerned. It cites instances of violations by Germany and Great Britain and asserts that protests have been unhesitatingly entered regardless of the country offending.

SALVATION ARMY BADGE SCARES OFF HIGHWAYMEN.

SHOOTS HIS WIFE AND CHILDREN; KILLS SELF

Butler, Pa., Jan. 25.—H. H. Woods, 38 years old, a telegraph operator of Harmony Junction, Butler county, yesterday shot and killed his wife and their three children and committed suicide.

All the victims were shot in the forehead, and death in each case is believed to have been instantaneous.

The bodies were found last evening by E. L. Hildebrand, who investigated when Woods and his wife failed to attend church in the afternoon.

Woods was employed by the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad company. His wife, Alice, was 32; his three daughters, Fay, 15; Rose Mary, 6, and Marjorie, 2.

HEALTH TALKS

By William Brady, M.D.

The Rescue of Faithful Hands

EVERY hope for "incurables," every hamlet has its helpless invalids, victims of old and long since arrested joint infections, but unable to use the distorted hands. You may find the terribly deformed fingers drawn out of shape by muscle contractures which produce gradual dislocation of the joints. The sufferer would gladly make himself or herself useful, but the hands refuse to work.

When a surgeon can take an absolutely stiff knee joint which has been useless for many years, and boldly open the joint, polish off the roughened, irregular, distorted bones, fit them together as nearly as possible like the original members of the joint, interpose between them a natural lubricator in the shape of a flap of fatty tissue from the patient's own limb, close the point, bandage and dress the limb, and, a few weeks later place the patient on his feet with a fairly limber knee joint, why, he can do as well or better for worn out hands.

It is popularly considered a great feat of surgery to remove an offending organ from the body. It is infinitely greater to restore a worthless or worn out organ to usefulness. Knees, hips, elbows, even maxillary joints which had been stiffened and locked for years from injury or infection may now be restored to function by the method referred to—plastic surgery.

Not all, nor even a majority of cases, but selected cases in individuals still young and comparatively sound in other respects.

Repairing Rusty Hands.

Knarled and twisted fingers, stiff and drawn out of place, can be put into fairly useful condition by simply reducing the dislocations, stretching the contracted muscles and tendons, if necessary whittling off cumbersome thickenings or prominences of bone deposit, all under an anesthetic of course. There is pain following such severe treatment, but the sufferer gladly endures pain for the sake of regaining the use of his hands. Once the normal contour and position of the fingers is restored, the problem is to retain the advantage gained, and this is met by wearing splints and by persistent passive movements of the fingers for many weeks.

The operation of lubricating and restoring a rigid joint by means of the flap of fatty tissue was devised by Dr. J. B. Murphy of Chicago, worked out experimentally on animals, and finally applied successfully in actual practice. The many beneficiaries of the operation throughout the country will probably never become very bitter antivivisectionists!

The method of rescuing worn out hands has been fathered by Dr. G. R. Elliott of New York and found to be both practicable and effective.

Neither plan is applicable in recent or active joint inflammation, but only in cases where deformity alone interferes with the use of members.

Questions and Answers.

Mrs. M. A. writes: Is there any probability of an operation on the gall-bladder relieving chronic rheumatism of the shoulder joint? Can an operation on the gall-bladder be done without ether or chloroform?

REPLY.

1. Sometimes old join infections (so-called "rheumatism") clear up in a marvelous manner after the removal of the depot of poison in the gall-bladder. 2. Certain operations on the gall-bladder may be done under local anesthesia, or under nitrous-oxide and oxygen.

C. W. writes: Would it be possible to resuscitate a person who had been submerged a minute and a half? What is the best way to get water out of the lungs of a drowning person?

REPLY.

1. Yes. Life has been saved after several minutes submersion. Never give up trying to resuscitate a drowned person within half an hour. 2. Place the person on his abdomen on the ground, with his face turned toward one side. Then kneel beside him and make regular, interrupted pressure on the small of the back over the lower ribs, to produce artificial respiration. Sometimes inversion, by holding the subject up by the feet, permits water to run out of the lungs.

Dr. Brady will answer questions pertaining to Health. If your question is of general interest it will be answered through these columns; if not it will be answered personally if stamped, addressed envelope is enclosed. Dr. Brady will not prescribe for individual cases or make diagnoses. Address all letters to Dr. William Brady, care of The Herald.

MODIFIED ORDER MADE

Mountain Iron Permitted to Spend Part of Desired Sum.

Asked Much More for Building of New Village Hall—Compromise.

Injunctional orders against Mountain Iron village will be so modified as to permit the expenditure of not more than $20,000 for the construction of a new village hall at Mountain Iron. In district court Saturday afternoon, attorneys representing the village and counsel for the Pitt Iron Mining company, which brought an injunction proceeding against the village to prevent lavish expenditures of public funds, stipulated that the restraining order against the village might be modified so as to include the cost of a new village hall to replace the one which was destroyed by fire a few weeks ago.

Village officials petitioned the court for permission to spend $30,000 for the proposed village hall, but counsel for the mining company strenuously objected and at first refused to agree to the expenditure of more than $14,000 for this purpose. Late Saturday afternoon it was agreed that the sum of $20,000 might be spent and a stipulation entered into whereby the money may be expended without waiting for the expiration of the court's order. Judge Dancer, before whom the application was made, will make an order modifying the terms of the original injunction in accordance with the provisions of the stipulation entered into Saturday.

Washburn, Bailey & Mitchell and Baldwin, Baldwin & Holmes appeared in the case as attorneys for the Pitt Iron Mining company and other mining interests. Victor L. Power of Hibbing, James P. Boyle of Eveleth and R. C. Pickering of Virginia were in court as attorneys for the village of Mountain Iron.

FALLS ON NIAGARA STREET; SUES CITY.

For injuries received in a fall on a defective sidewalk, Minnie Montgomery on Saturday afternoon started suit in district court against the city of Duluth for $1,078.65. The accident occurred on Niagara street between Lemon and Quince streets, Sept. 16, 1914.

According to her complaint, her back was wrenched and she was otherwise injured. She claims that the sidewalk was in need of repair and that failure to keep it in good condition constituted negligence for which the city is liable in damages.

Frozen to Death.

Bloomington, Ill., Jan. 25.—William Brinkman, a farmer, was found frozen to death early yesterday in the highway, twenty-five miles northeast of here. He had been attending a public sale Saturday and started home on horseback. About 1 o'clock yesterday the horse arrived at home. Search was immediately instituted and the frozen body was found in a few hours.

CHIEF WARNS YOUNG MEN

Troyer Lays Most Criminality to the Liquor Habit.

Criminals Don't Beat Game and Crime Does Not Pay.

"Professional crime does not pay and the professional criminal cannot and does not, beat the law," declared Chief of Police C. H. Troyer, talking to an audience of men at the Y. M. C. A. yesterday afternoon.

"The professional crimnals—yeggs, thieves, forgers and burglars—are scarcely ever out of the toils of the law," he continued, "and many of them enjoy breathing spells of but one to six months between prison sentences which grow stiffer each time. Records of police departments all over the country will prove this fact."

Repeating the "wine, women and song" warning, after adapting it to include cigarettes and drugs of all kinds, the head of Duluth's law-enforcing corps related the histories of a few well known criminals who had come within his notice during his twenty-three years as a police officer. He traced several records from the start until they ended in the penitentiary, showing the man's first misstep and the developments as a result of it.

"During the year just past more than 11,000 men sought lodging and protection from the elements on the cold stone floor of the basement at police headquarters and more than 90 per cent of them were there because they lacked stamina. Most of these men are wrecks, who have been too weak to resist and have drifted into the dissipation which soon resulted in their downfall."

Even policemen are susceptible to these influences, according to Mr. Troyer, who asserted that the majority of patrolmen discharged from the force since he had been chief, were ousted because they had not been able to refuse offers of many people to "treat the cop on the beat."

"New policemen, walking beats in the small hours of the morning, when it is cold and dark, require plenty of moral courage to 'keep straight.' It is hard to decline the friendly overtures of not only saloon keepers, but of others, to 'take something.' When they accept and get in the habit of this sort of thing, it is only a short step to drunkenness and dismissal."

Commissioner W. A. Hicken of the department of public safety will give the next address in this series of talks to men at the "Y" next Sunday afternoon.

ATTEMPT ON LIFE OF MARSHAL VON DER GOLTZ.

FIELD MARSHAL VON DER GOLTZ.

London, Jan. 25.—A dispatch to the Daily News from Cairo says that an attempt has been made upon the life of Field Marshal Baron Kolmar Von Der Goltz of the German army, who it was said recently had left Constantinople to take command of the Turks in the Caucasion frontier. The report emanated from the German consulate at Jaffa, Syria. It was to the effect that the field marshal had been fired at and that it was believed he had been hit. Other officers were attacked at the same time.

In a disturbance in a cafe in Damascus recently, according to the correspondent, a Turkish captain was killed and a German colonel wounded.

LAYBOURN HEADS GOPHER EXPATRIATES

Former Duluthian President of Minnesota Society in California.

George R. Laybourn, former resident of Duluth and former senator from the old Fifty-second district, who is now making his home in San Diego, Cal., is at the head of the Minnesota State society, which will have charge of the plans for Minnesota day at the Panama-Pacific exposition some time next March.

Former Minnesotans now residing in California are members of the society and it is their plan to prepare an extensive program for Minnesota day at the fair. Governor Hammond and many other state officials are to be invited.

Mr. Laybourn was chosen president of the Minnesota State society at a picnic last week. Following is an account of the affair in the San Diego Union:

"Plans for a big celebration at the Panama-California exposition on Minnesota day, which will be held some time in March, were formulated yesterday at the annual midwinter picnic of the Minnesota State society, held at Mission Cliff gardens.

"Former Minnesotans are anticipating a lively year in state society circles, Governor Hammond of Minnesota and other prominent citizens of that state are expected to visit San Diego during exposition year and will be entertained by the state society.

"Resolutions of condolence at the death of William C. Whiteman, late secretary of the society, were adopted by the 250 members present at the picnic yesterday. The annual election was held, the following officers being chosen:

"President, George R. Laybourn, Duluth; vice president, T. B. Andrews, Waseca; secretary, R. R. Blackwell, St. Paul; treasurer, Basil Smoot, Wells."

SEWERS FOR SANDSTONE.

Charles Ecklund & Co. of Duluth Secure Contract for Job.

Sandstone, Minn., Jan. 25.—(Special to The Herald.)—A sewer system is now practically assured Sandstone, and it is expected work will soon be started by the successful contractors, Charles Eklund & Co. of Duluth. The council found that twenty-one bids had to be considered. All of the bidders were present and their estimates ranged from $7,000 to $13,000, and the four lowest were selected for consideration at a special meeting, when the Duluth contractors were chosen. The sewer is to be laid through the main business portion of the city, and property owners on abutting streets have the option of connecting with the main line. It is a much-needed improvement, and the signers for the sewer will gladly bear the expense, and the cost will not fall upon the city itself.

MARKET HAS FAIR BULGE

Wheat Sells Higher, With Steady Exporters' and Milling Inquiry.

Flaxseed Advances Again, With Active Bidding By Crushers' Interests.

Duluth Board of Trade, Jan. 25.—The market was steady up to the close. May wheat closed 1⅝@1½c up and July ⅞@1c up. May durum closed 2½c up and July 1½c up.

Oats closed ⅝c up at 54¼c for on the track; rye unchanged at $1.19; barley 1c up at from 67c to 78c, and corn ⅝c up at 72⅝@72⅞c.

At Winnipeg, May oats closed ¾c up at 63⅝c and July ⅞c up at 64½c bid. Puts on Minneapolis May wheat closed at $1.37⅞ bid, and calls, $1.41⅞.

Wheat market was strong again today on the resumption of export buying and some inquiry from millers at Southwestern points and in the East. Spot wheat at Liverpool sold 1½d up, following reports of excessive rains in Argentina and fears that shipments from there may be longer deferred than had been thought. The American visible wheat supply, showing a decrease of 2,887,000 bu in the week, also tended to promote bullish sentiment among operators. World's shipments for last week were 10,030,000 bu, or about the same as during the preceding week.

Marketings both here and at Minneapolis showed decided improvement, inspections here for the day were 68 cars against 26 a year ago, while at Minneapolis they were 556 cars, compared with 493 last year. The large receipts were, however, said to be at the expense of inferior elevator stocks. Country receipts are light, farmers in every section of the country showing increasing inclination hold off for higher prices.

Export trade was reported at Winnipeg, exporters there paying good premiums for some grain picked up for immediate shipment. Supplies in the Canadian West are now said to be extremely light and elevator supplies at the terminals are at a low level. Supplies at Port Arthur and Fort William as on last Saturday were reported at 5,132,000 bu, compared with 10,532,000 bu a year ago.

Demand for oats was a feature in today's markets, leading to a firming up of their quotations. Fair export trade is said to have been put through. May wheat opened ⅝@½c up at $1.40½ and gained 1¼c more up to the noon hour. July opened 1c up at $1.38½ and advanced ½c more.

There was again strong inquiry for durum and it moved up substantially. May durum opened unchanged at $1.41½ and advanced 2½c.

Advance in Flaxseed.

Flaxseed moved up under the impetus of good inquiry from crushers, while offerings were comparatively limited. The market turned easy near the close on a falling away in bidding.

May flax opened unchanged at $1.91¼ and closed 1c up at $1.92¼ bid.

At Winnipeg, May flax closed ¾c up at $1.71¾ and July closed $1.73¾ asked.

The American visible supply of wheat decreased, 2,887,000 bu, in the week. Corn increase, 4,301,000 bu, and oats increased 36,000 bu.

* * *

Minneapolis cash wheat was strong, with a general hardening of the market. One northern sold at 3c over May, and velvet chaff demand was much better at 1½@1c under May. Flour reports showed that buyers are stubbornly waiting for low prices and are taking their barest needs. Supplies are low and some bookings for immediate delivery was made. Shipping directions were good and inquiries numerous, but bids were under the market. Cash one northern wheat sold there at from $1.38@1.43½ and No. 2 northern at from $1.35@1.41½.

C. E. Lewis wired from Minneapolis: "Two millers reported many inquiries this morning, both domestic and foreign, but bids were under the market. Buyers dislike following the advance. That has been their attitude ever since wheat was $1 a bu, and many of them have reached the point where they have to buy. Market looks like working higher. Undertone is very firm, with cash wheat premiums gaining on the option in every market."

Broomhall cabled from Liverpool: "Wheat was quiet, with winters and Manitoba 6d higher. Arrivals were lighter and spot market inactive. There were light American shipments to the United Kingdom. Argentine weather will undoubtedly have an effect on buying here, sooner or later.

"Corn was quiet, steady with fewer Plate offers at 3d advance. Spot market was quiet and cargoes steady, but dull."

* * *

Estimated exportable surplus of Argentine wheat is reduced and its quality is being greatly lowered. Broomhall's agent now estimates the oats surplus at 36,000,000 bu, against a recent estimate of 43,505,000 bu. On Jan. 2 the official report indicated a surplus of oats at 73,000,000 bu.

Acreage under cultivation, yields and range of prices during 1914 are all concisely covered in tables. Detailed figures of exports of grain to the various countries are also given.

CHICAGO MARKET.

Scarcity of Offerings of Wheat and Advance in Liverpool Boost Prices.

Chicago, Jan. 25.—Scarcity of offerings here and a continuing advance at Liverpool lifted the wheat market today to new high war levels. Rural domestic holders were said to be letting go of hardly anything and there were reports of further storm in Argentina, indicating additional delays in the crop movement from that country. After opening ¼c to 1⅛c higher the market here continued to climb, May touching $1.46 as against $1.45⅝, the previous top record since the beginning of the war.

A big decrease in the visible supply led afterward to greater gains. The close was unsettled at ⅜@1¼c net advance.

Corn developed strength with wheat. The majority of commission houses were on the buying side, and some of the leading professional speculators were also buyers. The opening, which ranged from ¼c off to ⅛c up, was followed by a gradual upturn all around.

Cold weather and heavy feeding kept the market tending upward. The close was steady, ¼@⅜c to ⅝@½c above Saturday night.

Firmness characterized the oats market from the outset. There were advices of a fresh reduction in the estimated surplus of Argentina.

Provisions showed but little response to the grain bulge. The reason appeared to be the weakness of the hog market.

Corn—No. 4 yellow, 71@72¼c; No. 4 white, 71@72¼c.

PARTIALLY RECOVERS

Stock Market Drifts Aimlessly Greater Part of the Session.

Uneven Tone to Late Dealings and the Closing Irregular.

New York, Jan. 25.—Stocks showed general gains at the outset of today's session and the undertone was distinctly firm. Changes were nominal, however, and trading was moderate, there being an absence of last week's heavy overturn. Mexican Petroleum was the feature of the special group with an advance of over 2 points. Coppers advanced in response to the higher price for the metal. Smelting and American Car also rose fractionally. St. Paul, Atchison preferred and Louisville & Nashville were lower, with some easing of the prominent shares by the end of the first half hour.

Reading and United States Steel were almost the only notable features of the stock market of the dull morning, but declining practically point, under steady pressure. Lehigh Valley and Canadian Pacific, though relatively inactive, were affected to a similar extent, and metal stocks promptly lost initial gains. Weakness of Steel was attended by rumors of a possible dividend suspension at tomorrow's quarterly meeting, together with expectations of an unfavorable statement of earnings for the last quarter of 1914. The professional character of the market was evident from the fact that some of the manipulative issues were among the most active.

Bonds were irregular.

Gradual recovery was made in the early afternoon, Union Pacific and Reading rising well above the low quotations of the morning. Specialties, such as American Sugar, California Petroleum and General Motors, also advanced substantially.

With a declined increase in business today's stock market drifted aimlessly for the greater part of the session, making partial recoveries at the close.

Renewed pressure upon Steel and an abrupt advance in Union Pacific indicated the uneven tone of the late dealings. The closing was irregular.

WET OR DRY FOR PROCTOR?

Railroad Village May Vote on Issue in March.

The question of whether Proctor will or will not go dry will be one of the chief issues in the spring campaign which will be in full swing next month in the village. A petition to make local option a campaign issue is now being prepared by temperance people of the community.

The village of Proctor has now only two saloons. Until two years ago there flourished five saloons in the village. Business of the liquor dispensaries is said to have been falling off rapidly owing to the displeasure with which railroad officials looked upon men who visited these places.

It is not expected that any of the candidates who will run for office will be pledged to one side or the other and the issue is to be fought, say residents of the village, on its merits only.

The village will hold its election on March 9. At the election the voters will also select a village president, three village trustees, a village recorder treasurer and justice of the peace.

FIRST GAME IN INTER-CLUB EVENT

Curlers of Duluth and Superior Will Begin Series.

The first inter-club game in the Manley-McLennan event will be played tomorrow night at the Western Curling club between the locals and four rinks from Superior. A great deal of interest is being centered in the game, and it is expected that a record crowd will turn out to witness the contest.

The second game will be played at Superior. If both clubs get a game, the third will be played following a drawing as to the place. The winner of two out of three games will play the Duluth club for the possession of the trophy.

This evening three games have been scheduled in the Esterly event. The games will be played between Donald and Mallory, L. F. Wade and Kriedler, and Judson and McDonald.

WILL ASK CITY TO HURRY WORK

Club Will Urge Council to Begin Highland Subway Construction.

A committee consisting of the West Duluth Commercial club, David Sang, W. H. Kilton and John J. Frey, will meet this afternoon with the city commissioners for the purpose of asking the city to take some action regarding the delay in construction of the Highland subway. The committee will also request some action regarding the ordering of a pavement on Oneota and Superior streets between Thirtieth and Forty-sixth avenues west.

Members of the club are of the opinion that if the Highland subway is delayed much longer another year will pass before this improvement is begun. The members say that the Duluth, Missabe & Northern railroad refuses to build the subway after the opening of the spring traffic, and that if the work is to be done it will have to be done during the time when traffic is slack. The subway as well as the grading of a short stretch of Highland street is the only remaining work to be completed in order to complete the Getchell road between the city streets and the farming community.

The committee will urge the improvement of the Superior-Oneota streets paving, setting forth that this improvement was ordered nearly two years ago and later abandoned. This improvement will be asked for in order to give the city one well paved street between the center of the city and the western districts.

ENTERTAIN AT CARDS.

Morgan Park Club Will Curl and Outline Program.

The Morgan Park club entertained Saturday evening for seventy-five guests at five hundred and pedro at the Morgan Park school house. Honors were by A. Breich, Miss Marian McLimans, Mrs. Davy and C. Breich. The committee in charge of the affair consisted of William A. Mahan, James Aird, Charles Leonard, John McDonnell and S. Raymond.

This evening members of the club will curl at the New Duluth Curling club. Two strong rinks have been formed and expect to give members of the New Duluth club a hard battle. A meeting of the club will be held tomorrow evening at Dr. O. S. Olson's office at which plans for further activities of the club will be taken up.

BETHEL CROWDED BY FREE LODGERS

More Than 180 Pass Sunday Night There; Record Broken.

The Bethel broke all records of that institution last night in the number of free lodgers cared for. More than 180 slept on the floor and were given a free breakfast this morning. The sleeping room was so badly crowded that the men were wedged in like sardines in a box, and at an early hour they were all routed from their slumbers while the room was aired and cleaned.

Sunday night is usually the "big night" at the Bethel for free lodgers as the saloons are closed and the men have no place to stay during the early part of the evening. On week days many of the men stay down town until a late hour and then go to the police station. Many of the police headquarters' lodgers were at the Bethel last night.

During the last week or more there have been about 150 "floor" lodgers nightly at the Bethel. The cold weather and free meals there seem to be attractive to those out of work. The religious services also, it is said, have been largely attended.

GOOD OPENING FOR UNEMPLOYED

U. S. Navy Is Offering Unusual Attractions to Young Men.

With times slack and business being somewhat quiet during the winter months, Peter Coyle, United States naval recruiting officer in Duluth, says that Uncle Sam's navy is offering good wages and expenses to recruits.

"All applicants between 17 and 30 years of age," said Mr. Coyle today, "can secure good employment if they can fulfill the requirements of the navy. The navy offers a man $60 worth of clothes at the start. After four months of training each recruit is given ten days' furlough, if his conduct merits it, to visit his family before being sent to sea. His railroad fare is paid and he is put to no expense. Medical examination for applicants is free."

The navy is offering much greater inducements now than ever before and the merit system is putting every man in the navy in a position to rise and become an officer.

LANDS FOR SETTLERS AND NOT SPECULATORS IS POLICY OF PREUS

New Legislation Will Be Asked By the State Auditor.

Would Prohibit Purchase of Land By Proxy for Others.

Efficiency Commission to Confer With Special Committee of House.

By a Staff Correspondent.

St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 26.—(Special to The Herald.)—That state lands hereafter sold shall go exclusively into the hands of actual settlers so far as possible, and that buying of state lands by speculators shall be discouraged, is the first important policy adopted by the new state auditor, J. A. O. Preus.

To that end he is taking two important steps:

First, he is endeavoring to find out, by inquiry of the attorney general, whether or not the homestead requirements of the Cole law of 1905 actually were repealed, as has been assumed.

Second, he will propose legislation providing that the limitation of 320 acres to each purchaser, which is apparently all that is left of the Cole law, shall have a real meaning and real effect.

The Cole law was chapter 299 of the laws of 1905. It provided that no buyer could get more than 320 acres of state land, and that buyers must make certain improvements, to show good faith, within five years.

The legislature of 1911, by chapter 90 of the laws of that year, slightly amended the Cole law, and in doing so re-enacted its provisions.

Later, by chapter 135 of the laws of 1911, the legislature repealed all of the

PROBE INTO COMMISSION

Senate Calls Upon State Highway Board for Detailed Report.

Reclamation Constitutional Amendment Introduced in Both Houses.

By a Staff Correspondent.

St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 26.—(Special to The Herald.)—In a resolution offered in the senate today Senator John H. Baldwin of Frazee calls upon the state highway commission for a detailed report of its officers and employes, the salaries paid them and the services rendered.

The inquiry is so searching that it is taken as indicating a possible attack on the commission, or at least an inquiry into its value to the state, and into the services the state receives from the money spent in overhead charges through the commission.

Senator Baldwin, who is the author of the bill providing for the use of prison labor on state highways, is a student of road problems from a practical viewpoint.

The resolution follows:

"Resolved, That the state highway commission be, and the same hereby is, requested to furnish the senate, on or before the first day of February, 1915, a complete and itemized statement showing the names of each and every officer and employe employed by the state highway commission under and by virtue of Section 10, Chapter 235, General Laws of 1913, said statement to show the compensation or wages paid to each officer and employe, be it either yearly, monthly, or by the day, for the calendar years of 1913 and 1914; said statement to be, when furnished, of such character as to enable the senate to determine accurately the compensation paid to each officer and employe for salary, mileage or other expense chargeable; also the character of the services rendered by each and all of said officers and employes; said list of officers and em-

INSIST BRITISH LOST CRUISER

Germans Say Two English Torpedo Boats Were Also Sunk.

Berlin, Jan. 26, by wireless to London.—Additional details of the sinking of a British battle cruiser in the naval fight in the North sea, west of Helgoland, which is claimed by the Germans, are given in a statement issued here today. The statement follows:

"According to well informed German sources this cruiser suffered heavily from the fire of our cannon and was then sunk by a German torpedo boat by two well directed shots. The sinking was observed by a German airship which followed the battle closely.

"Two English torpedo boats were also sunk. The airship also observed the serious damaging of other English ships."

DEMANDS OF JAPS IRRITATE CHINESE

Ask Many Concessions Following Occupation of Kiao Chow.

Pekin, China, Jan. 26.—Demands which Japan has made upon China following the Japanese occupation of Kiao Chow have become disquieting to Chinese officials.

These demands include first, that China turn over to Japan all existing German and Austrian concessions; second, that China pledge herself not to give concessions in the future to any country except Japan; that, permission to build a special territorial railroad and fourth, mining privileges in Shantung and Fukien provinces; in Manchuria, in eastern Mongolia, and in the Yang-Tse valley.

Frye of Willmar Offers Bill to Prohibit Killing of Frogs.

By a Staff Correspondent.

St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 26.—(Special to The Herald.)—County officers will have but one chance to enjoy the four-year term plan if a bill presented in the house this morning by Representative Sliter of Houston goes through. It provides that after 1918, at the end of the terms for which county officers were elected last fall, the old two-year term plan shall be restored.

J. D. ROCKEFELLER, JR., ASKS "MOTHER" JONES TO PAY HIM A VISIT

Would Secure Information as to Strike Conditions in Colorado.

Aged Labor Leader Accepts Invitation of Magnate.

Rockefeller Again Takes the Stand at Industrial Inquiry.

New York, Jan. 26.—John D. Rockefeller, Jr., today invited "Mother" Jones, the aged strike leader in the Colorado coal fields, to visit him and place before him all information as to the strike situation there. The invitation was accepted.

The invitation was extended by Mr. Rockefeller as he entered the room in the city hall where the Federal commission on industrial relations is conducting its inquiry into the philanthropic foundations and the causes of industrial unrest. Mr. Rockefeller testified yesterday before the commission and was the first witness called today.

As he walked from the door to the witness chair he saw "Mother" Jones sitting among the spectators. He stepped to her side and shook hands.

"I wish you would come to see me and give me any information you have on the Colorado situation," he said.

"Mother" Jones was visibly surprised.

Nice of Rockefeller.

"That's very nice of you," she said. "I have always said that you could know but little of the condition of the workers in Colorado and that you should hear something else besides what these hirelings tell you."

After Mr. Rockefeller took the stand, Chairman Walsh read a letter written by Mr. Welborn (president of the company) to Starr J. Murphy of the personal staff of John D. Rockefeller, Sr.

In the letter, Mr. Welborn said that a clergyman at Sunset had made some remarks detrimental to the company and that it had been suggested that the clergyman be removed. Although the clergyman had "made indiscreet remarks and had socialistic tendencies," Mr. Welborn wrote that he hesitated to remove him.

Clergymen Should Be Free.

As a citizen, Mr. Rockefeller said he believed all clergymen should be free to say what they please. It was brought out that the clergyman in question had been severe in his criticism of the Colorado Fuel & Iron company in connection with the conflicts at Ludlow.

"Did you know that Jefferson Farr is a sheriff and that for fifteen years your company has used its influence to elect him?" asked Mr. Walsh. "Did you know that just before the strike

EXTEND CENSUS OF UNEMPLOYED

Detail of Work Will Have to Be Carried on By Municipalities.

Washington, Jan. 26.—The census of unemployed begun in New York under the direction of the department of labor will be extended to all cities if arrangements can be made, President Wilson told callers today.

As far as possible the detail work of the census will have to be carried on by local municipal authorities because the government has no special appropriation for the work and he does not expect to ask congress for one, the president said.

The president expressed the opinion that the number of unemployed was decreasing because new avenues of employment were being opened. Estimates of the numbers of unemployed in the country were largely guess work, he thought, and in many instances very extravagant.

Municipal lodging houses in New York are not full, the president said he had been informed, and the immigration station at Ellis Island, which has been opened to unemployed, is not being used for that purpose extensively. The president said today those facts convinced him that there was not as much distress from unemployment as had been pictured.

The president believes there is general betterment in business conditions. He said there was no depression in the West and that the situation in the South and East was improving.

STRIKER WINS IN THE FIRST EVICTION CASE

Adena, Ohio, Jan. 26.—The first of the eviction cases against striking miners occupying houses owned by the Roby-Somers Coal company, was tried before Justice of the Peace Allen Stringer here yesterday and resulted in a verdict for the defendant, Henry Duglo. The hearings on account of the large number of cases and the time each is expected to occupy, probably will continue indefinitely. Other eviction trials will come up at Mount Pleasant today.

BIG STEAMER SUNK AT SEA

New Hawaiian Freighter Rammed By Big Four-Masted Schooner.

Crew With Exception of One Saved By Passing Ship.

New York, Jan. 26.—One life was lost when the steamship Washingtonian, a freighter carrying no passengers, and the big schooner Elizabeth Palmer, collided today off the coast of Delaware, near Cape Henlopen.

Wireless messages said that the Washingtonian was sunk and the schooner sinking but that the crews of both vessels, with the exception of the Washingtonian's water tender, were saved.

The Washingtonian was bound for New York and Philadelphia from Honolulu by way of the Panama canal. She had a crew of 39. The Elizabeth Palmer sailed from Portland, Maine, Jan. 10 for Norfolk. She carried a crew of seven.

Capt. Nelson of the Old Dominion liner Hamilton stopped his ship off Fenwick Island Lightship to rescue the crews of the two vessels. Officials of the American-Hawaiian line, owners of the Washingtonian, were advised by him that the Hamilton was bringing all the rescued men to this city.

Crew of Forty-five.

The Washingtonian is a freighter and carried no passengers, according to officers of the line. Her crew usually consists of forty-five men. She plies

FOUR-BATTLESHIP PROGRAM OFFERED

Chairman Tillman Proposes Amendment to Current Naval Bill.

Washington, Jan. 26.—A four-battleship program for the next congress was proposed today by Chairman Tillman of the senate naval committee, as an amendment to the current naval bill now pending.

The amendment would direct the secretary of the navy to submit plans and specifications for four warships "of the type, power and speed which, in his judgment, based on the knowledge gained from the prevailing war in Europe, are best suited for war on the sea and, to report, in the light of that war, the value and uses in naval warfare of aeroplanes, Zeppelins and submarines."

A government distributing office for the regulation of consumption will be established, distribution being made according to the number of inhabitants.

News Is Significant.

London, Jan. 26.—The sweeping regulations for the conservation of the food supply of Germany, including the confiscation of the entire grain crop, is regarded in London as the most significant item of news received today from the countries at war.

Berlin announces officially that this step cuts deeper into the economic life of the German people than any other measure adopted since the outbreak of hostilities and the government defends the regulation on the ground that in order to upset the plans of Germany's enemies to starve the empire, it is necessary to make certain of a regular supply of foodstuffs until the next harvest.

Russian Invasion.

In the war area, the reported Russian invasion of Hungary by way of Bukowina is attracting interested attention in London. A special news dispatch from Budapest sets forth that after a temporary check the Muscovites actually had penetrated Hungary, where they hold the key to Josefalva, an important strategic position. Russian reinforcements are reported as constantly arriving in Bukowina, a fact which clearly indicates, in the opinion of British observers, the intention of Russia to invade Transylvania in force.

Petrograd asserts that as a counter to this Russian move against Transylvania, the German army which was sent ostensibly to operate against Serbia, is now being directed to the defense of the Carpathian passes in conjunction with the forces of Hungary.

Closing in on Turks.

Petrograd reports also that the Rus-

RELIEF SHIP SAVED BY CHANGE OF WIND

Steamer Camino in Imminent Danger of Going on the Rocks.

Halifax, N. S., Jan. 26.—A favorable shift of wind last night was all that saved the California Belgian relief steamer Camino from being dashed to pieces on the dangerous rocks off Chebucto head. The convoying fleet, consisting of the steamer Kanawha, the Canadian government steamer Lady Laurier, and the United States revenue cutter Androscoggin, were powerless to help the Camino, which was picked up disabled by the Kanawha Jan. 5.

The terrific seas snapped her big towing hawser and made it impossible to get another line aboard her. Her engines were helpless and she drifted towards the surf-covered rocks.

So serious did the Camino's plight become that a powerful tug, a steamer with a Lyle gun operated by a detachment of bluejackets from a warship, and the lifeboat crew at Chebucto head were ordered to the rescue.

After being driven steadily toward the rocks for more than seven hours, the Camino's course to destruction was halted by the wind veering into the southwest. She was driven offshore and finally anchored safely.

REFUSES WOOL TO A GERMAN BUYER.

Sydney, Australia, via London, Jan. 26.—At the wool sales today the auctioneer refused a German buyer's bid for a certain lot of the material. A dispute followed and when the lot was resubmitted for sale it was knocked down to a French firm at the price the German had offered. Other supposed German bids made later were also refused and the German representatives finally left the salesroom, having been unable to buy a single bale.

GEN. WILD VON HOHENBORN.

RUSSIA WILL STAND FIRM

No Peace While Single Soldier of Enemy Is on Russian Soil.

Foreign Minister Makes Statement to Committee of the Duma.

Petrograd, via London, Jan. 26.—"The government stands for the scrupulous fulfillment of the emperor's manifesto, issued the day war was declared, that so long as a single soldier of the enemy remains on Russian soil no peace will be concluded."

In these words Serglus Sazanoff, at a meeting of the ways and means committee of the duma today, answered inquiries propounded by leading members of the duma. These inquiries were suggested by the determination said to have been reached by the German reichstag that all territory "reddened by German blood" and now occupied by Germany, should be retained.

The committee meeting was preparatory to the opening sessions of the council of state on Jan. 30, and of the duma on Feb. 9.

Bound By Agreement.

"As to the evacuation of the enemy's territory, we are bound by agreement with our allies," M. Sazanoff continued. "The words of the manifesto must not be limited to Russian territory."

No explanation was made of the foreign minister's reference to "the enemy's territory," but it is regarded as a reference to Galicia, which although not Russian territory, is characterized here as being inhabited by "little Russians."

M. Sazanoff said that Great Britain was bearing conscientiously the tremendous burden of her share of the war.

The assistant minister of war said that Russian manufacturers were meeting satisfactorily all the demands made upon them by the government and that the army commissariat was being maintained efficiently.

Pierre Kharitonov, secretary of state and at present acting premier, said that the financial condition of the country was good. It was intimated that an agreement with Sweden soon would be reached, providing for completion of railway connections between the two countries.

SUBMARINES PUT STOP TO TRAFFIC.

Copenhagen, Jan. 26, via London.—Steamship traffic between Trelleborg, Sweden, and Sassnitz, Germany, has come to an end. A German passenger steamer recently put out from Trelleborg, but on sighting several submarines off Cape Arcona she hastily returned to port. The sailing of the Swedish steamer was thereupon canceled. The passage between Trelleborg and Sassnitz is the principal route between Sweden and Germany.

VICTORY IS CLAIMED AT LA BASSEE

Positions Held By British Said to Have Been Taken By Storm.

French Statement Says the Germans Were Subsequently Repulsed.

Progress for the Teutons at Trenches Near Craonne Admitted.

The German armies of the west have suddenly taken the offensive, delivering violent attacks simultaneously at several points. The German war office report today claims an important victory over British troops along the La Bassee canal in France, just south of the Belgian border. Positions of the British extending over about two-thirds of a mile, including two strong points of support, are said to have been taken by storm and held in the face of counter-attacks. The French official statement, however, does not concede this victory to the Germans. It admits that they made progress temporarily, but asserts that subsequently they were repulsed.

PROGRESS BY GERMANS.

Both communications report progress for the Germans near Craonne, where trenches of the allies were taken and retained in part. Elsewhere, according to the French version of the fighting, the Germans were repulsed, with the possible exception of Alsace. It is said the Germans bombarded Sennheim, This town lies six miles southwest of Thann, which may indicate that the Germans have advanced in this region.

It is said in Berlin that Russian attacks in East Prussia were repulsed and that no important fighting occurred in Central Poland. The latter statement is in contrast with Petrograd reports of severe battles west of Warsaw.

The Russian foreign minister, Serglus Sazanoff, announced that Russia would continue the war so long as a single soldier of her enemies remained on Russian soil.

CLAIM THREE SHIPS SUNK.

Three British warships were sunk in the naval engagement in the North Sea Sunday, Berlin now asserts. A statement issued there today says that "according to well-informed German sources," a British battle cruiser was sent to the bottom by a German torpedo boat and that a German aviator witnessed the destruction of the vessel.

In addition to the loss of the cruiser, as previously reported in Berlin, it is stated that two British torpedo boats were sunk and that other warships

AMENDMENTS ARE REJECTED

Efforts of Republicans to Change Shipping Bill Futile.

Measure as Revised By Caucus Again Reported to Senate.

Washington, Jan. 26.—Republican amendments to the administration shipping bill to prohibit purchase of ships now belonging to the European belligerents, were rejected today by the senate commerce committee by a strict party vote, and the bill, as revised by the Democratic caucus, was reported again to the senate.

One important amendment would permit such government ships as are American-built to engage in the coastwise trade. The bill originally proposed to restrict the government line to foreign trade.

Other amendments provide that the shipping corporation shall be organized under the laws of the District of Columbia; that the shipping board to control the enterprise shall consist of the secretaries of the treasury and commerce and three additional members, "two of whom shall be of practical experience in the management and operation of steamships in foreign trade," and that the capital stock of the proposed shipping corporation cannot be increased to more than $20,000,000.

President Does Not Approve.

President Wilson does not approve a provision that no vessels of belligerent nations can be bought. He told callers today, however, he supposed Senator Simmons had conferred with the state department before stating in the senate yesterday that no ships of belligerents would be bought unless it had been determined by diplomacy that there would be no trouble.

He intimated a view that the fear of international complications given by the Republicans as the chief basis for their opposition was not well founded.

ESCAPE IN NIGHT CLOTHES

Parents and Seven Children Run Gantlet of Fire.

Scorched By Flames and Then Exposed to Zero Weather.

Clad only in their night clothes, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Finn, 5222 Glendale avenue, with their seven children, ran a gantlet of fire shortly after 4 o'clock this morning, to escape being burned to death in their home. The house was badly damaged, the loss being estimated at $500.

All that saved the family, say firemen, was the fact that Mrs. Finn had been awake shortly before the fire started and was aroused by the crackling and roar of the flames, as they swept up the stairs, by her door. As it was, every member of the family, including a baby, was slightly burned, losing part of their hair, and afterwards suffered from the effects of exposure in the sub-zero weather.

"I had been down stairs just a few minutes before," said Mrs. Finn, describing the narrow escape, "to fix the fire in the stove which stood almost at the foot of the stairs.

"I was awakened by a crackling noise and ran to the door of my room, to find the staircase a mass of flames. I called to Mr. Finn and the children, and after getting them awake, picked up baby and managed to feel my way down to the door.

"Assisted by our oldest son, aged 15, we finally got the children out on the porch and carried them next door to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Matt Snyder. I don't know how we would have escaped, if we had all slept much longer. As it was we didn't have time to save hardly a thing, or even to dress partially."

The house was gutted by the flames, most of the damage being to the furniture, which was a total loss. Engine Company No. 6, with Assistant Chief Wilson, responded to the alarm.

WEATHER—Partly cloudy and slightly colder tonight.

GOOD MORALS CUT REVENUES

City's Income From the Municipal Court Less During 1914.

Revenues for the city from municipal court were cut down during the last year, because of the city's improved morals, according to the annual report of J. G. Ross, clerk of the municipal court, which was submitted to Mayor W. I. Prince yesterday afternoon.

Municipal court fines and fees in criminal cases continued to $13,459.06 according to the report. Of this total $8,425.97 was derived from criminal cases and $5,033.09 from civil complaints. In 1913 fines and fees amounted to $11,883.88 for criminal cases.

Following the report of Chief of Police Troyer very closely, Clerk Ross, in his report, stated that 852 fewer criminal cases were handled during the year than in the previous season. In 1913 the story of 4,286 crimes was told municipal judges.

In telling of expenditures, the report shows that $139.50 was forwarded to the county treasurer, covering fines in cases where there had been violation of the game laws. A check for $195 was sent the state treasurer covering similar fines.

Out of the entire number of criminal cases, but few, comparatively, were above the misdemeanor class, according to the report. But 181 men were bound over to await the action of the grand jury. Forty cases were discharged.

WORKS DOCTORS FOR FREE RIDES

Duluth Woman Has Novel Method of Reaching Destination in the Country.

Here's a way to get a free ride in the country, if you happen to want to visit any farmer near Duluth and do not care to spend the money to hire a horse or taxicab.

Call a physician. Tell him he is wanted immediately at a house a mile or two beyond your destination. Try to give him directions, making them as confused as possible. Then offer to accompany him on the trip, saying you have to go part way.

The plan has been successfully worked on several Duluth physicians by a woman whose name is unknown. Three Duluth physicians got together recently and found they had all been victimized by the same woman.

The woman in question has telephoned each of the doctors, saying that he was needed by a family on the Howard-Gnesen road. After attempting to tell him the way to go, the fair informer says:

"Why, I tell you, doctor, I must go out near there today and I would be very glad to go part way with you and point out the place."

Thereupon the doctors all bit. They met the woman at the end of the Woodland car line and drove her into the country.

When her destination was reached, she would dismount, and pointing down the road, would tell of turns in the road to the home of the imaginary family which needed assistance.

Physicians have taken Craig Kennedy into their counsel and swear vengeance.

A VALUABLE SUGGESTION

IMPORTANT TO EVERYONE

It is now conceded by physicians that the kidneys should have more attention as they control the other organs to a remarkable degree and do a tremendous amount of work in removing the poisons and waste matter from the system by filtering the blood.

During the winter months especially, when we live an indoor life, the kidneys should receive some assistance when needed, as we take less exercise, drink less water and often eat more rich heavy food, thereby forcing the kidneys to do more work than Nature intended. Evidence of kidney trouble, such as lame back, annoying bladder troubles, smarting or burning, brick-dust or sediment, sallow complexion, rheumatism, may be weak or irregular heart action, warns you that your kidneys require help immediately to avoid more serious trouble.

Many physicians claim that an herbal medicine containing no minerals or opiates has the most healing influence. An ideal herbal compomd that has had most remarkable success as a kidney and bladder remedy is Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root.

You may receive a sample bottle of Swamp-Root by Parcels Post. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., and enclose ten cents; also mention the Duluth Daily Herald.

SCENTED EUROPEAN WAR TWO YEARS AGO

John Davidson, World Famous Skater, Tells of Foreign Visit.

John Davidson, the world-famous fancy skater, who is to give an exhibition at the curling club tomorrow evening, declared at the Spalding today that two years previous to the outbreak of hostilities in Europe the casual tourists could plainly scent the impending conflict. Mr. Davidson was in Europe six years. Part of this time he passed in England, part in France, a brief period in Germany, and the major portion of his tour in St. Petersburg, as it was called, or Petrograd, as the famous Russian city is named today.

"War spirit was rampant," said Mr. Davidson today. "Why, when I was in England, the English newspapers would come out every once in a while with an article severely censoring the naval activity of Germany, while even some of the papers advised the English navy to go across and effectively put a stop to the shipbuilding of the Germans.

"I was in Russia two years previous to the declaration of war. Long before people in the United States had any suspicion of war, the Russian government officials were busily engaged in the testing of war motor trucks.

"These trucks would be tested on long trips, from Petrograd to Odessa and other cities. At this time the Russian government was endeavoring to find the best army motor truck.

"It is my personal opinion that the armies of the allies will find it a stupendous task to cross the German line. Only one who has been in Germany can realize the almost impregnable defense on the German frontiers. Through by way of Vienna is, to my way of thinking, the only possible way the armies of the allies can break through and invade Germany."

Mr. Davidson left Russia for the United States just before the declaration of war. While some 20,000 soldiers were drilling daily in the big public parade ground in Petrograd, he declared that plans of mobilization were kept pretty well under the surface.

FARMERS DECLARE SCHOOLS TOO SMALL

Exeter and Lakewood Clubs Outline Plan for Enlargement.

Members of the Exeter Farmers' club met the members of the Lakewood Farmers' club on Saturday evening at the Tischer school to confer regarding the securing of better school conditions. Both clubs were well represented. Mr. Lundstrom was chosen chairman of the meeting and W. H. Gardner was chosen clerk.

School conditions were discussed by both clubs. It was shown that the pupils are being transported from the Exeter Farms to the Spring Garden school, which is not at the present time large enough to accommodate all the children. The Tischer school is also filled to its capacity. It was deemed necessary to arrange for more school room, in view of the fact that at least seventy-five more children will be added to the list of pupils from the Exeter Farms alone next summer. These would not be able to attend school at all, if more room is not obtained by next fall.

Mr. Lundstrom outlined a plan by which one school would be sufficient for all. A consolidated school of four rooms was asked for by Mr. Lundstrom and was well supported by members of both clubs. The location of such a school will be discussed at a meeting to be held at the Tischer school on next Saturday evening at 8:30 o'clock. Both clubs will be well represented.

THIEF RIVER FALLS CHURCH IS SCORCHED

Fire in Attic of Catholic Edifice Does About $3,000 Damage.

Thief River Falls, Minn., Jan. 26.—(Special to The Herald.)—Fire originating in the attic of the Catholic church about 8:54 yesterday morning, presumably from the hot air heating plant, did about $3,000 damage before being extinguished by the department. When discovered, the fire was burning freely in the attic. From lack of draft it burned slowly, which probably saved the building from total destruction. The firemen for some considerable time were unable to get at the base of the fire, there being no approach to the attic.

Three lines of hose were strung from different hydrants and by the time an opening was made in the end of the building, a plentiful supply of water was available. Four hours were consumed in subduing the fire and in spite of the thermometer registering 28 degs. below zero, a large number of spectators watched the fire and the work of the department.

The loss was practically confined to the attic and rear portion of the church, and is covered by insurance.

WAR REDUCES COST OF FURS

Skins Are Now Said to Be a "Drug on the Market."

Popular Varieties Sell at a Fraction of Former Price.

Because of the war, milady now is able to buy furs without causing a domestic upheaval, according to Duluth furriers today.

Probably no branch of business is feeling the effects of the struggle abroad more severely than the fur trade and prices of raw skins, received in Duluth recently, show quotations on skins that are but a fraction of those given in former seasons.

In Canada the Hudson Bay company is offering choice furs at almost any price, while the trappers are parting with their season's catch for almost nothing, say fur dealers.

Because of the fact that there is no duty on raw skins, dealers in the United States will not be at a disadvantage, but rather will be able to undersell the Canadian.

Linings for coats, trimmings and other accessories of American make, are much more in demand than the Canadian product, and the 30 per cent duty on these materials makes it hard for the northern dealer to meet prices made by dealers throughout the United States.

Domestic furs are rapidly replacing foreign skins, declare dealers, and before the war is over, furs, because of their cheapness, will be more popular than at any time in years.

Where manufacturers were paying $7 last year for mink skins they now are buying them for from $2.25 to $3. Second grade mink skins can be purchased for from $1 to $1.75, thirds for 35 cents and fourths for 10 cents.

Skunk, another popular fur in this section of the Northwest, now can be purchased for $1.65 for the best grade skins, compared with $5 a year ago. Other grades of skunk bring from $1.15 down to 30 cents.

Best muskrat skins, which, with mink and skunk, are worn a great deal, bring 16 cents now, and last year the dealer was paying 45 cents for them.

Small muskrat hides bring as low as 5 cents. Many of muskrats skins used here come from the Northwestern states, Minnesota, Iowa, North and South Dakota and Nebraska.

If milady wants a red fox set, it will cost her husband about half of the 1913 price. Dealers are paying $2.50 for the best skins, compared with $4 a year ago.

Duluthians are buying more furs now than for a long time, and still more interest is fur garments is predicted, because of the possibility of a still further reduction in prices.

STOCK YARDS MAY BE QUARANTINED AGAIN

Animals Shipped to Chicago Have Developed Disease.

Chicago, Jan. 26.—Probability of another quarantine of the Union Stock yards here developed today with a report that animals shipped East from supposedly clean districts in the yards had developed the foot and mouth disease.

There were frequent reports that the quarantine had been established in certain sections of the wards, but officials of the government inspection bureau said that no quarantine had been ordered.

Conferences of the state and Federal livestock bureaus were held and the packing houses expected that before the close of the day a closing order would be issued preventing the shipment of livestock from the yards.

Although no official order prohibiting the shipment of livestock was issued early in the day by the Federal inspectors, no stock was shipped pending word from the department heads in Washington.

To Stop Falling Hair

Falling hair—the forerunner of baldness—is nearly always due to the presence of a parasite known as the dandruff germ. If your hair falls out, the chances are ten to one that the dandruff germ is the cause of it, and you cannot do better than to get your druggist to make you up a bottle of the old reliable formula, consisting of 6 oz. Bay Rum, 2 oz. Lavona de Composee, and ½ dram Menthol Crystals. Apply night and morning, rubbing briskly into the scalp with the finger tips. This preparation, which enjoys a world-wide reputation as a hair grower and dandruff destroyer, is claimed by many to restore gray hair to its original color as well as making the hair grow, and destroying the dandruff germ.

INJURIES DUE TO OWN NEGLIGENCE

J. N. McKenzie Loses His Suit Against Traction Company.

Injuries which John N. McKenzie sustained Aug. 30, 1913, when he was struck by a street car while crossing Superior street at Eighth avenue east, were caused by his own negligence and not through any carelessness of employes of the Duluth Street Railway company. This, at least, is the opinion of a jury in Judge Dancer's division of the district court which reached an agreement shortly before 6 o'clock last evening in the personal injury suit brought by McKenzie against the traction company. A verdict for the defendant was returned. The sealed finding of the jury was opened and read when court convened this morning. McKenzie sued for $2,017 damages. He was represented by Attorney G. A. E. Finlayson and the street railway company by Attorney Thomas S. Wood.

TROOPER WRITES TO SISTER ABOUT RIDE

Brainerd, Minn., Jan. 26.—(Special to The Herald.)—In a letter to his sister here, Corporal A. C. Falconer of Troop M, First cavalry, U. S. A., stationed at San Diego, Cal., describes a night ride from Tecate, Cal., to San Diego with the troopers twelve hours and fifteen minutes in the saddle with only one five-minute rest. It rained all the time and the troop made its way through inky darkness. As soon as they unsaddled, the work of preparing their camp was under way. Tent floors were laid out, kitchens built, stables constructed, ditches dug in hardpan and then shovels would be laid down to go and saddle up and turn out for some parade or escort duty. The new model pyramid tents are used, holding five men each. They are equipped with board floors, electric light and lockers. Troop streets are kept scrupulously clean. No cigaret butts, matches or bits of paper are allowed to fly about. Just across the ravine is the San Diego exposition.

FOURTH HISTORICAL LECTURE AT Y. M. C. A.

The fourth of the series of historical lectures which the Y. M. C. A. has been conducting the past month will be given tonight in the lecture room of the association. The subject is "Austria and the Southern Slavs," by Ljubo Bogicevelch. Mr. Bogicevelch is a Duluth attorney. He has very good command of English and is legal advisor for a great many of his own people—Austrians, Croatians and Magyars.

The lectures, so far, have been very well attended and there has been very keen interest manifested. Judging from the growing interest with each lecture, there will likely be a very good house tonight. These lectures are open for both men and women and there is no charge for admission. The public is invited and the lecture begins at 8 o'clock.

CAMP EMPLOYE FILES COMPLAINT

City Health Officer Has No Jurisdiction But Forwards Matter to St. Paul.

Charges made to Health Director Webster by employes of a lumber camp near Knife River, to the effect that the living conditions there are disgraceful and that "it is not fit for a dog," will be referred to Dr. H. M. Bracken, head of the state health department, for investigation.

Health Director Webster received the communication yesterday and in it, the writer, although using poor English and badly misspelling his words, asks that an investigation be made of the camp.

Dr. Webster said this morning that he has no jurisdiction over Knife River or any territory outside of Duluth proper and that he will forward the communication to the state board at St. Paul.

"If these charges are true," said Dr. Webster, "the health department should investigate them thoroughly and punish the offenders. Living conditions in a camp should be healthful and clean."

EPIDEMIC OF DISEASE HERE

Spread of Scarlet Fever and Diphtheria Alarms Health Officials.

People Blamed for Not Heeding Warnings of the Department.

There is an epidemic of contagious diseases in Duluth today, according to Health Director Webster, and the situation has become somewhat alarming.

Dr. Webster said this morning that on Jan. 2 there were but eight cases of scarlet fever registered in his office, while this morning there are twenty-seven. During the same period there was an increase of seven cases of diphtheria. The smallpox situation has remained about the same during the month.

"And the blame for this epidemic," said Dr. Webster in explanation, "lies with those people in the city, who are absolutely indifferent to the dangers. We are constantly warning the public of the danger of these diseases, but many seem to disregard our warnings. In every case this month, I find that the direct cause was contact with a person already diseased.

"If people would recognize that a child with a rash or a sore throat is in danger of a contagious disease and would immediately take some precaution, the disease itself would soon be cured, while the family and all others would be saved from coming into contact with the child. Those who are sick should not mingle with others."

Everything possible is being done, said Dr. Webster, to keep the epidemic from spreading any farther and although the situation is alarming at present, he feels that the real danger will soon pass.

LUMBER MILL TO BE OPENED

Mullery-McDonald Company Will Resume Operations Next Tuesday.

Night and Day Shifts Will Give Work to About 200 Men.

The Mullery-McDonald lumber mill at the foot of Twenty-fourth avenue west will be put in operation day and night, beginning next Tuesday. Announcement to that effect was made today by officials of the company.

The opening of the mill will give employment to about 200 men, who will be divided between the day and the night shifts. All preparations for a long run have been made and a large quantity of logs is on hand, with more being received daily from the lumber camps of Northern Minnesota.

"We have enough logs in sight to guarantee the operation of the mill for several months to come," said the superintendent this morning. "The mill has not been in operation since early last fall, when it was compelled to close down owing to a shortage of logs."

The mill will cut an average of about 100,000 feet of lumber during each shift, or 200,000 feet each twenty-four hours. During the last few months that the mill has been idle, it has been given a thorough overhauling and everything is now said to be in good shape for steady work.

The opening of the mill will mean a great deal to the western end of the city. It is the second large industry to place a large force of men at work since the first of the new year. It is also intimated that other large industries of this end of the city are contemplating an early resumption of operations, and the adding of greater numbers to their list of employes.

URGE THAT ROAD WORK BE DONE NOW

Club Wants "Trail" Between City Proper and Suburbs.

Members of the West Duluth Commercial club who are interested in getting a good "trail" between the city proper and the western suburbs, intend placing before the city commission a proposition which, it is believed, will furnish fifty laborers employment for a month and which will also result in doing work that would in the near future have to be done.

The proposition is to have the cut in Jenswold street widened to the full width of a regular thoroughfare. This would mean the removal of a large quantity of clay from both banks of the side of the street, which in turn could be used in making the fill necessary for the gully at Forty-third avenue west and Oneota street.

At this time of the year men can be hired from 5 to 7½ cents an hour cheaper than in the summer, the members say, and the men work harder than in the summer. It is claimed that the difference in the wage scale will more than counterbalance the added difficulty in removing the dirt and that the city would be benefited.

"This work will have to be done if the city decides to pave the thoroughfare between Thirtieth and Forty-sixth avenues," said Thomas Olafson this morning. "The time to do this work is when it is necessary for the city to find work for its unemployed. Property owners on Oneota street as well as the western end of Superior street agree that the improvement must be done in the near future, and if the paving is to be laid the city must take steps to do its share first."

MORE THAN ONE CASE TRIED DAILY

West Duluth Municipal Court Was Active During 1914.

The West Duluth municipal court has averaged more than one case each day during the year 1914, according to figures submitted by the clerk of the court. In all there were 374 cases brought before the court, of which 360 were criminal and fourteen civil cases.

Twelve prisoners brought before the court during the year were bound over to the grand jury. Of these the grand jury found true bills against eleven and discharged one.

The court tried 215 cases for violation of state statutes. Of these 28 were committed, 138 received suspended sentences, 10 were discharged, and 39 paid fines. Suspended sentences were granted to 52 offenders against city ordinances, 16 were committed, 6 dismissed and 57 paid fines.

The total fines, including costs collected by the court, amounted during the year to $1,352.38. The court also collected $35 for fees in civil cases.

MOTORCYCLE CLUB.

Meeting Called for Thursday to Organize One in West Duluth.

A meeting of motorcycle enthusiasts will be held Thursday evening at the home of Fred Delbern, 5119 Wadena street, at which steps will be taken to complete the organization of the West Duluth Motorcycle club. It is expected that about forty young men will be present to participate in the meeting.

Officers will be elected and plans for the spring and summer will be made. It is expected that several important suggestions regarding the driving of machines on streets and country roads, as well as plans to provide better highways for riding will be taken up.

A feature of the meeting will be an address to be given by A. Taraldson, local agent for one of the machines. He will also assist in perfecting the organization.

The Price She Pays

There is hardly an American woman nowadays who can keep pace with the demands made upon her time and energy without paying the penalty of ill-health. It may be that dreadful backache, dragging pains, headaches, nervousness or the tortures of a displacement. It is the price she pays. To women in this condition Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound comes as a boon and a blessing. A simple remedy made from roots and herbs which bring glorious health to suffering women.

FREAK ANTLERS OF DEER DISPLAYED

Buck's Head Owned By E. Alverson Said to Be Rare.

Probably the most highly prized buck's head in the city is that owned by Ernest Alverson, 6109 Olney street, which is this week being displayed in the window of a drug store in West Duluth. The antlers are a "freak" formation, the left antler being spread so that it gives somewhat the form of a daisy.

Hunters claim that it is only on rare occasions that such antlers are found and that the deformity is caused by injury to the antler while it is still in the "velvet."

Mr. Alverson, who is a clerk at the West Duluth postoffice, shot the deer while hunting near the Alger-Smith line on Nov. 14. He had the head mounted almost immediately after bringing the animal to the city.

GETCHELL ROAD DECLARED UNSAFE

Highway South of Keene's Creek Bridge Washed Out.

A number of complaints have reached business men of West Duluth regarding the Getchell road south of the bridge over Keene's creek. The road is said to be in a dangerous condition owing to washouts which occurred last summer, but which were not taken care of by the public works department.

A farmer going home after dark Saturday evening is said to have barely escaped going down into the ravine with his sleigh while driving over the road that skirts the south end of the Oneota cemetery. In two or three places along this stretch the roadway has been washed so that it is hardly wide enough to allow a rig to pass safely.

This road is used because there is sufficient snow for sleighing there, while on the boulevard road across the gully, there is none. Business men of West Duluth say that the public works department has had its attention directed to the condition of the road and that steps should be immediately taken to have it placed in repair.

"The amount that probably would have to be paid out for one damage suit growing out of an accident on the road would more than pay for improving the highway," said a business man this morning.

SUIT AGAINST CITY FOR DAMAGES

Trial of Injury Action By Mrs. Genereau Is Begun.

In Judge Dancer's division of the district court this morning a jury was drawn to try the personal injury suit brought against the city of Duluth and the West Duluth Land company by Mrs. Pauline Genereau, who wants $6,355 for injuries alleged to have been sustained in a fall on an icy sidewalk Feb. 24, 1914. She alleges that ice was allowed to accumulate on a Ramsey street sidewalk and that while walking along the street she slipped and fell when she reached a point about fifty feet west of Fiftieth avenue west. The West Duluth Land company, which is a joint defendant with the city in the action, is the owner of the abutting property. The defendants are charged with negligence in failing to keep the sidewalk clear of ice and slippery obstructions. John Jenswold, Jr., appears as attorney for Mrs. Genereau, and Harvey Clapp, city attorney, William P. Harrison, assistant city attorney, and Victor Stearns appear as attorneys for the defendants.

COST OF WORK UNDER ESTIMATE

80 Per Cent Assessment Virtually Meets Expenditures on Sewers.

Work on the sewers built in the streets at Duluth Heights was done under the estimate of the city engineers and as a result the advance assessment of 80 per cent of the improvement will virtually cover the cost.

City Assessor Scott said this morning that only a slight assessment will have to be made for the construction of an additional outlet, but the amount, after it is spread out among the property owners, will be so small that it would not warrant the department sending out any bills. The cost of the mailing and stationery, he said, would almost reach the entire amount.

As a result no demand will be made on the property owners through the mail, but those applying at the office of the assessor can learn just what their additional assessment will be. Those that fail to do this, he said, will find the extra charge included in their total tax for the year made out this fall. This assessment, it was explained, will average from about 4 cents to 10 cents a lot.

Considerable praise is being given Commissioner Murchison and his department for having completed the sewer work under the estimate of the engineers. It was done by day labor and a great part of the expense usually incurred was saved on the job, as a result.

The construction of the sewers entailed a total cost of $33,595.29, according to the figures in the office of City Assessor Scott, while the original estimate called for an expenditure of $40,123.53.

ROMANCE IN POLICE STATION

Chief's Secretary and Police Matron Visit Stillwater on Honeymoon.

Several months ago, the desk sergeant at police headquarters fell asleep while on duty and Cupid, managing to evade the watchful eye of the detectives and even of the chief, broke in and burglarized the place.

The success of the elf's sortie into a new and hitherto unexplored region, was proven today when Mrs. Mary Walsh, police matron and John Connelly, secretary to Chief Troyer, were married. As a result the stern arm of the law was not working as smoothly and easily as usual this morning.

Although several detectives did their best to secure incriminating evidence, the plans of the couple were kept from all but a few and early this morning they were married at the cathedral chapel by Father Floyd, leaving later for the Twin Cities and Stillwater.

After a wedding trip of about a week, they will be at home at 128 East Fifth street.

TWO GRATEFUL WOMEN WHO PRAISE PERUNA.

Had No Desire To Live. Peruna Is A Tonic and Strength Builder.

Tongue Cannot Express How I Suffered. I Would Not Do Without Peruna. I Thank You.

Mrs. Frank Stroebe, R. F. D. 1, Appleton, Wis. Her letter reads: "I began using Peruna a few months ago when my health and strength were all gone, and I was nothing but a nervous wreck. Could not sleep, eat or rest properly, and felt no desire to live.

"Three bottles of Peruna made me look at life in a different light, as I began to regain my lost strength. While my recovery took nearly four months, at the end of that time I was better than I ever had been before. I had a splendid color and never weighed more in my life.

"I certainly think Peruna is without a rival as a tonic and strength builder, and it has my endorsement."

Mrs. Charles Brown, R. R. 4, Box 79, Rogersville, Tenn., writes: "I have tried many different remedies, but have found that Peruna is the greatest tonic on earth, and a perfect system builder."

Miss Emelie A. Haberkorn, 2251 Gravois Ave., St. Louis, Mo., writes: "For over two years I was troubled with catarrh of the internal organs. I heard of a free booklet, 'The Ills of Life.' I read it and wrote to the doctor, who answered my letter promptly. I began taking treatment as soon as possible. Tongue cannot express how I suffered with my stomach, and I also was troubled with catarrh of the head. I didn't feel like myself for a long time. So I began taking Peruna. I have taken four bottles, and now I cannot praise it enough. Any one who has chronic catarrh should write to the Medical Dept. of the Peruna Co., Columbus, Ohio. I feel grateful for what the doctor has done for me, and would not do without Peruna. I now enjoy as good health as ever. I find it has improved my health so much that I will recommend it to any one cheerfully."

The Man Who Gets Ahead

All men do not hold the same position in life, often, because of conditions over which they have no control, but any man can better his position if he will.

There is no mystery about "getting ahead," it is simply a case of saving a little every pay day—of making the expenses less than the income.

Every unnecessary item of expense that you can cut out means so much saved. Don't let the other fellow bank all you earn.

The man who "gets ahead" is the man who saves for opportunity.

Contempt Cases Against New York Newspaper Men Decided.

Washington, Jan. 26.—Contempt of court sentences imposed on William L. Curtin and George Burdick of the New York Tribune because they refused to divulge sources of information of a printed story of the grand jury investigations of customs frauds in New York were set aside today by the supreme court.

The court did not pass upon whether the men could be compelled to state the sources of their information. It sustained their refusal to testify before a grand jury on the ground that presidential pardons had been prepared for them. The newspaper men refused to accept the pardons.

The court today held that a pardon extended to a witness before a Federal grand jury did not make ineffective his objection to testifying lest he incriminate himself provided he did not accept the pardon.

Justice McKenna announced the court's opinion which was concurred in by all the justices except Justice McReynolds, who took no part in the decision.

Justice McKenna said the decision rested solely on the point that the pardon was not effective unless accepted.

TAKE SALTS TO FLUSH KIDNEYS

Eat Less Meat If You Feel Backachy or Have Bladder Trouble.

Meat forms uric acid which excites and overworks the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the system. Regular eaters of meat must flush the kidneys occasionally. You must relieve them like you relieve your bowels; removing all the acids, waste and poison, else you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sours, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment; the channels often get irritated, obliging you to get up two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids and flush off the body's urinous waste get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine and bladder disorders disappear. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys and stop bladder irritation. Jad Salts is inexpensive; harmless and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then, thus avoiding serious kidney and bladder disease.

ACQUITTED MAN FACES NEW CHARGE

De Selley Held for Receiving Stolen Property After Trial for Theft.

Although Peter De Selley was cleared by a district court jury yesterday afternoon on a charge of grand larceny in the second degree in connection with the theft of thirty-nine sacks of wheat from a Great Northern railway car Dec. 16, he did not walk from the courtroom a free man.

Immediately upon his acquittal Judge Fesler of the trial court directed that he be remanded to the custody of the sheriff until the county attorney could present a charge of receiving stolen property against him and have it investigated by a grand jury.

While a jury was deliberating upon his case yesterday afternoon, De Seeley was in Judge Ensign's division of the court testifying as a state's witness in the case of the state against Helmer Jentoft, charged with receiving stolen property.

WOULD RAISE BEEF CATTLE

C. P. Craig Suggests New Line of Farming for This Section.

Public Affairs Committee Reports Progress in All Departments.

That the agricultural districts of St. Louis county are admirably adapted to the raising of beef cattle and that this line of agriculture may go hand in hand with dairying was the gist of a speech made last night by C. P. Craig before the public affairs committee of the Duluth Commercial club at the club rooms. This suggestion coming from Mr. Craig, who has just been elected president of the Minnesota Agricultural society and who has been a practical student of agriculture here for years, made a marked impression upon the members of the committee.

Preparations For Exhibit.

Mr. Craig said that the county agent work is being ceaselessly carried on and that already preparations are being made for another big county exhibit for the next state fair.

The speaker declared that he believes it is time that action is taken in the matter of developing beef-cattle growing in this part of the state. He asserted that it is his belief that beef raising can be done here with the same rate of profit as has been found in dairying, but he also asserted that those who have been behind the cattle movement have been right in developing the dairying first. He pointed out as benefits of beef-cattle raising that there would be more men and more capital to draw into the country, more farms would be brushed and scoured, and a larger industry would be developed. But, he added, the community must demonstrate hereabouts that such an industry would be profitable. He said that the same nutritious grasses that make good dairy-cattle would make good beef-cattle, but that before beef-cattle growers can be induced to come into this county they must be shown records of success or failure.

Fine Grass and Climate.

Concerning dairy-cattle and the fine grasses they get here, also the ideal climate for their raising, Mr. Craig said that he believed that if the same herds that are making world's records here were moved, say to Illinois, and managed by the same manager, they would make poorer records. He believes the same will prove true of beef-cattle.

About 150 were present at the meeting and took dinner at 6:15. The actual business session, with Chairman R. B. Knox presiding, began at 7:30 and was finished just about an hour later. For the most part, the committees reported progress. Since the first of the year they have scarcely resumed their stride, but the reports all showed that they have the business assigned them pretty well in hand. Few of the chairmen of the committees were present and most of the reports were read by Assistant Secretary George D. McCarthy, or oral reports made to Chairman Knox were transmitted by him to the club.

As to Publicity.

The committee on publicity and statistics reported that people are coming to the city just now without much effort being made by the committee and that the city is well advertised by reason of the fact that the country at large has learned that while other communities have been pinched financially there has been no acute stringency here, that bank clearances have been excellent, and comparatively very few have been out of employment. The committee reported that the largest convention so far secured for the current year is that of the National Association of Retail Credit Men, and that pursuant to the policy of the committee, numerous articles will be published concerning Duluth and her advantages in the national official publication of that organization.

The public health committee had no definite report to make except that a bill to provide for a city and county hospital has been drafted and is being considered by the committee and by the Woman's Council.

The rivers and harbors committee reported that provision for a survey for a breakwater outside of the Duluth harbor has been included in the rivers and harbors appropriation bill and has passed the house and is now before the senate of the United States.

Frank X. Gravell, chairman of the trade extension committee, told of the recent visit to the meeting of the Northern Development association, and asked for a continuation of the co-operation of the club members with the committee, "and more if possible" he added. He urged co-operative work for the greater advancement of the city during this year and signed himself "boostingly yours."

G. Roy Hall, traffic commissioner, told of the status and history of the lake and rail case, a brief in which was filed today by Duluth with the interstate commerce commission. He also read a letter from Vice President McKinney of the Great Northern, published some days ago in The Herald—telling of the fine immigration work done by that road into this territory. Mr. Hall reminded those present that the traffic commission is in existence to serve all business interests in the city and take steps to try to right all rate wrongs, and urged that these be submitted to them.

School Figures.

The vocational training committee gave an interesting report on school matters, explaining why, with the slight increase in school population, so much building has become necessary. The committee pointed out that with the shifting of population, and the establishment of new districts, new schools become necessary where the new districts are formed, even though there be left empty rooms in other schools. It was shown that the total school attendance in public and parochial schools in the city in 1913 was 15,448 and in 1914, 15,894, a difference of 446. It traced the growth down from the school year of 1908-9 to the current year in public schools, and from 1910 to the present year in parochial schools, as follows:

	Public.	Parochial.
1908-9	12,903	.....
1909-10	13,033	1,341
1910-11	13,680	1,396
1911-12	14,635	1,471
1912-13	13,711	1,534
1913-14	14,130	1,917

The only argument arose just before the close of the session, when J. B. Crane of the Great Northern Power company referred to the report, made previously, of G. Roy Hall, traffic commissioner of the club, as to the excellent work done by that commission, and said that he wished that somebody would do as good work with local traffic, for, he very frankly admitted, he is trying to sell electrically driven trucks, which he claimed are much superior to the gasoline driven, but that because of the poor conditions of streets in various parts of the city and the impossibility of getting them paved, he is unable to advance the business he seeks. He said that the charter prescribed that intersections of streets, when paving is done, must be paid for out of the general fund, and not assessed against the property benefitted, and that as the general fund is somewhat depleted, there is generally little chance of having the work done.

Would Amend Charter.

Mr. Crane offered a resolution, which, if passed, would have the club calling upon the charter commission to submit at the spring election, an amendment to the charter repealing Section 63 of Chapter 9, which provides for such payment of intersections.

N. J. Upham seconded the motion to adopt. Mr. Upham, said, that while he knew the resolution would not be popular, he believed the section referred to should be repealed, for the reason that the improvement of many streets has been retarded because of lack of money with which to pay the cost of paving intersections. H. W. Cheadle challenged Mr. Upham to point out a single instance where there was such hindrance of street improvement for that reason, and asserted that there never has been one case. Mr. Upham said that he was not prepared to name specific instances, but that several such cases have come under his personal observation. This Mr. Cheadle disputed, and declared that the resolution should not be acted on impulsively but should be referred. He therefore moved to refer it to the committee on street improvement, which motion was seconded and passed.

C. P. Craig, chairman of the agricultural committee made a verbal report. Chairman Knox, in introducing Mr. Craig, referred to the recent honor which has been conferred on the distinguished Duluthian in his being unanimously elected president of the state fair board, and declared that Mr. Craig "has done more to arouse intelligent interest in the agricultural possibilities, and has had more to do with their development in this part of the state, than any other man or group of men I could name."

Mr. Craig said that matters agricultural have been very quiet of late and the work has been chiefly routine, but that the committee is now discussing matters in connection with the Industrial exposition to be held next fall. He mentioned that requests for recognition and joint exhibits at the Industrial exposition have been received from Northern Michigan and Northern Wisconsin, to have a big dairy and clover show in the fall, instead of confining it to the local community.

Chairman Unafraid.

"I mentioned it to our chairman, Mr. Knox," said Mr. Craig, "and suggested that it is a trifle ambitious and perhaps too big to tackle. But Knox was fearless, and declared that nothing is too big to tackle. That's his attitude always. We have hoped to develop our dairy cattle show to large proportions as time goes on, but the opportunity has come more quickly than we looked for, and it rather takes us off our feet."

The city planning committee, F. W. Sullivan, chairman, reported that a number of conferences have been held regarding the proposed state park at Fond du Lac, and that another conference, to be held today, is likely to produce more definite results.

The municipal committees reported that proposed changes in the housing code are being considered and that definite suggestions will be reported to the public affairs committee at an early date.

The committee on neighborhood, B. F. Neff, chairman, reported that all clubs were busy in the municipal ownership campaign, and the neighborhood clubs committee, preserving strict neutrality, felt that it had better stay away during the excitement and avoid trouble.

The difference between the first and last years mentioned in the matter of the public schools is 1,127; and in the parochial schools, 606. There are, on the average, 107 pupils in the model school at the normal.

The wholesale committee reported that, failing ability to have representative bodies of salesmen in Duluth at the same time during the holidays that they might have the gospel of Duluth preached to them, the wholesale houses are now sending out to their salesmen, at intervals of one week, a series of six letters prepared by the Commercial club, in the endeavor to make them feel that this city is their city and that they should boost her for all they are worth.

Executive Committee Indorsed.

The executive committee reported that it has refused to indorse any plan to raise money for a Minnesota building at the Panama-Pacific exposition other than through the legislature, and asked the action of the public affairs committee on it. The action was approved.

An invitation was received from Mayor James H. Preston of Baltimore asking that a Duluth representative be appointed for a commercial cruise to South America. The matter was referred to the trade extension committee.

A communication from the Retail Furniture Dealers' Association of Tennessee, asking indorsement of a bill to be presented to congress, to tax all persons, firms, etc., doing a mail order business, was referred to the legislative committee.

Julius H. Barnes was re-elected national councillor of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States and will attend the meeting of the council on Feb. 2. The matter of appointing five delegates to the third annual convention of the chamber, to be held Feb. 3, 4 and 5, was left to Chairman Knox.

A communication from Congressman A. P. Gardner of Massachusetts, asking indorsement of a national surety commission to investigate the preparedness of the United States for war, was laid on the table amid a roar of laughter.

YACHT IDLER WRECKED: CREW BELIEVED LOST.

New York, Jan. 26.—Capt. Robert H. Harding of the schooner yacht Idler, and his crew of fourten men are believed to have perished when the yacht sank off Inner Diamond Shoals according to wireless advices yesterday. The Idler, owned by J. P. Jefferson of Warren, Pa., was driven aground in a gale Sunday night. Early Monday morning the vessel was sighted and reported to be breaking up. Life savers were unable to reach her on account of the high seas.

The United States revenue cutter Sliminole is said to have reached the wreck too late to help, for only a portion of one mast remained above the water.

Mr. Jefferson and friends who were to have accompanied him on a journey through the South Pacific are in Havana, where they were awaiting the arrival of the yacht. The cruise was to have lasted a year, and its purposes were semi-scientific.

The Idler formerly belonged to Henry T. Sloane of the New York Yacht club, and was purchased by Mr. Jefferson especially for the cruise.

New Claflin Corporations.

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 26.—The H. B. Claflin corporation, a portion of the failed firm of H. B. Claflin company, was chartered by the secretary of state yesterday to conduct a department store business in New York city. The capital is $6,000,000.

CITY ORDERS IMPROVEMENTS

Sum of $29,000 Will Be Spent for Municipal Equipment.

Yesterday afternoon the city commission ordered the paving of Commonwealth avenue in Gary, the construction of several sanitary sewers in various parts of the city, the expenditure of $29,000 for municipal equipment and discussed a proposition to substitute electric lights for the gas lamps throughout Duluth, because of the new electric lighting rate.

The paving of Commonwealth avenue, from the south line of the Spirit Lake Transfer company's right-of-way to the south line of Gary, was ordered in a resolution introduced by Commissioner Murchison. The improvement was requested by property owners of Commonwealth avenue, who met with the commission last Friday, and asked that a 56-foot roadway be constructed in Gary proper to connect with the 18-foot pavement being built from Duluth to the steel plant suburbs.

Provide for Street Cars.

The pavement will be built the entire width of the street, but a space will be allowed in the center for the laying of the New Duluth street car tracks. In this way the city will avoid the possibility of tearing up the pavement to be built this spring. The pavement will cost a total of $57,308.88 for brick, while the property owners will pay an 80-per-cent advance assessment on $33,789.58, the estimated cost of the two streetcar tracks on both sides of the center, which will affect the property owners on the avenue.

On a motion of Commissioner Murchison sanitary sewers were ordered constructed in Magellan street from Thirty-eighth to Thirty-ninth avenue west and in Sixty-ninth alley west from lot 15, block 15, Clinton Park addition to Polk street. A storm sewer was also ordered in Tenth avenue east, from Eighth to Ninth street. The improvements will all be done by day labor and the work will be paid for out of the permanent improvement fund.

Other Expenditures.

The commission passed the ordinances appropriating $12,000 for the purchase of road machinery to be used in the department of public works and $8,000 for blocks to be purchased for the public library during this year. First reading was given the ordinance introduced by Commissioner Murchison appropriating $9,000 for the purchase of road oil to be used in sprinkling the city streets.

The payroll of $1,357.29 for the judges, clerks and polling places at the special election last Tuesday, as prepared by City Clerk Palmer, was confirmed by the commission and the money ordered paid out of the general fund.

Because of a reduction in the price of street lights from $55 to $45 a year, as provided for in the new contract with the Duluth-Edison company, Commissioner Merritt suggested that the city contract for electric lights in place of the gas lamps now in use. It would mean a saving of about $700 a year, he said. The matter was discussed informally and Commissioner Merritt was directed to make any change he saw fit.

Incandescent lights were ordered installed at Eighth avenue east and Thirteenth street, in front of 114 St. Paul avenue, Fourteenth avenue east and First street, Thirteenth avenue east and Tenth street, Maxwell avenue and Red Wing street and Forty-first avenue east and Juniata street.

On a motion of Commissioner Voss, the city treasurer was ordered to refund Mrs. Clara Edwards the sum of $5 on her peddlers' license, which she used but two days. She paid $10 for the license and was called out of the city on account of her mother's illness and in a communication to the commissioners asked that $5 be refunded.

Confirm Appraisers' Report.

The commission confirmed the reports of the appraisers in the condemnation of a building line easement on the southerly side of Seventh street, from Seventh to Eighth avenue west and on the northerly side of Seventh street, between Eighteenth and Nineteenth avenues east.

The contract for the publishing of the monthly bulletin of the health department during this year was awarded to the Huntley Printing company.

Liquor license renewals were granted to Jerry Cavasin, 248 Lake avenue south, and John Kerns, 531 West Michigan street; pool hall licenses to Antanos Kopchoff, 913 West Michigan street, and Fred Hill, South First avenue east, and cigarette licenses to J. C. Anderson, 2001 West Superior street, and W. S. Aldrich, 2030 West Superior street.

POULTRY ENTRIES WILL BE CLOSED

More Than 700 Birds Are Listed for Show at Armory.

With more than 700 birds from Minnesota, Michigan, Wisconsin, the Dakotas and Iowa entered, lists for the exhibit planned by the Duluth Poultry association at the Armory, Feb. 2-6, will close tonight at 8 o'clock.

E. H. Cenkey, secretary of the organization, announced this morning that he would be in charge of the temporary rooms in the Nelson building, Superior street, between Lake and First avenue east, to receive the last batch of entries.

Considerable interest is being taken by poultrymen in this show, and the secretary believes that entries received so far show an improvement over those for previous shows.

To Renew Complexion Without Cosmetics

If the excessive user of cosmetics only knew the impression her artificiality really makes upon others, she would quickly seek means of gaining a natural complexion. Let her acquire the mercolized wax habit, discarding make-ups entirely, and she will soon have the kind of complexion that women envy and men admire. It's so easy to get an ounce of mercolized wax at any drug store, use nightly like cold cream and wash it off mornings. And the results are so remarkable. Gradually the lifeless cuticle peels off, in almost invisible flaky particles. In a week or so there's a brand new complexion, clear, velvety-soft, of girlish color and texture. The treatment is so simple, harmless and marvelously effective, the wonder is that every woman whose skin is withered, discolored, rough, chapped, freckled or pimpled, has not already adopted it.

Let wrinkled women quit pastes and massage creams which mar the skin still more and try this more sensible treatment: Dissolve 1 oz. powdered saxolite in ½ pint witch hazel; use as a face bath. Every line will quickly disappear. —Advertisement.

HOW TO HEAL SKIN DISEASES

A Baltimore doctor suggests this simple, but reliable and inexpensive, home treatment for people suffering with eczema, ringworm, rashes and similar itching, burning skin troubles.

At any reliable druggist's get a jar of resinol ointment and a cake of resinol soap. These will not cost a bit more than seventy-five cents. With the resinol soap and warm water bathe the affected parts thoroughly, until they are free from crusts and the skin is softened. Dry very gently, spread on a thin layer of the resinol ointment, and cover with a light bandage—if necessary to protect the clothing. This should be done twice a day. Usually the distressing itching and burning stop with the first treatment, and the skin soon becomes clear and healthy again.

DEFECTIVE PAGE

D. H., 1-26-15.

THIS busy, progressive nation is today at the dawn of a new era of commercial and social development. The means by which the human voice, with its slightest inflections and indications of personality, can be carried across the continent instantly, have been provided. Talking by telephone from New York to San Francisco is now an accomplished fact.

The celebration of this latest and greatest triumph in the art of telephony has just taken place. Within a short time the public will have, ready for its use, the product of American brains, American initiative and American scientific and technical skill, a transcontinental telephone service, the equal of which is not even approached in all the other nations of the world.

It is a splendid scientific achievement of the very highest character. The power that sends the human voice out over the telephone is scarcely greater than that of a breath, yet the means have been provided by which this tiny, almost imaginary impulse, made up of as many as 2,000 separate vibrations a second, can be picked up by a delicate instrument, conserved over a distance of 3,400 miles, and reproduced perfectly and instantly across the continent. The human voice has been made to travel as fast as light, faster than sound unaided by technical apparatus; indeed, it rivals THOUGHT even, in the swiftness of its flight.

The imagination can but feebly grasp, much less attempt to measure, the far-reaching significance of such a tremendous accomplishment. One hundred million people will have for their daily use a system of communication that knows no East, no West, no North, no South. Dialects, provincialisms, sectional prejudices, must eventually yield to the closer union, the better understanding, the more intimate comradeship that the human voice establishes. The neighborliness of a whole nation is advanced by the brushing away of the physical restraints of centuries.

This contribution to the future happiness and prosperity of a more closely united people has not been brought about, however, by the overcoming of a few isolated, concrete difficulties. Its success has depended upon the exercise of the highest engineering and technical skill and the solution was found only in the cumulative effect of improvements great and small, in telephone, transmitter, line, cable, switchboard, and every other piece of apparatus or plant required in the transmission of speech.

In this work the experimental and research department of the Bell System of which this Company is a part, has been engaged ever since the telephone became a commercial possibility, less than 40 years ago. With no traditions to follow and no experience to guide, this department, which is now directed by a staff of over 550 engineers and scientists, including former professors, post graduate students, scientific investigators—the graduates of 140 universities—has created an entirely new art—the art of telephony, and has given to the people of this country a telephone service that has no equal.

It has required vast expenditures of money and immense concentration of effort, but these have been justified by results of immeasurable benefit to the public. The transcontinental telephone line, 3,400 miles long, joining the Atlantic and Pacific, is part of the Bell System of 21,000,000 miles of wire connecting 9,000,000 telephone stations, located everywhere throughout the United States. Composing this system are the American Telephone and Telegraph Company and Associated Companies and connecting companies, giving universal service to 100,000,000 people.

Truly, This is a Great Triumph of American Methods

DULUTH TELEPHONE COMPANY

LONGEST TALK HEARD HERE

Duluth "Cut In" on the First Transcontinental Conversation.

Famous "Come Here, Watson, I Want You," Is Repeated.

"Come here, Watson, I want you."

That was the first sentence ever spoken over a telephone.

It was spoken over a wire only 60 feet in length by Alexander Graham Bell, the inventor of the telephone, to his electrician, Thomas A. Watson, in Boston on June 2, 1875.

Yesterday the same words were spoken by the same man to the same man over a line 3,400 miles long, and were heard just about as clearly as on the first occasion.

The second utterance of the words that marked an epoch in human and business progress when they were first spoken over the 60-foot wire, were heard in Duluth yesterday. In preparation for the opening of the transcontinental telephone service, the Bell Telephone company, which installed the remarkable system, "cut in" several cities—as many as they could, for the opening of the line, and among them was Duluth.

Local Commercial Manager J. F. McKanna was on the wire at this end, and he heard the famous words spoken across the continent, words that were first uttered before he was born, listening to Mr. Bell's voice talking from New York, and Mr. Watson's reply from San Francisco.

With the uttering of the historical message, the "cut in" was "cut out" and business resumed as before.

"It was something worth while," said Mr. McKanna today. "It gives a fellow a sort of thrill to hear repeated famous words recalled from the long ago, and it really seemed a trifle uncanny. The words when first spoken were, figuratively speaking, a milestone in business progress and inventive genius. When spoken yesterday, they marked another milestone, for they opened the way to talk from sea to sea, a thing which thousands have believed impossible."

Developing from the 60-foot wire of June 2, 1875, America has now more than 21,000,000 miles of wire, uniting 9,000,000 telephones in 70,000 cities, towns and villages. All the rest of the world combined has less than 5,000,000 telephone miles of wire.

In 1876 the longest telephone line in the world was from Boston to Cambridge, two miles. In 1884 it was extended to New York, 235 miles. Chicago and New York were connected in 1895 and in 1911 New York could say "hello" to Denver. Improvement in equipment has kept pace with the extension of the service and that improvement is still going on.

The latter association has organized for the purpose of exploiting wild land in its own county, land belonging to the state. As the county contains but little of this land, it was believed advisable to take action to try to have it cleared and settled independent of the Northern Minnesota Development association. The meeting being held there is for the purpose of perfecting organization.

NOT INVOLVED IN CEMENT DECISION

Interstate Commerce Commission's Ruling Concerns Superior But Not Duluth.

Washington, Jan. 26.—Higher rates proposed by the Northern Pacific and Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway companies on mixed carloads of cement, lime, stucco, plaster, roofing pitch and salt from St. Paul, Minneapolis, Duluth, Superior, Wis., to points in North Dakota and Montana, were approved today by the interstate commerce commission.

G. Roy Hall, traffic commissioner of the Commercial club, said today that the decision mentioned in the dispatch concerns a protest made by a Superior concern and Duluth was not interested.

REGARDED AS MASTERPIECE

Governor Swamped With Requests From Other States for Efficiency Report.

Being Used in Universities as Textbook—Influencing Outside Legislation.

Word has been received here that Governor W. S. Hammond is being literally swamped with requests for copies of the report of the economy and efficiency commission, now before the legislature for action. C. P. Craig of Duluth was chairman of the commission, and, it is said, suggested the organization.

The demand has reached such proportions that the governor has had to recommend to the state legislature that an appropriation with which 5,000 copies can be printed for such distribution be authorized. The copies are going into the hands of governors of other states, political economists, teachers of political science in the various large universities, and legislators in other states, some of whom announced it as their intention to present the ideas embodied in the report to their own legislatures for adoption.

The report is now being used as a textbook in the University of Minnesota, and has been introduced into the University of Pennsylvania, the University of Kansas, the Iowa state university and the state universities of the two Dakotas. Demands are also coming from other Western state universities, and Dr. Lowell of Harvard has pronounced the plan as the most ideal proposed system for state government that has yet been advanced.

It is understood that the report is receiving the closest scrutiny among political economists, and that the chances are that it will be introduced in most of the Eastern colleges and universities as a textbook in political economy classes.

Governors Want It.

The governors who have asked for supplies are those of New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Oklahoma, Iowa, Connecticut and Kansas. As soon as possible they will be supplied.

A leading state senator of New York has written to ask for 350 copies of the report, declaring that it prescribes the best and most feasible system of government for a state that has yet been devised. He declares it as his intention to introduce a bill shaped after the Minnesota report, into the New York legislature, in the hope that at least portions of it will be adopted. Everywhere, in fact, it is said, the report is received with enthusiasm and expressions of admiration.

The reason that there is a shortage of copies of the report is that the commission which got the report up and worked out the system contained therein, served without pay, and had only a small amount of money to go on. All the reports they had printed were enough to go around among the members of the legislature and to be sent to the newspapers for purposes of public education.

SCOTS HONOR FAMOUS BARD

Burns' Birth Anniversary Brings 400 Fellow Countrymen Out.

Program and Dance at Spalding—MacPherran Is Orator.

It was a gathering of clansmen to celebrate the one hundred and fifty-sixth anniversary of the birth of Robbert Burns, Scotland's fondest memory. Clan Stewart, No. 50, Order of Scottish Clans, was host and more than 400 men, women and children gathered in the ballroom of the Spalding to listen to a program which had been arranged for the occasion and to participate in the dance which followed.

Burns' memory was toasted in song and story. The famous bard of the Scots was splendidly eulogized in the address of the evening which was delivered by E. W. MacPherran. The speaker paid a handsome tribute to all of the great names in Scotland's history, but spent most of his time painting a character sketch of the illustrious Burns. Among other things, he said:

"Since the beginning of time every nation has left the mark of its spirit upon the people of the world—added its part to the development of mankind. Every nation arises, develops, and fades away, and leaving its imprint upon the world and passes down the ringing grooves of time through the long hall of ages. What has been the Scottish nation's contribution to the world?

"Granted that the greatest of all gifts by any nation is that of its women—for kings themselves are but the gifts of women and they are also the mothers of those that cultivate our vineyards—what mark has Scotland made upon the page of history? She has written the record of her deeds of valor both at home and abroad in characters so bold and high that all the world may read them. Passing over those, who, in domestic strife throughout war-worn Scotland, have won the name of heroes; the annals of history are filled with the deeds and names of Scottish men upon the field of arms abroad.

"Men of science justly claim their share in Scottish glory. Napier, the inventor of logarithms, Lord Kelvin, the chemist of Glasgow university, McIntosh, the inventor of water proof fabric, Morrell MacKenzie, Abernethy and hosts of others crowd upon our memory. William Murray, Lord Mansfield, John and William Scott, Lords Eldon and Stowell, and Lords Erskine and Campbell have laid broad and deep the foundations of English law, which now and today form the fundamental body of the present laws of our country.

Scotland's Religious Imprint.

"The religious genius of Scotland has always been to the fore. It boasts John Knox, who feared no man, and Andrew Melville, who hesitated not to bolt the king himself; Alexander Campbell, who was the founder of the church of the Disciples or Campbellites, and Richard Cameron, who raised high at Sanquhar the banner of blue of the covenanted and suffering Scottish kirk only to perish thereafter in the skirmish at Ayrs-Moss, after having banded together the kirk that has brought both sorrow and salvation to countless thousands.

"Scotland has produced two of the most heroic evangelists that the world has ever known in the persons of Alexander McKay and David Livingstone, who carried the message of the Gospel down into the midst of darkest Africa, and there following the Great Example, yielded up their lives to the end that others might, knowing the Christ, attain unto salvation.

"English literature would be bare indeed, robbed of the illustrious names of Hume, Smollett, Byron, Robertson, Macauley, Campbell, Scott and hundreds of others of but slightly less note.

"Scottish music finds its way into all lands, and as a singular incident has outcropped in Norway in the person of one Grieg, whose grandfather Gregg, came from the Scottish Lowlands; and what song was it that was sung by the defenders of Lucknow upon the assurance of relief brought to them by the Scottish bagpipes? None other than the great love song of the world, "Annie Laurie," the song that in the days of youth floats through so many moonlit nights to the scarce closed casements of listening maidens; and whose echo in our maturer years brings to our throats the sob of regret at the thought of the fast running sand of our lives.

"The world might have been traveling even yet on horseback, propelling its water craft by sails, and reaping its grain with a cradle had it not been for Robbie Stephenson, Robert Fulton and Cyrus H. McCormick; and the telegraph would still have been supreme had it not been for the genius of Alexander Graham Bell.

"A. T. Stewart laid the foundation of mercantile enterprise in the United States; and whose genius built up the present day steel industry but that of Andrew Carnegie.

One Name Leads.

"But when all is done and said, when the long scroll of Scottish fame has been unrolled and the proud names read therefrom—those names which stand for Scotland and its people, whose name, like Abou ben Ahdem's, leads all the rest?

"Soldiers, governors, scientists, divines, authors, publicists, the whole grand galaxy of their achievements pale and fade away before him whose name is in the mouth of peasant and prince, whose fame reaches from the center of gravity to the foot of the Great White Throne, the illustrious name of Scotland's immortal peasant poet—Robert Burns.

"Much vain and belated criticism is often had of the life of Burns, from the standpoint of his personal faults and irregularities. What boots it with what frailities and errors his short sojourn on this earth was beset? To err is human and Burns was but a man.

"Let us spread then over the human frailties and foibles of Burns, the broad mantle of our personal charity, and look only at the permanent good of his life work and leave his errors interred with his bones.

"For the life of this man is not now significant to us, and even were it so, what one of us, as sinless, could cast the first stone? What lessons has he left on the page of literature for our instruction? For it is his thoughts alone which now remain and not his deeds! A sketch of his life could avail us but little in throwing light on the message he bore to the world, and our time is too short.

"Robert Burns was, as we all know, the oldest son of William and Agnes Burness, and was born on this, the 25th day of January, in the year of 1759. William Burns was a poor man, but one of serious mind, marked piety, and was a great reader and observer; and with the assistance of John Murdock, a most capable teacher, did his best for the education of his children. From these sources Robert Burns derived his education. The Scots peasant of those days lived hard, toiled incessantly and fed cheaply, and the farm on which they lived was one of the poorest in Ayrshire. Only by unremitting toil and strict economy did they make both ends meet.

"Burns lived in circumstances of unusual harshness and bitterness for a lad of his degree. That the father, a man of worth, should live amongst such surroundings is pathetic enough, but not so much so as Robert, for in that boy, was latent a world of appetites and forces and potentialities, the very reverse of stoical. Given an opportunity a reaction was inevitable, and a reaction did set in. Burns as a boy lived at Mount Oliphant, but after his father's death and he became a man, he moved to the farm at Mossgiel, where he took life as gallantly as he could; became marked for his dress, founded the far-famed Batchelor's club, joined the Masons, and as Rob Mossgiel, became almost as notorious as noted.

Lived the Life.

"Burns rejoiced in the opportunity afforded to live his life untrammeled, and his natural buoyance and exuberance having been made abnormal by a boyhood of singular hardship and oppression, it is not necessary and would be absurd to apologize for his attitude. Burns' whole life was full of toil, hardship, excesses, successes, domestic difficulties, grand achievements and disappointments.

"He was of the people, and never, while courted and flattered at Edinborough, and mingling with the greatest people of the kingdom, did he forget who or what he was, or lose touch with the people from whom he sprung. A man's a man for a' that, was aye his rede.

"Thus in his ghostly presence can we not fittingly entertain the sentiment oft times expressed by men whose fancy it has been, that those who have gone on before, and trod the many a weary mile up the hill of life, and having passed over the Great Divide into the echoing hereafter, there to pitch their tents in the Elysian Fields fast by the Oracles of God, do dwell in spiritual consciousness of those things which transpire here upon this old earth; that they rejoice with our gladness, and mourn with our sorrows, though ever conscious that in His own good time God will wipe away the tears from all faces and neither will there be sorrow any more. It is indeed a pleasing fancy, and who can say that it be not true? If it is true, and it suits us now to believe that it is, may we not hope that this, our annual gathering upon his natal day, and our renewed pledges of love, affection and fealty, may rise as a pleasing litany to the conscious spirit of Robert Burns."

The vocal program proved to be a hit. Mrs. Harry Faber White sang "O a' the Airts the Win' Can Blaw" and "Whistle and I'll Come tae Ye, My Lad," both Burns' songs. The other numbers sung were, "Doon th' Burn, Davie, Love" and "Burns and Scotland Yet," by J. G. Annand; "John Anderson, My Joe," by Miss Jessie McGhie; "Jessie, the Flower of Dunblane" and "Flow Gently, Sweet Afton," by J. R. Batchelor, and "Auld Lang Syne" by all.

Unanimously Scotch.

Miss Agnes Mae Johnson gave two appropriate readings, "Laddie" and "Robert Burns," both of which were well received. Robert Mowbray furnished several bagpipe selections, and just to keep the program unanimously Scotch, Miss Daisy Macaskill, Miss Mary Macaskill, James G. Elder and Robert Tulloch danced the well-known Scotch reel. La Brosse's orchestra rendered several lively Scottish airs.

Angus G. Macauley, chief of the clan, welcomed the clansmen and their friends who had gathered to pay their annual tribute to their beloved bard.

"I think that somewhere over on the other side of the water," he said, "our great singer is smiling tenderly tonight at the men and women all over the world, who are gathered together to sing the songs of Bonnie Scotland and manifest the love and devotion which his name calls forth."

Following the concert was a program of twenty dances through which there was a most generous sprinkling of Highland schottisches, Scotch reels, quadrilles, and old-fashioned two steps and waltzes. In fact one not dancing the old-time dances was out of date, for the Scots did nae attempt the maxixe, fox trot, or the many variations of the one-step and hesitations. Just before the program was over, some one induced the orchestra to play "I Want to Go Back to Michigan" in one-step time and the new dances had an inning.

Simon Clark Entertains.

During the evening, Simon Clark, a past royal chief of the order, was host at a supper party in the Flemish room of the Spalding at which covers were laid for 112. After the supper, a few Scottish songs were sung, after which all repaired to the ballroom.

The success of the affair was largely due to the work of the committees, which were composed of the following clansmen:

Reception—Past Chiefs Simon Clark, chairman; James D. McGhie, Alexander Anderson, Alex. Macrae, Alex. G. McKnight, John G. Ross and Robert Ferguson.

Floor—George McKenzie, chairman; George Clark, Jr., Henry Morrison, Andrew C. Dunn and Charles R. Atchison.

Cole law of 1905 except the limitation of 320 acres. Chapter 135 did not, however, make any reference to chapter 90, which re-enacted the Cole law in its entirety.

The Question at Issue.

The question is whether or not, though the Cole law of 1905 was unquestionably repealed by chapter 135 of the laws of 1911, except the limitation of 320 acres to each purchaser, the homestead requirements are not still in effect by virtue of the fact that chapter 90 of the laws of 1911 was not specifically repealed.

It has been assumed that these requirements were repealed and the state auditor's office has not insisted upon them. If Attorney General Lyndon A. Smith should hold that the failure to repeal chapter 90 of the laws of 1911 leaves these requirements still in effect, State Auditor Preus will insist that all purchasers of state land shall comply with them.

Mr. Preus' program as to the limitation of 320 acres to each purchaser clearly calls for new legislation, and this legislation Mr. Preus will ask the legislature for.

It appears that under the construction placed upon this law by the attorney general's office, in an opinion rendered March 13, 1912, the limitation has little meaning.

While no purchaser can buy more than 320 acres for himself, he can buy for as many others as he brings proxies for; and there is nothing to prevent his buying assignments from as many of these buyers as he can make deals with.

It is Mr. Preus' idea that the limitation ought to mean something; and to that end he will propose an amendment to the law prohibiting the purchase of state lands by proxy for others, and prohibiting the purchase of assignments of state land contracts by those who already own the legal limit of state land.

Moreover, if the attorney general holds that the improvement requirements of the Cole law have been repealed, he may urge the legislature to re-enact them.

The provision of the law covering this point is as follows:

"Not more than 320 acres of such land shall be sold or contracted to be sold to any one purchaser."

The intent of this law seems clear; yet under it land speculators buy a great deal of state land, and according to the interpretation made of it by the attorney general's office in 1912, there is nothing to stop them.

Views of Attorney General.

The attorney general's office was asked these questions, among others; and gave these answers:

"Question—Can a purchaser who has bought 320 acres for himself at a sale, act as the agent and purchase land for others at the same sale?

"Answer—It is my opinion that there is no legal objection to a person who has purchased 320 acres of land for himself, acting as an agent for others. Said Section 5 simply disqualifies such a person from purchasing more land for himself, but is not applicable when such a person acts as agent.

"Question—Does the law prohibit a person who has purchased 320 acres in his own name, from acquiring additional state land by taking assignments of certificates of land sold to other purchasers?

"Answer—This question is answered in the negative. The case of Gliem vs. Board of Commissioners, 19 Pac. (Ore.) 10, is in point. The statutes of Oregon limited the quantity of university land which one person could legally purchase to 320 acres. It appeared that one 'K' has purchased 320 acres of such land and later taken an assignment of 160 acres of such land from 'A,' and then applied to the state for a deed to the said 160 acres. The court held that 'A' was entitled to a deed and that the statute applied only to sales made by the state, and did not apply to purchases made by assignment of outstanding state land certificates."

What this means, literally, is that though the law prohibits any one person from acquiring more than 320 acres of state land, actually there is no limit to the amount he can acquire except his desire and his purse.

"A," a land speculator, appears at a state land sale. He buys 320 acres in his own name. Then he presents proxies for his sister, his aunt, his cousin, his uncle, his next friend and a few more, and buys for them 320 acres each. Next day he buys from each of these their land certificate, and as soon as he pays the price—and he has forty years in which to do that if he wishes to take the time—he is the owner of as many acres of state land as the total comes to.

In other words, the law is a farce.

Keep Land for Settlers.

Mr. Preus's idea is that the state should keep its land for settlers and that it should not allow land speculators to take a profit on it.

That seems to be a proposition to which no disinterested person could take exception; and yet, while in all probability a majority of the sentiment of Northern Minnesota will approve it, there is objection to it from some of the members from Northern Minnesota, and they have a case to state.

Koochiching county, for instance, is very largely composed of state land.

State land pays no taxes.

Therefore those who own the rest of the land have to shoulder the full burden of taxation, and they are anxious to get the state land out of the hands of the state and on the tax rolls where it will help shoulder the burden of state and local expenses.

It is very natural, not for this condition, sentiment in Northern Minnesota—outside the land speculators—would be unanimously for the state auditor's plan.

Certainly, so far as the interest of Northern Minnesota as a whole is concerned, it is better served by getting settlers than it is by having speculators get the land, even if they do pay taxes on it.

The speculator may pay taxes, but aside from that and from taking a profit on the deal, that's all he does do.

He does not reclaim land, any more than the state does; and he does not do more than the state does to foster settlement and development.

The question is, very largely, which is more important: to get the state's idle land on the tax rolls to help communities with a large proportion of their area owned by the state; or to get settlers that will live on and develop the land?

If the state, in adopting this policy, would provide some means to make its land holdings contribute to local development, as it has already done in the matter of school taxes by taxing state land 5 cents an acre to help the local schools, there would be utterly no objection to the Preus program.

House Efficiency Committee.

The house special committee on efficiency and economy, Lewis C. Spooner chairman, got organized and under way at a meeting held yesterday afternoon.

The first step was to empower the chairman to arrange for a meeting between this committee and the commission on efficiency and economy, of which Charles P. Craig of Duluth is chairman, to discuss the procedure that shall be adopted in considering the bill which the commission has proposed.

This meeting will be arranged at the earliest possible date. Chairman Spooner of the house committee agreed to get into communication with Chairman Craig of the efficiency commission at once; and in all probability the joint meeting will be held as soon as Chairman Craig can summon the members of his commission to St. Paul.

The result of this meeting will doubtless be an arrangement whereby the efficiency commission, or such members of it as may be delegated for that purpose, will appear before the house committee to explain the bill in detail, to tell the processes involved in arriving at its conclusions, to answer any questions that may be asked, and generally to help the house committee to an understanding of what has been done and what is proposed to be done by the bill now before the committee.

It is understood that Chairman F. A. Duxbury of the senate committee on civil administration, which will have charge of the bill in the senate when it is introduced there, will arrange with Chairman Spooner of the house committee to act jointly with that committee on the hearings.

The committee selected George N. Akerson of Minneapolis as its secretary, and delegated to Chairman Spooner the selection of a stenographer who can take testimony and render transcripts, and who will do it at a reasonable price. Several names are now under consideration.

Representative Charles L. Sawyer of Minneapolis, chairman of the house committee on public accounts and expenditures, said he would urge upon his committee that it co-operate with the Spooner committee in every possible way, in the making of investigations, looking up points, or in any other manner suggested.

Elwell Law Hearing.

There will be a public meeting on the A. V. Anderson bill proposing the repeal of the Elwell road law before the house committee on roads and bridges in the house chamber on the afternoon of Tuesday, Feb. 2. Everybody interested in the repeal or retention of the Elwell law is invited to be present. There are many interested, for as the bill for repeal stands now, it would nullify contracts already entered into under the Elwell law.

* * *

The house committee on cities yesterday afternoon considered the bill by Representative Novak of St. Paul requiring that buildings in process of construction shall be floored up as they are built, for the protection of workers, and prohibiting outside hoisting of materials on buildings more than five stories in height. Members of the committee believing that this latter provision should apply to all buildings, the bill was referred back to the althor to bill was referred back to the author to prepare an amendment to that effect. Experts will be asked to appear before the committee at its next meeting to tell what they think of the measnre.

* * *

The chairman of the various house committees met yesterday afternoon to consider making a schedule of committee meetings to provide regularity and to prevent overlapping, and left it to the committee on rules to make such a schedule.

* * *

By failing to meet yesterday the senate got a day behind the house. Today's is the fourteenth session day in the house, and the thirteenth day in the senate. "And nothing done yet," wail the new members, not so hardened to the leisurely beginning of a legislative session as those who have had former service.

DON'T WASH YOUR HAIR WITH SOAP

When you wash your hair, don't use soap. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is just plain mulsified cocoanut oil, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap, and beats soap or anything else all to pieces. You can get this at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.

Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff.—Advertisement.

Woman's Realm

John was smiling to himself as he drew up his chair to the dinner table.

"You're certainly going to look funny this spring," he said.

"What are you talking about?" demanded Friend Wife.

"You were funny enough looking when they were tight, and you had to do this stove pipe glide, but if what I saw this afternoon in the Superior street store windows, goes, you'll look like a Civil war melodrama heroine."

"I gather that you are talking about the new skirts," said Friend Wife.

"I am, dear, and you at least will appear charming in one of them. When I said 'you' I meant woman in general."

"John, are you sure your coffee is sweet enough?"

"Yes, but I want to tell you about one of them. There was a tan suit with a skirt with about twice as much goods in it as the one you have on and the belt of the coat was somewhere in the neighborhood of the upper floating rib and the pockets on the coat looked like those on my hunting coat."

"Well, I suppose you saw it but if I had not seen it I should not be able to tell a thing from your description. What you are trying to tell me about is a sand-colored covert suit made with a flare skirt and a jacket with a raised waist line and patch pockets on the peplum."

"That's just what I said," John agreed with a nod.

"Well, what else did you see? That's a good looking suit, but I should not spend long studying it."

"There was a white dress with a black apron over it, the apron had straps over the shoulder to hold it on."

"That is a perfectly stunning jumper gown of black serge worn with a white flannel waist. You know jumpers are going to be worn this spring and I just love them. The new suits are rather odd, they are so plain and look so old-fashioned, but no matter what they look like we'll have to wear them. The skirts will flare, be big at the bottom," she explained, seeing a dazed look on his face, and the waist line is 'going up.' When skirts were narrow they were long, now when they are so wide we could walk in them comfortably, regardless of length. They end well above the ankles."

"And oh, John, aren't the hats dears? No, not 'dear,' I said 'dears.' I'm sure they'll be cheaper than ever this season because most of them are very small. What did you say about size having nothing to do with prices? I don't believe it."

"Why are they making the hats out of silk?" he ventured to ask. "Has the war cut off the supply of straw?"

"Silk hats are the very latest. I saw one this afternoon that was too sweet for any use. It was turquois taffeta in a modified sailor shape with a wreath of French flowers around the crown."

"I didn't know the French women had time to make flowers now. What is the national flower of France? 'France has her lily,' he quoted, but no attention was paid to the interruption.

"Then there was a dear, sand-colored silk sailor in the same window. It, too, was trimmed with a wreath of flowers and attached to the hat was the most stunning veil. It was of large square mesh and chenille dots formed a square on the part that would go over the face. You know you must wear a veil to be in style and the veils are often edged with ribbon or have ribbon frilled around the edges. Have you noticed the veils some women are wearing? They may just miss the shoulders or may go to the waist line, the real waist line. And sometimes a ribbon is run in a casing at the top of the veil, and the ribbon loops hand off the hat."

"Why is that tan hat made of mosquito net, it wouldn't keep your head warm."

"I suppose you mean the sailor made of sand-color moline with a velvet band of a darker shade caught with a buckle in the front. Hats are not supposed to keep your head warm, they are intended for beauty. If you insist upon getting a large one, too, I can get that combination of silk and straw that has no trimming, but has a button-hole stitch of blue on the edge of the brim.

"Im so glad you like the new styles. I thought you would because you have such excellent taste. I don't like to spend much on freak fashions, but the coats and hats are so sensible this season that I think it would be wise for me to lay in a supply."

"I don't quite get you on all your speech, my dear, but what I started out to say was that you won't have to do this heel-to-toe shuffle along the street any more. The skirts are going to be looser, I take it."

"They are, John."

"Then there's no argument about it. I'm glad you women are regaining your modesty."

Skirts are looser.

Philathea Union Rally.

The Philathea class of Lakeside Presbyterian church received the banner for the largest attendance at the quarterly rally of the Duluth Philathea union held at the First Methodist church last evening.

The program opened with a short song service and roll call. Miss Edith L. Seese, international secretary of the "secret service" branch of the work, who was to have spoken last evening, was unable to attend the rally. Miss Geneva Dahl and Mrs. Judson Clark, who heard Miss Seese at the Minneapolis convention last fall, took her place on the program.

Miss Gertrude Ward and Miss Lena Ward sang "The Ninety and Nine" and Miss Lulu Grogan spoke on the extension work of the union. Miss Grogan said there are seventy-two chartered classes in Minnesota and some classes that are not chartered. According to the resolutions adopted at the Minnesota convention there must be 250 new Philathea classes by June, 1915.

NEW GRAND—Vaudeville and motion pictures.

AT THE GRAND.

Mlle. Nadje Headlines New Bill for First Half of Week.

Headed by Mlle. Nadje, well known as physical culture exponent, athlete and dancer, the bill which opened for the current week at the New Grand yesterday afternoon, is an unusually good one. Comedy, music and other ingredients in the vaudeville mixture, are found in this bill in profusion.

Mlle. Nadje proves herself an entertainer in various ways, her dancing, posing and feats of strength all being well staged and well received.

Plus with a capital "P" is provided by Arthur O. May and "Sunny" Kilduff in a 20-minute comedy skit, "The Limb of the Law." Clever musical numbers and original terpsichorean effects add to the strength of the playlet.

Bert Connolly sings several songs in a pleasing way, her repertoire being well chosen and much more effective than that of the usual singing comedienne.

Lovers of four-footed creatures will enjoy Woodford's animals. A carefully trained pony and monkey do some clever tricks, the monkey in particular showing unusual intelligence.

Photoplays covering nearly all varieties, also are included in the bill, so that every film devotee is sure to find a play that appeals to him.

Amusement Notes.

Scenically, "The Virginian" is the most elaborate production the Baldwin players have yet attempted. It is being played this week at the Lyceum to record-breaking attendance, and at every performance the stage settings receive applause from the audience. The first scene is merely a corral on a Western ranch house, and it offers no opportunities to the scenic artist. The second scene is the exterior of a Western ranch house, and the artist has had more opportunities to display his ability. The third scene, however, is where he has done his best work. It shows the camp of the cattle thieves by moonlight, and it is always greeted by applause from the audience when the curtain rises. The fourth scene is a street in a Western cattle town, and is true to life.

It is seldom that a stock company presents a play requiring four new sets of scenery, but the production of "The Virginian" this week is on the same elaborate scale in other lines. The cast has been augmented for the week's engagement, and with the high royalties, the large amount of new scenery and costumes, and the extra members of the cast, the expenses of the company have been greatly augmented, but this added expense is being offset by the interest shown by the Baldwin company's patrons. The company is making many new friends this week, and Manager Baldwin feels that the extra efforts put forth are well justified.

The rural merchant as he probably is in many cross-road communities is portrayed by Will M. Cressy in his own one-act play, "The Man Who Remembered," which is the headliner at the Orpheum this week.

Ploddingly prosperous, Mr. Cressy's merchant has the biggest store in the village, is proud to call himself the meanest man in New Hampshire, and has only one real wish in life. That is that he could be meaner. He is a woman hater, too, because some score and a half years ago—one hears the story with quavering violin accompaniment—the woman he loved ran away with his store clerk. The reader knows the rest of the story—at least the reader knows the daughter of the woman he loved must show up, and it does not matter that she appeared in the form of a traveling saleswoman, selling cradles. The sketch makes good comedy.

Mr. Cressy is almost as well known as an author as he is as an actor, having no less than 136 sketches to his credit, and on his present tour of the Orpheum circuit he carries two complete sets of scenery for two of his sketches, sometimes playing one act and probably the next week another one. He is to remain in San Francisco for five consecutive weeks, playing a different act each week.

"A Fool There Was," the greatest success of Robert Hilliard, a drama constructed upon the theme of Kipling's poem, "The Vampire," which has now become a film production, will be shown at the Rex today. Miss Theda Bara, the French actress, who plays the vampire woman, has made a close study of the character, and in her stage portrayal carries out her idea that the character of a person is shown by one's walk and mannerism.

"My idea has always been," said Miss Bara, "that the gestures and walk of a person must be influenced by their character. My idea of this woman is that she is pantherish in her every pose and action as well as in mind. Under the tuition of my friend, Miss Duncan, I think I have gained the effect I desired to obtain, that of a woman cruel and calculating, fascinating her victim, as a cat fascinates its prey, by her movements which, in a measure, reflect her nature."

"The Exploits of Elaine" will be seen at the Zelda theater today. Miss Pearl White, who played Pauline, is Elaine Dodge. But telling who Elaine is does not disclose what is going to happen to her. That supercriminal, the Clutching Hand, figures out these schemes so perfect and scientifically that one cannot help but admire him.

Craig Kennedy is hard put keeping up with him, but he fathoms the biggest mysteries with directness that is beyond human ken almost. Elaine, the fair, the beautiful, is carried through adventures that would kill most girls of her age, but she is so courageous and strong in her frail way that you will love her. "The Exploits of Elaine" are said to offer the most interesting motion picture series that has ever been shown on a screen.

OBSERVATIONS

By PEGGY PEABODY

Teachers Have Their Troubles.

Perhaps there is no other body of intellectual workers whose efforts are so little appreciated by the ordinary parents, who should in a common interest become their firm allies in making the future citizens honest, able men and women. But judging from what is not idle chat, quite a few fathers and mothers look upon a teacher's lot as easy; one made and supported through them and for this reason one that they feel they may impose upon even to the point that they instruct their children to defy those who have been chosen to guide their educational advancement.

When it comes to a difference of opinion between teacher and pupil, there are parents who always assume that the instructor is in the wrong. They aid and abet their sons and daughters in making the existence of the teacher unbearable by their brazen impudence and defiance of school etiquette and rules. Granted that such cases are not of ordinary occurrence, at the same time every teacher of experience has met with a few such and knows how almost hopeless the task of securing redress or respite is under the circumstances.

Unquestionably there are teachers who are not paragons of tactfulness and absolute fairness, but they are far too few to be considered an existing evil in the educational system of today. For example, a father and mother have four children. I would ask you to decide how many times in the course of a week these little folks are exasperating to the spanking point? Put yourself in the place of a teacher in our public schools with forty or fifty pupils in varying degrees of pliableness and natural inclination to study, and you may possibly gain an insight into what the wear and tear on a teacher's brain and body amounts to in the course of a year.

The long vacation and "only five hours a day" which some people lay so much stress upon, are not actualities. Like woman's work, a teacher's work is never done. That is the truth about all work that involves responsibility. While you may not be really engaged in it every hour of the twenty-four, it is never far from one's thoughts.

The pay accorded most teachers compares less favorably than that of the day laborer. But the laborer will undoubtedly agree that this is as it should be, for the teacher works but five hours while he toils away for eight or nine. Think of paying the teachers, who have the welfare of your children in hand, at the rate of an ignorant day laborer in the streets and reconcile the two if you can.

ELEVEN STATES NOW RECOGNIZE THE RIGHT OF WOMEN TO VOTE

Four million women will exercise the presidential franchise at the next election, according to reports issued by the Minnesota Woman Suffrage association. Eleven states now have full suffrage for women and Illinois with presidential suffrage, makes an even dozen states in the Union in which the woman may vote for the next president.

Montana and Nevada were added to the suffrage states this year; Arizona, Washington, Oregon, Kansas and California have recently enfranchised their women, and the older states where women vote are Colorado, Wyoming, Utah and Idaho. Minnesota is well organized for suffrage. The Minnesota Woman Suffrage association has branches in every part of the state. The Twin Cities have some of the largest suffrage clubs in the country. All organizations are uniting in the legislative campaign. Senator Ole Sageng will again introduce the suffrage bill in the senate. The legislature is showing a more analytical interest in the question than has ever been shown by that body. The state central suffrage committee has been in correspondence with every candidate for the legislature for months past and has on record their personal statements on the suffrage question. Petitions signed by thousands of men and women asking that the people be given an opportunity to vote on suffrage, are ready for presentation.

The state association calls attention to the significance of the topics treated in the latest books, most of which are on some phase of the woman question. The best writers of all countries are dealing with it. Minnesota libraries are being besieged for new literature on suffrage, a hopeful sign, say the leaders of the suffrage movement. "If the public want to read about suffrage it shows they are interested, and if they read about it they will realize its necessity," says Mrs. Andreas Ueland of Minneapolis, president of the Minnesota Woman Suffrage association.

PENNY LUNCHEONS ARE INTRODUCED INTO MINNEAPOLIS PUBLIC SCHOOLS

The first Minneapolis "penny luncheon" for school children was served yesterday at the Clay school. The Woman's club and the Parents' and Teachers' association were the experimenters and 300 children were the willing subjects. Club women worked as cooks, waitresses and cashiers and by noon were ready for the small army of heroes and heroines that flocked into the basement that had been converted into a dining room, ready to risk their lives for a cause that demanded only the consumption of creamed rice and raisins, bread and cocoa and a reduction in one's bank account of only 2 cents.

Places were arranged at six tables each seating twenty-six. The tables and benches were the work of members of the manual training classes. Food was cooked in utensils donated for the most part by Minneapolis merchants. At noon everything seemed to be in readiness when a financial panic seemed inevitable—no pennies had been provided for change and no hungry school child could be expected to say, "Keep the change." One of the boys was sent post haste for a supply of pennies and then the excitement began.

Form Two Lines.

The children were formed in two lines, boys in one and girls in the other. Each child paid 2 cents before being admitted into the dining room. In the excitement coins hid themselves in pockets and corners of handkerchiefs and were brought out only after nerve-wrecking searching. One youngster seemed on the point of losing out on his luncheon because his sister, who was also his financial guardian, was in the other line, but one of the women came to his rescue.

"These luncheons are an experiment, but we expect them to prove a success," said Mrs. V. C. Sherman, who played the part of head waitress. "A number of women have volunteered to be present each day at noon to assist. Enough promises have been received to take care of the luncheons for a month and by that time other volunteers will no doubt come forward. Although we are somewhat at a loss to determine precisely what the first meals are costing, we shall get everything so systematized that we shall soon know to a penny what is being spent. We shall see to it that the luncheons do not cost more than 2 cents, for the purpose is not to do charitable work by supplying meals at less than cost, but to furnish exactly the money's worth. Some pupils with heavy appetites may want to eat more than one luncheon, and I don't know that there will be any rule against it."

Supt. Frank Forsell said many of the pupils have been spending nickels and dimes rather foolishly for luncheons. "They have bought candy and cake and pickles and other articles that didn't agree with them," he said. "Others, whose fathers and mothers are working, have been going home at noon and preparing their own meals."

May Extend.

At present the experiment will be confined to the Clay school, but pupils of the Peabody and Jackson schools will be permitted to eat there if they choose. The school board has given permission for the serving of "penny luncheons" at the three schools, and later on the experiment may be carried on in the other two buildings.

The question of luncheons for school children has been taken up by the Woman's council of Duluth and six clubs have signified their willingness to take part in the undertaking, either by actual work or by financial assistance. A committee consisting of the presidents of the favorable clubs has been appointed to look into the matter. The subject will be brought before the board of education at the meeting on Feb. 5.

THE THIRD BIGGEST PORT.

That is an excellent showing made by Duluth in the marine records of the country for the last year—that in point of value of tonnage it is the third greatest seaport in the United States, only New York and Galveston ranking above it. And that, too, in spite of the fact that these others are active with shipping the year round while Duluth's port is closed for four months in every year.

It is an excellent showing, and we can all pat ourselves and each other on the back and say we are of some importance in the commerce of the country. But we mustn't stop there. We have work yet to do that ought to find us all the more ready in view of this position to which we have attained.

And this work is to keep making Duluth more and more of a business center, and to let outsiders know that it is a business center. We have the highest authority for the statement that a city set on a hill cannot be hid, but it is none the less true that no hill is so high that it can be seen from everywhere. So it is up to us to let people who can't see this hill know of its existence, and that it supports a city that in point of value of shipments is second to only two in the whole country.

Of course that mere fact of valuation isn't so much in itself. The big thing is what that fact stands for—that transportation from here is not only easy, but that it is becoming so recognized more and more.

What is the first thing a manufacturing concern needs after it has turned out its product? The means to get it to the world's markets. And no city is better qualified to furnish that means than Duluth. Did you ever think of it that way? Well, that is what this "third biggest port" means.

And when you are thinking of that, just remember that the manufacturer can have here ample power to run his factory—and couple that with the transportation feature.

And the site—don't forget that Duluth has the ideal location for big business concerns, with the lakes furnishing easy and cheap transportation to the East and the South and the railroads westward feeding a stretch of country that for possibilities and present prosperity has never been equalled. And all these things mean markets, and it is markets that commerce has to have.

So while we rejoice in Duluth's standing as the "third biggest port," let's not rest content with that fact in itself, but let's consider what the fact means, and get together to make that meaning clear to others who have yet to be enlightened.

One great inconvenience of the present war is that you can't even throw a brick in Europe without being likely to hit something historic.

THE WORK OF GUN-TOTERS.

If any community wants an object lesson in the fruits of gun-toting it can get one in Chicago. It has been maintained for years by thinking men that the gun-toter is a menace to the lives of others, and of no use to anybody. Here are the results of the habit among citizens of the Windy City, as shown by the records in the office of the coroner:

Year.	Deaths.	Year.	Deaths.
1905	135	1910	128
1906	109	1911	135
1907	119	1912	155
1908	117	1913	140
1909	107	1914	185

Of course every gun-toter in the city didn't commit murder in any one of those years; but every gun-toter in the city was equipped to commit murder if a provocation had arisen. And every gun-toter anywhere is equipped to commit murder.

It is a common practice for a judge before whom such a person is taken to impose a fine of five or ten dollars and let the man go. What does that fine amount to? Not a thing, as far as stopping the gun-toting is concerned. It only adds to the vindictiveness of the one fined, if anything, without being a sufficiently forcible lesson to have any effect.

What is needed is drastic punishment for gun-toting, and with the suppression of the practice the records in the coroners' offices will become correspondingly brighter.

It would at least be safe to have Taft at one end of the canal during the opening and Roosevelt at the other.

WE WANT SETTLERS.

State Auditor Preus has started something worth while with his movement to limit future sales of state land to bona fide settlers.

What Minnesota wants is settlers, not land speculators. She has had enough of that latter class of buyers, and knows by experience that land once delivered into such hands is as good as closed to development for many years.

What Mr. Preus proposes is only to put into operation a law which it has been claimed was repealed, but about the repeal of which there is some question owing to a re-enactment clause in a later statute which never has been repealed. In addition to this he would have inserted in the laws a provision that would prevent the farce of limiting the right of any individual to buy piecemeal from the state, but would leave the way open for the same man to buy in the same manner from other individuals to as great an extent as he might wish.

What Minnesota wants and needs is the development of her land, and that is something for which she must look to bona fide settlers. Therefore it is important that her lands go to such settlers instead of to speculators, and this movement of the state auditor is to bring about just that result.

The Koochiching county situation appears at present to be the only serious obstacle to the plan, since it would leave the people of that county with the present burden of taxation to bear while neighboring state-owned lands give them no help in that respect. But, as is pointed out in a Herald special from St. Paul, that difficulty could be remedied by applying to other state lands the same principle that is now applied to school lands, which are taxed 5 per cent to relieve neighboring settlers. Adoption of such a plan would remedy the Koochiching county trouble and leave the way clear for the adoption of Auditor Preus' plan.

If the old limitation on purchase of state lands has not been repealed, it should by all means be enforced, and if it has been repealed, it should be re-enacted, with provisions added in either case eliminating the possibility of juggling purchase certificates, and requiring specified actual improvements on the land within a reasonable time.

Senator Root in the role of a yellow jingo medicine man is novel enough to be interesting, at least.

A "FARM" FOR WOMEN.

Chief of Police Troyer, in his annual report, urges the establishment of a "farm" where women can be cared for as men are now cared for at the institution already in operation. The chief's plea is reasonable and there can be no question that it should be acted upon as soon as there are funds available for that purpose.

The operation of the work farm as compared with the jail system has proved its value, but it still remains to extend that work to include caring for women who come under the terms of the law. Assuredly any and all of the facts that demanded the supplanting of the jail system with the farm for men would apply with even greater force when the treatment of women prisoners is concerned.

Chief Troyer is to be congratulated on other features of his report. The record of suppression of crime and capture of criminals is excellent, and what the chief says regarding the discipline in the police force is ground for approval.

As to his request for additional men, that of course must rest on city finances, and it is possible that the commissioners could not see their way clear to spending any more money for the protection of the city by police patrol measures.

A Chicago woman has shot an alderman. Haven't the women accused of crime there been getting enough sympathy without this?

Is the Church Too "Live"?

Ohio State Journal: Here is the copy from an invitation to a church cabaret held New Year's Eve in Chicago:

> You may tango if you like. When you are tired with dancing you may sit at a round table and dip frappe out of a glass. A stringed orchestra will set the pulses throbbing.
>
> There will be girls and girls and more girls. Once in a while the orchestra will stop and somebody will sing. Then everybody will sing. The glasses with the frappe in them will clink together. The orchestra will play a two step, and the silk slippers will again trip over the waxed floor.

This is supposed to be started to keep the young people from going downtown and attending cabarets of a more demoralizing character. St. Chrysostom Episcopal church gave the fete. It is said the young people were properly chaperoned. A wise precaution, no doubt. Maybe such a religious function may do some good, but it does have an awfully strange sound to a "believer's ears."

Some church in Chicago is going to have a boxing match in connection with its moral influences. Let us hope this thing will stop before the game of poker is started to keep the youth from going downtown.

Improved Musical Taste.

Washington Star: "My taste in music is improving," said Mr. Cumrox.

"How do you know?" inquired his wife, haughtily.

"I am getting so I can enjoy the music of a hand organ whether it has a monkey with it or not."

Lodge Versus Wilson

(By Savoyard.)

Washington, Jan. 26.—(Special to The Herald.)—When you contemplate the remarkable "address" of the Hon. Henry Cabot Lodge on Mexico, delivered in the United States senate the other day, instinctively your mind reverts to this passage from the unspeakable Pecksniff: "But having discharged—I hope with tolerable firmness—the duty which I owed to society, I will now, my dear sir, if you will give me leave, retire to shed a few tears in the back garden, as an humble individual." Pecksniff had just rebuked that malevolent miscreant, Tom Pinch. The Hon. Lodge warns his countrymen against that miserable incompetent, Woodrow Wilson. I prefer Pecksniff—if not more natural, he discharges a duty with a better grace than the Hon. Lodge, and if not as copious, his flow of tears is just as salty as those of the Hon. Lodge.

It was when Taft was president that the wretched peons of Mexico rose in revolution against the tyrant Diaz, overthrew him and banished him from the country. The affair became theme for political discussion in the United States senate, and such statesmen as the Hon. Lodge and the Hon. Root were horrified, and denounced as something akin to treason any meddling with the question by such unregenerate Democrats as "Gum Shoe Bill" Stone of Missouri.

* * *

But now the boot is on the other leg. A Democrat is president and the Hon. Lodge inflicts on the senate a stump speech savagely criticizing that gentleman's policy touching the revolution in Mexico. Mr. Lodge is very much distressed because there is disorder in that unhappy land and he seems to lay it on the Democratic president, who is no more responsible for conditions across the Rio Grande than he is for the situation in Europe.

All the Republicans, so far as I know, hold that had Wilson recognized Huerta, things would have been composed in Mexico; but that is pure assumption, and very foolish assumption at that. Diaz was a much stronger, a much abler, a much better man than Huerta. Diaz was recognized by all the world, including the United States, but that did not save him. Fate, time, circumstance—what you will—enkindled the fires on the altars of Liberty in poor old Mexico and it sounded the knell of peonage in that land. That is all that is the matter down there—slavery has to go—and to think that a senator in the American congress from Massachusetts, successor of Charles Sumner in that body, should give aid and comfort to the slave-drivers of Mexico, ought to bring a broad grin on the face of the town clock in Boston!

* * *

The Hon. Lodge is fond of history. Has he ever heard of a land that got liberty except by the processes now employed in Mexico? Liberty as well as despotism is the child of the sword. Holland was eighty years of nearly constant war getting her liberty. The scenes in Mexico are tame compared with the Terror in France. If there ever was a man in Switzerland of the name of Tell, who did the deeds that are told of Tell, that hero was cast precisely in the mold that Villa came from.

Lodge speaks with horror of Villa. So do all the other Republican statesmen who advocate peonage in Mexico. Admit the exaggerations and the lies that yellow newspapers and yellow statesmen have delivered themselves of about this man and he is no worse than Robert Bruce, hero of Scotland, who with his own dagger committed a brutal murder, the blood of his victim making crimson the altar of God.

* * *

But I'll give you a stronger case. Martin Schenk was a hero who helped to wrest from Spain the liberty of his country. All accounts agree that he was the most savage warrior of even that ruthless age. He loved to shed blood. He sacked cities. He spared neither age, nor sex, nor condition. He was called the man who never smiled. The torch was one of his instruments of war—this man is a hero in the story of Holland, and there is not a senator in our congress who would not leap with pride at the discovery that he is a direct lineal descendant of Martin Schenk, the monster.

Compared with Schenk, Villa is a lamb, a dove, and ages yet to be a free and prosperous people in the constitutional republic of Mexico will look on Villa as the Englishman on Hampden, as the Scotchman on Bruce, as the Italian on Garibaldi, as the American on Washington.

* * *

Whenever and wherever Liberty has a task to do a strong man springs up for the job. There never was a mute, inglorious Milton, nor a Cromwell guiltless of his country's blood. When a hero is born his task will be provided, and Villa's task is to destroy peonage in his native land at the point of the bayonet.

All the Republican opponents of Mr. Wilson say that he made a great mistake in not recognizing Huerta, and Lodge in his stump speech in the senate lays it on personal hostility to Huerta entertained by our president, a blunder on the part of the Massachusetts statesman as malevolent if not as absurd as the declaration of the voiceful William Alden Smith that Wilson withdrew our troops from Vera Cruz because Carranza ordered him to do it.

* * *

Suppose Wilson had recognized Huerta and the latter had re-established peonage as it existed all the years under Diaz. Suppose Huerta had crushed the rebellion, hanged Villa, as he had murdered Madero, and "peace" had resulted? It would have been the order that reigned at Warsaw. Another revolution would have followed, and another, till peonage got its deathblow.

I can see why the statesmen of New England, when our Constitution was made, forced into that instrument section 9, article I, that perpetuated the African slave trade until the year 1808, but I am at a loss to discover the decency in a speech of a New England senator of our day advocating peonage in Mexico—except on the theory that Lodge does not care the devil's bringing about Mexico or the Mexicans. Wilson is the man he is after.

Child Needn't Have Diseases.

Philadelphia Ledger: Good doctors now say that it is not necessary for children to have measles, mumps, chicken pox and whooping cough. Our grandmothers would have pronounced such medical doctrines as the rankest heresy.

I talked with one of Philadelphia's most eminent physicians about this thing. "No more reason," said he, "why a child should be subjected to measles than you should be forced to risk the hazard of typhoid or pneumonia. They don't do the child any good, and they don't even make him immune from having them three or four times more. What's the use?"

I supposed that having certain diseases was considered as much a part of a child's career as having milk and warm clothing. So the times change.

Then this physician made a final remark which seems to sum up the whole trend of medical thought: "We are not now trying to cure diseases, but to prevent them."

The La Follette Idea

Editorial in the New York Times.

The result of the Wisconsin election is ample evidence that Wisconsin has had a sufficiency for the present of the Wisconsin idea. Senator La Follette wants the United States to have too much of it. He has moved the senate to annul the advance of rates granted to the railways by the interstate commerce commission on the ground that the commission exceeded its powers under the law. It is not to be supposed that the senate will pass the resolution, first, because the senate is not a judicial body, and will not assume to interpret the law for the supreme court, and, second, because the subject has been intrusted to the commission, and therefore is outside the action of congress except by the passage of another law. Yet the senator's resolution is interesting as showing the defect of regulation of the La Follette sort. So long as the regulation of rates was downward it was allowed to proceed, but at the first step toward regulation upward it is proposed to take power away from the body intrusted with it, and supposedly better informed about it now than congress itself. The rule of regulation is good only so long as it works one way, in the La Follette philosophy. The country—and the senate, presumably—thinks that it is a poor rule which does not work both ways, and in the interest of both the railways and the country.

In the words of the senator, the advance was granted "solely upon the grounds and for the reason that in the opinion of the commission the railways are in need of money." The senator would have been more nearly right if he had said that the advance was granted because the country needs railway facilities, and the commission saw that railways could not supply the need without money. The railways keep nothing for themselves. All the money the railways take in is paid out, either for labor, or supplies, or interest, or dividends. The railways retain nothing but a surplus, or a sort of financial flywheel, to keep the machine from stalling on a dead point such as occasionally comes.

The railways have no interests antagonistic to the country's. They are a part of the country. Their owners, employes and customers are a large part of the community. To fatten the railway's purse is only to enable them to spend freely. It is necessary to ask permission because the railways alone are not able to share the community's prosperity. Their rates and their costs are fixed in a manner not true of any other interest. Railway rates did not rise with other prices, although their costs did rise. The commission made a virtue of holding rates down, and now sees that it did more harm than good in refusing to allow rates to keep company with other prices. The commission has learned that there is an unwritten law superior to the statute under which it acts, and that the real power controlling rates is the power of investors to deprive the country of railway facilities if the regulation of rates is disapproved.

Senator La Follette has not learned this yet, and it is not worth while to teach him. Last May he inflicted upon the senate a thousand pages of inconsequential matter upon this subject, without influencing the opinion of a soul. It was said to be his swan song, and the Wisconsin election confirmed the relief promised by the approaching end of his term. His title to fame rests securely upon his thousand unread pages, and he is not entitled to a second monument.

The Seed Catalogue

Indianapolis News: So, here you are again, you disturber of dreams and domestic peace, you builder of false hopes and blower of soap bubbles, you delightful, fickle confidant, you seed catalogue. Yes, here you are with your same gay roses and overfed tomatoes, your rogues' gallery of peas and beans and corn and morning glories and columbines. It is like your assurance to come back with the same old stories of your magic seeds—little you know or care of last year's failures. You are content and proud because you are full of pretty pictures and elaborate promises.

If a picture of the eighteen lima beans and the scanty mess of peas which I really raised could be inserted in your pages, it might take you down a peg or two. If all the flowers that did not grow and all the weeds that did grow could be made into a book it would be big enough to make you look very small in comparison. Yes, I believed every word you said the first year. The second year I made allowances. This is the third year, and I have no confidence in you. That does not bother you, however. You display your charms undisturbed and know that you are irresistible. Of course I will have to take a look at you, just to see how very shameless you are, but you need not think that I am going to order anything.

I am going to fish or play golf this summer and not worry about your sickly beaus, or your thrifty, tough lettuce. Oh, it's asparagus you are showing me this year? I have never tried asparagus. Those are rather good looking strawberries, too. You say they are prolific bearers and easily grown and very sweet? That sounds good to me. There isn't much use raising peas and lettuce and beans, anyway—they are always cheap at the market. And everybody has tomatoes. Well, I might order a few asparagus and strawberry plants. They don't come in seed, anyway. It won't hurt to make a little list and have it ready.

Asparagus and strawberries will be fine, something really worth while. Fresh strawberries every morning for breakfast, I suppose. You say they bear all summer? I think I shall have a good big bed of them. And, while I am looking after them, I can just as well take care of a few flowers. I'll just order some four o'clocks and phlox and sweet peas and nasturtiums and poppies and so on and so on and so on.

Corrected Him.

Los Angeles Times: An old Scotchwoman who had made a great deal of money by selling whisky was visited when on her deathbed by her minister.

"And so, Molly," said the minister, "you tell me that you have all this money."

"Indeed, minister, I have," replied Molly.

"And you tell me, too," continued the minister, "that you made all this money by filling the noggin."

"Na, na, minister," said the dying woman, "I didn't tell ye that. I made the maist of it by not filling the noggin."

Statesmen, Real and Near

By Fred C. Kelly.

Washington, Jan. 26.—(Special to The Herald.)—Members of congress are in certain respects the most timid lot of people to be found anywhere in the known world. Many of them are afraid to wear a dress suit, or not to wear a dress suit, or a high hat, or to ride in an automobile, or to be natural, or to change their cuffs for fear that the voters at home might not understand the motive. Every congressman who wishes to keep his seat has a horror of the suspicion ever getting abroad back home that he is "stuck up." It is for this reason that the member who comes to Washington wearing a broad-brimmed felt hat, like a statesmen in a cartoon, is rather likely never to buy any other shape of hat. He would fear that some quiet observer in his district might think he had learned new ideas about dress from a bright young haberdasher's apprentice in the nation's capital and was coming to feel himself above the home folks.

The worst blow that ever befell the late Senator Jeff Davis of Arkansas was the day it got into the papers about him riding uptown in a taxicab. He issued a long statement which he sent to the Arkansas papers explaining or denying the departure from true democracy. I imagine that the report preyed on his mind and was a factor in hastening his death.

Then there are men who take pride in the fact that they never wear a dress suit. A certain far-famed senator used to stay away from the White House receptions rather than be seen in evening clothes, and he declared, so 'twas said, that he would never buy a dress suit or an automobile. But in time he departed from these convictions and bought each.

* * *

Now we come to this fact: Claude Kitchin of North Carolina, who is slated to succeed Oscar Underwood as floor leader of the house of representatives, hasn't any dress suit, and will not go to those places and functions where a dress suit is required.

But in the case of Kitchin his reason for having no dress suit is not based on any fear of what the people at home might think, or on any silly bid for the acclaim of the voters who do not care for evening clothes.

He has no dress suit for two reasons: Because he outgrew the one he had, and because he has never felt the need of replacing the one he outgrew.

When he was elected to congress some sixteen years ago Kitchin went to the best tailor in Scotland Neck, N. C., and ordered a first-class full dress layout. Instead of going on the stump to declare that he would act and behave in Washington exactly as he did at home he was free to say that he would attend the big receptions at the White House and other formal social gatherings attired in the conventional fashion the same as anybody else.

He went to a White House reception soon after his arrival here and there was a particularly large number of guests present. Several able-bodied persons stepped on Claude's feet and he was jostled around by large tiaraed dowagers. Claude did not have a bit of a good time.

The next time he had occasion to get into his dress suit Kitchin discovered that he couldn't. He had gained about twenty pounds. His wife told him he would have to get a new suit. Claude's mind reverted to the last time he had worn evening clothes and the ruthless manner in which comparative strangers had walked on his feet.

"Why?" he asked. "Why should I spend my money for garments to wear to places that bore the very life out of me? I don't like to go to fashionable gatherings. So long as I have no dress suit I am protected against going to such places."

And he has never replaced the dress suit he outgrew.

What, you ask, does Kitchin do to put in the long winter evenings, if he avoids tango parties, receptions, and the like?

The answer is that he is a movie fan. He attends a film show nearly every night in the week. He goes about on the floor of the house asking one congenial spirit after another to join him that night in witnessing a movie drayma. If none will accompany him he goes himself.

But it would be difficult to drag him into a regular theater.

Teachers

Washington Gladden in the Atlantic Monthly: A considerable acquaintance with teachers impresses me with the belief that the feeling of their responsibility for the moral welfare of their pupils, and their appreciation of the values of character are steadily deepening among them. No profession is so sacred that shallow and self-seeking persons do not find a place in it; but I believe that as much seriousness and devotion may be found among the teachers of our common schools as among any other class of persons—the clergy not excepted.

The Mother Job.

It really isn't hard to be a mother,
There really isn't very much to do;
The days are just exactly like each other—
You simply shut your eyes and wander through!

For 6 o'clock is time enough for rising,
And getting all the children washed and dressed,
And breakfast cooked—it really is surprising,
But mothers never seem to need a rest!

The lunches must be packed and jackets rounded,
And everybody soothed and sent to school.
To say that mother rushes is unfounded—
She's nothing more to manage, as a rule,

Unless it is to finish piles of sewing,
And cook and wash and iron and scrub and sweep,
To order food and keep the furnace going—
And then perhaps to hide herself and weep!

And when at last she's tucked them under covers,
And seen to doors that Dad's forgot to lock,
Triumphantly, at midnight, she discovers,
She's nothing more to do till 6 o'clock.

First Non-Partisan State Legislature

Suggestions and Comments From the State Press.

His Bill a Good One.

Greenbush Tribune: Representative Marschalk has in the making a bill for the purpose of creating "reclamation districts" and to authorize those districts to issue bonds for reclamation purposes. It is proposed to have the state clear a portion of each tract of state land offered for sale. The idea is a good one and we hope Mr. Marschalk will be successful in getting his bill passed.

Most Unkind!

Baudette Region: The Republican party in Minnesota is going to have a new platform. There are enough wooden heads in the party to build a half dozen platforms. They should be dropped for the good of the party.

Of Course Not!

Fairmont Sentinel: Our advice to the reform boys in the legislature is to keep hands off the primary election and non-partisan laws. Honest voters do not want to go back to the coarse and brutal boss system.

It Might Be Wiser.

Fergus Falls Journal: Representative Bendixen, who at the last session of the legislature innocently secured the passage of a law which permits the railways to charge 3 cents per mile for the first five miles of each trip, is preparing a bill to amend the law and wipe out this provision. It might be wiser for someone else to draw the bill.

Test Is at Hand.

Winona Leader: It remains to be seen whether or not the non-partisan legislature will produce non-partisan measures or not. The crucial test is at hand.

Have Elections Nearer Together.

Tower News: The June primary election is up for fixing in the legislature. Something should be done with it. It is too far between drinks from primary to general election. Practically candidates must cover the field twice. This is quite an expensive hardship and is unnecessary. In St. Louis county it means miles of useless travel with its consequent expense. The agony is too long drawn out. The newspapers have long since threshed out the pros and cons and the result is that election day is forgotten or is lacking in interest. Put the two closer together and have it over at one full swoop.

Different Crowd Necessary.

Warren Register: That recent Republican "get-together" meeting held in St. Paul is being treated by most of the newspapers as a huge joke. Some of the men named by it as vice presidents and executive committeemen attended it merely out of curiosity and have refused to have anything to do with it. If the Republican party of this state is to be "rehabilitated," the job will have to be put through by a different bunch. Dar Reese, Dar Hall, Frank Eddy, Charley Schurman, Joe Cotton, Dan Gunn, Bill Nolan and that push can't do it.

Thinks Repeal Proper.

Hutchinson Leader: Representative Elmer E. Adams will introduce a bill in the present legislature to repeal the law which requires the inspection of weights and measures. It should be repealed as its only effect is to annoy merchants and business men of the state with useless fees which they have had to pay at frequent intervals to itinerant inspectors. There are too many lazy "inspectors" mooching around at the expense of the state or the public anyway.

Just a Moment

Daily Strength and Cheer.

Compiled by John G. Quinlan, the Sunshine Man.

Then shall ye call upon me, and ye shall go and pray unto me, and I will hearken unto you.—Jer. xxix, 12.

Blessed be the Lord God of Israel from everlasting, and to everlasting. Amen, and amen.—Ps. xli, 13.

Wherever thou art, thou hast near thee an altar and a sacrifice, for thou art thyself priest altar, and sacrifice. Our worship is not external, like that of the Jews. Wherever thou art, thou canst build an altar; it suffices that you shouldst feel deeply the want of God's help; even if thou canst not bend the knee, strike thy breast or raise thy hands towards heaven. A woman at her spindle can raise her soul to God, and cry with her heart to Him; a merchant at the market, or at the exchange, can examine himself, and pray with fervor. An artisan at his workshop can pray. God only requires that the heart should be warm and the desire honest.—Saint Chrysostom.

So let it be! The prayer that Christ enjoins
Live ever in our soul and on our tongue.
So let it be! The worship He assigns—
Our great Creator—with thanksgiving song,
From hearths in temples, yea, wild woods among.
Pour forth! So let it be! As drooping vines
Drink the reviving shower so sink into
Our hearts His precepts! Lo, one word enshrines
Full attestation of our faith! "Amen"
Includes the sum of our assent, and bears
The seal of truth; it is the wing of prayers
Speeding the voice of millions not in vain,
To God's high throne, borne on seraphic airs,
To ratify in heaven our glorious gain!

If Venice Were Bombarded.

Agnes Repplier in the Atlantic Monthly: Italy, for example, is the treasure house of the world. She is the guardian of the beauty she created, and to her shrine goes all mankind in pilgrimage. How long would her cathedrals, her palaces, her galleries survive assault? What would be left of Venice after a week's bombardment? What of Florence, or of Rome? Nor can Italy dare to hope for protection in neutrality—that neutrality which is in itself an offense. Attacked, she must either make craven terms for peace, or see the destruction of all that she and the world hold dear. And is there one of us who would not be a partner in her loss?

A Futile Experiment.

Boston Post: I read yesterday that the copper in a cent can be drawn out into 3,000 feet of wire; but that doesn't really help "make both ends meet."

THE OPEN COURT

(Readers of The Herald are invited to make free use of this column to express their ideas about the topics of general interest, but discussions of sectarian religious differences are barred. Letters must not exceed 200 words—the shorter the better. They must be written on one side of the paper only, and they must be accompanied in every case by the name and address of the writer though those need not be published. A signed letter is always more effective, however.)

SLOT MACHINES.

To the Editor of The Herald:

An observer asked the opinion of others concerning slot machines. I agree with him that all slot machines are gambling devices and are a nuisance. They rob the young men, but when the young men rob the machines they are sent to the reformatory or prison. Now can you tell me why?

They never arrest the man that runs the machine when a complaint is made. The man who runs the machine breaks the law every day and even on Sunday and is not punished. I agree also that the gum attachment is there for a sham. I would like to get permission to destroy every machine in existence.

THE HIGH SPOTS.

To the Editor of The Herald:

Please inform me, if you can, which is the highest building in the state of Minnesota? Some say the Alworth building on Superior street. I have heard others say the Pioneer Press in St. Paul and the Radisson hotel in Minneapolis. Also, can you inform me if John L. Sullivan, the ex-champion, is still living. There are some people who claim he is not. Please oblige

INCUBATORS.

To the Editor of The Herald:

Which is the better kind of incubator for a man inexperienced in the chicken raising business, the hot air or hot water kind? Respectfully,

ELY NICKOLOFF.

New Duluth, Jan. 23.

The Herald is informed by a reputable dealer that there is little difference in effectiveness. The hot air incubator, he says, will last somewhat longer, but one is about as simple to operate as the other, and there is little difference in the price. He recommended the hot air.—The Editor.

TEACHERS AND THEIR PROBLEMS

To the Editor of The Herald:

During the last four or five years, legislation and the educational heads have been going some on the teaching requirements. Raising the standard of education seems to be a popular theme whenever that question pops up. This has been going on so rapidly and so frequently that it keeps the teachers on pins as to what next. At the present time they must be pretty good lawyers, but without libraries; pretty good doctors, but without medicine; good carpenters, but without a house; excellent farmers, but without land; and faultless in the teaching of the three r's and then some. "And still they wondered, and still their wonders grew, that such small heads could carry all he knew." The editor of a newspaper is considered a pretty smart man for he must be able to answer many knotty queries, and, we must give it to him, he generally does; but he must take a back seat to a teacher that passes a state examination in all branches and get a certificate of some note with qualifications sufficient to teach for seven or eight or nine months in a year at $50 per month, out of which she must pay her board, room, clothing, necessities that the school board overlooked, etc., etc., and with what is left she can send to her friends, or donate it to charitable institutions, or start a bank.

Those in authority that are so eager to raise the standard of education are grabbing at the wrong end of the stick. The proper way is to raise the teachers' wages and the higher standard of education will take care of itself.

The cry is, the state must have more normal schools for we are running short of teachers—why nothing of the sort. We have too many normal schools now. Listen—trace the normal school graduates and teachers that hold state certificates and see what becomes of them in two or three years of teaching. Generally speaking, they cannot be found. Naturally sought some greener field in other lines. Among those are many born teachers and a priceless loss to education.

It is very unwise to see the state give thousands of dollars in apportionments every year to the school districts. Oh how much wiser would it be to give that sum to the teachers to tide them through the long summer vacations. This would keep the better grade of teachers longer in the profession and it would not be necessary for the county or state to build small normal schools in every county.

SUGGESTS ASSOCIATION OF PROPERTY OWNERS.

To the Editor of The Herald:

Would you give me a little space in your now valuable Open Court to ask Mr. or Mrs. and uninformed (of Jan. 22) to take another view of the tax question. Suppose you came to me and took a five-year lease on my house at $50 per month, and about this time the city council decided to build an electric light plant, which caused my taxes to increase about 75 per cent within two years. Would you still consider you paid my taxes? Remember your rent has not increased. You may answer no, but at the end of five years I would raise the rent to make up for it, and suppose I do and you move out. I hold the house at $60 per month for five or six months, and you come back and find the house still vacant and lease it again from me for $50 per month, would you still consider you paid my taxes? If you do why look at it this way. Suppose you go and buy an $800 or $1,000 lot in some suburb expecting to build on it soon. And after two years you find you are unable to build yet. Who has paid your taxes these two years—surely you—and in the third year a bunch of little units spring up around the city and you find your taxes increased about 75 per cent and the valuation only $800 or $1,000 at the end of five years. Don't you think you would feel pretty sure you were paying your own taxes? And the longer you held that lot the more sure you would be that you were paying your own taxes and that hundreds around you were doing the same. My dear friend, your horse is not a horse, but only a nightmare.

And about the time you start to build you will find your troubles have only just begun. And by the time you get finished I can hear you say: "Gentlemen, it is about time the property owners of this city were getting together and each throw in 25 or 50 cents on each $500 they represent and form a Property Owners' Protective association." We need protection from our water and light department and from the city hall, if from nothing else. You will find the water and light department has over-charged you. That the city has made you pay for something you did not want and did not get. It might only be $4 or $5 here or $5 or $6 there, not enough to fight for. But you would go on to say that the duty of this association would be to see that the water and light department and the city were run in a businesslike manner. And as soon as this can be done and not before, will we reach out for the Duluth-Edison electric plant and secure it in a businesslike way. You then will wind up your little speech and show your good sense by offering Mr. Van Bergen a lifelong job in the said plant's easy chair, jump in your new auto and off to your suburban lot which you have built on and paid double taxes for by this time. I remain respectfully,

W. T. CONNER.

POEMS ASKED FOR.

The Herald acknowledges with thanks the receipt of the following poems:

"A Bird in a Gilded Cage," from Mrs. E. Chaaner of Kelsey.

"Jim Blake," from Mrs. E. Taraldsen of West Duluth.

"College Oil Cans" and "Whistling in Heaven," from Mrs. E. Rogers of Clear Lake, Wis. Both of them are too long to publish, but if the correspondent who asked for them will send his address they will be forwarded.

"Papa's Letter," from Gertrude Haley of Duluth and E. H. of Duluth.

The Herald has had six requests for "The Flying Cloud," which was received, but which was too long to publish. Unfortunately they cannot all be granted.

Requests have been received for the following poems:

"The Two Orphans," "The Brooklyn Theater" and "The Baby Across the Way," from Mrs. Joseph Cuskey of Spooner, Wis.

A Bird in a Gilded Cage.

The ballroom was filled with fashion's throng,
It shone with a thousand lights,
And there was a woman who passed along
The fairest of all the sights.
A girl to her lover then softly sighed,
"There's riches at her command,"
"But she's married for wealth, not for love," he cried.
"Though she lives in a mansion grand."

Chorus.

"She's only a bird in a gilded cage,
A beautiful sight to see,
You may think she's happy and free from care,
She's not, tho' she seems to be,
'Tis sad when you think of her wasted life,
For youth cannot mate with age,
And her beauty was sold for an old man's gold,
She's a bird in a gilded cage."

I stood in a church-yard just at eve,
When sunset adorned the west,
And looked at the people come to grieve,
For loved ones now laid to rest,
A tall marble monument marked the grave,
Of one who'd been fashion's queen,
And I tho't she is happier here at rest,
Than to have people say when seen.

Jim Blake.

"Jim Blake your wife is dying,"
Came over the wires tonight,
'Twas brought late into the office
By a boy rent dead with fright,
He came rushing into the office,
His face was drawn and white,
Saying, "Take this to dad in the engine,
For mother is dying tonight."

Jim Blake was our oldest driver,
Had charge of the Midnight express,
Had handled the throttle-lever
The most of his life, I guess,
And when I found this message
Was for my comrade Jim,
I made no delay, but hastened away,
And took the message to him.

In less than half an hour
An answer came back from him,
"Tell wife I'll meet her at midnight,
Tell her to pray for Jim."
I left her son in the office,
The message I took to his wife,
I found the dying woman
With scarce a breath of life.

And when I entered her chamber,
She took me at first for Jim,
Then fell back nigh exhausted,
When she found it was not him,
She raised her eyes toward heaven,
Her face was wan and white,
And said in a dying whisper,
"God speed the express tonight."

O'er hill, o'er dale and mountain,
There rushes the midnight express,
Her whistling and her screeching,
Resisting the mightiest strain,
But Jim sits there at the lever
That's guiding her dangerous flight,
While a voice speaks out in the darkness,
"God speed the express tonight."

In less than half an hour,
The train will be along,
Hello, here comes the signal,
Stating there's something wrong,
It tells of a sad disaster,
The train is in the ditch,
The engineer lies dying,
Derailed by an open switch.
But still another message,
From the engineer, I guess,
"Tell wife I'll meet her in heaven,
Don't wait for the Midnight express."

Papa's Letter.

I was sitting in my study,
Writing letters, when I heard,
"Please, dear mama, Mary told me
Mama mustn't be 'isturbed."

"But I's tired of the kitty,
Want some ozzer fing to do!
Witing letters, is 'ou mama?
Tan't I wite a letter, too?"

"Not now, darling, mama's busy;
Run and play with kitty, now.
"No, no, mama, me write letter—
Tan if 'ou will show me how."

I would paint my darling's portrait
As his sweet eyes searched my face—
Hair of gold, and eyes of azure,
Form of childish, witching grace.

But the eager face was clouded
As I slowly shook my head,
Till I said, "I'll make a letter
Of you, darling boy instead."

So I parted back the tresses
From his forehead high and white
And a stamp in sport I pasted
'Mid its waves of golden light.

Then I said, "Now, little letter
Go away, and bear good news."
And I smiled as down the staircase
Clattered loud the little shoes.

Leaving me, the darling hurried
Down to Mary in his glee:
"Mama's witing lots of letters;
I's a letter, Mary—see "

No one heard the little prattler
As once more he climbed the stair,
Reached his little cap and tippet,
Standing on the entry chair.

No one heard the front door open,
No one saw the golden hair
As it floated o'er his shoulders
In the crisp October air.

Down the street the baby hastened
Till he reached the office door.
"I's a letter, Mr. Postman,
Is there room for any more?

Cause dis letter doin' to papa."
Papa lives with God 'ou know
Mama sent me for a letter,
Does 'ou fink 'at I tan go"

But the clerk in wonder answered,
"Not today my little man."
"Den I'll find anuzzer office,
'Cause I must go if I tan."

Fain the clerk would have detained him,
But the pleading face was gone,
And the little feet were hastening—
By the busy crowd swept on.

Suddenly the crowd was parted
People fled to left and right
As a pair of maddened horses
At the moment dashed in sight.

'Twas too late—a moment only
Stood the beauteous vision there,
Then the little form lay lifeless,
Covered o'er with golden hair.

Reverently they raised my darling
Brushed away the curls of gold.
Saw the stamp upon the forehead
Growing now so icy cold.
Not a mark the face disfigured,
Showing where the hoof had trod;
But the little life was ended—
"Papa's letter" was with God.

THIS MONTH we are selling Furniture for less money than any house we know of, and only twice a year is it possible for us to engineer such a sale. Every year the movement grows—every sale is bigger and as much better than previous ones as we can make it. Of course, low price inducements, unless coupled with reliability and sterling worth, are of little interest to the prudent buyer, but high-grade furniture priced on a bargain basis, such as we quote, is extremely gratifying. CLEARS INCOME TAX MISUNDERSTANDING.

The Northern National bank is giving out to its customers and friends a pamphlet that will be of incalculable value to those who are bothered with swollen incomes and who do not quite understand the income tax law and how it applies to their particular cases.

This pamphlet gives a series of practical questions and answers concerning the tax, and covers almost—if not the entire list—every point that business men will desire to know about. The answers to the questions avoid technicalities and are given clearly so that mix-ups from misunderstandings are most unlikely.

The pamphlet seems to fill a long-felt want and is likely to be welcomed by those who have been endeavoring by every manner of means to find out whether or not they come under the law, if they are exempt and, in general, what to do.

BAR LICENSE IS REVOKED

Metropole Proprietor Fails to Appear—Council Closes Saloon.

Will Continue to Operate the Hotel, Declares Weitzel.

The city commission yesterday afternoon revoked the saloon license of E. L. Weitzel, proprietor of the Metropole hotel, as a result of the charges made against him last week by Commissioner Hicken. Mr. Weitzel did not make any appearance in the council chamber and the resolution was passed without any comment.

At the meeting of the commission last Monday, Commissioner Hicken introduced a resolution ordering the temporary suspension of the saloon license and citing Mr. Weitzel to appear at the session yesterday and show cause why his license should not be revoked. The head of the public safety division made the charge that the hotel harbored an immoral woman and that Mr. Weitzel was not a proper man to hold a saloon license.

Mr. Weitzel denied the charges and declared he would fight the case to a finish. However, during the week he told Commissioner Hicken that he would not oppose any action of the commission and that no appearance would be made at yesterday's meeting.

The charges against Mr. Weitzel were based on affidavits obtained from Mrs. Irene Goodell and Arthur Palmquist, the former declaring that the manager knew of her relations with several men in the hotel, while the latter stated that he had arranged with an employe to go up to Mrs. Goodell's room.

Mr. Weitzel announced yesterday that he will continue to operate the hotel.

ARMORED VESSEL LOST IN NORTH SEA.

London, Jan. 26.—It was officially announced at the admiralty that the British armored merchant vessel Viknor had been lost off Ireland with all hands. The vessel, it was stated, either struck a mine or was wrecked in a storm.

The admiralty statement says:

"She has been missing for some days, and must be accepted as lost with all on board. The cause of her loss is uncertain, but as some bodies and wreckage have been washed ashore on the north coast of Ireland, it is presumed that during the recent bad weather she was either wrecked or, being carried out of her course, struck a mine in seas where the Germans are known to have laid them."

MORE COLD IN PROSPECT

The lowest temperature reached during the night was 12 deg. below, between 11 and 12 o'clock last night. At 7 o'clock this morning it was 8 deg. below.

Weather Forecaster Richardson gives no comforting assurance, for he says that the cold spell will not only continue for from thirty-six to forty-eight hours longer, but there will be colder weather tonight all over this part of the country, the mercury going to from 16 to 20 deg. below, and it will also be colder in Duluth tomorrow.

After that there may be some relief, but not sooner.

J. D. ROCKEFELLER, JR., ASKS "MOTHER" JONES TO PAY HIM A VISIT

he swore in 300 men as deputies and was told that the Colorado Fuel & Iron company would furnish them with arms and pay them?"

Mr. Rockefeller said that he knew nothing about that.

"As a citizen I say that anything which interferes with the operation of a democratic form of government should not be tolerated," Mr. Rockefeller added.

Would Protect Life.

If property and life were in danger in a remote part of the country, the witness said, protective measures, however deplorable should be taken. He assumed that the officials of the Colorado Fuel & Iron company had had in mind the protection of life and property when the deputies were sworn.

"I do know," he testified, "that if my home and property were in danger I would take any measures within my power to protect them. Emergencies are likely to arise."

Mr. Rockefeller said he had never heard that detectives were employed by the Colorado Fuel & Iron company to spy on the men. He did not believe that the rights of any man should be taken away from him.

"Suppose you found that the executives of the Colorado Fuel & Iron company had taken away the rights of the men?" he was asked.

"I would have to hear all sides," he replied. "If the directors determined that the executive officials were guilty, they would have to stand any action the board might take."

"What would you do to a corporation officer who admitted that he had used money and influence in an election?" Chairman Walsh asked.

"I would do my utmost to have him separated from the corporation," the witness replied. "I would not care to be associated in business with such a dishonest man."

The "Black List."

Commissioner Walsh asked Mr. Rockefeller whether he thought it legal and right for corporations to use 'a black list.' The witness said he believed a corporation might have its own list of "undesirables," but that he did not believe the list should be sent to other companies.

He testified that he favored collective bargaining on the part of the employes. The position of the worker would be much stronger under such conditions, the witness agreed. Workers employed by an unjust and unkind employer would be at a great disadvantage.

An organization of the employes of the Colorado Fuel & Iron company not affiliated with a national union would do what was necessary for their welfare, he thought.

The witness was asked whether he thought it proper for the Rockefeller foundation to dictate labor policies for the Colorado Fuel & Iron company. He replied he did not know what the idea of the question was, as the two organizations had no connection.

Letter By King.

Mr. Walsh read a letter signed by Mackenzie King, in which there was a statement to the effect that labor was going to be plentiful after the war and that consequently the question of recognition of the unions would be minimized. Mr. Rockefeller agreed that one of the principal causes for the dissention in Colorado was non-recognition of unions.

"The final consideration being labor supply?" asked Mr. Walsh.

Mr. Rockefeller said he did not know of any case where executives of the Colorado Fuel & Iron company had "repeatedly broken the laws of the state of Colorado." He said if the evidence was furnished and it was proved that an officer had knowledge that the laws were being broken and the officer himself had persistently broken them, he as a director would try to have the executive removed.

Workers Should Be Free.

Mr. Walsh read from Mr. Rockefeller's testimony before a congressional committee, a passage to the effect that he believed the workers should be free to do as they pleased.

"That statement has been misconstrued to be a declaration of war on unions," said the witness. "I did not mean that. I have always been in favor of organization."

Mr. Rockefeller described in detail the general plan suggested by Mackenzie King and transmitted by the witness himself to Mr. Welborn, the president of the Colorado Fuel & Iron company, under which the employes have been recently organized.

Mr. Welborn had at first suggested that "three safe men" could be picked by the company to represent the employes. Mr. King's plan provided for democratic representation on a committee to take up all questions with the owners of the company. Twenty-five men, elected by ballot the witness said, are on the committee now.

Mr. Rockefeller added that it was obvious the last named plan was the better. He thought the plan would "immensely improve the situation." He said he did not know whether he would accord the committee the right to affiliate with similar committees in Colorado.

On the sea the presence of submarines near the island of Ruegan, off the coast of Prussia in the Baltic, has caused the German mail boat to put back to Trellborg, Sweden, when only a few hours out on her regular run to Sassnitz.

Berlin now claims that in Sunday's naval fight in the North Sea the Germans sank two British torpedo boat destroyers as well as a British cruiser. The British admiralty continues to ignore these claims, but it has not as yet issued any report giving details of the part played in this action by the British light cruiser and destroyer squadrons.

May Take Wilhelmina's Cargo.

Washington, Jan. 26.—The order of the Federal council of Germany for the seizure of all stocks of corn, wheat and flour by Feb. 1 is construed by some of the officials here as likely to deprive the owners of the cargo of the American steamship Wilhelmina of the right they claim to land their food supplies in Germany.

The basis of their claim was the declaration that the grain was not intended for the German army or the German government, but for non-combatant individuals and therefore not subject to seizure according to the terms of The Hague convention.

HEAD OF UNITED STATES RECLAMATION SERVICE

ARTHUR P. DAVIS.

Arthur P. Davis has just succeeded F. H. Newell at the head of the reclamation service. The removal of Mr. Newell, who is known as the father of the reclamation service, has excited a great deal of criticism. There is no criticism of the choice of a successor, however, for Mr. Davis is one of the foremost American engineers and a worker with Mr. Newell in the reclamation service.

between San Francisco and New York by way of the Panama canal, the trip requiring about twenty days.

The Washingtonian is a new ship built in 1914 for trade between New York, Pacific ports and Honolulu by way of the Panama canal. She is registered at 4,046 tons and is 407.7 feet long. Maritime records show that she sailed from Honolulu Dec. 30 for New York and was last reported from Balboa on Jan. 17.

The schooner Elizabeth Palmer is registered at 3,015 tons gross, 2,446 net. She was built in 1903 at Bath, Me., and is 300 feet long. She carries a crew of seven men and is in command of Capt. Wallace. Maritime records show that she sailed from Portland, Me., Jan. 10 for Norfolk.

One Drowned.

Norfolk, Jan. 26.—A radiogram received at the Norfolk navy yard this morning stated that the Washingtonian had been rammed and sunk and that one person was drowned. It said thirty-eight persons were rescued by Lightship No. 72. The remainder of the Washingtonian's crew are believed to have been rescued by the Hamilton.

were damaged seriously. The British admiralty has added nothing to its original announcement that no British vessels were lost or seriously injured.

The German government's order for the confiscation of all supplies of wheat, corn and flour is regarded in England as a significant indication of the economic effects of the war upon Germany. It is said officially in Berlin, however, that the action of the government, assuring conservation of foodstuffs, will make certain a plentiful supply until the next harvest.

RUSSIAN REINFORCEMENTS.

Russia is pouring reinforcements into Bukowina, where she apparently has met with a reverse at the hands of the Austrian forces. Vienna assumes that Roumania will now hesitate to join Russia in the war and that danger of the invasion of Transylvania is over, at least for the immediate future. In Poland heavy fighting is under way once more and a degree of success for the Germans is admitted in Petrograd. Berlin hears that the Teutonic allies have occupied Kielce.

In the war with Turkey, also, Russia is encountering severe opposition. Although Petrograd announced that the resistance of the Turks in the Trans-Caucasus had been virtually broken, an official statement today says that the Turks are offering stubborn resistance, although the Russian offensive is making progress.

French Statement.

Paris, Jan. 26, 2:50 p. m.—Greatly increased activity along the western battle front is reported in the official French communication of today. The initiative rested with the Germans, who in some sections delivered as many as five successive attacks of great violence. It is said that all these assaults were met successfully, except in the region of Craonne, where the Germans succeeded in penetrating the trenches of the allies and holding some of the ground gained. Bombardment by the Germans of the Alsatian town of Senthelm, six miles southwest of Thann, indicates that they may have made some progress in this region also. The statement follows:

"On the Yser front Belgian troops have made progress in the vicinity of Pervyse.

"At daybreak yesterday the Germans, one battalion strong, delivered an attack against our trenches to the east of Ypres.

"This movement was arrested sharply. Three hundred dead, including the commandant of the company at the head of the German advance, were left on the field of battle. This attack was to have been supported by certain companies from the German second line, but these men, under the very exact fire of our artillery, found it impossible to come out from behind their shelters.

"Not far from La Bassee at Givenchy and Guinchy, the enemy delivered five attacks against the British line. After having made some slight progress, the Germans were repulsed and left on the field numerous dead and sixty prisoners, including two officers. This attack was accompanied by endeavors at diversion at several points of our front. Between the road from Bethune to La Bassee and Aix Noulette, a detachment of the enemy, which endeavored to come out from its trenches was at once stopped by the fire of our infantry and of our artillery. On the rest of the front between the Lys and the Oise yesterday saw artillery duels.

To the west of Craonne, the enemy delivered two successive attacks, each of great violence. The first was repulsed but the second penetrated our trenches. By an energetic counter attack, however, our troops succeeded in regaining almost all of the ground lost by them. At this point the fighting is still going on around that part of the trench which is occupied by the Germans.

"In Champagne the artillery of the enemy yesterday showed less activity than on preceding days, while our batteries delivered an effective fire against the German positions. In the Argonne, in the vicinity of St. Hubert, we checked with our artillery fire an attempt on the part of the Germans to deliver an attack.

"In Alsace the enemy was active in the employ of his mine throwers against our positions at Hartmann-Weilerkopf; at this point yesterday saw no fresh fighting. The Germans yesterday bombarded Thann, Lanbach and Sennheim."

German Statement.

Berlin, Jan. 26, by wireless to London, 3:26 p. m.—The German war office in its statement given out this afternoon says that two strong points of support in the possession of the English were captured by German troops yesterday in a general assault on the English positions near La Bassee. The text of the communication reads:

"In the western theater the enemy following his custom, placed Middelkerke and Westende (in Belgium) under fire yesterday. A large number of the inhabitants were killed or injured by this fire; they including the burgomaster of Middelkerke.

"Our losses yesterday were small. Our troops attacked the positions of the English on both sides of La Bassee canal. While the attack to the north of the canal between Givenchy and the canal did not lead to the capture of any English positions, on account of a strong flanking movement, an attack of the troops from Baden, to the south of the canal, met with complete success. In this region English positions extending for over a width of 1,100 meters (1,200 yards) were taken by storm and two strong points of support were captured. Three officers and 110 men were taken prisoners and one cannon and three machine guns were captured.

"The English attempted in vain, and with heavy losses, to recapture the positions.

"Battles successful for our troops took place on the heights of the Craonne to the southeast of Laon. All the attacks of the French in the southern part of the Argonne were repelled. More than fifty prisoners fell into our hands.

"In the eastern theater: The Russians attacked positions of our cavalry to the northeast of Gumbinnen (in East Prussia) without success. Fierce artillery duels took place on the remainder of the front in East Prussia.

"Less important engagements to the northeast of Wloclawek (on the lower Vistula, forty miles southeast of Thorn), were successful for us.

"Nothing of Importance has happened in Poland to the west of the Vistula river or to the east of the Pilica river."

Russian Statement.

Petrograd, Jan. 26.—The general staff of the army in the Caucasus has issued the following communication:

"Our offensive in the region of Trans-Choruk continues, despite the obstinate defensive on the part of the Turks.

"In the region of Olti some isolated fighting occurred with Turkish detachments.

"Along other sections of the front the usual cannonading continues."

KIELCE CAPTURED BY GERMAN FORCES

Germans and Austrians Take Possession of City in Russian Poland.

Berlin, Jan. 26, via London.—A dispatch received today from Cracow, Galicia, says that Austro-German forces have occupied Kielce, Russian Poland.

Kielce is the capital of the Russian province of that name and lies in Southern Poland, about fifty miles north of the border of the Austrian province of Galicia. In that region has occurred some of the heaviest fighting of the eastern campaign. Kielce has been a Russian base and is of considerable strategic value because of the fact that it is the most important railroad junction northeast of Cracow. Its capture, if effected, follows the initiation of the new offensive movement by the German and Austrian armies all along the eastern battle front.

GERMANS LAY MINES IN GULF OF BOTHNIA

Cruiser Friedrich Carl, Once Reported Sunk, Said to Have Been Seen.

London, Jan. 26.—The German armored cruiser Friedrich Carl, and a numerous group of torpedo boats were seen today off the Aland island, at the entrance to the gulf of Bothnia, steering south. Later they passed Gotland close to the shore. It is believed that they have again been active in the laying of mines in the gulf of Bothnia. All shipping in the gulf has now been stopped.

The foregoing dispatch, if correct, disproves a story from Petrograd over a month ago to the effect that the Friedrich Carl had been sunk in the Baltic during a naval sortie from one of the German bases. She is a cruiser of 8,858 tons and was launched in 1902.

Reclamation Revolving Fund.

The reclamation constitutional amendment, authorizing the creation of a reclamation revolving fund out of the permanent state funds, made its appearance in both houses this morning, being introduced in the senate by Senators McGarry of Walker and O'Neill of Thief River Falls, and in the house by Representatives Warner of Aitkin, Marschalk of Warroad, Miner of International Falls, Dare of Walker and Murphy of Aurora. This measure, which is one of the most important requests which Northern Minnesota makes of the legislature, is the same as Amendment No. 3, voted upon last November, except that it is broadened to include land clearing as well as road building and the building of fire-breaks. The revolving fund called for is $250,000, and it is provided that after the fund has served its purpose it shall revert to the permanent fund again.

The matter of electing a president pro tem of the senate probably will come up tomorrow. Those organizing the opposition to Senator George H. Sullivan of Stillwater met this morning and decided to present the name of Henry N. Benson of St. Peter instead of that of William S. Dwinnell of Minneapolis. While Senator Benson is popular, there seems no doubt of the election of Senator Sullivan.

A Message To Thin, Weak, Scrawny Folks

An Easy Way to Gain 10 to 30 lbs. of Solid, Healthy, Permanent Flesh

Thin, nervous, undeveloped men and women everywhere are heard to say, "I can't understand why I do not get fat. I eat plenty of good, nourishing food." The reason is just this: You cannot get fat, no matter how much you eat, unless your digestive organs assimilate the fat-making elements of your food instead of passing them out through the body as waste.

What is needed is a means of gently urging the assimilative functions of the stomach and intestines to absorb the oils and fats and hand them over to the blood, where they may reach the starved, shrunken, run-down tissues and build them up. The thin person's body is like a dry sponge—eager and hungry for the fatty materials of which it is being deprived by the failure of the alimentary canal to take them from the food. The best way to overcome this sinful waste of flesh building elements and to stop the leakage of fats is to use Sargol, the recently discovered regenerative force that is recommended so highly by physicians here and abroad. Take a little Sargol tablet with every meal and notice how quickly your cheeks fill out and rolls of firm, healthy flesh are deposited over your body, covering each bony angle and projecting point. Boyce Drug Store and other good druggists have Sargol, or can get it from their wholesaler, and will refund your money if you are not satisfied with the gain in weight it produces as stated on the guarantee in each package. It is inexpensive, easy to take and highly efficient.

Caution: While Sargol has produced remarkable results in overcoming nervous dyspepsia and general stomach troubles, it should not be taken unless you are willing to gain ten pounds or more, for it is a wonderful flesh-builder.

ADJOURNED FOR A WEEK

Recess Until Feb. 2 Is Taken By North Dakota Legislature.

Charges Against Management of Insane Hospital at Jamestown.

Bismarck, N. D., Jan. 26.—(Special to The Herald.)—Both branches of the legislature took a recess today until Tuesday, Feb. 2.

Senator Ellingson's bonding department bill, which passed the senate with only five dissenting votes, reached the house yesterday and was referred to committee. County, township and village bonds of officials are to be handled under this department. When a fund of $100,000 is created through profits of the department, that sum is to be pro rated between the counties from which it was paid, on the basis of the original payments. The expenses of the department are limited to $6,000 annually. Senator Ellingson claims that a new department is justified because of the lack of competition between bonding companies and the high rates charged to counties. He estimates an income of $74,820 yearly under the bill, and figures that the total net income in ten years, above expenses, would be $373,100. The county losses in the last ten years were $51,500.

Board of Control Changes.

John Knauf, C. S. Buck and O. J. Seiler, all of Jamestown, have asked an investigation of the management by the state board of control of the hospital for the insane at Jamestown. They charge that the board took no steps whatever to build a hospital for tuberculars, for which the legislature of 1913 appropriated $100,000; that this appropriation in fact has been misapplied; that the board misapplied funds designed to be used for the building of a receiving ward, a farm building and a hospital for sick insane patients; that having built a four-story hospital building, the board at the beginning of the present winter "drove the sick insane patients to the henhouse, an insanitary building, and to the twenty-five-year-old amusement hall, and appropriated the new hospital to the use of the superintendent and his official family of two, contrary to the legislative enactment."

The laws of North Dakota provide for a state architect at a salary of $1,500 a year, yet the Jamestown petitioners charge that the board of control in the biennial period just passed expended on such architect the sum of $10,500.

Other Charges Made.

Other specifications assert that the board has fraudulently compelled the counties of Grand Forks and Ward and others to pay a pro rata per capita allowance to the treasurer of the state hospital or the state treasurer for the maintenance of patients in such hospital long after such patients have been cured and while they have actually been in the employment of the state on salaries ranging from $15 a month up to $32.

The charge is also made that "the board of control and the superintendent of the state hospital have conspired together to misapply the old administration hall to the use of tubercular patients and the new sick insane hospital building for the use of the superintendent and his official family, so as to compel the present session of the legislature to appropriate a fund for a new administration hall."

Reply By the Board.

Members of the board deny the charges. They say they had authority from the state emergency board for every change made; that the board, consisting of Governor Hanna, Secretary of State Hall and State Auditor Jorgenson, passed resolutions which covered every operation. The charges cite, and the board of control admits, that instead of building a $100,000 tuberculosis ward, an old administration building was converted into a tuberculosis hospital at a cost of about $25,000, but the board contends this will be sufficient for the next fifty years.

Fifty thousand dollars of the fund saved by the board of control was converted to the fund for the construction of the main receiving ward, erected at a cost of $150,000. About $25,000 more was used for a farm building which had been authorized by the last legislature, but which the governor vetoed; $1,500 was used for the construction of a hennery, $1,500 for a modern hog building, while an old ward building was converted for the use of the superintendent and employes.

CONTINUE INQUIRY INTO GRAIN PRICES

Operations of Abandoned "Call Rule" on Wheat Prices Investigated.

Chicago, Jan. 26.—Further inquiry into the operation of the abandoned "call rule" and its effect on the prices of grain was continued today in the hearing before Federal Judge Landis in the government's anti-trust suit against the Chicago board of trade.

Charles A. Marcey, president of the Armour Grain company, and a director of the board, was to be recalled to the stand. Others expected to testify today were James A. Patten and Adolph J. Lichtstern, a broker. Marcey admitted at the hearing yesterday in response to questions that it was possible for a group of speculators to greatly affect the market. He said the Chicago board of trade is a dominating factor in fixing the grain prices in the United States.

The Federal attorneys are attempting to learn if speculation is in any way responsible for the advanced prices of wheat.

CHANGES PLEA TO "GUILTY"

Carl Dittman, Aged Settler, Admits He Killed Anton Kleimek.

Faces Term of One to Fifteen Years in State Prison.

On the eve of his trial for murder, Carl F. Dittman, aged Kenwood settler, withdrew his plea of not guilty to an indictment returned by the January grand jury charging him with responsibility for the death of Anton Kleimek, 22 years old, who was shot and killed in front of the Dittman cabin at Kenwood on the evening of Nov. 9 last. Dittman was indicted for murder in the second degree, but was permitted to plead guilty to a lesser offense, that of manslaughter in the second degree. Dittman is 66 years old.

The crime to which Dittman pleaded guilty is punishable by a penitentiary sentence ranging from one to fifteen years. He was brought to trial in Judge Fesler's division of the district court yesterday afternoon. The selection of a jury to try him was completed shortly before noon today. When court convened for the afternoon session, Kleimek's attorney announced that he would plead guilty. He will be brought before the court for sentence later.

Story of Shooting.

The shooting occurred at Dittman's cabin about one mile and a half from the Villa Scholastica on the Kenwood road and was the culmination of a quarrel during which Dittman ordered Kleimek to leave the shack. The younger man refused to get off the premises when ordered and Dittman shot him. He died a few hours later. Dittman is said to have been under the influence of liquor at the time.

According to the story told by Dittman, the young man, being aware that he had several dollars in his possession came to his shack while he was preparing his supper. He claims that he saw Kleimek peering in through the window. Detected in the act, Kleimek demanded to be allowed to enter the place, Dittman declares.

Dittman asserts that he threatened to kill him if he did not let him in. The older man locked the door and according to his story shouted a warning that he would shoot if the intruder did not leave the premises. Kleimek, according to Dittman, instead of desisting set his shoulder to the door and attempted to force his way in. At this point, the aged shacker declares that he grabbed his double-barreled shotgun and fired.

Finds Son Wounded.

The young man's father, attracted by the shooting, hurried to the scene and found his son mortally wounded. He dragged him a distance of 150 feet away from the cabin toward the road along a lane and then went for assistance. The police were notified in the meantime and immediately responded to the call. They found Dittman in his cabin. He made no attempt to escape.

Dittman claims that he had warned the young man not to come into his cabin unless accompanied by his father, who was friendly towards him. He declares that he feared the young man, who had followed him and closely watched him after learning that he had obtained possession of some money from work on road construction.

Dittman has been a shacker at Kenwood for the last three years. His wife died eleven years ago. He has four children, two sons and two daughters, living in Duluth. Anton Kleimek, the victim of the shooting, is survived by his parents and a brother and sister, all living at Kenwood.

When the police searched the cabin they found that Dittman had fired three shots through two doors. The shots bored through the cabin door and a storm door, wounding Kleimek in the stomach. The young man was alive when the police ambulance arrived on the scene but died shortly after he was placed on the operating table at St. Luke's hospital. Relatives of Kleimek deny the self-defense theory advanced by Dittman.

That the aged settler had been drinking heavily was evidenced by the finding of two empty whisky bottles on the table of his cabin. He was held by the police for the homicide and indicted by the January grand jury on a charge of murder in the second degree.

The jury which was selected to try the case this morning consisted of the following gentlemen: C. E. Melby, W. S. Pollock, Thomas R. Gleason, George A. Pearce, George W. Smith, J. A. Hampton, B. E. Lollis, D. A. Crosby, James P. Fontaine, E. J. Bardwell, Hugh Fallan and George E. Lundberg. John H. Norton, former county attorney, appeared in court as attorney for the defendant, and Warren E. Greene, county attorney, appeared for the prosecution.

TORPEDO HITS A GERMAN CRUISER

Gaselle Manages to Get Back to Port Badly Damaged.

Malmoe, Sweden, Jan. 26, via London.—It is persistently asserted here that the German protected cruiser Gaselle was torpedoed yesterday by a submarine of unknown nationality at a point in the Baltic near the island of Ruegen, which is off the coast of Prussia. Although the Gaselle was damaged, she was able to return to the port of Sassnitz.

The German cruiser Gaselle, a sister ship to the Niobe, has a displacement of 2,645 tons, a complement of 264 men and is 328 feet long. She was built by the Krupps in 1898, and her armament consists of ten 4.1-inch, fourteen 1-pounders, four machine guns and three torpedo tubes.

GRAINS HIGHEST IN MANY SEASONS

Biggest Rise in Price for July Wheat of 1915 Crop.

Chicago, Jan. 26.—All grains—corn, oats, rye and barley, as well as wheat—sold today at the highest prices in many years, at this session. The volume of trading in corn and oats was extremely large. Commission houses did most of the buying. Selling was chiefly by profit-taking longs.

Assertions were current that the 1915 crop of wheat, which is not yet out of the ground, was already being sold for export.

The biggest rise in price today was for July wheat, the first delivery of the 1915 crop. July wheat showed a jump of nearly 5 cents a bushel from quotations in the early trading this morning. The closing price of July was nervous at a gain of 4@4¼ cents, compared with last night. May wheat overtopped yesterday's highest war price and reached $1.46⅞.

DIFFICULT TO HOLD QUORUM IN HOUSE.

Washington, Jan. 26.—The house, which met early today to resume consideration of the big supply bill carrying $22,000,000 for the department of agriculture for the next fiscal year, still is undergoing difficulty in maintaining a quorum which both Democratic Leader Underwood and Republican Leader Mann have warned their colleagues is necessary constantly to avert an extra session of congress.

PURELY INFORMAL WAS DOCUMENT

British Official Bureau Explains Papers Found in Belgium.

London, Jan. 26.—The official information bureau this evening issued a statement as follows:

"The foreign office, replying officially to the interviews with Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg, the German imperial chancellor, admits the existence of the documents the Germans found in Brussels, but insists there were purely informal in case the British needed to defend Belgian neutrality. The Belgian marginal note upon the record explains that 'the entry of the English into Belgium would only take place after the violation of our neutrality by Germany.'"

The particular reference of the German chancellor to which the British foreign office replies in the foregoing dispatch, was published in this country the morning of Jan. 25, and was as follows:

"England ought really to cease harping on the theme of Belgian neutrality. Documents on the Anglo-Belgian military agreement which we have found in the meantime, show plainly enough how England regards this neutrality. We found in the archives of the Belgian foreign office documents which showed that England in 1911 was determined to throw troops into Belgium without the assent of the Belgian government if war had then broken out. In other words, to do exactly the same thing for which, with all the pathos of virtuous indignation, it now reproaches Germany."

SURE IT WOULD WORK OUT.

Philadelphia Telegraph: They were speaking about the foxiness of some esteemed citizens the other afternoon when Congressman Bryan F. Mahan of Connecticut smilingly recalled an incident along that line.

Some time ago, the congressman said, an abundantly built party weighing about a half ton, waddled up to a Pullman office and asked for a lower berth on the 5:10 train.

"I am very sorry," affably replied the agent, "but there isn't a lower left on that train."

"That's all right," was the easy rejoinder of the fat party. "Give me an upper, then."

"Pardon me," said the agent, with a surprised glance at the other, "but you would never be able to get into an upper."

"I won't have to," smiled the heavyweight. "When the party who has the lower sees me coming he will gladly exchange."

TOOK BELGRADE BUT FAILED TO HOLD IT

GEN. VON FRANK.

This is the "conqueror of Belgrade," Gen. Count Von Frank of the Austrian army. When he succeeded in capturing Belgrade, the emperor decorated him. But it was only a short time before the general was in disgrace, for he lost the capital of Servia and he was replaced in his command of the southern army of Austria-Hungary.

BARKING OF PET DOG SAVES HOTEL

Proprietor, Aroused By Canine, Puts Out Blaze in Basement.

Marinette, Wis., Jan. 26.—A little dog, a pet in the household of Hugh Bahlert, hotel man at Pound, this county, saved the hostelry from destruction by fire early today, and undoubtedly saved the lives of eight or ten guests who were sleeping in the hotel.

About 2 a. m. the dog came to his master's door and, refusing to be quieted from continual barking, finally forced his master to arise and investigate. Bahlert found the basement of the hotel in flames. With the help of employes and guests he managed to extinguish the fire, which had already attacked the joists of the first floor.

The fire started in boxes filled with waste paper near the furnace.

FATAL ALPINE MOUNTAIN ACCIDENTS.

Vice Consul General Frank Bohr, Zurich, Switzerland: According to local newspaper report, fatal Alpine mountain accidents during the year 1913 numbered 113, as compared with 119 in 1912 and 146 in 1911. The causes of the accidents were reported as follows: Avalanche, 11; lightning, 6; storm, fog and snow, 6; gathering flowers, 6; unintentional descent from a snow field, 3; intentional but unfortunate descent from a snow field, 3, slipping on the grass or sod, 3; struck by a stone, 3; slipping on a rock, 1; struck by a block of ice, 1; breaking down a snow wall, 1; breaking of a rope, 1; stepping on loose stone, 1, suicide because of loss of way and despair, 1; dizziness, 1; falling over a precipice while hunting, 1; insufficiently equipped and insufficiently experienced in the mountains, 9; no special definite cause given, 59; and disappeared, 1. Among the unfortunates, 112 were men, including 3 guides, and 6 were women.

PACKING THE TRUNK.

Philadelphia Gazette: Most people are afraid of crushing their clothes by packing them too tightly, yet this is the secret of successful packing. If they are allowed room to slide and slip, they will come forth wrinkled and mussed, whereas if they are firmly held in place in a trunk which is not too large for its contents, you will get far better results. A hostess shudders, too, on beholding the arrival of a mammoth trunk. It is very inconsiderate to incumber her with too much luggage, and this is a point to remember if you would be a welcome guest.

OVERDRAWING YOUR HEALTH ACCOUNT

By DR. SAMUEL G. DIXON, Commissioner of Health for Pennsylvania.

We are all more or less familiar with the strict rules of banks in regard to individual credit. We do not expect to be permitted to overdraw our accounts. But with our drafts on the Bank of Health the majority of us expect more liberal treatment. Over drafts, promises to pay, notes of hand we give with a prodigal spirit and growl mightily if called to account by Mother Nature for extravagance.

Every one begins life with a certain amount of capital in the way of health and resistance to disease. This varies in different individuals according to the physique which they have inherited from their parents plus or minus the conditions under which they developed in their youth. We start life as men and women with this variable amount to our credit. When it has been expended we are through.

Every dissipation and every illness which means the expenditure of physical energy withdraws just so much from your health account. It is common enough to hear people who have been ill speak of being "cured" but physicians are well aware that this is a relative term only. Every serious illness has its effect upon the system and even though we may feel no decided change, almost invariably there has been some diminution from normal.

It is the same with exhaustion from excesses, physical and mental strain. Subject yourself to these trials and after a period of rest you may recuperate. However, if you continue this recuperation will be slower and slower and eventually the over strained machinery will break down. For this reason it behooves every one to exercise reasonable caution and restraint in eating and the expenditure of physical and mental energy. Remember that the doctor cannot restore that which is already lost.

Expand your energies with discretion and keep the balance of your health account as much in your favor as possible, never exhausting it.

TRAIN WASN'T SPEEDFUL.

Philadelphia Telegraph: Smile flattered over the features of Dr. Lawrence Flick, of this city, the other evening when the conversation turned to the matter of sarcastic jolts. He said he was reminded of an incident that occurred along a western railroad.

One day a man boarded a train on the aforesaid road that didn't attune to his idea of speed. Slowly it rambled over the rails from town to town, and finally wheezed down to a full stop. Immediately the impatient passenger wanted to know the cause of the delay.

"Engine has got a thirst on," smilingly remarked the facetious conductor, "and they are giving it a swig of water."

"I see," thoughtfully returned the passenger. "Are you sure that they are giving it water?"

"Willing to bet on it," answered the conductor, promptly. "Why?"

"Nothing," was the joltful rejoinder of the passenger, "only I thought from the way we are traveling they might be giving it sloe gin."

BIG ROAD MEETING NOW BEING PLANNED

St. Louis County Club Working for Gathering to Improve Roads.

Hibbing, Minn., Jan. 26.—(Special to The Herald.)—One of the largest meetings ever held by the St. Louis County club to further road improvements and better market facilities for farmers, is being planned by officers of that organization. J. L. Lewis, secretary of the Hibbing Commercial club, left today for Virginia, where this evening officers and committee members will make definite arrangements for the meeting.

The St. Louis County club is composed of the officers of all the Commercial clubs and farmer organizations in the county. By getting all these clubs interested, it is believed that the beneficial results will be much further reaching.

"With the co-operation of all," Secretary Lewis said, "it will be possible to know just where and what improvements in the matter of good roads are most urgent. New ideas as to how to improve farming facilities here will be suggested by members and action taken to remedy the most outstanding problems. This club has considerable to do, but expects to do all of it."

BELIEVES GREECE WILL GET INTO WAR

Former Virginia Greek Writes Back That Men Are Being Armed.

Virginia, Minn., Jan. 26.—(Special to The Herald.)—James Pilsiabis, for four years employed here, who left last July for Greece, writes that nearly every available man in Greece is being trained to fight so that if that country is drawn into the world's war they will at least be prepared to defend themselves. Nearly every man has been provided with a uniform, dagger, gun and the equipment necessary to go to war, and military drills to train for the hardships of serving at the front are held regularly, though not interfering with the business of the nation.

Mr. Pilsiabis wrote from Kussan, Salonica, near Athens and sent the letter about Dec. 1, taking little longer than usual to reach Michael Ratsakis of this city.

Pilsiabis writes that while Greece had kept out of the war to date, it is expected that the country may be plunged into the conflict at any moment, as the people are especially bitter towards the Turks, who have mistreated many of their citizens.

MAYOR BOYLAN TO REFUTE CHARGES

Virginia Council Expected to Provide Chestnut Street Sewer Work.

Virginia, Minn., Jan. 26.—(Special to The Herald.)—Interest centers in the city council meeting to be held tonight as there may be an echo of the friction that developed at the last meeting when in discussing the question of building sewers in the alleys on Chestnut street to provide work for the unemployed Mayor Boylan and Alderman Harvey had a wordy exchange during which the lie was passed. The alderman intimated the mayor was not a friend of the laboring man since the executive had reduced Engineer Rosswell at the incinerating plant to a fireman. The mayor emphatically denied the charge and since has secured affidavits to back up his contention. These are to be read to the council tonight and unless there is an apology, there may be some more stirring incidents. The working men will probably wait on the council again tonight and urge that some steps be taken to provide work for the unemployed and relieve the tenseness of the local labor situation.

The school board proposed, when the community asked for school facilities, that a McCormick school, which is not being used owing to the pupils of that locality being transported to Grand Rapids, across the lake, for the new community. Somers & Timm asked the board to delay action in the way of providing a building until the community was older, when, they were sure, the community would require a more pretentious and commodious school building. They offered, in the meantime, to provide school room in their house, which is partly occupied by Mr. Bjork, for the present year. COLDER

With the clouds making a brave attempt to empty some more snow on the earth, and the thermometer at 5 deg. below zero at 8 o'clock this morning many people were kicking about the weather conditions, but the full-blooded were going along with collars down and scoffing at their thin-skinned fellows, and boasting that it was a fine morning. The clouds, of course, are detrimental to cheerfulness, but otherwise the day is not bad. Some snow fell during the night.

A year ago today was cold. The sun rose this morning at 7:40 and will set this afternoon at 5:01, giving nine hours and twenty-four minutes of sunlight.

Mr. Richardson makes the following comment on weather conditions:

"The temperature has moderated somewhat over Minnesota, Western Iowa, South Dakota and Southwestern states, but zero weather continues throughout the Northwest and the temperature has begun to fall again over Alberta. Prospects favor a continuation of more or less severe cold at the Head of the Lakes during the ensuing 36 to 48 hours. Snow fell during Monday or last night over the extreme Northwest, the Upper Mississippi valley and Northeastern districts, and snow or rain over the Plateau region and South Atlantic states."

WEST END

SWITCH A MENACE; MAY BE MOVED

Pupils of Ensign School Endangered By Traction Terminal.

At the meeting of the West End Hillside Improvement club to be held Friday evening at the Ensign school, Twenty-third avenue west and Tenth street, a formal request will be made of the street railway company to extend its terminal of the Piedmont avenue line from Twenty-third avenue and Tenth street to a block or two farther up the hill. The fatality which occurred there last week has prompted the members to take action.

The "Y" is used by the company in turning its cars in front of the school, and is said to be a constant menace to the children. The danger is said to be greatest during the noon hour, when children are running to or from school, as well as at recess, when they swarm the street. Employes of the company, although using the utmost care, are said to have narrowly missed striking children while running back and forth during the play hour.

With the removal of the switch from the vicinity of the school, this danger will be greatly lessened, claim both residents and teachers at the school. Members of the club will ask that the switch be moved to Twelfth street.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS ARE NOT INCLUDED

No Legal Remedy for Aitkin Colored Girl Discriminated Against.

Brainerd, Minn., Jan. 26.—(Special to The Herald.)—Holding Marry C. Marshall of Aitkin, a colored girl 16 years of age, remediless, in her suit brought against Rev. A. L. Richardson, J. M. Tucker, Frances Osterhout and Myrtle Tucker, wherein she charged she was discriminated against while attending Sunday school, claiming she was forced to either sit separate and apart from the white members of such school, or to leave it and the building, Judge W. S. McClenahan of the district court handed down a memorandum wherein he considers the Civil Rights statutes as they apply to Sunday schools or churches.

Judge McClenahan said: "I think it may be confidently stated that no legislative body has ever specifically included churches, religious societies or kindred institutions in the so-called Civil Rights acts. This is not surprising, in view of the peculiar nature of such bodies. For the legislature, or the courts to undertake to dictate how they shall conduct their internal affairs—the more intimate details of their organization—would meet with just resentment on the part of those so affected, and would be of doubtful legality on constitutional grounds.

"The places to which Civil Rights statutes have been specifically applied are public conveyances upon land and water, hotels, inns, taverns, restaurants, eating houses, chophouses, lunch counters, soda fountains, ice cream parlors, barber shops, saloons, bathhouses, theaters, music halls, places of business for which a license is required, public meetings, etc., such places being, almost without exception, places of business designed for profit and of a public, or quasi-public, character.

Places Not Sunday Schools.

"It needs no argument to demonstrate that public conveyances, theaters, hotels, barber shops, saloons and restaurants, the places specifically enumerated in the present Minnesota statute, are not places of the same kind or species as a Sunday school, so that, under the rule adopted in the Minnesota case of Rhone vs. Loomis, supra, the plaintiff is not within the statute.

"But for the ejusdem generis rule, a Sunday school might have been considered within the old statute as a place of instruction, but no such claim can be made under the present law, since places of instruction are not now within the act. It was not suggested on the argument of the order to show cause that a Sunday school is a place either of amusement, refreshment or entertainment, but it was contended that it is a place of accommodation. If true, this would avail the plaintiff nothing, since it could not seriously be claimed that a Sunday school is a place of accommodation of the same kind or species as public conveyances, theaters, hotels, barber shops, saloons, or restaurants, but waiving that, is it a place of accommodation in any sense? It seems clear to me that it is not."

STAR ISLAND HOTEL IS BEING ENLARGED.

Cass Lake, Minn., Jan. 26.—(Special to The Herald.)—Work was commenced today on the building of an addition to the large summer hotel on Star island. HAIR AND THE MARRIAGE MARKET

Too many men have been unpleasantly surprised to find that their wife's hair which they had so greatly admired was only a switch or transformation. We now know that poor hair is a confession of either laziness or lack of knowledge and that fair care with sensible means will insure scalp health and hair beauty. In washing the hair it is not advisable to use a makeshift, but always use a preparation made for shampooing only. You can enjoy the best that is known for about three cents a shampoo by getting a package of canthrox from your druggist; dissolve a teaspoonful in a cup of hot water and your shampoo is ready. After its use the hair dries rapidly with uniform color. Dandruff, excess oil and dirt are dissolved and entirely disappear. Your hair will be so fluffy that it will look much heavier than it is. Its lustre and softness will also delight you, while the stimulated scalp gains the health which insures hair growth. —Advertisement.

WHAT SCIATICA IS

There is something terrifying about the word sciatica. Yet sciatica is nothing but neuralgia of the sciatic nerve and neuralgia is an inflammation caused by lack of nourishment.

Application of dry heat as hot sand bags or flannel to the course of the inflamed nerve often quiets the pain but it does not feed the nerve. It is temporary relief, a good thing to know about, but not a remedy.

What causes the nerve starvation that results in neuralgia and sciatica and how may it be corrected?

The most common cause is a run-down physical system and a frequent exciting cause is exposure to cold. Thin blood is often at fault. It is through the blood that nerves get their nourishment. Mortal man knows of no other way of getting nourishment to a nerve. Therefore when the blood gets thin and fails to feed the nerves they show their resentment by becoming inflamed. Try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills at this stage and see how the inflammation subsides as the enriched blood carries to the starved nerves the elements they need.

THE GREATEST CATARRH DOCTOR IN THE WORLD

Medicated Air Kills the Germs of This Dangerous Disease.

Catarrh is a disease caused by a Catarrh Germ. The sore, inflamed membranes, the blowing, hawking, spitting, choking and other disagreeable symptoms are merely conditions brought about by these germs which have found lodgement in your nose and throat.

Its relief, of course, to find something that stops the discharge, for a while, opens up the air passages, lets you breathe easier and soothes the swollen, inflamed membranes. But such things do not drive out catarrh germs because they do not reach them and they do not cure catarrh.

There is, however, a preparation called Hyomei, made from pure oil of Eucalyptus combined with powerful germ destroying ingredients which does successfully treat and cure Catarrh to stay cured. You neither snuff it up your nose nor do you swallow it. You just breath its air through a little hard rubber inhaler which druggists furnish with it.

The penetrating germ killing air of Hyomei reaches where ointments, lotions, stomach medicine, etc., cannot possibly reach. Its odor is pleasant, refreshing and wholesome. You breathe great drafts of it far up in your nose, throat and lungs. Its air soothes and heals the inflamed passages, stops the nasty mucous discharge, promptly relieves the stuffed up feeling and makes breathing easy. It does this as well or better than anything you can use. But it does more. Its powerful penetrating air is positive, certain death to the catarrh germs themselves. It seeks them out wherever they are hiding and breeding in your system and destroys them utterly. When you have destroyed the germs you have destroyed the cause of catarrh and the disease leaves you. A complete Hyomei outfit includes both a bottle of the Hyomei liquid whose air you breathe and the rubber inhaler through which you breathe it. Be sure to ask the druggist from whom you buy for both as the inhaler is quite necessary. It is packed right in the box with the liquid. Boyce Drug Store and other druggists in this vicinity sell the Hyomei outfit this way on a positive guarantee of successful use or your money back. Hyomei is without doubt the greatest catarrh doctor in the world.

MAKES SELF NOVEL HERO

Absconding Fargoan Writes Book Along Lines of Own Experiences.

"Jumps" Bonds When Arrested in Kentucky and May Be in Mexico.

Fargo, N. D., Jan. 26.—(Special to The Herald.)—Writing a novel and using many of his own experiences in North Dakota for those of the hero, was a sideline in which A. M. Knight, alias F. G. Thomas, was engaged at Louisville prior to his recent arrest there on an embezzlement charge preferred by local people. He obtained freedom on bonds and "jumped" those paid is again at liberty. While awaiting the results of the efforts to recapture him, the Cass county officials found that Knight had been writing a book. He had the hero visiting North Dakota, leaving suddenly and going to a Kentucky city. While here his hero was engaged in promotions and investment enterprises and managing prizefighters and wrestlers, as was the case with Knight. There are many incidents written up in the book that correspond with the experiences of Knight while in this state.

Some believe that Knight is in the mountains of Kentucky, while others think he managed to reach the gulf and crossed to Mexico. As he had twelve hours' start from the time he secured his freedom until his absence was discovered, it would be an easy matter for him to get 300 or 400 miles away and to take methods at disguising himself.

Deserted Wife's Trials.

Mrs. Knight, whom he deserted here with two children and who a few weeks after became the mother of a third, is supporting herself and family by soliciting life insurance. Knight's cruel desertion of her at the time he did caused a great deal of indignation among the people, who are anxious that he shall receive punishment for his offense. It was thought at first that his present wife in Louisville was a former stenographer in Fargo with whom his name had been associated, but her identity is entirely different.

His companion, Joseph Alsheimer, and two other holdup men, all concerned in recent Madison robberies, have been rounded up and sent to prison.

FARGO MURDER MAY MAKE MOORHEAD DRY

Claimed Hendrickson Who Killed Wife Got Liquor Across River.

Fargo, N. D., Jan. 26.—(Special to The Herald.)—The killing of Mrs. Robert Hendrickson by her husband and his unsuccessful effort at suicide may be used as a prohibition argument across the Red river in Moorhead. The Hendricksons came here a few months ago from Minnesota and Hendrickson had been drunk a greater part of the time and had just completed an eight-day jail sentence a little more than twenty-four hours prior to the tragedy.

In the interval between his releases from jail and the shooting he had been intoxicated in Moorhead. The advocates of prohibition in Moorhead are using this incident as an argument in favor of making Moorhead "dry."

"Dry" Petition Out.

A petition is in circulation to submit the question to the voters at the coming municipal election. Moorhead is one of the two places in Clay county in which liquor is sold. Fargo people are naturally interested because of the constitutional, state-wide prohibition on this side of the river.

A Home-Made Remedy that Will Do It Quickly. Cheap and Easily Made

Start taking a teaspoonful every hour or two. In 24 hours your cough will be conquered or very nearly so. Even whooping cough is greatly relieved in this way.

The above mixture makes a full pint—a family supply—of the finest cough syrup that money could buy—at a cost of only 54 cents. Easily prepared in 5 minutes. Full directions with Pinex.

This Pinex and Sugar Syrup preparation takes right hold of a cough and gives almost immediate relief. It loosens the dry, hoarse or tight cough in a way that is really remarkable. Also quickly heals the inflamed membranes which accompany a painful cough, and stops the formation of phlegm in the throat and bronchial tubes, thus ending the persistent loose cough. Excellent for bronchitis, spasmodic croup and winter coughs. Keeps perfectly and tastes good—children like it.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, rich in guaiacol, which is so healing to the membranes.

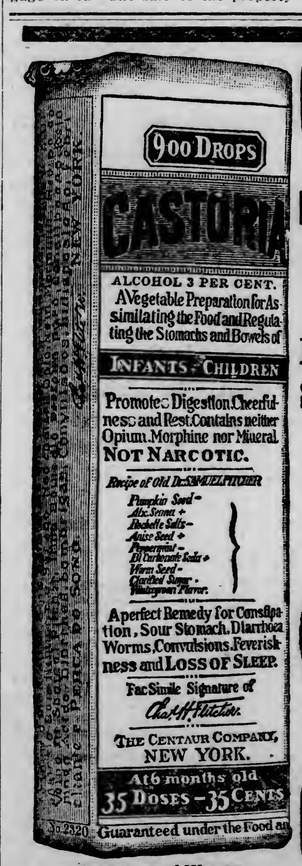

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex,"—do not accept anything else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded goes with this preparation. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

IN CONTROL BUT NOT YET OWNERS

Huston and Ruppert Expect Stock of Yankees Feb. 1.

New York, Jan. 26.—Capt. T. L. Huston, the new secretary of the treasury of the New York Americans, who has just returned from Chicago, last night explained that the $50,000 which he and Col. Ruppert had paid to Frank Farrell, was really the first installment on the property.

He said that while he and his assistants had not received the stock of the club, Mr. Farrell was to deliver it on Feb. 1. Capt. Huston added that he and Col. Ruppert already had taken over all the affairs of the club. William Donovan, although he has not yet signed as manager, has been working for the new owners for some time and has signed Player Peckinpaugh.

FIGHT NEWS

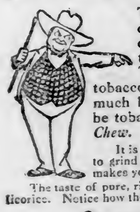

Milwaukee, Wis., Jan. 26.—Len Rowlands, Milwaukee, last night shaded Jack Doig, Spring Valley, Ill, welterweight, in a ten-round no-decision bout, in the opinion of newspaper critics. The fight was slow, Doig being content to defend throughout.

New Orleans, La., Jan. 26.—A scheduled twenty-round bout here between Gunboat Smith and "Battling" Levinsky, heavyweights, which was postponed Sunday because of weather conditions, will take place Jan. 27, it is announced.

MEN don't hanker after a big wad that makes them grind and spit. What they want is the small chew that really satisfies—"Right-Cut," the Real Tobacco Chew. When they get it they are just eager to tell their friends about it too.

A little chew of pure, rich, mellow tobacco—cut fine, short shred—seasoned and sweetened just enough, cuts out so much of the grinding and spitting.

Take a very small chew—less than one-quarter the old size. It will be more satisfying than a mouthful of ordinary tobacco. Just nibble on it until you find the strength chew that suits you. Tuck it away. Then let it rest. See how easily and evenly the real tobacco taste comes, how it satisfies without grinding, how much less you have to spit, how few chews you take to be tobacco satisfied. That's why it is The Real Tobacco Chew. That's why it costs less in the end.

It is a ready chew, cut fine and short shred so that you won't have to grind on it with your teeth. Grinding on ordinary candied tobacco makes you spit too much.

The taste of pure, rich tobacco does not need to be covered up with molasses and licorice. Notice how the salt brings out the rich tobacco taste in "Right-Cut."

One small chew takes the place of two big chews of the old kind.

BEELL MAY COACH FINN

Waino Ketonen Asks Little Badger to Go in Corner.

Walter Miller Says Joe Carr Will Be Behind Him.

BY BRUCE.

Fred Beell has been asked by Waino Ketonen to be his chief second the night he meets Walter Miller at the Auditorium. Joe Carr has been asked by Miller to be in his corner when he walks out to receive the final instruction of the referee.

Karl Lehto and John Makie, the latter the lightweight champion, will also be in the corner of the Finn. Lehto and Maki can coach Waino in the Flanish tongue without permitting Miller to receive even an intimation of what plan of action is being staked out for Ketonen.

It is not probable that Walter Miller wants Joe Carr in his corner for the advice he will give. It is the moral effect of his presence that is counted upon by Miller to get the goat of his stocky little opponent. Miller is desperate and will go to most any length to defeat the boy who has persistently dogged his trail for nearly two years.

If Joe Carr, swaggering and with an appearance well calculated to instill fear into the ordinary mortal, should climb through the ropes with Miller and start goat-getting while he men are getting ready and the referee is giving the final instructions—if Joe should shout over, in that stentorian voice of his, "Go to him, kid, he is beaten already," this possibility might have some effect on Ketonen.

Both Boys Staking All.

As the day of the contest draws nearer it becomes more apparent that both of the wrestlers are in deadly earnest. Ketonen is paying all of his training and traveling expenses and the expenses of his training partner. If he is defeated by Miller, he not only gets a beating, but will be out about $250.

Fred Beell, who has met and defeated Miller upon two different occasions, is one of the smartest and shrewdest wrestlers in the game. What the little Dutchman of Marshfield, Wis., does not know about the ancient game of grapple, is hardly worth taking note of.

Beell in the Ketonen corner would be a shrewd move upon the part of the little Finn. Also, if Joe Carr comes up in the Miller retinue there is going to be some spicy party on the evening of the second, when two wrestlers settle once for all their grudges.

Miller has called Ketonen some rather hard names. Ketonen has seldom retaliated in like mood, but has never the less kept doggedly on the trail of Walter. Just what Ketonen will succeed in doing is interesting a large number of people.

Local Opinion Divided.

Every local wrestler who has worked with the two men picks Ketonen to take the measure of Miller.

Sailor Jack, little Louie Zorbas and Pete Petkoff are three who align perfectly in their opinion of the final outcome. All shout Ketonen. All also agree that it will be a tough and stubborn battle.

On the other hand some of the fans pick Miller to be returned the final winner.

Miller's speed may prove a factor in his overcoming Ketonen. It is generally believed that the Finn is the stronger of the two and also that he possesses a more perfect knowledge of leverage.

The leg scissors around the head is the favorite hold of Miller. If he gets this, watchout. The headlock is another favorite of the little Pole. Waino is an adept at the use of the arm roll. He can pin a man handily from underneath. He also resorts frequently to the headlock and hammerlock.

The Lord Lonsdale belt has arrived and with the Klein-Duluth belt is on exhibition. The belt is emblematic of the 148-pound championship of the world, and was won by Ketonen on Christmas afternoon.

WHITE SICK; BOUT WITH WELSH STOPPED.

New York, Jan. 26.—Owing to the serious illness of Charley White, the Chicago lightweight pugilist, the ten-round bout between him and Freddie Welsh, the world's champion, which was to have taken place in the Madison Square Garden here tonight, has been indefinitely postponed.

POOR PULFORD LOSES HIS CASE

Winnipeg Magnate's Appeal Against Northern League is Turned Down.

The schedule meeting of the Northern league has been set for March 1, and will be held in Minneapolis, according to announcement received here today.

A. H. Pulford of Winnipeg has lost his appeal to the arbitration board of the National association of Professional Baseball clubs, according to the statement mailed forth this day by large Johann Burmeister, the Ban Johnson of a somewhat circumscribed territory.

If the merry A. H. Pulford keeps long-made promises he will now proceed to hale the Northern league case into the civil courts and seek injunctions and other legal sounding things. The baseball world waits upon the action of A. H. Pulford, the well known auctioneer.

It is also further stated that there will be few if any changes in the umpire staff.

SAINTS BEAT PORT ARTHUR

Capital City Hockey Players Trifle Too Fast for Canadians.

St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 26.—St. Paul won over Port Arthur, 2 to 1, here last night. The game was one of the most brilliant exhibitions ever witnessed in the city.

A penalty of two minutes, inflicted on Goal Tender Bell of Port Arthur, by Referee Delinger, shortly after the opening of second period for kneeling in front of his net in an endeavor to stem the terrific onrushes of the St. Paul forwards paved the way for the locals' victory. Immediately after the Ontario star had left the ice, Capt. Nick Kahler of the purple and white swept around from behind his own goal, rushed the puck through the entire Port Arthur defense and on a speedy combination play from Goetz, sifted it past W. L'Hereaux for what later proved to be the winning tally.

The Canadians were all that has been claimed for them, but St. Paul was just a trifle better. The playing of both teams, however, was nothing short of wonderful. It was simply a case of Nick Kahler's youngsters outgaming their veteran opponents.

DUBY BACK WITH FLOCK

Chosen Basket Ball People Trek Home From Wilderness.

Impresario Lawrence Duby and his flock of chosen basket ball people emerged from the wilderness this morning and returned to Duluth, the land of milk and honey.

Moses Duby led his followers through the wilderness of Jamestown, N. D., and Ellendale, N. D., and several other places in North Dakota. Many perils were encountered. The trip through the land of the wilderness was originally booked to extend as far west as Billings, Mont., but scarlet fever got some of the reckless buckos of Billings and flaring signs, warning all strangers to stay away, were hung out, even to the uttermost parts of the village.

Therefore Moses Duby led his flock back, and persevering, through the trials and tribulations that beset his chosen basket ball people, finally came unto the land of milk and honey.

As this article went to press the boys were still eating.

Training for Oswego.

From this day onward Oswego will be the call. Oswego, N. Y., boasts the world's champion basket ball team. This is the aggregation Duluth is to oppose. Throwing out the game at Jamestown, the Rotary quint had a clean sweep on the trip. A heavy ball and a bad floor are the alibis sprung in the case of Jamestown. Duluth had a brand new ball, nice and light—but no pump.

The members of the team are right and should be in great shape for Oswego.

COLLINS IN A REAL RAGE

Duluth Baseball Star Tears His 1915 Contract to Bits.

Doc Ezells Has Been Ordered to Remain Out of Game.

The contract recently sent to James Esmond Collins, third baseman, outfielder and hitter extraordinary for the Duluth White Sox last season, has been returned unsigned to the baseball headquarters in the Winthrop building, room 6, where the Northern league magnates met with a sentry at the door.

Thereby hangs a tale.

This season, so the bird singeth, salaries in the Northern league are to be reduced and expenses cut. Last year, for instance, our team had a monthly money yodel that demanded around $2,200 each thirty days, or half that amount on each semi-monthly payday. Winnipeg was clear up in the class B salary mark. This was in violation of the league rules, but the chase was a stern one and no one yapped.

So when the 1915 contract was sent to James Esmond Collins, in an accident peace, he tore it to small bits, inclosed it in an envelope and promptly returned it to room 6, Winthrop building.

Just what will be the upshot of this temperamental display, this pyrotechnic exhibition upon the part of James, is a matter of interest.

Whether the powers that be in local submarine baseball waters will come through with a raise and humbly ask James to overlook and forget the original offer, or whether the powers that be will attempt to place a German mine under James—who knows?

That's an awful thing to do—this tearing of a contract into fragments—we were going to say small fragments, but that would be incorrect—and returning the crumbs of the bread of sustenance to the owner of the club.

What will happen to James?

Doc Ezells Is Ill.

From information that got by the sentry at the door of room 6, Winthrop building, it seems that Doc Ezells has been ordered to remain out of the game this season. A bad cough, that is not to the liking of the health pilot, is the reason for the orders against the playing of the lank boxman.

It has also been announced that Darby is to play second. Bud Croake will be stationed on first. Wolfe will be given a chance to win his place at short. Little "Eva" Leber will not be here. Two youngsters will try out for third. An attempt will be made to make a pitcher out of George Austin Cunningham's brother. Jerry Edmunds will be back. So will Bert Sweeley.

This paper is the first to announce that Darby will again play second.

A PRIME MOVER OF DULUTH SKI CLUB

HANS WANNEBO.

GOVERNOR HAMMOND IS INVITED TO SKI MEET

Formal Invitation Sent to State Executive and Members of Staff to Attend Duluth's Famous Winter Sport Event; World's Champion Rider to Assault Present Record.

Governor Winfield Scott Hammond and the members of his staff were invited last evening to be the guests of the officials of the Duluth Ski club at the big National Ski tournament that will be held on the famous old Chester hill on Feb. 6 and 7.

Secretary Peter Wright mailed out the formal invitation to his excellency and the members of his staff last evening, and urged the state executive to make every effort to be present, assuring him that it would be a pleasure upon the part of the board of directors of the Duluth club to make the visit one that will long be remembered by the governor and the members of his staff, should the invitation be accepted.

Ragnar Omtvedt Coming.

Positive announcement was made today that Ragnar Omtvedt, holder of the world's championship ski mark of 169 feet, made on the Ironwood, Mich., steel slide in 1913, will appear here and will attempt to shatter his own mark.

The famous old Chester hill has been increased eight feet in height. The scaffold stands 90 feet in height. The hill upon whose crest the big slide perches, is 150 feet in height. This makes the hill one of the longest and also one of the steepest in the world. With proper weather conditions it is expected that the present world's standing mark of 169 feet will come pretty near to being annihilated.

In practice trials the present world's mark has been nearly equaled a number of times. With the greatest riders in the world here and with the hill higher and steeper, there is reason to believe that a new record will be set up.

Greatest Meet Ever.

Officials of the Duluth club are of the opinion that the approaching tournament will prove the greatest ski meet ever held in the United States.

The Glenwood Ski band is coming. The Nor Ski club of Chicago is coming in a special car and the Norge club of the same city is going to send a large number of riders up here. Every club in the national association, according to the assurance of Aksel H. Holter, secretary of the national association, will send a liberal number of entries.

Secretary Wright stated today that nearly 100 riders will be here to compete for prizes. The list will include both amateur and professionals, and if the remodeled hill comes up to fond expectations, some remarkable jumps will be made during the two days of the meet.

UNIVERSALS WIN GREAT OVERTIME HOCKEY CONTEST

Big Duluths Are Defeated By 6-to-4 Score in One of the Fastest Games Ever Played in Duluth Amateur League.

The crack Universal hockey team of the Duluth Amateur league last evening defeated the Big Duluths in an overtime contest by a score of 6 to 4.

It was one of the fastest games yet played in the league, and also one of the greatest exhibitions ever staged in the city.

At the end of the second half the score was 4 to 4. Ten minutes overtime play was called for. In the extra time the flour makers succeeding in shooting two goals, thus annexing one of the hardest games that has yet marked play in the league.

Throughout the contest the ultimate winners had a slight edge in team play. In several stages of the game the merchants seemed to lack smooth team play. But what was lacking in team play was compensated for in some brilliant individual playing upon the part of the clothiers.

"Beany" Brown gave a dazzling exhibition of speed and brought cheers from the crowd upon numerous occasions. Brown received a pretty pass from Wood and scored in the first six minutes of play. Poissant of the clothiers tied the score up. Olson placed the clothiers one ahead at the bell by caging a net from scrimmage. Brown, Harris and Wharton scored for the flour men in the second half, while Olson and Poissant scored his second cage for the clothiers. This left the count tied at the bell.

Extra Time Period.

Just two minutes after the start of the overtime play Curly Harris caged a goal from scrimmage with the timely assistance of Brown. The puck was being rushed into the clothiers' territory continually. On another rush, just four minutes later, Wood caged the puck from scrimmage. This was the final goal and was quite sufficient for victory.

BASKET BALL MEN WILL PLAY AT "Y"

Commercial League Quints Will Hold Second Set of Games.

This evening the second set of games in the Commercial league basket ball schedule will be played at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium. The Lakes will clash with the Kelleys and the Big Duluths will tackle the Fenton-Duby aggregation.

The first games of the schedule were played a week ago Friday and were remarkably fast and exciting. The results showed very little difference between the contending teams, and it is clearly evident that the race for the league championship will be a thriller. Even the two teams that took part in the first games and were defeated are still in the race. The speedy Lake Hardware team was only able to chalk up a 15-to-13 score against the scrappy Big Duluths, and the much touted Kelleys had the scare of their lives with the crack Northerns and barely nosed out a 12-to-11 victory. The two defeated teams have been working hard since then and they will have some surprises in store for their next opponents.

The contests of this evening prom-

lse to be even more exciting than the first, and there will undoubtedly be a large number out to witness them. The Lakes were without the services of two of their star players in their first games. Walter Wood, one of the best forwards that has ever played on a local floor, was missing from their lineup and it is quite probable that he will not be with them this season. "Heinie" Hallenbeck was also missing and he is another of the city stars, but will probably be in the lineup tonight. The Kelleys, who will oppose the Lakes, will also be considerably strengthened, for "Art" Beck is to be in their lineup tonight. Foryziak was the star of the Kelley team in the first game and much is also expected of him tonight, although the Lakes will have a good guard ready for him.

From the scrappy game that they put up, the Big Duluths are expected to put up a great battle tonight. They will oppose the Fenton-Duby quintet and a fast contest will certainly be the result. The latter aggregation will be in its first game tonight and nothing can be said of them from appearances. A glimpse at their lineup, however, reveals several real stars. Lawrence Duby is away with the Rotarys, but Ray Fenton will be there with bells on. The rest of the team is all good and they should put up a stiff argument. The lineups of the games tonight will be as follows:

Lakes—Miller, Hallenbeck, Laughlin, Karsberg, Olson and Capen.

Kelleys—Foryziak, Beck, Bethune, Frost, Dworshak, Beigle, Ireland and Magson.

Big Duluths—Larsen, Richardson, Cole, Kern, McGraw, Sponnick and Flink.

Fenton-Dubys — Fenton, Wisted, Becker, Burnett, Assel and Coning.

Abandon Tourney.

Boston, Mass., Jan. 26.—The directors of the National Duck and Candle Pin Bowling congress, at a special session yesterday, voted not to hold the 1915 tournament which was scheduled for April 26 to May 2, in this city, but instead to lend support to the Atlantic coast tourney in May. Baltimore, Philadelphia and Boston are in a contest for the privilege of staging the latter event.

FORT BILL VERY STRONG

Team Is Ranked Ahead of Port Arthur Hockeyists.

Big Adams Placed Before Baker or the Well-Known Wellington.

The Fort William Hockey team, which will play the crack Duluth Curling club team on Friday and Saturday of this week, is ranked ahead of the Port Arthur septet.

In the league in which the two teams are playing the Fort Bill bunch is leading the fast Thunder Bay outfit.

E. R. Wilson, one of the greatest hockey players who ever showed on the local ice, and who made so fine a record in the two games played here the year before last by the Port Arthur team, is with the Fort William outfit.

Big Adams, ranked as one of the greatest hockey players in all of Canada, is also with the Fort William team. Adams is a large individual and also possessed of wonderful speed. This Bucko is expected to cause a lot of trouble for the defense of the Duluth team. We have had with us, or against us, "Ham" Baker and the famous Duke of Wellington. Now we await with fear and trembling the coming of this Adams, rated as even better than the Baker demon and the Wellington streak.

Fast Skating Team.

Fort William as a team is rated as one of the fastest skating sevens in the West. If the members of the aggregation that is to oppose Duluth on Friday and Saturday evenings are any faster than the members of the Thunder Bay outfit were in the first game with Duluth, the fans here will have their eyes opened. She should be some game, she should.

Joe Linder is this week drilling his boys in the finer details of team work. It is believed that Mohon will remain stationed at rover. The speed of the Canadian is needed to cope with the speed work of the visiting Canadian team.

WILL ORGANIZE MINOR FEDERAL LEAGUE IN EAST.

Hartford, Conn., Jan. 26.—Hugh A. McKinnon, agent of the Federal baseball league announced here last night that a meeting will be held in New Haven next Saturday afternoon to take preliminary steps to organize a Federal minor league in New England.

He would not state definitely what cities would be represented, but he asserted the new league would comprise eight teams.

RAYMOND KELLY IS AFTER HARLEY DAVIDSON.

Raymond Kelly, the St. Paul roller skater who has been exhibiting his wares in Duluth for the last three weeks, left today for Minneapolis, where he will endeavor to arrange a meeting with Harley Davidson. If Kelly is unsuccessful he will return to Duluth and complete his training for the world's championship. Kelly stated that he would skate any distance Davidson desired, but that all of the races must be pursuit style.

Return to Single Umpire Plan.

Chicago, Jan. 26.—The American association probably will return this year to the single umpire system, President Chivington announced today. The opinions of the club owners will be asked however, before action is taken, he said. Besides the question of economy involved, Chivington said experience had shown two umpires were not as likely to be "on their toes" as one.

Remains With Dodgers.

St. Louis, Mo., Jan. 26.—Charles P. Stengel, right fielder of the Brooklyn Nationals, will continue to play with that team for the next two years in accordance with a contract which he signed here last night in the presence of Charles Ebbets, president of the Brooklyn club. Stengel said he had received offers from George Stovall, manager of the Kansas City Federals, and Joe Tinker, manager of the Chicago Federals.

EXPECT MANY SHOOTERS

At North Dakota Gun Club Meet at Dickinson.

Dickinson, N. D., Jan. 26.—(Special to The Herald.)—When the state gun club tournament is held here June 28-30, it is expected there will be the largest representation of trap shooters that was ever held in the state. Arrangements are now being completed to make the affair a great success. The premium list will be an attractive one and many crack shots from other sections of the Northwest have already written they will be in attendance. There will be a number of preliminary shoots over the state prior to the big tournament here.

Willard arrived here yesterday to begin training.

PRESIDENT TALKS ACROSS COUNTRY

Holds Telephonic Conversation With Party in San Francisco.

Washington, Jan. 26.—Today President Wilson inaugurated the first transcontinental telephone system by speaking directly to President Moore of the Panama Pacific exposition in San Francisco. With Alexander Cagham Bell, the inventor of the telephone, and President Vail of the American Telephone & Telegraph company cut in on the wire at different points, the president extended congratulations on the achievement.

"It appeals to the imagination to speak across the continent," said the president to Mr. Moore. "I congratulate you on the fine prospects for a successful exposition. I am confidently hoping to take part in it after the adjournment of congress. May I not send my greetings to the management and to all whose work has made it possible and made it the great event it promises to be, and convey my personal congratulations to you."

With Dr. Bell listening in on the line at New York, the president then spoke to Thomas A. Watson, in San Francisco. Mr. Watson was Dr. Bell's electrician at the time of the invention of the telephone, and was the first person to hear a word spoken over a telephone.

Expresses Admiration.

"I consider it an honor," said the president, "to be able to express my admiration for the inventive genius and scientific knowledge that has made this possible, and my pride that this vital cord should have been stretched across America as a new symbol of our unity and our enterprise.

"Will you not convey my cordial congratulations to Dr. Bell, and I want to convey to you my personal congratulations, sir."

With Mr. Vail listening in on the line at Jekyll Island, the president then spoke to Dr. Bell:

"May I not congratulate you very warmly on this notable consummation of your long labors and remarkable achievements," said the president. "You are justified in feeling a great pride in what has been done. This is a memorable day, and I convey to you my warm congratulations."

The president said that he could hear Mr. Moore in San Francisco very distinctly.

WILLISTON ELKS DEDICATE HOME.

Williston, N. D., Jan. 26.—Many of the prominent Elks of North Dakota were here last night, and today for the dedication of the new Elks home, conceded to be of the finest building of the kind in the state. Tracy R. Bangs of Grand Forks delivered the chief address at the dedication.

Frank V. Kent of Grand Forks has general charge of the arrangements for the two days' program. A street parade and a ball were some of the features of the entertainment for the visiting Elks.

TWO of the greatest curative principles in the art of healing are movement and rest.

Why does the surgeon splint a fracture and support the arm in a sling? Not to hold the bones in place, for that might be accomplished without support other than a bandage. Not merely to relieve pain, for that, too, might be done in other ways. The purpose is to put the injured part at rest. Nature prescribes rest as a remedy for every injury or acute inflammation. The surgeon or physician endeavors to follow natural laws.

Why does the doctor interdict food by mouth in the treatment of such conditions as appendicitis, gastric ulcer, and acute digestive disturbances of many kinds? Not because food is poisonous, but because he wishes to give the affected part rest. Physiological rest is the most essential part of the medical treatment of appendicitis. All standard measures of treatment are applied with that supreme purpose—to splint the alimentary tract, to prevent peristaltic movement of the bowel so far as possible for a few days.

Why is cold fresh air so beneficial in pneumonia? For one reason, it supplies the needed oxygen with less effort on the part of the inflamed lung; if you can give the patient sufficient air with a smaller number of inspirations per minute you are giving the inflamed lung a grateful rest—and every little movement hurts.

Rest in bed may seem a superfluous order in certain milder illnesses, but the doctor knows from experience that you will have a quicker convalescence and a smaller bill—more's the pity!—if you do not balk against nature's prescription. That is why he drives you off to bed. He doesn't want to wait so long for his compensation.

When Nature Needs a Guide.

On the other hand, it is frequently necessary to intervene between nature and the patient. Nature is inclined to forget the patient in her determination to do a good job, and she cares little about functional defects or deformities so long as she can win the immediate battle. For instance, she would just as soon leave a joint permanently stiff after neuritis or paralysis or a fracture of the limb. At the right moment, then, the doctor steps in and begins little movements which neither nature nor the patient would spontaneously institute. These little movements may be a trifle unpleasant, but what untold sorrow they prevent!

After sprains, fractures, neuritis, paralysis of any kind, and in the later stage of many joint diseases, passive movements are as essential as is rest in the acute stage. It is probable that most deformities of joints could be obviated by intelligent and persistent passive movements under the direction of competent skill. It is certain that many old stiffened fingers and limbs can be wonderfully improved in function and appearance by a consistent adherence to a course of passive motions.

Questions and Answers.

Theodore M. writes: Will you please explain what "follicular tonsilitis" is and state whether it is catching.

REPLY.

Follicular tonsilitis is inflammation of the tonsil with the accumulation of whitish or yellowish masses in the follicles or openings of the tonsil. It is more or less catching, like all sore throats.

Boarder writes: What is the cause of gall-stones? Will medical treatment alone do any good, or must the patient submit to operation?

REPLY.

Some recent or remote bacterial infection of the gall-sac, especially typhoid fever. If there is no dangerous complication, such as acute inflammation or suppuration of the sac or of the gall-ducts, medical treatment may give relief. However, medical treatment cannot remove the stones. Surgery is the only certain remedy.

America's Most Famous Brewers

MAKERS OF AMERICAN HISTORY ALSO MAKERS OF BEER

William Penn, Quaker, founder of the State of Pennsylvania, and of the city of "Brotherly Love," had a brew house at his home, Pennbury Manor, and was also interested in brewing as an industry.

Samuel Adams, the acknowledged Father of the American Revolution, who threw overboard the first chest of tea in Boston Harbor, was a Boston Brewer.

Roger Williams, founder of the State of Rhode Island was interested in the brewing industry.

George Washington, our greatest patriot, and "First in the hearts of his countrymen", had a brew house on his Virginia farm, Mount Vernon.

Major General Putnam, U. S. A., the hero of Bunker Hill, was a brewer. His tavern, the "General Wolfe", was the favorite headquarters for the patriot soldiers and statesmen during our War of Independence.

Six signers of the Declaration of Independence were brewers or indirectly interested in the brewing industry.

WHY FITGER NATURAL BEER IS A "DRAUGHT BEER IN BOTTLES"

The Kieselguhr filter is a new invention which "keeps" beer in bottles and gives to bottled beer the same, full natural character, taste and aroma of the finest of draught beer drawn fresh from the wood.

Our finest, natural draught beer is filtered through Kieselguhr or diatomacions earth, the diatomes of which are so small (20,000,000 to the cubic inch), that no yeast germs can pass through. Fitger Natural Beer is thus not only a "draught beer in bottles," but a draught beer brilliantly clear of every bit of impurity.

It has always been recognized that pasteurization, the process in common use for keeping bottled beer, changes the character and ruins the flavor of the natural beer. The artificial heat kills the troubleous yeast germs but it does not rid the beer of them, consequently pasteurized beer cannot be as clear or brilliant as Fitger Natural Beer.

FINAL BALLOT REPORT MADE

Council Accepts 6-Cent Rate; Declares Unit Plant Defeated.

Mistakes in Count of Votes Shown in Official Report.

The unit plant ordinance was defeated at the special election last Tuesday by a majority of 270 votes, while the 6-cent ordinace carried over the 4-cent proposition by a majority vote of 612, according to the official canvass of the ballots made yesterday afternoon by the city commissioners. These figures are slightly different from the original figures.

As a result of the canvass, the commissioners formally announced the defeat of the unit plant proposal and the adoption of the 6-cent contract offered by the Duluth-Edison company. Some time tomorrow Mayor Prince, City Clerk Palmer and City Auditor Campbell will sign the contract in behalf of the city.

The figures announced by City Clerk Palmer the day after election gave the 6-cent ordinance a majority of 531 votes, while the unit plant was declared defeated by a majority of 317 votes. However, at the official canvass yesterday, mistakes were discovered in the returns of the Thirty-sixth and Thirty-ninth districts. The original returns gave a vote of 180 for and 180 against the unit plant in the Thirty-sixth, while the canvass yesterday showed 180 for and 123 against. In the Thirty-ninth the first report showed a total of 37 votes for the 6-cent ordinance and 159 votes for the 4-cent ordinance, while the canvass gave but 78 votes for the latter proposition.

As a result of the canvass, the total vote cast on the unit plant proposition is officially declared to have been 8,940, with 4,335 for and 4,605 against, while 4,331 ballots were cast for the 6-cent ordinance and 3,779 for the 4-cent ordinance.

Mayor Prince introduced the resolution formally declaring the defeat of the unit plant and the acceptance of the Duluth-Edison contract.

MAKE PLANS FOR COUNTY HOSPITAL

Citizens Meet and Decide on Bill for State Legislature.

As a result of a meeting held at the Commercial club yesterday afternoon, a suggestion by W. A. McGonagle that a bill be introduced into the legislature providing for the establishment of a general county hospital in Duluth was taken up and will be pushed. A conference with a house committee having such matters in charge will be held at the St. Paul hotel, St. Paul, a week from tonight, after which a bill, which is being drafted, will likely be introduced into the house.

At the meeting yesterday, Mr. McGonagle, R. B. Knox, State Senator C. E. Adams, W. E. McEwen, J. R. McGiffert, C. P. Craig and Secretary Eva of the club, met with Mrs. W. S. Woodbridge, president of the Woman's council; Mrs. P. L. Barrows, chairman of the council's hospital committee, and other members of that committee and discussed the matter quite thoroughly.

It is proposed that the hospital, when built, will be for the use of the whole county and that $15 a week will be the highest rate paid, while people unable to pay will be given the same attention gratis.

At Mr. McGonagle's suggestion, a committee of citizens from the ranges and the city, representative taxpayers of the county and members of the Woman's council, will work for the bill and hold the conference with the house committee proposed. The names of this committee of citizens will be announced shortly.

BOMBS WILL START SPRING STYLE SHOW

Keen Rivalry Among Window Dressers; Displays Revealed Simultaneously.

The spring style show, which will be held March 25, 26 and 27, promises to be one of the most spectacular and beautiful things seen on Superior and First streets in many years. Window dressers are carefully concealing everything in the way of ideas they have acquired for attractive window displays, and there has arisen among them a rivalry which, while friendly, promises to have results from which the public will benefit in the way of beautiful sights.

A meeting of the committee having the affair in charge was held at the Commercial club yesterday, and Chairman George A. Gray has called another for next Monday noon at the club, when details will be gone further into.

The window displays will be revealed simultaneously and bombs will be exploded on the street. corbombs will be exploded on street corners as signals to withdraw the screens that will hide the displays. It is expected that a large number of residents of the city will be on hand awaiting this time, and that many buyers from neighboring towns will also be on hand. On Thursday and Friday evenings the stores will be thrown open for inspection, but no goods will be sold; but on the following day the wants of the public will be taken care of.

Within a day or two, the letter concerning the spring style show, which Mr. Gray read before the retail dealers' association on Jan. 5, setting forth what will be done and what is hoped for, will be sent to all retailers of the city whether they be members of the association or not, in order that they may be informed and take part if they wish to.

BULLS STILL IN CONTROL

Wheat Still on Advance With Active Buying By Operators.

Persistent Bidding By Crushers Boosts Flaxseed—Supplies Are Light.

Duluth Board of Trade, Jan. 26.—The market was strong up to the close. May wheat closed ⅞c up, and July 2¼@2½c up. May durum closed 1c up and July 1c up.

Oats closed 1⅛c up at 55¼c for on the track; rye 2c up at $1.21; barley unchanged at from 67 to 78c, and corn 5⅛c up at 73@73½c.

At Winnipeg, May oats closed 1½c up at 65⅛c asked, and July ⅝c up at 66½c bid.

Puts on Minneapolis May wheat closed at $1.38⅝, and July at $1.41¾.

Wheat was strong in all the American markets again today as a result of higher Liverpool cables, and increasingly bullish sentiment entertained by operators. There were intimations to the effect that exporters were in the market for all the grain that could be had here and primary receipts showed a substantial falling off. Advices from Southwest points told of decreased country receipts. It was said that offers made at yesterday's high point over-night to interior elevators where grain is being stored on account of growers, had brought few acceptances.

Bradstreet's world visible report showed a decrease of 8,750,000 bu in stocks of wheat in the week, and the foreign crop summary also furnished cause for bullishness.

An interesting development in the day was the report from Chicago that a cargo of new crop wheat had been sold for export, and there was also an intimation that an operator had turned down an offer for 1,000,000 bu wheat for August shipment. As a result of those rumors there was a rush of shorts in the July future at Chicago to cover and its quotation was boosted nearly 2c. Duluth traders are not disposed to place much reliance in stories of new crop wheat sales so far ahead.

The situation in oats continued strong, with urgent buying by exporters. It was said that Winnipeg operators are buying oats on both the Chicago and Minneapolis markets. The May oats future was active and showed exceptional strength up there.

May wheat opened ½c up at $1.41¾, and gained ½c more up to the noon hour. The July future sold ⅜@½c up at $1.39⅞.

Substantial buying appeared in durum, and there were reports that it is being picked up for all-rail shipment to New York. May durum opened unchanged at $1.54 and gained ½c.

Flaxseed Shows Strength.

Flaxseed started in strong with renewed buying by crushers while available offerings were light. No betterment was reported in the Argentine freight rate and vessel situation, and that is leading operators to entertain bullish views for the present at least.

May flax opened ¼c up at $1.92½, and closed 1c up at $1.93¼ asked.

At Winnipeg, May flax closed ¼c up at $1.72. July closed at $1.73½ bid.

Broomhall cabled from Liverpool: "Steadiness in America was offset here by freer LaPlata offers and favorable reports from India. The market was dull. Winters and Canadian offers are unchanged from yesterday, and La Plata offers are ¼d lower. Spot market is unchanged with the exception of soft winter wheat which is held at 1d advance. Arrivals here are ample and forward deliveries are generally less firm.

"Corn dull, LaPlata offers are fewer but the consumption is reduced and stocks are without change."

C. E. Lewis & Co. had the following closing letter from Chicago: "Another new high record on the crop was recorded today. Exporters were again in the market to a small extent, and outside markets were also strong. Minneapolis advices claimed a good demand for spring wheat to go south and west to mills. Speculative trade was rather limited in volume. We still adhere to the long side of May wheat, and feel that the scarcity will ultimately result in much higher prices."

CHICAGO MARKET.

Wheat Advances on Shortage of European Visible Supply But Falls Off.

Chicago, Jan. 26.—Although wheat advanced today, influenced by a big decrease in the European visible supply, the gains did not last long. Bears took courage from advices that pressure of grain at the wharves in Argentina was becoming more pronounced and that the outlook there for a large number of vessels had been greatly improved by special efforts of the Italian government. After opening ⅜c off to ¼c up, the market here scored a moderate rise all around but then receded to about last night's level.

Subsequently July wheat developed rare strength because of assertions that a cargo of new crop grain had already been sold for export. There were also advices that preparations for war by Italy had at last been made complete. The market closed at 4@4½c net advance.

Corn swayed with wheat. Country offerings were a little larger, and demand from the east rather slow. The opening, which varied from ⅛@⅜c decline, made a shade advance was followed by a fair general upturn with a reaction later to a point slightly below yesterday's close.

A rally ensued when wheat displayed fresh strength. Canadian Northwest was said to have been decidedly enlarged. The close was unsettled at ⅝c to ¾@⅞c above last night.

Oats were relatively firmer than other cereals. The serious reductions of late in the Argentine surplus counted against the bears.

Lower prices for hogs made provisions sag. Trading was more largely in ribs than usual.

Wheat—No. 2 red, $1.45½@1.46⅜; No. 2 hard, $1.45½@1.46⅜. Corn—No. 4 yellow, 71½@73c; No. 4 white, 71@72¾c. Oats—No. 3 white, 54½@55½c; No. 4 white, 54½@55c. Rye, No. 2, $1.23; barley, 74@83c; timothy, $6@7.50; clover, $12.50@15. Pork, $16.87@18.27; lard, $10.57; ribs, $9.25@10.12.

TRADING IN STOCKS DULL

Uncertainty as to U. S. Steel Dividend Makes It Feature.

Speculation Stagnant in Final Hour and Closing Is Irregular.

New York, Jan. 26.—Changes at the opening of today's stock market suggested no definite trend, gains and losses being somewhat conflicting. For instance, United States Steel common, whose directors act on the dividend today, showed no change, while the preferred stock was fractionally lower. Other active issues were either unchanged from yesterday's close or a trifle higher. Several specialties and obscure stocks rose smartly, including American Sugar and American Beet Sugar, which gained 1½ and 1¼ points. By the end of the half hour the entire list was higher despite the heaviness of our stocks in London.

Stocks continued to fluctuate during the early session of today's market, but invariably the price level was above yesterday's close. Steel made a fractional gain on moderate dealings, and the consensus of opinion was that the present rate of the dividend would be maintained. There were gains of a point or more in Canadian Pacific, first preferred and the Southern group of railroads, Seaboard Air Line adjustment 5s rising 3 points.

Bonds were firm.

Steel rose to a higher level in the early afternoon, but representative shares as a whole were neglected. Several minor issues and a few high-priced specialties were strong, Sears-Roebuck gaining 6 points.

Trading was narrow and dull for the greater part of today's session of the stock exchange. United States Steel was a feature, some uncertainty attending the common dividend, on which action was to be taken after the market's close.

Speculation became stagnant in the final hour. The closing was irregular.

BILL IS STEP BACKWARD

Former County Attorney Opposes Restoration of Death Penalty.

County Attorney Greene Refuses to Express Himself Either Way.

Whether the attempt which will be made in the legislature this season to restore capital punishment in Minnesota, which was abolished two years ago, will receive any support from St. Louis county legislators will probably depend to a large extent on what backing the movement will receive from citizens of the county at large. Already there is said to be a strong undercurrent of opposition to the proposed restoration of the death sentence for capital crimes and it is considered doubtful if the move will get much support from this section.

County attorneys of Minnesota, in annual session at St. Paul last week, adopted a resolution favoring electrocution of persons found guilty of murder in the first degree and a bill to establish the electric chair in Minnesota for such criminals has already been drawn by J. C. Netheway, assistant attorney general. It will be introduced at this session of the legislature. Representative Dhss of Sibley county has already introduced a bill to restore capital punishment. In his bill, it is left with the jury to decide whether the death penalty should be inflicted or not.

Warren E. Greene, prosecutor for St. Louis county, when asked for an expression in the matter, stated that he had not attended the county attorneys' convention and was not familiar with just what had been done. He declined to go on record as either favoring or opposing the proposition. He stated, however, that he thought the bill would meet with considerable opposition.

John H. Norton, former county attorney, is inclined to be opposed to the restoration of the death sentence. He declared that in his opinion to re-establish capital punishment would be a step backward in the march of progress. He stated that he believed that the state could take care of persons convicted of murder without imitating the criminal and taking another human life.

The county attorneys' association also went on record as favoring a bill now in preparation giving the "last word" to the prosecuting attorney. The law now gives the attorney for the defense the final argument. This bill has been prepared in the attorney general's office. The convention also favored a proposal to give the governor power to appoint a special commission to codify the Minnesota penal laws.

FEW VACANCIES IN THE U. S. NAVY.

The United States navy now has almost a full quota of men, according to Peter Coyle naval recruiting officer at Duluth. The naval report Jan. 21 stated that there were but 106 vacancies in the whole navy. Vacancies occur right along but the number now is unusually small.

There were three "founders of Rome," the first, Romulus, B. C. 752; the second, Camillus, who saved the city from the Gauls B. C. 365; the third, Caius Marius, who saved the city from the Teutones and Cimbri B. C. 101.

PROMPT ACTION SURE ON EFFICIENCY BILL BY THE HOUSE COMMITTEE

Conference to Be Held With Chairman Craig of Commission.

Favorable Report on Resolution for Adjournment on April 7.

Senate Committee Reports Woman Suffrage Bill for Passage.

By a Staff Correspondent.

St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 27.—(Special to The Herald.)—Prompt committee action on the efficiency and ecomony commission's reorganization bill was indicated by developments this morning. Charles P. Craig of Duluth, chairman of the commission, arrived here yesterday and has arranged for a meeting this afternoon between the commission and the Spooner special house committee that is to consider the bill. At this meeting a program of procedure in considering the bill will be discussed. The bill was introduced in the senate this morning by Senators Putnam of Blue Eath City and J. D. Sullivan of St. Cloud, members of the commission, and Senator Duxbury of Caledonia, chairman of the senate committee that will have charge of the bill. Hearings will be started soon before the house committee, and undoubtedly arrangements will be made to have the senate committee attend and participate.

• • •

Favors Early Adjournment.

The house committee on rules this morning reported for passage the joint resolution offered by Representatives Swanson, Malmberg and Carmichael, providing for final adjournment of the session April 7 instead of April 20. The resolution will take the course of a bill, and will soon be considered by the house in committee of the whole.

• • •

The senate committee on elections this morning reported the Sageng woman suffrage constitutional amendment for passage, following yesterday's hearing. The report, however, is one agreed upon a week before the hearing was held, and despite the good showing made yesterday by the "antis" no member of the committee changed his vote.

PRESIDENT TO VETO IMMIGRATION BILL

Announcement Is Made After Conference With Committees.

Washington, Jan. 27.—It was stated authoritatively today that President Wilson will veto the immigration bill because of the literacy test. This became known after a conference between the president and committees of both houses of congress, which had the measure in charge.

THAW TO BE TRIED FEB. 23

Pleads Not Guilty to the Charge and Is Sent Back to Tombs.

Judge Denies Motion for Examination as to Sanity.

New York, Jan. 27.—Harry K. Thaw, pleaded today not guilty to the charge of conspiracy under which he was brought here from New Hampshire last Sunday. His trial was set for Feb. 23. Meanwhile he is to remain a prisoner in the Tombs, his counsel having agreed not to apply for bail.

No attempt will be made by the state to have Thaw committed to the Matteawan asylum, pending his trial unless his lawyers change their decision not to apply for bail.

No Sanity Examination.

In accepting Thaw's plea and fixing the date for trial, Supreme Court Justice Davis denied the motion made by Thaw's counsel last Monday to have the prisoner sent to Bellevue hospital so that physicians there might pass upon his sanity.

Thaw was elated when he learned Mr. Jerome was no longer connected with the case.

"It is a long lane that has no turning," he said.

Jerome Out of It.

For the first time in nearly nine years that the case of Harry K. Thaw has been before the courts of this state, William T. Jerome, former district attorney of New York county, did not appear for the state today when Thaw was brought before Justice Davis in the supreme court to plead to an indictment for conspiracy to escape from the Matteawan asylum for the criminal insane. Mr. Jerome's connection with the case ended yesterday when he was relieved from duty as a special deputy attorney general by Attorney General Egburt Woodbury. Franklin Kennedy, deputy attorney general, will hereafter have charge of the case for the state.

POLITICS IN ROAD WORK

Road Superintendent Fired for Refusing to Play Politics.

Annie E. Shelland Pleads for Retention of the Elwell Law.

By a Staff Correspondent.

St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 27.—(Special to The Herald.)—The first public hearing on the Vermilya bill to repeal the Elwell road law, held before the senate committee on public highways yesterday afternoon, brought out the nature of the opposition to the bill, and incidentally gave a former road superintendent under the state highway commission a chance to charge that he was fired from the state's employment for refusing to play politics.

E. Ellefson of Roscoe, Goodhue county, was called to make a talk against the Elwell law, but before he had said much on that subject he unloaded his ideas on the highway commission.

He said that he had worked for the Federal government, both on roads and on the Panama canal, and that there they were always cautioned against mixing in politics.

"But I found it different when I went to work for the highway engineers. There I found that I was expected to talk politics, and that my duties there were more concerned with that than with helping farmers build roads."

"Do I understand," asked Chairman R. C. Dunn of the committee, "that you were asked to work politically?"

Told to Work for Rosenwald.

"Yes, sir," said Ellefson. "I was told that I must 'help them along, so they

ST. LOUIS COUNTY MEMBERS CONFER

Letter Favoring Increase in Salaries of County Commissioners.

By a Staff Correspondent.

St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 27.—(Special to The Herald.)—The St. Louis county delegation met last evening at the St. Paul, for the first time since it organized two weeks ago. There was little local business to be considered, and the meeting was more for an exchange of views on matters of general interest than for action.

Representatives Gill and Murphy stated that they were preparing a bill for early introduction appropriating $2,500 for a fish hatchery at Tower, as requested by the Tower Commercial club.

A letter was received from Bentley P. Neff, strongly favoring a bill increasing the salaries of the county commissioners of St. Louis county to a point more in accord with the amount and importance of their work.

Representative Scott of Hibbing explained his bill, introduced yesterday, abolishing the fee of 25 cents now charged for filing marriage certificates. He said that local officials on the range say ministers who left certificates with them for filing often forgot to leave the quarter, so the officials were stuck for the fee.

The delegation will meet again next Tuesday evening, when a number of local measures will be ready for consideration.

AUSTRIANS CLAIM SOME SUCCESSES.

Vienna, Jan. 27, by wireless to London.—The official Austrian communication issued today reports successes in the passes leading into Northeastern and Northwestern Hungary. The statement follows:

"In the valleys of Ung, Latarcza and Nagy-Szamos the enemy has been forced to evacuate some important heights after repeated and fruitless counter attacks which cost the enemy heavy losses."

STARTLING CONDITIONS IN LUMBER DISTRICTS NORTH OF DULUTH TOLD

Hardships Due to Private Employment Agencies Are Described.

Bill Providing Abolition of the Agencies Strongly Advocated.

Protracted Debate on Semi-Monthly Payment of Wages.

By a Staff Correspondent.

St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 27.—(Special to The Herald.)—Conditions more startling than those existing in some parts of Siberia prevail in the lumber camp districts north of Duluth, according to statements made yesterday during the hearing on the bill providing abolition of private employment agencies.

The bill, which was introduced by Senator Jones in the senate and by Representative Woodfill in the house, would place in the hands of the state the work of assigning unemployed to positions and there would be no fees. Any private agencies that wished to continue operations after the enactment of the law would be required to obtain their fees from the employer instead of the employe.

Emil Olund, a Duluth employment agent, was the only person appearing in opposition to the measure.

It was brought out during the hearing that employment agencies collect fees from men in search of work, send them to camps many miles from a railroad and that often the men are refused work and are forced to walk back to town, many of them freezing off fingers, toes and ears.

After considerable discussion, the bill was laid aside and the committee will hear Senator Jones further in executive session.

Dangerous Situation.

"This state is creating the most dangerous situation possible by permitting conditions to continue as they

POLICE PENSION STRIKES SNAG

Duluth Bill Meets Opposition From the St. Paul Officers.

By a Staff Correspondent.

St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 27.—(Special to The Herald.)—The proposed bill amending the law governing the police pension system of Duluth has struck a little snag, in the way of opposition in St. Paul, which is also affected, and it will be necessary for a committee from the Duluth police force to come down and straighten it out.

The St. Paul policemen object particularly to the requirement that they shall be called upon to pay assessments toward the fund, even though the assessment be small. They say that they are not under civil service rules, as the Duluth policemen are, and that their tenure of office is very uncertain. Therefore they want this provision stricken out.

Products of Two Separate Classes Chat Cordially for Short Period.

New York, Jan. 27.—Mrs. Belle Zilberman, who was arrested last summer in the Standard Oil building at 26 Broadway, while taking part in the so-called mourners' parade, as a protest by the Industrial Workers of the World against the shooting of miners at Ludlow, greeted Mr. Rockefeller today when he reached the city hall to testify before the Federal Industrial Relations commission.

Yesterday she said she "forgave Mr. Rockefeller" for having her arrested. Today she brought him "a message of good." Mr. Rockefeller shook hands and chatted with her for several minutes.

"We are products of two separate classes," Mrs. Zilberman said. "You represent the capitalistic class, while I am a Socialist. There is a struggle on between those classes."

Need Better Understanding.

"Yes, unfortunately," replied Mr. Rockefeller. "There ought to be some ground on which we can meet and come to a better understanding with each other."

"I do not believe philanthropy will ever bring us together," Mrs. Zilberman replied. "There will have to be some compromise between the classes."

On the witness stand Mr. Rockefeller said he did not believe the Rockefeller foundation would ever, or could, within the terms of its charter, participate in politics, the defense of trusts or any-

FORCES OF VILLA CAPTURE MONCLOVA.

Eagle Pass, Tex., Jan. 27.—Passengers arriving in Piedras Negras, the Mexican town opposite here reported last night that the Villa forces had captured Monclova, Coahuila. It was said Carranza troops were retreating toward Sabinas Felipe, a town in Coahuila, about 150 miles southwest of here, and from which the passenger train arrived.

Contradictory statements were made by the passengers as to the losses on either side, but it was said the Villa troops numbered about 5,000.

Wire communication between Piedras Negras and Monclova was severed late yesterday.

Decks of Bluecher Swept Clear By Terrific Gun Fire of British.

German Fleet Was Steaming Directly for the English Coast.

London, Jan. 27.—The Scotsman today publishes the alleged narrative of a German bluejacket, a survivor of the German armored cruiser Bluecher and who once lived in the United States.

The bluejacket said the German fleet was advancing at full speed to attack the English coast when the British warships were sighted. Thereupon the Germans turned and made for port. The Bluecher, which was comparatively slow, made desperate efforts to keep up her maximum speed, but the British overhauled her and opened fire at a range of about ten miles.

"We were under fire from first to last," the bluejacket continues. "The British centered their fire on us. It was awful. Our guns were put out of action, our decks were swept and our gun crews wiped out.

"One terrible shell burst in the heart of the ship, where many men were killed. I saw five killed by one shell.

Bluecher Full of Holes.

"I do not know what finished the Bluecher, as she was full of holes, but I heard she struck a torpedo. If so, we can thank the torpedo for saving hundreds of lives from the murderous gunfire. When the ship was sinking I jumped clear off her into the terribly cold water, which was full of dead and

ALEXANDER FOR R. R. COMMISSION

Nomination Sent to Wisconsin Senate; Will Succeed Harlowe.

Madison, Wis., Jan. 27.—The appointment of Walter Alexander, master mechanic of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad, with headquarters in Milwaukee, as a member of the railroad commission of Wisconsin to succeed David Harlowe, whose term expires Feb. 1, was sent to the senate today.

The senate unanimously passed assembly bills to remove the second-choice requirement in primaries and elections for judicial and school officers in Milwaukee, and concurred in assembly measures extending the time for payment of taxes without penalty to March 1.

A bill presented by a Socialist member would limit the use of the injunction in labor disputes.

Turks Army, 120,000 Strong, Under Command of Djemal Pasha.

Fighting Continues All Along Line in Belgian Territory.

Athens, Jan. 27, via London.—It is reported here that three Turkish army corps (about 120,000) men are marching on Egypt, under command of Djemal Pasha.

Great Activity at Suez Canal.

London, Jan. 27.—Dispatches from Cairo state that great military activity prevails at the Suez canal. Troops and warships are being assemgled and all civilians are leaving the vicinity of the canal. Important reconnoisances are being made.

First Engagement Reported.

Cairo, Egypt, Jan. 27, via London.—An engagement occurred yesterday to the eastward of El Kantara, in Egypt, presumably with the advance guard of a Turkish army, although details are lacking. The Egyptian losses were one officer and four men slightly wounded. Only a compartively small number of men were engaged in the fighting, which was in the nature of skirmishes.

Paris, Jan. 27, 2:40 p. m.—The French report given out by the war office this afternoon records yesterday the customary artillery exchanges and says that on Jan. 25 the Germans lost near Ypres what amounted to a battalion and a half of men (one German battalion contains 1,000 men). The French claim that a check was administered to the Germans near La Bassee yesterday. Here the losses of the Germans are placed at two battalions. The report follows:

"In the sections of Nieuport and of Ypres there were artillery engagements yesterday. A German aeroplane was brought down within the lines of the Belgian army. Statements made by prisoners establish the fact that it was not a battalion but a brigade which on Jan. 24 attacked our trenches to the east of Ypres. The enemy lost

BRITISH WARSHIPS ARE HOME AGAIN

Participants in North Sea Fight Have All Returned to Port.

London, Jan. 27.—Most of the warships engaged in Sunday's naval battle in the North sea returned home Monday and during Monday night, it was announced here today. The Lion, the flagship of Sir David Beatty, was the last of the battle cruisers to arrive. She returned Tuesday morning when the Arethusa and the Laurel, among the light cruisers, some of the destroyers and the battle cruisers Tiger, Princess Royal, Indomitable and New Zealand were already at their moorings.

The Lion was greeted with vociferous cheers by the crews of the anchored warships. It was a spontaneous tribute of affection to Vice Admiral Beatty and his flagship.

SUMMARY OF THE WAR NEWS

Emperor William is 56 years old today, and although there is little information of the day's military activities, the latest reports available made it apparent that the emperor's troops were endeavoring to win for him a birthday gift in the shape of victory at arms. Two days ago violent German attacks were begun at several points. They developed with greatest force against the British, along La Bassee canal in France, near the Belgian border, and against the French further south, in the region of Craonne.

Today's official communications from Paris and Berlin, which deal with yesterday's fighting, show that on the day before the emperor's birthday the Germans won a measure of success near Craonne. The French war office admits that trenches were lost, but says that some of them were retaken later. The German statement, however, claims sweeping victories in this region, including the capture of several points of support along a section of the front nearly a mile in extent.

Concerning the fighting at La Bassee, both the French and the Germans claim the advantage. A heavy snowfall has interrupted the struggle in Alsace.

The German war office says there are no changes in Poland; and that in East Prussia, Russian attacks were repulsed.

The Turkish attempt to invade Egypt, several times reported, has at last begun, according to unofficial advices from Athens, which say that three Turkish army corps under command of Djemal Pasha are engaged in the movement. A Cairo dispatch states that British troops and warships are being assembled near the Suez canal, and that civilians are leaving the scene.

The new Austro-German plan in the east, which as an immediate object calls for the protection of the dual monarchy from Russian invasion rather than the prosecution of the offensive along the Warsaw front, seems to have exerted already a marked influence on the campaign. Heavy reinforcements of Germans have been sent into Hungary to assist the Austrians and an official statement today from Vienna reports that important victories over the Russians have been gained.

The fighting took place at the mountain passes leading into Northeastern and Northwestern Hungary and it is said that the Russians were compelled to evacuate important positions, after repeated and fruitless counter-attacks. These reported gains for the Austrians follow their successes in Bukowina, which Vienna regards as having crippled the Russian offensive there and rendered unlikely the participation of Roumania in the war, at least at this time.

A Russian official statement asserts that successes were won in recent fighting in Galicia, where attacks of the Austro-German forces were repulsed everywhere. In Central Poland, along the Warsaw front, the Germans made several violent assaults, but are said to have been driven back with heavy losses.

In the west the British troops once more are withstanding the brunt of the German attack. Severe fighting continues along La Bassee canal, where the Germans appear to have won the advantage.

Australia has plans for the formation of a rifle reserve of 500,000 men, to be sent to Europe if the war is prolonged.

FINGER MARKS LEAD TO ARREST

Three Are Arraigned for Robbing Storeroom of Furnace Company.

Charged with burglary of the Zenith Furnace company's storeroom at 318 West First street on the night of Dec. 31, three men were arraigned in municipal court yesterday afternoon on charges of second degree larceny. They were picked up by the police several days ago.

They were Samuel Hood, Charles Cherrier and Oscar Dahl. All of them waived examination and were held to the grand jury on $300 bail, which Dahl alone was able to furnish.

Led by Cherrier, a former employe, the three are alleged to have entered the furnace company's storeroom late at night, taking various "supplies" with them, so as to properly usher in the new year.

Several articles of value were missed by employes later and finger marks on the abandoned beer bottles led to the arrest of Cherrier and his companions.

TOWNS' SIMILAR NAMES CAUSE OF CONFUSION.

Watford, N. D., Jan. 27.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Great Northern road is endeavoring to induce the residents of Watford to change the name of the town because of the confusion in shipments to Watford and to Wolford in Pierce county. An to the other town and in numerous instances small shipments have been sent there. Local people, while admitting the similarity of the names causes confusion, are averse to changing the name, but it is probable this will be done some time this spring.

ASK HICKEN TO FILE AGAIN

Board of Trade Members Get Up Petition for Public Safety Commissioner.

Pledge Support and Express Appreciation of His Past Services.

That Commissioner W. A. Hicken is popular on the board of trade there is no mistake.

This morning a petition asking him to file for the office of commissioner at the coming spring election, was placed on the standing desk in the lobby of the pit room, and by noon fifty-nine signatures had been attached. Men who had not happened to notice the petition lying there were being led to it by others who had signed, and quite a campaign in a small way resulted.

Of course, the safety commissioner has his enemies on the board as well as elsewhere, and there were those who refused to sign and expressed the hope that if he ran he would be defeated.

The reason for the petition is that it has been understood that Mr. Hicken is contemplating retiring and not filing for the office again. It is hoped by his admirers that if enough people will urge him to file he will do so; and the prediction was made repeatedly on the board this morning that if he runs he cannot be beaten. The petition reads as follows:

"We, the undersigned, duly qualified voters, appreciating your efforts as commissioner in making this city a better and cleaner city to live in, and the efficiency of your administration as commissioner of public safety, hereby request you to again file for the office of city commissioner, and promise that we will use our best efforts to elect you."

Park Point Car System Loses $2,349 During Last Year.

The Park Point Traction company, which operates the street car system on Minnesota Point, lost money again last year, according to the annual report of the company filed yesterday with City Auditor Campbell. Franchise-holding corporations are compelled by the city charter to file annual reports of their business and the Park Point company is the first to comply with the order so far this year.

Total earnings for the year from fares, freight and miscellaneous sources amounted to $24,271.12, while the expenditures reached the total of $26,620.87, thus causing a loss for the year of $2,349.75. During the year the company also sold $20,000 in stock.

The statement, which is sworn to by Robert R. Dunn, president of the company, contains a complete account of the business done during the year, going also into detail with regard to the receipts and expenditures. The cost of the plant up to Jan. 1, 1914, was $140,886.56, while, during last year, a total of $3,006.63 was spent on improvements and new construction.

The receipts for the year follow:

Fares	$21,330.65
Freight	2,235.90
Fire car	360.00
Miscellaneous	344.57
Total	$24,271.12

The expenditures follow:

Wages	$ 7,389.49
Salaries	2,275.00
Power	3,979.75
Tracks	3,270.56
Operation and maintenance of barn	4,098.39
Taxes	722.81
Insurance	329.54
Miscellaneous	880.89
Interest on mortgage	667.81
New construction	3,006.63

THEORIES ARE STARTED BY FINDING NUGGETS.

Van Hook, N. D., Jan. 27.—(Special to The Herald.)—On several occasions it has been reported in this locality that small nuggets of gold were found. James Wilson reports the finding of two nuggets in the gizzard of a fowl he killed. No claims are made that there are any veins or mines, further than mere isolated cases of drift gold. Notwithstanding that fact, there is a belief that in the draws and ravines on the Barthold reservation it might be possible to find gold in considerable quantities, where it has been carried by erosion of the soil.

FARMER ACCUSED OF BRUTAL CRIME.

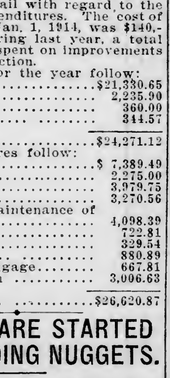

Cumberland, Wis., Jan. 27.—(Special to The Herald.)—George Seller, a prominent and well to do farmer, residing between here and Shell Lake, was arrested yesterday, charged with incest with his 12-year-old daughter, the complainant being his oldest son. He was bound over to the circuit court and released upon $1,500 bail.

SET THEIR MARK HIGH

Credit Men Expect 5,000 at Their Convention in August.

Call It "Most Important Convention Duluth Has Secured for 1915."

Five thousand credit men in Duluth, the "always cool" city Aug. 16, 17, 18 and 19.

That is the star to which members of the National Association of Credit Men have hitched their wagon in making plans for their annual convention.

"The most important convention Duluth has secured for 1915," is the way this gathering of credit men is regarded by the public affairs committee of the Commercial club, and plans for the reception of delegates are being made on a scale to conform to this belief.

W. B. Brinkman, manager of the George A. Gray company, believes that civic organizations throughout the city are planning to co-operate in a way that will insure the right kind of a reception for the many visitors, and guarantee a nation-wide dissemination of the fame of "Greater Duluth."

Already stickers are being sent to the 1,800 members of the organization bearing the words "Duluth in Mid-August," to be used on all business stationery of dry goods firms and dealers throughout the United States. The membership list of the organization includes the names of financial managers and credit men from a majority of the large retail stores of the country.

Duluth's Credit association has thirty-two prominent retailers on its membership role, representatives of all the larger stores and many smaller ones. They are asking that Duluth business men generally will invite their customers to the Head of the Lakes for the convention, when they will have an opportunity of hearing nationally-known experts on credit discuss the various problems.

D. J. Woodlock of St. Louis, president of the organization, is head of the national program committee. Local credit men composing the committee on general arrangements are: Charles Nolan, Glass Block; A. C. Pearsons, French & Bassett; E. M. Gillette, Columbia Clothing company; E. G. Linck, Kelley Furniture company; C. R. Fenton, Lake Hardware company; G. C. Fairly, Duluth Credit Men's association; Albert Mark, Freimuth & Co., and James K. Meakin, J. M. Gidding company.

Some idea of the scope of the convention is given by an "advance notice" from S. L. Gilfillan of the Glass Block store, Minneapolis, who estimates that 80 credit men from the Twin Cities will make the trip to Duluth by auto. Of these, 45 will be from Minneapolis and 35 from St. Paul.

Eastern credit men planning to attend the Panama-Pacific exposition, already have decided, in many cases, to make the trip up the Great Lakes, stopping off at Duluth during convention week.

Tentative plans for the convention include a banquet at the Commercial club and various other entertainments.

LYCEUM—Baldwin Players in "The Virginian."
ORPHEUM—Vaudeville and motion pictures.
NEW GRAND—Vaudeville and motion pictures.

ZELDA—Photoplay.

Amusement Notes.

Twelve new members of the Baldwin Stock company are seen the Lyceum this week. Mr. Baldwin was forced to add that number of people to his company for the production of "The Virginian," which is this week's bill. They were secured for one week only, being "borrowed" from stock companies in the Twin Cities, Milwaukee and Chicago, but their presence makes the Baldwin company the biggest stock company ever seen in Duluth, for this week at least. Four complete new sets of scenery were also painted for the play. The scene showing the camp of the cattle thieves in the third act is especially beautiful, and it has never failed to receive a "hand" at any performance this week. The attendance this week has justified the increased expense which Mr. Baldwin has gone to in the production of "The Virginian." In spite of the below zero weather the attendance has been above the average, starting with a record-breaking audience Sunday afternoon.

Next week the Baldwin Players will present "Mary Jane's Pa." This charming comedy drama has been seen in Duluth but once before, when Max Figman opened his season's engagement in it here. Little Murial Cole, the child actress of Minneapolis, will be brought to Duluth for one week to take the child's part in the play. This is one of the most important roles and the little girl, who has been seen in Duluth before, is expected to make many new friends in the part.

Will M. Cressy, playing at the Orpheum this week in one of his typical "Cressy" sketches, entitled "The Man Who Remembered," is a man of many accomplishments. Author, actor, short story writer, mechanic, marine engineer, globe trotter, are just a few of his many accomplishments. Mr. Cressy and Miss Dayne, his partner, made a two-and-a-half-year tour of the world in an automobile, playing almost every civilized country in the world, and during the entire time Mr. Cressy made all the repairs on his automobile. He also holds a government license as marine engineer. One of his most noted publications in book form is the quaint little story, "Hills of Hampshire." Added to his many other accomplishments is his natural talent in telling a good story, and he always has a good stock of funny happenings up his sleeve. His latest happened on the stage of the Orpheum theater, Minneapolis, two weeks ago. This is the way Cressy tells it:

"On the bill at Minneapolis with us were Lamberti, the impersonator of famous musicians, and George Whiting, of Whiting and Burt. Whiting following Lamberti on the program. Just before Lamberti goes on the stage he lays out all of his different make-ups for the characters he impersonates on a table off stage, different kinds of whiskers and mustaches, all glued up, and during the act he rushes off and sticks them on his face in a second. Well, this day, Lamberti, Whiting and myself were standing beside this table just before Lamberti was to go on and as the curtain went up we moved over to one side out of the way. After a couple of numbers Lamberti rushed off to make a change to Paderewski, but could not locate his mustache. He rushed about frantically, and then was forced to go on without it, the first time in history Paderewski was presented to the public without a mustache.

"Whiting's act was on next, and he always dresses in immaculate white flannels; he did his little song, bowed and turned around with his back to the audience, and caused the biggest laugh he ever got on the stage, for the audience discovered where Paderewski's mustache had gone."

Today will be the last chance to see Mlle. Nadge, the wonderful little exponent of physical culture, as well as all the other good things that the management of the New Grand has booked this first half of the week. May and Kilduff, in their comedy skit, "A Limb of the Law," are creating laughs by the score, and Belle Connolly with her winning personality, pretty face, and charming songs and dances, has scored heavily. "Oscar," the man-monkey featured with Woodford's animals, performs many interesting tricks with almost human intelligence. A three-reel subject, "My Friend From India;" a two-reel feature, "The Third Act;" one of the Olive stories, "Olive's Manufactured Mother;" a western drama, "Broncho Billy's Mission" and a comedy, complete the bill.

Commencing tomorrow the bill will change entirely. It will contain a fund of vaudeville treats. The Keough Sisters, in singing, dancing and changes, offer a novelty in their line. Davit and Duvall present a new comedy sketch, "Holding Out," and Al Lawrence, the man with the funny face, is a mimetic comedian. The Four Castrillians perform many hazardous and thrilling feats in acrobatics and tumbling. Among the photoplays will be the two-reel feature, "Dear Old Girl," with Francis X. Bushman and Leah Baird; one of the Helen Holmes stories of railroad life, "The Leap From the Water Tower;" and a comedy, "Countess Swedie." The Hearst-Selig News will contain many interesting views from places of prominence all over the world.

"The Girl of the Golden West," at the Rex today and tomorrow, was produced by the Jesse L. Lasky company in association with David Belasco, and much of the work was done at the new Lasky 20,000-acre ranch. The play was written by David Belasco himself and he has seen that nothing has been spared to make the story picturesque and thrilling, and Mr. Belasco has publicly declared himself as not only satisfied but decidedly gratified by the filming of his Broadway hits by the Jesse L. Lasky Feature Company-Paramount.

The first episode of "The Exploits of Elaine Dodge," were seen at the Zelda theater last night. The Consolidated Insurance company of which Taylor Dodge is president, has suffered considerable loss through the mysterious robberies of the master criminal known as "The Clutching Hand." Perry Bennett, a young lawyer, assistant to Dodge, is endeavoring to discover the criminal. Being of an affable and pleasing personality, he creates a deep impression upon Elaine, his employer's beautiful daughter. Dodge is visited by Limpy Red, a gunman wronged by "The Clutching Hand." Limpy Red advises him how the mysterious crook can be found and gives him directions to find his lair. Dodge dismisses the gunman, and on returning to his office finds a mysterious note, advising him to at once destroy the directions received. It is signed by a well drawn picture of a Clutching Hand. Greatly perturbed he returns to his home. Stepping out of his limousine, he is surprised to find an envelope with his enemy's trade mark pasted on the door. Entering his home, he is met by Elaine, Bennett and Jameson, a reporter. He refuses to be interviewed by the reporter, and enters his library, where he deposits Limpy Red's directions in his safe. Jameson, hearing Dodge remark that he has discovered "The Clutching Hand," hastens to his friend, Craig Kennedy, a noted detective, and tells him the news. Kennedy's exploits form the remainder of the plot. Episode No. 2 will be seen next Tuesday and Wednesday.

SUPERIOR

CITY FURNISHES WORK.

Employment Is Given to 330 on Public Jobs.

The city of Superior has provided employment for 330 men on city jobs, according to figures given out at the public works office. Most of the men are now working steadily, although on some of the jobs a rotary method is being followed in which the men work one day and lay off the next in order to give another crew an opportunity. Practically all of the men given employment are married and have families to support.

OLD-TIME COLD CURE—DRINK TEA!

Get a small package of Hamburg Breast Tea, or as the German folks call it, "Hamburger Brust Thee," at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teacup full at any time. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus breaking a cold at once.

It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore harmless.

CITY GUARANTEED AGAINST LOSS.

Twenty Superior business men pledged a sum of $500 each as a guarantee against any possible lawsuit brought by property owners on acount of ordering the work of clearing the Stinson tracts near South Superior. The members of the commission feared that such a suit might possibly be brought against the city, and the sum was pledged as a guarantee against any loss of the city through such an action.

RECALL PETITION IS SAID TO BE COMPLETE.

A recall petition said to contain about 1,250 names seeking the recall of Mayor J. S. Konkel of Superior, is complete and will be filed either today or tomorrow, according to leaders in the recall movement. The recall petition is based on alleged incompetency. A similar petition was filed about a year ago and an election resulted in the re-electing of Mayor Konkel. If the petition is filed this week it will necessitate an election to be held early in March. The petition in order to be legal will have to contain 1,189 names.

Given Year Term.

Carl Anderson, 24, who was arrested on a charge of attempting to hold up John A. Johnson of Duluth, pleaded guilty to the charge in superior court yesterday afternoon. He requested that he be sentenced to some place where he would be given an opportunity of learning something. He said he had often wished to learn a trade. Judge Smith sentenced the man to a year at the Green Bay reformatory.

POSTPONE CONFERENCE ON STRIKE SETTLEMENT

Cleveland, Ohio, Jan. 27.—Inability of John P. White, international president of the International Mine Workers of America, and other officers of that organization to be in Cleveland today caused a postponement of the joint conference of the miners and operators proposed by Hywell Davies and Daniel J. Keefe, Federal conciliators appointed by Secretary of Labor Wilson to try to bring about a settlement of the strike in the Eastern Ohio coal fields which has affected 15,000 miners since the first of April last. It is expected that the two parties to the controversy will meet with the conciliators tomorrow.

ON TRIAL FOR BIG THEFT

George Robertson Faces Charge of Stealing Copper Worth $40,000.

Two Alleged Companions Will Be Brought Before Jury Later.

George K. Robertson, jointly indicted by the January grand jury with Joseph Regall and Zigmund Zalk on a charge of grand larceny in the first degree in connection with the alleged theft of about $40,000 worth of copper annode plates from a Northern Pacific box car in November, 1913, was brought to trial before Judge Fesler and a district court jury this morning. The defendants demanded separate trials, and Robertson's case was called first.

The indictment before the court charges the three men with stealing thirty-two copper annodes from the Northern Pacific Railway company, Nov. 5, 1913, and states that the value of the copper referred to is $3,000. It is understood that the count only covers a portion of the property alleged to have been stolen from the company. Robertson and Regall were arraigned under the indictment and pleaded not guilty. Zalk has not yet been arraigned although he was present in court this morning.

Robertson and Regall were Northern Pacific switchmen at the time of the alleged theft, and Zalk was the foreman of the yards of the Duluth Iron & Metal company, where the stolen loot was found and recovered last November, almost a year after it had been reported lost. Zalk, it is understood, will appear at Robertson's trial as a state's witness. This was indicated by attorneys this morning in the examination of prospective jurymen.

More Than Year Elapses.

More than a year elapsed between the time the copper plates were stolen and the date of their recovery by the railroad officials. The robbery, with which the defendants are charged, was committed during the night of Nov. 4, 1913, when a freight car containing $100,000 worth of copper annodes disappeared from the Garfield avenue yards. The following day, the car showed up again, but with $40,000 worth of the plates missing. The car was checked on Nov. 4, 1913, at No. 2 dock on Garfield avenue and the following day it was checked as an empty car on the Fifth avenue tracks and assigned to a freight house for reloading.

After the car was opened the theft was discovered, but railroad officials who investigated the matter were unable to learn how the car was switched from the Garfiled avenue yards to Fifth avenue west or how the copper was stolen, as each plate weighed 525 pounds. On Nov. 19, the police were notified. At the request of railroad detectives and others working on the case, the report of the theft was not made public at the time.

Loot Discovered.

The discovery of the loot might never have been made had it not been for the honesty of the day watchman and the co-operation of the officials of the Duluth Iron & Metal company who informed the police when it became known that the stolen copper had been planted beneath a pile of junk in the company's yard.

It is understood that Zalk, the foreman, has made a confession that he purchased the copper from Robertson and Regall, the two switchmen, and that he paid them $300 for it. Both men are married. Robertson lives at Woodland and Regall at 726 Tenth avenue east. Zalk is 42 years old.

The copper was the property of the Anaconda Copper Mining company and was in transit from Butte to Pittsburg when the theft occurred. John H. Norton, former county attorney, is defending Robertson and County Attorney Warren E. Greene is prosecuting.

THREE FEATURES AT BOYS' DEPARTMENT

Minstrel Show, Play and Athletic Event to Be Staged.

Three features are being planned at the boys' department of the Y. M. C. A. The first will be the athletic event for all the members, which will be on Friday night. The meet will be held in the boys' "gym" and will be divided into two divisions—for those more than 15 years and those under 15 years of age. The events will be the broad jump, three standing broad jumps, running high jump, pull ups, and the potato race.

The chief prizes will be the silver medals, which will go to the winner in each division. A gold stickpin will be given to the winner of a first place in each event. After the meet an oyster supper will be served to all who win first, second or third place in the meet. Points will also be given those who reach the standards set for the Hustler club.

The rehearsals are being held every Tuesday for the Minstrel show, which is always the main feature entertainment of the year at the boys' department. There will be four end men this year instead of two as in former years. Laurence Duby, an old-time star of the minstrels, who has been absent from the city for a number of years, is back with the show again and promises some surprises in the line of clog dancing. With him will be Lincoln Brown, who promises to be an exceptionally good end man, and the other two are well known from former years—Edward Scrivens and Russell Duncan. The music is all new, and the minstrels are enthusiastic over it. The show will be given Thursday and Friday, Feb. 25 and 26.

A new play, entitled "Father, Ex-Officio," is being rehearsed by members of the cabinet and will be given some time in March.

INVESTIGATION IS CONTINUED

New Brunswick, N. J., Jan. 27.—The grand jury continued today its investigation into the shooting of nineteen strikers, two of whom died of their wounds inflicted at Roosevelt, N. J., Jan. 19, by armed guards sworn in as deputy sheriffs and stationed at the Liebig fertilizer plant of the American Agricultural company.

Eighteen witnesses had already been examined when the investigation was resumed today. More than eighty more were still to testify. Among the number were Mayor Hermann of Roosevelt and Sheriff Houghton of Middlesex county, concerning whom Supreme Court Justice Bergen charged the grand jury yesterday to indict for misconduct in office if it were found that they had failed to do their duty.

MEN'S "DUDS" TO BE PLAIN

"Nothing Extreme," Say Tailors in Planning the 1915 Styles.

But "Go as Far as You Like" in Haberdashery.

No American man likes extreme clothes.

That was the decision reached by prominent American tailors, in planning the spring campaign, and unlike "Americanized" styles for the fair sex, men's garments have become even more conservative as a direct result of the war.

"The war in Europe," declares one well known style authority, "and the consequent elimination of European interference with the fashions and foibles of the well dressed men on this side of the Atlantic, might have brought about some startling results, but it has not done so."

"It will be America's year," say Duluth tailors, "and no man need don extreme clothes to be in fashion."

Coats, sleeves, vests, shoulders and the rest will be moderate in construction. There will be again the staple blues and grays and browns, with checks and stripes in various effects.

Double breasted coats are "in" again. Or, if you don't want a double-breasted coat, you will be shown a single-breasted one, with a double-breasted vest, very similar to those worn a decade ago. This vest is the only concession to Dame or rather Father Fashion, the dictators have made.

Coat lapels are not as wide as formerly, and not as deep in cut. Trousers are to be "straight up and down," with a two-inch cuff for the younger men.

The flat-chested youth will have a slight advantage this season, because of the double breasts, but the Beau Brummel who is the proud possessor of broad houlders is fixed, because padded shoulders are "not to be done."

Silks, linens and soft flannels again will be pre-eminent when warmer weather comes.

"The days of foppishness are past," say the tailors, "and now is an excellent time to emphasize this fact, as long as we don't have to observe the dictates of Parisian and English tailors."

"Freedom and dash," will characterize the clothes of Young America. Translated, this means, say tailors: "Go as far as you like."

Early spring overcoats will be close fitting. The 1915 spring coat is a reincarnation of the Newmarket coat, which held a tremendous sway many years ago and lasted through several years.

Pink, green, lavender and blue collars, with fine stripes and small figures, are being exploited by haberdashers for spring and summer wear, and will be more in evidence than last year.

Shoes and boots of the cloth topped variety are lengthening their stay in the spotlight.

ASKS CONGRESS NOT TO PUT ON EMBARGO

House Advances Resolution Regarding Export of Foodstuffs.

By a Staff Correspondent.

St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 27.—(Special to The Herald.)—After a long and impassioned debate, the house in committee of the whole, early this afternoon, by an overwhelming vote, advanced to the calendar a joint resolution by Representative Bendixen of Morgan, asking congress not to put an embargo on the exportation of farm products to the warring nations of Europe.

After being under a call for the first time this session to get in absent members, lasting two and a half hours, the senate this afternoon elected George H. Sullivan of Stillwater to be its president pro tem, by 36 votes to 28 for Senator Henry N. Benson of St. Peter.

TWO BRITISH SHIPS WERE DISABLED

Cruiser Lion and Destroyer Meteor Injured in Sea Fight.

London, Jan. 27.—It was officially announced last evening that the British battle cruiser Lion and the British torpedo boat destroyer Meteor were disabled in Sunday's naval battle in the North sea and were towed into port. All the British ships engaged in the combat, the official statement says, returned safely to port.

The announcement was made by the secretary of the admiralty, whose statement said:

"All the British ships and torpedo boat destroyers engaged in Sunday's action, have returned in safety to port.

"The Lion, which had some of her forward compartments flooded by shells below the water line, was taken in tow by the cruiser Indomitable. The destroyer Meteor, which also was disabled, was taken in tow by the destroyer Liberty. Both vessels were guarded by strong escorts of destroyers. Repairs to both vessels can be made speedily.

"The total number of casualties among the officers and men reported to the admiralty is:

"On the Lion 17 men wounded; on the Tiger one officer and 9 men killed and 3 officers and 8 men wounded; on the Meteor 4 men killed and one man wounded.

"It is not believed that any other casualties occurred, but if so, they will be immediately published.

"As soon as Vice Admiral Beatty's report is received, a fuller account will be given."

ATTORNEY'S FEES CONSTITUTE LIEN

Court Allows Mrs. Buell $250 for Services in Injury Suit.

A claim for attorney's fees constitutes a lien for $250 against the $5,000 settlement of a personal injury action brought by Sam Belford against Whitney Bros. company for injuries received three years ago. In district court yesterday afternoon, Judge Dancer handed down a decision in which he held that the services of Mrs. E. C. Buell, an attorney formerly of this city, were worth $250 in connection with the case. Judgment for this amount was ordered in favor of Walter A. Pollock of St. Paul, who intervened to determine the rights of his assignor.

Mr. Buell was injured while working on a dock. He first engaged Mrs. Buell as his attorney and after she had brought suit against his employers in July, 1913, Belford, unbeknown to her, repudiated his contract with her and engaged O. J. Larson as his attorney. Attorney Larson secured a settlement for $5,000. Mrs. Buell claimed a lien on this settlement for her services. She sold her rights to Walter A. Pollock of St. Paul, who intervened to determine the rights of his assignor.

CUT THIS OUT

OLD ENGLISH RECIPE FOR CATARRHAL DEAFNESS AND HEAD NOISES.

If you know someone who is troubled with head noises, or Catarrhal Deafness, cut out this formula, and hand it to them, and you will have been the means of saving some poor sufferer perhaps from total deafness. Recent experiments have proved conclusively that Catarrhal Deafness, head noises, etc., were the direct cause of constitutional disease, and that salves, sprays, inhalers, etc., merely temporize with the complaint and seldom, if ever, effect a permanent cure. This being so, much time and money has been spent of late by a noted specialist in perfecting a pure, gentle, yet effective tonic that would quickly dispel all traces of the catarrhal poison from the system. The effective prescription which was eventually formulated, and which has aroused the belief that deafness will soon be extinct, is given below in understandable form, so that any one can treat themselves in their own home at little expense.

Secure from your druggist 1 oz. Parmint (Double Strength), about 75c worth. Take this home and add to it ¼ pint of hot water and 4 oz. of granulated sugar; stir until dissolved. Take one tablespoonful four times a day.

The first dose should begin to relieve the distressing head noises, headache, dullness, cloudy thinking, etc., while the hearing rapidly returns as the system is invigorated by the tonic action of the treatment. Loss of smell and mucus dropping in the back of the throat, are other symptoms that show the presence of catarrhal poison, and which are often entirely overcome by this efficacious treatment. Nearly 90 per cent of all ear troubles are directly caused by catarrh; therefore, there must be many people whose hearing can be restored by this simple home treatment.

Every person who is troubled with head noises, catarrhal deafness, or catarrh in any form, should give this prescription a trial. —Advertisement.

MURPHY ESTATE WILL BE SETTLED

Final Hearing Set for Feb. 23; Property Valued at $300,000.

Feb. 23 has been set by Judge Gilpin as the date for the final hearing on the final account in the estate of the late Simon J. Murphy, timber and mining magnate, whose death occurred Feb. 5, 1905. The final account was filed yesterday afternoon in probate court by Elisha H. Flinn and William H. Murphy, executors under the will.

The estate consists of valuable interests on the Mesaba iron range estimated to be worth upwards of $300,000. Heirs of the Murphy estate will not be obliged to pay any inheritance tax. This is because the inheritance tax law under which Minnesota is operating did not become effective until April 19, 1905.

Elisha J. Flinn, who died Nov. 24, 1911, and Temple E. Dorr, whose death occurred March 19, 1913, were co-partners with Murphy in business, each owning practically the same amount of property in St. Louis county. Flinn's heirs paid a tax amounting to $20,000 and the Dorr estate about $17,000 in inheritance taxes.

FARMERS TO BE PAID FOR CATTLE KILLED.

Washington, Jan. 27.—Prompt payment of farmers' claims for cattle slaughtered in the Federal campaign against the hoof and mouth disease was promised by the department of agriculture when President Wilson signed an urgent deficiency appropriation bill, carrying $2,500,000 to cover the expense of this work. Up to Jan. 1, the campaign had cost the government $2,129,138.

In all the states up to Jan. 1, the total number of animals killed was 101,113, including 46,268 cattle and 47,735 swine.

Now that the government is ready to pay promptly for animals killed, the department officials expect the fight for eradication of the disease to be greatly facilitated.

BATTLE IN NORTH SEA ONE OF MOST THRILLING IN ALL NAVAL HISTORY

men with shattered limbs, who were crying for assistance. After being rescued by the British, we were warmed, fed and clothed."

The sailor is credited with saying that during the raid on Scarborough the men believed they were taking part in a great naval action which was extending all over the North sea.

One of Greatest in History.

The Scotsman which is published in Edinburg also prints other accounts of the battle as gathered from men engaged in it. They describe it as one of the greatest struggles in naval history and thrilling in every respect.

From the position of the German fleet when it was first encountered, these assumed that it is virtually certain its objective was Newcastle. The strength of the raiding squadron was quickly ascertained and as the entire raiding force sheered off immediately it was discovered the chase was a long one before the guns began their work.

For forty miles the two fleets raced along over the shortest route for Helgoland before the guns did any real damage. Then the Lion, which was leading, overhauled the slow Bluecher and in passing gave her a broadside, causing frightful damage. The Lion did not wait, however, but continued in pursuit of the fleeing Derflinger, Seydlitz and Moltke.

The Tiger, which came next, also poured a broadside into the Bluecher, as did also the Princess Royal, both of which were speeding on to join in the case of the others. It was already evident at this time, according to the newspaper's informants, that

HALL NOMINATION IS CONFIRMED BY SENATE

HENRY CLAY HALL.

Washington, Jan. 27.—Confirmation of the nomination of Henry Clay Hall of Colorado to succeed himself as a member of the interstate commerce commission, was voted late yesterday by the senate over vigorous opposition from senators who criticized the commission's recent action in granting increased rates to the railroads.

The motion to confirm the nomination was adopted 36 to 13. Senators Cummins, Bristow, Clapp and Norris spoke today against confirmation.

Mr. Hall was appointed to the commission a year ago to fill the vacancy created when Charles A. Prouty became director of valuation. His term expired Jan. 1 this year.

the Bluecher abandoned by her swifter consorts, was a doomed ship.

Light Cruisers Pull Away.

The chase already had continued two hours. The light German cruisers pluckily did their best to cover the fleeing battle cruisers until the task was hopeless, when they followed the example of the big cruisers and devoted their entire powers to getting away.

The bigger ships were now being steadily overhauled and pounded by the British cruisers. The Lion, which had overhauled and smashed a second cruiser in the German line, according to the men, saw the fight was likely to be prolonged right up to the mine fields. The Tiger, Princess Royal and Indomitable were now within range of the large vessels and the men in their interviews are credited with expressing the belief that they wrought terrible havoc on the German battle cruisers.

The fire of the Derflinger and Seydlitz, it is asserted, grew weaker and weaker as the running fight proceeded.

Derflinger on Fire.

"Within a half an hour's run of the mined area," said one of the men, "the Derflinger was on fire. Masses of flames were sweeping her forward deck, her decks were strewn with wreckage of the shattered upper works, and when she reached the shelter of the mines, she had no answer to give to the hail of projectiles which followed her home.

"She must have suffered serious loss of life."

"The third vessel in the line was believed to be the Seydlitz, but possibly was the Moltke. It suffered even worse. It came under the Lion's fire and besides received something from the fire of the Tiger, the Princess Royal and the Indomitable. She was in a terrible plight. One after another, her guns were smashed and put out of action and there was great execution among her crew. She was a silent ship, steaming desperately for shelter with the whole of her after deck ablaze.

"Meantime the Lion was devoting her attention to the struggle between the light cruisers, using her speed and gun power with great effect. She worked in an endeavor to head off the German light cruisers and drive them down upon the British vessels which were in hot pursuit. It was a difficult task. Having regard for the large number of ships engaged, the Lion did great damage among them, but they succeeded in escaping. Some of them were seriously damaged. In numerous cases, guns had been swept from their mountings and hulls were battered. Many of them will be unfit for action for a long time to come.

Bluecher Made Gallant Fight.

"The Bluecher made a gallant fight, but as ship after ship turned their guns upon her with deadly effect, her doom was sealed from the first. Her upper works were smashed out of all recognition and virtually every gun was put out of action. Shells had been poured from all quarters, spreading devastation and death among her crew.

"Just at the close of the action the Arethusa fired a torpedo at the Bluecher which took effect. Her crew leaped overboard as she suddenly heeled over. She sank steadily with a slight heel until her decks were awash and then with a sudden roar, turned over and sank with her flag still flying. As her keel swung uppermost, scores of swimmers made for it, but that support was soon denied them, as the vessel went to the bottom.

"The British vessels now turned their attention to rescue work and large numbers of men were picked up. More might have been rescued but for a new factor.

"From the direction of Helgoland came a huge seaplane and a number of aeroplanes, which began dropping bombs upon the destroyers engaged in the work of rescue. For this reason, they had to abandon their task.

Aircraft Sail Home.

"Thereupon the aircraft followed the disabled ships homeward. A temporary derangement in the running gear of one of the British warships may have led the observers in the aircraft to the conclusion that serious damage had been inflicted and may have given the Germans a basis for their claim that a British battleship had been destroyed.

"The vessels have come out of the fight bearing undoubted marks of the conflict, but in no case has the damage been other than slight.

"It seems certain that the great losses sustained by the Bluecher were due to the terrible effects of the British gun fire. All the men thrown into the sea were provided with efficient floating equipment and but for the intervention of the air craft, all would have been saved."

Could Be Seen Miles Away.

According to other accounts, the British squadron first sighted the Germans about thirty miles off the British coast. The light was good and the sea fairly smooth. The Germans could be seen miles away and when the Lion fired the first shot from starboard the fleets were fifteen miles apart. The British gradually overhauled the Germans, despite the fact that they were dropping mines as they steamed away.

The accounts vary concerning the aircraft attack. Some say one or several aeroplanes took part, while others state that an airship also took part in the action.

"Vice Admiral Beatty's cruiser squadron had a great reception on its return," says the correspondent of the Daily Mail, wiring from a port, the name of which is not given. "The squadron is battle-scarred but not seriously damaged. Beatty, it is stated, had sworn to catch the Germans.

It was 8 o'clock Sunday morning before the Germans were sighted by the air scouts. At the close of the battle Vice Admiral Beatty left the Lion and went aboard the Princess Royal where he received an ovation from the men."

HAS MESSAGE OF GOOD FOR ROCKEFELLER

thing other than its stated philanthropic purposes. He did not believe the powers of the foundation were unlimited.

"Could it circulate a party platform?" asked Chairman Walsh.

Never Thought Of.

"No such thing has ever been thought of," the witness replied. "Certainly no such thing would ever be attempted."

"Under its charter, might not your foundation circulate editorials, criticisms of the government or the churches? Might it not buy a chain of stores, organize a real estate company or conduct propaganda in favor of trade unions or workmen's compensation?"

Mr. Rockefeller thought the foundation could not do such things. He had not considered the questions, he said.

Chairman Walsh cited a hypothetical case in which the foundation might desire to have circulated a speech of W. L. Mackenzie King, opposing certain suggestions which might be made by Frank V. Hayes of the United Mine Workers of America. Mr. Walsh asked if the funds of the foundation could be used to circulate Mr. King's speech.

Mr. Rockefeller thought they could be.

No Danger of Depreciation.

There was no danger, the witness thought, in the possibility that 100 years hence the directors of the foundation might not be men of the same high standards and ideals as the present directors.

He was asked whether he had objections to a "court of last resort," consisting of the president of the United States, the governor of New York, and presidents of several universities, such court having the power of veto over the Rockefeller foundation. Mr. Rockefeller said he had none; he did not think such an amendment to the charter of the Rockefeller foundation was necessary, however.

Chairman Walsh read the terms of the deed of gift transferring $100,000,000 from Mr. Rockefeller, Sr., to the foundation. They stated that $2,000,000 a year should be set aside out of the income for the personal benefactions of Mr. Rockefeller, Sr., and that the remainder should be turned into the general treasury of the foundation. The total income of the foundation last year, the witness said, was $5,152,761.

The trustees of the foundation met three times a year and the executive committee as often as necessary. He did not think it advisable to publish the minutes of the meetings of either body.

"Did a state superintendent of education in a southern state write a letter to the Rockefeller foundation in which he said the foundation endangered the liberty of education?" asked Mr. Walsh.

"I never heard of it," replied the witness.

MOTHER! GIVE CROSS, SICK CHILD ONLY "CALIFORNIA SYRUP OF FIGS"

If Peevish, Feverish, Tongue Coated, Give "Fruit Laxative" at Once.

No matter what ails your child a laxative should be the first treatment given.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, it is a sure sign your "little one's" stomach, liver and bowels need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once. When cross, peevish, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, eat or act naturally; if breath is bad, stomach sour, system full of cold, throat sore, or if feverish, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in just a few hours all the clogged-up, constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food will gently move out of the bowels and you have a well, playful child again.

Sick children needn't be coaxed to take this harmless fruit laxative. Millions of mothers keep it handy because they know its action on the stomach, liver and bowels is prompt and sure. They also know a little given to-day saves a sick child tomorrow.

Ask your druggist for a 50 cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which contains directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

FARMERS VICTIMS OF ELEVATOR OWNERS

Witness Tells How Iowa Men Had to Protect Themselves.

Chicago, Jan. 27.—Further inquiry into the actions of Chicago grain elevator owners and their effect upon various farmers' elevator companies would be made, it was expected today, as a result of developments brought out in the government's anti-trust suit against the Chicago board before Federal Judge Landis yesterday.

Edward G. Dunn of Mason City, Iowa, Democratic candidate for governor of Iowa in 1912, told the court that the farmers of Iowa had been obliged to organize to protect themselves from elevator owners. The witness asserted that he was manager and owner of a co-operative farmers' grain elevator company and secretary of a state association of these concerns, on whose membership rolls were 65,000 farmers.

Judge Landis questioned Mr. Dunn and was told that at one time Chicago grain operators refused to handle the Iowa farmers' grain. Objections were made to this testimony on the ground that it was not a subject for the government's suit, but Judge Landis proceeded, explaining that "it is a matter of personal curiosity."

Judge Landis took the new angle of the case out of the hands of United States District Attorney Clyne and ordered Mr. Dunn to resume his testimony tomorrow.

The government's inquiry into the alleged price fixing of the now extinct "call committee" of the Chicago board as regards the present high price of wheat was continued today.

TRAIN SET ON FIRE FROM OVERHEATING

Efforts to keep a baggage car warm in 20-degree below zero weather early this morning probably caused a fire which destroyed three Northern Pacific coaches and damaged a cafe car and two other coaches. The loss was estimated at $3,000 today by George W. Atmore of the Northern Pacific.

Fire started in the baggage end of a combination baggage car and smoker used on the Fond du Lac train and spread to a first-class day coach attached to it, and to a first-class coach used on the Ashland train. The cafe car and two other coaches were on adjoining tracks and were badly blistered. The cars were standing in the yards between Seventh and Eighth avenues west. Engine Companies No. 1, 2 and 3, with Assistant Chief C. W. Wilson, responded.

Experienced Women Advise Mother's Friend

Because it is so perfectly safe to use and has been of such great help to a host of expectant mothers, these women, experienced in this most happy period, advise the use of "Mother's Friend."

Applied externally to the abdominal muscles its purpose is to relieve the undue tension upon the cords and ligaments resulting from muscular expansion. Beneath the surface is a network of fine nerve threads and the gentle, soothing embrocation, "Mother's Friend," is designed to so lubricate the muscular fibres as to avoid the unnecessary and continuous nagging upon this myriad of nerves. Applied to the breasts it affords the proper massage to prevent caking.

There is scarcely a well-stocked drug store anywhere but what you can easily obtain a bottle of "Mother's Friend" and in nearly every town and village is a grandma who herself used it in earlier years. Expectant mothers are urged to try this splendid assistant.

Mother's Friend has been prepared by Bradfield Regulator Co., 310 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for nearly half a century. Send for valuable little book to expectant mothers.

RESULTS ARE SATISFACTORY

First Report Made on Operations of Regional Reserve Banks.

New System Has Greatly Strengthened Nation's Financial Situation.

Washington, Jan. 27.—The first report of the Federal reserve board covering the developments which preceded the opening of the twelve regional reserve banks last November and the two months in which they have been in actual operation, was sent to congress today. It announces that noteworthy results already have been accomplished and that the system now "cannot be regarded as experimental in the sense that there is any uncertainty as to the outcome." No legislation is asked for, the board devoting its report chiefly to an outline of how the new system has strengthened the nation's financial situation.

"Less than five months have elapsed," says the report, "since the introduction into our financial system of the most far-reaching change that has been made in the field of American banking since the passage of the national banking act. Less than two months have gone by since the Federal reserve banks actually opened for business. The system, however, is in operation and has already produced results of the most noteworthy character.

Vast Potentialities.

"There is much yet to be done, but the work cannot be regarded as experimental in the sense that there is any uncertainty as to the outcome. The only question is as to how rapidly it will be possible to develop the full capabilities and resources of the Federal reserve system. Its potentialities are vast and should contribute immeasurably in the future to the solidity, stability and flexibility of the American credit systems.

"The question, however, naturally suggests itself and must be frankly faced: what is the proper place and function of the Federal reserve banks in our banking and credit system? On the other hand, it is represented that they are merely emergency banks to be resorted to for assistance only in time of abnormal stress; while on the other it is claimed that they are in essence simply additional banks which should compete with the member banks especially with those of the greatest power. The function of a reserve bank is not to be identified with either of these extremes, although occasions may arise when either of such courses may be imperative. Its duty plainly is not to await emergencies but by anticipation to do what it can to prevent them.

"So also if, at any time, commerce, industry or agriculture are, in the opinion of the Federal reserve board, burdened unduly with excessive interest charges, it will be the clear and imperative duty of the reserve board acting through the discount rate and open market powers to secure a wider diffusion of credit facilities at reasonable rates.

Availability of Resources.

"The ready availability of its resources is of supreme importance in the conduct of a reserve bank. Only then will it constantly carry the promise of being able to protect business against the harmful stimulus and consequences of ill-advised expansions of credit on the one hand, or against the menace of unnatural restrictions and unnecessary contractions on the other, with exorbitant rates of interest and artificial stringencies. It should at all times be a steadying influence, leading when and where leadership is requisite but never allowing itself to become an instrument for the promotion of the selfish interests of any private or sectional group, be their aims and methods open or disguised.

"Time and experience will show what the seasonal variations in the credit demands and facilities in each of the reserve banks of the several districts will be and when and to what extent a reserve bank may, without violating its special function as a guardian of banking reserves, engage in banking and credit operations.

Sensitive to Disturbances.

"The vast and complex structure of modern banking and credit systems is one of extreme delicacy of balance and adjustments, and it must never be overlooked that it is highly sensitive to all manner of disturbances as recent events have painfully demonstrated. The banking systems of the larger nations are closely related to one another, and financial distress or collapse at one point quickly permits shock to all others. Safety for us in critical times will depend on the confidence our system commands, the strength of its reserves, and its power to bring them into action promptly and effectively, if needed.

"In dealing with new districts and entirely changed banking methods, time and experience alone can supply the data necessary for charting the course to be pursued. This consideration, if nothing else would suggest the greatest patience and prudence even if the European horizon were less clouded than it is today. None the less, the board realizes that where extraordinary conditions warrant extraordinary measures, it is the foremost duty of the board and the banks to act promptly and boldly."

The board refers briefly to open market operations of the reserve banks and announces that regulations governing the purchase of acceptances will soon be made public. With the issue of these regulations, the report says, there will be ample employment for all funds of these banks, which experience demonstrates they may safely and properly invest at times when such funds are not absorbed in responding to the demands of commerce, industry and agriculture.

State Banks and Trust Companies.

The board points out that another pressing problem, that of admission of state banks and trust companies to the system, is receiving consideration and "that at least a tentative solution of the problem at issue may be arrived at in the near future."

The report shows that ninety-three state banks and trust companies with aggregate capital and surplus of $8,151,506 have been converted into national banks and entered the system since the passage of the act. Nine state banks and four trust companies with capital and surplus of $17,884,000 have been admitted under their own charters, with the understanding that they will accept regulations for the conduct of business made by the board. Applications from fifty-one other such institutions which prefer to wait for the issuance of regulations governing their admission are pending before the board.

The report reviews the steps which led up to the decision to put the banks in operation Nov. 16, declaring that after getting opinions from a great variety of sources, it found such a diversity that it was guided by its own estimate of the proper moment.

"Events have since shown," it says, "that the opening of the institutions was wisely timed to synchronize with the restoration of activity in our export trade. When the financial anxiety which prevailed during the latter part of the past summer and the difficulty which was then experienced in getting banking accommodations at reasonable rates, even upon security of undoubted solidity, are recalled, the substantial improvement which has taken place since becomes evident, and is a remarkable tribute not only to the recuperative power of American commerce and industry, but also and largely to the beneficial operation of the new banking system."

ARGUMENTS GIVEN FOR AND AGAINST WOMAN SUFFRAGE

Large Crowd Listens to Addresses Before Senate Committee.

Mrs. R. Spiegel of Duluth Among Speakers Against the Bill.

By a Staff Correspondent.

St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 27.—(Special to The Herald.)—With the senate chamber packed to the doors, the galleries filled to overflowing and the corridors jammed with hundreds of women adherents and opponents to woman suffrage, the senate committee on elections yesterday afternoon listened to more than three hours of oratory both for and against Senator Ole Sageng's measure to submit to the people of the state the question of whether or not the women of Minnesota should vote.

Diversity on every hand was the keynote of the afternoon. Diversity in the ages of the women present—some of them mere slips of girls, barely out of their teens, others old women whose gray hairs told of their years. Diversity in the manner of dress—many of the women gaily dressed in expensive gowns, others plainly garbed in clothing which bespoke their moderate circumstances. Diversity in the selection of speakers on both sides. On the one hand a university professor and a Socialist leader speaking for the same cause, though from different angles, as a newspaper woman and leaders of the Women's Christian Temperance union and the Young Women's Christian association.

Each Had Her Badge.

More than three hours before the time set for the hearing the women commenced to arrive at the capitol. Singly, in groups of two and three and again in bands of a dozen or more, the women came in automobiles, by trolley car and on foot. Each one bore her badge, the yellow of the suffrage supporters and the red of the antis. Men, too, scores of them, senators, business men and others, who made it their business to give their support or to voice their protest by their attendance, were present. Comparatively few of the senators occupied their usual seats on the floor of the chamber. These were given up to the women while the solons contented themselves with occupying any vantage spot they could get. The committee on elections, headed by Senator Olai Lende, the chairman, occupied seats at the clerk's desk, while the lieutenant governor's chair, high up on the rostrum, was jointly occupied by a fashionably gowned suffragette and a diminutive page, the lieutenant governor contenting himself with a seat on the steps.

For the advocates of the cause the principal address was made by Mrs. Andreas Ueland, president of the Minnesota Woman Suffrage association. She was ably supported in her remarks by Miss Mary Gray Peck, former professor of English literature at the university; Mrs. Bessie L. Scovell, president emeritus of the W. C. T. U.; Mrs. David F. Simpson, Mrs. C. P. Noyes of St. Paul and Miss Mary McFadden, while Prof. David Swenson and E. F. Emme, Socialist leader, bore the brunt of the address in rebuttal.

For the antis two remarkable addresses were made, one by Mrs. J. B. Gilfillan of Minneapolis and the other by Miss Minnie Bronson of New York and St. Paul, secretary of the National Association Opposed to Woman Suffrage. Other speakers who wore the red rose of the opponents to the measure were Mrs. George H. Sullivan, wife of the Stillwater senator, Mrs. R. Spiegel of Duluth, the French-born wife of an American citizen, Mrs. E. L. Carpenter, the well-known Minneapolis social worker, Mrs. E. C. Stringer of St. Paul and others.

Mrs. Ueland's Address.

In commencing her address Mrs. Ueland attacked directly the statement of the antis that women are more influential because they were unfranchised.

"This claim," the speaker declared, "has its basis on undemocratic principles. It is utter nonsense, it is foolish and unsensible. What greater influence can any body of people have than the possession of the right to vote. In all the Scandinavian countries, from whence we derive such a large proportion of our immigrants, the women have equal rights with the men. Has it interfered with the home life in those countries. It has not. It has improved the home conditions and if it could be done there, could it not be done here. The answer is that the extension of the franchise to women has lifted the tone of their family life and broadened the minds of the women."

Miss Mary Gray Peck said at the outset of her remarks that she was an advocate of woman suffrage because of the inestimable benefits that would accrue to working girls. It was for them that she pleaded, she said.

Mrs. Scovell Talks.

Mrs. Bessie Layth Scovell said that she believed woman should have the ballot because she believed in a whole humanity.

"Since God created man in His own image," she said, "in the image of God created He him; male and female created He them. I believe that man and woman are each the complement of the other. I believe there is a need of a woman's counsel in making and enforcing the laws of the state and the nation, as her counsel is needed in the affairs of the church and the home. I believe that when women are given the right to express their opinions at the ballot box, we shall more nearly approach ideal justice and freedom. To arrive at just conclusions by ballot, all the people, regardless of sex, should have the right to express their best judgment, and in so doing we shall more closely approach 'the voice of the people is the voice of God.'

"We women of Minnesota ask this legislature of 1915 to give us the ballot which we believe is a God-given right and only denied us for a season because men have been thoughtless and have only seen half instead of a whole humanity."

All Right From the People.

Mrs. David F. Simpson based her contentions on the grounds that all right in this sovereign country comes from the people and women have the same right to the ballot as the men, and the burden of proof of this rests not on the advocates of the suffrage cause, but on its opponents. She compared the laws of the Western states where women voted with the laws of Eastern states where they were denied the franchise.

"We do not claim that the laws in these suffrage states are perfect," she declared, "but neither are laws in other states, and that despite the fact that the men have had more than 100 years' experience in making laws. We do not want laws made for us only; we want laws made by us as well. The majority of thinking women in this nation are in favor of suffrage and if thinking men of the nation were as unanimous on any point as the women are on this you would soon see how soon that point would be gained."

Mrs. Charles P. Noyes, president of the St. Paul Y. W. C. A., speaking directly of existing conditions in St. Paul, said that there were things in the city that make the way of the young woman hard, but that the women were powerless to alter this state of affairs.

For Women Workers.

Mrs. A. V. Kingsley of Minneapolis, who said that she represented an organization of women who worked for their living, said that she had come to believe in woman suffrage and to advocate its cause because she saw the great need of better homes.

"I see that the sympathies of and talents of women directed along the course of practical affairs tend always towards better home conditions," she declared, "so I am ready to stand forth and declare my reasons for the faith that is in me and to plead for homes.

"We are not suffragists because we are workers, but because we are women home lovers. I have not always been a suffragette, but since I have been married I have learned that in every practical affair of life I have a part without any opportunity of choice. I have learned that it is not a question of what I have a right to expect of someone else, but a question of what others have a right to expect of me. Not a question of someone else's responsibility and duty to me, but a question of my own responsibility and duty to myself, my family and the world."

The opponents to the measure with half a score of speakers on their list kept their star for the final argument. From the moment that the first words fell from the lips of Miss Minnie Bronson the huge audience listened intently. Not a sound interrupted her twenty-four minutes of discourse. She opened her address by reminding her hearers that though she had been introduced as Miss Bronson of New York, she was actually Miss Bronson of St. Paul.

Against Woman Suffrage.

"It is unfair as it is untrue," she said, "to assume that the advocates of the votes for women are the only ones who have given any time and thought to this question. We of the other side also think, we are by no means social parasites.

"We do not doubt our mental equality with men. All we advocate is a fair division of labor. We train the men who make the laws and if our work is well done, then we need have no fear of the laws they make or the way they enforce them. The man who can't make good as a man and the woman who can't make good as a woman, can't be made a personality by the gift of the ballot.

"If women vote, they must vote either with or against their husbands, which simply means just doubling or nullifying the vote as it stands now, and always increasing the expense. The family is the unit of society and it is represented as a unit by its head, the father.

"Laws are useless unless enforced, and the vote rests naturally with those who can make them effective. Are the women who vote in Colorado better than the women who do not vote in Minnesota? Have they given better laws to Colorado than the men have to Minnesota? Minnesota with only men voting, voted more saloons dry last spring than Illinois did with women voting."

Oppose Women in Politics.

Mrs. J. B. Gilfillan, who fired the opening gun in answer to the suffragists, declared that women opposed to universal suffrage refused to organize in behalf of their convictions, until coerced by patriotism. "Anti-suffragists are opposed to women in political life," she said, "opposed to women in politics. This is often construed to mean, opposed to women in public life, which is a profound mistake. We believe in women in all the usual phases of public life, except political life. Wherever women's influence, counsel or work is needed by the community, there you will find her, so far with little thought of political beliefs.

"As an anti-suffragist, I hope the women of the future in the United States may lose none of the qualities of the woman of the past, but that she may be a woman outside of politics and political machinations, a woman who looketh well to the ways of her household and eateth not the bread of idleness, who stretcheth out the hand to the poor and the needy and in whose tongue is the law of kindness." Mrs. Warren Wakefield, who represented the farmers' wives, urged the senators to "look into your hearts and vote as you think best."

"In the name of 13,000 members of the Association Opposed to Woman Suffrage, I bear you protest against the imposing on women of a franchise which they do not need and which the majority do not want," declared Mrs. E. C. Stringer of St. Paul.

"The wage-earning woman does not want to vote, the women who does is she of the idle hands, not the one who works for her bread. In the name of 800 working women of St. Paul, I protest."

In rebuttal the principal addresses were delivered by Prof. Swenson of the university, and E. F. Emme, the Socialist leader. Both drew out what they considered were the weak spots in their opponents' armor and both delivered addresses which were listened to with marked attention. The antis were not allowed time for rebuttal.

DEFECTIVE PAGE

Woman's Realm

Lady Augusta Gregory, who will lecture to the members of the Drama league Feb. 11 at the Little theater, is as much interested in establishing a national theater in America as she was in the work of the Abbey players in Dublin.

Lady Gregory's idea of a national theater for America is for each state to have a theater where a local stock company of amateurs would produce plays written by residents of the state. At the end of the season each state theater would submit the best of its plays to the governing board of a national theater in New York, or, better still, send its company to New York to present the prize play.

Lady Gregory, who took so important a part in the national theater movement of Ireland, maintains that to have promise of permanency a national theater movement must spring from the people. She would have the playwrights not only residents of the states in which they write, but natives of their respective communities, and the plays deal with the lives of home folk. She thinks the competition that would be created between the different states would be the life of a new art movement.

The plan has not been received with anything like enthusiasm by actors, especially idle actors.

ARCHEOLOGY PROGRAM.

American Ruins and Roman Excavations Are Described.

Mrs. H. L. Gage, who has made a study of archeology, was in charge of the meeting of the department of education and home of the Twentieth Century club yesterday afternoon. She spoke of the ruins in Guatemala and Yucatan, comparing the pyramids of Yucatan with those of Egypt. Mrs. Gage referred to the work of Augustus Le Plongeon, the French archeologist, who, with his wife, spent twelve years studying the relics of Guatemala and Yucatan.

Miss Grace Colby told of the excavations made in the vicinity of Rome in 1909 and described the aqueducts that were unearthed at that time.

Mrs. T. A. Armstrong gave an account of the work of Mme. Curie, the French scientist. Mrs. J. N. Martin and Mrs. M. Hirschfield had as their subject, Emma Lazarus, the Jewish poet, who has done notable work for Jewish immigrants.

W. D. STUDY CLASS.

Dr. Lefkovits Speaks on "Austria-Hungary."

At the meeting of the West Duluth study class of the Twentieth Century club yesterday afternoon at the West Duluth library, Dr. Maurice Lefkovits spoke on "Austria-Hungary," pointing out the independence of each country from the other, except in matters pertaining to the army, and the characteristics of the two peoples. He characterized the Hungarians as picturesque and cultured, and paid a tribute to Emperor Francis Joseph.

Mrs. W. H. Keeler reviewed subjects of current interest, touching on art, literature, economics and war news.

Miss Pauline Solem gave two piano numbers, "Impromptu," by Reinhold, and "Egeria," by E. R. Kroeger.

Mrs. T. F. Olsen was the leader of the afternoon.

At the next meeting, to be held Feb. 9, Mrs. Milton E. Allen will be the leader and "Russia" will be the subject.

BRIDGE PARTY.

King's Daughters Try to Raise Funds to Continue Work.

The King's Daughters will give an auction bridge party at the Spalding hotel next Wednesday for the benefit of the Red Cross workshop they are conducting at the F. A. Patrick factory. Many women will go singly but those who wish to engage tables for private parties may do so by applying to Mrs. C. W. Andrews or Mrs. J. B. Cotton. There will be a small admission fee and prizes will be awarded.

Since the workshop was opened Jan. 11 with money raised at the indoor carnival, needy women with persons dependent upon them have been given employment making hospital shirts for the Red Cross society after patterns prescribed by that organization. The King's Daughters have co-operated with the Associated Charities and the Free Employment bureau in carrying on the work. The shop will be forced to close in a short time unless money is raised to carry on the work.

Sheridan Program.

In addition to the Richard Brinsley Sheridan program that will be given at the meeting of the literature department of the Twentieth Century club tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock, in the library clubroom, Mrs. F. B. Cronk will repeat the reading she gave from Beaumont and Fletcher's "The Knight of the Burning Pestle," at the Twentieth Century club meeting last Friday afternoon. Mrs. Cronk's readings last week were so enjoyable that requests were made for a repetition.

Dr. J. M. Robinson will lecture on Sheridan and Mrs. George A. Reifsteck will read from "The School for Scandal." The meeting will be open to all members of the Twentieth Century club.

DULUTH WILL SEE HOW THEY SKATE AND DANCE ON SKATES IN EUROPE

MISS MARGARET SHEAK.

Miss Margaret Sheak of Berlin and John Davidson of St. Paul will introduce the continental style of skating this evening at 8 o'clock at the curling rink. Miss Sheak will give an exhibition of the free continental style, Mr. Davidson will do trick and acrobatic skating, and both of them will waltz, two-step, three-step and illustrate dances in three, six, ten and sixteen time. All the latest spirals and free skating as performed in the leading rinks of Europe also will be shown.

Miss Sheak and Mr. Davidson wear skates with long blades that round at the toe. These skates make the continental style of dancing possible.

Miss Sheak, whose English trails off into German and gesticulations, has been a professional skater six years. She has performed in the Admiral's palace in Berlin, a combination of hotel, dancing hall and ice rink. The rink is the only one of its kind in the world and is large enough to accommodate 100 professional skaters without crowding, and represents a large investment. Last winter Miss Sheak taught skating at Engelberg, Switzerland, and the winter before at Adelboden. She came to America last March and after filling an engagement with a company started out for herself. She came to Duluth from Chicago, where she has been skating at the Sherman hotel and at the Midway Garden rink. One of her brothers is now giving skating exhibitions in that city.

One of Miss Sheak's brothers is held as a Russian prisoner in Siberia and another one, who is also in the German army, was wounded while in France and is now in a hospital.

Mr. Davidson returned recently from St. Petersburg. He has spent four years skating throughout Russia and two additional years at the principal European centers. He is a member of a family of famous skaters, including Harley, Mabel and Fanny Davidson.

"We will give the people an idea of the beautiful style of continental skating," Mr. Davidson said. Switzerland is the great country for skating and as there are as many American and English persons who go to winter resorts in Switzerland as there are persons of other nations the Americans and English are as proficient in the continental style of skating as the continentals themselves.

JEROME DISMISSED FROM THAW CASE

Ceases to Be Deputy Attorney General of New York.

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 27.—William Travers Jerome yesterday ceased to be a deputy attorney general. He recently was specially designated to the position by Attorney General Woodbury in order that he might aid in returning Harry K. Thaw to New York. Hereafter Deputy Attorney General Franklin Kennedy and Frank K. Cook will have charge of the Thaw case. In notifying Jerome of his dismissal, the attorney general said he did not feel justified in continuing the expense of special counsel.

Thaw Pleased.

New York, Jan. 27.—William Travers Jerome last night declined to discuss his removal from the office of deputy attorney general in the Thaw case.

When Thaw was informed in the Tombs of Jerome's dismissal he refused to make any comment, although he apparently was much pleased. In the past Thaw has frequently referred to Jerome as his nemesis.

Franklin Kennedy, deputy attorney general assigned by Attorney General Woodbury to handle the Thaw case, said:

"I have no doubt Mr. Jerome will co-operate with us in every way possible."

MAY NEVER BE LOWER

Fur Dealers Say Prices Have Reached Low Water Mark.

Claim This Is Time for Milady to Lay in Supply.

That fur prices quoted in an article in The Herald last evening were altogether too low, is the claim of several Duluth fur dealers this morning, but they agree that fur prices are likely never to be lower than they are now, and confirm the statement that this is the time to buy furs.

The prices quoted in The Herald article were taken from the price list of one of the largest fur dealers in the West, but local dealers explain this morning that many of the big fur buyers have a list prepared for the benefit of the trappers, with low prices quoted for the purpose of bearing the market and picking up skins as cheaply as possible. The Herald's prices, it is claimed, were from such a list, and are much below the actual market.

All of the dealers, however, agree that furs are reasonable in price this winter, and that there will probably never be a better opportunity for milady to lay in a supply. The full effect of the war has been felt on the market, they claim, and any importation from Russia for some time to come will be prevented. The added cost of dyes and the work of dyeing the furs will also have some effect.

Prices Vary Greatly.

The prices of skins, the dealers say, vary greatly according to size and quality. Large skins with fine, thick hair are best, and these are said to come from places where the temperatures are neither too high nor too low. The extremely cold regions, they say, are apt to cause the hair to be coarse.

Another point that should be considered in the price of furs is the fact that there is a large expense entailed in preparing the raw skins. One dealer declares that this cost varies from 40 to 50 per cent of the original value of the skin. The preparation includes cleaning, tanning, dyeing, etc. Many furs are shipped from the United States to Germany or England to be dyed. This incurs the outlay of considerable money.

Some of the dealers deny the report that the best skins are very much lower than they were a year ago. The best skunk skins, they say, are now selling at $4.25 to $3.50 for blacks, with prices ranging lower for poorer grades. The best red fox skins are quoted at $8 to $5 with grays at $1.75 to $1. Lynx is quoted at $12 to $9; otter, $18 to $10; mink, dark, $6.25 to $4; raccoon, $4 to $2.75.

These prices added to an additional sum of 40 to 50 per cent of the original cost are about what the furrier must pay for finished product.

MEAT SANDWICHES FOR HOME OR SCHOOL LUNCHES

By MARY JANE McCLURE.

Conveniently made from remnants of a whole ham, either boiled or baked, and from tinned meats. Be sure to read the label on all canned meats and see that it bears the guarantee: "U. S. Inspected and Passed."

Bean Sandwiches—Put thin slices of white and whole wheat bread, spread these with horseradish salad, then with a generous layer of canned baked beans which have been well mashed with a fork. Place a slice of buttered bread on top. In the absence of horseradish salad use the horseradish as prepared for the table.

Chafing Dish Sandwiches—Put bits of boiled or baked ham through a meat chopper, and mix with just enough cream or melted butter to make a paste, and to half a cupful add one-fourth teaspoon of dry mustard. Spread this mixture on squares of bread and put the squares together with a thin slice of Swiss or American cheese. Put into chafing dish a tablespoon of butter, and when it bubbles lay in the sandwiches and saute until brown.

Chicken Sandwiches—Pick apart with a fork the contents of one can of boned chicken, and add one-half cup of nuts and one pimento chopped fine. Mix with enough salad dressing to form a paste and spread on thin slices of buttered bread cut in triangles.

Ham Sandwiches—Grind one pound of boiled or baked ham through a food chopper, also four hard boiled eggs. Chop eight stuffed olives with scissors. Add one tablespoonful of melted butter, salt and cayenne pepper to taste. Put filling and lettuce leaf between slices of buttered bread.

Hungry Man's Sandwiches—Between two slices of fresh or toasted bread put a crisp lettuce leaf sprinkled with a bit of minced onion, one large or two small slices of tomato, some mayonnaise dressing, and three crisp slices of bacon.

Savory Sandwiches—Toast to a light brown slices of white bread. On one put strips of bacon fried crisp, cover this with a lettuce leaf, some mayonnaise dressing and a thin slice of canned beef. Cover with another piece of toast.

School Sandwiches—Spread slices of bread with fresh butter, then with veal or beef loaf, and add a teaspoon of mayonnaise dressing. White, graham and rye bread afford a nice variety for the lunch box.

Sunday Night Sandwiches—Butter both sides of two slices of grahham bread, and spread the two inside surfaces with cream cheese. Place a thin slice of cold boiled ham between two slices of fried bacon, and the ham and bacon between the two slices of bread. Place in pan, cover and heat thoroughly over slow fire, turning to brown both sides.

Tongue Sandwiches—Cut rye bread in half-inch slices, spread moderately with butter and sparsely with prepared mustard. Between slices of bread place a thin slice of tinned tongue.

Utopian Sandwiches—Chop one can of boned chicken very fine, and add equal amount of chopped nut meats. Add one-half cup each of chopped olives and celery. Moisten with whipped cream, and season with salt, paprika and lemon juice. Spread between thin slices of white bread and cut in triangles.

Parental Advice Usually Sound.

A strict adherence to the commandment that demands that we honor our parents would greatly mitigate a condition of affairs that causes no end of sorrow among young people who find themselves in trouble, mostly through ill-advice. You will find that parental advice, in the long run, is usually sound.

It is hard to realize, many times, that father's quick and angry criticism or mother's frown of disapproval is anything more than a chronic desire to find fault with your friends. Under such circumstances try and remember that all right thinking fathers and mothers wish to see their daughters provided with good husbands and the prospects of happiness at least.

So many of us persist in having our own sweet will in most matters, declaring that our lives are our own to make or mar as fate ordains. Even though conscience whispers that there are things of which we do not approve, many of us are inclined to believe that a marriage ceremony will right the defects. Girls should remember that it is a rare instance indeed that a man has improved himself for the wife if he made no effort for the sweetheart. Bear it in mind, for it is a truism, however cruel.

Love covers a multitude of sins, but if the sins make you the target, jeopardizing your honored position as a wife and the status of the children to come, be warned in time and governed by those whose interests are yours, whose love is yours because you are "flesh of their flesh and bone of their bone."

I once knew a girl who married a man even after he had brought to her and her people disgrace and sorrow in more than one form. She lived with him for three years and was then deserted by the irresponsible creature. Practically penniless, she returned to her home city, where ill, inexperienced, humbled and hampered in every way, she battled to support herself and baby. It made a noble woman of her—but the bitterness, the drudgery, the tears.

Personally, I should give a man or woman either, as many chances for reformation as there are days in the year, but without the assurance of principled intent to be responsible and honorable among men and women, the outlook for both is void of everything that makes life worth living.

LIFE GROWING SHORTER.

Health Department Report Shows Comparisons for Two Years.

Figures prepared by Ruben Johnson, secretary of the health department, show that the average duration of life in Duluth last year was 49.8 years. In 1913 the average duration of life was 50.8.

These figures are computed by adding the total ages of all persons who died during the year and dividing this total by the number of deaths.

TALKING THREE THOUSAND MILES.

It is hard to get the thrill that ought to go with the announcements of these three thousand-mile conversations between Washington and New York on one side and San Francisco on the other. We are too accustomed to things of that nature. We have been accustomed for years to the idea of sitting in our own homes or offices here in the middle of the continent and talking to somebody at either extreme. In fact, the telephone is such a common thing to us that we are hardly amazed at anything that is done with it.

But if we could drop back two score years and live under the conditions that existed then, we might be able to comprehend more fully what has been done on this long, thin line of wire. There are men and women living today who can recall the first telephones. Perhaps you can find one who will tell you of the time when a demonstrator came to the town in which he was living, and rigged up some wires and some odd looking contraptions in a hall, and announced that for a slight admission fee he would let the townspeople inspect the wonder of the age.

They may tell you of how some of the more prominent men of the town were appointed a committee to try the thing, and how one of them went to one end of the hall and the other to the other end, where a small, box-like room contained one of the instruments, and how these two men talked to each other over the wires. And although they were forced to admit that they could hear each other's voices and even distinguish some words, they believed there was a fraud of some kind in the thing, and laughed at the idea that it would ever amount to anything, even if there were no fraud.

And these people may even tell you of the enthusiasm of the exhibitor, and how he predicted that sometime, perhaps even within the lifetime of some of those present, it would be possible for men to use the telephone to talk to each other at a distance of a mile, or—Oh, the giddy dream!—maybe even at a distance of five miles!

Those are the things our fathers saw and heard and—doubted. And yet today it is possible to talk from coast to coast of this immense continent. With such progress in so short a time, it is no wonder we take the news rather calmly, and yet it seems too bad when we think of the real thrill we might get if we could but realize the fullness of what has been accomplished.

Ocean freight rates have been boosted in some cases as much as nine hundred per cent on account of the war. Is it any wonder that such interests as own steamships don't want Uncle Sam to join the business?

THE FEDERAL EMPLOYMENT BUREAU.

Long life and prosperity to the Federal employment bureau! And in this case prosperity does not mean a goodly income, but the accomplishment of the purpose of the bureau, which is the bringing together of the manless job and the jobless man.

The proposition is largely experimental, so far as ordinary industrial work is concerned, though it has been tried and found successful in placing men in the harvest fields of the West and Northwest. But now this plan is to be broadened. The department of agriculture already has agents throughout the country, and these men will work in conjunction with the postoffice officials and employes to distribute information regarding men who want work and opportunities for men to get work.

This information will be given to government agents throughout the country, and efforts will be made to supply both jobs and men to those who need them. No fee is to be charged; the work is to be conducted solely for the benefit of employers and labor, and Secretary Wilson has given assurance of cautious operation in his announcement that "careful attention will be given to the selection of applicants, with a view to directing to employers only such help as is specified in the applications."

The Federal employment bureau is just starting and is entitled to the good will and co-operation of every citizen.

Possible greeting in Mexico: "Good morning. Have you been president yet?"

ARE YOU DOING YOUR SHARE?

City Health Director Webster gave some pretty straight talk yesterday on the danger of the spread of certain epidemics in the city. He told of the marked increase in the presence of these diseases since the first of the month, and then added:

> And the blame for this epidemic lies with those people in the city who are absolutely indifferent to the dangers. We are constantly warning the public of the danger of these diseases, but many seem to disregard our warnings. IN EVERY CASE THIS MONTH I FIND THAT THE DIRECT CAUSE WAS CONTACT WITH A PERSON ALREADY DISEASED.

Do you get that? "EVERY CASE this month due to contact with a person already diseased." That is not true when a plague is raging that defies human power to check it. But that is the way such plagues get their start.

Dr. Webster becomes more specific in his talk. He says:

> If people would recognize that a child with a rash or a sore throat is in danger of a contagious disease, and would immediately take some precaution, the disease itself would soon be cured, while the family and others would be saved from coming into contact with the child. Those who are sick should not mingle with others.

There is nothing new or mystical or hysterical in this. It is just a plain statement of fact. At present there is no serious epidemic in Duluth. We do not want a serious epidemic here, and the way to prevent it is to act sensibly on this contagion business. Are you doing your share?

This talk about two-dollar-wheat also will be interesting to recall when the tariff question comes up for discussion again.

MUST BE PAID PROMPTLY.

Both the farmers and the officials of the department of agriculture are to be congratulated on the prompt passage and signing of a bill appropriating the necessary funds to reimburse owners of cattle who were enforced losers in the recent campaign against the foot and mouth disease.

It is proposed to pay the claims of these farmers at the earliest possible date. This must be done if the Federal government is not to be handicapped seriously in future efforts to stamp out stock diseases.

It has been the experience of every state, and almost of every community, that many owners of animals conceal the presence of diseases among their stock rather than submit to loss from having the sick creatures slaughtered and buried. Indeed, it is often the case that the owner of the stock cannot afford to undergo the loss resulting from such action. But whatever the reason, the result is the exposure of both men and healthy stock to the disease from which the infected animals suffer.

This refusal to help eradicate disease can be overcome in but one way, and that is by prompt payment for stock slaughtered. And indeed prompt payment in such cases is only fair to the owners of the stock. The quick action, both legislative and executive, on the present bill is decidedly to be commended.

Count Andrassy says Hungary is not tired of war nor anxious for peace. Hungary must be an incomprehensible kind of a country.

THE "PLUCKING BOARD."

Another attack is being made on the naval "plucking board," and it is said that this time success is virtually assured. That is, the institution is slated to go, and be replaced by a plan believed to be more efficient and less likely to cause friction.

Whatever the theories back of the origin of the "plucking board," the institution is generally admitted to have been a dismal failure. Its work has been to eliminate from the active naval personnel a certain number of men every year. Some of these would fall under the age limitation, and others for one valid cause or another, but the difference between these totals and the whole number set for retirement has been made up arbitrarily by the "plucking board," and the result has been disastrous both to the temper of the officers and the best interests of the navy itself.

The operation of the "plucking board" is the same as a tendency in some other public institutions of trying to fit every individual to a given standard, instead of taking into consideration the powers and requirements of the individual himself. It will be a good gain for the naval service when this board is thrown into the discard, and advancement in the service is based more on personal ability and meritorious conduct.

"Mother" Jones is to call on John D. Rockefeller, Jr. And it is possible John D., Jr., has some brand new sensations coming to him.

Senator Tillman wants us to wait until the war is over before we build any more battleships. But by that time maybe we won't need any more, and then what would the armor plate manufacturers do?

The Shipping Bill

Editorial in the Louisville Post.

The opponents of the shipping bill are being thoroughly exposed.

They do not object to subsidies; the shipbuilders and the shipping monopoly would both be delighted by a "subsidy," for a subsidy would not reduce the cost of transportation, but would add stability to dividends.

What is objected to is government ownership or government control of thirty or forty ships; government purchase of interned ships, which would not benefit the shipyards at all. Yesterday the Washington dispatches said:

> Some of the Democrats believe, however, that if the government ownership and a government controlled steamship corporation features are eliminated from the bill at tonight's caucus, the measure can be passed, and that it will have the support of progressive Republicans.

No doubt, for in that form the benefit would go solely to ship owners and shipbuilders, and the exporters of wheat, coal and cotton would have no relief.

The Evening Post believes that government activities should be promptly and radically curtailed; the emergency currency and other emergency measures should be promptly retired as the emergency passes.

But the shipping emergency is still acute. Look these facts in the face. They relate to the production and exportation of coal in the three countries:

Nation.	Pro-ducer.	Con-sumer.	Pct.
Great Britain..	315,000,000	82,000,000	26
Germany	298,000,000	39,000,000	13
United States..	565,000,000	25,000,000	04

Coal ought to be moving from every port, carried from every field; why not? High rates of ocean transportation. Here is the situation as described by C. S. Thorne, vice president of the Pocahontas Coal company:

> The higher rates paid for the vessels to export wheat prior to Dec. 31, 1914, would be equivalent to a freight of, say 33 shillings per ton of coal, or a freight of $8 per ton of coal, to the Mediterranean, but some recent fixtures of vessels chartered since Jan. 1, 1915, for the movement of American coal for export business exceed the highest rates paid for vessels to export wheat prior to Dec. 31, 1914, and indicate that the need for coal for export is becoming more acute. * * * It seems apparent, however, that the stocks of coal in the sections supplied by export of Great Britain's coal must gradually become exhausted and the labor conditions in the European countries which produce coal, now engaged in the war, must become contracted, still further curtailing the production and exportation of coal by European countries, and then the demand for American coal will become more urgent as the need for fuel becomes more pressing, and vessels must then be obtained, regardless of rates, to meet these requirements, just as they are now being obtained to meet the requirements for wheat, food and clothing supplies.

They are not being obtained for cotton except at exortionate rates; cotton in Galveston is 7 and 8 cents; in Bremen 20 cents.

Yet the organs of every trust in the country, political organs and trade organs, are denouncing the ship purchase bill in the hope of substituting for it a straight subsidy bill, which will not pass with the passing emergency.

Earth's Last Great Prize

George Edmund Holt in the World Outlook: When the war in Europe shall have ended in victory for one combatant or the other, the first great question which peace will bring is that of a food supply for nations pauperized by battles. There will be an immediate necessity for virgin land from which huge crops may be taken at small cost, and with it will come the need for new sources of wealth of every sort.

There can be no doubt but that Europe knows where these are to be found. Unquestionably one of the causes of the present war was the need of richer fields for development. France had looked across the Mediterranean and had found, at the very doorway of Europe, the making of a great North African empire. England had looked and found Egypt. Italy had looked and had regained Tripoli for the Roman state. An area half as large as the United States, teeming with undeveloped resources! It is no wonder that for years Germany hammered upon diplomatic tables with the mailed fist in an attempt to secure her share of this wealth.

A country half as large as the United States, within a few hours' sail from European ports, for the most part untouched by the edge of a steel plow, yet with untold millions of agricultural wealth awaiting the coming of the European farmer; its face unscarred by derricks marking the busy hand of the mining engineer—although beneath the fertile virgin soil lie more millions in metal than the war in Europe will cost.

Peace eventually would have resulted in the development of North Africa, but this war will equal a century of peace in that respect. Bandaged Europe, turning its empty pockets inside out, will cross the Mediterranean and the North African empire will cease to be a dream and will become a reality.

It is interesting, but almost useless, to speculate as to whose empire it will be. Will our children refer to it as French North Africa or Anglo-Egypt—or will it be to them German Africa? It is not inconceivable that, in case of German victory, there may result a German-Mohammedan union. To me, however, it is more than conceivable that the Moslem, grown strong, may look north as Europe now looks south.

Fool Legislation.

New York World: The bill in the Massachusetts legislature to exempt Harvard's "crimson banners" from the operation of the statute forbidding red or black flags in processions furnishes a choice illustration of the present legislative tendency to pass laws in haste for amendment at leisure.

No one has ever associated the Harvard colors with anarchy, yet thanks to a stupid statute indiscriminately classing all red flags as seditionary, the college must now receive special legislative permission to display its banners at football games. Not often, indeed, are the absurdities of half-baked legislation so obviously apparent. Yet is this foolish Massachusetts legislation worse except in degree than that which mars the work of other legislatures at every session? Perhaps there is some cause for satisfaction in the fact that the amount of hasty and ill-advised legislation is not greater, in view of the zeal of legislators to put as many new and undigested laws as possible on the statute books.

It will be good to have the Harvard crimson purged of sedition. But it can hardly be said that this example of rush-hour lawmaking in Massachusetts will help increase the popular respect for legislative enactments.

The Quakers and the War

Address Adopted at Philadelphia.

To Our Fellow Citizens:

For five months we have watched the ebb and flow of the blood-red tide of war in Europe; the tidings from its battlefields might stir the coldest heart of some sense of that "Infinite Pity which is alone sufficient for the infinite pathos of human life." We need not dwell upon these awful pictures save as they may awaken us to a sense by the Grace to God to root out from the world this fearful disease.

It cannot be the will of our merciful Father in Heaven that this earth which He has made should suffer forever from the hideous scourge of war; but it is possible for us to oppose His will, to be so given over to the worship of force, to the lust for power, and to the selfishness and vainglory of life, that we go on year after year building our battleships and destroyers, and forts, and assembling our armed hosts, until at last He takes us at our word and allows us to follow our own devices, to depend upon the sword and the right arm of man's power, and the shield of our own making. Then come envy and jealousy, strife and hatred, and some cry that Christianity has failed, while others invoke the aid and blessing of the Almighty upon the success of their arms.

Our country at this very hour is facing at once a fearful responsibility and a glorious privilege; it is in our power to turn back this tide of militarism, to set an example from which the rest of the world cannot turn away. One of our own countrymen says that "militarism blights like a pestilential wind the higher life of nations and eats like a gangrene into the vitals of civilization;" and again; "All history testifies that a republic has no peril so insidious to fear as the growth of military power within its own borders." Let the history that is now in the making with such fearful rapidity bear witness to the wisdom of these warning words.

Therefore, why not stop? Why not say in a tone audible around the world, —'We will go no further in this business?" The deadly upas tree of militarism has borne its fruit; let the world profit by the lesson.

Were it not better that the young manhood and the virile strength of our nation be consecrated and uplifted to the nobility of Christian service, to the relief of suffering, to the help of the poor and the outcast, making the world a better place to live in?

With nations as with individuals, the nearer we come to our Heavenly Father, the nearer we come to each other in the brotherhood of man.

Battleships and armies and forts have proved beyond doubt that they cannot keep the peace; they have been tried and found wanting, and capital invested in the making of them becomes itself a menace to the welfare of the nation. Shall not the United States try the more excellent way, "the fruitful strifes and rivalries of peace"?

Fellow citizens, we entreat you to pause and consider these things,—to discern the signs of the times,—to seek the path of duty by that pure light of the spirit of Christ, which enlightens every man.

The Christian disciple serves a Master who "shall not fail nor be discouraged." "The field is the world;" we stand "for no one generation, for no single land"—the boundaries of nations are broken down in this awful time, and for the sake of our common humanity, in the name of Him who gave Himself for the life of the world, we make this solemn appeal.

Myths and Legends

Philip Hale in the Boston Herald: Was Napoleon Bonaparte ever in London? There is a legend that in 1791 or 1792 he lodged in George street, Adelphi. The grandfather of the comedian, Matthews, James Colman, who had lived in Leicester square for a century, and several honest tradesmen of the Strand swore that they met him during his visit of five weeks. It was reported that he passed most of his time in walking through the streets. Occasionally he took a cup of chocolate at a coffee house, "where he occupied himself in reading" and "preserved a taciturnity provoking to gentlemen in the room."

And so there is a Bostonian of intelligence, who visiting in a country house in England, swears that he saw train after train go by carrying Russian soldiers. He knew the uniform and recognized it. Another intelligent Bostonian has a friend that happened to be at Archangel, where he saw Russian troops embark.

What would life be without the myths and legends?

During the Boer war there were Irishmen in Ireland, and possibly in this country, who believed that De Wet was no less a personage than Charles Stewart Parnell. The two bore a facial resemblance, and some declined to believe the story of Parnell's death. There are Georgians who will swear to you on the honor of a Southern gentleman that Marshal Ney was not shot to death as in Gerome's picture; that he came to Georgia, led the life of a planter, prospered and died in bed at a good old age.

It is not easy to convince many that the Dauphin died in prison. If some deny the charm of the clockmaker, others accept that of the Rev. Eleazer Williams. What a stir the article "Have We a Bourbon Among Us?" made about sixty years ago when it was published in Putnam's Magazine! And in 1854 the Rev. J. H. Hanson published "The Lost Prince," proving to his satisfaction the identity of Louis XVII and the blameless missionary to the Indians.

The common people at Trieste and Pola, during Sir Richard F. Burton's consulship at the former city, believed that the Archduke Maximilian was not killed in Mexico, but was a prisoner there, guarded by three jailers, captains in the English, French and Austrian navies. And so Nero was not in his coffin of porphyry when his funeral cost 200,000 sesterces. He appeared in revolt among the Pathians even while Suetonius, the scandal monger, was alive and writing down his sniggering gossip about the emperors.

Reward for Not Smiling.

Kansas City Journal: Lawrence Kinney, usher at the Union Depot, is convinced it does not always pay to laugh. Last Thursday a woman from Clarinda, La., who was waiting for a train accidentally backed into a suitcase and fell over it into the man's lap in an undignified heap. The crowd laughed heartily, but Kinney did not, and after he assisted the woman to her feet she asked for his name and address.

Later he received by parcel post a box of candy; in the box was a slip of paper on which was written: "Because you did not laugh."

Statesmen, Real and Near

By Fred C. Kelly.

Washington, Jan. 27.—(Special to The Herald.)—Only Bill Kettner would have thought of the scheme that this little story is going to tell about. Bill is a member of congress from San Diego, Cal., but before that he was a life insurance agent. He was a successful life insurance man, too, we are assured, and though naturally of a cheerful disposition made a great deal of money by dispensing large quantities of gloom. Whenever he met a man who wore the pink flesh of robust health upon his cheek, Bill would begin to talk of the uncertainty of life. Soon he would have that healthy man so apprehensive lest he die ere nightfall, that he would hasten to take out more insurance.

Then Bill went into politics, and this last fall he got something like 8,000 Democratic plurality in what was ordinarily a strongly Republican district.

Now we come to the sample instance of Bill's resourcefulness. He made a speech a while ago that he desired certain Republicans in his district to read. There were about six or seven persons in particular that he wanted to have read the speech all through—every word of it. He knew well enough that if he merely mailed it to them, in the usual manner, they would glance at it just long enough to see whose speech it was, and then throw it into the waste basket. So the situation required strategy. After a great deal of thought, Bill sat down and dictated letters to go with each speech, somewhat as follows:

"My Dear Sir: I trust you will pardon me for mentioning your name in a speech which I recently delivered in the house, but I thought the occasion was one where it was only proper to give credit where credit is due. I hope you will take the reference in the speech to yourself in the same spirit that prompted it. I am inclosing a copy of the speech."

In the course of events, Kettner got a reply to each one of these letters. All read substantially as follows:

"I do not understand your recent letter accompanying copy of your speech. I have read the speech clear through twice and do not find any reference in it to me."

"The point is," Bill wrote back, "not so much that you didn't find any reference to yourself as that you read the speech. I was very anxious that you should read it. And do you not agree with me that taken as a whole it was a most excellent speech?"

* * *

J. D. Post is a member of congress from Washington Court House, Ohio—often referred to by facetious persons as Washington Clothes Horse. He will retire from office on March 4. The other day, noting the rapid approach of that date, he began to make comparisons of Washington, D. C., and Washington C. H.

"In many respects," remarked Post, "I like it here much better than I do our Washington back home. But the thing that appeals to me most of all is the clean streets. When I return home I'll have to shine my shoes every day. Here I don't have to shine them more than once a week."

* * *

Actors who appear in Washington playhouses are always greatly pleased when either Chief Justice White or Speaker Clark is among those present. Each of these is an "awfully good audience," as the players express it. If the play is a comedy, the chief justice of the supreme court relaxes and his face is a study. It definitely registers the exact degree of fun he is deriving from the piece. The comedian who keeps one eye on the chief justice can tell just how his lines are getting across. All this applies also, say the actor folk, to Champ Clark. The speaker rarely laughs out loud, no matter what the occasion, but gets a funny little amused, satisfied expression on his face that is an inspiration.

Revisiting.

The backward path to boyhood days
Is never very hard to find;
You trod it quickly when your gaze
Surveyed old scenes of boyhood land;
While strangers passed and never guessed
The growing turmoil in your breast.

That wall you climbed with all your might,
The while you tore your stocking knees,
Has shrunk to such a puny height
You mount upon its crest with ease.
The tree that was too thick to "shin"
By some odd means has gotten thin.

This vast expanse you scanned with care,
Then crossed with frightened, hurrying feet,
Lest traffic overtake you there,
Is now a quiet village street.
Each doorway wide and gate-post high
Seems smaller to your startled eye.

Old friends that pass look up to smile,
Who used to greet you smiling down;
A magic spell, in this brief while,
Has somehow fallen on the town.
Yet strange! You seem to be again
As small a boy as you were then.

That backward path to boyhood days
Is never closed to them that see;
It winds by old familiar ways
And leads you to a mother's knee,
Where boyhood's gentle king and queen
Dispel the years that intervene.

But if that path you cannot find
Since they two laid their scepters down,
Yet other paths there are that wind
Through valleys to the Mother Town,
Where many dear remembered things
Call childhood back on certain wings.
—Burges Johnson in Harper's Magazine.

Taming Cave Boys.

Chicago News: How to deal with the "apartment house cave man," the city boy with inherent savage instincts and ideals, was discussed at a luncheon of the Chicago Engineers' club. The boy in the city, hemmed in by civilization and as rebellious as if he wore a goatskin and wielded a stone hatchet, can be tamed in two ways, according to D. W. Pollard, secretary of the Chicago Boy Scouts of America. He can be petted and coddled in gentle surroundings and developed into a mollycoddle or a "tango king." Or else he can be introduced to the great outdoors and be taught the principles of honor, courage, self reliance and obedience, while giving an outlet to his savage bent.

The menace of a mollycoddle generation of males raised in the luxury which even families of moderate means can now afford and trained by a petticoat government of mothers, sisters and woman teachers was pointed out by Mr. Pollard. He appealed to his hearers to let their boys become little savages under the Boy Scouts' code of honor and to place the lads part of the time at least under the influence and tutelage of men, that their stamina of character be not undermined by too much feminine education.

Keeping Up With Minnesota Editors

Press Comments on Current Events.

"Bunch of Has-Beens."

Redwood Falls Sun: That bunch of has-beens who held a "confab" in St. Paul recently to endeavor to put the Republican party on its feet again will doubtless learn that it takes more than a few hand-picked down-and-outers to heal the breach after the Eberhart faction knocked the bottom out of the party in the state at the last elecion.

Is Well Informed.

Warroad Pioneer: Governor Hammond, though a resident of the extreme southern portion of the state, appears to be exceptionally well informed on the needs of the north country. His recommendation for state aid in clearing of land points the way for action that would greatly hasten development and add much to the prosperity of the state.

Good Ground for Suspicion.

Le Sueur News: The proposed efficiency and economy law, deservedly or otherwise, is being knocked. We are suspicious. The knocks heard are from the professional politicians.

Prefer to Believe Wilson.

Fergus Falls Wheelock's Weekly: "It has not had a new idea for thirty years. They have had leaders from time to time who suggested new ideas, but they never did anything to carry them out." This is the sentence from President Wilson's recent speech that has stirred up the Republican party newspapers, which are in turn endeavoring to stir up the Republican voters and failing, because the voters are mostly with Wilson and believe that what he says is true.

Puzzling Conversion.

Staples World: A matter that is puzzling a good many simple hearted souls is the rapid conversion of that element in the Republican party which caused the overthrow of Lee at the last election, to the idea of party loyalty and unanimity. The puzzle will not bear too close an examination with an X-ray.

None Whatever.

St. Cloud Journal-Press: Up to date the non-partisan legislature has given the state no reason for returning to the partisan primary plan.

Just a Moment

Daily Strength and Cheer.

Compiled by John G. Quinlan, the Sunshine Man.

An evangelist tells the story of a terrible storm on the Irish sea, in which a vessel was going to pieces. Suddenly two men, an old sea captain and his son, put out through the storm. Everybody tried to persuade them not to go, for it seemed to be useless. Over the waves they pushed along until at last, amid the cheers of the waiting crowd, they returned with their little boat filled with those who would have been lost but for their efforts.

"Why did you do this? Why did you take such a risk?" asked one on shore.

"I have been there myself, and I knew the danger," was the answer.

The man who has been saved from sin is the man who has every reason to be zealous in trying to rescue others. He knows what it is to struggle without divine help, and to be in danger of forever being lost.

You may worry when you're weary,
You may worry when you're well;
You may worry when life's dreary
Or when buds begin to swell;
You may worry in December
And keep worrying in May,
But in any case remember
That you cannot make it pay.
You may worry when disaster
Hovers o'er you in the night;
You may worry when your master
Has declined to treat you right;
You may worry when they've taken
The last chance you had away,
But the fact remains unshaken
That you cannot make it pay.

Poor Salesmanship.

Omaha Bee: Did you ever hear such a remark as this: "I've gone into that store for the last time. I've been there two or three times and each time I go in with my mind made up as to what I want and come away with exactly the thing I don't want?"

The answer is that some clerk more zealous to make a sale than to please has messed things up very badly for his establishment by inducing or persuading this patron to buy an article which he did not want. Most any skillful clerk is eloquent enough to do such a thing if he sets his head to it. But the clerk who appreciates the indispensable value to his store of a satisfied customer will hesitate to use his powers in that way. While it is strictly the business of the clerk to make the best possible immediate sale, it is a larger part of his business to build up and hold trade, and that is not done by cunningly forcing a patron to choose between two articles the very one she especially objects to, even though the margin of profit be wider than on the other.

Salesmanship is something of an inexact science, as successful merchants and salesmen, of course, realize, and the more of the sound theories that get into practice over the counter the better for both the man behind the counter and the one behind him. No store can have a more valuable asset than a satisfied customer.

New York Mail: A sophomore in the Massachusetts Agricultural college said that "The Deserted Village" was written by the Vicar of Wakefield. Most people will laugh at the young farmer. But I laugh at the college for not asking him why the village was deserted.

The answer is that the invention of the power loom had made a big demand for wool. So the country squires drove the farmers from the land and turned the wheat fields and gardens into sheep ranges. Thus the peasantry was forced to the cities and their lovely villages perished.

The death of diversified farming, as blazoned for in "The Deserted Village," is a more interesting fact to a young farmer than the question of who wrote the poem. There are many interesting things to be taught in college, but colleges don't teach 'em as a rule.

Pain Racks Chinese Girls.

From "A Woman in China," by Mrs. Mary Gaunt: As I went through the villages, in the morning and evening, I could hear the crying of children. They cried because the bindages on their feet were being drawn more tightly. Always it is a gnawing pain, and the only relief the little girl can get is by pressing the calf of her leg tightly against the edge of the brick bench.

The pressure stops the flow of blood and numbs the feet as long as it is kept up, but it cannot be kept up long, and with the rush of blood comes the increase of pain—a pain that the tightening of the bandages deepens. * * * As a doctor said, "A Chinese woman is just as well with a pair of wooden legs as with the stumps the binding has left her."

THE OPEN COURT

(Readers of The Herald are invited to make free use of this column to express their ideas about the topics of general interest, but discussions of sectarian religious differences are barred. Letters must not exceed 300 words—the shorter the better. They must be written in one side of the paper only, and they must be accompanied in every case by the name and address of the writer though these need not be published. A signed letter is always more effective, however.)

A TIP TO USERS OF ELECTRIC LIGHTS.

To the Editor of The Herald:

I take leave of your valuable Open Court to inform those who may be using the old carbon lamps for lighting purposes to place one in a socket close to a meter, if it is handy. Then place one of the new lamps there. Meanwhile observe the disk in the meter. The mark on the disk will go around once in about 35 seconds with a 25 Watt, 111-volt lamp, where it will travel once in 15 seconds with a so-called 16 C. P. carbon. I stepped into one of our skating rink warming rooms the other night and with two of the old 32 C. P. burning that meter was just singing. Therefore, I would advise anyone using the old lamp to change to a better light for less money. The extra cost of the new lamp is about 20 cents, size stated, where the other lamp costs 10 cents. Comparison is proof.

WHERE IS THE WHEAT?

To the Editor of The Herald:

In 1893-94-95 the United States had three of the smallest wheat crops in the aggregate of our history, yet not since the advent of railroad transportation, prices were never lower. In 1912-13-14 our wheat crops were larger in the aggregate than in any other previous period and also the world's aggregate, according to the Italian report, the crop of 1914 is 13 per cent larger than any ten-year average in the past.

Now the question arises: Where is the wheat? The consumption we know is no more than in 1913 and the waste thus far is inconsequential. The only solution I can give this matter is, in the former period the commercial and moneyed pirate took the circulating medium away from us, so there was nothing to buy bread with, hence those depressed prices. The same pirate for the last three years with the combination of money and power has prepared himself for any calamity that might befall us. So without cause for the last three years our manufacturing, commercial and other industries suffered for the want of money which the speculators withdrew from the markets.

When this unfortunate war broke out which to the world in general is a calamity and curse, but a God-send to the moneyed men, who have no conscientious scruples and look on human suffering as complacently as you would look on a blooming garden. Hundreds of years ago the pirate worked on the seas for his plunder but in enlightened ages his designs are the same but his methods are different. Just a few years ago in order to fill his coffers he tried to freeze this country by withdrawing the fuel supplies and today with the suffering among the belligerent countries the same tactics are employed to starve those unfortunate people with inflated food prices and also causing more or less suffering among our own people for the want of labor and food.

Now we should have a Moses among our lawmakers to change our laws for this board of trade commercialism. No man should be allowed to tie 10,000 bushels, or any other quantity indefinitely with $1,000. He should have a right to buy 10,000 bushels of wheat or any multiple to be delivered within a certain limit of time sixty or ninety days. The seller should also deliver the actual stuff, and cannot see what right he has to sell, unless he has the commodity. Such a safeguard to protect the public is the only remedy to stop this high financing in food or any other commodities.

SOME BOOSTER.

To the Editor of The Herald:

In answer to the question that appeared in the Open Court of January 25, relative to the general conditions of Montana, I beg to advise you that I have traveled that state for the last five years, and I can state that it is surely the biggest domain out of doors and the people back here are just finding it out.

Montana is big enough and rich enough to support 50,000,000 people. Japan does it, and Montana is larger and better than that land of Nippon.

We've got prairies broader than Kansas, more mountains than Colorado, more timber than ever Michigan had, more copper than Spain, more cattle than Texas, more horses than Kentucky, more silver than Mexico, more sheep than Arizona, more waterpower than New England, more coal than Pennsylvania, more marble than Vermont, more sunshine than California, more rivers than New York, and more politicians than Ohio.

If you have money to invest, labor to sell, ideas to exploit or a career to carve out, right out in Montana is where the money is, you bet.

Don't show that you are a tenderfoot by kicking on the prices. If pie costs 10 cents a cut remember that dimes grow on sagebrushes and sagebrush thrives without irrigation. Buy a big white Stetson and get into the game and by and by you will be demanding mushrooms on your steak and you will forget your Boston accent. Once get the western ozone into your system and you won't be satisfied until you send for the old folks. Good-by, I have gone back.

WANTS AN ANSWER FROM OPEN COURTERS.

To the Editor of The Herald:

Having read the many varied articles and arguments in the Open Court, I take the liberty of asking for a little information from its readers.

While in the Twin Cities a short time ago I happened to drop into a theater where a so-called hypnotist was "displaying his wares," and the feats he performed were indeed remarkable. Before having seen this man there was doubt in my mind as to whether or not there was anything to this hypnotic stuff, so I am taking the liberty of asking the Open Court readers.

Some of the feats he performed were really marvelous, as for instance, what he called "the blood test," where he puts his subject in a "cataleptic state" and baring the poor man's fore arm causes the blood to slowly leave it until the arm is the color of marble, and then with a shout, the shout supposed to be a suggestion upon the patient's mind to release the blood, the arm slowly returns to its normal color. So I am asking the Open Court is this possible, and, if so, why do not surgeons practice it in their operations, and if there is such a science as hypnotism, why is it not for mental healing and the like as well as for entertaining people? And is it possible for one person to put another into such a state that large rocks can be broken upon their body when suspended between two chairs, and is it true as popularly believed that weak minded people cannot be hypnotized?

POEMS ASKED FOR.

The Herald acknowledges with thanks the receipt of the following poems:

"Twenty Years Ago," from Myrtle M. Keever of Duluth.

"In the Valley of the Sea," from J. E. M. of Duluth, and Mrs. Polly Wilcox of Duluth.

"The Wreck of The Hesperus," from F. J. T. of Duluth.

"The Fatal Wedding Night," from E. M. Fox of Mitchell, Minn.

Requests have been received for the following: "La Paloma" and "My Honolulu Tomboy," from Gordon Kinzer of Duluth.

"Battle at Waterloo," "Mary Ann Malone" and "James McGee," from Dave Fagan of Duluth.

"Kit Carson's Ride" and "John Gilpin's Ride," from E. M. Fox of Mitchell, Minn.

"A Fatal Wedding Night."

The wedding bells were ringing
On a winter's moonlight night.
The church was decorated, all within
Was gay and bright.
A mother with her baby came
And saw the light aglow;
She tho't of how those same bells
Rang for her three years ago.
"I'd like to be admitted, sir,"
She told the sexton old.
"Just for the sake of baby
To protect it from the cold."
He told her that the wedding there
Was for the rich and grand,
And with the eager, watching crowd
Outside she'd have to stand.

Chorus.

The wedding bells were ringing,
The bride and groom were there,
The couple marched together
As an organ pealed an air
Telling tales of fond affection,
Vowing never more to part,
Just another fatal wedding,
Just another broken heart.

She begged the sexton once again
To let her pass inside,
"For baby's sake you may step in,"
The gray haired man replied.
"If any one sees reason
Why this couple should not wed,
Speak now or hold your peace forever."
Soon the preacher said,
"I must object," the mother cried
With voice so weak and mild,
"The bridegroom is my husband, sir,
And this our little child."
"What proof have you?" the parson said,
"My infant," she replied.
She raised the babe and knelt to pray,
The little one had died.

The parents of the bride then took
The outcast by the arm,
"We'll care for you through life,"
They said, "You've saved our child from harm."
The parents, bride, and outcast wife
Then quickly drove away.
The father died by his own hand
Before the break of day.
No wedding feast was spread that night,
Two graves were made next day,
One for the darling baby
And in one the father lay.
This story it has oft been told
By fireside warm and bright,
Of parents, bride and outcast wife
And a fatal wedding night.

In the Village by the Sea.

To a little sea-side village came a youth one summer day
Just to spend a short vacation, that was all;
There he met a fisher-maiden, and to while the hours away
To her cottage every day he used to roam.
The maiden thought he meant the words he said in idle jest
As arm in arm together they did roam
Until one day there came a letter, and with aching heart she read
Just those simple words, "Good-by I'm going home."

Chorus.

In the village by the sea she was happy as could be
Like a bird her heart was ever light and free
Now the moon don't seem so bright, for she's all alone tonight
Where he left her in the village by the sea.

Just one year again that summer to the village by the sea
Came the same youth who had wooed her, light and gay.
He had come to beg forgiveness, for he learned to love her too,
Just how much he never knew till far away.
Her father comes to meet him as he raps upon the door;
Down the pathway to the church-yard they did roam;
There he pointed unto a grave-mound, saying "She bade me say to you
Just those simple words, 'Good-by, I'm going home.'"

Twenty Years Ago.

I've wandered to the village, Tom; I've sat beneath the tree,
Upon the schoolhouse playground, that sheltered you and me;
But none were left to greet me, Tom, and few were left to know,
Who played with us upon the green, some twenty years ago.

The grass is just as green, Tom; barefooted boys at play
Were sporting, just as we did then, with spirits just as gay.
But the "master" sleeps upon the hill, which, coated o'er with snow,
Afforded us a sliding place, some twenty years ago.

The old schoolhouse is altered now; the benches are replaced
By new ones, very like the same our penknives once defaced;
But the same old bricks are in the wall, the bell swings to and fro
Its music's just the same, dear Tom, 'twas twenty years ago.

The boys were playing some old game, beneath that same old tree;
I have forgot the name just now—you've played the same with me,
On that same spot; 'twas played with knives, by throwing so and so;
The loser had a task to do—there, twenty years ago.

The river's running just as still; the willows on its side
Are larger than they were, Tom; the stream appears less wide;
But the grape-vine swing is ruined now, where once we played the beau,
And swung our sweethearts—pretty girls—just twenty years ago.

The spring that bubbled 'neath the hill, close by the spreading beach,
Is very low—'twas then so high that we could scarcely reach;
And kneeling down to get a drink, dear Tom, I started so,
To see how sadly I am changed, since twenty years ago.

Near by that spring, upon an elm, you know I cut your name,
Your sweetheart's just beneath it, Tom, and you did mine the same.
Some heartless wretch has peeled the bark, 'twas dying sure but slow,
Just as she died, whose name you cut some twenty years ago.

My ilds have long been dry, Tom, but tears came to my eyes;
I thought of her I loved so well, those early broken ties;
I visited the old church-yard, and took flowers to strew
Upon the graves of those we loved, some twenty years ago.

Some are in the church-yard laid, some sleep beneath the sea;
But few are left of our own old class, excepting you and me;
And when our time shall come, Tom, and we are called to go,
I hope they'll lay us where we played, just twenty years ago.

The Wreck of the Hesperus.

It was the schooner Hesperus,
That sailed the wintry sea;
And the skipper had taken his little daughter
To bear him company.

Blue were her eyes as the fairy flax,
Her cheeks like the dawn of day,
And her bosom white as the hawthorn buds,
That ope in the month of May.

The skipper he stood beside the helm,
With his pipe held in his mouth,
And watched how the veering flow did blow
The smoke now west, now south.

Then up and spake an old sailor,
Who had sailed the Spanish Main:
"I pray thee, put into yonder port,
For I fear a hurricane.

"Last night, the moon had a golden ring,
And tonight, no moon we see!"
The skipper he blew a whiff from his pipe,
And a scornful laugh, laughed he.

Colder and louder blew the wind,
A gale from the northeast;
The snow fell hissing in the brine,
And the billows frothed like yeast.

Down came the storm, and smote again
The vessel in its strength;
She shuddered and paused, like a frighted steed,
Then leaped her cable's length.

"Come hither! come hither! my little daughter,
And do not tremble so;
For I can weather the roughest gale,
That ever wind did blow."

He wrapped her warm in his seaman's coat,
Against the stinging blast;
He cut a rope from a broken spar,
And bound her to the mast.

"O father! I hear the church bells ring;
O say, what may it be?"
"'Tis a fogbell on a rock-bound coast!"
And he steered for the open sea.

"O father! I hear the sounds of guns;
O say, what may it be?"
"Some ship in distress, that cannot live
In such an angry sea!"
"O father! I see a gleam of light;
O say, what may it be?"
But the father answered never a word;
A frozen corpse was he.

Lashed to the helm, all stiff and stark,
With his face to the skies;
The lantern gleamed through the glistening snow,
On his fixed and glassy eyes.

Then the maiden clasped her hands and prayed
That saved she might be;
And she thought of Christ, Who stilled the wave,
On the Lake of Galilee.

And fast through the midnight dark and drear,
Through the whistling sleet and snow,
Like a sheeted ghost, the vessel swept
Towards the reef of Norman's Woe.

And ever the fitful gusts between,
A sound came from the land;
It was the sound of the trampling surf
On the rocks and the hard sea-sand.

The breakers were right beneath her bow;
She drifted a dreary wreck,
And a whooping billow swept the crew
Like icicles from her deck.

She struck where the white and fleecy waves
Looked as soft as carded wool,
But the cruel rocks, they gored her side,
Like the horns of an angry bull.

Her rattling shrouds, all sheathed in ice,
With the masts went by the board;
Like a vessel of glass, she strove and sank;
Ho! Ho! the breakers roared!

At daybreak, on the bleak sea-beach,
A fisherman stood aghast,
To see the form of a maiden fair
Lashed close to a drifting mast.

The salt sea was frozen on her breast,
The salt tears in her eyes,
And he saw her hair, like the brown seaweed,
On the billows fall and rise.

Such was the wreck of the Hesperus.

In the midnight and the snow!
Christ save us all from a death like this,
On the reef of Norman's Woe.

WHERE THE INJUNCTION FAILED.

Kansas City Star: "Why Willie," said the teacher, "have you been fighting again? Didn't you learn that when you are struck on one cheek you ought to turn the other one to the striker?"

"Yes'm," agreed Willie, "but he hit me on the nose, and I've only got one."

HEALTH TALKS

By William Brady, M.D.

What Weak Blood Requires

THERE is more intentional and innocent deception regarding the significance and treatment of ordinary anemia or lack of blood than you will find in any almanac.

Scarcely a nostrum on the market but that "tones and builds up impoverished states of the blood." No pill but that "adds to the richness of the blood" or "promotes nutrition"—the great popular delusion being that one never can be too well nourished. No "sarsaparilla" or other inert "spring tonic" but that "purifies and cleanses the blood"—whatever that means.

A man had a cow that gave ten quarts of milk at a milking. Suddenly, without apparent cause, she fell off four quarts a day. He increased her feed, bedded her more generously, had her rubbed down regularly and put a nice warm blanket on her. But she continued to fall far below her standard. He got a tonic and forced it down her throat. She continued four quarts shy. He was worried, because it didn't pay to keep a cow that gave so little milk. One night he visited the stable just before retiring, and discovered a neighbor helping himself to a milking. He nearly killed the neighbor and immediately the cow began to give ten quarts at a milking.

Futile to Pour Water in a Sieve.

If the blood is weak, if there is anemia, then there must be a cause for it. The blood doesn't become weak out of pure ill humor or "dyscrasin." If ordinary anemia were a thing by itself you could promptly remedy it with most any so-called "blood tonic." But it never is a condition by itself. Invariably there is a leak somewhere, an unsuspected source of poison, a hidden infection, a good and sufficient cause which must be found and remedied before the blood can be restored to normal. To take iron tonic and blood builders without locating and attacking the leak is like pouring water in a sieve; you never get through pouring and you never get the sieve full. To be sure if you are anemic you need something for your blood. You need watching. You need a careful physical examination by someone who knows what anemia means. For all you can tell it may be incipient tuberculosis or some equally serious, insidious trouble. Or possibly it is just your teeth that need attention. Scores of causes could be listed.

Anemia is only a danger signal. It is not a disease or a weakness inherent in the blood. Alleged blood tonics and blood purifiers will have about as much influence upon it as the tonic had upon the farmer's cow. The thing to do is to discover the leak and have it sealed up. Even in the physician's hands iron and other hematinics, if prescribed at all, are used only as adjuvants of the actual treatment.

Questions and Answers.

Machinist writes: In our shop slight scratches and wounds of the hands seem to be poisoned by the oil. Would carbolic salve or carbolic solution be a good application? If so, what strength should be used?

REPLY.

Carbolic acid salve or solution in any strength is objectionable. It may do more harm than good. Simple soap and water cleansing, gasoline washing to remove grease, and then one painting of the abrasion and surrounding skin with ordinary tincture of iodine (brown liquid) is a satisfactory plan. Then protect the wound from further infection by bandage or glove finger.

* * *

Mrs. L. D. writes: A friend advises me to paint my gums with peroxide once a day as a remedy for Rigg's disease or inflamed gums. Would that do any good?

REPLY.

Little if any. Better get your dentist's advice about it.

* * *

S. A. Writes: Are pastes ever used by reputable doctors for drawing out skin cancers?

REPLY.

Yes, in rare cases, but they are more painful and not nearly so safe as surgical removal under local or general anesthetics.

CLUB COMMITTEES WILL BE NAMED

Membership Campaign Will Precede the Annual Banquet.

Committees to handle the various work of the West Duluth Commercial club will be named by W. A. Pond, president of the club, on Friday evening. Seven committees will be named, among these being railroad, streets, civic improvements and others.

Following the business meeting the club has planned to entertain for its members at a "stag" social to which business men of West Duluth will be invited. It is proposed to bring, if possible, every business man as well as many as possible of the other residents of this end of the city within the folds of the club. An effort will be made to boost the membership past the 200 mark before the date of the annual banquet.

DULUTH CURLERS ARE "SLAUGHTERED"

Few Local Men Are Able to Make a Good Showing.

'Twas an awful "slaughter" that occurred in West Duluth last night. The scene was the Western Curling rink and the slaughterers were Joel and Clough Gates, Russell, Stevenson and others of Superior, and the slaughtered were an aggregation of alleged West Duluth curlers. A flash at an attempt to retrieve themselves barely prevented the score from being doubled on the local men.

With apparent regularity and precision the visitors would score at will. Open shots that were given to the local boys to throw at, were nicely missed. "Might as well treat our visitors sociably," was the expression of one of the local members.

Thomas Quinn was the only one of the local men who put up a stubborn fight from the start. Until the tenth head the score was tied and then Russell walked away by laying a two and a three-head respectively in the two final heads. Until the tenth head Kenneth McDonald, veteran player of the local club, was able to score but twice. In the tenth and eleventh heads he laid a five and a three-head coming within one of tying the score. Just to be "sociable," the visitors were then given a chance of laying a five-head.

In the Zauft-C. Gates game the score was interesting until the close of the fourth head. After that time there was nothing to it for the visitors. The Wade rink made no opposition against scoring of the Stevenson rink, being eight down when it finally ended.

Following is the score:

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12
Quinn	2	1	0	0	2	0	0	0	3	0	0	0	— 8
Russell	0	0	2	1	0	1	1	2	0	1	2	3	—13
McDonald	0	1	0	0	0	0	0	1	0	5	3	0	—10
J. Gates	1	0	1	2	2	1	3	0	1	0	0	5	—16
Zauft	0	2	0	3	0	0	0	0	0	1	1	0	— 7
C. Gates	2	0	3	0	1	2	1	1	2	0	0	1	—13
Wade	0	0	0	1	0	0	0	0	2	1	0	1	— 5
Stevenson	1	4	1	0	3	1	1	1	0	0	1	0	—13

Total score, W. D., 30; Superior, 55.

Tomorrow evening the West Duluth members will journey to Superior. They say that they have been promised a similar reception from the club across the bay and expect that it will be necessary to play the third game of the series.

This evening three games will be played in the Esterly event. The games are Judson vs. McDonald; Ellis vs. R. F. Wade, and Wieland vs. Quinn.

TRIAL WILL BE CLOSED.

City Fights Claim for Damages in Injury Action.

Attorneys engaged at the trial of the personal injury action brought by Mrs. Pauline Genereau against the city of Duluth and the West Duluth Land company in Judge Dancer's division of the district court will make their concluding arguments this afternoon, after which the case will be given to the jury. Mrs. Genereau wants damages in the sum of $6,355 for injuries sustained in a fall on an icy sidewalk Feb. 24, 1914. The accident occurred at Fiftieth avenue west and Ramsey street. The land company, one of the defendants, is owner of the abutting property.

RED MEN TO MEET.

New Officers of Lodge Will Officiate for First Time.

Mesaba tribe, No. 25, I. O. R. M., will hold its first meeting with its newly installed officers in the chair tomorrow evening at the Great Eastern hall, 210 North Central avenue. The officers were installed last week by Thomas J. McKeon, great chief of the order.

The new officers are Louis Christianson, sachem; R. F. Burton, senior sagamore; P. G. Phillips, junior sagamore; Edward Sugars, prophet; R. L. Hughes, keeper of records; John Ramsbottom, keeper of wampum; W. E. Tuscan, collector of wampum, and F. C. Kersten, trustee for three years.

ELECTRICIANS WILL RETURN TO WORK.

Between ten and fifteen electricians will be put to work shortly after Feb. 1 by the Westinghouse Electric company at the Minnesota steel plant. The company has the contract for doing all of the electrical work at the plant and laid off all of its men the first August when the work at the plant closed down.

According to an electrician who had been asked to be ready to go to work within a short time, this will only be the first batch of men of a crew of probably fifty that will be employed. He is of the opinion that it is the first indication that the plant will soon be employing a large force of men.

An early resumption of building operations at the plant is expected although officials of the company locally claim that there is nothing to announce. Other plants throughout the country are reopening, according to trade journals and activities in the steel trade have been given a big impetus since the first of the year.

Hold Card Party.

Members of the West Duluth and Pocahontas councils, Royal League, were entertained at cards following the meeting of the lodges at the Commercial club rooms last night. Honors were won by Mrs. E. A. Swanstrom, Mrs. H. H. Lumley, Mrs. W. H. Richter, Guy N. Winton, Mrs. Louis Bennett and Mrs. T. F. Olsen. The committee in charge consisted of Henry L. Fedl, Emil J. Zauft and Dr. O. S. Olson.

During the business meeting of the Pocahontas lodge plans were made for giving another dancing party on Feb. 15 at Dormedy hall, Central avenue and Ramsey street. Invitations will be out shortly after the first of next month.

WILL TELL HOW TO FIT ROUND PEGS IN ROUND HOLES AND SQUARE PEGS IN SQUARE ONES

Joseph Blumenthal of the Business Men's Vocational Bureau of Minneapolis, will lecture in the assembly hall of the Young Men's Christian association Thursday evening, at 8 o'clock. Mr. Blumenthal will not only lecture, but will give some public demonstrations of his method of determining what lines of work in which certain individuals are naturally adapted to succeed. Thirty years of his life were spent in Australia studying the various types of human beings and later in conjunction with his brother, Gustave A. Blumenthal, now in charge of the Vocational bureau established by the government at Washington, has developed the science of vocational analysis to a degree which to the uninitiated is almost uncanny.

An example of how quickly he can pass upon the fitness of men for certain kinds of work was well illustrated recently in the office of a business firm in Minneapolis which employs many men. The employer wanted to know which of his assistants was best fitted to manage the business during his absence. A half a dozen were called in one at a time and asked seemingly trivial questions in the presence of Mr. Blumenthal, whom they took to be an ordinary business visitor. When the men had all been questioned Mr. Blumenthal named the one he considered best fitted to be placed in charge. It was the very man whom the employer himself after months of studying of the question had mentally picked. Mr. Blumenthal did not know whether the man was a newcomer or a man who had spent years in the office, did not know from what rank in the staff he had been called, and in fact, knew nothing at all about him except what he was able to see, hear and quickly note while two or three ordinary questions were being asked and answered.

How does he do it? That question is put to the expert many times every day and this is how he answers it. He says it is half intuition and half deduction.

JOSEPH BLUMENTHAL.

His work in Minneapolis has passed entirely beyond the experimental stage, and has become an established factor in the business community. He is often called in consultation to pass upon the fitness of men to undertake certain lines of work where the employer cannot afford to experiment.

This lecture will be especially interesting to three classes of people: First, business men who would be sure of their natural ability for certain lines of work in their employees; second, young men who are uncertain as to the kind of work which they should undertake as a life vocation or those who are in doubt as to their natural ability to succeed in the kind of work in which they are at present occupied; third, fathers of older boys whose future vocations it seems difficult to decide upon.

Mr. Blumenthal will give an interesting and instructive lecture on this exceedingly important subject and will give some public analyses of individuals which will illustrate his method of work.

No admission fee will be charged.

EDITING PAPER NOT ALL "FUN"

Duluth Architect Tries It and Is Arrested in Florida.

Editing a newspaper for pleasure instead of profit has its drawbacks, according to newspaper advices from Salerno, Fla., concerning Frank L. Young, editor of the Salerno News and formerly an architect in Duluth.

Editor Young, who has acquired a reputation of having high regard for facts, recently was arrested on a charge of criminal libel, following the publication of an article concerning the conduct of certain women of Salerno, with the caption, "Drunkenness Among Women." He has been held to the county court under a $750 bond.

Some time ago the editor-architect came into the limelight because of his radical editorials.

M'KERCHER WILL URGE STATE AID

Humane Agent to Tell Legislature of Bill's Advantages.

R. D. McKercher, Duluth Humane society agent, will leave this afternoon for St. Paul, where he again will appear before a legislative committee in the interests of a bill authorizing an appropriation of $6,500 to support the Minnesota State Humane society. The society never has received any aid from the state government. The proposed bill was recommended by the society at its annual meeting in St. Paul recently and Mr. McKercher was asked to appear before the legislators and urge its passage.

Mr. McKercher expects to go before the appropriations committee and also the St. Louis county delegation. The bill, as proposed, provides that relief be extended to deformed and crippled children throughout the state and creates the office of state executive agent, whose duty will be to visit those counties which do not have humane agents in the field and to look after work there.

Humane societies in Duluth, St. Paul and Minneapolis are active in pushing the bill, although under its provisions they will not receive any direct benefit from it, should it pass and become a law. Humane society workers believe, however, that there is a long-felt need for a state agent to cover the counties which have no organized societies and that Minnesota should follow precedents which have been established along this line by other states.

FOOD STOCKS ARE NOW CONTRABAND

Decision of German Government to Seize Them Makes Them So.

London, Jan. 24.—The decision of the German government to seize stocks of flour and grain makes them absolute contraband instead of conditional contraband, as they were heretofore, argues the London Globe, in a leading article printed today.

"We permitted food to be imported by Germany," the newspaper says, "provided it was intended for civil population alone, but now that it is to be treated as government property it becomes absolutely contraband and vessels carrying food supplies to the enemy's ports, or to neutral ports from which these cargoes are to pass into Germany, will do so at the peril of capture."

The editorial argues that in view of the new status of flour and grain, the American steamer Wilhelmina, which sailed from New York Jan. 22 with a cargo of food for Germany, has no right to land her supplies at Rotterdam.

SAWMILLS WILL RESUME

Alger-Smith and Mullery-McDonald Will Start Sawing Next Week.

About Six Hundred Will Be Employed—Long Run in Prospect.

About 600 men will be put to work in the sawmills of Duluth next week. Announcement was made this morning that the Alger-Smith sawmill at the foot of Garfield avenue will resume operations during the first week in February, and yesterday the management of the Mullery-McDonald sawmill announced that its plant at the foot of Twenty-fourth avenue west will start on Tuesday.

The news of the sawmills' opening is probably the best that has been given out in several weeks. The Alger-Smith mill will be run day and night and will employ more than 400 men on its two shifts. The company has been receiving on an average of five train loads of logs daily since early in December and this material has been piling up on its dock near the mill. The quantity now on hand is sufficient to run the mill nearly a half a year and with the supply that is expected to arrive between now and spring the mill will be enabled to operate well into next winter without getting more timber from the woods during the summer.

Closed for Lack of Timber.

The Alger-Smith Rice's Point mill was one of the last in the city to cease operations in the fall. It had been running day and night until late in October when it was compelled to close owing to the lack of timber.

With the two mills in operation next week the labor situation in Duluth will be greatly relieved. While a large number of the men usually employed in the mills are not classed with the ones who generally are seeking employment during the winter, employment will be available for many of the latter at the resumption of work.

About 225 men will be put to work on the day shift at the Rice's Point mill. The night shift will employ about 200 men. At the Mullery-McDonald mill there will be about 100 men on the day shift and about 85 on the night shift. The combined output of the two mills will be about 600,000 feet of lumber each twenty-four hours, the former mill cutting about two-thirds of the total.

are in Northern Minnesota," declared Matt Daly, who represents a missionary society in the camps. "The minds of men are being poisoned by the tricky employment agents. It is more dangerous to this country than to have its ships seized on the high seas."

Mr. Daly enumerated cases where men have frozen to death and their families starved while they were searching for work in some district to which they had been directed by an employment agent. He also outlined methods employed by the agents in sending several crews of men to the same camp, collecting fees from each man.

"One day not long ago," said Mr. Daly, "I saw a healthy young foreigner start on one of the journeys prepared by an employment agent. A few days later I met him on the street. His clothes were hanging in shreds. On his hands he wore a pair of sox. When he saw me he threw his arms in the air and wept. Then he removed the sox. His hands had been frozen off during the fifteen-mile walk back to town."

Semi-Monthly Wage Pay.

Protracted debate on the bill proposing semi-monthly payment of wages to employes of public service corporations marked the public hearing before the joint meeting of the house and senate committees on labor yesterday afternoon.

Labor and capital were well represented at the meeting. Efforts to wedge the entire gathering into a committee room failed, and at length the house chamber was placed at the committee's disposal.

Representative Gardner of Brainerd, who introduced the bill in the senate, declared that under the present monthly pay system of the railroads, the workingman is tied to his grocer from month to month and that the grocer often charges exorbitant rates for his wares. On the other hand, he read numerous letters from grocers saying they were in favor of the bill, because it would place their business on a more cash basis.

Railroad officials and legal talent appeared in numbers. The officials pointed out that to enact the bill into law would cost the railroads large sums of money for the hire of additional clerks and bookkeepers to prepare the checks twice a month instead of once. They also contended that the railroad men, generally, were opposed to the bill.

Employes Oppose Bill.

Several railroad employes, shopmen and switchmen, spoke against the bill. It was charged on the floor by Representative James Hynes of St. Paul that those employes appearing against the bill had been instructed to do so. The statement was vigorously denied.

Vice President Slade of the Northern Pacific appeared in opposition to the bill. He told of a disposition among the men to oppose the bill.

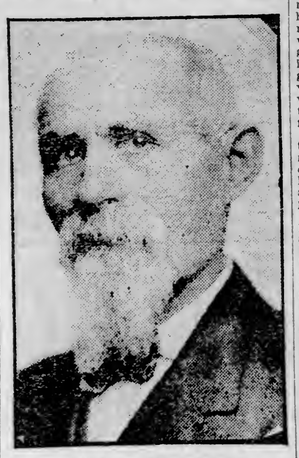

OUCH! PAIN, PAIN. RUB RHEUMATIC, ACHING JOINTS

Rheumatism is "pain only." Not one case in fifty requires internal treatment. Stop drugging. Rub soothing, penetrating "St. Jacobs Oil" right into your sore, stiff, aching joints and muscles, and relief comes instantly. "St. Jacobs Oil" is a harmless rheumatism cure which never disappoints and can not burn the skin.

Limber up! Quit complaining! Get a small trial bottle of old, honest "St. Jacobs Oil" at any drug store, and in just a moment you'll be free from rheumatic pain, soreness, stiffness and swelling. Don't suffer! Relief awaits you. "St. Jacobs Oil" has cured millions of rheumatism sufferers in the last half century, and is just as good for sciatica, neuralgia, lumbago, backache, sprains.

AUTHOR OF TELEPHONE BILL THAT IS OPPOSED

FRANK E. MINNETTE,
Representative From Sauk Center.

When pressed by committee members to say just how he knew that the employes were opposed to the bill, he urged that other representatives of the road, who were better informed as to that part of the matter, be permitted to speak.

Mr. Slade pointed out the abundance of extra work incident to the preparation of 70,000 pay checks twice a month instead of once a month, and declared that at no other time were the railroads less prepared to stand additional expense.

Representative A. O. Devold of Minneapolis charged that at a meeting of Milwaukee road employes in Minneapolis Monday, the men were instructed to oppose the bill.

What the Men Want.

Taking exception to Representative Devold's statement, F. W. Root, attorney for the Milwaukee, explained that at a meeting of 1,200 men the question of whether they favored the bill was put. They were not asked to make known their attitude then, but to talk among themselves and decide. He said they were almost unanimously opposed to the bill.

"What we do want," Mr. Root declared the men told him, "is more money and longer hours."

Attorneys representing the Great Northern said that to place the semi-monthly pay system into effect over its entire system would cost in the neighborhood of $100,000 a year, and that in Minnesota alone the expense would be $32,000 annually.

Another hearing on the bill probably will be held at an early date.

STILLMAN H. BINGHAM.

TALK ON MINNETTE TELEPHONE BILL

Public Hearing to Advocates and Opponents of Measure.

By a Staff Correspondent.

St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 27.—(Special to The Herald.)—Proponents and opponents of the Minnette telephone bill which would place telephone and telegraph companies under the jurisdiction of the state railroad and warehouse commission, appeared at a public hearing on the bill yesterday afternoon.

Several expressed the belief that certain sections of the proposed law should be amended.

C. B. Randall, attorney for the Tri-State Telephone company, earnestly urged the passage of the bill.

J. E. Jenks, city attorney of St. Cloud and president of the League of Minnesota Municipalities, favored the bill, but also favored several changes. He said that the League of Municipalities had gone on record as favoring physical connection of telephone companies.

Indeterminate Franchises.

The bill in its present form makes it optional with the telephone company whether an indeterminate permit or a franchise for a stated period be granted. Jenks declared this gives the telephone company the advantage over the municipality. He added that if it can be legally effected, the bill should provide that all companies should be compelled to accept indeterminate permits.

One provision of the bill would make it possible for municipalities to purchase telephone companies if it were so desired. Jenks said the bill should provide a basis for fixing valuation.

Mark Wooley of Howard Lake, president of the Independent Telephone Association of Minnesota, said that the independent lines of the state are in favor of the bill.

Wants Bill Modified.

Senator James A. Carley of Plainview, who is interested in an independent line, in a speech charged that Wooley was controlled by the Tri-State company and not by the independents. He said the independents desire to have the bill modified.

Guy S. Pratt, general superintendent of the Northwestern Telephone company at Omaha, opposed the physical connection feature of the bill, except after hearings had been held and it was ascertained the conditions warranted it. Otherwise, he said, he was in favor of the bill.

H. P. Roberts of Minneapolis, attorney for the Tri-State, declared that the Northwestern Telephone company will oppose any physical connection.

STILLMAN H. BINGHAM.

could get more money to run the office with. Mr. Rosenwald, one of the highway engineers in 1912, gave me a bunch of cards and told me to work for his father, who was running for railroad and warehouse commissioner. I insisted on doing road work instead, so pretty soon I was notified that I could go when my month was up, as they had no more money to hire me with.

"They did have money enough, though, to hire a man named Simmons, who is still employed by the commission, and who filled his automobile with booze and went around shouting himself hoarse for Eberhart and Rosenwald."

While her sisters were debating votes for women in the adjoining chamber, Annie E. Shelland of International Falls was appearing before the senate committee on public highways to plead for the retention of the Elwell law on the ground that it is an indispensable aid in the development of the newer sections of the northern part of the state.

Miss Shelland Favors Law.

"Two years ago," she said, "there were not twenty miles of roads in Koochiching county. Under the Elwell law, we have been enabled to build nearly 200 miles of good roads. It is much better for us to get the roads now, and have the use of them, than to wait and get the state aid in driblets. Southern Minnesota members, I am afraid, do not understand the problems that confront Northern Minnesota. If we cannot anticipate payments, as the Elwell law permits, we can't develop. There is so much state land, which is not taxable, that our problems are greatly increased. I walked fifty miles last fall to visit schools, and hardly ten miles of it was over decent roads. There are many settlers, invited in by the state and the Federal government, who have to use trails instead of roads, and who cannot even get doctors in when sickness comes. If we had to take the usual measures, without the Elwell law, we should have to wait twenty-five or thirty years for the roads we need right now."

Miss Shelland told a moving tale of the hardships that confront the pioneers in a new territory, and pointed out that in Canada, just across the line, they are building turnpike roads and helping the settlers to get their products to market.

Among others who were there to present the case of Northern Minnesota were Senator Charles E. Adams of Duluth, who is authorized to speak for the Northern Minnesota Development association; Charles T. Kelley of Menagha, president of the Northern Minnesota Development association; Former Senator James T. Elwell of Minneapolis, author of the Elwell law, and Dr. Duncan B. Pritchard of Winona, father of the good roads movement in Winona county, where nine roads have been started under the Elwell law, largely through the initiative of Dr. Pritchard.

Vermilya Attacks the Law.

Senator J. I. Vermilya of Dover, author of the repeal bill, spoke first against the Elwell law. He said that it is too far-reaching and gives too much power to the six persons who can petition for an Elwell road, and the county board, which can establish one —subject, however, to the approval of the state highway commission. He said that there was no limit to the indebtedness that could be incurred under the Elwell law.

William Codman of Winona, attorney for Winona county farmers opposed to the Elwell law, made a legal argument against it, asserting that it was a plan to build "Peacock lanes" throughout the state. He said the farmers of Winona county were going to test the law in the courts and knock it out if they can, if the legislature does not. He said, too, that the interest in Elwell road bonds is a needless burden on the taxpayers, because by waiting till they get the money they can have the roads without interest charges.

Senator Elwell said that the law is optional, and that no county needs to use it if it does not want to. The county boards must act on petitions for Elwell roads, and they can be depended upon to do the right thing. They spend money without a vote of the people; why should they not spend money for road bond issues? Under this law the people get the roads now, and use them while they are paying for them. The item of interest cost is more than offset by the cost to farmers of putting up with bad roads while they wait ten years for money enough for good ones. The charge that indebtedness is unlimited is untrue, because the highway commission will not sanction more Elwell roads than the county's share of the state road aid will warrant.

Dr. Donald B. Pritchard of Winona pointed out that it would not do to provide that the people must vote on Elwell road bonds, because, as everybody not directly benefited would vote against them, all projects would be defeated.

Dr. Pritchard also pointed out that though the author of the repeal bill had amended his bill apparently so as to take care of work already started under the Elwell law, there was a joker in his amendment whereby the state would be prohibited from making the payments due under the law.

Another hearing will be held next Tuesday afternoon in the house chamber, jointly with the house committee, when Senator Adams, Senator Nord and others will present Northern Minnesota's side of the question.

Against Miscegenation.

Representative Alfred W. Mueller of New Ulm is preparing a bill for early introduction which will prohibit all marriages between white and colored persons.

The bill will provide that all marriages hereafter solemnized between white and colored persons shall be void, without any decree of divorce; that any white and colored pairs who marry in this state shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary for six months to five years; that if such pairs go outside of the state to be married and then return, the punishment shall be the same as if they had been married within the state; and that anybody knowingly marrying a colored person to a white person shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. Every person having one-eighth or more of negro blood is declared to be a colored person.

Senator Claude E. Southwick of Wells today introduced in the house a bill making townships and counties liable for injuries due to defective roads and bridges that are under their respective jurisdictions.

"As the law stands now," said Mr. Southwick yesterday, "if a person is injured in a city or village because of a defect in the streets, the community is liable. But when you get outside the corporate limits it is different. Neither township nor county is liable under the present law, and though the supreme court has lately held that the county or township officers are personally liable for damages, that is neither fair nor helpful to the injured person, unless by chance some of the town or county officers should be rich enough to stand a good verdict."

* * *

Against Price Exhibit.

The house committee on appropriations, by a vote of 10 to 6, yesterday afternoon rejected the bill appropriating $36,000 to provide for a Minnesota exhibit at the San Francisco exhibition. A motion to reconsider this action failed by a tie vote, 8 to 8.

The members of the commission that has the matter in charge appeared before the committee to argue the bill and to explain what has been done and what is proposed. Most of the money has been raised by public subscription, and it was proposed to repay this, besides providing enough to carry out the plan. A majority of the committee, however, failed to see it that way, and the committee voted to recommend the bill for indefinite postponement.

* * *

The house committee on public domain yesterday afternoon voted to recommend for passage the C. H. Warner bill, making interest on state land contracts a flat 4 per cent instead of charging 5 per cent when payment is made within ten years.

* * *

The house committee on elections began its hearings on the pending election contests last evening, taking up first the contest of Frank Dunning against Representative Thomas H. Girling. Little progress was made, and the hearing will be continued tonight.

LONG EXPECTED ATTEMPT OF TURKISH ARMY TO INVADE EGYPT HAS BEGUN

in this affair what amounted to a battalion and a half of men.

"It has been confirmed today that near La Bassee, Givenchy and Guinchy the Germans yesterday suffered a great check. On the road from La Bassee to Bethune the bodies of six officers and 400 men were found. The losses of the Germans consequently must represent at least two full battalions.

"From Lens to Soissons yesterday saw artillery fighting. In the region of Craonne we maintained ourselves in the trenches recaptured by us during our counter-attacks of Jan. 25.

"In the region of Perthes, Hill No. 200, four violent attacks on the part of the enemy have been repulsed. In the Argonne in the vicinity of St. Hubert, a German attack was repulsed with the bayonet. At St. Mihiel we destroyed new foot bridges thrown over the Meuse by the enemy.

"Yesterday passed quietly in Lorraine and in the Vosges."

Russian Statement.

Petrograd, Jan. 27.—The general staff of the Russian army today gave out a report on the progress of the fighting which reads as follows:

"In the Pilkalen region our troops took the offensive, Jan. 25 and drove all the detachments of the enemy who opposed them back towards the line from Malvisohken to Lasdenen. During this operation we dislodged them from many of their positions after fighting at the point of the bayonet. On the right bank of the river Vistula there have been advance guard engagements of minor importance. A fusillade was reported Jan. 26 in this locality, and in the vicinity of Vyschprov the fire of our artillery has demolished a lookout post on the left bank of the river.

"To the left of the Vistula the Germans had made some fresh efforts to assume the offensive, particularly near the villages of Borjimow and Goumine and in the evening of Jan. 24 and the afternoon of Jan. 25, but each time they were driven back with serious losses. In the vicinity of the villages of Grabskieboudy and Rouda, to the northeast of Skierniewice, our fire reduced two German batteries to silence.

"In Galicia the activity of the enemy has increased on the front between Gasdisk, Ouick, Nieczesk and Malcanks, where the enemy in addition to his artillery fire made other endeavors to operate on the offensive. He was, however, everywhere driven back. We took prisoner three officers and about 300 soldiers."

There have been no important changes in Bukowina.

"On Jan. 25 a German Zeppelin flew over Libau and threw down nine bombs. These missiles, however, did not do any serious damage. The Zeppelin then returned toward the frontier. At a point near Virghen our artillerymen succeeded in hitting this airship and she fell into the water. Light gunboats went out from Libau and finished her destruction. Her crew of seven men were taken prisoners."

Berlin, Jan. 27, by wireless to London, 3:30 p. m.—The official communication issued today by the German army headquarters' staff says the French were driven out of their positions on the heights to the west of La Creute Ferme and to the east of Heurtebise. The Germans also claim that several points of support were taken from the French by the Saxons and that 865 wounded Frenchmen were captured.

The text of the statement reads:

"In the western theater of the war:

"Only artillery duels took place at Nieuport and at Ypres (in Belgium).

"At Guinchy, southwest of La Bassee, the enemy attempted yesterday evening to recapture positions which we had taken on Jan. 25. It was unsuccessful and the attack broke down under our fire.

"The battle on the heights of Craonne, reported yesterday, were entirely successful. The French were driven out of their positions in the heights to the west of La Creute Ferme and to the east of Heurtebise and were forced back on the southern slope of the elevated century.

"Several points of support, extending over a width of 1,400 meters were taken by storm by the Saxons. Eight hundred and sixty-five wounded Frenchmen were taken prisoners and eight machine guns were captured. One depot of sappers and miners and much other material were taken.

"To the southeast of St. Mihiel our troops captured a French point of support. The counter attacks made by the French remained unsuccessful.

"In Vosges the snow lies deep and is retarding our movements.

"In the eastern theater of the war:

"Russian attacks were made to the northeast of Gumbinnen (in East Prussia). The losses of the enemy at certain places were heavy.

"There were no changes in the situation in Poland."

NO DEMONSTRATION AT NORIEL FUNERAL

Filipino Insurgent Leader Hanged and Buried Without Any Trouble.

Manila, Jan. 27.—The funeral of Gen. Noriel, one time insurgent leader, who with two accomplices was hanged here early today for the murder of a political enemy in 1902, was attended by none of the popular manifestations which were feared on account of the prominence of the general and his influential following, particularly in the province of Cavite. A great throng attended the funeral, but the people were not demonstrative and there was no hint of the disorders for which the army had been ordered to prepare.

Noriel was one of the most prominent natives of Cavite. He was sentenced to die Jan. 12, but obtained a stay of execution until today. During this time influential Filipinos exerted their every effort to secure a mitigation of sentence, but Gen. Francis Burton Harrison directed that he be put to death in accordance with the judgment of the court that tried him.

COLDEST OF THE WINTER

Mercury Drops to 27 Deg. Below Zero in Duluth.

No Promise of Warmer Weather Before Thursday Afternoon.

This was the coldest day this winter in Duluth, according to Weather Forecaster Richardson; not only in Duluth, either, but all over the Northwest, taking in Northern Minnesota, North Dakota, Northeastern Montana and most of Western Canada. The range of temperatures was from 25 to 40 deg. below zero in these sections. It was 40 below in Western Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Northwestern North Dakota. The extreme cold extended as far south as Iowa and Nebraska, and into Western Wisconsin and the Copper Country.

In Duluth the lowest record read at the weather bureau was at 7 o'clock this morning, when 25 degs. was shown. At the kiosk the thermometer showed 27 below at 8 o'clock.

After 8 o'clock this morning the thermometer began to slowly rise, but did not get anywhere nearly above zero or around that mark. At 10 o'clock the mercury was at the 20 deg. below zero mark, at noon it was 10 deg. below and at 1 o'clock it had almost reached as high as 8 below.

However, it is expected that 3 o'clock this afternoon will see the high mark for the day, as that is usually the hour when the high mark of the day is reached. From then on it is expected that the temperature will fall until the mark predicted by Mr. Richardson, who says it will be from 20 to 30 deg. below zero in this region tonight, will have been reached.

The severe drop in temperature was accompanied by a 24-mile northwest wind, which made things most uncomfortable for pedestrians.

Mr. Richardson says that the mercury continued to fall all night. At 11:30 last night 20 deg. was recorded, at 5 o'clock this morning it was about 22 deg. below, and at 7, 25 deg.

No promise of a let-up is given before tomorrow afternoon, when, Mr. Richardson says, "there may be a moderation." The temperature tonight will be from 20 to 30 deg. below at Duluth, according to predictions.

BEMIDJI STORE IS VISITED BY BURGLARS.

Bemidji, Minn., Jan. 27.—(Special to The Herald.)—By breaking through the front window, burglars entered the store of P. M. Dicaire on Irvin avenue last night and stole merchandise consisting of groceries, foodstuffs and clothing to the extent of $75. Before breaking the front window the burglars had tried the back door and the side window.

Practical Prescription Against Stomach Acidity

Nine-tenths of all cases of stomach trouble nowadays are caused by too much acid. In the beginning the stomach itself is not diseased but its this acid condition is allowed to continue, the acid is very likely to eat into the stomach walls and produce stomach ulcers which may render a radical surgical operation necessary even to prolong life. Therefore, an "acid stomach" is really a dangerous condition and should be treated seriously. It is utterly useless to take pepsin and ordinary stomach tablets. The excess acid or stomach hyperacidity must be neutralized by the administration of an efficient antacid. For this purpose the best remedy is bisurated magnesia taken in teaspoonful doses in a fourth of a glass of water after each meal. Larger quantities may be used if necessary as it is absolutely harmless. Be sure to ask your druggist for the biurated magnesia as other forms of magnesia make effective mouth washes but they have not the same action on the stomach as the bisurated.—Advertisement.

COLDEST OF SEASON IN THE NORTHWEST

Frigid Temperature Will Be Felt in East By Thursday.

Washington, Jan. 27.—Coldest weather of the season, covering the Northwest today with temperatures as cold as 40 deg. below zero will show its effects in the east tomorrow, according to the predictions of the weather bureau.

"Unsettled weather will prevail generally tonight and Thursday over the eastern half of the country, with snows in the Ohio valley and Tennessee, rain or snow in the north portion of the East Gulf states and rain over the south portion," says the bureau. LUMBER SMALL PART OF COST OF BUILDING

Not Over 25 Per Cent in an Ordinary Frame Dwelling.

Kansas City, Mo., Jan. 27.—Lumber prices have little, if anything to do with the high cost of building a modern home, according to J. Moorhead of Lexington, Mo., secretary of the Southwestern Lumbermen's association.

Mr. Moorhead, who spoke at the opening session of the annual convention of the organization here today pointed out that the lumber used nowadays in the building of a moderate priced frame residence represents less than 25 per cent of the total cost. More than 75 per cent is taken up, he said, by fittings that would have been considered luxuries twenty-five years ago.

More than 1,500 retail lumber dealers, representing Arkansas, Oklahoma, Texas, Louisiana, Missouri and Kansas are attending the convention.

"The price of lumber has not advanced anything like the prices of many other necessities, such as farm products," Mr. Moorhead said. "In fact much of the lumber used in home building costs less than it did twenty-five years ago, shingles, for instance."

C. J. Blanchard, statistician of the Federal reclamation service told of the government forest conservation and national irrigation projects.

SAGE TEA KEEPS YOUR HAIR DARK

When Mixed With Sulphur It Brings Back Its Luster and Abundance.

Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks dry, wispy and scraggly, just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred-fold.

Don't stay gray! Look young! Either prepare the tonic at home or get from any drug store a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." Thousands of folks recommend this ready-to-use preparation, because it darkens the hair beautifully and removes dandruff, stops scalp itching and falling hair; besides, no one can possibly tell, as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, its natural color is restored and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger.

NEWS OF THE NORTHWEST

WILL SEED MUCH WHEAT

North Dakota Farmers Expected to Break All Seeding Records This Year.

Better Farming Advocates Fear High Prices Will Prevent Crop Rotation.

Fargo, N. D., Jan. 27.—(Special to The Herald.)—It is feared there will be retrogression in North Dakota's farming methods because of the high price of wheat. The advocates of better farming are afraid some of their converts during the last three years will backslide.

Rapid progress had been made in getting the farmers of the state to adopt better farming methods and to change from an all-grain crop to alfalfa, corn and livestock. It is feared that the farmers will be stampeded. It is generally admitted that the prospects for continued high prices on grain are bright, but the supporters of a better farming plan insist that the farmers cannot afford to jeopardize the advantages they have gained during the last three years merely to gain increased returns one year on grain.

Corn Acreage Trebled.

During the last three years the corn acreage has trebled, the alfalfa acreage increased from 30,000 to 90,000 acres and the shipment of hogs doubled last year over the year before. Increases along other lines have been very prominent, and the better farming people were congratulating themselves they had things moving in the right direction when the European war and the resultant high prices for grain caused a reaction.

It is now estimated that there will be the largest wheat acreage in North Dakota in 1915 ever known in the state, especially if the seeding conditions this spring are at all favorable, because more plowing was done last fall than ever before and advance conditions are good.

Farmers are paying exorbitant prices for seed grain, especially for durum wheat and other crops are to be sidetracked this year to make way for what is expected to be a great money-maker, and the better-farming people fear they will not make much gains this season.

It was several hours before Switter was revived. He will recover.

FORMER JURIST IS CALLED AT HOUGHTON.

Houghton, Mich., Jan. 27.—Albert T. Streeter for twelve years judge of the Twelfth judicial circuit comprising Houghton, Baraga and Keewenaw counties until his retirement in 1911, died at his home in East Houghton Sunday evening following an illness of several months he contracted at his winter home in Virginia.

Judge Streeter was born in Austinburg, Ohio, in 1844, entering Oberlin college at the age of 16. In 1867 he came to the Copper country and was employed in the Houghton postoffice. Later he completed his law studies at the University of Michigan, and in 1869 was admitted to the Michigan bar. Returning to Houghton county, he located in Calumet and a few years later became postmaster there. Subsequently he was elected prosecuting attorney of Houghton county, retaining that office for two terms, and judge of the Twelfth judicial circuit, embracing the counties of Houghton, Baraga and Keewenaw.

Since his retirement from the judgeship he engaged in the practice of law, though ill health and various business interests prevented him becoming very active in the profession.

At a special meeting of the Houghton County Bar association held Monday resolutions of respect for the late Judge Streeter and sympathy for the members of his family were unanimously passed.

Judge Streeter is survived by his widow and two children, Miss Nina, principal of the domestic science department of the Kansas City high school, and Howard, a member of the Detroit bar.

MAJ. HALE BURIED.

Mill City Postoffice Closes During Ceremonies for Former Postmaster.

Minneapolis, Minn., Jan. 27.—Business at the local postoffice was suspended yesterday afternoon from 2 to 2:30 as a mark of respect to Former Postmaster Maj. W. D. Hale, whose funeral was held at 2 p. m. from Lakewood chapel. Maj. Hale died recently in Honolulu. Mrs. Hale and Will H. Hale arrived from San Francisco Monday with the body of Maj. Hale. They were accompanied by Frank W. Hale of Tacoma, a brother of the late postmaster. Dr. Charles E. Hale of Boston arrived in the city yesterday morning.

At the time of the funeral services of the late postmaster every person connected with the postal service in this city ceased work, with the possible exception of carriers in residence districts who were then in the middle of their routes. Other postoffice work was so timed as to suspend for a half hour. Delegations from the clerks and carriers attended the funeral, as did heads of departments, who saw long years of service with Maj. Hale.

The G. A. R. services at the funeral were held under the auspices of the George N. Morgan post of which Maj. Hale was a member.

FORM FARMERS' CLUBS.

Organizations Perfected in Southern Koochiching and Northern St. Louis.

International Falls, Minn., Jan. 27.—(Special to The Herald.)—County Agent Jewell spent part of last week in the southeastern part of Koochiching county, out from Gheen, working with County Agricultural Agent Larson of St. Louis county. A farmers' club was formed at Rauch with the following officers: Mr. Jackshaw, president; Mr. Nose, vice president; Mr. Ward, secretary, and Mr. Rauch, treasurer.

A club was also formed at Silverdale, the meeting being held at Frank Carlson's place. A club with thirty-three charter members was formed, a constitution was adopted and officers will be elected on Feb. 5. This was the largest and most representative crowd that has met at Silverdale for some time, and the people are anxious to repeat the performance. A lunch was served after the meeting and the people danced until about 10 p. m.

There are now clubs at Gheen, Greaney, Rauch and Silverdale. This makes a string of clubs from Gheen west as far as the settlements extend. It is the intention of County Agents Larson and Jewell to work co-operatively with these clubs. There are more farmers in this section than in any other and they have been badly handicapped by distance from market, lack of roads and concerted action.

A fight followed in which the parson exhibited first-class pugilistic ability. The following night two men, who had imbibed too much at Yales, Mont., just over the border, created a disturbance at the revival meeting. No fists for Knowles this time, but he lifted his long coat, pulled a six-shooter and waited for the sheriff.

THE DAILY ROLL CALL; A COLUMN OF SPORTS

BY BRUCE.

MEMBERS of the board of directors of the Duluth Ski club are eminent authority for the statement that the 1915 tournament on the famous old Chester hill will be the greatest National meet ever held in the United States.

In 1913 at Ironwood, Mich., Ragnar Omtvedt established the world's ski distance standing jump. Some followers of the sport have vaguely gleaned the idea that the world's distance flight was tucked away in some of the musty record books of Europe. Such emphatically is not the case. Omtvedt's record is the greatest jump ever made and it is this mark that the riders at the Duluth meet will attempt to shatter.

Here are some facts for the followers of the ski sport to consider. The Duluth scaffold is 90 feet in height. The natural hill upon whose crest the scaffold perches, is 150 feet in height. From the tip of the scaffold to the bottom of the hill is a clear flight of 500 feet, perilously slanted at an angle of 38 degrees. This is the record-making proposition presented by the new hill—and the officials of the home club confidently believe that the old mark of 199 feet will be stricken from the records.

In passing it might be stated that Omtvedt will be here and therefore will not be left at the post if there is to be any shattering of ancient and honorable records.

It looks like one of the greatest meets in the history of the club. Members of the Duluth association have gone to work in earnest to surpass all previous efforts. Entries are expected from every club in the National association—and the greatest riders in the United States, both professional and amateur, have been invited to be present and take a turn at slapping the old record on the wrist.

McGoorty and Gibbons.

IT IS inevitable that Edward McGoorty, the Oshkosh Whale, and Michael Gibbons, the St. Paul Phantom, will meet in the hempen enclosure during the next few weeks.

In the ranks of the middleweights it is a case of a survival of the fittest. The stage was gorgeously set for the meeting between Clabby and the elusive St. Paul Turk. These settings were some of the most elaborate that we have had in recent pugilistic productions.

Naturally the interest in the second meeting between McGoorty and Gibbons will not mount as high as that engendered by the initial rally. Over the length and breadth of this palpitating country of ours waved the hot smoke of interest in that original meeting. The sum of $33,700 was gathered within the gates of Madison Square Garden and assisted greatly in making the party a perfectly lovely one.

Chances are that Edward and Michael will debate at Hudson, Wis. Mike Collins had the pair signed—and then the paper blew away. It is all the better for Mike Collins that Gibbons fought Clabby first; for if the bout between McGoorty and Gibbons goes to Hudson, the house will surpass the financial figures of the recent Milwaukee rally.

McGoorty is one of the hardest hitters of any of the middles. The Oshkosh boy has a greater wallop than either Clabby or Gibbons. When Eddie corks them with that old left hook, call the nurse, he's fainting.

McGoorty beat Gibbons in the garden. That was one of a few bad fights ever made by Gibbons. Mike desires to wipe that stain off the otherwise brightly burnished brass of his pugilistic escutcheon—and McGoorty desires, with that avidity possessed by the money changers of the temple, to annex some of the large coin. Edward is one close party and the jingle of the pocket orchestra appeals to him as the majestic strains of a Wagnerian orchestra appeals to a long-haired temperamental cuss who is living in an attic to give his soul an artistic treat.

It will be a great fight—and when they meet, Bill, us for the Gibbons end.

There is but one lad who can treat this Gibbons to a shade over the ten-round route, in our humble opinion, and that bucko is none other than Packey McFarland, pronounced by some wise birds as the greatest boxer of his time.

Ketonen Is Due Today.

Waino Ketonen is due here today. The little Finn will put the finishing touches on his training for the battle with Walter Miller. In this contest the word battle is used advisedly.

Reports from Lincoln state that Ketonen is in magnificent condition. The fans here will have a chance to judge of the little Finn's shape for themselves. The finishing touches to the long siege of workouts will be put on right here. Ketonen is expected to enter the ring at the Auditorium in the best shape of his career.

Before starting work for Miller, Ketonen had been training a long time for the world's 148-pound contest with Fritz Hanson. The little Finn defeated Hanson in straight falls at Worcester on Christmas afternoon. After that contest Waino took a rest and then came West for a number of Western matches. Right after the Finn's arrival at Lincoln, Neb., he was wired by Tilt Lewis that the contest with Miller was on. Ketonen immediately canceled all of his other matches and started getting right for the meeting with the wrestler he has been after for eighteen months. For nearly a month Ketonen has been on the job of conditioning. He should be as right as the proverbial golden guinea when he climbs through the ropes and takes a seat in the corner of the ring.

Figuring the dope of this impending meeting, the contest that will be fought out next Tuesday evening looks like a battle that will be desperately contested. It is safe to state that Miller will try to rough and punish the little Finn. It should be a contest of goat getting. Waino hates Miller and the love of Miller for Ketonen is like the affection of the wolf for the lamb.

Ketonen may try to get Miller mad and then trap him into an opening. The Finn is a demon at arm rolls. He will have Miller worried, for whether on top or underneath, the Finn will be dangerous. A cat likes to fight underneath—and this Ketonen would as soon be under as on top of his opponent.

Miller has heard so much about the famous arm rolls of Ketonen that it is to be presumed that he will be ever on the alert for such a move. The Finn has a headlock that is an earbuster, and he can scissors and hammerlock. Miller's attention to the arm roll may leave Ketonen the opening he is looking for.

It is generally believed that Miller will work on the legs of the Finn. The head scissors is one of the favorite holds of the little Pole, and if he clamps on a leg scissors he will make the Finn squirm some.

AUTO CLUB HAS AMBITIOUS PLANS

Secretary Mullin Appeals for Completion of Twin City-Duluth Route.

Erection of road signs throughout St. Louis county, the painting of the Twin City-Duluth trail and the co-operation of the Duluth Auto club with city and county officials for better streets and roads, were some of the activities of the local body during 1914, according to Henry J. Mullin, secretary of the organization, in a report he has prepared for the Minnesota State Automobile association, which will meet in Minneapolis next week.

In addition, Mr. Mullin explains the work done by the auto club for the proposed Fond du Lac bridge now being considered by congress. The Miller Trunk road, states the report, will be in good condition this coming spring and will afford auto enthusiasts another road to the range towns.

Secretary Mullin also makes an appeal for the early completion of the proposed Twin City-Duluth roadway, agitation for which has been going on for years and which is now before the commissioners of practically every county along the route. In conclusion, Mr. Mullin states:

"We are enthusiastic for good roads, not because they make automobiling a pleasure, but because the country road is the artery of the nation's system of circulation. The railroads are second to them, the waterways third in importance. It is the automobile that has awakened the country to the need for good roads and it is the automobile owner who should cry most loudly for good highways."

ST. PAUL HANGING LAURELS ON SELF

Claims Premier Hockey Organization of Northwest Because of Victory.

St. Paul, of course, has a perfect right to be real proud over its defeat of the Port Arthur hockey team in the Saintly City last Monday night, but when the newspaper scribes in that city begin talking about having the "premier hockey organization of the Northwest," especially when one remembers that the Duluth septet walked all over Nick Kahler's puck chasers not two months ago, "that's something else again," as Montague Glass would say.

So for the present, local hockey enthusiasts are going to restrain their enthusiasm about St. Paul harboring the "premier hockey organization of the Northwest" until Joe Linder's bunch is licked by the crowd from the law-manufacturing town.

Here is how a St. Paul paper tells about Uncle Nick's great victory and the prospects that scribe paints for the Saintly team:

"St. Paul now holds a secure place on the hockey map. Last night the Athletic club team defeated the Port Arthur team which had on the ice the same lineup with which it defeated the strong Duluth septet 5 to 2. In the second match at the Zenith City, because of injuries the Canucks used a patched-up team, and it was swamped. After last night's battle with Capt. Kahler's colts, Alex Wellington, the star of the visiting team and the fastest skater that has played hockey on the Hippodrome ice this winter, said the Athletic club team has nothing to fear from Duluth. Perhaps it is a little bit too early to do any crowing, but it really does look as though the St. Paul team is the premier hockey organization of the entire Northwest. There is Winnipeg to be reckoned with, of course, but the A. C. team won't be suffering much from stage fright when it encounters even the best that the Manitoba capital has to offer. The Port Arthur team, with almost its present lineup, won the amateur championship of Canada in 1913, and Port Arthur's scalp has been added to the collection the A. C. team is accumulating."

TWO GAMES ARE PLAYED

Lakes Win Close Contest From the Kelley Team.

Fenton-Dubys Have Easy Time With Big Duluths.

Standing of the Teams.

	Won.	Lost.	Pct.
Lakes	2	0	1.000
Fenton-Dubys	1	0	1.000
Kelleys	1	1	.500
Northerns	0	1	.000
Big Duluths	0	2	.000

The second set of basket ball games in the Commercial league schedule was played at the Y. M. C. A. last evening. The Lakes kept up their winning stride and won a hard-fought contest from the scrappy Kelleys by a score of 18 to 11. The Fenton-Duby aggregation more than lived up to expectations and had rather an easy time with the Big Duluths, winning by the score of 23 to 7. The contests of last evening were not as interesting as those of the first set, but were well played and helped to show where the several teams stand.

The first game between the Lakes and the Kelleys was the most interesting of the two. Both teams had won in the opening set and a hard battle was looked for. The speedy Lakes had just a little edge over their rivals, but the game was a hummer all the way through and the losers never gave up. The first half found the Lakes on the long end of a 10-to-6 score. There was less scoring done in the second period, the winners piling up 8 points to the Kelly's five, thus rolling the final count up to 18 to 11 in favor of the Lakes. For the victors "Heinie" Hallenbeck was the bright star, caging the ball from seemingly impossible angles and playing a brilliant game at all times. Olson of the same team also played well. For the Kelleys the sensational work of Foryziak was clearly the feature. Despite the fact that his team was on the losers' end he played a fast and heady game, and scored 9 of his team's total 11 points.

The second contest, between the Fenton-Dubys and the Big Duluths, was not as interesting as the first one, but showed the real class of the former aggregation. This was their first game, but they displayed considerable team-work nevertheless. The hardware men led by a score of 9 to 0 at the conclusion of the first half. In the final period they did even better and for a while held their opponents to no scores. Towards the end of the game a sudden burst of speed by the clothiers netted them 7 points and the final score was 23 to 7. The feature of this contest was the "come-back" staged by the one-time phantam, Ray Fenton. He played an excellent game and scored 12 of his team's 23 points. Burnett, his forward teammate, played in great form also and scored the other 11 points. Kerns played a good game for the losers.

Lakes—		Kelleys—
Hallenbeck	f	Foryziak
Olson, Capen	f	Biegle
Miller	c	Bethune
McLaughlin	g	Dworshak
Zielsdorf	g	Beck, Megson

Summary: Goals—Hallenbeck, 4; Olson, 1; Miller, 1; Zielsdorf, 1; Capen, 1; Foryziak, 2; Dworshak, 1. Free throws—Olson, 2; Foryziak, 5.

Fenton-Dubys—		Big Duluths—
Fenton	f	Cole
Burnett	f	Larsen
Becker	c	McGraw, Sponnick, Badnick
Assel	g	Richardson
Wisted	g	Kerns

Summary: Goals—Cole, 1; McGraw, 1; Kerns, 1; Burnett, 3; Fenton, 6. Free throws—Larson, 1; Burnett, 5. Referee—Deighton.

NIGHT HAWKS WIN.

News Tribune Bowlers Humble the Telegram Team From Superior.

The News Tribune Night Hawks took sweet revenge for the defeat handed them by The Herald bowlers last week by inflicting a similar humiliation upon the Superior Telegram aggregation last night. The Hawks took the first game, lost the second and came back strong in the third. Pohlman and Wilson got into the 200 class. "Slim Ed" McLeod, a former gymnast, gave a few exhibition shots just before the game. The score:

INDOOR CLASS MEET.

Interesting Contest for Central High Athletes Scheduled for Next Week.

The interclass indoor track and field meet of the Central high school will be held one week from tomorrow, and each class is busily grooming its candidates. There are many candidates and it is claimed that each class has excellent material. Therefore it is believed that there is going to be a meet that is worth while and which will give any outdoor meet that Central has ever held, a hard rub for interest and honors.

The juniors have the most candidates for place, but the freshmen are there with a bunch of prospectives. The other classes will be well represented.

SAILORS PLAN BANQUET.

Boat Club Members Arrange Program for Annual Spread.

Plans are being made by the sailors of the Duluth Boat club for their annual banquet, which will be held within a couple of weeks. Pennants will be awarded prize-winners in the various events of last season.

Dr. Lyman, Walker Jamar, O. J. Bradsted and C. D. Brewer will fly the flag of victory from the mastheads of their craft next season, and suitable pennants are now being prepared. It is expected that a new Class A boat will be added to the fleet next summer.

TWO HARBORS HAS STAR IN THIS CHAP

SULLIVAN,
Star Rover of Two Harbors Hockey Team.

The fast hockey team of Two Harbors will play against the seven of the Duluth Central high school next Friday evening, instead of tonight as was originally scheduled. The postponement was made necessary owing to the examinations at the high school.

Coming with the Two Harbors aggregation is Sullivan, who plays the position of rover for the iron ore shipping crowd. It is claimed that, without mistake, he is a star of the first magnitude and that what he does not know about handling the puck is scarcely worth knowing. His play will be watched here with much interest. He is extraordinarily fast and clever, as was proven in his first game here.

PULFORD WILL FIGHT CASE

Deposed Winnipeg Baseball Magnate Will Go Into Courts.

Not Officially Notified That Commission Has Dismissed Case.

Winnipeg, Man., Jan. 27.—(Special to The Herald.)—"We have had no official notification that the national association has dismissed our appeal against the reorganization proceedings of the Northern league at its annual meeting in Duluth, but, as Mr. Burmeister has announced that this is the case, it probably is true," said A. H. Pulford, deposed Winnipeg magnate, today.

"If the report is true we will certainly appeal our case to courts and let them decide as to justice of our position.

"What we will ask the court for is an injunction to prevent anyone connected with organized baseball from conducting a baseball team in Winnipeg, as we claim we have the right to this territory under our agreement."

CENTRAL AGAINST DENFELD HIGH

Fast and Close Basket Ball Game Expected on Friday Evening.

Central high school's supremacy at basket ball is not to go unchallenged, for on Friday evening of this week, Central's quint will have to face a fast five from Denfeld high school. The latter team has been practicing hard and as it has watched Central's recent games closely, the Denfeld members believe that they know the weak spots. The game will be in the Central "Y."

Ed Scrivens, one of the Central stars, who was injured last Friday night, is expected to be in the game next Friday, otherwise the team will be materially weakened. However, even at that, several good substitutes are available, who have shown themselves to be fast and good basket shooters.

WHITE LACKING, WELSH OUTPOINTS ANOTHER.

New York, Jan. 27.—Freddie Welsh of England, world's lightweight champion, outpointed Willie Beecher of this city in eight rounds of a ten-round bout at Madison Square Garden last night. Beecher was called upon to substitute for Charley White of Chicago, who was taken ill Sunday. Welsh weighed 136¼ and Beecher 140 pounds.

STAR FANCY SKATERS AT CURLING RINK.

There will be an exhibition of fancy skating at the Duluth Curling rink this evening which will probably be one of the finest ever seen in Duluth. John Davidson, who has just returned from a six years' tour of the world, and who is claimed to be, aside from press agent talk, the foremost of all fancy skaters, will be the star performer. He will be assisted by Miss Margaret Sheak, who has toured the world with him and who is said to be the best woman fancy skater living. They charmed St. Petersburg, or Petrograd as it is now called, and won much notice all over Europe.

It is expected that the attendance will be large, for it is seldom that skating stars of such prominence are seen here.

AURORA HIGH SCHOOL TEAM IS THE WINNER.

The Aurora high school basket ball team was victorious at both Ely and Tower on its tour on the Vermilion range.

The score on Friday night at Ely was: Aurora, 49; Ely, 11, and on Saturday night at Tower Aurora scored 22 to Tower's 15 points.

MANDOT AND PAL BROWN TO FIGHT

Contest in Superior Will Be Held in February.

A battle between Pal Brown and Josephus Mandot of New Orleans probably will take place in Superior some time in February. Information to this effect comes from the camps of both men.

Arrangements were made when Brown met Mandot and his manager at Milwaukee last week at the Gibbons-McGoorty fight. The fight will take place before the Superior Athletic club. A match was to have been held in January, but Brown refused, holding off for 30 per cent divvy, when only 25 per cent was offered.

Mandot will battle with Wolgast in New Orleans Feb. 14 and will not come north until after that bout. The Superior contest will probably be held Feb. 22 or 23.

BOCHARD IS HIGH MAN OF MEET

High run in the 14.2 balk line tournament now in progress at the Hatley parlors was made by Bachard last night when he counted 26 in a row. He won out over Rowe in a close game of 150 to 149.

Lead in the game shifted back and forth. Besides the 26 run Bachard made runs of 12, 13 and 17. Rowe's highest run was 14. Bachard had 100 billiards counted at the end of the thirtieth inning, but Rowe pegged along scoring one or two each time and by the sixtieth was ahead. They were even in the seventy-second. Then Bachard made the winning score.

CURLERS WILL ATTEND BANQUET

Will Select Four Skips for Manley-McLennan Event.

Next Saturday evening a supper will be served in the dining hall of the curling club and to it all club members are invited. The supper will begin at 6:15 and will be served by the Baptist ladies, who served the meals during the recent bonspiel.

At this meeting the skips of the four rinks to compete in the Manley-McLennan event will be chosen by ballot, and for that reason it is hoped that there will be a full attendance of club members at the supper.

The Manley-McLennan event is played for between the different curling clubs at the Head of the Lakes, each entering four rinks. Last night the first of the games was played between rinks of the West Duluth Curling club and Superior, in which Superior was victor by the heavy score of 55 to 20, the game taking place at the West Duluth rink. Tomorrow night the West Duluth rinks will go to Superior, and should Superior win again, West Duluth will be eliminated from the contest, for it is a best-two-in-three match. Then it will be up to the Duluth Curling club to defend the trophy, which it now holds, hence the choosing of skips on Saturday night. The result of the match last night was as follows:

Superior.		West Duluth.
Stephenson	13	Wade 5
Clough Gates	13	Ashley 7
J. Gates	16	McDonald 10
Jennings	13	Quinn 8

TWO EVENTS ARE GETTING ALONG

Bagley and Herald Nearing Finals—Two Others Progressing.

In the four events still to be curled for at the Duluth club, the contest is becoming interesting. For instance, in the Bagley event six rinks are down to the sixteenth and in The Herald event two are down to the eights, which is getting close.

The Universal event, which is played in squads, is getting along and winners of some of the squads will be known in a few days.

The Columbia event, which is just starting, gives green rinks a chance for their white alley, for it works both ways. That is, the winners will be extended out and so will the losers; therefore the winners will play down in their section and the losers will play down in theirs, which gives the green rinks a show to win something and also will give a line on what ones of the green rinks are the most promising.

"SAFETY FIRST" PAYS.

Deaths and Injuries on Omaha Road Greatly Reduced.

Figures compiled by the Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha railway show conclusively that "safety first" movement has brought about remarkable results in reducing the number of accidents among employes of the road. During 1913 there were fourteen killed and 1,008 injured on this system outside the shops and 259 injured in the shops. During 1914 there were but one killed and 198 injured in the shops.

The Omaha system is urging "safety first" among all its employes, and in its statement just issued calls upon the public to offer safety suggestions.

Madison, Wis., Jan. 27.—University of Wisconsin tuition fees will be increased to $150 a year for non-residents if the bill presented to the assembly yesterday afternoon by Assemblyman George P. Hambrecht passes. Hambrecht also introduced a bill to make Lincoln's birthday a legal holiday.

BIG CATTLE SHOW LIKELY

Northern Michigan Wants to Join With Duluth for Next Fall.

Marquette Man Enthusiastic Over Prospect of Dairy Country.

Some days ago mention was made in The Herald that instead of the dairy cattle show at the annual industrial exposition next fall being of the community type, it might become in part, at least, of a tri-state nature, in view of the fact that dairy cattle raisers in Northern Michigan and Northern Wisconsin are clamoring for admittance.

The matter seems to be rapidly coming to a head, and it would not be at all surprising should the agricultural committee of the Commercial club take action toward increasing the show to the extent required. Recently C. P. Craig, chairman of the agricultural committee, said that in such a case there would probably be an exhibit of 100 to 150 head of dairy cattle. It turns out that his estimate will likely be very much too conservative for he has received a letter from State Senator Alton T. Roberts of Marquette, Mich., in which the latter suggests that about 150 head would likely come from Northern Michigan alone.

The senator suggests that if Duluth does not want to hold this show every year, she could alternate with Marquette, and with some Northern Wisconsin town, should that part of the country desire to enter. However, Duluth would rather retain the show, according to sentiment expressed at the meeting of the public affairs committee of the Commercial club, the other night, as it would be, it is believed, of infinite value to this city in the way of trade development. In his letter, Senator Roberts says:

Organizes Cattle Congress.

"Three years ago I was instrumental in organizing the Cloverland Cattle Congress. In connection with the Marquette county fair in September, 1913, we held our first show. We had about 150 head of cattle, which were mostly pure-bred. We have in the Upper Peninsula a good supply of Holsteins and Jerseys, but I was unable to find anything that amounted to anything in the way of pure-bred Guernseys, and no beef stock of consequence at all. At the last minute I went down to the Manitowoc county fair in Wisconsin and paid a half dozen men to bring up here a carload of Guernseys and a carload of Herefords. They brought a mighty fine exhibit.

"In 1914, we did not make so great an effort to bring in cattle from the outside, but we had about the same number in the show. The encouraging part of it last year was the fact that a great many more small men in the immediate vicinity got up enough courage to show their stuff. I feel that we have made good progress; but I also feel that I have carried this thing on my shoulders about as long as I am going to, and I want a lot more help if we are going to do anything.

Should Begin at Once.

"It would be very satisfactory to me to assist in a plan to hold a show in Duluth. Possibly if we were successful, it might be held in Duluth one year, in Marquette another and possibly in Ashland or some other town at another time. I shall be very glad to come to Duluth to help this thing along, and I suppose if anything is to be done for the fall of 1915 we ought to begin at once.

"I feel that the public at large has in the Lake Superior country, and the cattle world generally, a very small conception of the size and quality of the dairy herds to be found in the Lake Superior district. I know it would pay us to organize a show if we can get a majority of the owners of good stock interested. We have only just begun to educate the outside world as to the value of this country agriculturally and as to the progress we have made already. A successful show would bring us more attention than thousands of dollars' worth of newspaper advertising. You can count on me to help out on this, either in Duluth or anywhere else."

AD MEN START YEAR VIGOROUSLY

After More Members and Co-operation—Hear of Vigilance Work.

Co-operation with retail merchants, more members, and more extended vigilance work are provided for by the New Year's resolutions of the Duluth Advertising club, made last night at the first evening meeting for the year, in the Commercial club rooms.

H. E. Kenner, secretary of the vigilance committee of the Minneapolis Advertising Forum, made a report on the work done in the Twin Cities in suppressing cloth "scream er" signs, advertising "bankrupt, bargain, or sacrifice" sales. Provisions of the Duluth ordinance covering signs of this nature, which is effective Feb. 14, were discussed following a description of Minneapolis methods. The vigilance committee of the local club will take up the work of suppressing fraudulent and misleading advertising much more thoroughly this year than ever before, according to members.

"Ad men, particularly members of the vigilance committee, can be assured of much more support from the retail merchants this year than ever before," said W. B. Brinkman of the George A. Gray company, in a short address. The question of permitting each firm holding membership in the club to send several of its employes to attend meetings, instead of merely one as at present, was discussed at length, but no decision was reached.

In planning the campaign for new members, which will feature the next few weeks, the club has drawn up a list of Duluth business men eligible for membership and "as a starter" one prospect was assigned to every member of the club, with instructions to spare no effort in getting him into the ranks of the ad men.

Pennington County Court.

Thief River Falls, Minn., Jan. 27.—(Special to The Herald.)—The regular January term of district court for Pennington county convened here Monday morning, Judge Andrew Grindeland of Warren presiding. The grand jury has organized and put to work. The calendar is a long one with several criminal cases listed, and will probably occupy the attention of the judge for the greater part of February.

Mr. MacKenzie moved to Grand Rapids several years ago and entered the bank as assistant cashier in 1909. His natural ability and industry have made his rise rapid in the business world.

WHAT CAUSES COLDS?

This question and "How to Prevent Colds" is asked a thousand times every day. A cold is really a fever, not always caused by the weather but due to a disordered condition of the blood or lack of important food-elements. In changing seasons fat-foods are essential because they distribute heat by enriching the blood and so render the body better able to withstand the varying elements.

This is the underlying reason why the medicinal fats in Scott's Emulsion quickly overcome colds and build strength to prevent more serious sickness. It contains nature's medicinal fats, so skillfully prepared that the blood profits from every drop, and it is free from harmful drugs or alcohol.

EXPORTS ARE FAR SMALLER

German Goods Sent to United States Fall Off in 1914.

Prohibition of Export of Certain Articles One of Main Causes.

Berlin, Jan. 27, via London.—Exports from Germany to the United States in the year 1914, according to statistics compiled by Julius G. Lay, American consul general here, amounted to $159,051,250. This total shows a falling off of $31,552,186, as compared with the previous year. That this decrease falls entirely within the period of the war, is proved by a comparison of the last six months of 1913 with the last six months of 1914.

This change is due, perhaps, not so much to general trade depression as to the prohibitions on the export of articles of military value. Hides and leather alone count for $12,000,000 of the decrease, there having been not a single shipment of these goods during the last quarter of the year.

Cotton manufactures and the exporters of electrical machinery supplies suffered generally, but certain other lines of trade showed surprising activity or even gained during the war. It should be borne in mind that the supply of raw cotton was for a time interrupted and that it dropped 50 per cent and that copper enters largely into the manufacture of electrical equipment.

Decrease Expected in 1915.

A falling off is to be expected, however, in 1915, as a considerable proportion of the exporting at the present time is due to the filling of incomplete contracts. Little new business is being contracted for, and the usual run of American buyers in the winter season is not to be noticed this year. The decision to hold the usual spring fair at Leipsic from March 1 to March 5, perhaps will attract buyers in great numbers.

The freight rates for exports, owing to the necessity of finding return cargoes for American cotton ships, are favorable. According to the list of expected steamer arrivals cotton is coming in at the rate of 125,000 bales a month to meet the estimated yearly demand of 2,000,000 bales. This indicates that the number of steamers engaged in this traffic is likely to increase rather than decrease as the year gets older. The opportunity recently afforded to import turpentine and resin also will stimulate shipping.

Many Difficulties.

American trade with Germany, however, is still suffering from several incomprehensible difficulties. American agents find it hard to understand why they cannot get supplies of carpet sweepers, typewriters and women's shoes, the military availability of these particular goods not being clearly apparent to them.

The difficulty of obtaining American photographic supplies is throwing this branch of the trade into the hands of German manufacturers and the British embargo on copper, according to arguments advanced here, is likely to have a permanent effect on the American copper trade after the war.

German manufacturers of articles in which copper is largely used, under the spur of necessity or influenced by the high price of the metal, are finding that zinc or alloys, or even steel and cast iron, can be substituted in a number of cases. It is believed that the lower cost of these materials will induce manufacturers to continue with them even when the return of peace restores normal conditions.

BROUGHT BACK FROM MONTANA FOR TRIAL.

Christian F. Koch, who was brought to Duluth today from Tonopah, Mont., by Sheriff John R. Meining and Mason M. Forbes, first assistant county attorney, who arranged for his extradition, was arraigned today before Judge Fesler under an indictment returned by the January grand jury charging him with having defrauded the Duluth & Iron Range Railroad company out of $1,000 on Dec. 7 last.

John H. Norton appeared as his attorney and announced that Koch would enter a plea tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. Koch is alleged to have obtained the money from the company in a settlement for personal injuries which are alleged to have been faked.

BETTER HOME LIFE URGED

Club Women of the State Want Help in This Work.

Ask for Half of $10,000 Yearly Provided By Smith-Lever Act.

The organized women of this state are beginning a campaign to secure for the promotion of home economics, $5,000 a year, which is one-half the total sum that will be given yearly in the interests of agriculture and home economics under the provisions of the Smith-Lever bill, passed by congress last May. In a communication to The Herald, Elizabeth Atwood, president of the Women's Federation of Women's Clubs of this state, sets forth the needs of the people of the state for more work along the line of home economics. The communication follows:

"The Smith-Lever bill, which passed congress last May, gives to our state each year $10,000 to be used for agriculture and home economics, and after the present year large additional sums will be available in accordance with further provisions. It is the wish of the organized women of the state that one-half this amount be used for the promotion of home economics. The agricultural interests of the state are being splendidly cared for; witness the five hundred farmers' clubs and the scores of county agents, the farmers' demonstration work offered all over the state all winter each year, besides the especially good farmers' short courses. This condition, I venture to assert, has come not because of a crying demand from the farmers. 'We are ignorant and want instruction; we are weak and isolated and want organization;' by no means. They have at immense cost been told their needs, had them forced into their consciousness and the remedy dangled before their eyes till at length they accepted county agents, attended special courses and organized.

"A little attention has been paid to women; perhaps it would be unjust to say enough consideration shown them to keep their approval and so popularize the movement with the men. But to instruct the women in home management, in right living, in food values, in care of the children, comparatively little is being done. We are told the state is waiting till there is a demand. Other extension work is not so conducted; why in the case of women? Is it reasonable to suppose that farm women are posted on the provisions of the Smith-Lever bill and are going to rise en masse and claim their rights?

"Our city papers are filled with the benefit to school children of the penny lunches. It is claimed that 'poorly nourished children are inattentive, troublesome, irregular in attendance and generally unfit,' and that marked improvement in health and mentality follows the warm, nutritive lunch. Club women perceive this need and are constantly raising money to care for it. The cry does not emanate from the poor children nor their hard working parents. Who is to assert the right of the country child to a better lunch and better feeding in general if not the club women?

Sickness in Country.

"Our health department assures us there is more sickness proportionately in the country than in the city. When I see young men on the farm suffering from chronic indigestion, incapacitated often from wrong feeding, when I witness nursing babies between times fed sauerkraut and lager beer, feverish children given pork and beans half done, houses filled with flies and insanitary, drains and outhouses a menace to health, feeding the family simply a matter of filling them up regardless of food selection and preparation, I feel that to teach scientific feeding of stock and handling of crops is comparable to putting the horse before the cart. With all the mighty enginery of war it still remains true that the man behind the gun counts.

"And in the last analysis, what is it all about, this making of a bigger Minnesota, raising bumper crops and getting better prices, if not to live better? The art of living is not to be lost sight of even in the most utilitarian age. Indeed, the word economics is from 'oecos,' home and 'nomos,' law or government. And to succeed in the economic world, the wise government of the house is no small factor. It is a business complex and difficult and most universal. Its successful prosecution demands instruction. The need that one-half of that national appropriation be spent for Minnesota's farm homes is imperative.

Work in Other States.

"Other states are organizing girls' canning clubs by the hundreds to preserve from waste the farm products such as tomatoes, corn, etc. They result, club women say, in making the girls of the farm economically somewhat independent and contented with rural life. They promote thrift. The State Federation of Women's Clubs has co-operated with the state agricultural departments in this matter elsewhere. We want the label on a can of Made in Minnesota to stand for the best. But it takes money to perfect this organization and give this instruction.

"Domestic science is taught in every up-to-date city. This means that the next generation of town-educated folk, housekeeping will not be the entirely unstandardized and chaotic trade it is. Women's clubs everywhere are incorporating some study of home economics in their programs. We realize that everything that lessens the irritations, the discomforts, the inefficiency, the burdens of home-making, strengthens the thing which is really home.

"Will you not help us to secure our half of this apportionment? Will you not befriend us and conduct the editorial on behalf of progressive homes that really conserve our people? The Minnesota Federation of Women's Clubs, representing nearly twenty thousand women, ask that this money be spent as devised in the bill, to-wit: 'That co-operative agricultural work shall consist of the giving of instruction and practical demonstrations in agriculture and home economics to persons not attending or resident in said colleges in the several communities.' This request is unmistakably for the education of women in home economics. The women of other states are being so benefited. We are appreciative of this great opportunity; we offer the services of the federation in furthering the purpose of this law."

"President M. F. W. C."

NO CENSUS OF UNEMPLOYED

Work Is Now in Sight for Virtually Every Man in City.

In view of the fact that the city is now employing 350 heads of families at public improvement work and two of the large mills are planning to open within the next week or two, Mayor Prince, head of the welfare department, is of the opinion that Duluth should not go to the expense of taking a census of the unemployed, as suggested by President Wilson.

"Conditions in Duluth," said Mayor Prince this morning, "are far better than many cities of the country, while the employment situation, which was such a puzzle several weeks ago, is now about cleared up. I do not think it would be worth the expenditure to take a census as is now being taken in New York city, and which has been suggested for all the large municipalities by the president."

The president expressed an opinion yesterday that all the municipalities would do wisely, if a census of the unemployed was taken, as the people could learn the exact labor situation. He said that the government would undertake the census, but that no appropriation has been provided and that he does not consider it a good plan to ask congress for the money.

"Duluth is now employing 350 heads of families," said Mayor Prince, "and this alone is a record by itself. The city is having a great deal of its sewer work done this winter at the same cost it would take in the spring, while at the same time 350 families are being assisted in living through the winter. The fact that the Alger-Smith and Mullery-McDonald mills are planning to open next week is another reason why a census would not be advisable. These two mills will give work to about 600 men, most of whom live in Duluth.

"In addition, bids on the new armory will soon be opened and before long a large crew of men will be at work on that improvement. So that, all in all, Duluth's employment problem is not such a large one anymore and should not give cause for very much worry. The situation today is better than it has been for several months."

WILL REORGANIZE AFTER ELECTION

Action Postponed on Redistribution of Commissioner's Duties.

Reorganization of the city commission, as announced in The Herald last Saturday, has been postponed until after the regular election of April 7, when two commissioners will be selected to fill the expired terms of W. A. Hicken and Roderick Murchison, heads of the safety and public works divisions, respectively.

It was announced by a member of the commission this morning that the proposed change will not take place until after the spring election, when the newly elected commissioners will meet with the present members for the distribution of the divisions.

Officials at the city hall do not deny that the proposed change is being considered and that it was orginally planned to take final action during this week, but they declare now that the proposition has been laid over and will definitely be settled immediately after election.

FIXES AMOUNT OF INHERITANCE TAX

Dr. Frank C. Hammond of Philadelphia must pay the state a tax of $150 on the inheritance which he received from the estate of his aunt, Rachel R. McNeille, whose death occurred at Philadelphia on March 5, 1914. The Minnesota portion of her estate on which the tax was levied consists of two Duluth city lots valued at $6,200, which were willed to her nephew. The tax was determined in probate court today.

Judge Gilpin also fixed inheritance taxes for heirs who will share the estate of John Livingstone Grandin of Boston, Mass., who died Sept. 10, 1912, at Battle Creek, Mich. The Minnesota property left by Mr. Grandin consisted of real estate in St. Louis and Clay counties worth $14,600, and personal property listed at $17,750.

Grace Helen Grandin, widow; John Livingstone Grandin, Jr., son, and Grace Grandin Greeley, daughter, each received one-third of the estate and each will pay a tax of $7 to the state.

The personal property consists of $5,000 worth of Duluth city bonds, 114 shares of Great Northern Railway company preferred stock and a one-third interest in a membership on the Duluth board of trade.

NO "TRAIL" TO WEST DULUTH YET

Work on Jenswold Street Will Not Begin Before Summer.

Commissioner Murchison, head of the public works department, said this morning that work on the "trail" to the western suburbs will not begin this winter and that if anything is done at all, it will be next summer.

The engineers, Commissioner Murchison said, are now revising the estimates on the proposed Oneota street pavement and, in his opinion, no action will be taken for several weeks to come. The widening of Jenswold street and the filling of the Forty-third avenue gully will not be done, unless the Oneota street pavement is first ordered, he said.

"Now is not the best time to widen Jenswold street or attempt to fill that gully because of the frozen ground," said Mr. Murchison. "It would be much better to wait until this summer, when the ground is soft. However, if the Oneota street pavement is ordered—and it looks as though it will be—residents in West Duluth can rest assured that they will have that 'trail' before very long."

When Commissioner Merritt ran for office two years ago he declared at the time that one thing he would insist on would be a "trail" from the city to West Duluth. Since then this expression has stuck and when reference is made to the Oneota pavement and the widening of Jenswold street, the word "trail" is always used.

STOPS TRAIN TO REPORT A ROBBERY.

Trainmen on an inbound South Shore passenger train reported that the train had been stopped at noon yesterday near Thomaston, Mich., by a trapper who reported the assault and robbery of a young man who had been waylaid and robbed of $150. The young man was taken to Thomaston for medical aid. He was unconscious but prior to lapsing into unconsciousness he told of having been lured into the woods by Ashland acquaintances under the promise of employment.

HOSPITAL BURNING.

Damage to Building at Walla Walla, Wash., Will Reach $100,000.

Walla Walla, Wash., Jan. 27.—St. Mary's hospital is burning, with little hope of saving the structure. It is believed all the patients have been rescued. The damage will be $100,000. David Brougher was on the operating table and with the flames raging in the wooden structure, surgeons finished the operation before transferring the patient to another hospital.

ON THE IRON RANGES

COUNCIL MEETING LIVELY SESSION

Mayor Boylan and Alderman Harvey Have Personal Clash.

Virginia, Minn., Jan. 27.—(Special to The Herald.)—Friction between Mayor Boylan and Alderman Harvey at last night's council developed and came near ending in a personal encounter. It grew out of the former difficulty between the two when they clashed over the question of who was the best friend of the laboring man. The matter came up when the proposal was up to build certain sewers to help relieve the labor situation. The alderman said that the mayor considered every man who did not agree with him a fool. The mayor retorted by telling Harvey he was not a gentleman. Other expressions anything but complimentary were bandied back and forth and it looked like a personal encounter, but the exchange of blows did not result. The question of putting men to work on the sewers in the Chestnut street alleys was defeated, 5 to 4, the necessary two-third vote not being secured. Then Alderman McGhee tried to get through a motion to build the sewers to carry off surface water, but this also failed.

Calls for Sewer Plans.

It was finally decided to have the city engineer submit estimates of the cost of laying a sewer 150 feet long in Virginia avenue to connect the north side sewer and the new six-foot sewer, the work to be done by day labor.

The Lawrence-McCann company was allowed $8,260, the balance due on the big city sewer which has cost $113,236. Mayor Boylan submitted affidavits by Dr. J. H. Crowe and City Engineer E. F. Johnson in which deponents stated that each had discharged one man. Mayor Boylan had been charged by Alderman McGhee with responsibility for the discharge of these men.

The council also voted to join with Nichols and Missabe Mountain townships in the building of the Sand Lake road.

APPORTION AID AMONG CHURCHES

Swedish Evangelical Conference Helps Along Church Work.

Virginia, Minn., Jan. 27.—(Special to The Herald.)—At the yearly meeting of the Swedish Evangelical Duluth district of the Augustana synod of North America, which began yesterday at the local Swedish Lutheran church and will conclude today, it was decided to apportion aid to churches as follows:

To the Hibbing church, $200; to the Chisholm church, $200; to the Mahtowa, Grayling and Wright church, $200; to the parish of Grand Rapids, $150; to the Ely, Tower and Soudan church, $350.

A communication was received from the Mississippi district asking that the Duluth district take over the charges at Onamia and Isle, as they are more accessible from Duluth than the Mississippi district.

Subjects Discussed.

At yesterday afternoon's session there was a discussion led by the Rev. Mr. Krantz on the subject, "The Church, the Only Institution Where the Means of Salvation Are Found." Last evening the Rev. C. Virginia, Minn., Jan. 27.—(Special to The Herald.)—This is the coldest day of the winter on the Mesaba range. Despite the intense cold sleighing parties are very popular on the range these nights.

The sleighing has been fine and although the weather has been a little crisp, many parties have braved the biting atmosphere for the joy of an evening ride. The trip "around the horn" has been popular withh Virginia parties, with a stop at Eveleth for refreshments after visiting Gilbert.

He has in his possession forty-two warrants yet to be served.

The removal of wardens in this section has started a storm of protest and appeals may be made to state officers to have some of the discharged men put back, it being claimed Northern Minnesota was discriminated against.

Dandruff Surely Destroys the Hair

Girls—if you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for it will starve your hair and ruin it if you don't.

It doesn't do much good to try to brush or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon, apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy, every single sign and trace of it.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop, and your hair will look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and four ounces is all you will need, no matter how much dandruff you have. This simple remedy never fails.—Advertisement.

FANCY STEPS WILL NOT BE TOLERATED.

Virginia, Minn., Jan. 27.—(Special to The Herald.)—The action of the board of education in ignoring a petition received at its last meeting purporting to be signed by high school students asking to be allowed to indulge in the fox trot, maxixe, one-step and other fancy dances at school hops is interpreted to mean that the board will not countenance such dances in any way. All these dances have been under the ban for some time and the board saw no reason for changing its rules.

The board accepted the resignations of Miss Ethel Chase and Miss Janet Thomas. Miss Chase's resignation was necessitated by illness. Miss Thomas will return to her home at St. Cloud.

A lease running from the Oliver Iron Mining company to the school district giving the right to use five acres of ground near Southside park for a school agricultural plot was received and referred to the committee on buildings and grounds and will probably be accepted.

The board went on record by resolution as opposed to the recommendation of the economy and efficiency commission creating a school commission and changing the present plan of the distribution of money raised by taxation for school purposes.

A HAPPY BALD HEADED MAN

Well-Known Politician Nearly Bald Now Has New Growth of Hair.

Tells How He Did It.

A western politician, well known on account of his baldness and ready wit, surprised his friends by appearing with a new growth of hair. Many of his old friends did not know him and others thought he had a wig. On being asked how he did it, he made the following statement: "I attribute the remarkable growth of my hair to the use of the following simple recipe which any lady or gentleman can mix at home: To a half pint of water add 1 oz. of bay rum, a small box of Barbo Compound and ¼ oz. of glycerine. Apply to the scalp two or three times a week with the finger tips. It not only promotes the growth of the hair but removes dandruff, scalp humors and prevents the hair from falling out. It darkens streaked, faded, gray hair and makes the hair soft and glossy. These ingredients can be purchased at any drug store at very little cost and mixed at home."

MEETING IS INTERRUPTED

Austrian Sympathizers Object to Statements of Speaker.

When Ljubo Bogicevich, Austrian lawyer, who has offices with Attorney John H. Norton in the Palladio building, addressed an audience at the Y. M. C. A. auditorium last evening on conditions in the Austria-Hungarian empire and the part which the Austrian soldiers are taking in the present European conflict, certain of his statements elicited interruption from the pro-Austrian sympathizers in the audience. The disturbers were quieted, however, and the lecture proceeded without further interruptions. The talk was one of a series of historical talks arranged under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A.

Mr. Bogicevich was interrupted by Anton Basetich, editor of a pro-Austrian paper, who has been in Duluth for the last two years. The speaker declared that the Slavic nations were fighting under the Austrian colors without any enthusiasm and that they really do not know for whom they are fighting or what they are fighting for.

Mr. Basetich exclaimed "they are fighting for Austria," and a number of his friends who were with him joined in a chorus "For Austria, for Austria." A Y. M. C. A. secretary, who was present at the meeting, quietly told the men to refrain from any further demonstration and the lecture proceeded uninterrupted.

Mr. Bogicevich also declared that all of his countrymen working in the mines and lumber camps in this country are good and efficient farmers and that in most cases each has a little farm or plot of land in the old country On account of exorbitant taxes, he said, they have been forced to emigrate. Most of them have come to America, he said.

Peaceful Peasants.

"While in the old country," he said, "they are the most peaceful and honest peasant folks and it is hard to understand what change they really do undergo after they come to this country and get accustomed to frequenting saloons. The ready money and open bar are the ruin of many. If it were not for so many saloons in the mining towns and camps, we could colonize Minnesota with these men and they would be of great value to the state to the community in which they lived and to themselves. Their second generation would be a strong and healthy American generation."

Mr. Bogicevich described the geographical conditions of the Austria-Hungarian empire and then discussed the history of the Slavic nations and other nations which go to make up the empire. The speaker declared that the Slavs were independent when they first came to that part of Europe and were ruled by their own kings. Later, he said, they associated with Hungarians in the eastern part and with the German-speaking Austrians of the western portion.

Revolutions.

"Although they made certain treaties and agreements," he said, "they were always suppressed by Hungarians or by the government in Vienna, which naturally caused them to revolt against their government and the most noted revolution was in 1848, in Hungary. After Bismarck caused Austria to be converted into the Austro-Hungarian empire the Hungarians obtained their own parliament and ever since have been aspiring to secure their independence.

"When the war broke out, with the Austrian army, composed of so many different nationalities, practically 60 per cent of whom are Slavs, it could not be expected that theirs would be as efficient a machine as the German army or French army. Their sympathies were largely with the Slavs, their own kinsmen, and it naturally followed that they were not enthusiastic, as the latest newspaper accounts of fighting on the eastern frontier plainly indicate. There are even reports that the Slavic element will be removed from the western frontier to France and that the German troops stationed on the eastern frontier will be substituted in their place."

Was Not Egged.

When shown a report that he had been assaulted and pelted with rotten eggs, Mr. Bogicevich laughed and declared that the report was a pure fabrication and had no foundation in fact.

"I left the Y. M. C. A.," he said, "in company with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Koshak and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shebat and my wife. We waited on the corner for the street car, which Mr. and Mrs. Shebat boarded, after which the rest of us walked to my residence."

Mr. Koshak and others who were present at the meeting and who left in company with the speaker called at The Herald office this morning and registered an emphatic denial of the report given circulation by the morning paper.

Someone telephoned the police from the Y. M. C. A. after the speaker had been interrupted, but made no definite report of the disturbance. When an officer arrived he found no disorder.

THE HEADACHE OF NERVOUS EXHAUSTION

A feeling as of a tight band about the head is often felt in addition to the pain of a headache that is caused by nervous exhaustion. The ache is generally in the back of the head, rarely in the forehead, and is often accompanied by dizziness.

The way to stop this sort of headache is to stop the cause of it. Overwork, worry and failure of the blood to properly nourish the nerves are the most common causes. Rest and a tonic for the blood and nerves will cause the headache to disappear in most cases.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are an effective tonic for building up the blood and strengthening the nerves. They furnish just the elements that the blood needs to build up the nerves shattered by overwork, worry, overstudy or excesses. You cannot always rest from school, office or housework when circumstances require but you can always take a tonic that will maintain the strength of blood and nerves. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are just the tonic required.

Mention this paper and we will send you a booklet, "Diseases of the Nervous System free. Address: Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y. All druggists sell Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

EXPORT CALL STILL HEAVY

Wheat Sells Up Again With Good Buying By Exporters.

Flaxseed Turns Slightly Easier on Lessened Demand From Crushers.

Duluth Board of Trade, Jan. 27.—The market was strong at the close. May wheat closed ⅝@¾c up, and July 1¼@1⅜c up.

May durum closed ¾c off, and July ⅝c off.

Oats closed ⅝c up at 55⅞c for on the track; rye 1c up at $1.22; barley unchanged at from 67c to 78c, and corn ⅝c up at 74⅛c.

At Winnipeg, May oats closed ⅞c up at 66c bid, and July ⅝c up at 67c asked.

Puts on Minneapolis May wheat closed at $1.39¼ bid, and calls at $1.43½.

Continued export inquiry on a large scale led to a strong market in wheat again today. The foreign news was generally bullish, with several of the European countries in the American markets for grain. New York operators were reported to be in the Winnipeg market heavily and to have picked up a considerable tonnage of No. 2 northern there. A Montreal house was said to have contracted for vessel space for 1,000,000 bu this morning for May and June shipment.

The holding up of vessels in unloading at European ports is said to be causing increasing disquietude among shippers and to be seriously affecting the trade. Many boats have been detained two and three weeks in British ports awaiting their turn to unload, and according to advices received by Duluth houses, that condition promises to grow worse rather than better, owing to the increasing scarcity of labor to handle grain and other freights.

Primary receipts continue to fall off, the aggregate today being reported at 698,000 bu against 605,000 bu a year ago. Clearances were in good volume, amounting to 922,000 bu of wheat and flour.

Duluth failed to follow the upward move in Chicago to any extent, the advance here being about half the bulge there. The special strength on that market was attributed to heavy buying by the big operators and the working of foreign trade in winter wheat.

Trading in oats was a feature in all the markets, including Winnipeg. Buyers there are said to be scouring the country for supplies and to be picking up everything in sight.

May wheat opened locally unchanged at $1.42⅜ and gained ⅝c up to the noon hour. July opened unchanged at $1.40⅝ and gained ¼c.

The situation in durum appeared to be slightly easier. The May future opened unchanged at $1.55, advanced ½c and then eased off ¾c.

Flaxseed Easier.

Trading in flaxseed was quiet and its quotation hung at around yesterday's range during the greater part of the session. Nothing was pressed for sale and crushers picked up everything offered without climbing for anything more. There were some offerings at the close and the market eased off.

May durum opened ¼c up at $1.93 and closed ½c off at $1.92¾ bid.

At Winnipeg, May flax closed ⅛c off at $1.71⅞ bid. July closed at $1.74 asked.

The putting through of some export flour business in patents was reported by the Duluth-Superior Milling company today. Inquiry from Eastern jobbers is said to have picked up materially, conveying the assumption that they now regard it as useless to hold off any longer in expectation of price recessions later. Shipping directions are good.

A petition to W. A. Hicken requesting him to file for the office of city commissioner was opened at the board of trade today and was largely signed.

Foreign crop summary: North Africa—Weather and crop conditions are favorable and seeding is finished with acreage about same as last year.

India—Some dry weather reports are coming from the Punjaub and the United Provinces.

Japan—The wheat and rye crop is only reported as showing a decrease for 1914 of 19,000,000 bu, or a loss of 15.6 per cent from previous years. The constant rain and rapid changes in temperature are unfavorable for the new crops. This country is bidding in Argentina and the Pacific coast.

Germany—Fixing of minimum prices here served to conserve the supply of foodstuffs and it is officially stated that now the government has issued the command, future feed is assured.

United Kingdom—The wet weather has not been seriously noted, yet the present state of things over three-fourths of England has elements which make for grave permanent damage.

Broomhall cabled from Liverpool.—"The market here remains in a lethargic state with the undertone steady. Winters and Canadian offers are held at 3d advance, but new sales and Plates are freely offered. Weather in Argentine is generally favorable and arrivals there are liberal and stocks increasing. Sellers are showing more willingness to concede with the firmness in freights and a waiting attitude is in evidence. Spot market is dull, and cargoes offered at recent lower levels. Some interest was shown in the advance in the American new crop months.

"Corn market was dull with spot unchanged. The strength in America helped to maintain the steady undertone."

C. E. Lewis & Co. had the following from Chicago: "In view of the general interest in the world's wheat situation it is well to call attention to the fact that in the month of June a new crop will be harvested in Turkey, Greece, Italy, Spain and Portugal, the south of France, California and all the Southern states of the United States. These crops are followed in July by the harvesting of a new crop in Roumania, Bulgaria, Austro-Hungary, Southern Russia, Germany, Switzerland and France, and all the winter states of the United States. In view of this condition, it is readily apparent that an entirely new situation will exist in the month of July as compared with the conditions in April and May."

CHICAGO MARKET.

Wheat Prices Again Break Record With Large Business in Pit.

Chicago, Jan. 27.—Wheat swept higher in price again today, easily excelling all previous war quotations. Business in the pit was on a large scale, with buying on the part of commission houses unusually free. Forecasts of cold wave suggested a chance of peril to winter wheat, especially in the southwest, and there were bullish advices of a new advance in the market at Liverpool. Reports were also current that shipments of grain had been shut off at all elevators in Illinois counties in which livestock has been quarantined. After opening unchanged to ⅞@1c higher, prices here rose more than 2 cents, but afterward reacted about a cent.

Advices that millers were absorbing the meager offerings from the country gave additional strength later to the market. The close was nervous at 1⅞@2⅛c above last night.

Cold weather in prospect put strength into corn. On the bulge, however, there were large profit taking sales by longs. The opening, which varied from a shade off to ⅛@¼c up, was followed by a moderate upturn all around, and then a general setback.

Prices later hardened owing to quarantine regulations preventing the hauling of grain in fifteen entire counties of Illinois and in parts of a much larger number of counties. There were also reports that Canada would remove the duty on oats. Corn closed firm at ⅛c to ⅞@1c net advance.

Offerings of oats were light. Prices seemed to be governed chiefly by the action of corn.

Provisions weakened with hogs. Afterward, though, the firmness of grain was an offset.

Wheat—No. 2 red, $1.46¼@1.48⅞; No. 2 hard, $1.46¼@1.48⅞. Corn—No. 2 yellow, 72@74c; No. 4 white, 72@73½c. Oats—No. 3 white, 55½@56½c; No. 4 white, 54¼@55½c. Rye—No. 2, $1.23; barley, 76@85c; timothy, $6.00@7.50; clover, $12.50@15.00. Pork, $17.00@18.47; lard, $10.92; ribs, $9.25@10.00.

MODERATE DECLINES IN MINING STOCKS

Market Turns Weak in Sympathy With Break in New York.

Weakness developed in the mining stocks market at Boston today, the majority of the issues selling off moderately in sympathy with the break on Wall street brought about through the passing of the Steel common dividend. Good support appeared on the low spots, however, and the close was firm.

Sales of Lake copper were reported in New York today at 14½ cents cash, equal to 14.70 cents, thirty days.

At New York, Amalgamated Copper declined $2.75 to a close of $54.25.

WEAKNESS IN STOCKS

Suspension of Dividend on Steel Common Causes Heavy Selling.

Losses of Two to Four Points General Throughout List.

New York, Jan. 27.—Between 40,000 and 50,000 shares of United States Steel common stock were offered for sale at its minimum price of 48 when the market opened today but only a few hundred shares of the big offerings were accepted. Yesterday afternoon the stock was selling at 51½. Suspension of the dividend was not announced until the market closed. The entire market was disturbed today as the result of the dividend suspension. Active railroad stocks broke from 1 to more than 3 points. Steel preferred, on which the regular dividend was maintained, broke over 4 points and the bonds also weakened. There was practically no market for Steel common at its minimum price. Steel common hung at its minimum throughout the morning, while the preferred made a total decline of over 6 points. In the so-called unofficial market, Steel sold at 46, 2 points under its official minimum.

Officials of the stock exchange received many inquiries as to whether there would be any revision in the present minimum. They intimated that any action they might take would be guided largely by the character of the selling during the next few days.

Throughout the active list there were losses of 1 to 2 points, Reading, Canadian Pacific and the trans-continentals being weakest. The decline extended to Steel sinking fund bonds which fell ½ point. London's range for American shares was higher than the local market, Steel being the only issue to show marked heaviness there.

Trading in the first hour of today's stock market aggregated 140,000 shares, equaling the activity on the most upturn. Sales of Steel in that period were exactly 1,000 shares, all at the minimum. In the unofficial market established while the stock exchange was closed, sales were reported at 46. Steel preferred added to its initial decline, selling at a little over a point from its minimum. Reading, the Hill and Harriman shares, Pennsylvania, Canadian Pacific, St. Paul and New York Central sold lower; also Amalgamated Copper, Smelting and some less prominent issues. Slight recovery was made in the second hour on a declining volume of business. Bonds were from one-half to a point lower.

The international shares went lower after midday on renewed selling. Steel preferred lost 5½, Reading 4 and various Western railway shares and copper 2¾@3½. The market became dull on a fractional rally later.

Losses of two to four points were general, leading shares showing greatest weakness.

Selling was resumed in the later trading but rallies of a point in Union Pacific and Reading imparted a better tone to the final dealings. The closing was weak.

"AG" AGENTS WILL CONFER

A. B. Hostetter, Supervisor of Farm Experts, to Give Address.

Carlton County Men Will Discuss Plans for the Coming Year.

A. B. Hostetter, district supervisor of county agricultural agents, with headquarters in Duluth, wil go to Carlton Saturday to attend a conference of county agents who will meet to discuss plans for the coming year's work in Carlton county. Mr. Hostetter will be one of the principal speakers.

H. A. Pflughoeft, Carlton county agricultural agent, has submitted a report of the work of his office for the last year to Mr. Hostetter. The report shows that considerable progress has been made and that splendid co-operation is being given by the farming population for whose benefit the office was established. Among other things, the report states:

The work of the county agent was started in Carlton county in August, 1913. Progress has been made. The county is better organized; the farmer and the man in the city are learning to know each other better, and the business of farming is receiving serious consideration. The main lines of work undertaken during the last year are poultry raising, potato growing and dairying.

"During 1914 five institutes and two short courses were held, and the agent addressed ninety-four other meetings, with a total attendance of 5,974 people.

Fifteen Clubs.

"Altogether there are fifteen farmers' clubs in the county, of which eleven were organized since the agent was at work. These clubs are doing good work. Four clubs in one community are good examples of what they mean to a community. One club has set about to work along three different lines, namely, to get better roads, to improve their livestock and grain and to get a better understanding with the business men in the town. Hardly a meeting is held but what the business men receive an invitation to come, and usually a good representation is present. Another club, just previous to organizing, met to make demands of certain of the business men. Today the best of feeling exists between them. Another club rather far away from town has repeatedly asked the city men to be present at their meetings. Incidentally three silos were built last summer, where none existed previous to this time; several hundred bushels of seed potatoes were selected from the hills in the fall; eleven farmers seeded alfalfa; cows were tested for milk production and a start has been made to weigh the milk daily.

"The business men, through their Commercial club, have responded splendidly. Last summer they held a picnic in the city park; lunched at their Commercial club rooms; were instrumental in getting a short course; offered their automobiles for an observation tour, etc.

"Other clubs are working on much the same plan. Six clubs are seriously discussing the purchasing of registered sires. They are beginning to standardize their potatoes and to grow better stock. They are solving social problems. All are working for a better, bigger community.

"Nine boys' and girls' clubs were organized the past year, and a potato contest was conducted during the summer. Thirty-five schools received agricultural instruction. Excellent poultry booklets were written and 2,599 settings of eggs were distributed at an average saving of about 40 per cent. When we stop to consider that the boys and girls of today are the men and women ten years from now, and since less than 10 per cent ever go beyond the graded school, this instruction in the rural school is all important.

"Livestock improvement has been along three lines: through the use of a purebred sire, feeding and weighing and testing. Three purebred sires were brought into the county, and five other communities are getting lined up to purchase sires. Fourteen farmers have adopted well-balanced rations, and six farmers have begun to weigh their milk daily.

"With potatoes it has been demonstrated that clover materially influences the yield both through the addition of humus and nitrogen; that seed selection pays, as does treatment for scab. Three spraying experiments for blight were unsatisfactory, as only one was completed, but without a check plot, the other two being discontinued, owing to the dry spell that occurred during the middle of the summer, and the owners thinking that blight would not seriously affect the vines. In the first case the owner is satisfied that the yield was materially increased over the year before, and it is unfortunate that there was no check plot.

"During 1914 the agent visited 552 farms, conducted two observation tours, assisted in the judging at the county fair and two local fairs."

During the coming year it is planned to conduct a number of institutes and short courses on the following general subjects: Farm improvement, crop improvement, crop rotation and the home.

SUPPORTING ELWELL LAW

Northern Minnesota Development Association Urges Attendance.

Secretary McCarthy Opposed to Repeal—Might Well Be Amended.

George D. McCarthy, secretary of the Northern Minnesota Development association, today sent out notices to commercial clubs and individuals in the territory of the association, calling attention to a hearing on the proposed repeal of the Elwell law to be held in the house chamber at St. Paul next Tuesday afternoon, Feb. 2.

The hearing will be before the house committee on roads and bridges, of which Rouck of Royalton is chairman. Representatives Charles T. Murphy of Aurora, St. Louis county, is a member of the committee.

The notice sent out by the development association calls upon those interested to be represented at the hearing and express their views so that the committee may have full knowledge of the sentiment of this section of the state in regard to the law.

"I think the position of the development association is clear from its resolutions and the reports of the good roads committee," said Mr. McCarthy today. "The Elwell law is not a perfect law; it very likely is subject to amendment so that it may be more easily operated, but it should not be repealed. Under it some roads may be built that would not be built in any other way—at least for a long time. Any law under which a mile of road may be built that would not be built in any other way is a good law from a Northern Minnesota standpoint and we want it to remain upon the statute books.

Should Have the Chance.

"No county is compelled to proceed under the Elwell law. Some counties want to proceed under it and the position of the development association is that those who want it should be allowed to make use of it. The law cannot affect those who do not elect to proceed under it, yet the principal opposition to it comes from counties that have never tried to use it and that probably never will use it."

Mr. McCarthy returned this morning from Hinckley, where he attended a meeting of the Pine County Development association. The association, which has been in something of a moribund state, was revived at a business meeting. A decision was reached to incorporate the association and to become active in dealing with the problem peculiar to Pine county.

The work of the Northern Minnesota Development association was enthusiastically indorsed at the meeting and the Boyd bill providing that county boards may appropriate money for incorporated development associations by majority vote instead of by unanimous vote as at present was indorsed.

"WET EVIDENCE" PLACED IN JAIL

Government Is Taking No Chance on Losing Confiscated Liquor.

Bemidji, Minn., Jan. 27.—(Special to The Herald.)—Liquor that heretofore has been kept in the rooms of the Indian agents at the Markham hotel here has been removed to the county jail for safe keeping, and will now be protected by Sheriff Andrew Johnson, so that it may be used for evidence, should the government wish to make prosecutions.

The Indian agents in many of their raids have destroyed the liquor, but in cases where the liquor was shipped in or introduced into the Indian territory it is kept by the agents.

Find Some Liquor.

Liquor is still occasionally found in Bemidji, the latest report being that the Lake Shore hotel, in which there was formerly a saloon was searched and liquor found by Deputy Agents Brandt and Carson. This is the second offense of this place. At Deer River Monday several shipments of liquor were found by the agents and liquor was also found in what was formerly a saloon and a report from Federal Dam says that an Italian section crew were relieved of liquor which was found in their possession.

WISCONSIN FARMER BLOWS OUT BRAINS

John Cormak, Living Near Cumberland, Ends Financial Difficulties.

Cumberland, Wis., Jan. 27.—(Special to The Herald.)—John Cermak, a prominent Bohemian farmer and pioneer resident of Haugen, sixteen miles northeast of this city, committed suicide by placing the muzzle of a double-barrel shotgun to his forehead and blowing out his brains. He was 50 years old, had been married three times and leaves a large family.

It is claimed the cause was that he was unable to properly account for the proceeds of his former wife's estate, of which he had been administrator, and which estate had been bequeathed to her own children by a former marriage.

NEW MARQUETTE HOSPITAL.

Structure Costing Nearly $100,000 to Be Opened Thursday.

Marquette, Mich., Jan. 27.—The new St. Luke's hospital in North Marquette, one of the most complete buildings of the kind in the Upper Peninsula, will be formally opened tomorrow.

Visitors will be shown through the hospital by the directors, superintendent and nurses from 3 to 5 o'clock in the afternoon and from 7:30 to 10 o'clock in the evening.

Started last May by the Foster Construction company of Milwaukee, the hospital was completed in November at a cost of $70,000. During the last two months equipment of a value of approximately $20,000 has been installed, and when the remainder of the equipment for which provision has been made is in place the property will represent an investment of about 100,000.

The outer walls are of tile and concrete stucco construction, and the foundation is of concrete veneered with brick. The floors are of concrete, specially coated, and are as nearly sound proof as floors can be made.

The structure has three floors and a full basement. An electric elevator makes all floors easily accessible. The directors have seemingly overlooked nothing that will add to the comfort of the patients or the administration force.

WOULD OUST THE NEGROES

Plan of Firemen's Brotherhood, Is Charge Made at Hearing.

Carter Says Railroads Hire Them Without Regard to Safety.

Chicago, Jan. 27.—Accusations that the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen was trying to deprive negro firemen of their jobs, were made at a lively session of the board of arbitration in the western railroad wage hearing here today.

The accusations were made in a debate which arose over the question whether the firemen of the Yazoo & Mississippi Valley railroad, a subsidiary of the Illinois Central, are party to the arbitration.

In the course of the debate, W. S. Carter, for the enginemen, admitted that these firemen, mostly negroes, were not directly represented when agreement to arbitrate was made, but that since then a majority of them had requested that they be represented.

"We are believers in the open shop," said Carter. "It is true that sometimes the majority of firemen on a railroad may not be members of the brotherhood, but there is no instance that I recall where schedule agreements have not applied to non-members as well as to members."

Would Displace Negroes.

James M. Sheean, attorney for the roads, asserted that the reason Carter wanted the negro firemen included was so that white men might displace them in their positions.

"That is not the way it was out that way," said Carter, "it will be the fault of the railroads. They hire negroes because they are cheaper. Many of them cannot even read the rule books and are far less competent than white men, but 'safety first' is not considered where the railroads can save a dollar. If the railroads are compelled to pay a going rate, they will get competent help and white men will be white; that is for them to decide.

"When the railroads found that we were obtaining the consent of the Yazoo road's firemen to represent them, coercive influences were put to work and these men were told that the award would cost them their jobs."

Earthquakes cause electric waves, and an Italian scientist has invented apparatus which has registered them several minutes before seismographs have shown earth movements.

SENATE WILL VOTE ON THE COUNTY OPTION BILL THURSDAY AFTERNOON

Bill to Refund License Money in Indian Treaty Territory.

House Votes Against Embargo on Exports of Farm Products.

Bill to Be Introduced for Consolidating St. Paul and Minneapolis.

By a Staff Correspondent.

St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 28.—(Special to The Herald.)—Following promptly on the report of the senate temperance committee recommending the county option bill for passage, the senate this morning voted to make the bill a special order for next Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. At that time the bill will be discussed and voted upon, with the outcome of the vote at present in doubt, but very close.

* * *

Under a bill introduced this morning in the house by Representative Boyd of Crookston, saloon keepers driven out of business in the Indian treaty territory may get their unexpired license money back if the communities wish to allow it. The bill authorizes municipalities to do this if they desire.

* * *

Against an Embargo.

The house this morning, 96 to 6, passed the Bendixen joint resolution asking congress not to place an embargo on the exportation of farm products.

* * *

Because of other arrangements, the date of the first hearing before the house committee on efficiency and economy on the proposed reorganization of state departments was changed [illegible] Chairman Spooner of the house committee sent out letters to every member of the senate and house asking them to be present.

WOULD RAISE COMPENSATION

Bill in Wisconsin Assembly Provides Increase of 25 Per Cent.

Madison, Wis., Jan. 28.—Twenty-five per cent increase in the scale of compensation for partial disability injuries is provided for in a bill today by Senator Timothy Burke of Green Bay. A partial disability is the loss of a finger, an arm, an eye or a leg. Under the present law each of these injuries has been compensated for by the payment of an amount equal to 65 per cent of the wages for a certain number of weeks. For example: The present law provides that for the loss of a finger a man shall be given 65 per cent of his weekly wages for ten weeks. The Burke bill would make this twelve and one-half weeks.

A bill by Assemblyman W. L. Smith would eliminate extra fees of all officials elected or appointed throughout the state.

SURPRISE BY RAILROADS

Ask Railroad Commission Be Given Regulation of Passenger Fares.

Claim Not Getting Adequate Revenue Out of Passenger Business.

By a Staff Correspondent.

St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 28.—(Special to The Herald.)—When the house committee on transportation took up the Bendixen amendment to the 1913 2-cent passenger law for a public hearing yesterday afternoon, the railroads sprung a surprise by proposing an amendment to the law putting the regulation of passenger fares under the state railroad and warehouse commission, just as freight rates are now.

It was also intimated that if the amendment were adopted, the railroads would bring the matter before the commission, and that they expected to be able to prove they are entitled to a higher passenger rate than 2 cents a mile.

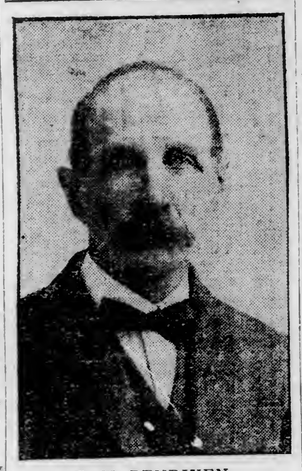

The plan proposed by the railroads is to let the law stand for the present at a maximum passenger rate of 2 cents a mile, but to allow the railroad and warehouse commission, on proper showing and after thorough investigation, to increase or lower this rate.

Revenue Not Adequate.

George T. Slade, vice president of the Northern Pacific, presented the

FUNDS FOR DRAINAGE

Plan Is Proposed By Representative Bessette to Solve Problem.

Revolving Fund Created Without Expense to the State Funds.

By a Staff Correspondent.

St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 28.—(Special to The Herald.)—Representative Fred Bessette of Orr, St. Louis county, as a result of close study of the drainage problem, has evolved a plan, which took the form of a bill introduced in the house today, under which a revolving fund for drainage of state lands can be created without any expense to the state funds whatever.

In the past all state drainage has been provided for by appropriations out of the general revenue fund; and it has been a hard fight every time to induce the legislature to appropriate the money needed to carry on drainage work.

Despite the argument that drainage appropriations are not expenses but investments returning a profit, it has always been uphill work getting the necessary drainage appropriations from the legislature.

Under the plan proposed by Mr. Bessette, it will be possible to provide ample funds for drainage purposes without making any appropriations whatever.

Revolving Fund Planned.

The plan is to provide, by an amendment to existing laws proposed in the bill which Mr. Bessette has prepared, that the cost of draining state lands already drained and now on the market,

WRECK SURVIVORS BROUGHT INTO PORT

Steamer Algonquin Brings in Eight Sailors From Disabled Ships.

New York, Jan. 28.—The Clyde line freight steamer Algonquin, herself disabled, in tow of her sister ship, the Cherokee, brought to this port today the survivors of two shipwrecked vessels which she picked up before she developed propellor trouble on her trip from Santo Domingo.

Of the eight rescued men aboard the Algonquin, seven were the captain and crew of the American schooner Frederick Roessner, which sailed from Jamaica Dec. 3 for Stamford, Conn., with logwood. The eighth man was the purser of the Norwegian steamer Anita, bound from Halifax for Kingston, which wrecked on North Caicos reef, Jan. 10.

Capt. Swain of the Roessner said that after his vessel was out ten days she encountered terrific gales and was completely disabled. The stays were carried away and all the sails were stripped off and blown to sea. In the heavy pounding the schooner's seams were opened and she was soon waterlogged.

The crew attempted to put to sea in the boats when their plight became desperate, but the boats were smashed. For three days the crew clung to the drifting wreck. Finally they were sighted by the steamer Iroquois, which sent a boat to their relief, took them off and landed them at Turk's Island. Thence they were brought to New York by the Algonquin.

COLDEST OF THE WINTER

Mercury Drops to 28 Deg. Below Zero in Duluth.

Much Colder in St. Paul and Central States Also Shivering.

TOO COLD AT ASHLAND FOR ICEMEN TO WORK.

Ashland, Wis., Jan. 28.—(Special to The Herald.)—The icemen were obliged to quit work this forenoon on account of the severe cold. The channel would freeze so fast the ice could not be taken out. The weather is perfectly clear, the sun shining and there is no wind. This is the first time the cold has ever caused the icemen to quit work. The government thermometer registered 39 deg. below zero.

Last night was the coldest night of the winter, so far. The thermometer registered, during the night, 28 deg. below zero. At 7 o'clock it was 26 deg. below and at 10 o'clock this morning it was 22 deg. below.

Weather Forecaster Richardson says that the cold will continue tonight, but will not be so severe, the temperature to be 10 to 25 deg. below zero between here and the ranges, and tomorrow will be around the zero mark or, perhaps, a little above.

No 40-deg. weather prevailed so far as learned here.

St. Paul had much colder weather than Duluth, getting a visit of the 32-deg.-below brand last night. Houghton, Mich., had a similar dose. Chicago shivered in zero weather and at 7 o'clock this morning the mercury was down in the tube to the 8-deg. mark. That means real suffering in Chicago's clammy atmosphere. The cold extends into Kansas and Missouri. The thermometer registered 10 deg. below at Kansas City last night, and 4 deg. below at St. Louis.

The weather is moderating in the

INVESTIGATION OF BIG PROPORTIONS

Federal Commission to Look Into All Transportation Conditions.

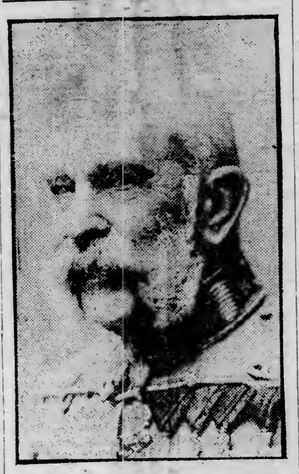

New York, Jan. 28.—Frank P. Walsh, chairman of the Federal commission on industrial relations, announced today that the commission would conduct in Chicago an investigation into the entire transportation conditions of the country, the relations between railroads and their employes, and conditions among the workers.

This investigation, Mr. Walsh announced, will be begun within a few days after the commission concludes its hearing here, probably the latter part of next week.

He said he could not at this time make public the names of witnesses who will be summoned to testify in Chicago.

PRESIDENT VETOES THE IMMIGRATION BILL AND TELLS CONGRESS W[illegible]

CANNOT AGREE WITH VIEWS OF THE KAISER

EMPEROR FRANCIS JOSEPH.

Geneva, Switzerland, Jan. 28.—According to reports received here today from Innsbruck, in the Austrian crown land of Tyrol, Emperor Francis Joseph of Austria is arranging to abdicate, it being said that he is unable to agree with the views of Emperor William on military affairs and also because of the German emperor's attitude regarding peace.

The Austrian emperor adopted this course, the advices from Innsbruck say, as the result of the recent visit to Berlin of Archduke Charles Francis, the Austrian heir apparent, and of Baron von Burian, the Austro-Hungarian minister of foreign affairs. The Austrian emperor, it is added, desires to leave his successor with a free hand.

KAISER PRAISES THE WRITERS ON THE WAR.

Berlin, via London, Jan. 28.—Emperor William, speaking to the war correspondents at the general headquarters in the field, said:

"Good morning. I pay you my compliments. You write famously and I thank you for it. You accomplish things and I read your articles very gladly. Your reports have a high patriotic tone and it is of great value to our men in the trenches when we can send them such matter.

"And now one thing more and note my principle—and it applies to this war also—is the word of old John Knox, the reformer in Scotland, that, 'One man with God is always in the majority.'"

The emperor's birthday was observed at headquarters yesterday with a simple divine service held in the field.

Literacy and Other Restrictive Tests Cause of Disapproval.

Measure Embraces Radical Departure From All Traditions.

Does Not Believe People Favor Proposed Restrictive Tests.

Washington, Jan. 28.—President Wilson vetoed the immigration bill today and sent a special message to congress saying he disapproved the measure because of the literacy and other restrictive tests which it proposes as a condition of admission of immigrants to the United States.

President Wilson's message delivered to the house was as follows:

"It is with unaffected regret that I find myself constrained by clear conviction to return this bill (H. R. 6060, An Act to Regulate the Immigration of Aliens to and the Residence of Aliens in the United States), without my signature.

Serious Matter.

"Not only do I feel it to be a serious matter to exercise the power of veto in any case, because it involves opposing the single judgment of the president to the judgment of a majority of both houses of the congress, a step which no man, who realizes his own liability to error, can take without great hesitation, but also because this particular bill is in so many important respects admirable, well-conceived and desirable.

"Its enactment into law would undoubtedly enhance the efficiency and improve the methods of handling the important branch of the public service to which it relates. But candor and a sense of duty with regard to the responsibility so clearly imposed upon me by the constitution in matters of legislation, leave me no choice but to dissent.

"In two particulars of vital consequence, this bill embodies a radical departure from the traditional and long established policy of this country, a policy in which our people have conceived the very character of their government to be expressed, the very mission and spirit of the nation in respect

Paris, Jan. 28, 2:55 p. m.—Announcement given out at the war office today says:

MOWED DOWN BY BATTERY

Russians Claim to Have Killed 500 Germans in Thirty Minutes.

Guns Masked and Oncome of Teutons Calmly Awaited By Men.

Petrograd, via London, Jan. 28.—In a stubborn fight in the vicinity of Sochaczew, on the Bzura river, the Germans on Tuesday broke through into the Russian trenches from which they were repulsed only after bayonet charges. At Atlanka, two miles north of Sochaczew, in a battle lasting thirty minutes, the Germans lost 500 killed.

A Russian officer, commanding a battery of machine guns, gave the following account of this fighting:

"At dusk our battery was ordered to take a certain position to check the Germans. Within an hour trenches were dug and the battery masked. We lay all night waiting for the attack. Before us was a clear space of 2,000 yards to a hill on which were trees.

Cavalry Approaches.

"With the coming of daylight we became impatient and began to fear that the Germans did not intend to attack. Suddenly at the end of the field we noticed a detachment of cavalry. They rode towards our position and to a point within 600 yards of it and then stopped, evidently suspecting that something was wrong. We were in despair when they turned to move away, since we were without firing orders.

"Suddenly the crackling of our machine guns twenty yards to the left gave the signal for a general play

THREATENED DEFICIT IN GOVERNMENT REVENUES

Washington, Jan. 28.—A threatened deficit in the government's revenues presented a problem that President Wilson, his cabinet and congressional leaders had before them today for solution at White House conference. The question was gone into deeply at a cabinet conference yesterday and the outcome of today's meeting was awaited with tense interest both in administration and congressional circles.

ARMIES, ONCE BEATEN, AGAIN TO THE FORE

New Military Operations in Galicia, Egypt and the Caucasus.

Big Force of Austro-German Troops Concentrates in Carpathians.

Desperate Fighting Marked Emperor's Birthday in the West.

London, Jan. 28.—The Carpathian passes in Western Galicia, Egypt and the Caucasus, by reason of the sudden offensive of armies heretofore defeated, are again to the fore today as the chief areas of interest in the military operations.

In the Carpathians a big force of Austro-Germans has been concentrated and is fighting not only to stem the invasion of Hungary, but, if possible, to cut off the Russian forces occupying Bukowina to the south. In Egypt the Turkish advance appears really to have begun. In the Caucasus the shattered Turks have more or less reorganized and paused in their flight toward their own frontier and resumed the offensive.

Operations Important.

Both Vienna and Petrograd emphasize the importance of the Austrian operations in the Carpathians. The Austrians claim the recapture of certain mountain passes, and Petrograd concedes that the Austrians have thrown fresh men into this region and are evincing activity along the entire Galician front.

While it is not probable that any considerable body of Turks has yet penetrated the Sinai peninsula, their advance scouts are virtually at the edge of the Suez canal, having moved along the caravan route near the Mediterranean. It is believed that another column plans to advance through the center of the peninsula, while perhaps a third will attempt to reach Suez along the southerly route from Akabah. All these routes are without water and those to the north and south are open to flank attacks from the Mediterranean and Red Sea respectively. It is believed here that the Turks who have been in contact with the British to the east of El Kantara, worked their way westward under the protection of the sand dunes. This

RUSSIAN REVENUES WILL BE LARGER

Income From Direct Taxes Exceed That of Last Year.

Petrograd, Jan. 27, via London, Jan. 28.—The official report made by the ways and means committee of the duma tonight indicated that despite the war the government estimates of its ordinary income from direct taxes during the coming year will exceed that of last year by 66,457,000 rubles ($33,228,500). The direct taxes will be approximately 342,465,000 rubles ($171,232,500). This is the first budget in which the income from alcoholic drinks will be eliminated. From nearly a billion rubles ($500,000,000) from this source the government revenue will drop to a few million rubles, which will accrue from the sale of industrial spirits.

The government anticipated no difficulty in raising by indirect taxes a sufficient amount to cover the deficiency due to lack of revenue from the sale of liquors. Notwithstanding the great percentage of laborers in the ranks of the army, it is pointed out that the efficiency of those remaining, owing to enforced sobriety, has been increased from 50 to 100 per cent.

HELP!

SUMMARY OF THE WAR NEWS

A great battle has developed in Galicia along a 100-mile front, skirting the Carpathians. This struggle, which is in pursuance of the new Austro-German plan of shifting the weight of attack from Central Poland to the south, may mark a turning point in the campaign in the east, and both the Russians and Teutons attach the highest importance to the outcome.

The Austro-German armies, if successful, would effectively cripple Russia's drive at Northern Hungary. Thus far there are no indications as to the result of the fighting in this battle which probably is still in its preliminary stage. An official communication from Petrograd says merely that the battle is developing on a large scale.

To the eastward in Bukowina there is in progress fighting which is another phase of the Austro-German movement to drive back the Russians to their own territory. Apparently the Russian sweep across Bukowina has been halted. The Russian report states that artillery engagements are in progress, but gives no information of the outcome.

Meanwhile the struggle continues in the north along the Warsaw front. Repeated German attacks were made and at one point, on the Bzura, the attackers broke through to the Russian trenches. The Russian statement says later they were expelled at the point of the bayonet.

In the west the Germans have renewed their assaults in the neighborhood of Soissons, where, recently they won a decisive victory. In Alsace the fighting is less intense on account of heavy snows.

The official reports of the war today are in such complete conflict that the outcome of recent hostilities, particularly in the west, is left in doubt. In Upper Alsace brisk fighting has been resumed and the battle at Craonne continues with undiminished severity.

The French war office statement announces that every German attack was repulsed and that every French attack made progress. It estimates German losses in the last three days at 20,000 and asserts that ground was won by the allies in Upper Alsace and near Craonne. The German statement says the French were defeated in Upper Alsace, fleeing in disorder at two points, and that at Craonne another long section of trenches of the allies was captured.

Concerning the war with Russia, the Berlin war office says that German troops won the advantage in two unimportant engagements.

Severe fighting is in progress in the Trans-Caucasus, where the Turks, notwithstanding their reported defeats recently, are admitted by the Russian military authorities to have assumed an energetic offensive. An official communication from Petrograd says the Turks made a series of attacks, but were thrown back with heavy losses. Other Turkish defeats are announced in fighting in Northern Persia. An official announcement from Constantinople, however, says the Turks inflicted a defeat on the Russians in the Caucasus region.

INNOCENT ARE VICTIMS

Health Director Raps Unlicensed Practitioners in Annual Report.

Says No City Has Milk Supply Equal to Duluth's.

Unscrupulous physicians and unlicensed practitioners, who are permitted to ply their trade among ignorant victims of disease, are severely attacked by Dr. H. W. Webster, director of the health department, in his annual report of the work done during 1914. He will present his report to Commissioner Hicken within the next day or two. Dr. Webster gives considerable praise to the milk supply of Duluth, declaring it to be the best in this country.

In addition, Health Director Webster states that more stringent legislation should be enacted to wipe out these "unscrupulous homicides." With regard to health conditions, Dr. Webster states that fewer Duluthians died last year from tuberculosis than during any previous year, the increase in the total figures being due to the presence of many outside residents at the local hospitals.

From 1905 to 1909, according to Dr. Webster, there were 3,448 cases of scarlet fever and diphtheria, while from 1910 to 1914, inclusive, there were but 2,286 cases, a decrease of nearly 33 per cent, while the population of the city was increased about 10,000.

Dr. Webster's report follows in part:

"Hon. W. A. Hicken, Commissioner of Public Safety—Dear Sir: In presenting to you my annual report, I do so with a feeling that the work for the year has been done with results, which taken as a whole, are very satisfactory.

Tuberculosis Work.

"In some particular branches, notably in tuberculosis our work has shown an apparent but not a real increase in the number of deaths recorded. This is due to two causes. Firstly, the diagnosis is now more accurate and secondly, our death list is enlarged by a greater number of tubercular-infected people who have come from the outside and died at the county pavilion. So far as our records can attest our own residents who have died are fewer in number than any preceding year since the health department became active in the control of this disease.

"The unlicensed practitioner of medicine is still active and cunningly continues to ply his nefarious trade. It is a discouraging feature of the work that proper legislation cannot be secured to deal with these unscrupulous homicides, but they are always able to secure a number of advocates, in the form of paid attorneys or some ignorant recipients of their methods to make the worse appear the better part to such purpose that our legislators are deterred from action. It is unthinkable that men ignorant of diagnosis and the nature of the diseases should be allowed to dupe these poor afflicted victims. The state undertakes to regulate the practice of medicine, the people who go to these men have every right to think they are legitimate practitioners for that very reason. Year by year these men are menacing the chances of recovery of thousands of people not only from tuberculosis but of many other diseases. Not only so but they are a standing menace to the prevention of disease in others. The time is now, when some drastic action should be taken to drive these men out of a scientific and time-honored calling into one suited to their educational or physical attainments.

Failure to Report.

"Our tuberculosis work is interfered with more, probably, than any other branch of similar work because of the chronic nature of the disease. The regular practitioner of medicine in connection with this disease is not yet free from reproach. We still have to complain that he does not report his cases with that promptness which seems necessary to stamp him as one who has due regard for the patient's and the public good. There seems to be some influence at work which makes him fear that he will lose his patient. We desire to assure him that all our efforts will be directed to prevent this, and the most ethical treatment so far as we are able to direct it will be accorded him.

"The public must learn that all cases of sore throat are suspicious and all rashes much more so. It is therefore of extreme interest to the public in general and the individual in particular, that a proper recognition of the underlying causes be determined before those thus afflicted be allowed to mingle with other people. Neglect of these simple rules is the cause of epidemics of communicable diseases. We believe that a good many people are alive to this simple precaution, as the following would seem to confirm. From 1905 to 1909, inclusive, there were 3,448 cases of scarlet fever and diphtheria, from 1910 to 1914, inclusive, there were 2,286 of these diseases—a decrease of nearly 33 per cent for the five years, notwithstanding the fact of an increase of upwards of 10,000 in our population. The same remarks will apply to smallpox. Typhoid fever decreased for the year about 30 per cent. Our records show 103 cases as compared to last year's of 139 cases. Fourteen of these cases can be definitely set down as having been acquired in Duluth.

"Our work in infantile troubles continues to show gratifying results and completely justifies the small expenditure made for this purpose. In our opinion further extension of work along these lines would be an economic gain.

Milk Situation.

"The milk situation in this city is one requiring close and constant supervision but in no division of this department are such uniformly good results obtained. We say without fear of successful contradiction, that no other city in the United States secures a milk supply at all comparable with ours.

"The births for the year show a very gratifying increase over that of 1913, the latter year having to its credit 2,020 and 1914, 2,152. We are forced to record the fact that a good many births are not reported. We do not believe that many physicians are guilty of this neglect but we are convinced that some few are. We have had instructions from the state board of health to prosecute those who neglect this very important matter in the future and we shall make a close scrutiny of births and promptly deal with all who do not comply with the law in having their births registered. We have no option in this matter and we hope, therefore, physicians will not impose this unpleasant duty upon us."

WORK IS TOO EXPENSIVE

City Will Lay No More Storm Sewers This Winter.

Frost Is Too Deep—Will Continue Sanitary Sewer Work.

Because of the extreme cold the last few days, Commissioner Murchison, head of the public works department, announced this morning that the city will discontinue laying storm sewers in graded streets or traveled roads for the remainder of the winter, after the work now in progress is completed early next week.

Commissioner Murchison added, however, that work on the sanitary sewers will continue, as the extreme frost will not affect the trenches necessary for the laying of the pipes, as it does those for storm sewer construction. He regrets very much being compelled to give up the storm sewer work, as assistance has been given to many laboring men who were unable to find employment during the winter.

"The city will discontinue for the winter the laying of storm sewers in graded streets or traveled roads as soon as the jobs now in progress are completed," said Commissioner Murchison this morning." Where the earth has been compressed it is found that the frost has penetrated in places to a depth of four and one-half feet and during the present cold snap is sinking several inches in each twenty-four hours. Some of the storm sewers are laid at a depth of about six feet, and with a trench three feet wide, a comparatively large quantity of earth has to be handled, nearly all of which is frozen solid.

"In the case of the sanitary sewers which are narrower and deeper the work is proceeding finely, and the cost figures continue satisfactory.

"It is unfortunate that conditions for the laying of storm sewers are unfavorable, as it was on these that work was found for large numbers of the unemployed who had been accustomed to other occupations. The city's effort to provide work for those physically unable to do a full day's work at a rate commensurate with the service rendered proved unsuccessful. This was left entirely voluntary on the part of the appellant, but it has proven that a great many of this class did not desire to be employed."

JITNEY BUS NOW FAMILIAR SIGHT IN TWELVE LARGE AMERICAN CITIES

SEAT PLAN OF THE JITNEY BUS.

The nickel auto bus, or jitney bus, as it is sometimes called, is rapidly becoming a popular means of transportation in many cities of the United States. This cheap means of transportation is especially popular in places in cities where street cars do not run.

The jitney bus has already invaded about a dozen large American cities and the number is still growing. The auto bus in these cities takes passengers at any point in the city and carries them to any other point for a nickel. New bus lines are said to be springing up rapidly.

Some of the cities where the new bus lines have become popular are: Seattle, Portland, Oakland, San Francisco, Los Angeles, Dallas, Houston, El Paso, San Antonio, Fort Worth, Galveston, Kansas City and Des Moines.

In Seattle there are said to be more than 500 busses in service, and that the bus owners are about to organize for the purpose of simplifying routes, standardizing the service, and supplying transfers and giving six tickets for a quarter.

"Jitney" was originally the sideshow barker's slang for a nickel. In some parts of the country it is commonly used in that sense today. But out West it is rapidly taking on a new meaning, which might be defined as "any self-propelled vehicle which hauls passengers for a 5-cent fare."

The coast cities started by calling their new 5-cent auto busses "jitney busses," but now they call them simply "the jitneys."

Zenith Telephone Companys' Report Shows Slight Deficit for Year.

Expenditures, Including Dividends on Preferred Stock, Exceed Receipts.

The Zenith Telephone company, which filed its annual franchise report with City Auditor Campbell yesterday afternoon, had a deficit of $6,833.19 for the year. The report is signed by G. W. Robinson of Minneapolis, president of the company, and A. J. McCulloch, treasurer and local manager. The cost of the plant up to Jan. 1, 1914, is given as $799,094.89, while during the last year about $50,000 was spent for equipment, real estate, tools and furniture, bringing the total cost to date up to $847,431.26.

Subscribers	$116,678.73

BOY GIVEN CHANCE IN U. S.

Courage and Persistency Win Friends for William Jarmalo.

Courage and persistency will have due reward in the case of William Jarmalo, the 15-year-old Austrian boy, who walked from Winnipeg to Duluth in thirteen days in November, begging his meals on the way. He will be given a chance to work out his future in the United States, according to information received by the United States immigration officials at Duluth, who have just received instructions from the secretary of labor.

The boy was taken in charge at the county poor farm when he reached Duluth penniless. The officers will make a report on the boy at the end of six months, covering his surroundings at the time, advancement in acquiring the English language, and his ability to take care of himself. When the report is made the secretary will decide what action is to be taken.

Jarmalo is living with a family in Duluth now and is being aided by two charitably inclined women of the city. It is believed he will be able to take care of himself in six months. His determination and courage have won many friends for him in Duluth.

LOSES PIECES OF BONE—HAPPY NOW

In Avery, Texas, lived Ira Davis, who suffered for years with a chronic sore on his foot which doctors advised would never heal without scraping the bone. Mr. Davis states that one box of Allen's Ulcerine Salve drew out several pieces of bone and lots of pus, and the sore healed up completely.

Allen's Ulcerine Salve is one of the oldest remedies in America and since 1869 has been known as the only salve powerful enough to reach chronic ulcers and old sores of long standing. Because it is so powerful it often heals burns and scalds without a scar in a remarkably short time.

Allen's Ulcerine Salve heals from the bottom up and draws out the poisons. If applied on new cuts and sores it heals in one-third the time that common salves and liniments take.

Result of Complaint of Employe That Camps Are Insanitary.

Dr. H. E. Webster, health director, received word this morning from Dr. H. M. Bracken, head of the state health department, that the latter has no jurisdiction over lumber camps and that the charges made several days ago that conditions in some camps were bad, have been referred to the labor bureau for investigation.

"I cannot understand why the state health department has no jurisdiction over lumber camps," said Dr. Webster this morning. "It seems to me this board should have the power to investigate all health conditions, no matter where they are in Minnesota. However, I am glad to learn that the labor bureau will look into the matter."

Dr. Webster also expressed himself as pleased at the report published in The Herald last evening with regard to a bill introduced in the state senate by Richard Jones calling for an investigation of conditions in lumber camps and of employment bureaus.

"We are constantly receiving reports of unhealthy conditions in camps," he added, "and I hope this investigation will be thorough. Many cases of smallpox and diphtheria come from these camps, where the men have unhealthful surroundings, where their water and food are impure and where there is little, if any, medical attention. There is no reason whatever why lumber camps cannot be sanitary and healthful."

The charges against the lumber camps were made to Dr. Webster several days ago by an employe and the communication was later forwarded to Dr. Bracken.

City and Duluth-Edison Officials Finish Formalities on 6-Cent Rate.

The 6-cent lighting contract with the Duluth-Edison company was formally signed this morning by officers of the company and city officials.

The contract, which was accepted at the special election on Jan. 19, provides for electric lighting at 6 cents per kilowatt hour and 700 arc lights for the city at $55 each per year. The new rate, it was recently announced, went into effect the day following the election and bills from that time on will be based on the 6-cent rate.

The new lighting contract was signed first by A. W. Hartman and C. E. Van Bergen, respectively president and general manager of the Duluth-Edison company, and then by Mayor Prince, Deputy City Clerk Ford Ani and City Auditor Campbell for the city of Duluth.

CALIFORNIA VOTERS HAVE TROUBLES

One of the largest ballots ever voted on by any body of voters in this country was received this morning by Commissioner Hicken from George Laybourn, former state senator from Duluth, and now a resident of San Diego, Cal.

The ballot, which graces the office of City Clerk Palmer is as large as a double page of The Herald and besides containing all the candidates for state offices, county and township offices, the judicial departments of the state and county, there are forty-eight propositions, including about twelve constitutional amendments.

According to Mr. Laybourn, voters spent from fifteen minutes to three-quarters of an hour preparing these ballots last fall.

13th Anniversary Sale

The Dayton Company

Jan 28 to Feb 6

Each Arrow in the Illustration Points to One of Seven Sales Floors Which Have Assembled Values to Make Our 13th Anniversary a Memorable Occasion

Beginning Thursday Morning at 9 a. m.

At that time the plans and preparations of months past will be uncovered. By far the most important collection of fresh, new merchandise of the high Dayton quality in the history of these sales will be ready Thursday. Not only months but thirteen years of close study and ceaseless effort in building up a Still Better Store Service are back of this event.

Each year the store endeavors to bring something better into its activity which will benefit its customers. "Progress" is written large in the Store's Platform.

This past year the Store has studied how to make the most of the opportunity afforded by the continued, and even unusual, prosperity of the Northwest. As a result two things have been accomplished. One of these was the "making over" of our Second, Fifth and Sixth Floors. Furniture was moved to the entire Sixth Floor, floor-coverings and draperies to the Fifth, and Toys in the Second —resulting in a wonderful improvement in our Homefurnishing departments. In addition, other minor, but important, interior changes were made.

The second accomplishment has been a betterment along the lines of general Store Service. The Store has for its guide-posts:

Courtesy Thoroughness Integrity Progressiveness The Right Spirit
Forehsight Good Salesmanship Initiation Co-operation
The Truth in Spoken and Printed Word Enthusiasm.

The Store strives to do things better and better. Consequently, many of the standards which once satisfied it have been replaced by new and higher standards.

To the generous patronage, courtesy and thoughtful suggestions of its growing clientele the Store wishes to pay tribute. Many of its most helpful suggestions have come from this source.

And now comes the 13th Anniversary Sale—the chief thing about which is its wonderful variety of desirable, low-priced merchandise—merchandise of that quality which has caused the Store to grow steadily in 13 years from 51,200 sq. ft. of floor space in 1902 to 356,170 sq. ft. (over eight acres) in 1915—and still growing!

There is abundant reason why the Store should invite Minneapolis and the Northwest to a celebration feast beginning Thursday morning at 9 A. M. And it is fitting that on this occasion the Store should lose sight of its usual fair profit on the thousands of dollars' worth of new, dependable Anniversary Sale merchandise assembled for the event.

Details for the first day's selling will appear in Wednesday evening papers.

MANY LITTLE FOLKS LOSE A FRIEND

Elizabeth Taylor, Teacher at Minneapolis Children's Home, Dies Here.

Several hundred Minneapolis children lost one of their best friends yesterday afternoon when Miss Elizabeth Taylor, for eleven years resident teacher of the Minneapolis Children's home, died at St. Mary's hospital after a short illness.

During the many years that Miss Taylor was head of the Mill City home she won a place in the hearts of hundreds of waifs who confided in her and who, in turn, were championed by her.

Miss Taylor was well known in Duluth, as her home was in this city for many years. She was a sister of the late W. G. Taylor and is survived by Mrs. James Pickett of Detroit, Mich., and Mrs. John Prohl, 3409 Traverse street, Duluth, sisters and G. W. Taylor of Chicago, a brother.

Funeral services will be held in Minneapolis, the body to be shipped from Stewart's undertaking rooms this evening. Miss Taylor was 46 years old.

FROZEN TO DEATH NEAR AITKIN, MINN.

Emanuel Haglund Is Found Lying Face Downward in Barn.

Aitkin, Minn., Jan. 28.—(Special to The Herald.)—The body of Emanuel Haglund was found last night in a vacant barn on the Lundmark place, in the town of Wealthwood, about twelve miles from Aitkin, where the man had evidently frozen to death.

Coroner J. T. Spalding was called and found the body lying face downward on an iron bed, over which was some hay, and with the arms clasped as though overtaken with illness. Haglund had been unable to summon aid and perished.

Haglund disappeared ten days ago. He was 32 years old and a son of Trick Haglund. There were no marks of violence on the body and the coroner considered an inquest unnecessary.

WAR ON RATS BEING WAGED

Duluth Visitor Tells of Efforts to Protect New Orleans.

Ohio and Kentucky Unwilling to Admit Outside Horses.

C. M. Hall, a commercial traveling man who covers the "big time" cities of the country, here today stated that there is an exciting war on at New Orleans against the ravages of the bubonic plague.

"Ships docking at New Orleans from different ports of the world bring in rats that carry the infection that spreads the plague," said Mr. Hall. "Do you know that they have placed tin guards on the hawser ropes that lead from the ships to the quay posts?

"Also the citizens of New Orleans are rat-proofing their cellars. Hundreds of thousands of dollars are being spent to safe-guard the lives of the people. The war on the rats is a stern one. Rats are being killed in cellars and under the wharves and disenfectant spread to prevent the spread of the disease."

On his jaunt over the broad domain of this country, Mr. Hall ran athwart the ravages of another disease. This was the foot and mouth disease that is causing trouble in the livestock sections of the West.

"At Portsmouth, Ohio," said Mr. Hall, "there is a ferry that runs between the Ohio and Kentucky shores. Coming down from the Ohio side, or the Kentucky side, as the case may be, the stage is driven onto the boat and the horses unhitched and taken on shore again. The ferry takes the stage across and another team is hitched to the stage and it is driven on. In other words, neither of the states is willing to have the stage team from the other state come in because of the chances of spreading the foot and mouth disease."

Mr. Hall declared that more trade was being done in cotton, but that only $15 would be loaned on a bale. He also declared that the tieup of the cotton crop has caused a depression in the South that it will require some time to remedy.

JENTOFT FOUND "NOT GUILTY"

Feed Dealer, Accused of Receiving Stolen Property, Is Acquitted.

Helmer Jentoft, feed dealer at 2014-2016 West First street, was acquitted yesterday afternoon in district court of the charge of receiving stolen property. The jury spent twenty-one and one-half hours deliberating on the case.

Jentoft was accused of having received eighteen sacks of wheat known to have been stolen from the Great Northern Railway company on Dec. 16, 1914. He was charged with having bought the grain from Peter de Selley and Mike Contos, both of whom testified that it was delivered to his place of business.

Contos pleaded guilty to a grand larceny charge and is now serving a 60-day sentence at the county and city work farm. A jury recently acquitted de Selley on a larceny charge, but under the direction of the court he was rearrested and held on a charge of receiving stolen property.

H. B. Fryberger and John Heitman appeared for Jentoft, the former making the address to the jury. Harry F. White, third assistant county attorney, handled the prosecution. He declared that all law enforcement is left with juries. He declared that feed dealers who buy stolen grain are filling the jails and penal institutions with men, while they themselves are profiting financially by the transaction.

The jury took the case at 5 o'clock Tuesday afternoon and reached a verdict yesterday afternoon shortly after 2:30 o'clock.

TONIGHT'S ATTRACTIONS.

LYCEUM—Baldwin Players in "The Virginia."
ORPHEUM—Vaudeville and Motion Pictures.
GRAND—Vaudeville and Motion Pictures.
REX—Photoplay.
ZELDA—Photoplay.

Amusement Notes.

Hunting "properties" for a stock company is no sinecure.

This week the property man of the Baldwin Players had to secure cowboy's saddles, bridles, cartridge belts, chaps, and enough revolvers to stock a gun store. "The Virginian" is a western play, and while it is comparatively free from pistol shots, only two being fired, everybody "packs a gun." They must be long, vicious-looking weapons also, and the property man spent last week borrowing or renting revolvers, for to buy the "properties" used would soon bankrupt any stock company.

This week he is on the trail of a second-hand printing press of the old-fashioned type. Where he is going to get it, he doesn't know, yet, but he must have one before Sunday for "Mary Jane's Pa," which will be next week's bill, demands a printing press and it must be one that will "work." Printers are not disposed to tear down their printing presses and move them to the Lyceum stage for a week, and consequently the property man is having his troubles.

One week the property man had to furnish an entire drug store, and not a week passes that he is not called upon to produce some unusual article, so resourcefulness is taken for granted as being one of his characteristics.

This week's attraction, "The Virginian" is setting a record for the company despite the bitterly cold weather.

Pauline, the hypnotist, will be the special feature of the coming week's vaudeville show at the Orpheum. Pauline has just returned from a two years' tour of Europe, where he was the reigning sensation in every theater in which he appeared. Pauline gives humorous and scientific demonstrations of hypnotic suggestions, but lays no claim to possessing super-natural ability. He states that some people call his demonstrations hypotism, some call it science, while others call it fake, but so far as Pauline is concerned, anyone is at liberty to call it anything he wants to. Fake, science or supernatural power, or whatever method is used by Pauline, it does not detract in the least from the act in making it a remarkable vaudeville novelty, and one that has been packing theaters in all parts of the world. Pauline chooses his subjects from the audience, sometimes having as many as fifty on the stage, or as many as desire to test his powers. The many queer stunts Pauline causes his subjects to perform never fail to cause roars of laughter from any audience, while many of his feats give plenty of food for thought.

Besides Pauline, many other features will be on the week's bill, which will include Lamberti, the "Master Musician," Kingston & Ebner, in a vaudeville flirtation, Prelle's Dog circus and Dooley and Evelyn, who offer about everything in vaudeville from grand opera to trick bicycle riding.

A new bill will open at the New Grand for a week-end engagement this afternoon at that popular playhouse.

They are said to have excellent voices and gowns that are masterpieces of the modiste's art. Davitt and Duvall offer a comedy skit, "Holding Out." The act was written for laughing purposes only and they get the desired results.

The Four Castrillians are acrobats of the snap-and-dash variety. Head-to-head balancers and gymnasts of the dare-devil type, they accomplish many wonderful and hair-raising feats.

The Hearst-Selig News contains many interesting views, among which is the kaiser's visit to the front, winter sports in Boston and interesting pictures of Harry K. Bushman in the leading roles. It is an interesting story of college life. One of the Helen Holmes stories of railroad life, "The Leap From the Water Tower," and "Countess Swedie," a comedy, are other film stories on the bill.

Jesse Lasky and David Belasco will present at the Rex the film version of "The Girl of the Golden West," the record-breaking Belasco dramatic achievement. This romance of the mountains in the days of the California gold rush of '49 has proven worthy to become an established classic of the film. After being offered literally thousands of times in its original form, "The Girl of the Golden West" became an opera and part of the repertoire of the Metropolitan opera house. But both drama and opera are less permanent than the photo drama, which remains an everlasting record while the actors come and go. That this living artists come and go. That this final form of the greatest of all American Western dramas may be suitable to stand all the tests of time, the Lasky organization has strained every means at its disposal to make "The Girl of the Golden West," an absolute screen standard.

How Much Does Your Bank Account Get This Pay Day?

The best plan is to put it all in the bank and check it out as you need it. There is always a strong temptation to spend money carried in the pocket. If you have to write a check before you spend it you have a chance to think twice and ask yourself whether you are really going to get value received.

It isn't necessary to be close-fisted to get up in the world, but it is necessary for you to be careful in your expenditures. Money isn't free, it has to be earned, and if you allow yourself to get in the habit of spending "freely" you are going to be the loser. It means that you will never be free yourself—you will always have to work for a living.

Take our advice and put ALL your money in the bank as soon as you get it. You'll find it much easier to save that way.

As sure to rise as the Sun

You can't always make everything "just so." Sometimes you will get in more shortening than usual; or make the batter a little thin; or it may not be convenient to put a cake in the oven the moment it is mixed; or your oven may not bake evenly and it is necessary to turn the pan around—none of these little uncertainties make the slightest difference in results if you use

KC BAKING POWDER

This modern, double-raise baking powder has unusual strength and is absolutely certain to raise your biscuits, cakes and pastry light and feathery. It generates an abundance of leavening gas both in the mixing bowl and in the oven. The raising is sustained until the dough is cooked through.

Housewives who use K C never have "bad luck" with their baking. Try K C at our risk. Your grocer will refund your money if you are not pleased in every way. 67

DAVIDSON FOR BOARD OF CONTROL

Madison, Wis., Jan. 28.—Former Governor James O. Davidson was today appointed president of the state board of control, but action by the senate was laid over until next Wednesday.

Among the senate bills was one by Ackley, standardizing the practice of optometry and creating a state board of optometry examiners.

In the assembly, Hansen of Manitowoc offered a resolution on peace and neutrality, directing congress to do all possible to maintain neutrality. After debate the resolution passed, 45 to 36.

Assemblyman Frederick offered a bill that all railroad passenger coaches be provided with vestibules, and Assemblyman Helm presented a joint resolution memoralizing congress to pass a bill pensioning civil service employes who have served a certain time in the postal department.

Some Popular and Unpopular Jobs—Trains Are Late.

I can hear the wires singing,
I can hear the sidewalks creak,
And water dripping on the floor
From a pipe, that's sprung a leak.

I lie in bed and wonder
If my coal will last till night,
And if my dealer 'll trust me,
Or demand his pay on sight.

These are but a sample
Of the thoughts that oft are brewed
When the mercury starts to flirting
With the bottom of the tube.

Plumbers and coal men are happy, as well as busy, on the coldest day of the winter in Duluth.

When the thermometer started on its downward journey several days ago Duluthians sighed and made the best of it, but when they awoke this morning to find it colder than ever, it was dangerous for any one to ask: "Is it cold enough for you?" or say, with an attempt at jocularity, "It's always cool in Duluth."

H. W. Richardson says it's going to be "warmer" tomorrow, but Mr. Average Citizen is waiting to be shown, particularly when he learns that Mr. Richardson means "about 10 deg. below" by his prediction of warmer weather.

Shortly after 6 o'clock this morning the mercury registered 28 deg. below, which is the lowest point reached this year and equal to the record low mark of last winter, set in February.

The Lodgers.

Assistant Secretary Fred Johnson, basing his estimate on the number of lodgers cared for at police headquarters, said it was about 30 deg. below. There were seventy-eight men who sought shelter on the stone floor, a new record for this year.

The coldest man in Duluth this morning wasn't found, but the police believe him to be the one who broke into a sidewalk display case at the Economy Clothing company's store, 400 West Superior street, and stole two pairs of woolen trousers and a pair of heavy lumberman's boots.

Next to the fireplace and furnace, one of the most popular places today was the corner of Third avenue west and Third street, opposite the Board of Trade building, where there is a government barometer and thermometer. Few pedestrians believed the record, however, as they were sure it was colder than the mark registered.

Trains Are Late.

All trains were late and some trouble was experienced by the street railway company. The Great Northern train, due here at 6:30 a. m., was five hours late. The Northern Pacific train, due at 6:30, arrived at 9:45 and the Soo was 30 minutes behind time, arriving at 7 a. m. All Chicago trains were from 60 to 90 minutes behind their schedule.

"We haven't had much trouble with rush orders this morning," said Charles Beuglet, agent for the North Western Fuel company, "in spite of the fact that it was one of the busiest days we've had. There is lots of coal on hand and the railroads are handling it without delay."

More than one individual narrowly escaped violent treatment during the morning, when they accosted Traffic Policemen Thompson or Wood, at Superior street at Lake avenue and Superior and Third avenue, respectively, and asked the same old question.

Firemen Lucky.

Firemen were luckier than usual, being called out only twice. Once it was a false alarm from St. Croix avenue and the next time it was an overheated stove in a Garfield avenue residence. The West Duluth department, however, had an early morning fire to fight.

Plumbers came in for their share of it, when hotel proprietors found, in various instances, that guests had left their windows open too wide and spoiled some perfectly good plumbing. Several hurry calls for steamfitters were sent out from the residence districts the first thing this morning, while husband stayed home from work long enough to keep rags wrapped around the broken pipe.

RECEPTION FOR TRACTION EMPLOYES

Y. M. C. A. Plays the Host to Duluth Street Railway Men.

The employes of the Duluth Street Railway company with their wives and families, nearly 100 altogether, were guests of the Young Men's Christian association last evening, the occasion being their third annual party. Despite the low temperature and bitter cold weather there were enough who braved it to make a very successful event.

The evening was spent in games and contests and various stunts in which both men and women took part which were played with a great deal of enthusiasm. The ladies' tug-of-war was probably the most enjoyable event of the evening.

D. C. Moore, superintendent of the street railway company, and Mrs. Moore led in the grand march.

One of the prominent features of the evening was the handball games between men in the office of the company. Messrs. Thompson, Johnson, Cazes and Holmes were contestants in the handball games.

Toward the close of the evening's program the visitors were shown through the building and its various departments explained by the secretaries in charge.

Refreshments were served at 10:30 and at 11 o'clock the guests left, declaring that the association was an excellent host.

MANY SIGN FOR HICKEN

Board of Trade Petition Asking Him to Run Grows Rapidly.

Other Petitions Being Circulated in Other Office Buildings.

The signatures to the board of trade petition to Commissioner W. A. Hicken, asking him to file for the same office for the April election, are coming in rapidly, and the list is reaching large proportions. At noon today 138 voters who operate or are employed in offices in the Board of Trade building had signed the petition, and it stopped there only because the three sheets of paper provided were filled up.

This afternoon additional sheets have been attached and the signing up is still going on. It is believed that before night fully 200 signatures will have been obtained. Other petitions are also being circulated in other office buildings.

The board of trade men are not content with having their own people sign, but everybody who visits the board, or who calls on a member on business, is asked, first thing, to sign. If he does not want to, the matter is dropped, but amazingly few refuse to sign.

Following are the names of those who signed the petition at the board of trade up to noon today:

SPECIAL SESSION OF FEDERAL COURT

At a special session of the United States district court today Judge Page Morris granted citizenship papers to three and discharged three who had been adjudged bankrupt. A motion was also heard objecting to the bankruptcy petition of the Minnesota Screen company.

Those granted citizenship papers were Ole Martin Brude, Arnold Peterson and Martin Christofferson.

William McCoy of the firm of McCoy and Gould, who was adjudged bankrupt, March 14, 1913, was discharged today. He stated that ill-health and other handicaps had prevented him for applying for his discharge sooner. Others discharged were: Joseph John Baker, Two Harbors, and William Como, Little Falls.

Creditors of the Minnesota Screen company presented a motion asking for a thirty days' stay in which they might file objections to the petitioner being adjudged bankrupt. The stay was granted.

SHIPPING BILL FIGHT AN ENDURANCE TEST.

Washington, Jan. 28.—The administration ship purchase bill was again before the senate today with the Democratic leaders determined to renew their demand for night sessions for consideration of the measure and the Republicans ready to accept the challenge. The fight between the two parties over the bill virtually has simmered down now to a test of physical endurance.

Several Republican senators were ready when the senate met today to take the place of Minority Leader Gallinger who concluded his speech on the bill yesterday. After speaking continuously for more than seven hours Senator Gallinger yielded the floor with the declaration that he was in condition to continue for another seven hours.

PURE RICH BLOOD PREVENTS DISEASE

Bad blood,—that is, blood that is impure or impoverished, thin and pale,—is responsible for more ailments than anything else.

It affects every organ and function. In some cases it causes catarrh; in others, dyspepsia; in others, rheumatism; and in still others, weak, tired, languid feelings and worse troubles.

It is responsible for run-down conditions, and is the most common cause of disease.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is the greatest purifier and enricher of the blood the world has ever known. It has been wonderfully successful in removing scrofula and other humors, increasing the red-blood corpuscles, and building up the whole system. Get it today.

YARDMASTER ON THE STAND

Testifies in Case Against Former Switchmen Charged With Copper Stealing.

Duluth's $40,000 Theft Case Attracts Big Crowd to Courtroom.

John Murphy, general yardmaster for the Duluth terminals of the Northern Pacific Railway company, was on the witness stand all morning in Judge Fesler's division of the district court, where George K. Robertson, a Northern Pacific switchman, is being tried on a charge of first degree grand larceny. Robertson was indicted jointly with Joseph Regalia and Zigmund Zalk on a charge of having stolen $3,000 worth of copper annodes on Nov. 5, 1913, from a car which was in transit from Anaconda, Mont., to Pittsburg.

Mr. Murphy was examined minutely as to the system of switching cars in the Duluth yards and described in some detail just how the ordinary course of business is transacted. He testified as to the particular car which contained the copper and which was broken into, and from his reports, was able to say where the car was just before and after the thievery. He also explained the situation as to the various switching crews and their duties. He admitted, on cross-examination by Attorney John H. Norton, that there was no way of tracing by records the particular crew which switched the car on the afternoon or evening of Nov. 4.

Evidence will be adduced, according to County Attorney Greene, to show that the car, which contained about $100,000 worth of copper, was transferred to the yard of the Duluth Iron & Metal company, about $40,000 worth of the copper plates unloaded and the car then removed to the Fifth avenue yards. It had been checked on the day before in the Garfield avenue yards. Yardmaster Murphy testified today that he had no records showing specifically who moved the car or just when it was moved.

Yesterday afternoon, T. A. McGuire, Patrick Welch and Michael Linehan, employes of the Anaconda Copper Mining company at the Anaconda, Mont., smelter, were called by the county attorney as witnesses to testify as to the condition of the car when it started on its trip east.

The trial has attracted a large crowd of spectators. When all of the seats were filled in the spectator's section of the courtroom this morning, the court ordered the door closed against others.

FREE "FLOPS" FOR 400 MEN

Wooden or Cement Floors "Home" to That Many in Duluth.

Four hundred men, seeking shelter from the bitter cold of the last few days, have been sleeping on stone or wooden floors at police headquarters and mission homes nightly.

This total has been cut down to some extent by the fact that city officials have been co-operating in securing employment for many men, particularly those with families. With the beginning of next week nearly 600 unemployed will find positions in West Duluth lumber mills, to be opened Monday.

Rev. H. E. Ramseyer, in charge of the Bethel home on Mesaba avenue between Superior and West First streets, stated this morning that from 175 to 190 men had been sleeping on the floor there nightly, in addition to the 150 who can afford to pay a small amount for a bed.

Last night at the Bethel about 30 men were refused floor space, and on the previous night it was necessary to turn away 25 who wanted a spot where they could curl up and be warm.

At the Union mission, 17½ Lake avenue south, Rev. F. E. Plumb said that the number of men sleeping on the small floor of the main room there had averaged 100, all it would hold, so far this week. Yesterday the Union mission fed 234 men; Tuesday, 225, and Monday, 213.

The stone floor in the police headquarters basement was "home" to 78 unfortunates last night, and to about 60 each other night of the week so far.

MID-WINTER TESTS NOT TO BE HELD

The usual midwinter teachers' examinations for common school certificates will not be held this year, according to an announcement which has been sent out from the state department of public instruction and received at the office of N. A. Young, county superintendent of schools.

The examinations for common school certificates are ordinarily held twice a year, in February and in July. State Superintendent Schulz declares, however, that experience in previous years has shown there were but few applicants. The examinations will not be held until July 26, 27 and 28.

Teachers in the rural schools of the county having certificates that expire in March, 1915, will be instructed that they may consider the certificate valid and in effect until the first of August. In the meantime they will be obliged to secure a renewal of their certificates in order to hold positions as teachers for the 1915-1916 school year.

REVEALS PLANT CONDITION TO CITY

D. A. Reed, manager of the water and light department, has prepared a statement showing the profits for 1914 in answer to the question, "Is the plant self-sustaining?" and copies are to be sent as part of Bulletin No. 2, to all the users of water and gas in the city of Duluth. The first bulletin was issued several weeks ago and others will be sent out at regular intervals.

In addition to a statement on the profits of 1914, Manager Reed includes a complete financial report of the incomes of both departments, as published in The Herald two weeks ago, and a balance sheet on Jan. 1, 1915.

The balance sheet shows that the assets of the department amount to $4,804,284.68, and on the red side of the ledger, the bonded indebtedness is shown as $3,401,000, and that the city's proprietary interest in the plant up to Dec. 31 amounts to $1,072,880.

WITHSTOOD PIN PRICKS

Christian Koch Passes Test for Paralysis and Gets $1,000.

Now Being Tried for Defrauding Iron Range Railroad.

When Christian F. Koch, recently extradited from Nevada, was arraigned in district court before Judge Fesler this afternoon to plead to a charge of defrauding the Duluth & Iron Range Railroad company out of $1,000, he demurred to the indictment returned by the January grand jury against him. Attorney John H. Norton appeared as his attorney in the case.

Koch is accused of having secured $1,000 from the railroad company on a settlement for personal injuries. Koch fell as he was alighting from a train at Two Harbors last November. He was taken to a Duluth hospital and convinced Dr. E. L. Touhy, who attended him that he had suffered a complete and total paralysis of his lower limbs.

Koch, it is claimed, went through all of the usual tests for paralysis, such as being pricked with pins suddenly. After Dr. Touhy had diagnosed his case and reported his finding to the railroad company, a claim agent settled with the supposedly paralyzed man for $1,000. Koch then decided to go South to another institution for treatment. The next heard of him was in Nevada, where he was traced by railroad detectives who caused his arrest there.

Koch was able to walk without any difficulty when he appeared in court this afternoon.

SUES FRATERNAL SOCIETY ON POLICY

Beneficiary of Dead Woman Plaintiff—Society Claims Deception.

Trial in an action which Carl E. Johnson is seeking to recover $800 from the Mystic Workers of the World, a fraternal insurance organization, as beneficiary named in a policy issued to Gundborg Johnson prior to her death, was started before Judge Dancer and a jury in district court this morning.

Gundborg Johnson died Aug. 27, 1914. The plaintiff, who was designated as the beneficiary, furnished proof of death, but was refused payment. Suit was brought to compel the order to pay over the money. The society, in defense of its position, asserts that the decedent represented in her application for insurance that she had never been rejected by any other order or agency handling insurance, while as a matter of fact she had been refused insurance by the Royal Neighbors of America in 1909.

To this, the plaintiff has replied that an agent of the order who filled out the application blank for the decedent was responsible for the mistake and that the insured never intended to deceive or mislead the company in any particular.

Andrew Johnson and George B. Sjosellus are in court for the plaintiff and Jaques & Hudson appear for the Mystic Workers of the World.

How to Cure a La Grippe Cough.

"Coughs that hang on" demand treatment. Stop and think! Reason and common sense tell you that it is folly to "grin and bear it." Those racking la grippe coughs that wrench the body and cause soreness and pains in the lungs yield more quickly to Foley's Honey and Tar than to any other treatment. Forty years' record of successes proves this. For coughs, colds, croup and other distressing ailments of throat, chest, lungs, larynx and bronchial tubes, you can find nothing that will compare with this reliable remedy. Sold everywhere.

WHERE THEY HAVE FOUGHT FOR FEET

Village in Flanders Captured By Allies and Germans Alternately.

(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)

Ghent, Jan. 5.—St. Georges, one of the points where the Germans and allies have fought, not for miles of territory, but for feet, almost inches, is a ruin today. More than that, it is a heap of debris. Other towns and villages in Flanders are marked at least by standing walls; St. Georges is a wilderness of bricks, mortar, charred roof timbers and tiles.

There is nobody who knows exactly how many times the allies and Germans have fought in the place, and how often it has changed hands. The French and English have it today, and the Germans tomorrow.

St. Georges is located about two miles southeast of Lombardzyde, and formerly marked the point where the Yser and Plasschen canals connected. Today the village is an island in the "inundation" district. A small causeway gives access to the place. Over this German sailors and marines have again and again attacked the place to the accompaniment of German artillery fire and the rattle of the machine guns of the allies. On one occasion German and allies heavy artillery bombarded the place simultaneously, and machine guns sent hails of bullets into it from three sides. Why—nobody knows. The Germans suspected that the allied troops were in St. Georges, and the allies suspected that the Germans were in it, each side taking it for granted that the bombardment itself was a sham maneuver.

But for some days now the English have had the place, keeping it practically by virtue of the many machine guns they have so posted that the narrow causeway is swept by their fire. This machine gun fire in and about St. Georges never stops. The slow "tacktack" of the English guns, and the more rapid sputter of the French "mitrailleuses" keeps up day and night. Responsible for this are the German sailors and marines who continue in their efforts to retake the village.

When the wind sweeps over St. Georges it carries with it the smell of decomposing bodies. In the stillness of the night one hears from there the groaning of wounded—of men who ventured into or near the place, were shot down, and then were found to be beyond the reach of those who would succor them. To venture into the open along the causeway means either to die or be wounded. The very heaps of debris seem animated by the desire to carry further the destruction of which they are the result.

At night also one hears the incessant coughing of the French African and Anglo-Indian troops, who seem unable to stand the rigors of the cold and damp climate of Flanders.

On the outskirts of the village stands a little house, upon whose door have been chalked the words: "Franctireur—already disposed of." Not far from the door lies the body of a man with the fingers still about the handle of an open umbrella.

The dyke giving access to the place would not hold the bodies of those who have died in the effort to either take or retake this island in the "inundation lake."

COUDERAY POSTOFFICE ROBBER IS SENTENCED

Madison, Wis., Jan. 28.—Charles Howell was sentenced to two years in Leavenworth penitentiary for burglarizing the postoffice at Couderay, Wis. Two other charges of burglary and blackmail were nolled. Howell stole a book of money order blanks, filled out a number of them for $100 and mailed them to various Salvation Army branches. The charge of blackmail resulted from discovery of letters sent by Howell to the Rust-Owen Lumber company at Drummond, Wis., demanding $8,000.

Desperate Fighting in West.

Desperate fighting marked yesterday, the anniversary of Emperor William's birthday, at many points on the western front, but the claims of the contending armies as to the results of these engagements are widely at variance. Generally speaking, the allies say the German attacks were costly failures, while the Germans assert that the French and British, but notably the British, attacks in Flanders broke down.

Reports of the engagement in the North Sea last Sunday have developed a similar discrepancy. The war lords of Great Britain insist that the battle cruiser Lion was the only big ship to be seriously damaged. On the other hand wireless reports from Berlin admit the loss of the German cruiser Bluecher, but assert that the Germans inflicted greater punishment than this on the English.

French Statement.

Paris, Jan. 28, 2:45 p. m.—The French official announcement given out by the war office this afternoon makes claim to uninterrupted French successes on Jan. 27, the anniversary of the birth of Emperor William, a day upon which the Germans had determined to be particularly aggressive.

The French were successful in every one of their endeavors and they estimate the German casualties during the days of Jan. 25, 26 and 27 at no fewer than 20,000 men. At Craonne alone they say the German losses amounted to 6,000 men. In this particular fight the French give their losses at 800. The announcement reads as follows:

"Jan. 27 was the anniversary of the birthday of Emperor William of Germany. Our adversaries announced for this day a very particular effort, but if it was made by them it did not result to their advantage.

"The day was a good one for us along all the front. Every German attack was repulsed, while every French attack made progress.

"In Belgium the positions of the enemy were shelled and several of his trenches were demolished. To the south of the Lys the British artillery shelled the roads over which the German troops were moving, as well as the points where they were assembling.

"In the sectors of Arras, Albert, Raye, Noyon and Soissons there was intermittent cannonading and rifle fir-ing at various points. The infantry of the enemy endeavored to come out of its trenches to attack, but it was at once driven back by severe fire.

"In the region of Craonne the total losses suffered by the Germans on the 25th and 26th of January undoubtedly reached the equal of one brigade (a brigade in the German army totals 6,000 men). The German prisoners in our hands all are under the impression that they have been strongly checked. Our losses in dead, wounded and missing for these two days are about 800 men, and this can be explained by two things, first, the severity of the fighting, and second, by a partial landslide in an old quarry in which two companies of French soldiers had taken shelter during the bombardment. As was reported yesterday, these men were shut up in the quarry, and they doubtless were taken prisoners by the enemy. During the first part of this attack our counter-attacks resulted in bringing again into our possession all of the territory in dispute.

"In the sector of Reims and from Reims to the Argonne, there was an artillery duel in which our heavy artillery mastered the batteries of the enemy. As was set forth in our announcement of last night, three attacks in the Argonne, at Fontaine Madame, delivered at 7 a. m., 10 a. m., and 1 p. m., were completely repulsed. There was the same outcome to three German attacks in the forest of Dailly, to the southeast of St. Mihiel. Detachments of the enemy were driven back at Parroy and at Bures.

"In the Vosges we have made perceptible progress to the north of Senones. On the slope of Mount Henri, we made an equal advance to the southwest of Senones and in the vicinity of Ban-de-Sapt, near Launois, we gained ground and broke in upon the supplementary defenses of the enemy.

"We made progress also in Alsace. In the region of Aimmerzweiller and Burnhaupt-le-Bas the territory occupied by us was retained. Near Cernay the attack of a German battalion was repulsed.

"Judging from the number of dead found on the field of battle on Jan. 25, 26 and 27 to the east of Ypres, at La Bassee, at Craonne, in the Argonne, in the Woevre and in the Vosges, the losses of the enemy these three days would appear to be greater than 20,000 men."

Russian Statement.

Petrograd, Jan. 28.—The general staff of the Russian army today gave out a communication on the progress of the fighting with the Teutonic allies. It is dated Jan. 26 and reads as follows:

"In East Prussia fighting has continued in the region of Malwischken and Lasdehnen.

"On the right bank of the lower Vistula there took place again an artillery engagement and encounters with advance parties of the enemy. In front of this river, in the neighborhood of Skempe we were successful in forcing back several German battalions.

"The night of Jan. 26 and the day following saw no important changes on the left bank of the Vistula. The Germans, however, delivered repeated attacks against our front in the vicinity of Bollmow, but in every case they were driven back. During one of the engagements some detachments of the enemy who had been successful in gaining our trenches were dispatched at the point of the bayonet.

"Attacks made by the enemy in the vicinity of the villages of Rabskebudy and Kamion also resulted in failure.

"In the course of Jan. 26 our artillery bombarded with success the lines of the enemy and reduced to silence a German battery located at the village of Atlanka, which is near Sochaczew.

"In Galicia the engagements are developing on a large scale. The front extends from Mount Dukla to Mount Wyszkow. On the right wing of this front we have captured 100 prisoners and two machine guns.

"In Bukowina on Jan. 25 in the vicinity of Waleputna, to the southwest of Kimpolung, there was an artillery engagement."

The general staff of the Russian army of the Caucasus gives out the following official announcement concerning the progress of the fighting in that country:

"On the morning of Jan. 26, Turkish forces in the vicinity of Sultan Selim, in the Tchoruk country, delivered a series of vigorous attacks on our positions, all of which we repulsed. In the vicinity of Olti, fifty-five miles west of Kars, the Turks, following their custom of recent days of taking the offensive, sent forward an enveloping column. This column was, however, thrown back by us and the Turks sustained heavy losses.

"In Azerbaijan province, Persia, the activity of the enemy is increasing. It had been noticed particularly that numerous bands of Kurds, supported by regular Turkish troops, have undertaken offensive operations in the vicinity of Khoi, but they everywhere have been repulsed.

"Along the other Caucasian fronts on Jan. 26, the military activity was limited to rifle firing."

German Statement.

Berlin, Jan. 28, by wireless to London, 2:30 p. m.—Victory for German troops in two important engagements along the western front is announced in an official announcement from the war office today. In the region of Craonne another section of the trenches of the allies was captured, the report states, and in Upper Alsace the French retreated in disorder after suffering heavy losses in attacks on the German positions. In the eastern campaign two small defeats of the Russians are reported. The statement follows:

"Western theater of war:

"The villages of Middelkerke and Klype, on the coast of Flanders, were bombarded by the enemy's artillery.

"In the heights of Craonne another 500 meters of trenches adjoining on the east of the position we captured on the day before yesterday, was taken from the enemy. French attacks were repulsed without difficulty.

"The enemy has suffered heavy losses in the battles between the 25th and the 27th of January. Over 1,500 dead Frenchmen were found on the battlefields. Including those reported on the 27th, 1,100 prisoners fell into the hands of our troops.

"In the Vosges several French attacks in the neighborhood of Senonges and Ban de Sapt were repulsed with considerable losses to the enemy. One officer and fifty Frenchmen were taken prisoners. Our losses were quite small.

"In Upper Alsace, along the front line between Lower Aspach, Heidweiler and the Wurzbacher forest, the French attacked our position at Aspach, Heidweiler, Ammerzweiller and in the Wurzbacher forest. Their attacks were repulsed everywhere, with heavy losses to the enemy. Their losses were especially large south of Heidweiler and Ammerzweiller, where the French retreated in disorder. Five French machine guns were captured.

The Hot Springs of Arkansas

America's Greatest Resort the Year Around. Where Hope Is Renewed, Disease and Pain Banished Away and Joyous Health Restored.

For beauty of surroundings, splendid climate the year around, recreations, social features, and above all, health, Hot Springs, Arkansas, undoubtedly surpasses all other resorts in America. Nearly everyone who spends even a few days in Hot Springs falls in love with the place and returns year after year.

The world-famous baths, radio active to a marked degree, offer almost sure relief for Rheumatism, Gout, Neuralgia, Malaria, Locomotor Ataxia (earlier stages), Bright's Disease (when not too far advanced), Liver and Bladder troubles, Catarrhal troubles, Women's diseases, Skin and Blood diseases, and other troubles of a nature kindred to those above mentioned.

From the dawn of American history—and dating back hundreds of years in Indian lore—Hot Springs has been noted for its healing waters and the U. S. Government as early as 1832 recognized the wonderful powers of these waters and set these springs aside—making of it the First National Park Reserve.

The fact that "Uncle Sam" is in control is sufficient insurance against exorbitant charges, and visitors or tourists come to Hot Springs feeling every confidence that their welfare will be jealously guarded.

The Army and Navy Hospital, located here, reports 90 per cent of its patients as being returned to duty. This is a fair indication of the certainty of relief or cure that sufferers may expect.

COLDEST OF THE WINTER

extreme Northwest, and the cold is moving east and south. Zero weather prevailed in Michigan, Indiana and Illinois, and with the movement of the cold center, it is expected that they will get some more tonight.

Some have thought that this spell of cold weather would nearly make a record. Not so, however, says Mr. Richardson. And he quotes statistics to prove it.

As he puts it, the meanest mean weather Duluth ever experienced in forty-three years, the time records have been kept here, was on Jan. 24, 1904, when the average temperature for the day was 28 deg. below zero. The highest it got that day was 20 deg. below and the lowest was 37. The cold wave, of which that was a part, started on Jan. 23 and ended on Feb. 4. In January, 1875, zero or below weather prevailed all of the month except three days.

In January, 1912, zero or below-zero weather prevailed from the 1st to the 21st, continuously, the lowest mark reached being 36 deg. below. There were, in all, twenty-six days that month on which zero or below was registered. January, 1911, was much the same, but with not such low averages.

Compared to these, this cold spell has gone only seven days, which is not so much. The coldest day last winter was on Feb. 26, when the lowest temperature equaled that of today.

Central States Shiver.

Chicago, Jan. 28.—The crest of the cold wave which swept down from the Northwest today embraced the Central states. Iowa experienced temperatures from 18 to 20 deg. below zero; Northern Illinois shivered at 8 to 10 below and Missouri towns reported 6 to 8 deg. below. The wave, according to Henry J. Cox, chief of the Federal weather bureau here, was headed east and already temperatures in the Far Northwest had showed some moderation, though still more frigid than in the Central states.

Minnesota showed 20 to 30 deg. below and North Dakota to 15 below, while in the Far Northwest the mercury lifted away from its extreme levels.

The coldest day of the year dawned for Chicago with the mercury at 8 deg. below zero between 5 and 6 a. m. Three hours later 5 deg. below was the official temperature announced by the weather bureau.

Various sections of the city reported all the way from 1 to 10 deg. lower temperature than the official reading, and outlying suburbs, particularly along the lake shore, boasted of 20 to 25 deg. below by village thermometers.

Ottumwa, Iowa, Jan. 28.—The temperature here today registered the lowest in years when the weather station reported 22 deg. below zero at 7 o'clock today. This is a drop of 17 deg. in twenty-four hours. There has been no snow or wind accompanying the cold sufficient to interfere with railroad traffic.

Cold at Omaha.

Omaha, Neb., Jan. 28.—The coldest weather of the present winter was experienced here early today when the official thermometer registered 13 deg. below zero.

18 Below at Des Moines.

Des Moines, Iowa, Jan. 28.—Cold weather records in Des Moines and Iowa for several years were broken early today when the thermometer went to 18 deg. below zero at 7 o'clock. Reports from points outside indicated temperatures of from 18 to 20 below. The Des Moines temperature was official.

Severe in Wisconsin.

Milwaukee, Wis., Jan. 28.—Wisconsin is suffering from the severest cold weather of the winter, the temperature ranging all the way from 15 to 31 degrees below zero. The coldest point heard from up to 9 o'clock this forenoon was at Superior, where 31 degrees below zero was the registration. La Crosse reports 29 below, Oshkosh 24, Racine 16, while in Milwaukee the government thermometer shows 15 below.

To Overcome Winter Complexion Troubles

If the chill air causes your skin to dry and scale or become unduly red or spotted, before you go to bed spread a thin layer of ordinary mercolized wax over your entire face. Remove next morning with warm water. This is the ideal complexion treatment for the winter girl. The wax gently absorbs the dead particles of surface skin, so gradually there's no discomfort. This gives the underlying skin a chance to breathe and show itself. In a week or so the new and younger skin is wholly in evidence and you have a really matchless complexion. Naturally all its defects disappear with the discarded cuticle—as chaps, roughness, blotches, pimples, freckles, blackheads. Usually an ounce of mercolized wax, procurable at any drugstore, is enough to renovate even the worst complexion.

Wrinkles need bother you no more if you'll use this simple face wash: Powdered saxolite, 1 oz., dissolved in witch hazel, ½ pt. Just one application will affect even the deepest lines, and soon your skin will be smooth as a child's.

PRESIDENT VETOES THE IMMIGRATION BILL AND TELLS CONGRESS WHY

Seeks to Close Asylum.

"It seeks to all but close entirely the gates of asylum which have always been open to those who could find nowhere else the right and opportunity of constitutional agitation for what they conceived to be the natural and inalienable rights of men; and it excludes those to whom the opportunities of elementary education have been denied without regard to their character, their purposes, or their natural capacity.

"Restrictions like these adopted earlier in our history as a nation would have materially have altered the course and cooled the humane ardors of our politics. The right of political asylum has brought to this country many a man of noble character, and elevated purpose, who was marked as an outlaw in his own less fortunate land, and who has yet become an ornament to our citizenship and to our public councils.

Must Stand Amazed.

"The children and the compatriots of these illustrious Americans must stand amazed to see the representatives of their nation now resolved, in the fullness of our national strength and at the maturity of our great institutions, to risk turning such men back from our shores without test of quality or purpose. It is difficult for men to believe that the full effect of this feature of the bill was realized when it was framed and adopted, and it is impossible for me to assent to it in the form in which it is here cast.

"The literacy test and the tests and restrictions which accompany it constitute an even more radical change in the policy of the nation. Hitherto we have generously kept our doors open to all who were not unfitted by reason of disease and incapacity for self-support or such personal records and antecedents as were likely to make them a menace to our peace and order or to the wholesome and essential relationships of life. In this bill it is proposed to turn away from tests of character and of quality and to impose tests which exclude and restrict; for the new tests here embodied are not tests of quality or of character or of personal fitness, but tests of opportunity. Those who come seeking opportunities are not to be admitted unless they have already had one of the chief opportunities they seek—the opportunity of education. The object of such provisions is restriction, not selection.

Right of People.

"If the people of this country have made up their minds to limit the number of immigrants by arbitrary tests and so reverse the policy of all the generations of Americans that have gone before them, it is their right to do so. I am their servant and have no license to stand in their way. But I do not believe that they have. I respectfully submit that no one can quote their mandate to that effect. Has any political party ever avowed a policy of restriction in this fundamental matter, gone to the country on it and been commissioned to control its legislation? Does this bill rest upon the conscious and universal assent and desire of the American people? I doubt it. It is because I doubt it that I make bold to dissent from it. I am willing to abide by the verdict, but not until it has been rendered. Let the platform of parties speak out upon this policy and the people pronounce their wish. The matter is too fundamental to be settled otherwise.

"I have no pride of opinion on this question. I am not foolish enough to profess to know the wishes and ideals of America better than the body of her chosen representatives knows them. I only want instructions direct from those whose fortunes with ours and all men's are involved."

Japan Explains.

Tokio, Jan. 28.—The foreign office today issued a statement concerning the present negotiations between Japan and China in which it is declared that these diplomatic exchanges "contain nothing of a nature to disturb the territorial integrity of China, or anything conflicting with the spheres of influence now enjoyed by other powers in China."

I Took Cold It Settled In My Kidneys.

I Used Peruna. Am all Right Now. I owe my Health to Peruna.

Mrs. Anna Linder, R. F. D. 5, Dassel, Meeker Co., Minn., writes: "For two years I suffered with that terrible disease, chronic catarrh.

"Fortunately, I saw your advertisement in my paper. I got your advice, and I took Peruna. Now I am well and the mother of two children. I owe it all to Peruna.

"I would not be without that great tonic for twice its cost, for I am well and strong now. I cannot speak in too high terms of its value as a medicine."

DEFECTIVE PAGE

DULUTH HARBORS AN ARSENAL

This information was brought to us by a breathless individual--probably of one of the allied nations—who, after we had calmed down somewhat, further startled us with the announcement that the man in charge appeared to be a German.

A large storeroom, so it appeared, on Superior street, mind you; lower side, between Lake and First avenue east, was crammed full of implements of warfare.

Investigation followed immediately, our informant leading us along the upper side of East Superior street until opposite W. S. Kirk's Army and Navy Goods Store at No. 20. No amount of urging would bring him closer, so we, being thus far, went over. Mr. Hurst, the manager, who, by the way, may be English, said he would "bite" when we told him of the above incident. Well, anyway, referring back to a remark of our "informant," you wouldn't believe it, the things they have in that place—guns, swords, knives, bayonets, cannon shells and other military weapons were only a few of the things we saw. Because, as Mr. Hurst said, the United States is a neutral nation, so consequently the demand for firearms is limited. All these guns, and in fact everything in the store—for store it is—has been purchased from the U. S. government by Mr. W. S. Kirk, who is the owner of this and four other stores just like it.

Mr. Kirk has been in this business for thirty years buying goods from our government and reselling them. It's interesting to know that all the goods in this store have been inspected by a government inspector. A shoe was shown us that had been sawed through the center in the course of inspection—and a well built shoe it was. Blankets, cloth, sox, uniforms, coats, etc., all receive inspection by government officials before they are accepted. We were told that some concerns, endeavoring to build up a business along the line of Mr. Kirk, will buy goods rejected by the government. Of course, goods rejected are faulty in the respect that they are not up to standard. The W. S. Kirk company refuses to even bid on such goods.

Mr. Kirk, so we are informed, takes a particular pride in the merchandise he handles, claiming that goods that are not good enough to pass U. S. inspection are not good enough for his stores. This probably accounts for his wonderful success.

We were shown things made for the U. S. army or navy that we thought could only be found in the National Museum. Here is a gun that was made by J. H. Hall at Harper's Ferry in the year 1838. It is a breech-loading flint lock rifle. The percussion lock was adopted just four years later.

We were shown a Colt's revolver that probably did more towards making the name "Colt's" stand for good firearms than any other gun they ever made before or since.

This was during the Civil war; the Remington Arms company was away behind on orders for revolvers using a center fire shell, and Col. Samuel Colt put out his revolver with a contrivance for loading powder and shot into the chamber. Although this revolver used caps and required a longer time to load than the Remington, it became a favorite weapon among many of the Northern soldiers.

There are relics of all kinds and descriptions. Here we find a general's sword, with his name engraved on it; a Cuban bolo, heavy as an axe and dull as a hoe; a Filipino knife, ground down to a keen edge—this weapon we couldn't help but think had a history.

One thing that struck us very forcibly was the low prices on U. S. wearing apparel. For instance, some heavy, long blue military overcoats, wool lined, were priced at $5.00. These coats cost the government $20 apiece, but owing to lessons learned from the European war, grass green uniforms are now being adopted, this color being harder to see than navy blue. So you see it costs the government money to keep in style.

What Thin Folks Should Do to Gain Weight

Physician's Advice for Thin, Undeveloped Men and Women.

Thousands of people suffer from excessive thinness, weak nerves and feeble stomachs who, having tried advertised flesh-makers, food-fads, physical culture stunts and rub-on creams, resign themselves to life-long skinniness and think nothing will make them fat. Yet their case is not hopeless. A recently discovered regenerative force makes fat grow after years of thinness, and is also unequaled for repairing the waste of sickness or faulty digestion and for strengthening the nerves. This remarkable discovery is called Sargol. Six strength-giving, fat-producing elements of acknowledged merit have been combined in this peerless preparation, which is endorsed by eminent physicians and used by prominent people everywhere. It is absolutely harmless, inexpensive and efficient.

A month's systematic use of Sargol should produce flesh and strength by correcting faults of digestion and by supplying highly concentrated fats to the blood. Increased nourishment is obtained from the food eaten, and the additional fats that thin people need are provided. Boyce Drug Store and other leading druggists supply Sargol and say there is a large demand for it.

While this new preparation has given splendid results as a nerve-tonic and vitalizer, it should not be used by nervous people unless they wish to gain at least ten pounds of flesh.

HEARINGS ARRANGED

Program on Efficiency and Economy Bill Has Been Settled.

County Option Bill Favorably Reported By Senate Temperance Committee.

By a Staff Correspondent.

St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 28.—(Special to The Herald.)—At a meeting between representatives of the efficiency and economy commission appointed by Governor Eberhart and the house committee that is to have charge of the bill proposed by the commission, a program for hearings on the measure was outlined yesterday afternoon.

The hearings will begin next Monday afternoon. The first will be held in the house chamber, and members of both branches of the legislature will be urged to attend.

At this meeting members of the commission will give a general presentation of the measure, after which anybody who cares to speak in opposition will be given a chance.

Speakers in behalf of the commission will be Charles P. Craig of Duluth, chairman; Judge John F. McGee of Minneapolis, Chester A. Congdon of Duluth, Prof. John H. Gray of the state university, and Former Senator John Moonan of Waseca.

Other hearings will follow rapidly, as follows:

Thursday, Feb. 4—Consideration of the department of public domain.

Monday, Feb. 8.—Department of public welfare.

Thursday, Feb. 11.—Department of public education.

Monday, Feb. 15.—Department of labor and commerce.

Thursday, Feb. 18.—Department of agriculture.

Tuesday, Feb. 20.—Civil service.

The members of the senate committee on civil administration, which has the bill in the senate, will have a special invitation to attend these hearings.

The program calls for a rapid study of the bill, with ample opportunity for full presentation of its details and for the hearing of any objections that may be offered against it.

Under the plan proposed, the bill should be before both houses for action before the end of February.

County Option Bill.

With the casting vote of Chairman P. A. Gandrud as the deciding factor, the senate temperance committee late yesterday decided to report favorably on Senator F. H. Peterson's "official" county option bill.

The measure was the subject of a public hearing in the senate chamber earlier in the afternoon, when adherents and opponents of the measure discussed its good and bad points for nearly three hours.

Immediately after the conclusion of the hearing the committee went into session to take action on the bill. Several typographical errors were corrected by an amendment and then Van Hoven proposed that the bill be laid over so that the committee on judiciary could be consulted with regard to Section 2, which provides for the attestation of signatures to the petition calling for an election. After some discussion it was decided to put the vote on the bill as it stood. Senator Ward objected and while he said that he stood for prohibition and would vote for the county option bill on the floor of the senate he thought it better to postpone action on the measure as it stood.

Senators voting for the bill were P. A. Gandrud, Fred D. Vibert, J. L. Vermilya, Theodore C. Blomgren and E. E. Lobeck. Those who opposed its recommendation for passage were John W. Pauly, Albert A. L. Ward, Peter Van Hoven and Pierre A. Hilbert.

While women predominated at the hearing on the suffrage bill the previous day, it was a throng of men that filled the senate chamber at the hearing on the county option bill. Several remarkable arguments were presented by speakers on both sides, and telling points, particularly in the address of Dr. Freeman of Minneapolis, were frequently applauded. For the opponents to the bill one peculiar phase of the question was presented by Julius Moersch, representing the German-American alliance of the state, who declared that he was opposed to the bill because it was the first step toward total prohibition. This statement was greeted with loud applause by the anti-saloon forces.

For the anti-saloon forces the speakers were Rev. S. M. Dick, D. D.; Dr. James M. Freeman of St. Marks' Episcopal church, Minneapolis, Dr. L. A. Crandall, the well known Minneapolis divine; C. N. Chadbourne, representing the Federation of Men's Church Clubs of Minneapolis; Representatives W. I. Norton, who assisted considerably in drafting the bill; Elias Rachie, a prohibitionist of many years' activity and G. B. Stafford.

Those who opposed the committee taking favorable action on the matter were Thomas Spillane, representing Rochester brewing interests; James A. Wharton of the Manufacturers' and Merchants' Association of Duluth; Julius Moersch of Minneapolis, and F. W. Zollman, counsel for the State Brewers' association.

Immigration Work.

The house committee on public accounts and expenditures, acting as an adjunct to the house committee on appropriations, yesterday afternoon had before it Fred D. Sherman, state immigration agent, to explain the pending bill proposing to increase the appropriation for state immigration work from $25,000 a year to $100,000 a year.

Mr. Sherman explained how the immigration work was being conducted, and said that he believed that full value was being received by the state for the money now spent, and that full value would result from the increased appropriation that is being asked for.

Representative Spooner wanted to know if it was possible that the immigration commission's advance agent, who collected the names of prospective settlers from other states, might hand copies of these names to real estate dealers for their profit.

Mr. Sherman said he had the utmost confidence in his subordinates, and had never known of such a thing being done.

"Is it not true," asked Mr. Spooner, "that real estate men have accompanied the state immigration car?"

Mr. Sherman thought not.

"Do you mean to say," said Mr. Spooner, "that there are not two land dealers, now about the capitol, who have accompanied the car?"

Mr. Sherman said that there was no way of preventing their accompanying the car on its travels, but that they could be stopped from soliciting from prospective customers of the state, and that they were prevented from such work.

A sub-committee, with Representative Carl G. Malmberg as chairman, was appointed by Chairman Sawyer to report on a plan for state listing of lands offered for sale, for the benefit of intending settlers.

Monday the committee will take up an investigation of the state drainage work, with Representative G. W. Dealand of Worthington as chairman of the sub-committee in charge.

State Banks.

The house committee on banks and banking yesterday afternoon voted to introduce a committee bill authorizing state banks to join the Federal reserve system. Another committee bill that will be introduced makes the reserve requirements for state banks the same as for national banks—15 per cent on demand deposits and 5 per cent on time deposits. The committe will also introduce a bill allowing notaries public who are bank stockholders to take acknowledgments of protests, and another making banks liable only for actual damages when they erroneously refuse to cash checks.

Senator O. H. Griggs of Virginia, chairman of the senate committee on public domain, has announced a public hearing for Friday afternoon on the R. C. Dunn bills to assert and protect the state's right to the ore deposits underlying the waters of meandered lakes and streams. It is understood that a number of persons opposed to the state's setting up this right will appear against the bills.

Residence Districts.

The house committee on cities yesterday afternoon voted to recommend for passage the bill by Representative Brown of St. Paul to extend to first-class cities having home rule charters the law of 1913 authorizing cities of the first-class to establish exclusive residence districts. There is a doubt, it seems, whether this law applies to Duluth and St. Paul, though Duluth has been using it, and the purpose of this bill is to remove this doubt.

Representative Sam Y. Gordon of Brown's Valley is ill at his room at the Merchants, suffering from a severe attack of grip. It was feared for a time that he was threatened with pneumonia, but his condition greatly improved yesterday. By a rising vote yesterday afternoon the house adopted a resolution of condolence offered by Representative W. J. North of Duluth, and Speaker Flowers appointed Mr. North and Representative Theodore Christianson of Dawson to visit Mr. Gordon and convey the sentiments expressed in Mr. North's resolution.

The senate committee on elections yesterday afternoon recommended for passage the bill by Senator Campbell changing the primary election day from Tuesday to Monday to accommodate traveling men and railroad men who are home over Sunday at that time. The house has killed a similar bill by the adoption of an adverse committee report.

BEATEN FOR PRESIDENT PRO TEM. OF THE SENATE

Of St. Peter, Who Was Defeated By Senator George H. Sullivan By a Vote of 36 to 28.

proposal, and in doing so said that while he was not advocating at that time an increase in passenger rates, at the same time the railroads were not getting an adequate revenue out of their passenger business. He quoted from the remarks of the interstate commerce commission, in discussing the recent proposals for freight rate increases in eastern territory, showing that the commission believed that passenger business does not pay its fair share of the cost of operating the railroads, while it is contributing largely to the increase in this cost. Mr. Slade pointed out that these remarks applied to territory east of Chicago that is much more thickly settled than Minnesota, and that if they are true as applied to that section, they certainly must be true as applied to Minnesota.

The proposal was a complete surprise, and it was laid over until the next meeting of the committee, which will be next week.

Representative Pendixen, author of the 2-cent fare law of 1913, under which the supreme court has ruled that the railroads can charge 3 cents a mile for the first five miles of any trip, when the legislature only intended to let the railroads charge 3 cents a mile for trips of five miles or less, and who had simply intended to amend the law to get around this ruling, said that the proposal was new and radical and that he was not ready to discuss it, and that the committee should give it careful consideration before adopting it.

Decided on Other Points.

He asked the railroad attorneys present whether it was not a fact that the supreme court of the United States, in upholding the 2-cent fare law of 1909, had not held the 2-cent rate to be fair. E. E. Lindley and M. L. Countryman of the Great Northern said that the court had not passed on that point, but had decided the case on other grounds.

Mr. Bendixen then said that it was evident that if the amendment were to be adopted, the railroads would immediately press for an increase in passenger rates.

Cough medicines, as a rule contain a large quantity of plain syrup. A pint of granulated sugar, with ½ pint of warm water, stirred for 2 minutes, gives you as good syrup as money can buy.

Then get from your druggist 2½ ounces Pinex (50 cents worth), pour into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with sugar syrup. This gives you, at a cost of only 54 cents, a full pint of really better cough syrup than you could buy ready made for $2.50—a clear saving of nearly $2. Full directions with Pinex. It keeps perfectly and tastes good.

It takes hold of the usual cough or chest cold at once and conquers it in 24 hours. Splendid for whooping cough, bronchitis and winter coughs.

It's truly astonishing how quickly it loosens the dry, hoarse or tight cough and heals and soothes the inflamed membranes in the case of a painful cough. It also stops the formation of phlegm in the throat and bronchial tubes, thus ending the persistent loose cough.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, combined with guaiacol, and has been used for generations to heal inflamed membranes of the throat and chest.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex," and don't accept anything else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

RAISING CATTLE IS PROFITABLE

Interesting Experiment Is Made By the Cloquet Lumber Company.

By a Staff Correspondent.

St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 28.—(Special to The Herald.)—Senator Fred D. Vibert, apropos of the suggestion made by C. P. Craig at Monday's meeting of the public affairs committee of the Duluth Commercial club that Northeastern Minnesota could profitably embark in the business of raising beef cattle, presents an interesting case in point.

"Last spring," sa'd Mr. Vibert to The Herald yesterday afternoon, "the Cloquet Lumber company made an experiment along this line through J. C. Campbell, its superintendent of logging. I have just received a letter from H. G. Stevens, auditor of the Duluth & Northeastern railroad, which gives the results of this experiment in detail.

"Mr. Campbell, pursuant to orders, went to St. Paul and bought ninety-six head of cattle. He describes them as "poor looking critters," ordinary feading stock. The cattle cost $5,585.86.

"It cost $819.69 to handle them, bringing the total cost to $6,405.55. They were not fed a dollar's worth of purchased fodder. They got their food in the woods during the summer, and after the pasturing was over, they lived on wild hay which was cut during the summer.

"All but thirteen of the animals were killed and fed to the camps. At the regular market price, plus freight, they brought $7,695.15. Counting thirteen cows that remain, and four calves, at $819.70, the total receipts were $7,695.17, or a net profit of $1,289.62 for practically nine months' investment."

SENATE WILL VOTE ON COUNTY OPTION BILL THURSDAY AFTERNOON

Peterson, O. H. Griggs and Charles E. Adams of St. Louis county should have gone to Senator George H. Sullivan of Stillwater for president pro tem of the senate is eminently fitting, in view of the fact that throughout his legislative service Senator Sullivan has stood like a rock on every vital issue affecting Northern Minnesota, in favor of the best interests of the North. The vote of Senator John A. Healy of Hibbing would also have been cast for him had he been present. The only vote against him was that of Senator Richard Jones of Duluth.

Automobile Bill Amended.

The senate this morning amended the Palmer bill revising the automobile law so as to increase the state license fees to provide that the surplus above expenses shall go into the road and bridge fund.

Senator R. C. Dunn was the author of the amendment increasing the state license from $1.50 to $5 for a three-year period. The amendment also provides that a man taking out a license during the period shall pay only for the time he uses the license. After adopting these amendments, the senate in committee of the whole advanced the bill to the calendar.

The house this morning adopted a resolution by Representative Sawyer of Minneapolis directing the committee on printing to make a thorough investigation into the whole subject of state printing and report a bill for reforms if it finds them needed. By Representative Novak, regulating the labeling and sale of patent medicines.

By Representative Dunleavy, making it a felony to hire private guards or for guards to come into the state without the permission of the governor. The bill is aimed at private guards employed by concerns whose men have struck.

By Representative Flinn, allowing a licensed barber to let his sons act as apprentices, regardless of the legal limit on the number of apprentices allowed.

Senator Denegre, making it unlawful for any person to trespass on railroad terminal yards or trains.

By Senator Campbell, making it the duty of "every pedestrian driving or operating" an automobile, bicycle or horse-drawn vehicle to stop at least fifty feet from railroad crossings and look and listen.

FUNDS FOR DRAINAGE

While it is impossible to figure precisely what the fund thus provided for will amount to, from the state records now available, it is estimated that fully $150,000 can be secured for this purpose from the lands the state proposes to sell during the present year.

The state will offer for sale during 1915 about 185,000 acres of land. About 75,000 acres of this land have been drained by direct appropriations. The state auditor's report shows that, while drainage costs on an average about $2 yer acre, lands appraised at $5 to $7 per acre have, after being drained, been sold at $9.50 to $29 per acre.

Allowing only an increase of $2 per acre on the 75,000 acres of drained land to be sold this year, the drainage revolving fund would be started with $150,000; and subsequent years' sales would increase the fund.

Would Benefit Largely.

As drainage not only benefits the submerged land that is drained, but also by opening up the submerged lands makes it possible to reach the higher land beyond it, this plan will work out incalculable benefits in the development of the state's idle acres.

The bill prepared by Mr. Bessette, which has been drawn by the attorney general and has his approval, proposes to amend Section 5209, General Statutes of 1913, by providing that the minimum price of state land shall be $5 plus the cost of drainage, with 8 per cent interest on such cost from the date it was paid to the time of sale, and it adds this provision:

"That in the advertisement of such sale the state auditor shall state that the land will be sold for not less than the appraised value with the cost of drainage and interest thereon added; and provided further, that when said land is sold and the payment therefor made, the cost of drainage and interest thereon shall be by the state treasurer credited to a revolving fund to be used for the further drainage of state lands under the supervision and direction of the state drainage commission, and the balance thereof credited as by the Constitution provided;" that is, to the permanent school funds of the state.

As the law now stands, the cost of drainage, when paid by the buyer of drained lands, goes into the permanent school funds though the cost of drainage has originally come out of the general revenue fund.

In view of the obvious opposition to further large appropriations for drainage, this plan, it would seem, will make ample provision for draining state lands without involving any appropriation whatever.

While the amount recoverable by this plan in the state land sales of 1915 would amount to $150,000, the fact that most of the buyers take the long time offered by the state in which to make payments will reduce the amount available for drainage the first year. However, the fund once started would grow rapidly, and in a short time would be ample for all drainage purposes.

Kill 500 Germans.

"The Germans gathered on the hill and began entrenching. They did not work long. With three volleys we swept the whole of the German left flank and in the space of thirty minutes the whole ground within reach of our guns was cleared. The Germans left 500 killed.

"Later the Germans tried to get around our left but here our Siberians met them and within a few minutes had them on the run again. Meanwhile two German guns, which were covering the movement, were silenced by our artillery, thanks to which we lost scarcely a man."

TRAIN GOES DOWN AN EMBANKMENT

Broken Rail Causes Wreck on C., M. & St. P.; No One Killed.

Green Bay, Wis., Jan. 28.—While speeding between Iron Mountain and Pembroke about midnight the Marquette-Chicago through train on the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad went down an eighteen-foot embankment. Three sleeping coaches were piled up at the foot of the embankment, but no one was killed, and no passengers was seriously injured. The car of Division Supt. J. M. Clifford was in the wreck, but the official was not hurt. A broken rail supposed by cold weather is given as the cause of the wreck.

The engine and one coach passed over the broken part safely, but the other coaches were toppled over the embankment.

RUNS AWAY FROM FARM; IS COMMITTED TO JAIL.

A few hours of freedom were not enough for Raymond Boyer, aged 27, who, with two others, attempted to escape from the work farm Jan. 21, and after attempting to break away again several times during the last week, he was brought into municipal court this morning by Supt. Fred Ward of the work farm. Boyer pleaded not guilty to a charge of attempting to escape and will be tried Tuesday.

Boyer, with Frank Hahn, aged 22, was committed on a sixty-day sentence Jan. 14. The pair, with Anthony Flink, left the farm the afternoon of Jan. 21. Hahn managed to get to Duluth before he was picked up by police, while Flnk and Boyer were caught by guards a short distance from the institution.

Hahn was re-sentenced to sixty-days in the county jail by Municipal Judge Cutting, but the other two men were kept at the work farm.

HOW YOU MAY THROW AWAY YOUR GLASSES

The statement is made that thousands wear eyeglasses who do not really need them. If you are one of these unfortunates, then these glasses may be ruining your eyes instead of helping them. Thousands who wear these "windows" may prove for themselves that they can dispense with glasses if they will get the following prescription filled at once: Go to any active drug store and get a bottle of Optona; fill a two-ounce bottle with warm water and drop in one Optona tablet. With this harmless liquid solution bathe the eyes two to four times daily, and you are likely to be astonished at the results right from the start. Many who have been told that they have astigmatism, eye-strain, cataract, sore eyelids, weak eyes, conjunctivitis and other eye disorders, report wonderful benefits from the use of this prescription. Get this prescription filled and use it; you may so strengthen your eyes that glasses will not be necessary. Thousands who are blind, or nearly so, or who wear glasses would never had required them if they had cared for their eyes in time. Save your eyes before it is too late! Do not become one of these victims of neglect. Eyeglasses are only like crutches and every few years they must be changed to fit the ever-increasing weakened condition, so better see if you can, like many others, get clear, healthy, strong magnetic eyes through the prescription here given.

Overpraise Is Worthless

New York Sun: It will probably be idle to comment again on the futility of overstatement in preliminary announcement, as it has often proved to be, to harp upon the worthlessness of overpraise in critical comment. Every one knows praise, and every public person knows criticism, but overpraise of unworthy ambition to stand among the first, "to be compelled to accept a place in the rear rank is not grateful.

LITTLE PRINCESS HAS THE SCARLET FEVER

PRINCESS BEATRICE OF SPAIN.

This little princess is down with scarlet fever. She is Beatrice, oldest daughter of the queen of Spain. She was born five and a half years ago. All the Spanish royal children are down with the disease.

But after all some one has to be there and there should always dwell within the breast the comforting thought that it is not imperative that one should remain there.

But nothing whatever, except harm, can be done by preliminary announcements which vastly overstate the case. If one is persuaded that by going to a certain auditorium on a certain evening he shall hear a singer equal to Lilli Lehmann as an interpreter of lieder and on arriving finds himself listening to an artist of real but limited abilities, that artist is sure to disappoint him. But if he goes expecting to hear little and is confronted with a genuine if not great art, backed by an interesting personality, he will go away pleased and tell his friends about the singer.

Doubtless the belief of the earnest and industrious press agents who wish to get exciting promises before the public is that unless people are induced to expect something extraordinary they will not go at all. It ought to be clear, however, that only a few can be coaxed to believe that they have heard the best when they have heard only the second best or worse, and that on the other hand there are already in this country artists who are not regarded as of the first rank, but who yet have a fair following and are making a living.

A. W. Ryan of St. Paul's Episcopal church performed the ceremony in the presence of the immediate relatives.

The service was read before an improvised altar of palms and pink roses, the couple standing under a bell of pink carnations. Pink roses were used about the other rooms.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin gown made with a train, a cape of white chiffon banded with real lace and pearls hanging from the shoulders to the end of the train. She wore in her hair an ostrich plume arranged with a pearl ornament, and carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley. The bridesmaid, Miss Violet McCabe, wore pink satin with an overdress of pink chiffon trimmed in marien fur and silver. She wore a Castle cap and carried an arm bouquet of pink roses. Mrs. McMillan, mother of the bride, wore lavender brocaded silk. Mrs. A. B. Kingsred, sister of the bride, wore black chiffon over black charmeuse. Mrs. F. W. Reno of Minneapolis, another sister, was gowned in black charmeuse and wore a corsage bouquet of violets and lilies of the valley.

The ceremony was followed by a wedding supper of twenty-five covers.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Reno and son, Jack, of Minneapolis, and Mrs. James Mahoney of Chicago.

PRESIDENT OF HOUSEWIVES' LEAGUE IS SUFFRAGIST

Woman's Journal: Mrs. Julian Heath, president of the Housewives' league and formerly an anti-suffrage leader, is on the committee for the ball of the New York Women's Political union, to be held in the Grand Central palace on Feb. 16, and she will be there as a good suffragist.

"Just as soon as I made the Housewives' league an economic factor," says Mrs. Heath, "the woman's vote became a necessity.

"Whenever a cold storage bill or any bill intimately connected with the home comes up before the commissions or legislatures we of the Housewives' league are asked to give our judgment upon it. If we give our judgment, why shouldn't it be registered? The only way we know of doing that is with the ballot."

COOKIES OF MANY KINDS

By MARY JANE McCLURE.

Graham Cookies—Rub one-half cup of pure leaf lard to a cream with one cup of sugar, add one well-beaten egg and one-half cup of sour cream. Sift into this mixture one-half teaspoon of soda and one-half teaspoon of salt. Stir in enough graham flour to make a stiff dough. Roll out one-fourth inch thick. Cut into fancy shapes and bake in a quick oven.

Grandmother's Cookies—One cup of sugar, one-half cup of pure leaf lard, one-half teaspoon of salt, one egg well beaten, two cups of flour in which two teaspoons of baking powder have been mixed, one cup of sweet milk and one teaspoon of lemon extract.

Brown Cookies—Boil together for five minutes the following ingredients: One cup of brown sugar, one cup of water, one cup of seeded raisins, one-half cup of leaf lard, one teaspoon of ground cinnamon, one-half teaspoon of nutmeg and a pinch of salt. Remove from the stove and let it cool. When cold add one level teaspoon of soda dissolved in hot water and add three and one-half cups of flour and one teaspoon of baking powder. Drop from teaspoon on greased pan and bake in moderate oven.

Wine Drops—Two eggs, two cups of sugar, one cup of molasses, three-fourths cup of coffee, one small teaspoon of salt, five large tablespoons of pure leaf lard, melted, two teaspoons of soda dissolved in the coffee, one teaspoon of cloves and one of cinnamon, one cup of raisins and five cups of flour. Drop by spoonfuls on buttered tins and bake in quick oven.

Rolled Oats Cookies—One cup of sugar, three-fourths cup of leaf lard, two eggs, one and one-half teaspoons of cinnamon, one teaspoon of soda, three-fourths cup of chopped raisins, two cups of rolled oats, one cup of sour milk. Add enough flour to stiffen and roll out, and bake in moderate oven.

Soft Cookies—Cream, one-third cup of leaf lard and one cup of sugar, add one cup of milk, and into this mixture sift three cups of flour and four teaspoons of baking powder; add three-fourths cup of cocoanut and beat smooth. Drop in small spoonfuls about three inches apart in a greased tin. Bake fifteen minutes in moderate oven.

Ginger Cookies—Two cups of New Orleans syrup, one cup of sugar, one cup of melted leaf lard, one cup of hot water, three teaspoons of soda, four teaspoons of ginger, and flour enough to make a stiff batter. Let stand until cold, roll without any more flour and without kneading.

N. B.—Pure leaf lard is the ideal shortening for cookies, for it is all shortening, does not contain any water, and the cookies will not dry out as quickly as if other kinds of shortening were used. Be particular to use a strictly pure leaf lard, as it is much superior to ordinary lard.

YOUNG FOLK PLEASURE-MAD

Craze to Be in Social "Swim" Is a Menace, Declare Dr. Powell and Five Other Minneapolis Pastors—"U" Students Going at Hot Pace; Parents Blamed.

One of the six Minneapolis pastors who addressed the Woman's club in that city last Tuesday on the social fever of the young people and their mad pursuit of pleasure, declaring that the parents are wholly to blame, was Rev. John Walker Powell, formerly of the Endion M. E. church of this city.

Rev. Mr. Powell left here three years ago to become head of the religious activities at the state university, but since then has become pastor of one of the largest Congregational churches in Minneapolis.

Parents Are to Blame.

The six pastors were requested by the Woman's club to diagnose the fever, which is declared to be driving the young people mad, and to suggest ways to stem the tide of extravagance in pleasure-seeking. The speakers were the Reverends H. P. Dewey, L. A. Crandall, J. E. Bushnell, W. P. Remington, J. W. Powell and James E. Freeman, who hold six of the largest pastorates in Minneapolis. There seemed to be a unanimity of opinion among the speakers that the young people are not to blame, but that the parents are wholly responsible for present conditions.

Students Going "Hot Pace."

Dr. Powell declared that parents have more direct control over the young people and that it is up to them to remedy prevailing conditions. Parents can control if they will, said Dr. Powell. In addition he said that the young people at the state university were going at a hot pace and that the college authorities were doing all in their power to control it. He thought feverish zest over social activities among university students an outgrowth of the extravagant pursuit of pleasure among the well-to-do young people of the city. Other pastors spoke along the same lines.

Rev. Mr. Crandall said:

"I can't understand this inordinate ambition to be in the social 'swim.' this continual desire to get ahead of others. The rush, the hurry, the nervous frenzy of today, makes us incapable of obtaining joy from the simpler, the greater things of life. We have lost or are losing the ability to get enjoyment from the glistening dew drop, the music of the birds, the laughter of the rippling brook, the beauty of the violet and the glory of the sunset."

Victims of Systems.

"We are all victims," said the Rev. Mr. Freeman, "of systems of one kind or another. We do things, not because we approve them or because they appeal to us, but simply because that invisible intangible thing we call custom regulates and controls us. We talk about independence but we do not know what it means. We despise artificiality and then practice it. We force our children into social habits, not because they want to, but simply because custom says we must.

"For one I do not condemn the children or young people. I think the life among them in this city, so far as I have observed it, is splendidly wholesome and fine. To lodge a complaint against the youth of this city is a confession of weakness on the part of those who are charged with the responsibility of our social well-being."

OBSERVATIONS

By PEGGY PEABODY

Be Regular in Your Habits.

Why are we not more regular in our habits when we know that regularity in all things points to not only health but most every success in life?

The troubles of many of us begin in the morning, or perhaps more strictly speaking, the night before, for late hours make late risers, and for that reason there is not one in five who is not obliged to catch a certain train that allows the necessary time to dress, eat properly and reach the railroad station in a proper mental and physical state.

There are always a certain number who board the train just as it is leaving the station and they are invariably the same offenders morning after morning. Then there are those who make no outward show of their liking for an extra nap who compromise by losing their breakfast or by snatching it while putting on their outer garments.

Any of the above-mentioned practices lead to indigestion and kindred ills, and the marvel is that these people live to repeat the performance with unflagging regularity year after year. Leisure to dress and eat one's breakfast without fear of losing the train should be allotted by each one if health is to be maintained. The morning walk to the train could then be turned into an aid for health and digestion.

To say that a person employed from 8 or 9 o'clock in the morning until 5 or 6 o'clock at night should make their bed time not later than 10 o'clock is a stringent rule, when we know that the only recreation they get is during the hours following the evening meal or on Sunday and holidays. However, the health of the average working man and woman depends upon a certain amount of sleep and the regularity with which it is taken. If such a person is up until after midnight continuously, in the natural course of events, the health will suffer, if not this year, then next.

I believe that plenty of sleep is the first essential to the continued well-being of anyone, and the question of food of second importance. Both are neglected more than other requisites.

To keep well, get at least eight hours sleep and as much more as you can. If business permits, eat three nourishing meals and get all the outdoor exercise possible, and while you work devote your entire energies to whatever you have in hand.

DON'T REPEAL THE ELWELL LAW.

Don't repeal the Elwell law.

Maybe we could have a better law than this one, under which the same good could be accomplished, but no such a one has as yet been offered. In the meantime the present statute is operating well and it would be a mistake to take it off the books.

The method of operation of the Elwell law is such that it need not become a burden to any county. The improvements it makes possible can be taken or left at the will of the commissioners, and if for financial or any other reasons it is considered not desirable to take up the work provided for by this law, then the work need not be taken up.

On the other hand, if a county needs roads or road improvements there is no quicker or better way to get them than by application of the terms of the Elwell law. It makes it possible for any county in the state to get these advantages without having to wait indefinitely for them, and in that way it enhances the potential value of rural property by making it possible at any time to add to the actual value.

According to Secretary McCarthy of the Northern Minnesota Development association, most of the opposition to the Elwell law is coming from counties that have not found and probably never will find it necessary or desirable to make use of the benefits of the law. Those counties that have taken advantage of its provisions realize the benefits from it. It is to these latter counties, therefore, that the state must look for support for the law.

Northern Minnesota has gained materially under its operation, therefore Northern Minnesota should be a unit in opposing its repeal. Southern Minnesota has gained much less, because it has taken less advantage of the opportunities offered; but it does not seem likely that a majority of the southern counties would persist in an attempt at the repeal of the law if they clearly understood its value and could be made to see that its terms cannot be forced upon them against their will.

We need good roads in Minnesota, as indeed they are needed in every state. The Elwell law makes it possible to get good roads now in localities that otherwise might have to wait many years for them. And the law is no burden to communities that do not want to benefit by it. It may not be a perfect law, but it is a good one, and should not be repealed.

One of the most unexpected things done so far at St. Paul is the advancement of this idea of adjourning the legislature on April 7.

GO TO IT!

Of special interest among the reports made to the Commercial club is that in which C. P. Craig emphasized the possibilities of this section of the country as a place for raising beef cattle. That Northern Minnesota is just the place for the dairy cow has already been demonstrated. Now comes the report of further investigation, showing that beef animals also could be raised here to greater advantage than in many other sections.

The problem of the cost of meat has been a more or less vexing one for most of the last ten years, not to mention its occasional prominence before that time. Every time the retailer or the wholesaler or the packer or anybody else takes it into his head to add another cent or nickel to the price of a "pound o' round" he explains by saying that the feed was short last season, or the cattle were diseased, or the summer was too dry, or some other remark that would lead the credulous to believe that Providence itself was deliberately operating to the detriment of our meat supply.

This proposition to raise beef cattle in Northern Minnesota offers a solution of at least a part of those difficulties. There is abundance of feed material; the climate is exceptionally healthy both for man and beast; although some seasons are less marked by rain than others, pronounced drouth is almost unknown here. And nowhere are there better marketing facilities than are to be had in the country about the Head of the Lakes.

This report ought to encourage capable men to look into the possibilities of raising beef cattle in this section. And once such a movement is begun, it will be only a matter of comparatively short time before cattle raising is definitely established in Northern Minnesota. It is an excellent suggestion and the opening is beyond question. It only needs somebody to go to it.

On these sub-zero mornings do you ever try to imagine yourself in the trenches?

THE EFFICIENCY AND ECONOMY BILL.

It is well that the legislative committees are planning to give a good amount of time to consideration of the efficiency and economy bill. It is a measure that can stand up under investigation, but at the same time is such a step in the arrangement of state affairs as ought to have thorough consideration before being adopted.

Up to date there seems to have been little disposition anywhere to reject the plan entirely, though attacks have been made upon one or another section of it. It is only natural, no doubt, that men whose positions would be directly affected should see objections to the portions of the bill that would have such effects. But before any changes are made in the bill as drawn, the legislators should consider carefully not only the clauses in which changes are sought, but the effect of the proposed changes on the plan as a whole.

In framing the efficiency and economy scheme the members of the state commission worked out a complete system of management of state affairs, and in the bill as they drew it the several parts of this system work into each other and are inter-dependent and inter-operative to such a degree that to change one portion materially might easily necessitate radical changes in other portions. And it would be difficult to see just where such a chain of amendments would lead to. This is something that must be kept constantly in mind by the legislators.

At least it is evident that the program marked out by the commission is to get serious and thorough attention in both houses, and this gives good ground for hope that it will receive strong support.

The man who gets excited over fishing on days like these is a real enthusiast.

AN ILLUSTRATION.

Col. Goethals, who has studied war and knows all about the canal zone, says the Panama canal is strong enough to resist any naval attack.

Several politicians who know nothing about war except that it pays dividends for the manufacture of arms and armor plate, etc., and who never have been long enough in the canal zone to get over the bite of the first mosquito they met there, say the canal is woefully weak from a defense standpoint.

Which serves pretty well to illustrate the difference between the points of view of politicians and other people.

A Virginia man who got tipped into a river saved himself by detaching his cork leg and using it as a life preserver, according to the reports. But even with that advertisement it isn't to be expected that there will be any rush to swap real legs for the other kind.

Mrs. Atkins.

The ladies, they are very kind in comin' round to see,
And helpin' till the money comes, and askin' how we be;

But oh, my thoughts they isn't 'ere, my thoughts are far away.

Then ses, "So you're a gunner's wife, an' aren't yer proud an' glad,
And ain't it fine as baby 'as a soldier for 'is dad?"
But gone three weeks the postcard came, as ses "Alive an' well;'
And if 'e got them things I sent, there's nothin' yet to tell.

Them stinkin' trenches on the 'ill, the chaps upon their knees,
The batt'ry somewhere 'idden near, the guns an' teams an' all;
And then I see the burstin' shell—I sees a gunner fall.

If only I could know the place where 'e must take 'is chance,
But there's a mort o' towns an' things acrost the map o' France:

Why American Exporters Fail

Commercial Agent Garrard Harris, Guatemala City, in the U. S. Commerce Reports.

"I want to go into the export trade: tell me a few pointers as to how to make a success of it," writes a business man of the United States, and adds that he has heard others say it is not very satisfactory, but he is willing to try it.

Assuming that competent traveling men are employed, that they get the orders, and arrangements are satisfactory as to credits, etc., the best pointers to be given are instances of what not to do and the citation of instances where other houses have lost money, customers and time. In the first place, it is fundamental to know how to pack the goods properly and to ship precisely what is ordered.

"What is the chief of your objections to doing business with the American houses?" I asked a Guatemala importer.

"They won't ship just what I order; they will substitute goods; and they are not careful as to packing, although there is improvement in that line now," he answered. And to illustrate with an incident current:

A business house in Guatemala had as customer an old-fashioned gentleman who lived about seventy miles in the interior. He had been wearing a certain sort of ready-made necktie for years. He came in to get a supply and his merchant did not have them, but he gave the one he had on to the merchant and asked that two dozen like it be ordered. The order was sent to a house in the United States the merchant had been dealing with to a limited extent. There was a certain clasp on the tie the old gentleman particularly liked. He owned a big coffee finca and was a good customer, so the merchant wrote explicit instructions to have the ties made just as per sample, and stated that the price was no object.

The house in the United States wrote that the ties desired were out of style twenty years before, and they were sending two dozen of the very latest fashion in ties. They came, packed in rather a heavy wooden box, and the merchant had to pay duty on the wood at silk rate, having gotten the box out of the custom house before he received the letter. He sent to Germany and obtained precisely what he ordered, receiving it on the return vessel; and the ties were neatly packed in a light tin box of almost featherweight.

That is one instance of how American houses lose trade. They should ship just exactly what is ordered.

Another story is going the rounds about a merchant in Quetzaltenango, who ordered a considerable bill of silk from a house in the United States, stipulating that it was to be cut in ten-yard lengths and shipped by parcel post, as he would save customs duties on packing and also freight. The shipment did not come as per order. It was packed in a double strong and heavy wooden case which weighed nearly as much as did the silk, and which weight was paid for at the silk rate, the tariff being on gross weight of the package and not merely on contents. He is now in a lively controversy with the house that disregarded his shipping instructions, and certainly will not be inclined to favor the concern with further orders.

As additional reasons for shipping goods just as ordered, it must be understood that the retail customers in Central America to a large extent can neither read nor write, but have become accustomed by some distinctive feature to the goods they want. An instance is told of a man who ran a store in Retalhulieu who had been ordering candles from Germany for many years. Each candle was wrapped in blue paper.

One shipment came wrapped in yellow paper. The people would not buy them. In vain he argued and showed that the candles were the same he had been selling. It was no use, and he could not sell those candles until he sent to a paper supply house in Guatemala City and bought sufficient blue paper in which to wrap them. Then he had no difficulty in selling them.

Another illustration of the vagaries of the trade: A year or so ago there was a brand of flour that was well liked and a standard with the country people. It was put up in sacks with a device in bright blue printed on each sack. A merchant ordered about three carloads, and it came in with the device printed in green. The customers would not take it. They wanted the blue sack. The millers explained that the bag makers had run out of blue ink and thought it was all right to use the green. After a long while and much effort the merchant managed to get rid of the flour, but it took almost as much work as introducing a new article.

Hence, when a merchant from Latin America orders anything, it is the best policy to send him precisely what he orders. He knows his trade, its whims and vagaries, and there is a reason for his order. There is nothing "just as good" for him. This one item of shipping precisely what is wanted is most important, and the export firm devoting close attention to this feature is going to retain its trade.

Next in importance is the question of packing. It is a threadbare and worn-out question. People get tired reading of it and hearing of it, but they also keep on shipping badly packed good, and that militates against business. Illustrations of carelessness have recently come under observation, inexcusable because the concerns which sent out goods in such shape have been doing considerable export business and know better.

Close attention to detail and consideration for the customer is what counts. Those things are remembered and appreciated. For instance, some time ago the tariff of a certain Latin-American country was about to be raised heavily on matches. A large firm ordered $15,000 worth of safety matches from a German house to get the stock in before the raise.

Not only were the goods shipped promptly, put up in light tin boxes, but the boxes were crated with plank. The German firm knew that the duty on matches was rather heavy, and made an arrangement with the steamship people by which the planking was all to be removed from the matches and only the tins entered at the custom house, so the buyer did not have to pay a high duty on planking. Such evidences of consideration for the customer are certain to be remembered.

There is no hard and fast rule that can be followed in exporting to Latin America leading to success, but if the dealer ships what is ordered, packs it well, and watches details, he has a good start on the way of trade that is permanent.

The Independent Vote

By Savoyard.

Washington, Jan. 28.—(Special to The Herald.)—All the Republican politicians throughout the country affect to believe and they are voiceful to rejoice upon what they assume to be a fact—that the Bull Moose party has completely liquidated and that the G. O. P. has come into possession and ownership of all its political effects—principles, policies and votes—especially the votes. To clinch the thing the Hon. Gallinger insists that all the senators on the Republican side of the chamber shall vote for his proposal to substitute the Payne tariff for the Underwood tariff and it would be a piece of inexcusable folly if the Democrats do not humor the Hon. Gallinger in his efforts in this behalf.

The New York Tribune, it is true, is pouting because it has discovered that a set it calls "the Penroses, the Cannons and the Barneses of Republicanism" are in control of the party—not that it is seriously opposed to such men as leaders, but the Tribune fears that the public conscience will again revolt, repudiate and rebuke a party so dominated. That Aldrichism is again in the saddle on the Republican side of the hedge every intelligent man knows and every candid man admits and the paramount of 1916 is already settled—Wilsonism vs. Penroseism.

* * *

Now, then, will the Bull Moosers like Pinchot, Beveridge, Murdock, Stubbs, Garfield and Governor Johnson stand for the leadership of the men whom so shrewd an observer as the Tribune declares to be in command? We shall see. Then there are the Progressive Republicans, as they prefer to call themselves—Cummins, Kenyon, Clapp, Borah, Norris and Bristow—all senators in congress—what do they think of the primacy exercised by Penrose, Cannon and Barnes in the party that they fondly hoped was chastened and purified by the crushing defeat of 1912, and the party they themselves would boss in 1916?

In a country like ours, men holding to the same party, if they be honest men, must think alike. Can you yoke Penrose and Cummins? Will Cannon and Murdock pull together? What is there in common between Gifford Pinchot and Boss Barnes? To be cohesive a political party must be composed of men who have the same ideals and who champion the same principles. If the Bull Moosers and the Progressive Republicans have found common ground that all of them may occupy in amity and concord, then there is no denying that they will put up a strong fight in 1916. But to do that—to "get together"—somebody must change. Has Penrose, or Cannon, or Barnes, or Fairbanks, or Lorimer, or Mann, or Gallinger, or Lodge, or any other standpatter changed? If so, when and how and to what extent?

* * *

There was the old Whig party, made up of elements almost as discordant as the factions that composed the Republican party three years ago. Your Southern Whig like Alexander H. Stephens and your Northern Whig like Abraham Lincoln were as wide apart as Joseph G. Cannon and Victor Murdock. Stephens and Lincoln, honest men, separated because they ceased to think alike. How can Cannon and Murdock come together unless they come to think together?

There is a party in this country, however, made up of elements not always in accord, that has not failed to carry a presidential election since the South was reconstructed. It has no organization, no national or state committee, no bosses. It is composed of the independent voters of the American electorate and holds the political balance of power in our country. Its membership is constantly increasing. It is the abomination of your Penrose and your Barnes. Tammany hates it with the hatred of fear. That party twice elected Grover Cleveland president of the United States and in 1912 it preferred Woodrow Wilson to Theodore Roosevelt. It will elect the president in 1916. It will hold no convention and make no nomination, but it has the eye of the lynx for men and motives, and is never deceived in either.

The independent voter cares nothing for names—Democrat or Republican. His object is to smite corruption in politics hip and thigh. He seeks no office and his interest in politics is confined to the choosing of the best man as a public official. The independent voter has dealt cruel blows to your demagogue and soon will put him out of business. For example a time will come in the history of our politics when no demagogue in the United States senate will dare insult the intelligence of the American voter, as the Hon. Borah did the other day, with vulgar slush like this:

"Just what we want with another canal route I am unable to determine, unless, having built one canal and having given it to England, we propose to build another and give it to Germany."

The Hon. Borah is very much disconcerted because Wilson insisted on taxing the ship trust to maintain the Panama canal rather than taxing the people of Idaho ostensibly for the upkeep of the canal, but bestowing the fund on the ship monopoly. That he calls giving the canal to England.

* * *

How about Root and Lodge, who are held to be the cream of the intellectual aristocracy and political respectability of the senate on the Republican side? Both these gentlemen agreed with the president in his policy touching the canal, and a greater percentage of the Republican side voted with the president on the tolls question than could be mustered on the Democratic side against him.

Mr. Wilson will come up for re-election in 1916, and you could not please the Democrats better than to discover that Penrose and Barnes shall allow the Republican national convention to name the Hon. Borah as his competitor.

Statesmen, Real and Near

By Fred C. Kelly.

Washington, Jan. 28.—(Special to The Herald.)—Finly H. Gray of Indiana is a member of the house naval affairs committee, noted among his associates for his comparative absence of a sense of humor and the solemnity of his countenance. He always has the air of one who has just finished dusting off a hearse. Yet Gray often does or says something rather original. It was he who invented a way of avoiding animosities growing out of his post-office appointments. His system is to require every applicant publicly to sign a pledge to be loyal and cheerful and reconciled, no matter whether he is appointed or not. Unless a man signs such a pledge Gray will not consider his candidacy for a postmastership.

At a naval committee hearing a few days ago a minister testified as to the need of more chaplains in the navy. Finly Gray asked the witness a number of questions.

"You think there is insufficient spiritual aid in the navy?" he asked. And the minister nodded that he did.

"And the object of such spiritual aid," went on Gray, "is of course to make the man more meek and humanitarian and more Christ-like?"

"Yes."

"And when a man in the navy has become more meek and more humanitarian and more Christ-like will he be a better fighter? Will he show greater interest and greater zest in killing off his fellow men? Will he?

Champ Clark was recalling the other day the time that a Missouri Democratic editor of a country weekly came along and expressed a desire to meet Thomas B. Reed, then speaker of the house. Champ got hold of Reed and introduced them.

"I often refer to you in my paper," remarked the visitor, by way of putting himself at ease in the presence of a great man.

"Yes," drawled Reed, in mock indignation, "but how?"

Ollie James, the largest United States senator now on exhibition, came upon two extremely small newsboys fighting, as he walked up the street the other day. The newsboys were diminutive to start with, and particularly so when Ollie James got alongside of them. Looking down at them from the top of his colossal frame, Ollie demanded:

"What are you fighting about?"

Senator Miles Poindexter of Washington was billed to make a campaign speech some years ago at a little town in Washington near the Oregon line. When the day approached for the meeting the weather and the roads were so bad that it seemed advisable to call the meeting off. It would be impossible, the committee felt, to get a crowd. Miles Poindexter, however, said he was going to make his speech whether or no. He explained that even if only one person went to the meeting place to hear the message and had to turn back disappointed it would be a downright shame. So Miles went to the place designated and was greeted by an audience of three persons. As a reward for their coming Poindexter talked in a loud voice for an hour, stamping about the platform, and waving his arms as frantically as possible to show them that they were getting a genuine campaign address, exactly as represented.

Then at the close of the meeting the speaker stepped down from the platform to mingle freely with the audience and learn how many had been brought to see the light. While conversing with the audience he found out three noteworthy facts, as follows:

One of those present was from over the Oregon line and could not vote in Poindexter's state.

Another was disqualified from voting by the fact that he was of foreign birth and had never been naturalized.

And the third was not a voter because of having dwelt for a year in the state penitentiary.

A New Record

Detroit, Mich., News: In a newly discovered fragment by Thackeray, written seventy-two years ago, the great novelist suggests a new way of keeping war records. The fragment itself deals with the place called "Pumpernickel" in his "Vanity Fair."

"I have often thought," he writes, "it would be well if catalogues of war could be kept in another way; as thus—

"'Stiles, John, 21 years of age. Killed by cannon ball. Left a wife, two children, and a bed-ridden mother at Clifton.'

"'Smith, Thomas, private, died at 23, left a mother and widow. He was perforated by a lance.'

"'Brown, Samuel, sergeant, 35, sabered across the forehead; died swearing horribly, and left four children.'

"'Green, Frederick, ensign, age 17, only son of the Rev. F. Green, cut in two by cannon ball while blowing his nose at the head of his company.'

"A catalogue, like this," the novelist says, "would not be uninstructive reading, and to recount the subject of the war in which the above martyrs fell would be clearly unnecessary * * * by the above plan it would be represented more truly than it hitherto has been in the classical works whereof the authors hand us only the results of history, without deigning to trouble themselves with the multiplied little facts of which the results are composed."

But this is precisely what warring nations do not permit. It is not good taste to dilate on soldiers' sufferings.

It is positively forbidden to tell of the state of unburied bodies. Glory and heroism may be trumpeted unceasingly, but not blood and agony. The band must be kept playing to drown these ghastly things.

British-Made Toys.

Consul John S. Armstrong, Jr., in the United States commerce reports: An exhibition and sale of British handmade toys, held in connection with the Bristol Guild of Applied Art, was opened on Dec. 8, 1914. The toys were made principally by villagers, and amongst the most attractive were those which came from a village in Wales named Chwyd, where the industry was established some five years ago, during a period of unemployment.

There were also some toys made in the villages of Ireland, as well as a number of models produced in and around Bristol.

Of the exhibits which made the strongest popular appeal were models of mounted soldiers clad in khaki. Teddy bears, Aldon head caricatures, models of village characters, and toy ambulance wagons comprised the chief exhibits.

The local market for toys has been supplied chiefly by Germany and Austria. The specified import of this class of goods into Bristol during 1913 was valued at approximately $71,000. The village producers are taking advantage of the dearth created by the cutting off of supplies from Germany and Austria.

First Non-Partisan State Legislature

Suggestions and Comments From the State Press.

Temper and Temperance.

Aurora News: The temper of the present legislature will be known very soon. There have been several very important temperance measures introduced and it will soon be known if the members are big enough to decide these measures on their merits, or if they are going to hold them over to use for trading stock to pull chestnuts out of the fire. These measures should be decided at once, either for or against. Then the remainder of the session would be free to tackle the measures which mean so much for the development of the state and the placing of the business of the state on an efficient basis.

Why Discriminate?

Stillwater Gazette: Someone has introduced a bill in the Minnesota house of representatives that would prohibit any saloon keeper from cashing the pay checks of laborers. Why discriminate? They are not the only easy money chaps.

Don't Go Too Far.

Belle Plaine Herald: The opposition to both the Dunn and the Elwell road laws should not go so far as to repeal these measures. They have had but a year's trial, and while defects may be apparent it is better policy to remedy the defects than to repeal the laws. The great bulk of the people do not want to go back to the old system of haphazard road work, neither do they favor the trunk-line, automobile-speedway system advocated in certain quarters. The state wants roads of a character that bear a reasonable relationship to the wealth of the surrounding country.

Might Be Saving Here.

St. Cloud Times: The legislature is not disposed to consider the calling of a constitutional convention, probably because of the expense—about $50,000. Ohio held one last year, and the governor says it has already saved the state $4,000,000.

A Patent Fact.

Faribault Journal: If each member of the legislature will look to the quality of every bill he introduces, instead of the quantity of measures he can father, a great advance toward efficiency will be attained.

Henry Rines' View.

Mora Times: Legislators are beginning to realize that it is a mighty big task to reorganize the state departments. They also are beginning to understand that the proposed plan of the efficiency and economy commission is more theoretical than practical. We hope that the legislature will at least be able to accomplish something in the way of reducing the number of state departments and boards, which would naturally carry with it a reduction of employes. It is unfortunate that the reorganization movement in the house is in the hands of a man who prefers to play a lone hand rather than cooperate with his colleagues and who has a personality which repels rather than attracts. With such a man in charge of this legislation much friction may result and the cause of better government needlessly hampered.

Promises Often Forgotten.

Elk River Star-News: Jake Jacobson, the old watchdog of the state treasury, spoke to the legislators one day last week and advised them that if they would keep the promises made to their constituents on the question of state economy, they could not go far wrong. As usual Jake is right, and we hope the members of the legislature will follow his advice. Keeping promises, though, is not usually a part of a politician's program after election.

Just Watch!

Morris Sun: It is said that there is a sentiment growing among the members of the state legislature for reducing the number of senators and representatives. Minnesota has a larger number of state senators than any other state in the Union, and the second largest number of house members, and both bodies are somewhat unwieldy. Now watch the scramble among the members of both houses to legislate themselves out of office.

Just a Moment

Daily Strength and Cheer.

Compiled by John G. Quinnus, the Sunshine Man.

Wise men ne'er sit and wail their loss,
But cheerly seek how to redress their harms.
What though the mast be now blown overboard,
The cable broke, the holding anchor lost,
And half our sailors swallowed in the flood?
Yet lives our pilot still; 't is meet that he Should leave the helms, and, like a fearful lad,
With tearful eyes, add water to the sea,
And give more strength to that which hath too much.
Whiles, in his moan, the ship splits on the rock,
Which industry and courage might have saved?

Making Men Hate Each Other.

Kansas City Star: It has been felt necessary at German headquarters to issue orders forbidding troops on the battle line to associate with the enemy in the lulls of the fighting. When opportunity has offered the men have got together, told stories, swapped tobacco and played games.

This sort of thing is regarded as scandalous by the military authorities. How are men to set to work with right good will to kill those whom they have just been playing football with?

What a commentary on war!

All the theories of ineffable race hatreds and race antagonisms, laboriously built up to explain wholesale murder, collapse in the face of the common humanity of the men in the trenches. Men are naturally friendly when they know each other. Race hatreds have to be fostered artificially by gentlemen who expect to make something out of them before they can be used as a basis for killing.

The necessity of ordering men to remain strangers so they can shoot and stab each other with more enthusiasm recalls that famous picture of the little girl kissing her soldier father goodby with the words: "Are you going to kill some other little girl's papa?"

That expresses rather neatly and precisely in a human way what war is.

Short People Are Healthier.

Philadelphia North American: Statistics reveal the fact that short persons are less liable to the different diseases which go the rounds among humanity than those who are taller and seemingly more susceptible to contagion.

Like every other fact, there is a reason for this.

Many of the different diseases are due to impurities in the atmosphere we breathe.

In factories, workshops, depots, cars, schools, churches, office buildings and in thousands of living apartments where humanity in numbers are in the habit of collecting, there is more or less liability of some one or more persons having in some degree or other, some of the diseases, or being in an unhealthy condition, and as they breathe the air that circulates through those places, the taller persons are certain to breathe more of the impurities than the shorter persons, as the warm breath of everybody naturally seeks the higher portion of the atmosphere in the inclosure and if the air is poisoned, those who are taller will breathe it first, and continue to breathe it longer, as those whose heads are not so high may escape all or part of the poison which, in many instances, is apt to create an unhealthy condition of body.

THE OPEN COURT

(Readers of The Herald are invited to make free use of this column to express their ideas about the topics of general interest, but discussions of sectarian religious differences are barred. Letters must not exceed 200 words—the shorter the better. They must be written on one side of the paper only, and they must be accompanied in every case by the name and address of the writer (though these need not be published. A signed letter is always more effective, however.)

MUSIC IN SCHOOLS.

To the Editor of The Herald:

Would you kindly advise me through your Open Court:

In the public schools of Minnesota, is it compulsory that children receive music lessons against the wishes of the parents? If not, how can it be stopped?

What are the required qualifications of a teacher that gives lessons in music? Yours truly,

A LUMBERJACK.

Bemidji, Minn., Jan. 25.

R. E. Denfeld, superintendent of the Duluth city schools, says in reply to the above questions:

A school board of any district may establish music as a course of study. In that case it is compulsory, and there are no exceptions unless the board sees fit to grant a request that the study be not taken in particular cases, but only for good and sufficient reasons. The board's requirement is the law as long as the pupil attends school.

The required qualification for a teacher of music or any other subject is that she will have had professional training in a normal school, a university training school, or in a summer training school; and that she shows, by her examinations, that she is properly fitted for the teaching of the subject to which she is assigned.—The Editor.

SAYS EMBARGO CANNOT BE PLACED ON WHEAT.

To the Editor of The Herald:

I received an answer to my letter about contraband from the department of state. I saw in a copy of your paper that the wheat prices were affected, making a big drop. Now such an embargo cannot be made by our government and I enclose the pamphlet (or leaflet) which the department of state has printed on the subject.

I think we need enlightenment on many topics. The trouble with us is, that we know too little. The public library is right in our midst, but do we profit by it? Do we read much more printed matter than the newspapers? We read the novels maybe, but the books that furnish us with knowledge, what about them? They seem to burn our fingers. Respectfully,

IDA FREIDBLOM.

Schroeder, Minn., Jan. 22.

ONIONS AND STAMPS.

To the Editor of The Herald:

Would you please publish in your Open Court how many pounds of onions there is in a bushel, also whose picture is on a 2-cent postage stamp?

Yours truly,

SUBSCRIBER.

Marble, Minn., Jan. 24.

The weight of a bushel of onions must not be less than fifty-seven pounds.

THE LITERACY TEST.

To the Editor of The Herald:

In reply to R. Mantell's letter which appears in your issue of Jan. 25, permit me these few words.

Educators should, first of all, render every boy and girl self-supporting and a useful member of society, education should further give such training as will develop to the fullest possible extent the many-sided capacities of the intellect and physical body with a view of enabling the pupil to be able to intelligently follow that vocation in life to which he is best adapted.

Within a radius of half a mile from the Bowery mission in New York there are 50,000 idle men, 10,000 of them absolutely homeless. Nobody knows how many idle men there are in the country. Some estimates place the number of unemployed men and women as high as 5,000,000, but they are only estimates. All we know is that the number must run into millions. Yet in face of such conditions, and also the following, R. Mantell would have us open our doors to the workers of Europe who cannot read.

In this country we see the fabulous natural resources of a nation drifting into the hands of a few.

We see all the giant factories owned by a few men.

We see the mines, the forests, the railroads, in short, all the means of production and distribution owned by a mere handful of idle millionaires.

We see that 82 per cent of our people do not own a home.

We see our fair land cursed every few years with a panic which penetrates to the remotest corners of the country. During these panics, factories are closed and millions of strong, able and willing men are denied the right to work.

We see another group of seven million women snatched from their homes and household duties and pushed into factories for long hours at starvation wages.

We see crime, prostitution and insanity increasing several times faster than our population. We see one-third of the children die before they reach their teens.

We see sixty thousand children in New York, "the wealthiest city in the world," unable to acquire an education.

We see a nation with prosperity for the few—poverty, ignorance and starvation for the many.

We see a nation where preachers talk to a man about a robe in heaven when he hasn't the price of a shirt in his pocket. The one great overshadowing question of the age is: "Does there exist, somewhere, a remedy for these economic ills?" If so, how much will the workingman know about it if he cannot read nor write?

Labor measures, ownership of public utilities, transportation, elimination of graft, health measures, financial measures, housing problems, educational measures, these and many more questions cannot be understood by the man who cannot read nor write. If that is true, of what use is it to bring them face to face with such questions?

Shall we accuse some natural, unseen law for this nightmare of society or to man-made laws and regulations which if removed would give to the toiling millions peace and plenty. If to man-made laws, then give us men who can read and write so that they may understand those laws.

Thanking you for your space, I am yours respectfully,

O. W. MITTIE.

Ontonagon, Mich., Jan. 25.

"HERE'S LOOKING AT YOU."

To the Editor of The Herald:

As a regular reader of The Herald I would like to ask a question to satisfy my curiosity. Can you or your army of readers tell me the origin of and meaning of the often-used expression, "Here's looking at you?" Hoping to see the answer to my question in The Herald, I am, yours truly,

CHARLES ZIMMER,
Hotel Spalding.

Duluth, Jan. 27.

The origin of the phrase will probably be as hard to trace as that of many other slang expressions heard very frequently. "Here's how" is about as common and about as meaningless. Perhaps some reader of the Open Court can throw some light on the question.—The Editor.

POEMS ASKED FOR.

The Herald acknowledges with thanks the receipt of the following poems:

"The First Snowfall," from Mrs. R. L. Hillman of Two Harbors.

"The Village Blacksmith," from Mildred Drechsler of Cloquet.

Requests have been received for the following:

"The Death of Napoleon" and "The Cherokee's Lament," from Thomas Mahon of Carlton.

"On the Rock Island Line," from J. C. S. of Milton, N. D.

The First Snowfall.

The snow had begun in the gloaming,
And busily all the night
Had been heaping field and highway
With a silence deep and white.

Every pine and fir and hemlock
Wore ermine too dear for an earl,
And the poorest twig on the elm tree
Was rigged inch-deep with pearl.

From sheds new-roofed with Carrara
Came Chanticleer's muffled crow;
The stiff rails were softened to swan's down
And still fluttered down the snow.

I stood and watched by the window
The noiseless work of the sky,
And the sudden flurries of snow birds,
Like brown leaves whirling by.

I thought of a mound in Sweet Auburn,
Where a little headstone stood;
How the flakes were folding it gently,
As did robins the babes in the wood.

Up spoke our own little Mable,
Saying, "Father, what makes it snow?"
And I told her of the good All-Father
Who cares for us here below.

Again I looked at the snowfall,
And thought of the leaden sky
That arched o'er our first great sorrow
When that mound was heaped so high.

I remember the gradual patience
That fell from that cloud like snow,
Flake by flake, healing and hiding
The scar of our deep-plunged woe.

And again to the child I whispered,
"The snow that husheth all,
Darling, the merciful Father
Alone can make it fall!"

Then, with eyes that saw not, I kissed her;
And she, kissing back, could not know
That my kiss was given to her sister,
Folded close under deepening snow.

"The Village Blacksmith."

Under a spreading chestnut tree
The village smithy stands;
The smith, a mighty man is he,
With large and sinewy hands.
And the muscles of his brawny arms
Are strong as iron bands.

His hair is crisp, and black, and long,
His face is like the tan;
His brow is wet with honest sweat,
He earns whate'er he can,
And looks the whole world in the face,
For he owes not any man.

Week in, week out, from morn till night,
You can hear his bellows blow.
You can hear him swing his heavy sledge,
With measured beat and slow,
Like a sexton ringing the village bell,
When the evening sun is low.

And the children coming home from school,
Look in at the open door;
They love to see the flaming forge,
And hear the bellows roar,
And catch the burning sparks that fly
Like chaff from a threshing floor.

He goes on Sunday to the church,
And sits among his boys;
He hears the parson pray and preach,
He hears his daughter's voice,
Singing in the village choir
And it makes his heart rejoice.

It sounds to him like her mother's voice,
Singing in Paradise.
He needs must think of her once more,
How in the grave she lies;
And with a hard rough hand he wipes
A tear out of his eyes.

Tolling, rejoicing, sorrowing
Onward through life he goes;
Each morning sees some task begun,
Each evening sees it close;
Something attempted, something done,
Has earned a night's repose.

Thanks, thanks to thee, my worthy friend,
For the lesson thou hast taught
Thus at the flaming forge of life
Our fortunes must be wrought;
Thus on its sounding anvil shaped
Each burning deed and thought.

—Henry W. Longfellow.

HELMER AGAIN HEAD OF TEMPLE BAND

Charles Helmer, director of the Temple band, was re-elected head of that organization at the annual meeting and election of officers held last evening at the Masonic temple.

Mr. Helmer was chosen director when the band was organized last year, and his re-election last evening is a mark of appreciation felt for his work by its members. The Temple band has made a hit with local Masonic bodies and it is now considered an established institution of local Masonry.

Besides naming Mr. Helmer director for the year, the members of the band also selected the following officers: W.

CHARLES HELMER,
Director Masonic Band.

T. Leonard, president; Arvid Johnson, secretary-treasurer, and C. T. McKenney, drum major. The band has a membership, at present, of forty.

The band made itsinitial appearance at the annual fall ceremonial of Aad temple last November andz scored an immediato success. Immediately all the other Masonic bodies invited the band to play at entertainments and the musicians have been most popular during the last few months.

During the coming year the band will play at all functions of the Masonic bodies, while it will also take part in various picnics next summer and will accompany the local lodges on the various visits that are planned to Masonic bodies in neighboring cities.

MILLER WON'T HAVE TO GO TO JAIL

Man Convicted in Municipal Court Released By District Judges.

District court judges have reversed the findings of Municipal Judge Frank H. Cutting in the Henry Miller case. Yesterday afternoon an order was filed reversing the conviction of Miller by the lower court on a charge of conducting a house of ill fame. The 90-day jail sentence imposed upon Miller nearly two years ago as punishment for the offense was set aside.

Miller was prosecuted under a city ordinance covering houses of ill fame and was found guilty by Judge Cutting. B. M. Goldberg, his attorney, appealed from the conviction. The case hung fire for several months in district court and was not reviewed by the higher tribunal until recently, when the four district court judges sat en banc to hear arguments on the appeal. W. H. Gurnee, assistant city attorney, appeared for the prosecution.

In reversing the conviction, the district court held that evidence offered by the city prosecutor was insufficient to warrant a finding of guilty.

The DOCTOR'S ADVICE

by Dr. Lewis Baker

Worried Man writes: "Let me say that my condition puzzles and worries me. In the last year I seem to have been growing old rapidly, though only 38. My food and sleep do not recuperate my strength and energy, and lately I have dizzy spells, trembling, headaches, loss of appetite, memory and hopelessness. Despondency and worry over my condition are ever present."

Answer: Cheer up, get well and then conserve your vitality by proper, temperate living. Obtain three grain cadomene tablets in sealed tubes with full directions, use them and an agreeable, pleasing restoration should ensue to your satisfaction.

Mrs. L. C. B. asks: "Do you think it is possible to reduce my weight from 240 pounds to about 190 pounds?"

Answer: It is impossible to say just how much one can reduce until after trying, but 5-grain arbolone tablets should be used according to directions with each sealed tube, obtainable at most any drug store. If the flesh is unnatural you should easily reduce as desired.

Mrs. L. B. writes: "What can I do for a bad case of stomach, liver and bowel trouble? My food sours in stomach, I rift, have heart-burn, and a full, uncomfortable feeling after meals; constipated at intervals, coated tongue and bad breath all the time."

Answer: Thousands of people in this country are afflicted as you are, and to get immediate relief and gradually effect permanent results, I advise you to buy of your druggist a dollar package of "double-four stomach and bowel medicine" and use as per directions on the packet.

J. R. O. asks: "I am thin, angular, weak and tired. What can I take to improve my health, strengthen my nerves and increase my weight about 20 pounds?"

Answer: Take regularly with your meals three grain hypo-nuclane tablets, sold in sealed packages, by druggists, with complete directions. These tablets improve the blood, increase nutrition and strengthen the nervous system if used regularly for several months.

"Lee" writes: "I have tried so many remedies for rheumatism that I am almost afraid to try any more, but if you can tell me a sure remedy I will try it."

Answer: Do not be disheartened because you have not been able to find something that would overcome your rheumatism, for you can be relieved if you will take what I tell you. Get from the drugstore: Iodide of potassium, 2 drams; sodium salicylate, 4 drams; wine of colchicum, ½ oz., comp. fluid blamwort, 1 oz.; comp. essence cardiol, 1 oz., and syrup of sarsaparilla, 5 ozs. Mix and take a teaspoonful at mealtime and again before going to bed.

C. L. asks: "I have tried to cure dandruff, itching scalp, falling hair and baldness with numerous tonics, etc., but in vain. What do you recommend?"

Answer: I have been recommending plain yellow minyol for the past seven years and scores of my patients are delighted with the quick, pleasant action of this remedy in stopping itching, falling hair, dandruff, etc. It gives the hair health, lustre and vigor as nothing else does. Obtain in 4-oz. jars with full directions.

H. M. B. writes: "Can you please prescribe medicine which will relieve me of such distressing symptoms of kidney and bladder, as the following: Pains in small of back, soreness in region of bladder, frequent calls at night but scanty flow with pain, burning and foul odor, puffing of limbs, etc.

Answer: Those seeking relief from kidney and bladder disorders should begin taking balmwort tablets, a very successful formula sold in sealed tubes with full directions.

Mrs. N. B. B. asks: "I suffer from headache and constipation periodically and my blood seems too thick causing languor and tired feeling. I will thank you to prescribe for me."

Answer: Three grain sulpherb tablets (not sulphur) are most effective, in relieving constipation, thinning the blood and removing the symptoms of languor, etc. I advise you to begin taking as per directions with each sealed package.

"W. Z." writes: "I have such a very severe cough and cold and have not been able to get anything to help me. It is weakening my system."

Answer: Use the following and your cold and cough will vanish and you will soon be strong again. Get a 2½ oz. bottle of concentrated essence mentholaxene and take every hour or two. This can be taken pure or made into a full pint of home-made syrup. Full directions as to use will be found on bottle. This is a mild laxative and will drive the cold from the system.

B. G. O. asks: "Will you please prescribe a home treatment for a bad case of catarrh of the nose and throat. Also, my daughter is affected with Pelvic Catarrh or green sickness."

Answer: Your daughter should begin taking a tonic flesh-building treatment and for such a case I know of nothing better than three-grain hypo-nuclane tablets. Local treatment is also necessary for both catarrh of the head and Pelvic Catarrh. A simple but effective antiseptic and curative treatment can be followed at home by buying either a two or eight ounce package of antiseptic Vilane Powder containing complete directions. —Advertisement.

This Week's Sunday School Lesson

Written for The Herald By Rev. J. S. Kirtley, D. D.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON: Jan. 31.

Judges xiii: The Birth of Samson.

THE CONNECTION.

We skip from Gideon to Samson, quite a distance, perhaps 80 years, during which time the nation had its usual experience of rebelling and being subjugated, then delivered. Their enemies were the Ammonites and the Philistines, especially the latter. The rulers during that time were Abimelech, unworthy son of Gideon, Tola, Jair, Jephthah, the picturesque adventurer, Ibzan, Elon, Abdon, and then Samson, the "Jolly Giant." For forty years the Philistines have them in subjection. Now God is raising up a deliverer—Samson. After him will come Eli and Samuel, the "king maker."

THE LESSON.

God's Aid Sought by the Parents. 8-12.

"Then Manoah entreated Jehovah, and said, Oh, Lord, I pray Thee, let the man of God whom Thou didst send come again unto us, and teach us what we shall do unto the child that shall be born. And God hearkened to the voice of Manoah; and the angel of God came again unto the woman as she sat in the field; but Manoah her husband was not with her. And the woman made haste, and ran, and told her husband, and said unto him, Behold, the man hath appeared unto me, that came unto me the other day. And Manoah arose, and went after his wife, and came to the man, and said unto him, Art thou the man that spakest unto the woman? And he said, I am. And Manoah said, Now let thy words come to pass; what shall be the ordering of the child, and how shall we do unto him?

1. PROMISE.—God always has a man ready for His great enterprises, because He gets him ready, chooses him, chooses his parents and prepares them as far as they may be prepared. The man may not be perfect nor his ancestors perfect, but he is chosen as the most fitting one. God works with what He has; works toward what He wants. The time has come to deliver Israel again. He must choose the man. He prepares the parents by telling them so that they can rear the boy for his mission.

2. RESPONSIBILITY.—The angel of God instructs the woman, her husband wishes to get it direct for himself and therefore prays that the messenger, whom he evidently supposed to be some prophet, may come again and instruct them both definitely. We note in the father the joy of having a son, after long disappointment; the sense of responsibility for the care of the son, not always found in fathers; an added sense of the responsibility as well as the honor of preparing a deliverer for Israel; utter dependence on God for wisdom, such as all fathers and mothers should feel, for God has a special mission for the humblest boy born in the most insignificant family today. His prayer cannot fail to be answered, as ours cannot. God's messenger responds, but, singularly, to the mother and through her to the father. There was wisdom in that. It was an ideal desire, to rear the child exactly by God's program.

II.

God's Program for the Boy. 13-16.

"And the angel of Jehovah said unto Manoah, of all that I said unto the woman let her beware. She may not eat of anything that cometh of the vine, neither let her drink wine or strong drink, nor eat any unclean thing; all that I commanded her let her observe. And Manoah said unto the angel of Jehovah, I pray thee, let us detain thee, that we may make ready a kid for thee. And the angel of Jehovah said unto Manoah, though thou detain me, I will not eat of thy bread; and if thou wilt make ready a burnt-offering, thou must offer it unto Jehovah. For Manoah knew not that he was the angel of Jehovah."

1. PHYSICAL.—The preparation of the mind through the body was essential. The mother came first. She must determine what the child shall be. Her physical nurture of the unborn child must be right. We know much about such things today. It must take account of what she drinks, what she eats and what she thinks. The physical child, unborn, requires all three—the mother may dwarf, deform, degrade it before he ever opens his eyes to the light of day. This was a special case. Three things she was to do—abstain from every kind of grape product, which would give her mind its proper set against wine, for wine was to be a temptation to Samson; eat only the diet allowed by the law of Moses, for that food was exactly what was needed for the nurture of the child; keep her mind devoted to the very discipline the child needed. She was to undergo the discipline for the sake of the child. He was to be a Nazirite, which involved a vow to keep himself to God's service. The physical signs of that were for his good. See Deut. vi.

2. MENTAL.—The mother's care of herself was also for his mental, or psychical, training. The boy's soul was to be trained in self-control, consecration to God. She aimed at that in her every thought and act. As she accepted for herself the Nazirite habit she accepted it for him. She was taught that his soul was in discipline all those months of gestation. She was physically fit, also mentally. Motherhood requires both. Body, or special organs, or nerves, overtaxed by work, or dissipation, or stupefied by drugs—that means unfit children. A perfect body, yet an irreligious or vicious or selfish state of mind—that puts the unborn child at a distinct disadvantage. The spirit of Manoah in offering suitable hospitality to the stranger, something to eat, won from him further instruction and illumination. In telling them to offer it to God and in ascending in their presence the angel shocked them with fear. They found then who he was and trembled. Reverence is always pleasing to God. Their docility was also a gratification to Him.

III.

Early Life of the Boy. 17-25.

"And the woman bare a son, and called his name Samson, and the child grew, and Jehovah blessed him. And the Spirit of Jehovah began to move him in Mahanehdan, between Zorah and Eshtaol."

1. GROWTH.—The name given him was really Shimshon, meaning the sun. The sun is mighty. Perhaps that's the reason for the name. The growth showed the effects of his mother's and father's care. He was not perfect but his strange nature was a strange fitness for exceptional deeds. His subsequent life was anything but satisfactory to us but his early career—well he was fitted for that by his nature and his training.

2. POWER.—God's spirit who had empowered Gideon and Jephthah and other heroes came upon him. His special exploits are not mentioned, but they were calculated to make the enemies of Israel anxious. He was getting ready. God never uses anything but faulty people, no other kind—because there are no others. Soon he "began to deliver Israel." Then he got pretty busy. It's wonderful what can be done with a faulty man if his parents and God have a chance at him.

WHAT THE MASTERS SAY.

In the United States where the consumption of pure alcohol is 2.77 per capita, 18 women are employed to 100 men; in France, where the consumption of alcohol is 9.69 per capita, 34 women are employed to 100 men; and similar figures for other European wine and beer-drinking countries. Samuel Gompers, in his book, "Labor in Europe and America," tells "of a city in Europe where they employ 2,000 women hod carriers, who work barefooted and get only 30 to 40 cents a day." This city, quite significantly, is noted for its enormous consumption of alcoholic liquors.—Cowan.

Samson's life had counted far more for his people had he been free from entangling alliances with heathen women. That is a weak life that allows fetters that interfere with its avowed consecration to a noble aim. A nation is judged by its women; the Philistines were proverbially lax in regard to womanhood; Samson loved too freely and unwisely.—Bond.

PERTINENT QUESTIONS.

1. Why begin with parents in educating a child?
2. How does this story anticipate modern eugenics?
3. Can the state afford to banish liquor on account of childhood?
4. What encouragement does the faulty man find in this story?
5. What warning to the well born and well reared?

RUSSIAN SOLDIER IS BETTER THAN BELIEVED

(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)

Hanover, Jan. 5.—The Russian soldier is better than is popularly believed, according to the letter of a German officer, serving with the armies in Poland.

"Near L.——we took about 1,000 prisoners," wrote the officer. "So the report said. As a matter of fact we took about 2,000. The first lot was more or less than a thousand, and then, during the day, a hundred were gathered here and another hundred there.

"It is true that out here, we do not think much of a thousand prisoners. But it seems to be different out in the West. I read for instance that we had taken 221 prisoners there, and no doubt, somebody said one Frenchman or an Englishman is the equivalent of ten Russians.

"But that is not true. Among the prisoners taken here there are many well-built and strong fellows with intelligent faces, who belie the stories of 'broken-down' Russian soldiers so generally heard, according to our way of thinking. The trouble is that he is too much a part of a machine. If the Russian soldiers had our leaders and commissariat, then France would have been able to do without her other allies."

INCREASE IS THREE-FOLD

Patrons of Public Library Read 15,000 More Books in 1914.

Two-Thirds of Readers Prefer Fiction; Many Books Bought.

There was three times the average increase in the number of books read by Duluthians during 1914.

For the last fifteen years, records of the city show that there was an increase each year of about 5,000 books read by the public, while, according to the report submitted to Mayor Prince yesterday by Miss Frances Earhart, librarian, the people of Duluth read 15,000 more books during 1914 than they did in 1913.

In 1913 206,000 books were read, while during 1914, the people borrowed 221,651 books from all the libraries in the city.

Of the books read last year by the adults, two-thirds were fiction, while the children read almost as many fiction books as they did non-fiction books. A total of 95,529 fiction books was loaned to adults and 42,593 to children, while 33,501 non-fiction publications were borrowed by adults and 39,523 by children. A similar comparison is shown by the figures from the West Duluth and West end stations.

On Jan. 1, 1914, there was a total of 62,184 books owned by the public library and during the year 7,104 were added and 1,279 were lost or worn out, leaving a total of 68,009 registered at the beginning of this year.

According to the report, the various library buildings, property, furniture and books owned by the city are all valued at $210,621. There are 214 periodicals and forty-eight newspapers on file at all the libraries in the city. During the year the receipts from taxes and fees, together with a balance of $3,332.62 on Jan. 1, 1914, brought the total to $28,541.77. The expenses were $28,874.14, leaving a total on hand on Jan. 1, 1915, of $67.73.

CITY BATHING BEACH URGED

Prince and Cleveland Plan Resort for Fairmont Park.

If present plans of Mayor Prince, head of the welfare department, and Park Manager Cleveland, go through, there will be a public bathing beach at Fairmont Park ready for use some time next July.

Several weeks ago the city commission passed a resolution authorizing the sale of $50,000 in park bonds to be used in purchasing the Fairmont park addition. This money will be forthcoming very shortly, Mayor Prince said this morning, and as soon as the property adjoining the park is purchased, preparations will start for opening of the bathing beach next summer.

The property condemned several years ago for the addition will cost in the neighborhood of $38,000, and it is the plan of Mayor Prince to appropriate the remaining $12,000 of the bond issue for drainage purposes and beautifying of the grounds. The property contains some swampy ground at present, and according to Mr. Cleveland, a considerable expense will be incurred in improving and parking the land.

Park Manager Cleveland said this morning that in his opinion, a great share of the work can be started as soon as the ice melts this coming spring and that active construction of a bathing pavilion erected alongside the beach, at as low a figure as possible, but to spend the greater share of all appropriations made for perfecting the beach and making a park of the grounds.

"If we start work immediately at the opening of spring," said Mr. Cleveland this morning, "I am positive the beach and pavilion will be ready for public use during the middle part of July. Duluthians will very soon see one of the handsomest bathing places in the country, as the surrounding park grounds will present a most beautiful background."

BOOTH LINE WILL BE MORE ACTIVE

Three trips a week to Port Arthur and intermediate points along the north shore of Lake Superior and one trip to Cornucopia on the south shore will be the schedule of Booth line comboats during the first part of the coming navigation season. Early last season but two trips were made weekly to the Canadian Head of the Lakes.

This is the tentative outline for the season's work as arranged by L. D. Rosenheimer of Chicago, traffic manager for the Booth Fisheries company, and L. J. Hogstad, manager of the local division. Mr. Rosenheimer, who conferred with Manager Hogstad in Duluth yesterday, also took up rates and other traffic matters.

"If business conditions warrant," said Mr. Hogstad, in telling of the schedule, "more frequent trips along the north shore may be arranged later in the season."

Between June 1 and Sept. 1 last year the company's boats made four trips to Port Arthur weekly and two along the south shore.

WILL REDRAFT PENSION BILL

The proposed police pension bill prepared by Chief of Police Troyer and State Senator Charles E. Adams and which is opposed by Commissioner Voss and the police department of St. Paul, is being redrafted by City Attorney Clapp.

The bill as originally prepared contained several indefinite clauses, and Commissioner Hicken, who planned to ask for the indorsement of the bill by the city commission before its introduction in the state senate by State Senator Adams, asked the city attorney to read it over and make a new draft.

Chief Troyer, in answering the objections made by Commissioner Voss that the fund will not be sufficient in future years and that the city may be called upon for aid, said this morning that the bill provides that the money must come only from the one-seventh mill tax and the monthly levy on all members of the police department.

"There is no chance of the fund running short," said Chief Troyer, "but if it does, we will simply cut down the pensions or raise our own monthly payments."

TO VOTE ON VETO SOON

President's Message Will Be Called Up in Week.

Washington, Jan. 28.—Business in the house was suspended today while the president's veto message was read. Speaker Clark conferred at once with Representatives Burnett and Sabath, who had been leaders in the work on the bill. Mr. Burnett wanted an arrangement to bring the veto up for a vote on repassage a week from tomorrow; Mr. Sabath wanted it to come up next Tuesday. Mr. Burnett favors the bill; Mr. Sabath opposes it. A day probably will be set aside for debate before a vote is taken.

The reading of the veto message evoked applause on the Democratic side and from some Republicans.

"At the proper time," said Representative Burnett, "I shall move a consideration of the vote by which the bill passed the house and that it be passed over the president's veto. I do not desire snap judgment on anybody. No one who favors this bill has had any tips when this message would come in. The message in itself, in its four corners, gives good reasons why it should become law."

Referred to Committee.

Finally an agreement was reached and the veto message was referred to the immigration committee from which Chairman Burnett said he would ask to have a report to the house one week from today.

The veto will not come before the senate until it has been acted on in the house.

The much-disputed literacy test would provide that "all aliens over 16 years of age, physically capable of reading, who cannot read the English language or some other language or dialect including Hebrew or Yeddish, shall be excluded from the United States."

Exempted, however, are those who prove they emigrated to escape religious persecution and any admissable alien might bring in his father or grandfather over 65, his wife, mother, grandmother or unmarried or widowed daughter who cannot read.

Other Restrictions.

Aside from various other restrictions the bill proposes that any immigrant who advocates destruction of property or resistance to law and order—in short, revolutionary tendencies—might be debarred or deported within five years of his admission. To that feature opposition, no less determined than that to the literacy test, was conducted by those who contended it would bar men who struggled to throw off the yoke of despotic governments.

Despite the president's known opposition to the literacy test, the senate passed the bill, 50 to 7, although 39 senators were absent or not voting.

The bill, originating in the house, passed there 252 to 126, one vote short of two-thirds. Fifty-five representatives, however, did not vote. When it came to final passage, however, on agreement on disputed amendments, the house vote was 227 to 94, with 103 not voting.

Senator Martine's motion to strike out the literacy test was defeated 47 to 12.

JURY AWARDS WIDOW $3,500

Given Judgment Against Father of North Dakotan Who Killed Husband.

Mrs. Mary Ross Wins Suit Against Harry Cooper of Hillsboro.

Fargo, N. D., Jan. 28.—(Special to The Herald.)—Mrs. Mary Ross was given judgment by a jury in district court here against Harry J. Cooper at Hillsboro, N. D., for $3,500 for the death of her husband, killed by Cooper's son. She sued Cooper for $50,000 damages because of the killing of her husband, who was foreman on Cooper's farm, by McLain Cooper, son of defendant.

The shooting occurred three years ago and Ross was struck in the spine by a bullet from young Cooper's revolver, dying after several weeks of suffering. The shooter was acquitted, but following the trial there were sensational charges of bribery and the grand jury investigated the acts of an attorney for Cooper and a number of jurors and others, but nothing resulted.

FORGES CHECK THEN HE COMMITS SUICIDE

Cyrus, Minn., Young Man Kills Himself at Minot, N. D.

Minot, N. D., Jan. 28.—Registering at a local hotel under the name "Jack Ford, Minneapolis," a young man guest was assigned to a room and a few minutes later shots rang out. Investigation showed he had killed himself, leaving a note reading:

"My name is Clifford Squires, address Cyrus, Minn. My aunt's name is Helen Kittleson, Cyrus Minn."

The coroner wired Minnesota for information.

Forged Uncle's Name.

Cyrus, Minn., Jan. 28.—Clifford Squires, who shot and killed himself in a Minot hotel, would have been 21 years of age in March. He had been working for his board at the home of an aunt, Mrs. C. O. Tollefson, on a farm near here. Sunday night he forged the name of Tollefson, husband of the woman, to a check for $10, had it cashed and hired an auto to take him to Morris, where he boarded a train for Minot. The boy's parents died several years ago.

DINNIE HEAD OF MUNICIPAL LEAGUE

N. D. Organization Also Favors Proposed County Assessor's Plan.

Fargo, N. D., Jan. 28.—(Special to The Herald.)—Mayor Dinnie of Grand Forks was elected president of the North Dakota Municipal league for the ensuing year. The organization indorsed the proposed county assessor plan and insisted that road money be expended in the territory in which it is raised by taxation.

MINNESOTA FIRE LOSSES INCREASED

Many Fires Last Year Are Attributed to Incendiaries.

St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 28.—Fire losses of nearly $1,000,000 were caused by incendiaries in Minnesota last year, Charles E. Keller, state fire marshal, declares in his annual report. Fires that could be traced directly to incendiaries did $162,000 damage, but in the list of conflagrations from "unknown cause," which totaled $1,701,000, more than one-half he declares, were undoubtedly set deliberately. The proportion of incendiarism is a great menace, he declared, and efforts of authorities should be directed to stamping it out.

Total Loss $4,375,000.

The total loss, recorded from 2,801 fires, amounted in 1914 to $4,375,000 as compared with a loss from 2,511 fires of $3,929,000 in 1913, an increase of $454,000. The bulk of the increase has occurred outside of the three principal cities, he points out, for although Minneapolis shows an increase of $127,000, St. Paul and Duluth reveal a decrease. The growth, the fire marshal believes, is fairly proportionate to the growth of the state and is not due to any unusual cause.

158 Buildings Were Condemned.

In its work of prevention, the marshal's office condemned 138 dilapidated buildings and issued 527 orders for the removal of rubbish and other inflammable materials. It also ordered fire escapes and repairs on 116 buildings, compelled the construction of exits in 157 theaters and issued 101 orders to schools for the holding of drills and the installation of chemical apparatus. His report appeals for an extension of the authority of local fire officials to compel preventive measures.

IS HELD ON CHARGE OF FORGING DEEDS.

Grafton, N. D., Jan. 28.—C. A. Verry, formerly of Grand Forks, later connected with the Farmers' Security Bank of Park River, was arraigned here this morning before Justice Ball on the charge of forgery and held for trial.

He entered a plea of not guilty.

The charge against Verry is made by his former partner, Frank Skala, who claims that his own name and that of his wife was forged by Verry to two deeds to tracts of land in Western Minnesota.

Verry was arrested at Park River by Sheriff Nelson of Walsh county last Friday afternoon, after having been vainly sought in the southern part of the state.

DUTCH COLONY IN WARD COUNTY, N. D.

Advance Guard of New Settlers Reaches Minot and Is Welcomed.

Minot, N. D., Jan. 28.—Five Hollanders, representing a colony of 118 Dutchmen and their families from Fulton county, Illinois, who contemplate settling on farm land in Ward county, arrived in the Magic City Tuesday afternoon over the Soo railroad.

The visitors coming here with a view to look the county over and being prospective settlers are George Dykema, Roy Sikkema, Karil Jaarsma, Tiet Novrman and Jan Sikkema.

Warm Reception.

The visitors were warmly greeted by Secretary D. S. Hollenga and a delegation of Minot citizens, who met them at the depot in a number of automobiles and escorted them to the Minot Mid-Winter fair and the homes at which they will stop during their stay here.

Guests at Dinner.

The visiting Hollanders were tendered a dinner at the Leland hotel Wednesday night by the Minot Association of Commerce and during their stay here were shown around the county and afforded ample opportunity to see what Ward county can do. They will probably remain here until the end of the fair.

Secretary Hollenga is directly responsible for the trip of these Hollanders, having made a trip and campaign in Illinois for new settlers for this county. In view of the fact that Mr. Hollenga is himself a Hollander, he quickly secured the confidence of his countrymen.

If the visitors are pleased with this country they will inform their countrymen of what they have seen and the colony will undoubtedly move here as they have indicated they would.

The John Deborg farm in section 36 has also been leased for drilling purposes. The land is two miles south of town.

COMMERCIAL CLUB OF CROOKSTON BUSY

Crookston, Minn., Jan. 28.—(Special to The Herald.)—The annual meeting of the Commercial club was held last evening and the annual report of Secretary J. M. Cathcart showed greater activities along more lines than was ever submitted in the history of the club.

During the last year $11,740.50 was collected. This amount represents what the business men of Crookston formerly spent in financing various conventions and maintaining the Commercial club. Under the new system, the club finances all conventions and during the past year has not only financed the conventions but Secretary J. M. Cathcart has also personally attended to practically all the details for a great many of the conventions that have been held here. Splendid progress has been shown by the industrial committee in securing new industries for Crookston. The new Cordage company being the biggest gain recorded in the city's history this year. The E. E. Strandell Construction company for the manufacture of the Interlocking Cement Staved Silos has also been secured and the Christianson feeder and band cutter for separators, wagon boxes and general wooden work has also been secured.

The C. O. D. Gas Tractor company of Crookston will also have a gas tractor ready for the market next spring, J. O. Espy, being the inventor, and the main man behind the proposition.

Concerns Seeking Sites.

Among the concerns desirous to locate here are the Advance Spreader company, Peter Fox & Co., who wish to put in a cold storage plant, Libby, McNeill & Libby who expect to start a salting plant here and a number of others which cannot be mentioned at this time.

Secretary Cathcart in his annual report referred especially to the report of the industrial committees. His report was received with the greatest enthusiasm and it is generally recognized that during the past year his work has been not only efficient but opened up wonderful new Commercial club prosperities. The Commercial club not only finances all conventions, but the city band as well and has been a big factor in promoting the Fourth Annual Farm Crops show which will be held here Feb. 16 to 19, furnishing the major portion of the cash expended.

DENY WOLVES ARE BAD AS REPORTED

Cass County Residents Say Stories Printed Are Not True.

Cass Lake, Minn., Jan. 28.—(Special to The Herald.)—Dissatisfaction is voiced over the stories of the reported ferociousness of wolves in Cass county, and the residents of the county feel that it has been unjustly advertised in this connection. Reports of people being attacked and the unsafeness of traveling in the woods after dark and similar stories have been circulated broadcast, and the fact that they are without foundation is annoying.

Trappers who have each winter made a nice income at their business, and who this winter found trapping to be unprofitable on account of the poor market, have been trying their luck at the wolves, trusting that the bounty would aid them in making up the deficiency to some extent, have found the wolves very scarce, and with the exception of a very few which captured after a considerable hunt, only one or two have been sighted.

Homesteaders and farmers for several miles in each direction from Cass Lake do their trading here, and not one has been known to complain of any danger from the wolves. Many few of them are able to relate of having seen one for over a year.

CASS LAKE NOTES.

Cass Lake, Minn., Jan. 28.—(Special to The Herald.)—Rev. F. E. Reynolds of Minneapolis opened evangelistic services here Tuesday night, and there was a large number present on the opening evening. Rev. Mr. Reynolds is known as the business man evangelist.

The former saloon part of the Chase hotel is being entirely remodeled and will be used as a parlor for the guests of the hotel.

The Cass County Pioneer has entered on its twenty-second year. The paper was established by A. A. Oliver on Jan. 16, 1894. A. A. Oliver still maintains an interest in the publication, but the editorial department is now in the hands of Robert A. Oliver, his son.

Relief for Catarrh Sufferers Now FREE

You Can Now Treat This Trouble in Your Own Home and Get Relief at Once.

How the Remedy for Catarrh Was Discovered.

By the new method the nose and throat are treated by an effective local remedy applied directly to the afflicted membranes.

THIS terrible disease has raged unchecked for years simply because symptoms have been treated while the cause of the trouble has been left to circulate in the blood, and bring the disease back as fast as local treatments could relieve it.

C. E. Gauss, who experimented for years on a treatment for Catarrh, found that after perfecting a balm that relieved the nose and throat troubles quickly, he could not prevent the trouble beginning all over again.

On test cases, he could completely remove all signs of Catarrh from nose and throat, but in a few weeks they were back.

The Elixir, taken into the stomach, has a direct influence upon the mucous membranes of the body and cures the disease by removing the cause.

Careful experiments and investigations have shown that as the troubles were expelled from the nose and throat, the real cause of the disease was overlooked and in a short time the Catarrh would return stronger than ever. Mr. Gauss has gone way ahead of the ordinary methods of treatment and has provided a remedy that

Removes the Cause

and Immediately Gives Relief to the Nose and Throat

Reese Jones, of Scranton, Penn., says that after trying many other treatments, he used this new method and—"My nose is now entirely clear and free and I am not bothered by the disease any more. The New Combined Treatment is worth its weight in gold."

Temporary relief from catarrh may be obtained in other ways, but the New Combined Treatment must inevitably be accepted for permanent results.

Sarah J. Cape, Mount Pelia, Tenn., says, "I suffered the pains and distress of catarrh for thirteen years and needless to state, tried nearly every method. But by your new method I was completely cured and you cannot imagine the joy that has come over me."

Trial Treatment FREE

This new method is so important to the welfare of humanity, so vital to every person suffering from any form of catarrh, that the opportunity to actually test it and prove its results, will be gladly extended without one cent of cost.

A large trial treatment, with complete, minute directions, will be sent free to any catarrh-sufferer.

Send no money, take no risks, make no promises. Simply clip, sign and mail the coupon and the test package of the New Combined Treatment will be sent, fully prepaid, together with the valuable book on Catarrh.

THE DAILY ROLL CALL; A COLUMN OF SPORTS

BY BRUCE.

FORT BILL is due tomorrow evening with what is classed as a faster hockey team than the sterling aggregation sent our way by the Port Arthur aggregation. John Adams, left wing extraordinary, is rated in the Broadstreet and Dunn of the sporting world as being one of the sensations of the Western Canadian ice. Quite enough said.

Adams is large and healthy and one of the speediest skaters in all Canada. Heads up, boys. We have seen "Hank" Baker and the Duke of Wellington—alas and alack, we await with consuming interest the coming of John Adams.

In addition to Adams there are others. B. McTeigue at goal is considered one of the greatest net guardians in the Western portion of the Dominion. A graduate of Laval university, this lad bears the reputation of being one of the nittiest players turned away from Montreal.

Dale Bole is a former Toronto university star. He plays at rover and during the course of each game is credited with doing a lot of roving.

Dominick O'Neil, right wing, is another of the visiting players who comes with the stamp of made in Eastern Canada. He is a graduate from Ottawa university and is especially known for ability to back check.

Bill Adams, Bruce Colville and Bob Armstrong are other members of the septet that is expected to make trouble for the Linderites and cause thrills of exceeding animation among those attending the contest.

The Return of Packey.

NAPOLEON'S return from Elba must ever stand as one of the most prodigious attempts at the comeback in the long and dark corridors of history. Little Nap should have taken on several dubs and got several fights under his belt before hooking up with Kid Wellington, who possessed a fast left and could hit from any angle.

Jim Jeffries, Teddy Roosevelt and Bill Taft are others. There are others—countless others. While dwelling on the obstacles in the path of the comeback allow us to mention that Packey McFarland, the prosperous brewer, is hesitating on the brink of bubbling pugilism.

Packey only desires to become lightweight, welterweight and middleweight champion. As jokers, the Irish must ever remain the supreme.

When Marty Forkins was in our midst he unburdened himself one afternoon in Doc McNulty's office. Marty spoke about the following lines:

"Packey McFarland will outpoint Mike Gibbons just as much as Mike Gibbons outpointed Jimmy Clabby. Take that down and reserve it for future reference. There is no boxer in the world anywhere near McFarland's size who can outpoint him over the 10-round route. For 20 rounds the case might be different.

"When McGoorty was training in New York for his meeting with Gibbons, he worked out one afternoon with McFarland. The stockyards boy made a fool of Eddie.

"McFarland is a fighting machine. He has the most wonderful left hand in the world. McFarland has everything Gans possessed, save the punch of the colored wonder. Gans could hit right up to the end.

"Don't ever let them persuade you that Mike Gibbons would outpoint this McFarland. As a boxer he is a marvel—and I have the greatest respect in the world for Mike Gibbons."

Let us add that a meeting between McFarland and Gibbons would create more pre-battle discussion and would likewise draw a larger house than any other meeting that match makers throughout the country could hit upon.

A Contest for Central.

Ray Johns of St. Paul is at present time endeavoring to arrange for a contest here between the St. Paul Central high school hockey team and the seven of Duluth Central. In return for a contest here it is the plan of Johns to arrange a game in St. Paul between the two schools.

Johns is of the opinion that such a contest would be the means of arousing interest in the game at the two schools, and would also be a good drawing card. St. Paul Central has a good team, according to the statement of Ray, and as Duluth Central is strong, a meeting between the two schools would be of great interest.

FAMOUS SKATERS IN GREAT EXHIBITION

John Davidson and Margaret Sheak Appear at Curling Club Rink in Skillful Stunts.

Johnny Davidson, premier fancy ice skater of the world, and Miss Margaret Sheak gave a remarkable exhibition of continental skating at the curling club rink last evening. The attendance, owing doubtless to the cold weather, did not measure up to the merit of the attraction, which was easily the greatest exhibition of graceful and skillful skating ever given at any Duluth rink.

One of the features of the exhibition was the feat of Mr. Davidson skating on tall stilts. Mr. Davidson and Miss Sheak waltzed and went through various gyrations that brought applause from the spectators. It was a remarkable exhibition of two remarkable skaters.

OSWEGO IS VERY STRONG

Crack Eastern Quint to Meet Rotary Basket Ball Team.

Manager Basloe of the crack Oswego, N. Y., basket ball team writes here that the Eastern five will be in great shape when it stacks up against the Rotary five of Duluth.

Grimstead, La Cass, Murnane, Murphy, Alberding and Roberts are the members of the team. The team was organized in 1905 and during its organization has won 397 games and lost but 40.

In the championship series between the Buffalo Germans and the Oswego five, Oswego scored 95 to 74 points and won three of the four games. This contest was supposed to be for the American championship, and the title won at that time is still held by the New York quint.

Lawrence Duby, manager of the Rotary team, will place in the field the strongest aggregation that can be molded from the star players of the Head of the Lakes. Morrey Harris, Dutch Jeronimus, Roy Johnson, Dick and Jim Bradley and Oscar Solheim with the addition of Bill Bradley are the players that will go to make up the local team.

It is expected that Duluth will give the visitors a hard battle.

GUNBOAT WINS ONE; MATCHED FOR ANOTHER

New Orleans, La., Jan. 28.—"Gunboat" Smith won a decision over "Battling" Levinsky in a 20-round fight here last night. Levinsky seemed unable to solve Smith's jabbing and hooking attack, and left the ring badly battered. Smith was unmarked.

Smith weighed 179 and Levinsky 171 pounds.

SKI STARS ARE COMING

Barney Riley Will Try for Record on Chester Hill.

Axel Hendrickson Will Perform His Sensational Somersault.

Barney Riley yesterday sent in his entry to the secretary of the Duluth Ski club yesterday. The assurance that the intrepid Irishman of Virginia is going to be among the riders at the big meet will be welcome news to hundreds of followers of the sport.

Among the scores of names of Scandinavian origin the aggressively Irish name of Barney Riley stands forth with all the lurid prominence of red silk waist at a mourning party.

For six years Riley has been after the association record. Upon several occasions the Virginia lad has come close to winning it. This winter Riley is riding in great form and promises to be among those who stand a chance to shatter the world's mark of 169 feet, held by Ragnar Omtvedt.

Hill in Great Shape.

Chester hill is in great shape for the ski meet. The abundance of snow is bound to make the going fast. Should a slight thaw set in between now and a week from Saturday, the course down the big chute will be without doubt the fastest in the history of any local meet.

Axel Hendrickson, the lad who goes clear to the top of the big slide and then turns a complete sommersault in the air after leaving the take-off, will be among the attractions of the tourney.

Some years ago Rudd startled the followers of the sport by performing the same stunt from a start halfway up the smaller slide. Hendrickson goes clear to the top of the big slide and uses a paid of skis only six feet in length.

Followers of the sport claim that the feat performed by Hendrickson is little short of marvelous.

Many Stars Coming.

Among the star professional riders who are expected here, are Sig Hanson of Chicago; S. Erickson, Superior; A. Hendrickson, Blair; C. Overby, Hudson; L. Haugen, Chippewa Falls; A. Haugen, Milwaukee; Carl Linberg, Duluth; J. Evenson, Virginia; A. Norby, Superior; D. Lind, Mt. Horeb, and R. Omtvedt, the present world's champion.

Aksel Holter, secretary of the National Ski association, is to be here for the tourney. Mr. Holter will be in Duluth several days previous to the meet, arranging some of the details of the business meeting of the association.

COLD WEATHER CAUSES GAME POSTPONEMENT.

The hockey game between the Northerns and the Bagleys, which was to have been played last evening at the French rink in place of the postponed contest between the high school and Two Harbors, was called off because of the cold weather and the further fact that some of the Bagley players were unable to play.

On Friday evening the league officials are going to endeavor to schedule a double-header. The high school and Two Harbors teams and the Bagleys and Northerns are on the tapis for games.

Feds After Ping Bodie.

N. Y. MOTHER-TEACHER ORDERED REINSTATED.

New York, Jan. 28.—The board of education yesterday voted to reinstate Mrs. Bridget Peixottto, a teacher who was dismissed after she absented herself from her duties to become a mother. All charges against other teacher mothers under suspicion were ordered dropped.

"I'LL QUIT MAT FOREVER IF KETONEN WINS," MILLER

Pole Says He Is Through With Wrestling Game for All Time If He Loses the Most Important Match of His Life; Ketonen Is Reported in the Prime of Condition.

BY BRUCE.

"I'll never wrestle again if that Finn beats me."

This was the positive statement made by Walter Miller before he departed for Chicago to put the finishing touches on his training for the long-awaited meeting with Waino Ketonen.

Never before in his wrestling career has Miller been so peeved as at the present time. Not only did the little Pole state that he would throw away his wrestling tights if vanquished by Ketonen, but he also stated that he was going to tear at Waino from the first and give the Finn one merry beating that he will not forget in years.

It is a strange coincidence that it was another beating administered by Miller that started the grudge between the two wrestlers. For some reason Miller has an abiding hatred for all Finns. When the little Pole met Nestor Tuominen in the Copper County he gave the Finn a mat mauling that will long be remembered by that wrestler and the fans who witnessed the contest.

Ketonen's Ire Aroused.

A chap by the name of Peterson was the manager of Tuominen. Back to Worcester hurried Peterson. Into the listening ear of Ketonen he poured the story of the mat man-handling of poor Tuominen. Tuominen was the good friend of Ketonen. Right then Ketonen started gunning after Miller. That was back some eighteen months ago. The man hunt will come to an end at the auditorium next Tuesday evening, when for the first time in their lives the two wrestlers will get a peep at one another.

Miller has never seen Ketonen and Ketonen has likewise never fastened his gaze on Miller. Miller first heard of Ketonen from the lips of Tom Scanlon. That was after Waino had Chris Jordon pinned in the first seven minutes in Cleveland. Miller has looked long and attentively at the pictures of Ketonen; the Finn has thumbed with interest photographs of Miller. If the two wrestlers don't meet on the streets of Duluth before the contest, they will lamp each other for the first time when they climb through the ropes on Tuesday evening.

Waino is due to arrive today from Lincoln. The finishing touches to the condition of the little Finn will be put on here. Fred Beell has been asked to be here to act as Ketonen's second.

The following special dispatch from Lincoln gives an idea of the hard and strenuous work Ketonen has been undergoing to be in the pink of condition:

"It well behooves Walter Miller, the St. Paul middleweight wrestler, to be in the best trim of his career when he clashes with Waino Ketonen, the 'demon Finn,' next week in Duluth; otherwise the athlete from the Minnesota capital is fairly sure to be flopped in straight falls and find his shoulders jammed against the pad. Ketonen, who has been working out in Lincoln for the last three weeks, has rounded into stunning physical condition and is fit to mix it up all night with any middleweight opponent in the world.

"Proof of the confidence and esteem in which Ketonen is held in Lincoln is provided by an incident of the last few days. A member of the local 'rassling' fraternity named 'Farmer' Kersenbrock, weighing over 200 pounds, recently broke into print with a declaration that he had won a match in straight falls from Jim Roller, the renowned Seattle heavyweight, and that he had been rematched with Roller in Scott City, Kan. Kersenbrock, as a matter of fact, has no such achievement to his credit, although he was able to impose on a 'green' newspaper writer and get his spurious claim into print. At any rate, a Ketonen supporter retorted with a newspaper defi offering to match Ketonen against the husky Kersenbrock for any part of $500, the match to be wrestled in private, thus blocking Kersenbrock in his effort to attain a reputation which might bring him gate receipts. Ketonen would be outweighed by Kersenbrock at least fifty pounds, in spite of which the supporter of the 'demon Finn' has offered to 'shoot' the whole $500 if Kersenbrock or his followers are anxious to get action for that amount. But there is small likelihood that Kersenbrock wants any of Ketonen's game. The truth is they have grappled many times in gymnasium bouts and Ketonen has won at least a score of falls from his heavyweight opponent."

REPORTS ON SEA BATTLE

Admiral Beatty Telegraphs Details to British Admiralty.

Lion Bore Brunt of Fighting and Was Damaged.

London, Jan. 28.—The admiralty has received the following preliminary telegraphic report from Vice Admiral Sir David Beatty regarding the naval action between the British and German squadrons in the North sea on Sunday:

"A flotilla of destroyers patrolling about 7:30 o'clock in the morning sighted and attacked the enemy, whose force, according to the reports received, consisted of four battle cruisers, six light cruisers and some destroyers. Their position when sighted was approximately fourteen miles east-southeast of our battle cruiser squadron.

"Orders were given by signal to the destroyer flotilla to chase the enemy and to report their movements.

"As it appeared that they had at once commenced to retire to the east-southeast, the battle cruisers were directed to steer southeast, with a view to securing the lee position, and to cutting the enemy off if possible. The situation developed by degrees into a stern chase.

"Speed was worked up to 28 or 29 knots and the enemy were gradually being overhauled. At about 18,000 yards a slow and deliberate fire was opened, and we began to hit at a range of 17,000 yards. Our fire was returned by the enemy.

"The Lion and the Tiger, having drawn ahead of the remainder of the squadron, were in action alone for some time and consequently were subjected to the enemy's concentrated fire, more particularly the Lion which ship suffered more as a result.

"The other vessels, as they drew up engaged the enemy. A German flotilla of destroyers, was disposed of on the starboard beam of their cruisers and an attack by them was driven off.

Lion Damaged.

"At about 11 o'clock, unfortunately, a lucky shot damaged one of the Lion's feed tanks, causing the port engine to be stopped. At the same time enemy submarines were observed on the starboard bow and a course was steered in order to avoid them.

"The Bluecher (German) was now in a critical condition with her speed reduced, and the Indomitable, which had come up, was directed to complete her destruction.

"The rest of the squadron were directed to attack the rear of the enemy. The Lion, with escort, steered to the northwest, steaming with one engine, and I transferred my flag to one of the destroyers and subsequently to the Princess Royal. Through the damage to the Lion's feed tank, we were undoubtedly deprived of a greater victory. The presence of the enemy's submarines subsequently necessitated the action being broken off.

"The result of the action was that the Bluecher was sunk and two other battle cruisers were seriously damaged. The German prisoners reported that the Kolberg had sunk by over-salvos from our squadron.

Towed Into Port.

"Subsequently the starboard engines of the Lion also developed trouble from the same cause as the port engines and the Indomitable took her in tow and brought her into port. The damage to the Lion and Tiger is not serious and repairs may be completed in a short time. The remainder of the squadron were not hit.

"The casualties are very light. The death of Engineer Capt. Taylor, whose services have been invaluable, is deeply regretted.

"The behavior of officers and men was only what was expected, and great credit is due to the engine room staffs for the fine steaming of the squadron."

The earlier reports of the engagement announced that the Lion and the torpedo boat destroyer Meteor had been damaged. Vice Admiral Beatty's report mentions the Lion and Tiger and omits any reference to the Meteor.

CHANGING tobacco every few weeks used to be the regular thing with tobacco chewers, but not so now with the men who use "Right-Cut," the Real Tobacco Chew. Why, they like it so well they can't help talking about it to their friends.

A little chew of pure, rich, mellow tobacco—cut fine, short shred—seasoned and sweetened just enough, cuts out so much of the grinding and spitting.

Take a very small chew—less than one-quarter the old size. It will be more satisfying than a mouthful of ordinary tobacco. Just nibble on it until you find the strength chew that suits you. Tuck it away. Then let it rest. See how easily and evenly the real tobacco taste comes, how it satisfies without grinding, how much less you have to spit, how few chews you take to be tobacco satisfied. That's why it is The Real Tobacco Chew. That's why it costs less in the end.

It is a ready chew, cut fine and short shred so that you won't have to grind on it with your teeth. Grinding on ordinary candied tobacco makes you spit too much.

The taste of pure, rich tobacco does no need to be covered up with molasses and licorice. Notice how the salt brings out the rich tobacco taste in "Right-Cut."

One small chew takes the place of two big chews of the old kind.

PAY BIG SUM IN PENSIONS

Steel Corporation Has Disbursed $1,500,000 Since January, 1911.

More Than 2,000 Former Employes Now on Pension Roll.

Retired employes of the United States Steel croporation have benefitted to the extent of more than $1,500,000 since January, 1911, according to the fourth annual report of the pension fund, made public today.

The iron ore region, which includes all mines operated by the Oliver Iron Mining company, benefited to the extent of $21,330.67. This includes the Duluth, Missabe & Northern railway and the Duluth & Iron Range railroad, which received $590.60 and $599.10 respectively.

In 1911 an aggregate of $281,457.37 was distributed; in 1912 it was $358,780.92; in 1913 the fund amounted to $122,816.14, and in 1914 the total was $511,967.90. These figures show an increase of about $75,000 for the years 1912 and 1913 and $90,000 for the year 1914.

There now are more than 2,000 former employes on the pension roll, with an average pension, for those added in 1914, of $20.40 per month; an average service of 28.76 years, and an average age of 63.33 years.

The basis of this pension fund was $4,000,000 from the Carnegiee relief fund, to which the Steel corporation has added $8,000,000, making a joint fund of $12,000,000. Operations were commenced on Jan. 1, 1911. The fund applies to all who were in the service of the United States Steel corporation, or any company owned or controlled by it, on the above date, or thereafter.

It is administered by a board of twelve trustees, including Frank D. Adams of Duluth, Ranal C. Bolling of New York, William B. Dickson of New York, Robert A. Franks of New York, Elbert H. Gary of New York, James H. Hoyt of Cleveland, Kemper K. Knapp of Chicago, George W. Perkins of New York, James H. Reed of Pittsburg, Andrew Squire of Cleveland, Charles L. Taylor of Pittsburg and Hampden E. Tener of New York. The manager of the fund is located in Pittsburg.

How Pensions Are Computed.

Pensions are computed as follows: For each year of service the employe receives 1 per cent of his average monthly pay during the last ten years of service.

All male employes who have been in the service twenty years or longer and are 60 years or more of age are eligible to a pension. Women are eligible at the age of 50 years. More than 70 per cent of those now on the pension rolls voluntarily requested to be pensioned.

Early in 1913 the permanent disability rule was amended so that any employe, age not considered, who has been in the service fifteen years and who has become absolutely unable to earn a livelihood, through no fault of his or hers, as a result of sickness of injuries sustained while on duty, is taken care of by the voluntary accident relief plan.

The distribution of the fund received by the various properties operated by the Oliver Iron Mining company and by the Duluth, Missabe & Northern and the Duluth & Iron Range is as follows:

Jaundice

THE "yellow janders," as grandma terms it, lasts a number of weeks and doesn't seem to bother the young patient a great deal, as a rule, whether the treatment be strictly scientific and according to Hoyle or just "yarbs" concocted from grandma's lore. It occurs among children and young adults, at times in groups like an epidemic. Just what is the cause, we do not know. Theoretically it is ascribed to a catarrhal swelling of the gall duct or the mouth of the gall duct where it opens into the bowel.

When jaundice is present the skin is yellow, the mucous membranes—the eye coat, the lips, the gums, even the tongue—are yellow, the secretions are all stained, especially the urine. But there is an absence of the usual bile stain in the bowel discharges. Putty colored, pasty, malodorous stools accompany jaundice.

The Liver Not Always Guilty.

Among the causes of jaundice may be mentioned poisoning by phosphorus, arsenic, or snake-venom. Malaria, yellow fever, sometimes typhoid fever, and scarlet fever are possible causes of jaundice without particular fault of the liver. Mental shock or fright can cause jaundice—which accounts for the yellow streak exhibited by the trust magnate on the witness stand.

The most characteristic case of jaundice is an obstruction of the natural drainage of bile into the bowel, a gallstone lodged in the gall duct, an inflammatory swelling of the gall duct, a round worm working its way into the gall duct, pressure on the duct by a swelling or tumor of a neighboring organ or in rare instances an aneurism of the aorta.

The Accompanying Symptoms.

With pronounced jaundice the tint of the skin may be a greenish brown, so-called "black jaundice." In any case there is more or less itching of the skin, sweating particularly about the abdomen and palms of the hands, and often hives or boils. The pulse slows to 50 or less per minute, and the breathing is slow in comparison. Occasionally the patient sees everything about him yellow—has yellow vision. If of the male persuasion, and blessed with a sweetheart, he is liable to spurn her when she sees her complexion so terribly changed.

In jaundice there is a tendency to hemorrhage. For this reason surgeons do not like to operate on a jaundiced patient if conditions do not demand immediate operation. The clotting time of the blood is lengthened from the normal four minutes to eight or ten or twelve minutes. But certain calcium salts will reduce the time considerably.

Depression of spirits or even melancholia may occur from the toxic action of bile.

Sallow skin, without staining of the "whites" of the eyes, should not be blamed on the liver. Sallowness means nothing but anemia, or a torpid circulation, usally a lack of daily outdoor exercise and cold air.

Questions and Answers.

R. H. inquires: Is the cause of epilepsy known? Is there any cure for it?

REPLY.

Alcoholism in one or both parents is considered a cause of epilepsy. The specific cause of the disease is not known. There is therefore no specific remedy. Treatment must be determined by a careful consideration of the individual case.

S. M. M. asks: Is it desirable to exclude meat from the diet of a woman 43 years of age who has "rheumatoid arthritis" of five years' standing?

REPLY.

Not on that account, at any rate. The average case of "rheumatoid arthritis" depends upon some chronic septic focus somewhere in the body, and this must be attacked before much improvement can be expected.

Mrs. T. T. asks: Will you kindly inform me whether there is any cod liver oil preparation which one can give a child and obtain the medicinal effects of the oil and avoid the oil.

REPLY.

If you are looking for a cod liver oil preparation which retains the medicinal effects without the oil, you are looking in vain. There is no good evidence that any refinement or extract of the cod liver short of the oil itself is of medicinal value.

COLD SPELL HELPS TRADE

Stocks of Heavy Goods in Retailers' Hands Being Cleared Up.

Higher Prices in Some Lines Predicted By Duluth Wholesalers.

While cold weather extending over a wide area of country has tended to retard wholesale business somewhat in some lines, others have been benefited materially, and generally speaking the movement of merchandise is regarded as satisfactory.

It is the consensus of opinion that stocks of distinctly winter goods will be cleaned up more closely than in several years back, and merchants are consequently placing future orders more freely.

A further factor in promoting trade at the present is that the markets are beginning to move up again in many lines, bringing about an inclination on the part of retailers to anticipate their requirements in the products affected.

Grocery Prices Firmer.

Trade in groceries was reported good by the Barthe-Martin company of this city and the Twohy-Elmon Mercantile company of Superior. A firming up in the market in many foodstuffs was noted, with indications pointing to higher prices through the list. Sugars have become strong, New York jobbers holding their minimum quotation in cane at $4.95. Demand has picked up materially, and refiners in some instances are said to be behind in their orders. A sharp bulge is predicted in sugars within the next few weeks by prominent Eastern market authorities. Coffees are steady, that market being largely influenced by the freight situation between Brazil and the Atlantic seaboard ports. Cheap Japan teas are scarce and firm, but the market in the high grades is indifferent as a result of comparatively light inquiry.

Canned and dried fruits and vegetables are pointing higher, that being attributed largely to liberal European export demand in several products having sprung up of late. Prunes have been advanced half a cent a pound by jobbers.

Flour and cereals generally are advancing. Flour at the mills has bulged to $7.10 a barrel.

Cold Helps Drygoods.

In the drygoods trade, comment is made by F. A. Patrick & Co. upon the fact that the extended period of cold weather is enabling merchants to clean up their stocks of heavy goods better than in a number of years back. Spring orders for immediate shipment are coming in satisfactorily through salesmen, and substantial future business is being taken. The contingent of special salesmen, put on by the house to push business in Patricks, was reported to be opening up considerable new ground, and trade in that line is bulking up gratifyingly.

Active Hardware Demand.

Business in hardware staples and features was advised to be well up to expectations by the Kelley-How-Thomson company, and the Marshall-Wells Hardware company. Quotations in all iron and steel products are firm and in some directions advances are expected.

Owing to the continued bulge in copper metal, a marking up is expected at any time in copper nuts and burs.

Linseed oil has been advanced six cents a gallon, in line with higher quotations in flaxseed. Demand for oil is reported to be showing some improvement over the West.

Liberal Shoe Orders.

Salesmen of the Northern Shoe company were advised to be landing good business in felts and rubbers for next fall's shipment. Trade in the factory's general lines is holding up well with shipments comparing favorably with last year.

Furniture Dealers Stocking Up.

"Furniture men throughout the country appear to be stocking up more than they have done in some time, to judge from the nature of the orders being taken by our salesmen," said C. E. De Witt, manager of the De Witt-Seitz company. He averred that trade from over the farming districts in the West is showing special evidence of picking up as a result of the optimistic views being entertained by merchants in the various towns following the good outturn from last season's crops.

SIGMA XI MEN GIVE DINNER

Donald Wesbrook Speaks on "Iron Mining in Minnesota."

Duluth members of Sigma Xi, an honorary fraternity composed of persons recognized by American universities for their special research work, attended the regular bi-monthly dinner of the organization at the Commercial club last night.

Following the dinner, Donald M. Wesbrook, secretary of the Duluth chapter of the fraternity, gave an address on "Iron Mining in Minnesota," telling of his experiences and observations during several seasons' work in the Hibbing district.

"Methods used in underground mining work have changed but little during recent years," declared Mr. Wesbrook. "Except where concrete shafts have replaced the older ones and steel or iron beams have supplanted timber. The open pit method is, of course, being developed rapidly, and on the Minnesota range there are some of the best examples of open pit work." It is a custom of the fraternity to have some member give an address at each meeting.

Those present were: Dr. and Mrs. E. L. Tuohy, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Wesbrook, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Kelley, Oscar Bjorge, W. A. Owens, Arthur Ringsred and Eugene Van Cleef. The next meeting will not be held until some time in April.

Minnesota Encourages the Brewing of Beer

WAR GOVERNOR IN 1860 SIGNS TEMPERANCE LAW

Governor Ramsey, the staunch old war governor of Minnesota, in 1860 joyfully signed the following temperance law—chapter 29 of the laws of 1860, approved March 8, 1860, entitled:

An act to encourage the manufacture of pure lager beer and thereby to discourage the use of alcoholic liquors. It is provided that no license shall be required for the purpose of selling lager beer manufactured in the state.

Alex. Ramsey

This law did not even consider beer an alcoholic liquor and its use was recommended to discourage strong drink.

FITGER NATURAL BEER
"A DRAUGHT BEER IN BOTTLES"

The Fitger Kieselguhr filter, first of its kind in America, preserves the flavor and aroma of the natural beer, which pasteurization, commonly in use, destroys. The Fitger Kieselguhr filtration purifies better than pasteurization. It preserves the quality of the natural beer. To pasteurize beer it must be heated. That spoils the taste and quality. Good judges used to prefer draught beer. They now drink Fitger Natural Beer.

Fitger Natural Beer is a brilliant draught beer, placed on your table in bottles, absolutely pure, and with the wonderful fragrant freshness of natural beer as drawn from the wood.

A. Fitger.

AUTO SHOW PLANS MADE

Every Dealer in City Will Take Part in the Exhibit.

Orchestra Will Play Each Night; Special Features Arranged.

Every automobile dealer in the city will enter from one to three cars in the show, which will be modeled exactly after the Twin Cities automobile show opening in the armory at Minneapolis Saturday afternoon. The interior of the Auditorium is being entirely renovated and painted for the show and a large crew of men will shortly start work on the decorations and the building of the stands and booths.

W. F. Daly, a local motor enthusiast, is in charge of the show and Mr. Daly announced yesterday that all the arrangements for Duluth's first automobile show have been completed and that he has the support of practically every dealer in the city, besides business houses dealing in accessories. About forty cars will be exhibited, he said, together with several of the special exhibitions, which were at the New York show last week and which are being shown in Chicago this week. These are to be sent to Duluth early next month, he said.

The show will open at 10:30 o'clock on the morning of Feb. 22 and will close each evening at the same hour. There will be a musical program each evening by a concert orchestra, while all visitors at the show will be loaded with souvenirs, thousands of which are to be given away during the week.

Mr. Daly plans to divide the week into society day, range day, another for school children, and so on throughout the week. The show will come to a close on Saturday evening, Feb. 27.

IF BACKACHY OR KIDNEYS BOTHER

Eat Less Meat Also Take Glass of Salts Before Eating Breakfast.

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish, ache, and feel like lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy; the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. When the kidneys clog you must help them flush off the body's urinous waste or you'll be a real sick person shortly. At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from backache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad.

Eat less meat, drink lots of water; also get from any pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Druggists here say they sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

WAS AWAKE ALL RIGHT.

Sergeant's Test of Patrolman's Watchfulness Costs Him His Life.

Portland, Or., Jan. 28.—Police Sergeant R. H. Stahl died here yesterday of a pistol wound received the night before while testing the wakefulness of a patrolman.

Sergeant Stahl recovered a physician's automobile which had been stolen and for which the entire police force had been ordered to be on the lookout. He drove the machine slowly past Patrolman C. E. Klingensmith to see whether the latter would recognize it. Klingensmith called to him to stop, and not receiving immediate response, opened fire. The first bullet pierced the sergeant's brain.

HEATING OF STREET CARS

It is doubtful if many of the persons who complain of the way street cars are heated have given more than a passing thought to the difficulties of the problem.

There is nothing quite so hard to heat as a street car. This is particularly true when low temperature is accompanied by a high wind. Thus far no means has been invented for keeping the air just inside the constantly opening door or close to the walls which are practically all glass from 60 to 90 degrees warmer than the air immediately outside, as sometimes seems to be expected.

Our cars are heated by means of hot water, which is the most satisfactory method known for this climate. Most passengers keep on their heavy outdoor clothing while riding in street cars in cold weather and the temperature as high as that maintained in our homes and offices would be very uncomfortable to them. We instruct our employes to keep the temperature in the cars as near 60 degrees as possible at all times, but this is not possible when the outside temperature is below zero, with a strong wind blowing.

We wish to remind those who are familiar with the operation of hot water heating systems in their homes with the rapid circulation which they are able to secure by placing the heater at a considerably lower level than the radiating surfaces cannot be obtained in a car. In a car the radiating surfaces must necessarily be placed below the level of the heater and this is a serious handicap in obtaining good circulation.

While hot water heaters are, all things considered, by far the most efficient for heating cars in this climate, things sometimes go wrong with them, as would be the case with any other system. The causes of trouble are sometimes such as cannot be foreseen by the management, nor controlled by the employes, and sometimes due to an attempt to force the circulation too rapidly by the motorman, but the usual result in either case is poor circulation and a cold car with a hot fire in the heater.

If under such circumstances the employes increase the fire in the heater in response to the requests they always get from passengers to "fire up," it results in mixing steam with the water, shutting off the circulation entirely, and sometimes in blowing all of the water in the heater out through the safety valve on the roof of the car. When the circulation has been stopped by such forcing the only way to make the car warm again is to allow the fire to go down and then to rebuild it slowly, re-establishing the circulation of water very slowly, without getting steam mixed with it by attempting to force it. To do this, the car is pulled into the carhouse, but often while it is completing a long trip or before it can be exchanged for a warm car many passengers are likely to ride upon it and suffer more or less from the cold. We are using every effort to make such cases as rare as possble and we believe that our employes generally observe our instructions to notify the office promptly when they have a car which it is necessary to take off the line to get the heating system working properly again. It is possible that employes may sometimes neglect to do this, and for that reason we are always glad to have passengers promptly notify our office when they find cars unusually cold. We always make it a point to have cars looked after at the very first opportunity.

ALICE SEWER WORK NOW PROGRESSING

Hibbing and Mining Companies Get Together on the Matter.

Hibbing, Minn., Jan. 28.—(Special to The Herald.)—Bricks and other material for manholes in the proposed sewer system at Alice will be opened at the next council meeting. The material will cost approximately $200.

Work on the sewer system is progressing rapidly. After much quibbling the village officials and mining companies have agreed upon the plans which are much nearer the original specifications than was formerly expected. The mining companies had their engineers examine the plans to see if some means could not be devised by which it would be possible to cheapen the cost of the construction without detracting from the efficiency of the sewers. They made several proposals most of which were found not to be as well grounded as outward indications would imply. It is probable that the only difference to the original plans will be the construction of an open ditch for the storm sewers from park addition to the main sewer ditch. The sanitary sewage will be run through an enclosed sewer as previously planned.

AMERICANS WELL RECEIVED AT TOKIO

Church Delegates Aim to Promote Friendly Relations Between Nations.

Tokio, Jan. 28.—Prof. Shailer Mathews of the University of Chicago and the Rev. Sydney L. Gulich of New York, who were authorized at the annual convention of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America, to go to Japan to foster cordial relations between the United States and Japan, received an enthusiastic welcome from the Japanese and delegations of foreigners who met them in Yokohama and escorted them to Tokio. They spoke today at a big welcome meeting arranged for them by the Federation of Churches.

The press is of the opinion that the visit, besides its religious object, is aimed at the promotion of friendly relations of Japan and America. The influential Osaka Mainichi and the Tokio Nichi-Nichi, in referring to Prof. Mathews as a staunch devotee of international peace and a great figure in the religious world, thinks the visit will add another link to the chain of cordiality between the two peoples, while stimulating religious sentiments as a source of spiritual happiness.

The Mainichi says: "The visits of great Americans like Dr. Gulick and Prof. Mathews greatly contribute to the awakening of the people regarding religious and spiritual life as the bases for national activity and progress."

A program for the activities of the Americans extending over a month has been arranged and includes visits to the universities in the interior.

DISABLED STEAMER REACHES NEW YORK

Angelo Parodi, Reported Lost, Towed Into Port By Greek Ship.

New York, Jan. 28.—The Italian steamship Angelo Parodi, which was lost from view of the revenue cutter Itasca yesterday in a fog and was believed to have gone down with her crew of twenty-seven, reached this port today in tow of the Greek steamer Crios.

The Parodi had been adrift since Jan. 19, when her supply of coal was exhausted. For four days the revenue cutter Itasca stood by and endeavored to get a line to the drifting ship. The Parodi's food supply ran out and this increased the suffering of the crew. High seas prevented the Itasca from aiding either the ship or those aboard.

During Monday night the Parodi drifted away from the Itasca in thick weather. The cutter searched all day Tuesday and yesterday for the ship and, not finding it, sent a wireless message last night to Norfolk, expressing the belief that the Parodi had sunk about 380 miles off Cape Henry with all on board. This belief was strengthened, the wireless message said, by the fact that the cutter encountered a mass of wreckage in her search. After the Parodi became separated from the Itasca, her officers said today, the Greek steamer Crios sighted her. This was at 3 o'clock in the morning of Jan. 26, a few hours after she had drifted away from the Itasca. The Crios succeeded in getting a line to the helpless vessel and took her in tow.

The rescue of the Parodi is the second one achieved by the Crios in successive voyages. On her previous voyage from New York to Piraeus on Nov. 23 the Crios fell in with the British steamer Gripwell, which had lost her propeller, and towed the Gripwell to Gibraltar, a distance of 800 miles.

The Parodi left Maddelena, Italy, thirty-three days ago for Baltimore.

COLD

"Paw" and the janitor are the most abused people in Duluth these days, because, shovel coal as they will, they cannot keep the house or flats, as the case may be, nearly warm enough. That is especially true in the mornings when one is arising from slumber, and hates to get the feet out on the cold floor, which, unfortunately, is necessary in order to pursue the more or less hazardous process of dressing. Chattering teeth are common at that hour, and the only one who fails to contribute to the castinet chorus is the person to place his or her teeth in a glass of water for the night. Then there is the danger of the teeth being frozen in—awful to contemplate. In short this is blamed cold weather, if anybody should ask you.

A year ago today was mild. The sun rose this morning at 7:38 and will set this afternoon at 5:05, giving nine hours and twenty-seven minutes of sunlight.

Mr. Richardson makes the following comment on weather conditions:

"The cold wave is moving eastward. Decidedly colder weather prevails in the Lake region and the Ohio, upper Mississippi and lower Missouri valleys and temperatures occurred eastward to including Michigan and Illinois and southward to Missouri and Northern Kansas. Temperatures 25 deg. to 30 deg. below zero occurred in Saskatchewan, Manitoba, Ontario, Minnesota, Wisconsin and Upper Michigan. Snow or rain fell during Wednesday or last night over central states, the Plateau region, California and Florida. Heavy rain fell at Tampa, Fla."

A WINTER TONIC

Why is it that some people keep well all winter while others, less exposed to cold and damp, suffer with colds, grip, pleurisy, pneumonia and all the ills of the season?

Thin blood and debility are the causes of much sickness in winter. When the blood is thin and there is oxygen starvation in the tissues of the body, poisons are retained that should be eliminated and there is a lowered resistance to disease.

Rheumatism disappears when the blood is built up and does not return if the blood is kept rich.

The after-effects of grip are never cured until the blood is built up.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills enrich the blood and enable it to carry more oxygen, to nourish the starved tissues in debility, to soothe the inflamed membranes in rheumatism, to quiet the nerves in neuralgia and sciatica and to expel the lingering germs after the fever and influenza of grip have passed. All winter Dr. Williams' Pink Pills should be in every house, ready for use. You can get them now at the nearest drug store.

The third edition of the popular little book "Building Up the Blood," has just been published. Write today to the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., for a free copy.

VILLAGE CUTUPS BROUGHT HERE

But Police Will Send Them Right Back to Embarrass.

Police officials don't know what to do with Jack Arffman, aged 28, and Andrew Wietala, aged 29, charged with drunkenness and disorderly conduct.

Constable Pekkarinen of Embarrass brought the pair to headquarters this morning, armed with a letter from Justice of the Peace Jacob Suihkonen of that village, stating that he felt he did not have authority to dispose of them properly.

According to the letter, Jack and Andrew have been "cutting up" of late, but the last straw was added yesterday when the pair, worse for wear, put a neighbor's stove out of commission while the mercury was doing stunts.

When the constable tried to have the men arraigned in municipal court this morning, Chief Troyer called County Attorney W. E. Greene into consultation and it was ruled that Justice Suihkonen had full and complete power and that he should be required to use it.

Unless this ruling is changed, the constable will return to Embarrass this afternoon and the village court will convene tomorrow.

FORESEES BANNER YEAR FOR DULUTH

David Anderson, Veteran Traveling Man, Looks for Unprecedented Prosperity for This City and Entire Northwest During Current Twelve Months.

"Business in Duluth is opening up better this year than during any January in the last fifteen years. I never saw the outlook brighter or conditions in a more healthy state. Prosperity is certainly due to strike this city as never before, and this year will undoubtedly be one long to be remembered."

This optimistic statement was made at the Spalding hotel last night by David Anderson of Chicago, who is one of the best known traveling salesmen who visits the Head of the Lakes. Mr. Anderson has been on the road for nearly thirty years, and has made semi-annual visits to Duluth for sixteen years. He represents a linen house.

Mr. Anderson says that the merchants of this city are enthusiastic over prospects for the coming year and that conditions over the Northwest, wherever he has gone, are excellent.

The visits of Mr. Anderson to the Spalding have become somewhat of a feature event because of his regularity and long period of activity on the road. He noted last night with much interest the improvements and changes that have been made by Proprietor Reynolds at that hostelry.

NEW HIGH PRICES ARE SET IN WHEAT MARKETS

Grain Sells Up to Highest Figures Since Leiter Corner.

Flaxseed Breaks Sharply on Liquidation and Limited Support.

Duluth Board of Trade, Jan. 28.—The market was strong up to the close. May wheat closed 2⅜@2½c up, and July 1½@1¾c up. May durum closed 1¾c up, and July 1¾c up.

Oats closed ⅛c up at 56c for on the track; rye unchanged at $1.22; barley 5c up from 72 to 83c, and corn ⅛c up at 71⅝c.

At Winnipeg May oats closed 1⅛c up at 67⅛c asked and July 1c up at 68c asked.

Puts on Minneapolis May wheat closed at $1.41⅜, and calls at $1.47⅜.

New high prices on this crop, and the highest since the Leiter corner of 1898, were set in the wheat market today. At Chicago, May fell wheat sold above the $1.50 mark, and predictions are now made that spring wheat will follow suit here in a few days. Urgent export demand was the factor, there appearing to be no limit to the call of exporters.

An influence in the uplift on the local market was the reported purchase by the Barnes-Ames company through another Duluth house of a round lot of Manitoba for export. From that transaction it is presumed that foreigners will soon be after wheat from the American Northwest. Chicago reported further export sales, including a cargo for the Dutch government yesterday afternoon and thirty loads of Manitoba sold overnight.

A significant item of news out during the morning was conveyed in a dispatch from Wetonka, S. D., to the effect that elevator men there are asking 10c over May for their holdings, and that the farmers are practically sold out.

According to the official statement, stocks of all grains afloat at Buffalo as on Jan. 26, aggregated 12,465,345 bu, distributed between forty-three steamers wintering there. Of that 9,084,964 bu was wheat, 1,135,305 bu oats, 637,100 bu barley, and 1,547,976 bu flaxseed. It was intimated that with the exception of a small tonnage, all of the fall wheat either in the elevators or afloat down there is controlled by two Duluth houses.

American primary receipts showed a further falling off today to 569,000 bu. Clearances were also lighter, amounting to 684,000 bu, compared with an average of about 1,000,000 bu daily at which it had been running for some time back. The falling off was attributed to the increasing scarceness of available ocean vessel space.

May wheat opened ⅜c up at $1.43½, and it advanced 2¼c more up to the noon hour. July sold up 2@2⅛c to $1.44.

Durum again bulged sharply on renewed buying on export account. May durum opened ¾c up at $1.55, and gained 1c more.

Flax Turns Weak.

Flaxseed was a nervous proposition market-wise today. Strength was shown at the outset and then on the appearance of some offerings with crushers apparently sitting back, the market broke 3c. Buying by oil men came in on the low spots and a partial recovery was made. The close was weak and at slightly better than the low of the day.

May flax opened ¼c up at $1.93 and it closed 2½c off at $1.90¼ asked.

At Winnipeg, May flax closed at $1.68½ asked. July closed at $1.73 asked.

A Chicago wire received by C. E. Lewis & Co., said: "The legitimate position of oats is bullish but the advances in wheat and corn seem to be sentimental and largely due to the feeling of the country producers and owners of grain. Of late it has been correct to advise purchases of May wheat only on breaks, but now it seems best to say to keep out and avoid purchases of wheat on breaks because the momentum upwards has been so great that any consideration potent enough to cause a setback will be of great importance and likely to be of a permanent character."

Broomhall cabled from Liverpool.—"The sharp rise in America yesterday and firmness in Winnipeg, caused light offers here and the undertone was very firm. American winter and Manitobas were both held at 6 pence advance and in some cases this advance was paid. Spot market was strong, 1@2½d higher with millers showing more interest and consumption liberal. Port stocks have shown over a million bu decrease for the month and interior holders are firm.

Paine Commission company had the following from Logan & Bryan at Chicago: "Prices in all markets have had a strong advance. Short interest is largely eliminated and this increases the possibility of a sharp reaction in quotations at any time, either as a result of profit taking or some bearish news. CHICAGO MARKET.

Commission House Buying Lifts Price of May Wheat to $1.50.

Chicago, Jan. 28.—General commission house buying lifted the wheat market quickly today to $1.50 a bushel, May delivery. Selling was not liberal until that price was reached. Then the market became less one-sided. There were many resting orders to buy May wheat at $1.49½, with July in even greater demand. Advancing prices at Liverpool, war developments near the Suez canal and the continued tension between Italy and Turkey were chiefly what gave impetus to the upward swing of the market. After opening ⅜@⅝c to 1½@1⅝c higher, prices reacted a little, but soon showed a rally.

After a dip caused by profit-taking, the market rose higher than before. Rural offerings continued to be extremely small. The close was unsettled, but ⅜@¾c to 1⅜@1½c above last night.

Corn ascended with wheat. Profit-taking by longs, however, speedily wiped out all the gains. The opening, which varied from ¼c to ½@⅝c higher was followed by a setback to slightly below last night's level.

Subsequently the market showed fresh strength when wheat took a new upward jump. Signs pointed to a general lessening of corn receipts at the large terminals. The close was steady at ½c to ⅝@¾c net advance.

In the oats crowd denials that the Canadian import duty would be removed led to some selling. The market though was governed mainly by the action of corn.

Provisions developed firmness. The grain bulge and an upturn in the hog market both received attention.

COPPER SALES ARE REPORTED HEAVY

Large Trade in Metal Leads to Bulges in Mining Stocks.

Further large sales of electrolytic copper at 14⅝@14¾ cents a pound led to a strong market in mining stocks at Boston today.

A good investment buying materialized and a big day's trading was recorded. Butte & Superior was a feature, selling up $1 to a close of $45; Alaska Gold closed 50 cents up at $28; Copper Range 50 cents up at $52.50; Granby unchanged at $62; Greene-Cananea 50 cents up at $24; North Butte a fraction up at $22.50, and Shattuck $1 up at $23.50. At New York Amalgamated Copper closed 62 cents up at $54.87 and Anaconda 50 cents up at $26.87.

* * *

At St. Louis spelter closed strong at 7.25 cents and lead at 3.60 cents.

* * *

Paine, Webber & Co. had the following from New York: "There seems to be a difference of opinion in the copper trade over future copper prices. There are producers who hold that the metal will go higher, while others believe it is high enough. The latter regard 14½ cents as a satisfactory price for copper as long as production continues below normal capacity. That advance in price in the last two or three months was due to curtailment there is no question. Demand increased but expansion in consumption would not have been large enough in a normal market to move copper up 3 cents a pound. The copper mines of the country are now beginning to increase their output. It will be some time before this new copper reaches the refineries and the market will then be given a good test."

* * *

FLAXSEED IS TREACHEROUS

Holds Steady at Present But Crash Expected at Any Time.

The flax market has assumed what is regarded as a treacherous attitude for anybody who tries dabbling in it just now. It was nearly 4 cents higher yesterday than it was at the close a week ago yesterday, and Tuesday was ½ cent still better off, but dealers are hesitating about taking a try at it. Trades are few and small, crushers buying only in small lots and not all of them at that. The only reason that the market remains as steady as it does is that the offerings are also small, so that there is not crushing weight to shove the seed under.

One of the leading flax authorities on the board, but who will not allow his name to be used, declares that the crushers have their full quota of the seed and that as a matter of fact, although some of them still dabble in the market a little they are to all intents and purposes out of it. He declares that they have plenty of oil on hand and all the seed they want for the present. He also asserts that arrangements are being made for quite a liberal transportation of Argentine seed to this country, there being a greater supply of bottoms offering for carrying the flax here than formerly and that the freight rate is, accordingly, reduced.

In that case, of course, a crash is due in domestic prices, and in fact, it is claimed, that the present nervous condition of the market is indicative of the closeness of such a tumble. It will also be noticed that while receipts continue on an even level, being fairly heavy, even though not so heavy as last year in domestic, and much heavier in bonded, that there is a total absence of shipments. This has been the case for several weeks, and flax is piling up in the elevators at a rate, under the circumstances which bodes no good for the holders of the seed. There are no shorts to make demands for it, and those that hold it are at liberty to do so for all anybody else cares.

LOSSES ARE RECOVERED

Outside of Steel, Active Stocks Rise After Realizing Sales.

Prices Harden in Late Trading and Closing Is Firm.

New York, Jan. 28.—United States Steel shares were again the center of interest in today's stock market. Steel common declined at the opening to 43, its new minimum, a fall of 5 points from yesterday's quotation, on offerings of 1,900 shares. This was followed by another lot of 500 and several 100-share lots at 43. The preferred stock again sold off to within a fraction of its minimum. Other active stocks, including Pacifics, St. Paul and Reading, were lower; but the list made general recovery after the absorption of initial offerings. The London market showed numerous advances for Americans, but refusal of the London exchange to reduce the minimum price on steel caused the automatic withdrawal of that stock abroad.

A tendency to break away from the industrial list was the feature of the morning session in the stock market. Gains of a point from yesterday's final figures were made by many active railway shares. Coppers and Smelting rose a point, while Mexican Petroleum added 3½ points to its recent changes. Steel common, which supplied about 20 per cent of the first hour's active business, rose ⅜ above its minimum, but was freely offered on the advance and fell back.

Bonds firm.

Active stocks went higher after realizing sales had been absorbed. Reading was feverish, however, large offerings meeting every rise. Petroleum shares were distinctly strong, with an increase of speculation in various low priced issues.

Prices hardened in the late trading, the only exceptions being Missouri Pacific issues, the convertible bonds declining 4 points. The closing was firm.

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION BECOMES THIRD MAJOR

Chicago, Jan. 28.—The American association has won its fight for recognition as the third major league in organized baseball, President Chivington said today. The national commission finally has acceded to the desires of the "double A" organization and has granted it territory in cities now occupied by the National or American leagues, and a large number of players.

Arrangements for the elevation of the association will be made in a short time, according to Chivington. First news of the plan came in the form of statement from James C. McGill, the Indianapolis club president who announced that the draft had been lifted so far as the association was concerned.

Secrecy surrounds the details and while Chivington admitted that the move was revolutionary he declined to say what cities would be included and which of those now in the circuit would be left out. Whether or not an eastern town would be taken in, he would not say.

The change involves alterations in the National agreement as well as other details regarding the draft as between the association and other circuits in its class.

"We have been trying for years to get these concessions from the National commission," said President Chivington. "Recently we made strong overtures which were discussed at various times, with the result that the major leagues will regard us as equals—eliminating the draft, granting us territory and conceding us the right to purchase players.

"Discussion of the details of the arrangement by which the association becomes a major league would be premature. There are many small matters which must be adjusted before definite announcement concerning the makeup of the league can be made. I do not know how far our new rights will extend.

"There will be more than thirty players, now in the National and American leagues, distributed among our teams by the time the season opens."

There will be a meeting of association club owners in Chicago within a short time, but until the makeup of the league is settled no attempt will be made to get up a schedule.

SUPERIOR BODY FOUND IN CAR OF LUMBER

The body of an unidentified man was found in a box car loaded with lumber by Frank Russ, foreman of the repair shops of the Great Northern railroad at Superior yesterday afternoon. The car arrived in the city yesterday with the shipment of lumber from Haybrook Spur, Wash. Coroner Downs, who was called to view the body, is of the opinion that the man was assaulted and robbed, and later thrown into the car by the bandits.

On a scrap of paper found was a piece containing the inscription "Day Curric," then a line which could not be deciphered and following it, "1154 P.Av.-B.Nor." The coroner is getting in communication with authorities in Haybrook Spur, to try to ascertain if possible whether the man is from that place.

TWO ARE INJURED IN A COLLISION.

C. H. Johnson and Louis Hanson, both of Superior, were injured in a rear-end collision near Way, twelve miles from Superior on the Soo line at 9:30 o'clock today. Their injuries were not very serious. The men were riding in a passenger coach attached to the accommodation freight train, when another time freight, which is said not to have been properly flagged, ran into the rear end. The car and locomotive were damaged.

LIFE DRAMA NOT LACKING IN ACTION

West Duluth Girl, Only Twenty Years of Age, Has Had Picturesque Career.

Life's drama has been but a cycle of strange realisms for Pauline Treado, 20-year-old wife of Clifford, J. Treado, a well-known West Duluth girl.

Four years ago all West Duluth knew her as Miss Dudie Delbern. In a popularity contest she captured first honors and was crowned "queen of the carnival." When she rode the big chariot at the head of a parade which featured a Fourth of July celebration at West Duluth in 1911, attended by her maids of honor, she was as happy as a 16-year-old girl could hope to be.

Two years later found her a wife and a mother facing a serious situation. Impulsive by nature, she had tried to imitate the heroine of a newspaper story, telling how a young Chicago woman had successfully forged and passed a number of checks and how she had completely baffled the police. She attempted, but failed. Caught in the meshes of the law, she repented and pleaded guilty in district court to a charge of attempted forgery. Judge Cant paroled her.

Today finds the young woman a defendant in a divorce action which has been filed in district court by her husband, who charges her with cruelty and infidelity. He is 22 years old. They were married at Superior April 8, 1913, and are parents of one child, Gerald, aged 18 months, of whom the father is seeking custody.

The forgery incident was the first to mar their married life. Treado alleges that it cost him $150 to settle for forged paper which she had issued and that in spite of this fact he was obliged to listen to coarse and abusive language from her, and that he bore it with Christian tolerance.

According to Treado, his wife is possessed of a violent temper and an ugly disposition. She flew into a rage in January, 1914, and stabbed him with a hatpin in his side, his injury being so severe that he was obliged to consult a physician.

Treado alleges that he was able to endure her alleged acts of cruelty, but he drew the line when he discovered that she was unfaithful to him, he declares. In October, 1913, he alleges, he found her in a compromising position with one Joseph Pocett, in the Woodruff building, West Duluth. When he asked her about it, he alleges that she told him that "it was none of his d——n business."

Treado claims that she has been in the habit of making engagements and passing evenings with other men and claims to be tired of the arrangement.

NO TIME TO DON CLOTHES

Members of Buckheim Family Flee From Burning Residence.

Protected Only By Night Clothes With Mercury at Lowest Mark.

The family of William Buckheim, 4726 West Sixth street, narrowly missed being burned to death in a fire which destroyed the home early this morning. When the members of the family awoke at 3:30 o'clock, flames were shooting up through the floor within two feet of the bed and only by fast work on the part of the parents were they able to save the lives of their two sons, age 9 and 11 years.

When the fire department arrived the house was enveloped in flames. The contents were entirely destroyed, and the building, valued at about $1,200, damaged to the extent of about $600. The house is owned by A. H. Donald.

The fire started in the basement, it is believed, from an overheated furnace. The fire was shooting up through the hot air flues of the floor when members of the family were awakened.

Dressed only in their night clothes, the four members of the family were forced out into the open, with the temperature at about 33 deg. below zero. This temperature was recorded by thermometers near the place, although the weather bureau showed but 28 below. The family was taken care of at the home of John Deutsch, 4722 West Sixth street.

Mr. Buckheim carried $1,000 insurance on the contents, all of which were lost.

AWARDED $3,575 FOR HER INJURIES

West Duluth Woman Will Collect Damages From City.

Mrs. Pauline Genereau of West Duluth will recover $3,575 from the city of Duluth for injuries which she sustained in a fall on an icy sidewalk at Fifteenth avenue west and Ramsey street, Feb. 24, 1914, if an award made by a jury in Judge Dancer's division of the district court this morning stands.

Mrs. Genereau sued the city and the West Duluth Land company, owner of the abutting property, for $6,855 damages for injuries, charging negligence in not keeping the sidewalk clear from ice. The case was dismissed as to the land company, the court holding that the property owner was not liable.

The jury took the case at 3:12 o'clock yesterday afternoon and agreed upon a verdict at 10:15 o'clock last evening. The court not being in session at the time, the verdict was sealed and delivered in court this morning, where it was opened and read.

John Jenswold, Jr., appeared in the case as attorney for the plaintiff and Harvey Clapp and William P. Harrison, city attorney and assistant, represented the city. Victor Stearns appeared for the land company.

A large turnout is expected at the meeting. Following the business session and the reading of the lecture a smoker has been planned.

GIVES TALK ON "HEREDITY"

Chicago Man Gives His Ideas of Knotty Problem.

Would Choose Middle Course in Acceptance of Theories.

That the middle course is best in choosing between the theories regarding heredity was the conclusion reached by Louis J. Hopkins, Chicago millionaire, formerly of Duluth, in a lecture before the men's club at the First Unitarian church last night.

After explaining the theory of heredity as advocated by Lamarck, which represents the influence of environment as producing structural changes in organism, which are inherited, and have never been accepted by the scientific world, the speaker went on to show that the essence of the Darwinian theory was natural selection or what Spencer has aptly termed "the survival of the fittest."

"Darwin held," he said, "that variation might to some degree be produced by environment, and to that extent he was following the mistaken idea of Lamarck in so far as he believed that variation was without known cause. His position is in accord with the best thought of the present day.

Causes of Variation.

"Following the work of Darwin, Wiseman made a thorough investigation of the causes of variation, and his conclusion was that there was no evidence that environment had no influence on variation in the process of selection, and while his theory has a great deal to recommend it, only a few at the present time are willing to accept it.

"About the time Darwin and Wallace discovered the law of natural selection, an Austrian monk, named Mendel, was at work on the problem of heredity. The result of his work remained unknown until the present century. Now they have become quite prominent as the 'Mendelian Law of Inheritance.' As an illustration of this law of Mendel, the characters representing tallness and dwarfness in the common pea, may be used. For example, if you isolate these two varieties and breed from them, the result is always two small peas and one dwarf pea. The only exception to this law is the natural variation, which is common to all forms of organic life. In this way Mendel's law seems to prove conclusively that environment is in no way a factor in modifying heredity.

Two Different Interpretations.

"The recognition of this law of Mendel and this theory of heredity has received two widely different interpretations as regards human society. One holds that there can be no great progress in the world without corresponding changes in the heredity of the race, and believing this such advocates hold that all theories of government and all action of individuals that have the least tendency contrary to the known laws of heredity are fraught with danger to our civilization. On the other hand certain writers like Lester Ward believe that the average man has never had an opportunity to develop the hereditary characters that are in him. They claim that if each and every man could be given such an environment as would call forth the best that is in him that our civilization would be developed indefinitely without any changes in the hereditary characters."

DECIDES AGAINST M. & R. RAILROAD

Judge McClenahan Decides Company Must Operate System.

Brainerd, Minn., Jan. 28.—(Special to The Herald.)—Judge McClenahan in district court overruled the demurrer of the Minneapolis & Rainy River railroad, operating in Itasca county, to the injunction proceedings started by the state railroad commission to prevent the railroad from stopping operating its road as a common carrier. The company will appeal to the supreme court. In a general way the state claimed that the railway company, before it can cease to operate and render service it has been rendering, must get permission from the state and railway warehouse commission.

In his ruling Judge McClenahan said: "I think the defendant (the railway company) is here without standing because of its failure to comply with the provisions of sections 4423 and 4424, G. S. 1913." These sections provide that no company operating a line of railway in the state shall abandon the same, or any portion of the same, when once opened and used for business, unless it first makes application to the state railway and warehouse commission in writing. Before passing on such application, the commission shall fix the time and place for hearing, shall ascertain the facts and make findings, and if satisfied the abandonment of the line or closing for traffic will not result to substantial injury to the public, they may allow same, otherwise it shall be denied, or if the facts warrant it, the application may be granted in a modified form.

Re-Engage Secretary.

Brainerd, Minn., Jan. 28.—(Special to The Herald.)—The chamber of commerce has re-engaged C. E. Hansing as secretary and will pay him a salary of $1,800 annually. If he increases the membership 100, he shall get $2,000 salary; if 200 additional memberships are added, he shall draw $2,200, and if the memberships are raised to 1,000, he shall be paid $2,400 annually.
